

Dark Ages 55

Chapter 55 - Qin Tiange's praise

“Brother Qin!”

“Brother Qin!”

Moda and others at the first sight, immediately respectfully came forward, one by one solemnly. Liu Ye and others, as well as Di Ba, the group of people who had stood on the opposite side of the fat guy looked at each other.

Qin Lairen was Qin Tiange, without a helmet, a smile on his face, and his hands were clapping rhythmically with a crackling sound.

He didn't expect that he could see such a good show in the middle of the night, let alone that Moda and others were so good at advocating, leading everyone, and destroying these people who wanted to deal with him.

I didn't expect it!

“Yes, Moda, you are very good!”

I stand in front of Moda, Qin Tiange applauds, and reaches out and pats the latter's shoulder. This is an appreciation from the heart, not hypocrisy.

He really appreciates the boy Moda at this moment. This kid is good and worth training. He originally intended to use these people and leave them alone, leaving the town directly, never thinking of taking them away.

Because leaving alone is much safer than leaving a group of people. Moreover, in Qin Tiange's eyes, this group of people is still cumbersome.

But now he suddenly changed his appearance, especially after this time, it made him realize that this group of people also has the merits.

“Brother Qin, I, I am good at advocating, please punish me!” Moda lowered her head, and was actually very disturbed because it was his idea.

In fact, Qin Tiange didn't intend to pay attention to these people at all, but he brought people to destroy this group of people, then it would be unreasonable to say that the good point is loyalty, and the uncomfortable point is that it is more prosaic.

“You did a good job, how do you punish?” Qin Tiange smiled, patted him on the shoulder, and comforted: “Not only is there no punishment, I also reward you.”

“However, clean up these corpses first and throw them away.”

As soon as his words fell, Moda took the lead immediately and led a group of people to lift the corpse, while the girl took a rag and began to wipe the blood on the ground to avoid some trouble.

Soon, the mess in Diba was cleaned up, everyone was there, standing neatly and quietly in the hall, watching Qin Tiange sitting on the sofa one by one, no one dared to speak.

Qiu Liuxuan didn't dare to speak. At this time, no one knew what Qin Tiange was thinking. He was looking at a bunch of explosives in his hand with surprise.

Yes, these explosives are left by the dead product of Myna. Qin Tiange could not help wondering, did this guy want to bomb the bank? Otherwise, what are you doing with so many explosives?

Moreover, Qin Tiange saw that this explosive was very powerful. It was TNT.

"Amazing, that guy, it seems to have some means." Qin Tiange had to admire, my brother did have some means.

He didn't know about a ton of explosives. If the fat guy jumped out and wanted to kill him with explosives, it is likely that these explosives were all sealed up.

I put all the explosives into the space bracelet, Qin Tiange was relieved. One ton of explosives, it's not good to put them here, and everybody has to fly to heaven once.

"Okay!" Clapping his hands, Qin Tiange raised his head and smiled to everyone: "Just now, your performance surprised me and was very satisfied, which changed my original thinking."

"Originally, I was thinking of using your five days to help me kill zombies, and then after five days you have nothing to do with me. To put it plainly is to use a relationship or hire a relationship." People think something is wrong.

Is used, it depends on whether you have value, and how much gain there is.

Qin Tiange said to use them, but at least people on both sides have benefited. Everyone was forced from the beginning and then willingly helped him to do things because there was gain.

"But now, I changed my mind." Qin Tiange finished, waved his hands gently, and a row of neat test tubes appeared immediately on the table in front.

This is a one-star quench body medicine, with more than 150 sticks, which corresponds to the current number of people, 158 people.

Qi Qin Tiange looked at everyone present and smiled: "You are doing well. This is my reward for you, one for each person."

"Thank Brother Qin!"

"Oh yeah!"

Moda's group of boys are excited, and the girls are even more excited, huddling one by one, almost screaming without excitement, after all, thinking that it is night, it will cause trouble.

Fortunately, these people calmed down quickly, one by one, and took their own reward, which is Qin Tiange's recognition of them this time.

"This group of people can be trained as a class ..." Qin Tiange looked at the excited students, as well as the fifty men and women in Nadi Bar who opposed fat men.

He secretly changed his mind. Since this life is reborn, why not start a higher career?

In the past life, there was nothing to do. This world may not be able to make great achievements. At least it must build a huge force. It is also good to be a hegemon.

He has this advantage, why not use it? Now, Qin Tiange figured it out. In this case, it would be better to be bigger and ruthless.

Moda is good, junior high school students, easy to shape, and after this time, it can be seen that this group of people at least eight levels can be safely cultivated.

“Your name is Kiki? You are fine!”

At this time, Qin Tiange came to a group of girls who were the women who had stood up directly before to ignite explosives.

I watched Qin Tiange come up, these women were all excited, but soon they were fainted, and they all bowed their heads a little embarrassed.

They think of the filth on their bodies, sadness and resentment in their hearts, and that twisted heart makes them likely to embark on a crazy path in the future.

Xu Xingxu saw their thoughts, and Qin Tiange patted her shoulders, encouraging: “You are doing well, you have to be like this, be brave, be hard, then no one dares to bully you.”

He said, he patted the girl’s shoulder named Qiqi, and then took out the star-broken tang sword behind her and handed it directly to her hand.

“This is a reward for you, live well, and a better life is waiting for you in the future!” Qin Tiange said with a smile, and turned away without waiting for the other party’s reaction, leaving a back deeply imprinted on this girl Heart field.

This knife is a star-broken tang sword, a weapon he has been using. At this moment, Qin Tiange even gave this girl named Qiqi.

Everyone was stunned. The nineteen-year-old girl named Qi Qi who read at was also stunned. It never occurred to Qin Tiange that she would give her a sword. Weapons.

Envy, jealousy, these are the thoughts of the women at this moment, even a bunch of girls can’t help being jealous.

Why did you send her this broken bone knife? In fact, this Qiqi girl deserves him to do so, Qin Tiange gave her a broken bone sword, because he just looked outside just now, from beginning to end, was deeply affected by this girl named Qiqi Shocked.

Once upon a time, some people would ignite explosives and die with others in order to defend his life dignity and to sacrifice his life at his expense.

Shouldn’t this and girl be taken seriously? There is such a person who is willing to end up with the enemy for him, regardless of men and women, this is a talent anyone is willing to cultivate.

“Morda, this knife rewards you. I will lead you to live well in the future. I will not treat you badly.”

Qi Qin Tiange took out another one-star sword, the blade was wide and sharp, and it was a one-star sword, given to the equally loyal boy of Moda.

At this moment, everyone is more envious and jealous, and they can't wait to have such a sword in their hearts.

“Everyone can rest assured that I still have such a one-star treasure here. Of course, there are not many of them. There are only ten one-star weapons and ten sets of one-star armor. Whoever wants it depends on his performance. Ge suddenly said these words, which aroused the excitement of everyone present.

There are still treasures, but if you want to get them, you must see their respective performances. Good performances, such as Moda and the Kiki, have naturally been rewarded.

Did you watch? Even Liu Yan and Long Xiaoya didn't have two beautiful teachers. The envy of the two people naturally hoped that they would also have a share. They are beautiful and sexy, but they are not there for the time being.
