

Dark Ages 631

Chapter 631 - Clone angels, make **** plans

After this war, Huaxia fell into calmness and was accumulating strength, but other continent plates fell into a huge mess.

In Europe, the three gods are united, but the situation is still not good, and they are losing ground. Fortunately, some strong men returning from the Pangu world joined them, blocking the invasion of alien races.

Africa, a place of chaos. There are large and small human forces here, but here is also a paradise for mutant creatures.

The number of mutant creatures here is huge, and it is simply an animal kingdom, where human survival is at stake.

South America, the Amazon Basin, has become a forbidden area, all kinds of monsters run rampant, it is completely a paradise for tree demon and elves, human beings are defeated by alien races, and have to join the tree demon and the elves to resist.

But North America is somewhat unexpected.

“Master, this is the case in North America, and the aliens have been killed.”

In Beijing, Jiji was introducing Qin Tiange’s situation on various continents, but found differences in North America.

I saw that the human power in North America turned out to be extremely powerful on the surveillance screen, and here, creatures were flying around.

“angel?”

Qin Tiange squinted his eyes and looked at the angels with wings behind them. They turned out to be angels, and the number was huge.

It was these angelic armies that defeated the alien invading races. Surprisingly, these angels were not born naturally, but thought to be clones.

Yes, clone angels!

“Master, these angelic creatures are the angel statues that the United States captured in several churches after the end of the day, and then studied cloning and control to become a huge angel army. It has now swept North America and became the second unified system after Asia. Continent. “I already pointed to the screen introduction above.

At present, the entire North America is controlled by the surviving forces in the post-apocalyptic United States, and not only clone angels, but also various cloned half-beast creatures, gene clone warriors.

In addition, the nanosatellite detected a dragon legion there, as well as a super gene warrior made by genetic fusion of various organisms.

Qin Tiange looked surprised, his eyes flickered, and looking at the situation in North America, he did not expect that the humans there had completed the unification.

“Yanji, how is our” God Creation Plan “progressing?” Qin Tiange didn’t care about North America, but asked him about this.

The god-making plan is to create a super-god gene warrior plan based on the perfect fusion of various biological genes. This is a plan that Qin Tiange and his self-confidence, and Li Jiajia of the biology department made secret discussions. No fourth person knew.

It is an artificial god, a super-terrorist artificial ***** warrior secretly created by the perfect fusion of various biological genes, cloning a super strong body, and using the system intelligence edited by myself as the consciousness.

These super ***** warriors are not many in number, but they are all arrogant and horrible. They are all in the secret research stage and have never appeared.

“Master, due to a problem with the energy core of my previous body explosion, which caused the previous calculation to be wrong, I have recalculated and formulated a new plan.”

“At present, a brand new Super God Warrior is being cultivated. Based on the genes of the Star Giant, the genes of other races collected from each other are fused with each other, eliminating the ancient memories in the genes, and forming a new and special Super God. Genes, cloned Super God warriors may be far more powerful than we expected. “

His own words were a bit dignified, and they seemed to have some kind of worry about these super ***** warriors.

She thought for a while and asked, “Master, the super ***** warrior with perfect fusion of genes of all races, the number should not be too much. Once the number is exceeded, it is not only dangerous, but also, I think that this will cause humanity to lose its sense of evolution and strengthening . “

Qin Tiange thought quietly. Why did n’t he think about it? When the clone warrior appeared and defeated one enemy after another, the human being would become dependent and inert, and he would be lazy, and he would not think about the forward thinking at all. .

It may even be thought that as long as human beings continue to clone warriors to fight for humanity, they can enjoy it at home with peace of mind, and clones of war are just fine.

If you think so, sooner or later, human beings will be destroyed, either by foreigners or by themselves.

“Super God warrior, tentatively set to 100,000, no more and no less, as a trump card, keep trying, even in the future to create a true true god.” Qin Tiange made a decision.

The god-making plan is to use technology to create god-like warriors, which is a kind of super killing machine.

Qin Tiange will not be silly not to use these things, many things are not public, do not mean not to try, such as the genes of various organisms, ancient creatures, alien creatures, etc., the genes of all races contain powerful potential .

He just wanted to make the most perfect and powerful Super God Warrior with the fusion of genes of various races, and then serve the people and serve him.

“Master, the artificial **** is theoretically feasible, and the cells of the artificial body can be implanted into the cells using ultra-nano technology to compress the small artificial energy core to supply the cells with energy.”

She began to talk about Peipei. She said: “At present, I have mastered this technology. This brand new body is the latest artificial energy core implanted in each cell, which is the artificial sun.”

Qin Tiange listened, his mouth twitched, and asked, “You have implanted an artificial sun into a cell. You have to implant billions of artificial suns. Are you sure that the cells can withstand such energy?”

“Master, look at me. There are exactly 30 million human-made suns implanted in the body. Next, more artificial suns will continue to be implanted until all cells are implanted with artificial suns as the core of energy, providing each cell with a powerful Energy, time, raising hands to pick the stars is no longer a dream. “Xi Ji said frantically and sacredly.

This crazy plan made Qin Tiange frightened so much that he could come up with such a crazy plan, but he also acted.

Billions of human cells, then billions of people will be implanted to make the sun. What kind of energy can a creature withstand?

If in the future, I have really succeeded, and technology is enough to create a core of energy that is truly comparable to the sun, and even a super energy core far beyond the sun. In that case, what would be the situation of billions of supernovas implanted in cells ?

Think chills when you think about it, but can cells withstand such high intensity energy? The physical body needed is extremely powerful, and each cell needs to withstand the powerful energy impact of the artificial sun.

“Master!” I said solemnly, “I have a brand new body, but with the immortal bones, immortality, and even the ancient genes of various creatures and alien races, it is 10,000 times higher than the temperature of the sun. The temperature is the most tenacious cell left over from burning and destruction. It is more powerful than super **** cells and can withstand the energy impact of the artificial sun. “

“According to my calculations, at present I can control the sum of the energy of 500,000 artificial suns at the same time. I have really entered the stellar star.

The energy of the explosion is equivalent to the energy of the main sequence star.” Talking excitedly dancing.

Looking at her excited look, she was not afraid whether the artificial sun implanted in her body would explode, which made Qin Tiange speechless.

“Beware of yourself, and you’ll be in trouble if you kill yourself.” Qin Tiange warned and said nothing more.

Auntie is his trump card, plus her plan to make gods, and once she finishes making super ***** warriors, then Qin Tiange has more horrible trump cards.

“Yanji, check how the artificial angel creatures in North America control?” Ye Qing was curious. How did the people over there control the artificial angels?

Heji smiled and said, “Master, they used virtual memory implantation technology to implant these artificial angels into loyalty, belief in someone or that power.”

After listening, Qin Tiange nodded, and looked away for the last time. He turned his attention to the other continent, that is, Antarctica.

“Master, there is a strong magnetic field activity in Antarctica. I can’t detect the specific situation. I want to come to some powerful unknown creatures there.” Xi Ji said carefully.

In addition, she also sent an unmanned reconnaissance. Just after entering Antarctica, she was completely frozen and destroyed by the powerful frost.

“Don’t worry about it for the time being. At present we need to accumulate strength. How is the construction of the Mars base battle city?” Qin Tiange asked this sentence again.

I have shown a picture, where the construction of the Mars base is already completed, the main body has been completed, and various weapons and facilities are being built.

“Yanji, is it possible to blow up this space-time wormhole?” Qin Tiange looked at the huge wormhole and suddenly asked this question.

Xi Ji said after contemplating, a quick calculation: “Master, this is feasible. As long as a sufficient amount of anti-matter bombs are exploded inside, this space-time wormhole can be completely destroyed.”

Qin Tiange held his chin in silent thinking, his eyes flickered continuously, and he shook his head, saying, “This is the best time for us to experience the human race. The alien invasion of the young generation, although there are huge risks, is not for our humans. A test. “

“Let all races of the aliens help us to grow quickly. Only when we grow up under the pouring of blood and fire can we survive in the cruel starry sky.”

Qin Tiange did not blow up the wormhole, but kept it to let foreigners come in, and the flesh and blood of the foreigners was irrigated and grown.

“Yanji, the news came out. Three days later, I was going to marry Chen Xi, and it was time to give her a name.”

Qin Tiange stood up and suddenly made this decision to marry Chen Xi. This was a complete determination of the relationship between the two and a clear message to the outside world. Chen Xi was his woman.

The news came out, and it suddenly detonated the whole of China and even Asia. Even many foreigners received the news. The fierce and powerful leader was about to get married. This is a big deal.

Chapter 632 - Leader's wedding, the lost

Leader wedding!

This news immediately detonated the entire Huaxia. Judging by Qin Tiange's current influence in China, it is simply unparalleled.

In exaggerated terms, Qin Tiange's orders can mobilize the entire Huaxia power and work together. This prestige makes foreigners extremely afraid of him.

“The leader is married!”

The news spread all over the country, and there was only one voice throughout Asia. With the news that Qin Tiange was about to get married, countless people were immediately busy.

No way, as the current highest leader, young and powerful, but never heard that he has a wife, many people originally thought about it, but now, the leader is about to get married.

Time, the whole of China is very lively, countless people are discussing this matter, all excited, curious, but some people feel lost.

“He, getting married?”

In the south of Beijing, above the tower, Dao Qing stood quietly and gracefully, looking at the direction of Shangjing, stunned.

She is Mu Xue, known as the Snow Woman, who is as cold as ice, but her heart is fiery.

“Xiao Xue, don't you really go?”

At this moment, the silhouette behind Snow Girl was the old General Mu Hua who retired, and saw that her granddaughter had been standing here for two days without touching, and was worried.

His face was bitter and bitter, so old that he couldn't understand the thoughts of his granddaughter, that he liked Qin Tiange.

Maybe from the beginning of the meeting, there was a kind of feelings, but Qin Tiange always avoided it as much as possible, and Snow Girl was also cold, no one knew her heart at all.

“Don't go.” Snow Woman replied indifferently, with a cold tone, revealing the cold from thousands of miles away.

The breath on her body became more and more cold, and the surrounding air was frozen, as if even the whole heart was made of ice sculptures, which made people dare not approach.

“Huh ...” Mu Hua sighed, shook his head and turned to leave. His back was a bit old, and his only wish was to find happiness for his granddaughter.

Whether it’s the end or not, the girl should have a home, but he is old and can’t care about young people, only sigh.

“Chen Guodong, you really make me jealous.” Mu Hua murmured as he walked, and immediately went to Shangjing to prepare gifts.

Leaders’ big wedding, naturally such a major event can not be without these old generals, even if they retreat will be invited to the past.

“The leader’s wedding is really to marry Chen Xi and Chen Guodong. I have to say, even I’m jealous of you. I wonder if Mu Hua is particularly depressed now?” Guangcheng, veteran Qi Shao shook his head with a bitter face .

In Beijing, guests gathered, and countless people who came from all directions brought their expectations and blessings, which was support for Qin Tiange, the leader.

At Huaxia University, on the campus, two people stood quietly by the small lake. No one spoke, and the atmosphere was strange.

These two are Long Xiaoya and Liu Yan who are directly engaged in education. They are already the dean and vice president of Huaxia College.

After a long silence, Long Xiaoya finally said with a bitter smile: “Well, don’t be sad, he doesn’t belong to us after all.”

She looked at Liu Yan’s face dull, eyes were dumb, and could not help feeling distressed. She looked at Liu Yan and laughed: “He is the leader, we are ugly ducklings, and we can’t become phoenixes. Look at me, you already recognize this, so you think about it long ago.”

“Well, marry someone who loves you too. After all, we are all women. Isn’t it nice that someone likes me now and loves someone?” Long Xiaoya persuasively advised.

She has been married not long ago, because it is clear that she and Qin Tiange are two people in the world after all, so she directly promised a person who pursued her for a full year.

Her fate is also considered to be satisfactory. The future husband and daughter are never a good thing. Qin Tiange has never treated these people who had followed him.

And when Long Xiaoya got married, he also specially sent a generous gift. At this point, he could grasp the hearts of his men.

“Well, think about it, I’m going back.” Long Xiaoya persuaded, then turned to leave.

She looked at Liu Yan who was still standing there, shaking her head and sighing, leaving with a trace of regret and sadness.

“Master, what should I do?”

Liu Ye suddenly murmured to herself, something strange happened, and on the lake in front of her, Taoist figure appeared quietly.

This man’s robe was simple and elegant, looking at Liu Yan who was in the sadness, he stroked his beard, shook his head and sighed.

He is the ten sages returned from the starry sky, Zhu Zi, and his real name is Zhu Xi.

“Fool, if you are affectionate, why should you hide it?” Zhu Zi said lightly.

He looked at Liu Yan and said gently: “If you can’t let go of your heart, then imitate the sages, give up little love, be loving, and become the great saint.”

“She Xiaoi, broad love?”

Liu Yan murmured to himself, with a sense of chaos pervading his body, all kinds of entanglement, persistence, affection and love, giving up his self-love, looking for great love, and educating all peoples. This is the magnificent and bosom love of the ancient ancestors .

Zhu Zizhen smiled and pointed out, a ray of holiness poured into Liu Yan’s eyebrow, and suddenly, her consciousness suddenly shook, as if she was awake.

“Thank you, Master, I see!”

Liu Yan said, bye-bye, turned and walked towards the assessment stone stele, passed directly through the light gate opened by the stele, and disappeared here.

Seeing her entering, Zhu Zi sighed slightly: “Actually, why not be a teacher trapped in love, after all, you can’t set foot on the path of sages of the sons.”

Said, Zhu Zi quietly turned around and disappeared here.

...

“Sister Xiaoqian, Brother Qin is getting married?”

Shangjing, above the suspended city, two figures stood in front of the city wall and looked at the base below.

Xun Xi was upset. She heard Qin Tiange’s news of a big marriage and woke up for an entire hour before waking up.

Like him, Long Xiaoqian was bitter and stood here silently all day, neither of them spoke.

“Brother ... Xianqian bless you ...” Long Xiaoqian muttered, turning suddenly, and said to Xi Xi: “Xi Xi, stay here well, I’ll go out to relax.”

She left, but Yun Xi hadn’t responded yet. When she responded, Long Xiaoqian was gone.

“Sister Xiaoqian, have you decided to go to that place?” Xi Xi looked complex, and faintly guessed Long Xiaoqian’s idea.

She wants to go back to Miao Village and enter the Jiuli Li restricted area, because Xiao Yiyi has called her back several times. There is her heritage and Xiao Yiyi’s chance.

But Long Xiaoqian didn't go back. This time, I suddenly heard the news of Qin Tiange's wedding. If the whole person was struck by lightning, his mood was up and down, and he thought of going back to Jiuli's forbidden area. This was an escape.

She is unwilling to face, and her persistent affection, the love for Qin Tiange has been deeply rooted in the bone marrow, chopped continuously, and can only escape.

“Sister Xiaoqian has somewhere to hide, then where is Xi Xi going?”

Xi Xi stared blankly into the distance, thinking that even Long Xiaoqian had avoided it, then how should she face it now.

Her heart, when Qin Tiange rescued her and comforted her, taught her how to treat and use the power of the genetic blood of awakening, has quietly imprinted his shadow.

However, she never thought that Qin Tiange would be the supreme leader of Huaxia, and now that he is about to get married, this makes Pan Xi very upset and sad, with a deep sense of loss and wants to be far away. Run away.

“East ... starry sky?”

Suddenly, Xun Xi thought of a person, or a half-demon, Dongli once said that she would take her away. At this moment, Xun Xi even had the urge to escape from the earth.

Just as she hesitated, as she struggled to leave the earth, away from the place where she panicked, a mysterious voice passed into her ears.

“Kunlun ...?” Xi Xi frowned, and frowned slightly, looking around, but no one was found, but who was the mysterious voice just now that she was going to Kunlun?

Xun Xi hesitated and turned to look at a place where Qin Tiange was setting up a grand wedding.

She had a complex complexion, sad, lost, helpless, and finally gritted her teeth, turned away and disappeared here, leaving Shangjing and heading to Kunlun.

“Married?”

The Ministry of Science and Technology, Department of Pharmacy, Du Jing, locked himself in the back room for two days and two nights after hearing the news, and then silently engaged in research as if forgotten.

...

In a mysterious area, the Taoist figure in a black robe quietly stepped on the pile of spooky and decaying ancient corpses.

“Brother Qin ...” This dark shadow muttered to herself, and she could hear from her voice that she was a wonderful young woman. Gradually, she took off her black robe and revealed it. The exquisitely cheeky face and short head of hair looked particularly British. However, those pupils were blood-red films, without white eyes, showing the evil intention.

She turned out to be Ling Sha!

“Brother Qin, bless you, Lingsha will silently eradicate and cut the enemy for you in the dark.”

Ling Sha murmured to herself, and immediately she put on her cape, her figure disappeared quietly, as if she had never appeared before.

Going to the capital, the leader’s house, men and women stood in the courtyard, silent.

“They’re all gone, don’t you stay?” For a long time, Chen Xi said gently, looking up at Qin Tiange, suddenly he couldn’t see him through.

Qin Tiange looked calm and passed Chen Xi lightly, and said, “Let’s go with them. I personally have a personal relationship, I have you.”

“Husband, I have no regrets with this sentence from you.” Chen Xi was touched in her heart, snuggling lightly into his arms, her eyes twinkling, but she didn’t know what she was thinking at the moment.

Chapter 633 - Gifts in the restricted area, irresistible anger

In the early morning of this day, the salutes of the Beijing capital went out, the fireworks exploded in the sky, and the whole Shanghai and even China were full of joy.

The leader got married and got married. This is a big thing.

When you went to Beijing, all parties gathered and the strong gathered. The strong came from all over China to come and attend the leader’s wedding and send their blessings.

Over the base, huge air warships are towing, patrolling and maintaining law and order. In the base, a team of bright and tidy armors is conscientiously on duty to maintain the safety of Shanghai.

Around the stage, masters from all sides have already gathered, and even the extremely strong Europeans who have just arrived in Huaxia have appeared and were invited to witness Qin Tiange’s wedding.

“Is the Chinese God Emperor getting married?”

The goddess Athena who came to China for help was looking at the arrogant atmosphere around her. She was so shocked that there were so many masters in China.

There are a lot of people who are stronger than her, and there are even those who are stronger than their ***** King Zeus. They are simply the kingdom of the East.

“It is indeed the gods of the east, powerful and mysterious.” King Arthur stood quietly not far away, looking at the masters of Huaxia around.

The messenger sent by Odin was also shocked. Looking at Huaxia masters like clouds, the strong gathered, it was a feast for the gods.

“I’m coming!”

“Look, the leader and the leader’s wife are out.”

At this moment, the crowd exclaimed, everyone looked at it in unison, and saw two figures quietly fall on the high platform.

The person who came was Qin Tiange, holding Chen Xi's little hand, and walked to the high platform. He was wearing a specially designed armor today and looked at the extraordinary martial arts.

And Chen Xi, wearing a brand new suit, hunting and hunting with a white jersey, with the support of the phoenix phoenix on her head, is beautiful.

"My fellow citizens, my guests, today is my day of great joy, thank you for your love and support, and thank you for your blessings."

"Here, my wife and I, thank you!"

Speaking, Qin Tiange and Chen Xi bowed slightly, expressing their gratitude to all fellow citizens and all who came to support and bless him.

Qin Tiange went on to say: "Today, our Huaxia clan celebrates and opens up the three-day cultivation illusion of stone tablets. All people who are Chinese, whether humans, demons, or alien creatures, can enter the three-day cultivation for free . "

Wow!

This said, there was an immediate uproar, and everyone was excited, and Qi Qi shouted with excitement.

"Long live the leader!"

"Long live the leader!"

The sound of shouts and the enthusiasm of the three major sacred ambassadors from Europe scared and looked at the cheering of countless people in Shanghai. The powerful momentum was unparalleled and shocked.

The cohesion of Huaxia is becoming more and more terrible, as if it is indestructible. Nothing and race can break this cohesion. This is the cohesion belonging to the Chinese nation.

"Congratulations to the leader, great wedding!"

At this moment, the golden light of the Tao came to the air, and then, the monkey wearing only the golden battle armor flew up and presented the gifts and blessings of the monkey tribe directly.

The Monkey King came to give gifts, and the first one came out to send gifts and blessings directly.

"Congratulations to the leader!"

"Congratulations to the leader!"

In time, the arrogant figure appeared, no matter whether it was human beings or the major monsters who joined Huaxia, they all sent blessings and gifts.

No way, at present Qin Tiange's prestige is not only in the Huaxia tribe, but in all ethnic groups. Whether you are a mutant creature, a demon, or an alien creature, you must join Huaxia, or you will be excluded.

The whole of China is not only the power of the human race, but also the power of an increasingly strong one.

Seeing that all the strong men had given their blessings, the messengers from Europe also sent their blessings.

"Olympus, the god, Athena, Artemis, congratulations to the Eastern Emperor and Madam Emperor on their wedding."

At this time, Athena and Artemis, the two gods from the Olympus deities in Europe, came forward directly and presented their gifts.

In fact, this was a meeting ceremony prepared when he came, but now that Qin Tiange was just married, he immediately stepped forward to present a gift and send a blessing.

"The two have an interest, but under correction, I am a human, not a god, and the Emperor of God should not be called anymore." Qin Tiange smiled his head and corrected the two Western deities of Athena and Artemis call.

Athena and Artemis froze after hearing this, but at this time King Arthur came up, dressed up, and met with courtesy and courtesy.

"Celtic, Arthur, congratulations to the Emperor on her wedding."

King Arthur directly called Qin Tiange the emperor. Since you say that he is not a god, then call you emperor. Is this not wrong?

Qin Tiange was weird and looked at King Arthur with a smile: "I never thought that as the **** king of the Celtic system, King Arthur actually came in person, disrespectful and disrespectful!"

"Divine envoy, Geoffrey, on behalf of King Odin and the gods, congratulations on the wedding ceremony of the King of the East, and send the highest respect to King Odin and the gods."

Geoffyn, the messenger of Odin, came out, sending gifts and blessings directly.

Ye Qing nodded slightly, and smiled: "The three gods have come a long way, and they are not entertained. Please forgive me."

"Dare!"

The gods of Athena, Artemis, King Arthur, and Geoffrey, representing the three European theology, saluted.

"Congratulations to the Emperor's wedding, and nine ginseng fruits!"

At this moment, a congratulation was uploaded from the sky, and then the space opened, and the peculiar spirit fruit flew out, exuding a strong fragrance.

That's ginseng fruit!

“Congratulations to the Emperor’s wedding, I am happy to present nine undead peaches, and be a gift!”

Before everyone could react, they saw a jade plate flying out of the sky with nine red peaches on it, which were undead peaches.

“Amitabha, the wedding of the Emperor, how can there be less monks?”

At this moment, the sound of the Buddha came, and the golden light spread, and then only Yupan Fei came forward.

“People, a few bodhi fruits, no respect.”

The voice of the empty spirit came, and the Buddha of Shakya sent a Buddha fruit bodhi that was no less than ginseng fruit and undead peach.

“Ginseng fruit, immortal peach, linden fruit?”

“Oh my god, those two guys just now, aren’t they the legendary Zhenyuan Daxian and Kunlun Yaochi?”

“Who is the third person, is it the Buddha?”

Seeing two special gifts appear, the guests were shocked at the time and looked at those two gifts, ginseng fruit and undead peach.

Qin Tiange caught it with a smile and said, “Thank you three for your generosity, and you will certainly come to the door to thank both of you in your free time.”

“good!”

If there were three responses, if there were none, then disappeared, making people have infinite reverie, watching Qin Tiange’s expression became more enthusiastic.

The three mysterious people just now may be the existence of a legend. They even came to congratulate and give gifts. Didn’t they say that they had a good relationship with Qin Tiange?

Click!

Just when everyone thought that the gifts of the strong were complete, the sky suddenly cracked a huge crack, and there was a strange and terrible breath in it.

The occurrence of this change immediately caught everyone’s attention. Many strong men were surprised and looked at the sudden crack with vigilance.

“Hahaha ... the Emperor is so overjoyed that he didn’t invite us to Huangquan corpse?”

There was a burst of laughter from the crack, and then there was such a sentence, revealing the heavy oppression, which made many people in this room look very different.

The visitor is not good!

Everyone heard the unpleasant smell, and that voice seemed to come with bad intentions.

“Since the day when the Emperor was overjoyed, we are not inviting you to send a generous gift from Huang Quan’s corpse to congratulate the Emperor on her wedding.”

In the crack in the void, the voice came again, and when the words were finished, a black jade box flew out, wrapped in a pale yellow smoke, and blasted towards Qin Tiange instantly.

Huh!

The black box came in. Qin Tiange reached out and gently caught the hole in the box. It did not contain silk fireworks, and lightly reduced the terrible power above.

He caught the black box, said nothing, then looked up, looking at the crack, his eyes twinkling with coldness.

“Person, don’t you open and see what the gift is?”

A crackless word came out of the crack, with a taunt of ridicule, so that the ten sages standing behind Qin Tiange would step forward and rush in to chop this wanton thing.

But they were stopped by Qin Tiange, looking down, looking at the black box in his hand, and gently opening it.

Click ... When Qin Tiange opened his eyes, Qin Tiange’s pupils shrank. All the people and things in the entire capital of Beijing suddenly stopped for a moment, as if imprisoned by an inexplicable force, but it returned to normal instantly, as if it was an illusion.

Qin Tiange was expressionless, his eyes were quietly looking inside the jade box, and his head was full.

“Dayuer ...” Qin Tiange’s voice was hoarse and he muttered the name, and her head was in the jade box.

Anger, an unprecedented anger that pours from the bottom of my heart, an unstoppable flame of flames, roars in Qin Tiange’s heart, and seems to destroy the world.

He had never been so angered, as angry as ever, and his expression was calm and terrible. Even Chen Xi around him changed his face, and felt the anger that Qin Tiange wanted to perish, which was extremely terrible.

Dayuer, she knows, is the jade corpse who threatened to arrest Qin Tiange in front of him, and once came to follow Qin Tiange’s expedition to Mars.

However, it was actually cut off and packed in a box, and sent it on the day of Qin Tiange’s wedding. This was not only provocation, but also humiliation and blow.

“Very good Huangquan corpse, you successfully stirred my anger!”

Qin Tiange’s words slowly raised his head, his eyes squeaked with two horrible chills, clicking noises, the void above his head suddenly cracked, and a vast river came through.

The sound of the bang was loud, and on the long river, Zun Wanzhang Xuying poked out his hand fiercely, and Kakaka penetrated the space crack.

“what....”

Hearing only the screams, then the hand caught a huge creature, an ancient corpse with ancient corpses and consciousness.

With a click, the giant hand crushed this powerful ancient corpse **** with the ancestor level, and then shot it in the space with a severe palm.

There was a loud bang, and there was a loud drink from inside, and then screams kept coming. There were huge corpses falling and falling from the broken space. It was thrilling.

Sudden changes made everyone stunned. The whole Huaxia film went up and down. On the day of the leader's wedding, there was something sent by creatures to anger him.

The king is angry, all beings are trembling!

Chapter 634 - Reverse life and death, resurrect, and conquer Huangquan corpse

"How dare you!"

There was a roar of roar in the void, and it quickly turned into a scream. A broken body fell and hit the ground, scaring countless people.

I saw that the vast figure in the void pulled back the palm, holding a second-generation ancestor-level creature, an ancient corpse covered with patina, extremely huge.

"Person, you dare to look at Huang Quan's corpse, that head is your end."

This ancient corpse issued a snarling roar, full of golden iron flavor, with a harsh voice, which made the ear drums ache and consciousness.

Click!

With a pinch of the big hand, the ancient corpse burst instantly, turned into a touch of yellow flesh and blood, and eventually disappeared, and the void returned to calm.

Qin Tiange was expressionless, his breath was suppressed to the extreme, and the ghost of the Emperor Man above his head slowly retreated, and returned to the Qiyun River where he disappeared.

The long river disappeared, and the depressed atmosphere disappeared, but the whole Shangjing and even the entire Huaxia, fell into a dead silence, looked up, and looked at the horrible breath on the high platform.

Qin Tiange looked down and looked at the jade corpse in the jade box. Her head was sent over by the creatures in the restricted area of Huang Quan, and she died.

"I won't let you die, no one will take your life."

Suddenly, Qin Tiange uttered such a sentence. The next scene made countless people horrified and watched the shocking scene next.

I saw, Qin Tiange stretched out a hand and pressed it lightly on the dead head, and a silvery awn appeared, turning it into silver wires around his arm.

Immediately afterwards, the silver light ignited the eyes of countless people, and everyone saw that head fly up.

Dayu'er closed her eyes tightly, and there were still two blood-stained tears on it, obviously she was extremely unwilling before she died.

"Wake up, your soul shouldn't fall asleep" Qin Tiange yelled, a black hair was raised, endless mysterious power poured out, and he turned the space and time on his head, reversed the time, and went straight back.

Zizi

The silver awn flickered and intertwined continuously, spreading from below the head, and gradually, the lost body recovered little by little, and finally the perfect body was wrapped by a black particle, covering Dayu's body.

This is resurrection!

Qin Tiange This is to reverse time and space and resurrect the dead Jade. It is incredible. Even Chen Xi looked aside, and the eighteen sages were shocked, staring blankly at the scene.

"Time, that's the taboo power of time."

"Oh my God, the Emperor has the power of time?"

"It's time backwards, and time and space are partially reversed."

The eighteen sages looked trembling, so excited that it was difficult to suppress their writhing thoughts. It was so amazing that Qin Tiange directly used the power of time to reverse the body that Dayu Er lost, and even repaired the broken true spirit directly in time. .

"wake up!"

With a loud drink, Qin Tiange's full of anger was revealed, and the unbearable anger was about to erupt.

As he shouted, the void shuddered, and a gap cracked over his head. Then, a little shards of crystals spattered, and the flesh and the shards of the spirit gathered together miraculously and merged into the recovery. In the body.

Click!

With a mysterious and crisp sound, Da Yuer, who had no breath, suddenly opened his eyes and stared at Qin Tiange in front of him. The whole person was still in a kind of hazy chaos.

"You and me, aren't you dead?" Dayuer said blankly.

But seeing Qin Tiange take out a set of white jade battle dress and gently put it on her, without saying a word, there was a heavy murder in her eyes, which made Dayuer clear and she was resurrected.

"I won't let you die, and no one will take your life."

Qin Tiange said a word full of domineering words, and awakened countless people. At this moment, everyone's expression of looking at Qin Tiange became extremely enthusiastic.

Resurrected the dead, he, resurrected the dead Jade!

“Really, really resurrected?”

“Leader, resurrect the dead?”

Going to Beijing and even the whole of China, it boiled instantly, countless people cheered, and looked at Qin Tiange extremely enthusiastically. He really saw the powerful and terrible place of this leader.

He can resurrect a dead person and reverse life and death. This ability is simply appalling, and he is stunned as the ambassador of the three major European deities.

Even if they are called gods, they have no ability to reverse life and death. Even the death gods in charge of life and death in the three major deities cannot reverse life and death.

But Qin Tiange did it, and, in the presence of countless people in Huaxia, and in front of countless strong men, Dayuer was resurrected.

“Tell me, what’s up with the purple clothes?” Qin Tiange’s tone was very flat, but there was a anger of extinction hidden in the flatness.

Dayuer finally woke up and solemnly said: “The ancient corpses in Huangquan’s corpse woke up and captured the purple clothes directly. I was killed by an ancient corpse at that instant.”

“good very good!”

Qin Tiange turned around and nodded to Chen Xi, who realized that she came down with Da Yuer, and she knew her husband was angered at the moment.

The joy of the wedding, even the creature sent Da Yuer’s head, is not only a provocation, but also a face-beating behavior, which blows his heart and China morale.

However, Qin Tiange told those creatures with facts that he didn’t want to let anyone die, so don’t want to kill that person, just like Da Yuer, there is only one head left, but he was turned back to life and death.

“My fellow citizens, I believe you have all seen that there are creatures in the restricted area who don’t want us to rise in China, let alone make our people stronger.”

Qin Tiange’s indifferent tone, revealing a frightening anger, everyone can clearly feel the monstrous anger hidden under the calm surface of this leader.

“Someone bullied us, and everyone said, what should we do?”

With a loud shout, countless people throughout the territory of Huaxia were furious. Thinking of the scene that just happened, it came to send the head of the Chinese ally, which was a shame.

“Kill! Kill! Kill!”

The sentiment was indignant. In such a joyous day, there was a creature to provoke in such a joyous day. There is nothing to say. The only way to kill it is to kill the enemy and to kill the enemy.

That’s the answer. Those who commit me to Huaxia, though strong, will be stingy!

Huaxia had just condensed blood, just won a war, and did not expect that another creature came running to bully his head, killed his allies, and sent his head, which was a shame.

Qin Tiange got up in the air, feeling depressed and shouting, “Since there are creatures in the restricted area who don’t want to see our Chinese peace and prosperity, show them our Chinese fangs.”

“The person who committed me Huaxia, never die!”

“Endless!”

With the words of the supreme leader, the whole of China was united, and once again, a sense of war was condensed, and an endless will was revealed.

To humiliate the Chinese leaders is to humiliate the entire Chinese people. If the creatures in the forbidden area provoked and destroyed the leader’s wedding, then they must bear the anger of the entire Chinese people.

The Huaxia people once again showed that sharp tusks, and in the face of the enemy, they had to kill!

“You sages, let Huaxia sit in your town!”

Qin Tiange turned around and gently arched his hands at the eighteen shocking sages, and immediately awakened them, saluting one after another, solemn promises to keep China.

“My lord rest assured that Huaxia will be with us, and we will not lose anything.”

Li Bai and others solemnly promised that they understand that Qin Tiange will not take them out this time, because Huaxia is newly determined, and foreigners must take precautions to invade.

There are eighteen sages guarding him, just to make his assured leader go out and raise the battle flag again. Since some people do not want to make him comfortable, let the battle flag fly high.

Huh!

Qin Tiange waved his hand, snorted, and a simple battle flag passed through the air, standing on the upper capital, hunting and moving, herringbone penetrating into the sky and killing.

The emperor’s immortal guard appeared, and a whole hundred thousand emperor’s immortal ancient battle spirit appeared, standing neatly before the battle flag and waiting quietly.

That terrible breath shocked all parties, one by one, the face of each strong man went mad, because 100,000 emperors were immortal guarded, the breath was terrifying.

Some people in the “Emperor Emperor” were horrified and speechless.

However, the next scene is even more daunting.

“Say yourself, bring a superhero warrior, and conquer the restricted area with me!”

Qin Tiange gave a sudden sip, and countless people saw a violent shaking from the suspension base. Then, an army with only 100,000 troops appeared.

Rumbling

This army appeared, stepping on the void, and heard the sound of thunder, as if the thunder rolled, stepped neatly, shaking in the void.

One hundred thousand super **** warriors appeared, shaking all parties, and countless strong men were shocked. Looking at those super **** warriors who were horrible, they were indifferent and emotionless.

Their bodies are extremely majestic, each with a uniform height of nine feet, swollen muscles, and wearing a specially designed and manufactured ultra-ice crystal armor.

“In this battle, I only brought 200,000 troops. The rest, etc., if you want to participate in the war, you can start with the First Fleet and destroy the power of the restricted area.”

“Departure, set foot in Huangquan restricted area!”

Qin Tiange Han faced and issued a battle order. Immediately, he saw a void opened in the void. Qin Tiange took the lead, led the 100,000 ancient war spirits, and made his debut with 100,000 Super God warriors.

A loud rumbling came, and two terrible armies set off with Qin Tiange first. One hundred thousand immortal guards and one hundred thousand super **** warriors made their debut.

“Participate!”

“Take the penalty zone!”

For a time, the whole of China was boiling up and down, countless people gathered frantically, followed their regular legions, and accompanied the First Fleet, and embarked on the road of expedition.

This time, the number is more, because after Qin Tiange demonstrated the ability to resurrect the dead against the sky, the whole of China was enthusiastic.

Leaders can resurrect the dead. Doesn't it mean that they may be resurrected if they die? Although it is only possible, at least one layer of consciousness is added. Subconsciously believes that as long as it is killed by his own family, Qin Tiange may be resurrected.

But is resurrection really that simple?

Anyway, Huang Quan's corpse changed drastically. A skull was sent at the wedding, which angered Qin Tiange and directly ordered soldiers to conquer this restricted area.

“The war has begun again. The last time the soul-eating restricted area was destroyed. This time, the ancient corpse's head in the Huangquan restricted area was blasted, which annoyed the fierce and vigorous Chinese leader.”

“Let's go and have a look. Maybe the group of ancient corpses whose heads are convulsed can really kill the Chinese leaders.”

As Qin Tiange held up his flag again and started a new round of conquest, for a time, many powerful creatures of foreign races came to hear the news and quietly entered Asia, wanting to witness the battle in the restricted area.

All parties moved, the strong gathered in Huangquan's corpse, and a forbidden zone battle began.

Chapter 635 - Huang Quanxing, Corpse, Big Secret

Huang Quan's corpse, which belongs to the ancient battlefield debris, gradually formed a forbidden zone after falling on the earth. Living people should not enter, but only the zombies would be fine.

Over time, here attracted a large number of zombies, which led to this place becoming a forbidden area for zombies and creatures.

Roar!

In the darkness, a low roar, like a beast, was filled with violent violence and bloodthirsty.

Vaguely, a huge river runs through the north and south of the restricted area and goes straight into the central area. The river is dark yellow and turbid, showing strong corpses.

This is the Huangquan River. The dark yellow river is full of zombies swimming in it, absorbing the rich corpse in the river to evolve itself.

boom!

Suddenly, a rift opened over the restricted area, and space fluctuations came, and a battle flag crossed the nothingness and was severely inserted into the land in the restricted area.

The battle flag hunting, revealing a horrific killing, alarmed countless zombies.

“Everywhere the banner of war is, it is the territory of my emperor, whoever does not submit, kill!”

With a low, loud drink, a terrorist army stepped out of the void, neat steps, exuding skyward qi, shaking the entire restricted area.

The emperor's immortal guard came, rushed directly into the restricted area of Huangquan, and shattered the dark yellow fog, opening a gap.

Roar...!

“Humanity is here!”

A zombie roared, watching a figure coming out of the void, and a hundred thousand super **** warriors stepped out neatly, standing there silently.

Two 100,000 troops stood behind Qin Tiange and Jiji, and quietly looked down at the restricted area full of zombies.

Some corpse kings were horrified, watching Qin Tiange coming, but actually bowed their heads and did not dare to move, and even some of the weak zombies were lying on the ground shaking with strong pressure of killing.

“Is the emperor of Chinese people ...”

“Last time also took us to an expedition to a place called Mars, and let us have a great meal for foreigners.”

“Yes, he's here, he must have come to save the Purple Emperor.”

For a time, many powerful zombies in the restricted area were whispering. Among these zombies, many of them followed the two corpse emperors of Ziyi and Dayuer to Mars, conquered the aliens, and let them eat the flesh of the aliens. meal.

These zombies were very impressed with Qin Tiange, especially his overbearing strength, which was simply shocking. Now he was excited when he saw the army coming.

Because their two emperors, the Purple Emperor and the Jade Emperor, one was taken away and the other was killed, naturally angry in their hearts.

“The Huaxia army has arrived. I read that you were once a member of my Huaxia tribe. If you don't want to die, stay honest. Otherwise, if you are hanged, don't blame me for not reminding me.”

Qin Tiange spit out a word, making those conscious corpse kings look at each other, but nodded.

“We don't stop. We just stay here. We only hope that you can save our Purple Emperor.”

A corpse king came out tremblingly and said this plea, he was one of the loyal corpse kings in Ziyi.

Qin Tiange nodded, looking deep into the restricted area, a horror of murderous power was revealed in his eyes, the anger in his heart was no longer suppressed, and he was released suddenly.

“Go, enter the restricted area!”

With a loud shout, accompanied by an undead guard's general grabbing the battle flag and flying through the air, he tore through the unique dark yellow mist in the restricted area and swept all the way to open the way for the army.

In the back, the 100,000 immortal guards were uniform, rumbling over, and approaching the core area of the restricted area.

The desolate and weird earth is full of cracks, and there are scattered bones and fragments of knives and weapons scattered there, revealing a desolation.

The most terrible is a huge dark yellow river with some huge corpses floating from time to time. With the arrival of Qin Tiange and others, he slowly opened his green eyes.

“Human, break into the restricted area, kill without amnesty!”

A low roar came, and a sudden turbulent wave was set off in Huangquan River, a huge ancient corpse stood up, covered with patina, covered with a fierce corpse spirit.

This is an ancient **** corpse, sinking and floating in the Huangquan River to draw endless corpse to keep immortal, and the will to be born awake again and again.

Roar!

“Kill all Terrans!”

The corpses roared, and a powerful ancient corpse emerged from the Huangquan River. The lowest level was a ten-star ancient corpse. The strongest had the ancestor class, and there were a lot of them.

These corpses are ancient corpses of gods. They do not know their origin. They only came from Huang Quanxing, who claimed to be the Huangquan corpse. They were extremely arrogant and terrible in the Starry Hundreds.

But Qin Tiange frowned slightly and looked at these emerging ancient corpses. Some ten-star ancient corpses were covered with white hair, and those corpse kings were covered with rust. It's a little green rust, it's patina.

On the ancient corpse of the first emperor class, there was more patina, but the body still looked a bit pale, and the faint yellowish luster of the dead body was still faintly visible on the skin.

Horrible are those ancestor-level ancient corpses, covered with patina, as if they were some bronze statues, but they are real flesh and blood, ancient corpses.

“The corpses of Huangquan are rumored that the bodies of various ethnic groups gradually metamorphose in the Huangquan after being infected for a long time.” Qin Tiange muttered to himself and held down his palm.

With a bang, dozens of powerful first emperors collapsed into pieces of flesh on the spot. Two of the ancestors were smashed into the body with one palm, leaving only one head to be photographed by him.

Roar!

“Human race, you will die.” A head opened his mouth and roared, but a ray of light penetrated the brow's corpse and pulled out a weird thing.

Qin Tiange extracted the consciousness of the two ancestors and imprisoned them, and then a strong will directly invaded them, looting the memory inside.

Unfortunately, there is nothing valuable in this memory, and even there is no memory about Huang Quanxing.

Qin Tiange was dissatisfied, took out a piece of gold paper, and directly sent the true spirits of the two corpse ancestors, and then the endless golden symbol flashed, and the book of the ground directly reversed the deepest memories of these true spirits. Before the birth Memories.

“Huang Quanxing, corpse, man-made, failed product?” Qin Tiange reversed the true spirit with the mysterious power of the book, captured some terrible memories that had been erased, and was stunned by what he saw. .

The powerful and mysterious corpse of Huangquan turned out to be an unsuccessful product that was created behind the beings.

Just as he wanted to keep looking, to see who was behind the creation of a huge mysterious race, a mysterious force emerged from the two groups of souls and destroyed the true spirits of the two corpse ancestors on the spot.

“Bold ...” A rumorous rumor came, as if through the endless time and space, to kill Qin Tiange, the secret-looking creature, through time and space.

The gold paper buzzed and countless golden runes flickered, immediately erasing the imprint, and quickly returned to Qin Tiange’s sea of knowledge, and the power disappeared.

“It’s strong, is that the breath of space-time fault, is it the existence of the Huangquan corpse that made the back?” Qin Tiange looked dignified. There was a momentary illusion just now that he was really dying.

That kind of incomparable, unstoppable, one word life and death, crossing the space-time fault trying to kill his existence, to force to a horrible degree.

Fortunately, Qin Tiange blocked and isolated with the Book of Upheaval, and even wiped out the breath of time, and directly disconnected the connection between the two without being tracked by that force.

“Good danger!” Qin Tiange secretly squeezed his sweat, looking prudent, and looked at the powerful ancient corpses that came from below. Without continuing to pump his soul, he waved his hand and killed 100,000 ancient war spirits.

“kill!”

The 100,000 immortal guards roared Qi Qi, hitting them instantly, wielding their blades, killing the Quartet violently, smashing a powerful ancient corpse and devouring everything.

The more you kill, the stronger these immortal guards are, as if you can’t fight them, you can’t kill them. What’s more terrible is that you can devour your opponents to grow.

The rumbling noises kept coming, and in the Huangquan River, groups of powerful ancient corpses came out, filled with dark yellow corpses.

These ancient corpses are so powerful that they contain terrifying power in one punch and one blow, as if born with great power, and with the terrible dark yellow corpse gas, the strong corrosiveness even burned through the air.

“Master, something in the restricted area seems to be peering at us.”

At this moment, Ji Ji quietly uttered this sentence, Qin Tiange looked away, staring blankly at the core area of the restricted area, where something was hidden.

Humph!

Qin Tiange snorted coldly and said, “It was an ancient corpse, it was very powerful, it was the first ancient corpse, so you do n’t need to bother to kill us.

“Yanji, let me see the capabilities of the Super God Warriors. This is the first test of them. If they are not qualified, go back to reorganize.” Qin Tiange suddenly ordered.

As I saw, Jiji looked solemn, waved his hand gently, and the 100,000 Super God Warrior who had remained motionless behind moved.

boom!

Neat steps, trembling in the void, there was a terrible roar in the restricted area, and the 100,000 Super God warriors rushed into the circle of war with a breath of horror.

There was a crunching sound, and the special armor on the body of the super-god warrior turned red, and then a hot breath filled and became more and more intense.

That was the outbreak of the energy core in the Super God Warrior ignited the core and poured out endless violent energy.

boom!

In just one moment, hundreds of thousands of ancient corpses that emerged from the Huangquan River were crushed into ashes on the spot by the Super God Warriors.

Even the dark yellow water in the Huangquan River has been evaporated a lot.

Roar!

An angry roar came from the Huangquan River, and a corpse ancestor hit him with a severe blow. As a result, it was chopped into powder by a hundred thousand super ***** warriors.

The violent energy swept out, and the corpse snarled in horror, drowned by the violent energy and turned into ashes, and the torrent of energy rushed over, blasting the earth into a gully with a width of hundreds of meters, bottomless.

“Very well, as I entered the restricted area, the blockers shattered.”

When Qin Tiange saw this, he directly ordered to enter the core of the restricted area. His body rushed in first, and the violent evil force directly hit the hidden ancient corpse.

Chapter 636 - Suppression, Undead Guards vs. Huangquan Iron Ride

boom!

A blast of madness came and shattered the fog in the restricted area with a bang, revealing the hidden powerful ancient ancient corpse.

Baizhang’s body was full of oppression, bronze muscles swelled, his arms were wrapped around his chest, and sharp bone spurs grew out, flashing an astonishing coldness.

This is a human-shaped ancient corpse, almost indistinguishable from humans, with a grim face and scarlet eyes revealing a murderous murderous power.

“Human, I haven’t tasted human in a long time.”

The ancient corpse of Baizhang murmured to himself, the sound of which sounded like the sound of gold and copper rubbing, extremely terrifying and scary.

Qin Tiange looked at this ancient corpse, and suddenly a smile appeared, and a thought came to his mind.

“Yanji, suppress this first generation and go back and study it.”

As soon as the words fell, I saw the uncle next to him disappeared, and then appeared again to the head of the ancient corpse of the early generation, and suppressed it with a single palm.

The first ancient corpse hummed, its arm trembled, and a buzzing emptiness was shattered, and the air over his head was broken into a mess.

boom!

The two forces collided. The first ancient corpse trembled and it was okay, but Jiji was flying hundreds of meters away before stopping.

However, Qin Tiange was not worried at all, and Jiji didn't even break out the energy core in his body, so naturally nothing would happen.

Sure enough, as Jiji shook his arm and a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth, a little light suddenly appeared in his body, and a terrible force burst from each cell.

The core of artificial energy, which burns directly in the cells, supplies endless energy, making the breath of self-inflated countless times.

Ok?

The first generation was stunned and was waiting to be observed. As a result, he disappeared, and a wave of terror came behind him.

The first ancient corpse turned back and punched, banging on that terrible force. As a result, he was shocked three steps back, and as soon as he stopped, he saw a sea of hot air rushing forward.

The second killing of Jiji came, bombarded Nianmen, and a violent tide of energy broke out, hitting the Nianmen of the ancient corpse hard.

There was a loud bang, and this first ancient corpse was beaten upside down. When the feet landed, the ground was depressed.

“Look for death!” The first generation of ancient corpses was furious and roared loudly, scarlet eyes burst into two horrible cold mansions, and waved their arms violently to punch.

Clicking and crunching, the space cracked!

A powerful punch broke the vacuum, and the restricted area couldn't help trembling. Many weak zombies did not dare to lie on the ground on the spot.

“The sun flare!”

Xun Jijiao drank, a fist wrapped in horrible flames, blooming endless light and heat, as if a sun burst into fierce energy.

The two forces collided, and a rumbling noise kept coming, which alarmed all parties in the restricted area. One horrible ancient corpse appeared, staring at the other with staring eyes.

boom!

Just hearing a loud noise, the first ancient corpse was hit to the ground, there was a dent in the chest, thick blue smoke, and was obviously injured by a powerful blow.

“Roar!” The ancient corpse roared, soaring into the sky instantly, waving an arm and chopping it down fiercely, the target pointed at his self.

The violent power seemed to be able to split the heavens and the earth, and the ground in the restricted area was directly cracked and turned into a huge gully.

Before the person arrives, the force comes first, and my own body is burning with a raging fire, blooming an infinite amount of light, as if tens of thousands of suns in the body are lit at the same time.

“Sun particles!”

Xun Jijiao drank, a horrible light lit up, stabbed many zombies’ eyes, and even some powerful ancient corpses couldn’t help closing their eyes.

I saw a terrible light mass condensed in his hands, and blasted the first ancient corpse fiercely, as if a sudden burst of sun particles erupted and shook the world.

It is to simulate the solar particle storm as an attack. The means of self-defense is quite powerful. The dark yellow aerosol in the restricted area and even the water of the Huangquan River are evaporated.

The land was scorched and melted, and even burned directly to ashes. Many hidden corpses nearby were strangled to ashes by this erupting solar particle storm on the spot, and the screams were too late.

“Roar, look for death!” The first-generation ancient corpse shouted, his arms accelerated, and he severed the solar particle energy storm.

Just listening to the loud sound of “Boom”, the world shook, the restricted area shook, and many zombies lay on the ground on the spot.

Powerful collisions and terrible solar particle storms shattered the arm of the original ancient corpse into powder, and the powerful impact sent Baizhang’s body flying out of a huge pit several kilometers away.

“Ah,” the ancient corpses screamed, their bodies were screaming, they were burned by a stream of sun particles, and it was extremely painful.

However, before he extinguished and recovered his physical injury, a glowing and hot figure appeared quietly, holding a twinkling rope in his hand, and trembling gently.

With a bang, the rope penetrated the flesh and blood of the first ancient corpse like a laser, penetrated into the bone, spread directly, and continuously walked along his veins and veins, more and more, and finally covered the whole body. .

“Ah, what did you do to me?” The first ancient corpse was suddenly surprised that he couldn’t move.

No matter how hard he tried, he could not struggle, the power in his body was inexplicably destroyed, and even a little seal was put on.

“Sure enough, if the meridians of the upper and lower blood vessels are blocked, the organism will lose 90% of its energy supply.”

Xunji’s indifferent tone actually created a means of imprisonment, which was directly supercompressed with his own energy and turned into a force, which was filled in all the blood vessels and tendons of the opponent’s body, directly blocking the opponent.

“Master, complete the task!”

Fu Ji returned with this huge ancient corpse banned, Qin Tiange nodded, turned his palm, and suddenly a large seal appeared, and a ray of light shrouded the original ancient corpse. Suppress it.

“Yes, go on, suppress more powerful ancient corpses, go back to research, I always think that these ancient corpses have some unusual origins.”

Qin Tiange’s indifferent tone revealed a sense of horror that made the strong men of all races who came to the restricted area watch.

“It’s terrible. The ancient corpses were repressed.

“Why is this Terran so terrible?”

“Also, what the **** is that woman suspected of being an intelligent star?”

In the restricted area, many powerful creatures of foreign races hid, watching the situation quietly. Qin Tiange led the army to conquer the restricted area, and they came to watch.

One is to understand Qin Tiange’s specific strength and hole cards, and the other is to see if the ancient corpses in Huang Quan’s restricted area can kill Qin Tiange.

It seems to be hanging now. In the early days, the ancient corpses said that the suppression was suppressed. It was as simple as eating and drinking.

“People, you’re so brave, don’t you put my Huangquan corpse in my eyes?”

Suddenly, a cold and indifferent voice came from the restricted area, faint and terrifying.

Many strong men looked up and saw the horrible figures appearing in the core of the restricted area. They were extremely powerful, and their corpses rushed into the atmosphere, shaking the earth.

A loud rumbling came, and a powerful lineup of corpse corps appeared. From the beginning to the present, I finally encountered a decent corpse group.

I encountered some scattered ancient corpses hidden in the Huangquan River. Even though there were a lot of them, I still couldn’t compare with the real ancient corpse army in front of me.

Tapping

This ancient corpse, riding a tall war beast, with neat steps, standing in a row and fighting, the corpse is almost dying, and it will almost turn into a corpse flame covering the restricted area.

“The corpse’s Huangquan Iron Rider, the elite corpses of the ancient battlefield remaining?”

Some strong men whispered, watching secretly in horror that huge, terrifying army, which was the elite army of the corpses, Huang Quantieqi, waking up from the ancient battlefield.

Huangquan corpse is a fragment of the ancient battlefield of the human race. Here, the bones of countless human ancestors are buried, and a large number of ancient corpses are hidden.

One hundred thousand, two hundred thousand, five hundred thousand, one million, and a whole million strong corpses Huangquan Iron Riders are all elites, waking up from the ancient battlefield.

Although they have not recovered to their former peak, the weakest breath is the corpse king level, which is the oldest corpse elite.

Once this ancient elite corpse Huangquan Iron Ride is fully restored, it will be an invincible terrorist cavalry. By then, who can stop the earth?

“No wonder you haven’t moved. It turned out to be silently waiting for recovery. Even, you just got a lot of resources from Pangu World and recovered a lot of power.”

Qin Tiange swept through the elite cavalry of a million corpses and muttered to himself, and understood the reason why these ancient corpses remained dormant.

But he looked cold, staring at a strong horizontal figure after the million Huangquan Iron Riding. It was a huge ancient corpse, covered with a layer of green and blue, and turned into a layer of blue and gold.

He was not like a human. His face was full of dense spikes and looked terrifying. He had dark black skin, riding a terrible beast, and looked hairy.

Especially those faint eyes, cold and sensible, this is the commander of Huangquan Tieqi, extremely domineering, domineering than the previous ancient corpse.

Humph!

Qin Tiange sneered coldly: “Huang Quan Tieqi, this is how you corpses dare to kill me, grab my daughter’s strength?”

“What **** man Huang Watch me shred you.”

The Huangquan Iron Riding Leader smiled faintly, waved his arm, and the million-year-old elite Huangquan Iron Riding launched a blast.

A dark yellow light interweaves, as if the one million army is a whole, a shocking force erupts.

“Let me see, is the elite iron ride of your Huangquan Corps, or is my Emperor’s immortal guard strong?”

Qin Tiange snorted, gently pulled out the ancient sword, and pointed sharply at the rushing millions of ancient corpses and waved them down instantly.

“kill!”

With a roar, accompanied by a battle flag hunting, the 100,000 emperor's immortal guards directly entered the opposing army.

Two ancient legions, one belonged to the immortal guard of the emperor, and the opposite was Huangquan Iron Knight, an elite corpse of Huangquan's ancient battlefield.

One hundred thousand pairs million, looking at the disparity of power, but the next moment, a shocking scene appeared.

Chapter 637 - Break, massacre, boiling in restricted area

The immortal guard, Huang Quantieqi, two ancient legions, each seemingly a whole, under the powerful role of Guzhen, they are like the same person.

Rumble ...

One hundred thousand, against one million, the collision caused a violent shock. The whole restricted area shook violently, and many powerful beings were shocked.

Bang Bang!

The two ancient armies confronted each other, collided with each other, and a rumbling sound was heard. It seemed that the thunder was rolling out, the powerful energy scattered, and the sand and stones were rolled up.

Just listen to the sound of a bang, a battle flag was erected in front of the 100,000 ancient war spirits, the general waving the battle flag, spilling a mysterious force into the entire army.

"The flags passed by, the nations bowed their heads, defeated the enemy, and raised the power of my people!"

"My lord is immortal, and I am invincible!"

The general Li Xiao, waved the battle flag, banged, and led the hundred thousand ancient war spirits as a whole, killing them upright.

There was a constant rumbling of rumblings. As the battle flag passed, the opposite Huang Quantieqi was stopped, and then the whole array went backwards.

It seems that the two armies with disparate strength turned out to be a large number of Huangquan Iron Riders who were hit and retreated.

Yes, the 100,000 immortal guards, with their indomitable and irresistible momentum, blocked the millions of Huangquan Tieqi's charge and pushed them sideways for dozens of miles before stopping.

hiss!

"very scary!"

"The emperor's immortal guard, really horrible!"

"Huang Quantieqi's charge was not only blocked, but even pushed back."

Some aliens' strong faces changed dramatically, watching the Emperor's immortal health officials blocked a million Huangquan Iron Riding Charges and even pushed them past dozens of miles.

The entire millions of military formations is a whole, as if a huge thing was pushed back and forth a few dozen miles away.

“Yanji, you have to study these ancient army formations, and at the same time come up with an easy way to start training and popularize the major legions.”

Seeing the might of the immortal guards and the mighty ancient army formations, Qin Tiange moved his mind to form these ancient army formations into the modern army.

He needs such an overbearing army formation to improve the overall combat effectiveness of the army. Just look at the 100,000 war spirits who will kill millions of Huangquan Iron and ride back.

“Huh ... the emperor’s immortal guard?”

After facing the enemy line, the tyrannical Huangquan Iron Rider led a somber face. When he turned his palm, he saw a black flag rising into the air, and it was instantly thrown over the million Huangquan Iron Riders. .

Suddenly, one million Huangquan Iron Riding broke out, and the overall strength suddenly skyrocketed, as if receiving a strong increase of some kind, and it was going to rush away the hundred thousand ancient war spirits.

“presumptuous!”

With a scream, I saw the commanding general who led the immortal guard waved the battle flag, blasted away with a bang, and a loud noise came, and two battle flags collided with each other, sending out terrible waves of gas.

Huh!

The battle flags hunted and collided with each other, as if they were spiritually assaulted continuously, which caused a huge impact, and their respective battlefields were retreating.

I saw, above the Terran Battle Banner, the herringbone shone, revealing an ancient warfare, killing the sky.

boom!

When the battle flag was swept away, the black Huangquan battle flag was instantly repelled, and a dark yellow text of that flag was penetrated on the spot.

With a click, the battle flag broke, and a wailing sound flew back quickly, and fell into the commander’s hand. The light was dim and completely useless.

“Human war flags, very good. How many years haven’t you felt this kind of breath? I didn’t expect that a single war flag would dare to prestige?”

The giant ancient corpse was angry, his battle flag was broken, and he was naturally so angry that he was about to smash the Terran Battle Flag with one hand, but just raised his hand, he felt a strong will locked him.

“Princess, do you want to die?” The ancient corpse drank, and the whole body broke out.

Qin Tiange was expressionless and unmoved at all, while the uncle on the side slowly stood up, a hint of murder flashed on the cold pretty face.

“You are not qualified to fight with my emperor, and if you want to die, you will come up quickly to lead to death.”

“Arrogant people, you were almost annihilated in the last era because of arrogance. The people of this era are just as arrogant and arrogant, and you are not far from the day of annihilation.”

The ancient corpse sneered, his voice radiant, as if ridiculing the arrogance of the human race. The people of the last era almost did not exterminate them. The people of this era were equally arrogant, and in his opinion, it would happen sooner or later.

“Aren’t you arrogant? You have no right to say, ask the old people behind you to come out and obediently send my daughter back intact. I hope I can forgive them.”

Qin Tiange’s faint tone came out, and through an endless mist, he entered a mysterious place in the core area of the restricted area.

Suddenly, there was a wave of terror in it, as if angered by this sentence, but it soon subsided.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange squinted his eyes and thought to himself: “What do the old things hidden inside seem to be doing? Is it related to the purple clothes?”

“Undead guard, stop playing and tear up the enemy line!”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange Han faced, and issued an order to the immortal guard.

With this command, the one hundred thousand undead guards gathered together, and their spirits skyrocketed tenfold, especially the guard leader, as if he felt that he did not tear up the enemy line and made the emperor dissatisfied.

“My lord has orders to tear up the enemy.”

“Fight, shred the enemy!”

With an order, the entire army formation was suddenly changed. With the waving of the battle flag, a part of the 100,000 ancient war spirit suddenly emptied and quickly hugged together.

With a cloud of mist, falling from the flag of war, covering the traces of 100,000 ancient war souls, can no longer be seen.

Roar!

“My emperor is immortal, invincible!”

Just listening to the roar, the fog dispersed, and a giant giant stood up rumblingly, reached out and grabbed, the Terran Battle Flag rose in the wind, and grabbed it in his hand.

It was a hazy giant, covered in strange mists, armor ravaged, battle flag hunting, and swept away.

With a rumbling sound, millions of Huangquan Iron Cavalry formations in front of them broke on the spot, and hundreds of thousands of Huangquan Iron Cavalry were instantly shaken into powder.

“Jack, go for it immediately!”

The Huangquan Iron Rider led the rage, and under the orders, millions of Huangquan Iron Riders immediately transformed into an array of endless dark yellow light.

Suddenly, a huge and dark battle was stabbed fiercely. Gradually, a tens of thousands of tall knights burst out of the mist and stabbed them with a shot.

With a short slam, the battle flag swept away, blocking the terrible blow. The two ancient battlefields turned into two giants, fighting each other and disturbing the entire restricted area.

Powerful forces swept by, and no one dared to approach within tens of kilometers, and the moment they entered, they were powdered by the aftermath of two giant battles.

boom!

The giant transformed by the one-hundred-thousand immortal guards, with a fierce battle flag, defeated the towering knights on the other side and wailed.

Looking at the terrible scenes of the two giants fighting fiercely, the foreign powerhouse was stunned.

“His, that's the soul of the Emperor's Emperor. It was transformed into an Emperor's body with the immortal guard. It was very scary with the Emperor's will to bless it.”

Not far away, a strong man was horrified: “The horrible knight on the opposite side was beaten and defeated. Am I dreaming?”

One hundred thousand ancient war spirits turned into human emperor war body, born from the power of the ancient formation, mammoth a million horror knights transformed by Huangquan Iron.

The number of the two is very different, the body shape is very different, but it is the emperor who defeated the opponent in a steadfast manner, and finally the body could not bear it and gradually collapsed.

boom!

When the battle flag swept away, the tens of thousands of knights suddenly shattered their shoulders, and dozens of hundreds of Huangquan Tieqi were beaten out, as if the flesh flew.

“kill!”

The Emperor fluttered the battle flag, rushed forward, and madly raved about the huge knight. The violent power caused the other body's body to collapse one after another.

One blow and one blow, the battle flag passed, there must be Huang Quantie riding down and broken, the giant knight roared upwards, fighting to dance wildly, but could not stop the opponent's violent power.

In the end, the huge knight was the first to be defeated by one arm, and the force disappeared. Countless Huang Quantie rides down and was shattered by the violent power of the two.

“Dead!”

With a loud scream, I saw the giant holding the battle flag in both hands.

With a click, even people with flags pierced through the body of the knight, and a huge cave was spotted on the spot.

“Ah ...” The knight screamed in the sky, his body continuously collapsed, and the original million Huangquan Iron Riders instantly collapsed.

One hundred thousand jockeys disappeared, and the remaining hundreds of thousands of Huangquan iron riders fell down, and even the mounts fell to pieces, and they could not be defeated.

Huang Quan Tieqi, defeated!

“I’m invincible!”

The triumphant giant roared suddenly, and then his body collapsed and changed back to a hundred thousand ancient souls. Under the command of that commander, he frantically strangled the broken Huangquan Iron Riders.

A massacre was staged, countless Huangquan Tieqi was ruthlessly hanged, and flesh and blood and even the real spirit were swallowed up by the hundred thousand ancient war spirits.

“Junk stuff, waste, all waste!”

The Huangquan Iron Rider was angry and watched his one million Huangquan Iron Riders be defeated by the 100,000 imperial guards of the other side, forming a downright slaughter.

This kind of picture made the strong men of all races thriller, watching the 100,000 immortal guards who were performing the massacre, all chilling, their souls were a little shivering.

“kill!”

The leader finally moved, but he had suffered a huge blow from the full letter let Qin Tiange teach him a lesson, it is not impossible to win more.

“Your opponent is me!”

Seeing that the Huang Quan Iron Riding Commander killed him, the target pointed directly at Qin Tiange, but he was stopped halfway.

“Get out of me!”

The leader drank violently, waved the battle, and sat down with the beast with violent speed and strength. The two merged and only swept up instantly.

boom!

Xunji’s body was so bright that he blocked his opponent’s attack with just one punch and both backed away, evenly splitting the autumn.

Qin Tiange looked away and no longer paid attention, but walked away. One hundred thousand super ***** warriors behind him suddenly bloomed immensely, lighting up the whole world, and the restricted area was boiling.

“Hide your head, get out of here!”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange yelled, raised his hand and patted it into the core of the restricted area. A huge palm print was crushed on the mysterious area, which instantly caused an energy riot.

Chapter 638 - Huangquan Road, Bronze Gate, grabbing true memory

The palms of one party slapped, the energy boiled under the restricted area, and the mist disappeared, revealing a secluded and horrible road.

There is a monument in front of this avenue with a few weird dark yellow characters.

“Huangquan Avenue?”

Qin Tiange looked expressionless, stared at the monument for a few moments, and it was written with the four weird characters “Huangquan Avenue”.

Look at this strange road again. It looks very narrow. The dark yellow mist surrounds it, showing a horrible and horrifying feeling, as if the endless abyss is below.

A weird road, covered with corpses, was suspended above the abyss of the void, and the dark yellow fog rolled below, unable to see the depth.

“Pretend to be a ghost!” Qin Tiange snorted, stepped forward, and gathered his strength in one palm to shoot.

Just listening to the bang, the fog was scattered, but it turned out to be the dark abyss, without seeing the bottom, revealing the terrible breath that devoured the soul.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange’s eyes suddenly bloomed two silver awns, penetrated the mist of nothingness, and saw the real scene, under the abyss, completely piled up corpses.

Deadly, and with a breathtaking breath, Qin Tiange could not help frowning.

“Men, if you want to see your daughter, go down Huangquan Road, I am waiting for you at the end.”

Suddenly, a faint sound came from the front, mysterious and unpredictable.

Qin Tiange didn’t say a word, stepped directly on Huangquan Road, stepped on the numerous corpses step by step, came out with a crunchy sound, and a dust of ashes was scattered under his feet.

He set foot on Huangquan Road, and the corpses at his feet continued to shatter, turning into particles of dust, which turned out to be an illusive figure behind his back.

“I don’t look back at Huangquan Road, Emperor, do you dare to look back?”

A faint voice came from the front, revealing evil, and implying eerie colors.

Qin Tiange sneered, his eyes were tinged with silver awns, intertwined, seeing through all the fog, even if the illusionary figures behind him appeared, he could not move him.

“Qin Tiange, return my life”

“Return my life”

Behind them, the illusory figures groaned, growled, growled, all filled with anger.

These people turned out to be those killed by Qin Tiange. The illusory body, with endless evil and coldness, seemed to turn into a ghost, and wanted to come to his account.

At this time, even in front and around, there were dense crowds of men and women, young and old, all screaming in madness, all rushing towards Qin Tiange.

“Qin Tiange, we are going to eat your meat and your blood, dig your heart, and bite your soul”

“You have slaughtered countless souls. You are so sinful that you must die.”

“Give us our lives.”

Countless fierce ghosts claimed their lives. They were all the grudges killed by Qin Tiange. Once they walked along, it was not clear how many people were killed. In Han Kingdom, they slaughtered a whole million.

There are all kinds of creatures. He was slaughtered and cleaned for nine days, and his resentment was unresolved, and the evil spirits were soaring to the sky. Now, those who were killed and even the people of all races came to him for help.

“Well, I can kill you for the first time, and I can kill it again.”

Unmoved by Qin Tiange, step by step unswervingly forward, a gray flame burst out from his body, sweeping in all directions.

Suddenly, the flames of chaos were fierce, and the countless grieving spirits and ghosts were burned to ashes, one screamed screamingly, and madly smashed up.

“No one can stop my way, the one who blocks me will die!”

Qin Tiange gave a loud shout, and a thick space black particle permeated all over his body. The space burst like a mirror, and turned into a sharp piece of space.

Flutter

Around, countless grievances screamed and dissipated in sorrow. No matter humans or foreign races, as long as they dared to come and block his path, they would be crushed relentlessly.

Qin Tiange’s face has not changed. No matter he is a ghost, as long as he dares to block his path, he will be ruthlessly strangled.

“If you kill, you kill. You can kill you before you die. Even if you become a ghost after death, I can kill you a second time, and let your soul fly away, never be born.”

A cold, indifferent word came out. Around, numerous grievances and spirits gathered together, and then the fear turned into smoke.

The dense grievances turned into smoke after Qin Tiange passed by and disappeared completely here.

“Just like this, you want to stop me?”

Qin Tiange trembled with a bang, and Long Quan trembled, and the cracks of Kakaka spread out, extending directly to the end of Huangquan Avenue.

His figure suddenly flashed, disappeared here, and quietly appeared at the end of Huangquan Avenue, staring quietly at a gate in front of him.

The bronze door exudes the meaning of ancient simplicity and vicissitudes, as if revealing the traces of endless years, even giving him an oppression.

“Ningfu?” Qin Tiange frowned secretly, looking at the bronze gate in front of him.

Without hesitation, he directly raised his fist and banged up fiercely, making a loud noise, the bronze door trembled endlessly, and the sound of humming vibration came.

However, the powerful punch failed to shake the bronze door.

“Why, you hide inside when I come, don’t you say you are waiting for me at the end?” Qin Tiange suddenly sneered.

He mocked: “It seems that you, the so-called forbidden zone creatures, are nothing more than bullying.”

“People, you don’t need to excite me. You can come here a little bit, but you don’t have enough qualifications to see me.”

The voice came from the bronze door, revealing the faint sense of serenity, but with a proud color, as if Qin Tiange could not find him.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange’s mouth showed a cold smile, murmured: “Stupid, dare to pretend in front of me, then you die.”

“Pangu blood, drive!”

Qin Tiange whispered in his heart, and a burst of boiling blood flowed from his body. Pangu blood boiled and burned in his body instantly, pouring out an ancient vast force.

As he waved a punch, nothingness was penetrated, and a gray mist was wrapped in his fist, hitting the bronze door instantly.

At first I heard the sound of “Boom”, and then the bronze gate trembled, cracking and spreading from the place where the fist hit.

哐 Dang!

The next moment, the bronze giant door shattered, falling into pieces and falling down, revealing the scene inside the bronze door.

A whole dark body, standing in front of the broken bronze door, stared at the broken bronze door stupefyingly, a little dazed, unable to believe it.

“How is that possible?” The black ancient corpse muttered to himself, unable to believe it.

Qin Tiange finally saw the ghost behind him. The ancient corpse in front of him was covered with black rust, his eyes were flashing with a dark yellow light, and it was extremely scary to look at it.

The breath he exuded exceeded that of the first generation ancestors, and it was extremely horrible, which made Qin Tiange couldn't help but look at it twice.

“Dead!” With a low sigh and endless anger, a mysterious power instantly enveloped the four sides, imprisoned everything, and finally awakened the black ancient corpse.

But just as he was about to step back, Aversion found that he couldn't move, and looked horribly at a fist and slammed it into his cheek.

boom!

Blood gushing, bone fragmentation, half of the face of the black ancient corpse was shattered, and before he screamed, Qin Tiange hit him with a punch in his left eye temple again.

With a click, the black corpse's brain was sunken, but the sun was punched deeply, and the skull cracked on the spot.

“Ah sorrow me” The corpse screamed, and a force broke out to open the imprisonment, but soon his voice was swallowed back.

With a buzz, Qin Tiange held up a quaint halberd and slammed it in his face door. With a bang, the whole body was beaten into the dark yellow mud.

There was a violent vibration from Huangquan Avenue, and Kakaka broke apart. The horrible black corpse was hit by Qin Tiange's ancient halberd in his head.

哐 Dang!哐 Dang!

A terrible loud noise shocked the people. The first ancient corpse was actually tortured by Qin Tiange Sheng to no resistance.

It was all snoring and could not resist at all, because the body was blocked by dense silver threads, and the outside of the body was completely locked by a space particle, unable to move.

“You dare” the first-generation black corpse roared, but the horror of the horror fell in response to him.

“what”

哐 Dang!

“what”

One halberd slammed the halberd, and finally, the first-generation black corpse was not called, and his head and mouth were completely shattered.

Its body was trembling there, the soul consciousness was locked in the body, and the true spirit could not even escape.

“No, you won’t see your daughter again when you kill me.” The first true corpse real spirit came with a terrifying growl.

Qin Tiange’s eyes were narrowed, and two beams of cold mang were issued. Without saying a word, he reached out and grabbed its true spirit, and imprisoned it with the rune of the earth.

“Relax, you will die terribly.” Qin Tiange muttered to himself, swallowing this first true spirit directly.

This is an outrageous capture of the memory of the other party. He has no intention of asking at all. He simply does not need to ask, but captures the true memory by brutal means.

Soon, the memory of this first-generation black corpse was plundered by Qin Tiange, and he finally found information about Ziyi.

“Miscellaneous account You look for death!”

At the moment of seeing this memory, Qin Tiange, who was originally calm, suddenly became furious and waved the ancient halberd into the broken bronze door.

Huh!

“Bold!”

There was a violent vibration in the broken bronze door, and then a loud whistle came out, and a wave of fierce roar came and shocked everyone.

I saw, inside the broken bronze door, a dark yellow energy was boiling, as if ignited, burning, turning into flames.

Inside is a fragmented world, a fragment of the ancient battlefield outside the sky, hiding a few scary ancient **** corpses.

Rumbling

“what”

There was a sudden scream in the bronze door fragment, and then a gigantic ruptured head flew out and smashed into the restricted area. The true spirit was gone, but still sent out the terrible breath belonging to the first generation.

Chapter 639 - Leading to the altar, confrontation through time and space

Inside the broken bronze door, Qin Tiange held a huge head in his hand, his eyebrow ruptured, his face’s wounds were repaired quickly, and various wounds on his body were healing.

He was gloomy, staring at the eight horrible ancient corpses in front of him, gray all over, exuding a thick mist, all of them arrogant.

There were originally ten ancient corpses, but Qin Tiange suddenly rushed in, killed two ancient corpses, and chopped the true spirits of two ancient corpses.

The remaining eight ancient corpses are surrounding a huge altar, and a small purple figure locked in the center is the purple clothes.

“Father goes, this is a trap.”

Ziyi shouted anxiously on the altar, her body was imprisoned above the altar by inexplicable power, and it floated quietly there.

“Don’t worry about Ziyi. I killed these ancient corpses to save you.” Qin Tiange Han faced, and he would have to start after saying this.

Seeing this, Zi Yi Qiao’s face shouted anxiously: “Father, leave, they want to take your imperial blood.”

“People’s blood?” Qin Tiange’s pupils shrank, his heart suddenly startled.

Is there so-called imperial blood in his body? No, all he has is Pangu blood, the blood of the Pangu tribe that had been annihilated in the initial era.

“Hahaha haha, I didn’t expect you to be arrogant, but you dare to step in here. It seems you can’t walk today.”

One of the ancient corpses laughed, scarlet eyes stared at Qin Tiange, looked up and down, more and more excited and enthusiastic.

Next to him, a corpse with a first-born twin horns sneered: “The Lord of Huang Quanxing needs his blood. Together, he will draw the blood of the emperor, and send the maiden of his tribe who was born shortly afterwards.”

“Huang Quanxing, Saint?” Qin Tiange squinted his eyes and threw away a broken head in his hand.

He glanced around and found that this is a completely separate space, isolated from the outside, with a mysterious force permeating.

Especially above the altar, the open black light door reveals an incomparable and terrible breath, like a channel of introduction.

“kill!”

Suddenly, eight ancient corpses rushed together and launched a fierce onslaught. The powerful force shredded the space barrier and drowned Qin Tiange’s body.

They wanted to imprison Qin Tiange, draw the blood of the emperor in his body, and together with the purple clothes communicate with Huang Quanxing by secret method, and then send them back.

A loud bang came, and the entire restricted area was trembling. Many creatures felt fear, and the energy fluctuations inside were terrible.

“open!”

Suddenly there was a loud drink in the torrent of energy, and a sword mang soared into the sky, and the torrent of energy was cut open, then rushed out.

Qin Tiange was a little embarrassed, but his breath was unmatched. His eyes were twirled with two silver awns, and the surrounding space and time became slower.

“what?”

“Can’t suppress it?”

Eight ancient corpses were surprised, Qi Qi looked at each other, and was about to continue the attack. As a result, Qin Tiange's figure lost his trace and quietly appeared behind an ancient corpse.

boom!

The corpse turned back almost instantly with a slap, just colliding with Qin Tiange's punch, and a loud muffle came out, and the space shattered.

The ancient corpse only felt the pain in his arm, and then burst into a cracking burst, which was broken by the palm of Qin Tiange.

"Dead!" Qin Tiange Li Xiao rushed forward, and patted the face of this strong ancient corpse with a single palm. He collapsed on the spot, his eyes burst, and his eyes were raised.

The corpse roared miserably, and the remaining arm waved fiercely, chopped down with its gray power.

Qin Tiange shook his eyes, the figure flashed, and grabbed the arm like lightning, only to hear a click, blood squirted, his arm was torn off by him.

"Ah, suppress him." This ancient corpse growled in anger, but unfortunately he couldn't speak anymore.

A large halberd buzzed, and the edge pierced through nothingness, running through his eyebrows, smashing his soul consciousness on the spot.

"Duck, kill him and take imperial blood!"

There were roars of ancient corpses, and the remaining seven strong horizontal corpses broke out. The body was permeated with strange gray patterns, interwoven into a large gray net, directly covering Qin Tiange.

Suddenly, a force of imprisonment came, causing Qin Tiange's instinct to emerge from the taboo of time and space, and a crunchy sound came, and the two forces collided, causing the space to collapse.

At this time, Qin Tiange's figure turned into black particles, passed through the broken space fault, came to the top of an ancient corpse, the ancient sword emerged from the sheath, and the sharp pierced the opponent's heavenly spirit.

Flutter!

The speed of this sword is too fast, and the ancient corpse is being banned under the joint. As a result, he did not dodge, and was only able to be stabbed into the heavenly spirit by Qin Tiange, and was swallowed by the ancient sword on the spot.

Kill another ancient corpse, Qin Tiange's evil spirits are more prosperous, and the intention of killing in his eyes is almost condensed into substance.

"Roar, **** emperor!"

"Unlock the original blood seal and release the power of life."

At the scene, there were still six powerful ancient corpses roaring, and the light of the seals emerged, and the ancient forces in the body awoke.

That was the strength of these ancient corpses before they were born. They were extremely tyrannical, sealed up, and now released. Qin Tiange felt a terrifying threat.

“Forbidden time and space!”

Almost immediately, Qin Tiange erupted to the fullest extent, covering all directions in the space and time, and instantly restrained six ancient corpses whose seals were opened.

At the moment when the six ancient corpses were imprisoned, Qin Tiange moved, his body was boiling with pangu blood, and a force that belonged to the Pangu tribe opened the sky, accompanied by the ancient sword to cut off six ancient corpses instantly.

“No” roared by the ancient corpses, unable to move, only to watch the ancient force drown them.

When the energy passed, two of the six most powerful corpses disappeared, and the figure appeared on the altar not far away, looking at Qin Tiange in horror.

At this moment, the four stiff corpses suddenly heard a rattling sound, and saw their heads shattered into powder, leaving only a headless body lying upright.

One shot killed four ancient corpses, which was an incredible power. Qin Tiange’s extreme blow broke out beyond imagination.

He was a little pale and gasping heavily, apparently the blow that had consumed most of his strength just now had a deep sense of weakness.

“Hurry up, teleport the maiden first.”

At this moment, the remaining two ancient corpses immediately panicked, and apart from that, they each hit a blast of energy into the altar and suddenly started the altar.

Buzz

The altar trembled, and a strong energy burst out. A terrible breath came from the black light door above the altar, directly covering the purple clothing.

“Father, save me” Ziyi panicked, and her body was slowly sucked into the light gate.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange was so horrified that he rose into the air and rushed to the altar in an instant, but saw the two ancient corpses brush in front of him.

“Go, block them!”

Qin Tiange looked furious, reached out and threw his hand, and the ancient Euphorbia slammed with a blast. Then, a cloud of light emerged, and a gray figure appeared holding the Euphorbia, and straightly took two ancient corpses.

“Equipment?” The two corpses were startled, and then angered, killing them together.

boom!

The two broke out, and their power was extremely horrible, but they were blocked by the gray shadow holding the halberd, the instrumental soul, which is the ancient soul of the ancient halberd, debuted, showing the mighty combat power.

The sound of crickets came, and the instrumental soul blocked two ancient corpses. Qin Tiange Fei got on the altar and grabbed the purple clothes flying into the light gate with one hand.

“Give me back!”

Qin Tiange drank, grabbed the purple clothing with both hands, and tried to pull him back, but was shocked to find that the mysterious power from the black light door could not be removed or even broken.

Ziyi's body did not enter the light gate little by little, Qin Tiange was extremely angry, and several kinds of power broke out. Pangu blood almost burned, and finally stopped Ziyi's body.

“Roaring” Qin Tiange snarled and was so imposing that he was still pulled in a little bit, grasping the purple clothes with both hands, and gradually touched the black light door.

Zizi's light flickered, Qin Tiange's complexion changed slightly, his hands and flesh were even shattered by the light door, exposing the purple-golden skeleton, showing a slight gray light.

Seeing his hands and flesh shattered, Zi Yi Qiao's face turned pale, and his pupils began to have a mist of water, and his heart was moved and lost.

“Father, let it go.” Ziyi's complexion suddenly calmed down, and he looked at Qin Tiange calmly.

Qin Tiange's blood was boiling all over, and his blue tendons were exposed. He seemed extremely painful. He couldn't help snarling and fierce, but he couldn't stop Ziyi from entering the light gate.

“Drive me!”

Suddenly, a huge crack cracked over Qin Tiange's head, a long river ran through it, a huge hand was stretched out from the inside, and he shot hard into the light gate.

“presumptuous!”

At this moment, if there was a light drink in the black light door, he saw a large gray hand passing through the light door and hit him hard.

With a bang, two giant hands collided, and a loud bang came, and the Emperor's virtual shadow was shaken back, his body swayed, and he turned and sank into the river of luck and disappeared.

The giant hand grabbed down Qin Tiange fiercely, with an unstoppable power, to suppress Qin Tiange.

“Father, go, go” Ziyi shouted anxiously, struggling hard, trying to open Qin Tiange's hands.

Facing the desperate situation of life and death, Qin Tiange was extremely calm, looking at the giant hand above his head and grabbing it, his eyes glowed with horror and murder.

“It’s not that easy to kill me.” Qin Tiange sighed suddenly, a mysterious force suddenly burst into his brows, time sprang up with mighty power, and instantly enveloped the giant hand.

The sound of Kakaka came, the giant hand seemed to be frozen by some force, but it was still pressed down little by little.

In the end, the giant hand stopped three meters above Qin Tiange’s head, and then was smashed here by silver wires.

“Farewell, Ziyi will remember you”

Suddenly, a bright smile appeared on Ziyi’s face, and the purple corpse pattern on the eyebrow bloomed with a ray of light, shaking Qin Tiange’s hand in an instant, and his body fell into the light door.

“Purple clothes” Qin Tiange’s complexion changed greatly, holding on to his left hand and holding the purple clothes, the entire arm was not in the light door.

Penetrating the black light door, the purple clothing was inside, and he looked at him with tears in his eyes, as if saying goodbye.

“Give me back!”

Qin Tiange howled, the other hand penetrated into the light door, and the flesh was directly shredded, leaving only a pair of bone hands to firmly grasp the purple clothing.

“Father hurry away” Ziyi growled in Guangmen, watching Qin Tiange’s arms smashed with flesh, and his heart was in pain.

“Bold!”

At this moment, a light and indifferent drink came out of the light gate, and a ray of light penetrated the endless time and space, and hit Qin Tiange fiercely.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange knew that he couldn’t stop the power. It was too powerful, and he had to let go of this time and space connection, otherwise not only would he die, but there was a powerful existence that struck him across time and space.

“Purple clothes, protect yourself!”

Qin Tiange looked pained, watching Ziyi but couldn’t save it, and he hated it, but had to admit that he was not strong enough.

“Then, take part in your enlightenment and protect your true spirit.” Qin Tiange put a little purple brows in his right hand and struck through the light gates mysterious golden symbols into purple brows.

boom!

The purple corpse of the purple eyebrow flashed, and Qin Tiange's hands were shaken, with tears in perseverance, swallowed directly by the light door, completely disappeared.

Chapter 640 - Show fangs and swallow the peoples

"Purple ... take care!"

Qin Tiange looked at the disappearing light gate, his face was gloomy, and he secretly hated that he was not strong enough to protect his daughter, and was led away by the powerful existence.

In this case, he didn't want to experience it again. Only when he is strong can he not be suppressed, and he won't have the sense of weakness now.

"Hahahaha ..."

"Herald, are you desperate?"

At this moment, a burst of laughter came, and the two most powerful ancient corpses laughed, with a taunt of sarcasm in the words.

With the purple clothes being taken away by Huang Quanxing's powerful creatures, watching Qin Tiange, the emperor's helpless feeling, really has an inexplicable euphoria, can't help but utter a satire.

Qin Tiange slowly turned around, there was no fluctuation in his eyes, and he looked at the two tyrannical ancient corpses quietly, his strength became more and more tyrannical, even pressing the ancient halberd soul.

The instrument soul is very powerful, but was suppressed by two ancient corpses, because the ancient corpse's strength was released a little bit awake, and it became more and more horrible.

Finally, one of the ancient corpses surpassed the early generation and broke through the barriers directly, reaching the terrible level of the star.

boom!

With a slap in the palm, the instrument soul was blown back, standing quietly behind Qin Tiange, standing with a halberd, with a strong and ancient breath, exuding a storm to kill.

Qin Tiange did not move, but watched the two ancient corpses unleash the strength of his lifetime, released, and burst into an unparalleled energy.

"Men, you are dead."

The other ancient corpse roared, surging in strength, and finally released the seal's pre-existing strength, and obtained a horrible transformation.

The forces before the two corpse explosions took control of some of the terrible strengths of his lifetime, and killed them directly, killing the emperor Qin Tiange and then training the emperor's blood.

"Since I'm not strong enough, then I will swallow the flesh and blood of thousands of people to strengthen my strength."

After a long silence, Qin Tiange finally slowly raised his head, two horrible cold mans were revealed in his eyes, and a murmur was utterly cold.

He actually wanted to devour the living beings of all ethnic groups, strengthen himself, and constantly become stronger. Since he is not strong enough, he will become stronger until no one can suppress him again.

“Forbidden time and space, open!”

As soon as a deep drink came, I saw the surrounding space and time freeze on the spot, time passed, everything was freezed.

Qin Tiange walked step by step and came to the two stony-faced ancient corpses, piercing the hearts of both with one hand and the other.

“No ... you, dare you devour us?”

The two ancient corpses were frightened, suppressed by the power of time and space, the heart was pierced by Qin Tiange, holding a huge heart in both hands, and started to devour madly.

This is the first time that Qin Tiange devoured the spirits and spirits, and even the true spirits did not let go. He let go of his strength, and Pangu’s blood boiled and roared, turning them into giants and devouring the vast and immense energy of two ancient corpses.

“Ah ...” Along with two screams, I saw two horrible ancient corpses that released the terrible ancient corpses of their strength before they were swallowed up by the Qin Tiange bit by bit.

The ancient corpse became a dry corpse. There was no energy in the dry body, and the fear remained in his eyes. The true spirit was swallowed by Qin Tiange.

boom!

Two arms trembled, and the dried-up ancient corpses were smashed into powder on the spot, completely disappeared, and the real soul fluttered.

Qin Tiange looked cold, raised his hands and grabbed, and the rumbling noise came. Then, those powerful ancient corpses that died were flown by him, and he was extracted with an energy essence and swallowed directly.

Originally, he did not intend to use this brutal way to improve himself, but, after experiencing a sense of weakness this time, he deeply realized that in the face of foreign strong men, there is no room to fight back.

In this case, then let go of your jealousy completely, revealing his fangs, eating up peoples, and achieving self.

After swallowing the full body energy of ten ancient corpses, Qin Tiange’s body was completely occupied by the violent energy, and the ninety-nine star cores trembled, growing stronger, and devouring endless energy.

The fierce Qin Tiange, who was fierce, burned Pangu blood in his body, crushed and quenched the innumerable energy, and then was sucked into the core of the star.

After absorbing these violent energies, the ninety-nine star cores have doubled, but Qin Tiange still feels that it is not enough. He wants to completely transform into real stars, condensing ninety-nine stars out of it, and achieving a star rating. Really The difference is ten thousand miles.

With a stubborn look on his face, he hummed, “Not enough, then devour all the strong foreign races. I will eat as much as I can.”

Qin Tiange became fierce, and his heart became more and more fierce. In the face of foreigners, it was cruel to kill the soul refiner, but now it is different. He wants to eat the energy of these foreigners.

“Here, there is no need to exist!”

Looking at the altar around, Qin Tiange snorted, a surge of strength surged out of the Dantian Purple House, turned into a fist, and hit a punch on the altar.

boom!

With a loud noise, the entire altar collapsed, and the broken land inside the bronze gate was directly broken into pieces on the spot.

Outside, in the restricted area, the powerful men of all races suddenly felt a terrible breath, and then a loud noise exploded completely there.

Inside the bronze door, the black gas rolled and suddenly shattered into nothingness, and a terrifying silhouette came out of it.

“His, not dead?”

Seeing this person, those strong men of all ethnic groups who came to watch were frightened, especially when Qin Tiange was even more terrified, with a kind of trembling from the soul.

Qin Tiange stepped out, just to see that Jiji had not yet won the opponent, it seemed to be sharpening his energy.

“Dead!” Qin Tiange reached out into the void and saw that the first ancient corpse that was fighting fiercely there was about to get out of the way, and was gripped by a hand that penetrated the space.

The first generation looked terrified, and before he responded, he saw a violent force coming, and then his body dried up quickly.

“Ah ... how dare you devour ...” A scream came, terrified, but stopped abruptly, the first ancient corpse was devoured into a ash.

Seeing such a scene, I have stunned myself, watching Qin Tiange’s expression full of disgust, could not help but tremble in my heart.

“Master, it seems to have changed.” I murmured in my heart.

In the restricted area, the hidden ancestors of the foreign ancestors from all sides changed their faces, watching the scene in horror.

Qin Tiange even swallowed the flesh and blood energy of the living beings directly, and even swallowed the consciousness of the true spirits.

“God, this emperor is crazy?” A foreign ancestor horrified.

He murmured sternly: “There are not many races in the Starry Hundreds that have swallowed up flesh and blood, and the court of life has forbidden it, and it will be destroyed immediately if found.”

“What does he want to do?”

“Aren’t you afraid of being destroyed by the judges of the life court?”

For a while, the hidden ancestors of the alien ancestors were all frightened and backed away, and were about to leave quietly, because they found that Qin Tiange seemed to become more cruel.

“If you want to come, if you want to go?”

Qin Tiange suddenly looked up, glanced over the hiding places of those strong men, and disappeared without expression.

Immediately after, there was a violent shaking and anger from all sides of the restricted area, followed by continuous screams.

“Jack!”

“you dare!”

“what...”

Voices of rage and screams continued to be heard, and the entire restricted area was heard. Then, one by one, the hidden masters of foreign ancestors were beaten one by one by Qin Tiange and devoured all their energy, including true spirit.

Violent and ferocious, they swallowed the ancestors of all ethnic groups directly. Qin Tiange showed the fierce tusks and even directly swallowed the strong of various ethnic groups.

Everyone saw the horrible scene. The remaining ancient corpses in the restricted area were frightened by this scene. One after another, the ancestors, the powerful foreigners, were all swallowed up by Qin Tiange.

“Princess, you violate the rules laid down by the court of life, you must not die!”

“The judge will not let you go.”

Some ancestors screamed in anger and screams before death, some cursed, and some left a threat, but unfortunately could not escape the fate of being swallowed.

With this meal, Qin Tiange swallowed up most of the strong foreigners who came to watch the battle, and the remaining few who had run fast had already fled.

The ancestors who fled were obviously frightened, and all of them were stunned. They ran directly into the Pangu continent and immediately convened their own army of pioneers. They did not dare to hide.

“Master, master, you, are you all right?”

At this moment, Jiji stepped up carefully and asked a question softly, very worried that Qin Tiange had undergone any bad changes.

Qin Tiange looked at his embarrassed face, and his cold face melted suddenly, revealing a smile.

“I’m okay. I will wipe out the remaining ancient corpses in this restricted area as soon as possible, and wipe out all the threats.” Qin Tiange said gently.

I nodded my head, and didn’t say much, went straight and led a hundred thousand super **** warriors to clear the huge number of ancient corpses hidden in the entire restricted area.

Most of the ancient corpses were hidden in the Huangquan River, and some were buried in the tan mud and slept.

“Kill, destroy the restricted area!”

At this point, outside the restricted area, a large formation of air and sky motherships came, followed by a dense army of human races, and finally came outside the restricted area.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange knew that there was no force to stop this battle, but he was not happy in his heart.

Because the daughter Ziyi was taken away by the strong, and he couldn’t stop him, he couldn’t fight each other through time and space, let alone face to face.

“Tiange, what’s up, purple clothes?”

At this point, Chen Xi quickly fell down, wearing a sturdy armor, and the jade armor corpse that had already recovered had been around him, looking at him with a worried face.

Qin Tiange looked at them and said for a moment of silence: “Ziyi was taken away by Huang Quanxing’s arrogant presence I can’t stop it.”

“What?” Chen Xiqiao’s face changed, and she was furious and worried.

Ziyi, Qin Tiange’s daughter, is also her daughter. Then she heard that she was led away by a powerful creature. How can she be worried?

“Da Yuer, Huang Quan’s corpse will be handed over to you here. The purple clothing is not here. You should take care of it here. Don’t let me down.”

Qin Tiange came to the Jade Corpse, reached out his hand, and patted her shoulder gently, the encouraging look surprised Jade Corpse’s heart.

“Tian Ge, go and bring them back to Xi Xi, don’t regret it if this happened again.” Chen Xi said with a dignified expression in his ear.

Qin Tiange heard his words, bowed his head and lost his thoughts, and finally nodded slowly.

“Let’s put this first. They are gaining their own chances and opening the ancient heritage. They cannot be abandoned halfway. I will go to Mars now, and there is an old friend there.”

After Qin Tiange said, he nodded to Chen Xi, and then turned into a black particle and disappeared.
