

THE DARK AGES

Chapter 6 - 1 star, 10 times the constitution

In the hallway of the dormitory building, a little white rice grains are scattered, extending all the way, as if someone intentionally did it.

Needless to say, it must have been done by Chen Xi, a former emperor-level powerhouse. Looking at the scattered rice grains on the ground, Qin Tiange twitched his lips, and secretly felt distressed.

In the fifteen years of the previous life, he rarely ate a fragrant rice, which was a luxury product, and only such great things were found in the power.

Barley, a staple food for humans, is hard to see after the last days. Even if you plant it, you will soon be destroyed by some mutant beasts unless you are sent to guard it.

“This woman is really uneasy!” Angrily, Qin Tiange quickened his steps, and quickly caught up with the knife along the rice grains scattered on the ground.

Soon, he stopped in front of the aisle on the second floor and stared at the end of the aisle. There were four zombies swaying there. One of them was smelling something in front of a dormitory door from time to time.

Carefully looked over, Qin Tiange secretly estimated that he quickly made a battle plan, and quietly walked past the corner of the aisle.

His footsteps are very light, and the force of each landing is controlled very precisely. This is the sharpened ability of fifteen years of * fighting career in the last days.

Zombies have no eyesight. They will only recover vision unless they have evolved to more than five stars. Now they rely on the more acute sense of smell and hearing to determine the location of the biological attack.

Gradually, Qin Tiange approached the nearest zombie, only one meter away, and the other side was still turning his head blankly, his nose was shaking, and he smelled the smell.

Roar!

Suddenly, the zombie smelled Qin Tiange's scent, and the living creature immediately rushed in this direction, and his dancing claws were about to wave.

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange didn't give it this chance. He had only one and a half meters of zombies, was very small, and was so close. He just cut off the other person's head with just one stroke.

When the three zombies over there heard the movement, they immediately turned around and rushed together, because they smelled the flesh and blood of Qin Tiange.

Buzz!

Wrist trembled, a slight buzzing sound from the steel knife, Qin Tiange calmly and decisively, raised the knife in three steps and two steps, and slanted it diagonally at the soft part of a zombie's neck.

With a click, his head moved, and black blood sprayed to the ground.

Immediately afterwards, Qin Tiange turned around, squatted down to avoid a zombie's paw, and suddenly raised his knife and pinched at the zombie's neck.

The piercing steel knife pierced into the jaw, penetrated the brain, and was shot on the spot. At this time, the last zombie had already rushed to the front, and his two claws waved down and grasped it, approaching the door.

At the head of the crisis, Qin Tiange was very calm, and his body was not lifted forty degrees at a glance, and then kicked back and kicked at the zombie's chin, knocking it back two steps.

I took advantage of this opportunity, after Qin Tiange turned over and landed, he held the knife in both hands, accelerated in three steps, and when the head of the zombies recovered, he stabbed into the opponent's mouth with a knife, and pierced a pair.

Twenty four zombies were killed. From the beginning to the end, it only took less than ten seconds. This is Qin Tiange's powerful fighting instinct.

The fifteen years of life-and-death fighting in the last days sharpened his powerful killing skills, but his body was too bad now, and he was breathless in a few clicks.

"what..."

I didn't wait for him to breathe a sigh of relief, a scream came suddenly from the door of a dormitory next to him, and that harsh decibel made Qin Tiange frown slightly.

That's Chen Xi's voice. It's too late to think about it, or to scold this stupid woman. Qin Tiange strides forward and kicks the door open.

I saw a bang, the dormitory door was opened, and there were six iron beds in the left corner. Chen Xi was being pressed on the bed by a zombie wearing a school uniform.

If you do n't understand, they thought the two were playing with lilies, but how sharp Qin Tiange 's eyes were, he instantly captured the face of that female student, horrible, with a scar on her body, a zombie.

Click!

At the moment when the zombie transformed into a schoolgirl was about to bite Chen Xi's neck, she suddenly stretched out a hand to clasp the zombie's neck and pulled back fiercely.

Qi Qin Tiange looked cold, clasped the zombie's neck, pulled it back hard, and then pressed it on a bed iron frame severely, only to hear a loud muffled sound.

flutter!

Taking advantage of this opportunity, he raised his steel knife in his right hand at the same time, pierced the head of the zombie accurately, and killed the small zombie.

At this moment, Chen Xi was still in shock, looking at the zombie that had been killed, with strong disbelief, and more fear and fear.

女 This female student was a female junior high school student who was chased and killed by zombies, but she was kindly rescued, but she didn't know that the other party was scratched, so it didn't take long for the other party to become a zombies after hiding in the dormitory.

"I don't know if I live or die!"

I looked at Chen Xi, who was not keeping my soul, and Qin Tiange gave a cold snorting tone, but the other side was very depressed and flustered at the moment. He didn't care about these words.

Wu Chenxi was really terrified at this moment. I did not expect to have encountered such a terrible thing just after escaping from the kidnappers.

“You know, you must know what happened, right?”

Suddenly, Chen Xi blinked his eyes and suddenly looked up, staring directly at Qin Tiange in front of him, a young man full of mystery.

一定 He must know, otherwise, what he did along the way was as if prepared to deal with this sudden doomsday disaster.

“I do know, but why should I tell you?” Qin Tiange did not deny, because denial is useless.

Anyone with a bright eye can see and understand that as long as Chen Xi is not a fool, he will definitely be able to see something abnormal from everything he has done. The things he prepares and does are for the end of the world.

Wu Chenxi’s eyes were bright. Two steps forward, he was trying to grasp Qin Tiange’s hands, but he stopped, because his body was covered with black blood and meat crumbs, with a foul smell.

“do not bother me!”

Qin Tiange interrupted her to continue asking questions, dug out five brain crystals to find a clean dormitory, took out the two one-star quenched body fluids and a lot of brain crystals just exchanged.

“What is this?” Chen Xi walked in to see this scene, looking at the small pile of crystals on the bed in surprise, dark gray, shining with mysterious luster.

Especially two of the dark red liquids, that kind of thing is what Qin Tiange most cares about, but he next strengthens himself and improves his strength.

Qi Qin Tiange didn’t say a word, ignored the former emperor-level powerhouse, and found a stainless steel rice bowl by himself, and poured two one-star quenched body fluids into it.

Next, Qin Tiange washed the zombies brain crystals one by one, and finally put them into a stainless steel bowl.

Murmur murmur ...

I saw, the zombie brain crystal entered the stainless steel rice bowl, and the dark red liquid in it immediately burst into a burst of gas, as if boiling himself.

The weird scene made Chen Xi stunned by the sidelines, completely unaware of what Qin Tiange was doing. Is it a chemical agent?

Soon, she knew what Qin Tiange was doing, and she saw that the brain crystals placed in the stainless steel rice bowl melted one by one and turned into a dark gray liquid.

Gradually, all brain crystals melted cleanly, and twenty brain crystals were fully incorporated into it, making the original dark red liquid deeper and redder.

“It’s done!” Qin Tiange was excited, looking at the reddish black liquid in the bowl, which is an enhanced version of the one-star quenching body fluid.

With two one-star quenching agents and a sufficient number of one-star brain crystals, the effect of the original quenching fluid can be enhanced.

The general one-star quenching body fluid effect can improve the physical fitness of an ordinary human by about two to three times, that is, the strength of three adult men, while the enhanced version has an even more amazing effect, reaching a full ten times.

“Tenfold enhancement, ten people, let me see if it is the same as the rumors.

Wu Qin Tiange didn’t hesitate, took the stainless steel rice bowl and raised his head, mumbling and drinking, and drunk it in a blink of an eye, leaving no drop left.

Enhanced version of the body fluid inlet, immediately turned into a mass of energy, one hot and one cold, red fiery, black ice cold, two completely different forces raging in the body.

There was a sound of skeletal vibration from Qin Kaka, Qin Tiange's body was trembling, his face turned red, and there were countless black paint on the body's pores, exuding a terrible stench.

That is the toxin in his body. It was squeezed out of the body by the enhanced version of Yixing Quenching Fluid, then strengthened the body and improved the physical quality, regardless of inside and outside, it was all crazy boosted.

At this time, inside the body, a trace of strange marks spread in the muscles. One, two, and three continued to increase. Qin Tiange knew that this was called a star mark, and one star mark doubled his physical fitness. The more you get, the more you get.

With the star marks imprinted in the muscles, then, the physical quality doubled, doubled, tripled, and ten times the physical fitness improved, so that Qin Tiange's whole body changed dramatically, his skin was fairer, and his figure was more majestic. The muscles are even and full of explosive power.

Huh!

Both feet trembled, two shallow footprints on the concrete floor were sunk, and the body soared tenfold in strength and physical fitness, which is not easily controlled by ordinary people.

However, the fifteen years of life and death fighting experience in the past and last years have brought unimaginable benefits to Qin Tiange. With just one breath, he has completely controlled ten times the strength of the body's soaring, and the power of ten people is completed.

“You, you ... you ...” Chen Xi was stunned, looking at the earth-shaking changes in front of Qin Tiange, couldn’t believe his eyes, and pointed at him for a while and couldn’t speak.
