

Dark Ages 56

Chapter 56 - The banyan tree has become fine

In the early morning of the next day, a large group of people walked up to the Diba on the second floor of the market.

Qin was led by Qin Tiange. Moda and Qiqi stood beside him one by one. The expressions on the two faces were different, but they also showed excitement.

Moda was carrying a huge one-meter-long machete, full of excitement, and did not sleep overnight last night, holding the one-star sword and smirking all night.

As for the girl Qiqi, holding the broken bone tang knife, the whole person's spirit was rejuvenated, as if she had been changed overnight, she was full of energy and full of vitality.

This is a change in her heart, which makes many girls and women envy, especially Liu Ye's heart is a little appetizing, unhappy, even if she has not noticed her emotional changes, but Long Xiaoya aside Seeing something wrong with her at this time.

"Well, do you like him?" Long Xiaoya suddenly asked this sentence in her ear.

This remark seemed like a thunder exploded in Liu Yan's heart, shaking her, shaking her cheeks and raising two fascinating blushes.

"Blind!" Liu Ye carefully glanced at Qin Tiange in front of him, and then pinched Long Xiaoya's arm to tenderize the flesh, with a look of shame and indignation, warning viciously.

The latter knew in his heart, and whispered with a smile on his face: "Just say what you like, it's useless to hide in your heart, just be bold and have a chance."

He said that Liu Ye's heart was agitated, and his face became redder, and he couldn't wait to block Long Xiaoya's mouth.

At this time, Qin Tiange took the crowd with a total of 158 people out of the market. The corpse lost here last night was completely gone, leaving only a little black blood.

"Brother Qin, where am I going?" On the side, Moda asked this question.

Qi Qiqi was curious, looking at him, no one in his eyes except him. At this moment, the girl has only one figure in her heart, and that is the mysterious young man. In the future, she will only live for him.

She feels that she is not worthy of such a good person as Qin Tiange, but she can give him everything, just like the crazy scene last night, to ignite explosives with his enemies.

Everything is because this mysterious man rescued him from the sea of suffering, gave her a new life, and gave her strength to survive!

Qin Tiange didn't say a word. He stood here, looking at the direction of the square of the town, where a towering tree stood, and it was a banyan tree.

This banyan tree has an ancient history and is rumored to be a century old. It is a treasure in the town. Following his gaze, Moda and others flashed a question in his mind. What's so good about Banyan?

“Tian Ge, is there a problem with the banyan tree? Can the banyan tree be refined?”

Qiu Liuxuan came up and said something with a question, but did not want Qin Tiange to turn his head in surprise, staring at her with straight eyes, making her already flushed face a little redder.

Qin Tiange glanced at her for a few moments, and suddenly he smiled: “You guessed very well, the banyan tree is really fine.”

“what?”

I heard him say this, and Moda's face changed greatly, and was shocked by the words. Qin Tiange said, is that hundred-year-old banyan tree really refined?

It's very possible, because after the advent of the end, countless original biological insects have mutated, and it is difficult to protect those trees from mutating.

Look at it. The banyan tree, which was more than 20 meters high, turned out to be a towering tree close to 100 meters high, which is incredible.

I said that the banyan tree is really refined, and they faintly believe that this is true.

“Really, really refined?” Liu Yan was stupid, originally a joke, never wanted to be hit by her.

Trees become fine? How can I listen to it for a while, it feels like dreaming, or I feel they have entered a very mysterious world.

Is this still the real world?

“Let's go, let's get rid of this fine banyan tree.” Qin Tiange's mouth slightly tilted, and he took the lead toward the town square.

On the road, a large number of zombies were swaying, and Qin Tiange and others immediately rushed in, but unfortunately, in the face of the current people, they were killed without any resistance.

The small town is not large. After crossing two streets, they came to the only square in the town. After coming here, everyone was surprised to find that there was not even a zombie in the square and nearby, and the huge square that was thousands of meters away was empty.

In the center of the square, there is a huge banyan tree, one hundred meters high, with a lush canopy covering a range of three hundred meters, which is simply a terrifying tree.

The most horrible thing is that on the trunk of the banyan tree, huge tree whiskers are hung, entangled one by one, and intertwined with each other to form a dense net. There are still some white skeletons hanging on it. It looks scalp.

On the ground, there are potholes everywhere, and the roots of the banyan tree are thick and thick, like a python coiled and tangled. The gray-black root system gives a sense of horror.

Murmur!

Moda and others secretly swallowed a spit and got cold in their hearts. If you do n't know, it 's okay, but you know that the banyan tree in front of you is fine, and you will feel cool in your heart.

They thought that before playing under this banyan tree every day, and even climbing up this banyan tree to dig out eggs, the scene was somewhat out of harmony.

“Tiange, is it really refined?” Liu Ye still couldn't believe it and asked.

She has come here for entertainment many times, but now when she hears the banyan tree, she is fine, and her heart is a little hairy and unreliable.

Qi Qin Tiange looked dignified, and did not answer her question, but stared at the huge banyan tree in front of him, a hundred-year-old banyan tree.

He is very clear that in the last life, at the moment when the last days came, trees that were hundreds of years old are definitely the most susceptible plants to change has produced terrible changes like ghosts and monsters.

This banyan tree has a hundred years of history, and now it has become more robust and tall. Although it looks nothing, and can't see any abnormality, the moment he sees this banyan tree, he is certain that it is fine.

“Don't believe it? Then I will let you take a closer look. The horror of the banyan tree in front of you will let you know the horror of the banyan tree.”

He instructed Moda to come and explain: “Take a dozen people to catch two zombies, be careful.”

“Just rest assured, brother Qin, to guarantee the completion of the task!”

Moda immediately promised that he took eighteen boys away and left them with a group of people, staring at the banyan tree in horror, wondering if a tree would become fine?

Soon, Moda returned, carrying two zombies, tied tight, and carried back.

“Five hundred meters away from the banyan tree, throw the zombies over the banyan tree!” Watching them return with two zombies, Qin Tiange first looked at the ground under his feet before letting them throw the zombies under the banyan tree over there .

A few Moda men came forward with two zombies and stopped at the 500m range of the banyan tree crown. Mali threw the two bundled zombies in, throwing them back for a few dozen meters.

“Look ...” Suddenly, Qin Tiange pointed forward, and said solemnly.

Everyone was shocked and looked at each other intently. Looking up, they saw a scene they would never forget.

Boom!

As the two zombies struggled, huge fluctuations suddenly occurred on the ground, the soil rolled, and then the concrete floor cracked, revealing a huge gray-black root system underground, dancing wildly to the two zombies.
