

Dark Ages 60

Chapter 60 - Train to deep city

Alas ...

An array of cars whistled in the distance. Then, a train was coming slowly, about two kilometers from the town.

The train is not fast. It travels at a speed of forty kilometers per hour, but the arrival of the train shocked countless zombies and many mutants.

“Look, it’s the train!”

On the top of the second floor of the market, a group of people climbed up and looked away, just to see the slowly moving train, which was a passenger train.

Moda and others were excited. Looking at the train coming, everyone had an idea in mind, that is to get on the train.

“Where is this train heading?” Qin Tiange asked, although he was uplifted.

Although he did not see this train early in his previous life, but now he saw it, he naturally asked about it, and was also surprised. It is now five days after the end, and there is still a train coming?

Liu Yan, who was next to him, heard his question, and said excitedly, “Tian Ge, this is a train to Shenzhen City. Generally, it passes through this small town, and there is a small station over there.”

With her guidance, Qin Tiange really saw that a small train station was really built on the edge of the street in the town.

Seeing this, he immediately made a decision in his heart, that is to board the train and go to Shenzhen, this train came at the right time.

“Go, go to that little station.”

Simply decisively, Qin Tiange turned around and went downstairs to get out of the market. In the back, Moda and others followed suit one by one, looking a little excited, and finally left.

These people are gone, but there are still some people who are unwilling to leave. For example, some schoolmates have a home in a small town, and their loved ones have not died. They are hiding at home at this moment.

There are a few puppies who were originally my eighties, and some men and women who were imprisoned in the disco were unwilling to leave, although they did not participate in the fat guy’s plan to deal with Qin Tiange, but did not want to. Follow Qin Tiange to leave.

“They are gone, the town is ours.”

I watched Qin Tiange and others go. Several men’s faces were filled with excited smiles. The one who took the lead turned out to be a junior high school boy.

He was carrying an enchanting woman in one hand. The two women followed the starling and the fat guy, but neither of them ended well and they died.

As for why he didn't follow Qin Tiange's powerful and handsome young man, he actually didn't want to, as long as Qin Tiange killed my eighth brother, the two women took the initiative to come to the door, but unfortunately Qin Tiange couldn't care less about these dishes.

"That evil star has finally gone. After the town is our world, hurry up and copy the guys. We will go from house to house and search for all those who haven't died. The women will be separated, and the beautiful ones will be raised first."

This boy's ridiculous laugh, with a few people who did not leave, began to do well in the town and live a happy life.

As for Qin Tiange, let him die?

Alas ...

An eighteen-section passenger train drove into the town. At this time, many zombies heard the noise, swarmed directly onto the train track, and made a roaring roar at the passing train.

"Train conductor, there seems to be someone in front?"

At this time, on the train, beside the train captain, a beautiful flight attendant in professional clothes and **** figure pointed at the town station in front of her and said in surprise.

Beside him, the train captain looked up and looked closely, and really found that there was a large group of people rushing out of the zombies over the town station, hacking all the way.

The most amazing thing is that this man was wearing armor and holding steel shields and steel knives one by one. The middle group looked like women, holding steel crossbow in hand, and shot and killed a zombie who was only blocking the road.

At the back is the long-sought-after palace, and it looks weird looking at it, much like the army in ancient times. For a time, the train captain and the beautiful flight attendant stopped.

"They are really human?" The flight attendant was stunned, her mouth opened slightly, her eyes widened.

The middle-aged train captain also stunned, looking at the group of people wearing armor, slashing the zombies all the way, none of them could stop, and rushed to the railway.

At this time, the train was about to reach that station, and the distance was only about one kilometer.

"Train conductor, shall we stop for them to come up?"

At this time, the beautiful flight attendant began to ask questions, but when the middle-aged train captain was preparing to operate the train to slow down and stop, the door was opened.

"No parking!"

There was a loud roar, and then two burly men rushed in, their faces gazed, one of them holding a gun at the train's forehead.

“Sir, calm down. Someone in front must stop for them to come up.” The flight attendant hurriedly explained, trying to persuade the big-faced man.

As a result, with a slap, the flight attendant was paralyzed and his mouth was bleeding.

The big man yelled, “Shit girl, shut me up, and then dare to say that I’ll wait until you’ve stripped your clothes and made you.”

The beautiful flight attendant did not dare to speak, his face was aggrieved, and a glimmer of fear flashed in his eyes.

“Accelerate, rush over, dare to stop and crash you.” Dahan then pointed his gun at the captain and ordered him to rush forward.

The train’s face was exhausted, and with a helpless sigh, it shook its head and gritted its teeth to speed up, and the train rushed up at a faster speed.

This train was loaded with more than 2,500 passengers, but the disaster suddenly came five days ago. At that time, everyone on the train was screaming in horror. Some people turned into cannibals and everyone panicked.

“Brother Qin, the train is speeding up and it seems that we do not want us to go up.”

At this moment, Moda was slashing the zombies surrounding him, while looking at the slowly stopping train, a flash of anger flashed on his face.

In fact, Qin Tiange didn’t have any accidents. He expected that the other party would not stop, but he had strong eyesight. When he saw the train driver, one of the two big guys pointed his gun at the captain. It seemed that this big guy was in control. This train.

“Interesting!” Qin Tiange sneered at the corner of his mouth, and then yelled, “Hurry up, everyone cleans up the zombies next to them and prepare to climb the car.”

Suddenly, Moda waited for the sword shield to rise immediately. Liu Ye took a group of girls and shot a zombie with a steel crossbow. He wanted to subsidize the zombie that the defender had missed.

Qin Tiange was very calm. Facing more and more attracted zombies, he didn’t panic, and began to clear the surrounding zombies in an orderly way, until the train quickly passed by them.

“Get in, get in the car!”

The train sped across the station at an accelerated speed, and Qin Tiange immediately yelled to everyone to get on the train. His tone was extremely anxious and tense. Seeing more and more zombies came up, he had to be nervous.

Fortunately, Qin Tiange, these people are not ordinary people. They are physically frightening. As the train passed by, they hardly hesitated, one by one, grasping the handrails of the train and climbing up.

“Come on, hurry up!”

Qin Tiange's complexion suddenly changed, his voice was amplified, and he drank anxiously. Because he saw some bad things appear Outside the station, a huge black thing suddenly appeared in a garbage disposal plant.

Uh ...

"It's a mutant mouse. Everyone rushes up quickly." Qin Tiange's face was ugly, and he shouted at the people who didn't go up.

Actually, it goes without saying that everyone saw this scene, one by one, his face changed greatly, and he accelerated immediately, his body strove to grasp the handrail of the train door and opened the door.

At this time, a group of girls got on the bus first. Some people grabbed the train door's handrails, kicked the door open, one flashed into the compartment, and then pulled one quickly. Also climbed up, and finally left Moda and other boys ready to get in the car.

At this time, the train has begun to accelerate, and it will be too late to go up.

"Up!" Qin Tiange ordered, and the rest of the body jumped up all at once, and suddenly he grabbed the door of the tenth compartment with both hands, kicked his foot, and banged, the door was opened. Already.

He turned up smartly, very neatly, and soon, Moda and others behind them grabbed some of the compartments behind them, opened the door and rushed in, one by one.

When he got on the train, instead of letting out a sigh of relief, everyone became more nervous, because the train was packed with zombies.

Roar!

When I saw them coming up, the crowded zombies in the carriage immediately screamed in horror. The zombies who had been hungry in the carriage for several days were completely crazy, and Zhang Yawu's claws slew up.

"kill!"

In the tenth compartment, Qin Tiange saw a large group of zombies as soon as he got on the car. He suddenly yelled, a huge one-star wide-bladed knife slammed into his head, clicked, and the zombies that flew were divided into two on the spot half.
