

Dark Ages 64

Chapter 64 - Thrilling fights on the roof

Immediately after the door opened, Long Xiaoya and the two young soldiers immediately saw the shadow of the aisle flashing in the carriage.

Uh ...

Three consecutive slashes, sparks splattered, Qin Tiange looked dignified, and was shocked. As soon as he entered the compartment, he immediately saw a dozen girls lying on the ground, and he didn't know how to die.

What's more terrible is that a zombie was hitting the iron gate. When he saw the zombie at the first glance, Qin Tiange's heart was so tight that he was in trouble.

More than just trouble? This zombie turned out to be a three-star zombie. She has evolved to the third-star level, and the speed is amazing. Most of them have evolved above the speed. The power is only twenty people.

But its speed is horrible. Even Qin Tiange can't catch the shadow of the other side, and almost came to the road. Fortunately, he has improved his physical fitness by 30 times at this moment. Naturally, he is not the weak.

boom!

I was surprised to see that the two shadows staggered quickly, and after a slamming muffled sound, the two were on either side.

Qi Qin Tiange had a dignified look, and stared at the zombies on the other side with vigilance, and looked carefully. This is the special zombies that have evolved. I have encountered a lot in the past life, and call them zombies.

This kind of zombies is a feature, the power will not evolve too much, but the speed is terrifying. If it is allowed to evolve, it is likely to be lightning fast, and even evolve into a more terrible flying corpse.

Roar!

On the opposite side, the Samsung zombie clearly felt Qin Tiange's threat. He opened his mouth and roared, opened and closed his right paw, and rubbed out Mars.

Over there, Moda, Liu Ye, and others arrived, and quickly lay in a coma, and the girls who did not know their lives or death quickly carried away.

But at this moment, the two girls' faces changed, and they were surprised to see a dark flash, a black light claw grasped at them fiercely, and the zombies launched a sudden attack on them.

Huh!

As soon as Qi Qianjun made his hair, a huge wide-bladed knife came horizontally, blocking that claw, and rescued the two shocked girls.

The Qin Lai was Qin Tiange, who had locked the zombies long ago. When the other party moved, they immediately stepped forward and blocked the attack at the most critical moment.

“People who still want to kill me?” Qin Tiange felt a rage in his heart.

He was so angry that more than a dozen girls were lying alive or dead. These girls were all cultivated by him. Losing one would make him feel heartache.

I now see that this zombie dared to attack two girls in front of him, which is just irritating his inner anger.

“Get me up!” Qin Tiange under the rage roared, kicked his feet hard, and thundered loudly. Samsung’s zombie body was kicked up and hit the roof.

Suddenly, Qin Tiange leaps into the air and slashes with anger. However, the Samsung zombies is indeed a rapid zombies. Although he was kicked with some signs of bone fracture, he waved his claws and severely tore open the roof iron, quickly drilled up, and avoided the knife.

“Want to leave, no door!” Qin Tiange sighed, and suddenly he reached out and grabbed the roof with his left hand, and his body jumped into the torn gap and got on the roof.

I just turned over, and immediately felt a gust of wind blowing from behind. My body was so sharp that I didn’t need to look to know that the zombie was sneaking in from behind, and his paw was almost in his heart.

Huh!

He turned around and slashed, and Qin Tiange was hit three meters away by a huge force. It was dangerous to fall into the train, but his feet were dead.

At this moment, Samsung Zombie suddenly swooped in. He suddenly looked up and was surprised to see a dark shadow rushing to the ground, a murderous body, and his cheeks were a little painful.

The broad blade lay across his chest, and a snoring sound blocked the blow. However, because of the power of this blow, Qin Tiange, who was standing on the top edge of the train, slipped under his feet and fell down.

“Brother Qin!”

In the carriage, a group of people suddenly exclaimed, and saw a person hanging out of the carriage window. It was Qin Tiange who fell from the roof of the car, grasped the edge of the roof with one hand, and inserted the iron sheet with five fingers.

Tamarix, Long Xiaoya, Moda and others were nervous and worried. They wanted to help, but unfortunately they were not able to do it. Samsung zombies were not something they could deal with.

As for the two young soldiers, already stunned at this moment, looking at a large group of people in the carriage, one by one wearing armor and holding a steel knife and a steel shield.

Those girls are even more weird, with steel knives and steel crossbows in their hands.

“What is the origin of these people?” The two soldiers were dumbfounded, staring at each other, seeing the shock and doubt in each other’s eyes.

The most terrible thing is that the person who is fighting Samsung’s rapid zombies, regardless of speed or strength, exceeds their imagination, and their outlook on life is subverted.

“His power, so scary!” One of the soldiers said in shock.

I saw, Qin Tiange hanging in front of the window suddenly exerted his strength, his body swayed, and he cleverly turned back to the roof, facing the Samsung zombies that came up.

Rapid, extreme speed, so that Qin Tiange’s naked eyes can hardly capture. In the face of such a situation, he gradually calmed down, becoming more calm and not panic.

Suddenly, he felt as if things around him had slowed down, and he had originally told the moving train to slow down in his eyes.

I was not an illusion, nor was the speed of the train slower, but that his thinking and vision seemed to have become more agile and faster.

In front of Xun, the Samsung zombie slammed slowly in his eyes, and the claws mutated in his right hand glowed with a ray of black light, and the sharp claws slowly grabbed his heart.

Slow, very slow, as if in the slow motion of the movie, every movement of Samsung’s rapid zombies, even the half-faced demon’s face exposed, the slightest expression was clearly seen by him this Is it ... the power of that eye? Qin Tiange struck a bolt of lightning in his heart and understood that this situation seemed to be related to the mysterious eyeball he had drawn.

I can’t think about it, how can I miss this opportunity? Qin Tiange suddenly staggered, and the Samsung zombie rushing up from his side flew past him side by side, lifted the knife, and the blade edged past the opponent’s left arm.

Two figures crossed, one arm soared, fell into the grass on both sides under the train, and soon lost track.

At the top of the train, two figures confronted each other, staring at each other. Samsung’s zombies opened their mouths quickly and issued an extremely horrifying roar, appearing extremely irritable and crazy.

It was cut off with an arm. It had just rushed to Qin Tiange just now, but I do n’t know why, the human even escaped, and even cut off his left hand with a stab.

On the broken arm, the black blood spread, but strangely did not drip down, but flowed back, then the flesh and blood moved, and the blood vessels spread, and soon recovered, and even re-grown a brand-new arm.

“So strong resilience!” Qin Tiange’s pupils shrank, and he quietly hummed.

At this moment, the opposite zombies roared, flashed quickly, and leapt high, and the black light claws slammed into his head.

Humph! Qin Tiange snorted coldly, his body suddenly fluttered backwards, moved away five meters, and avoided the blow.

There was a loud noise, and the iron sheet at the top of the carriage suddenly smashed, and the claw of the zombie flew out of a one-meter-wide hole, scaring everyone in the carriage exclaimed one by one.

“Dead!” At this moment, Qin Tiange’s feet that had just fallen suddenly kicked, his body flashed quickly, and the wide-bladed sword was severely chopped at the zombie’s neck.
