

Dark Ages 641

Chapter 641 - Black hole weapon, red matter, starkiller

Mars, on the West Tianling Mountain, a figure quietly appeared.

Qin Tiange came to Mars, looked at the huge battle city that was being built, and started construction. The main body was basically completed, and he was designing and constructing a weapon defense system.

After looking at it, he didn't pay much attention. Instead, he stepped into space and reached a crater on the surface of Mars.

"Here you come, we meet again!"

In front of the crater, a figure appeared faintly, wearing a black robe, exuding a mysterious atmosphere like mist, and it was not real.

Even with the current practice, Qin Tiange couldn't see through each other, and couldn't help but guess at what level this mysterious dead businessman was?

"Zero, this time, what did you bring?" Qin Tiange was very straightforward, and spoke directly.

This man in black robe is the dead businessman who came to earth shortly after the beginning of the last days, this is the second time he has seen him.

Zero, shrouded in a black robe, smiled lightly: "My friend, I didn't expect to come again, but I saw another scene."

"Hundreds of hunters did not want to be destroyed by you. Even the hundreds of them were hidden and did not dare to appear. And, have you heard that you have directly set foot in the restricted area where two ancient battlefields came?"

The words of zero, with a hint of surprise, even surprise, are too fantastic for Qin Tiange, a young ethnic group to grow up.

He originally felt that Qin Tiange's future achievements were not low, but he did not expect such a high achievement, and in just a few years he had grown to this step and even led the family.

Although the earth race has not been unified, it seems to him sooner or later, that is, the dead businessman-zero, and Qin Tiange's evaluation has been improved several times.

"You know my rules, so I do n't have to worry about it. Look at it myself, I brought a lot of good things, of course you have to be able to buy it." Zero waved directly, released the light curtain, and listed himself walking here this time. Coming goods.

He has a lot of merchandise, a lot of types, and even a lot of unheard of. He has introduced things he has never seen before.

Powerful ancestors, all kinds of strange things, even some spiritual treasures, can be seen in the stars.

But these are not attractive to Qin Tiange at all, even if it is a powerful ancestor, he doesn't care about these things at all.

"You don't have any treasures of time and space?" Qin Tiange's tone revealed a trace of dissatisfaction.

puff!

I took a sip on the spot while drinking tea, coughed twice, and said silently, "My friend, what a pity you made me."

"Space-time treasure, you want to go crazy. As a great death businessman, I only have a half-time-space traffic treasure, do you want space-time treasure?" Zero looked at him silently and said Sentence.

Qin Tiange shook his head, disappointed, "I thought you could bring something good, but I didn't expect that I didn't want it."

"Good guy, you have such a big appetite now." Zero was surprised.

He looked up and down the Qin Tiange, then thought about it, put out a message, and said, "Look at the things on this, if you are satisfied, you can trade."

"Huh?" Qin Tiange didn't care, but glanced at him, staring at the information list.

"Disposable black hole weapon: a black hole-level weapon that can make a black hole with a diameter of kilometers for devouring attacks."

"Red matter: it can be injected into the core of the planet and explode the nucleus, causing the planet to collapse into a supernova explosion. It can also penetrate into the enemy's body and detonate the star core and even the stellar body."

"Starkiller: Super weapon that can destroy stars and galaxies, from the intelligent star, can gather the dark energy of the universe and transform it into super energy to destroy the planet."

Looking at these three introductions, Qin Tiange blinked his eyes, and he knew the black hole weapon, because the Chinese Ministry of Science and Technology is currently in the process of intensifying the development of anti-matter black hole bombs, which are not the same as anti-matter bombs.

The black hole kills everything, while the antimatter bomb destroys everything. The two cannot be confused.

Antimatter bombs have begun mass production equipment. As for black hole bombs, this thing is still in the research stage, and it is more difficult to achieve than antimatter bombs.

As for red matter, this thing Qin Tiange has heard of it, but has not seen it. Moreover, this thing is rumored to be able to be made into a super star-strike weapon.

This red matter is very strange and mysterious, it can cause the core of the planet to explode, causing the planet to collapse in advance, and finally cause the planet to directly enter the state of a supernova, resulting in a direct explosion of terror energy.

Even this mysterious substance can penetrate into the body and detonate the opponent's nucleus, but you must have the ability to penetrate the red substance into the opponent's body.

As for the last star-killer, it is the super weapon of Zhixing. It is terrifying and can destroy stars or even galaxies. It is conceivable that this thing can destroy the solar system.

"How are you satisfied?" Zero asked with a smile on his face.

He looked at Qin Tiange with no expression, as if he was not attentive, his heart was depressed, and he had to remind him aloud, saying something secret.

"My friend, tell you the truth, in fact, it's not that I don't want to sell you better things, but that there are institutions in the universe that can't sell to lower-level plane creatures that exceed these biological world dimensions. arms."

Zero quietly explained a sentence, which was very mysterious and mysterious in the way of transmission of thoughts. Qin Tiange's pupils shrank and his eyes flickered.

"You said, but the court of life?" Qin Tiange said lightly.

After listening to it for a while, I laughed and laughed, "It turns out that you know, it's easy to handle. Hurry up. This is the best thing I can sell to you. Otherwise, you don't have to think about it."

Qin Tiange thoughtfully asked softly, "Can you give me some relevant information about the court of life, I want to know about this mysterious institution of the universe."

"Yes, this is not a mysterious secret. Everyone in the starry sky knows it." Zero Anomaly simply lost a copy of the information about the life court.

After taking things, Qin Tiange only laughed and said, "Thank you, I have all three things you listed. You can make an offer."

"One thousand years of life value, not two prices." Zero directly stretched out a finger, opening his mouth would take ten thousand years of life.

Qin Tiange frowned slightly, ten thousand years? Opening a mouth requires a life span of 10,000 years. No wonder the dead merchants are not treated by most of the souls in the hundreds.

Opening your mouth and closing your mouth will require life, and you will be blamed for having a good mood.

"Too many, I don't have any of these, but there is something you want to come to you." Qin Tiange said this with a smile.

After listening to zero, frowning, but still patiently asked: "You better take out what I am interested in, if it does not interest me, I really won't trade with you."

“Do you know this thing?” Qin Tiange smiled, turned his palms, and a mysterious group of light emerged.

The light group was glittering with dense golden symbols, and was imprisoned inside, unable to escape.

“Ancestor?” Zero’s voice increased several times, exclaiming.

Obviously, he was surprised to see this thing, and even said he was shocked. The ancestral spirit, which is difficult to appear, is the ancestral spirit that can be exchanged for the strong ancestors of the hundred races to awaken the memory of the distant ancestors with genetic blood and then sacrifice their flesh and soul.

This kind of thing is extremely rare and rare, but among the hundreds of starry sky, it is a sought-after item. If you see one, there will be hundreds of strong people to grab it.

The ancestral spirit, once peeking into the mystery of the ancient era era, has the opportunity to achieve space-time and even higher-level existence.

“Well, you successfully attracted my interest. This ancestral spirit can be exchanged for those three things.” Zero spoke directly and wanted to trade the ancestral spirit.

However, Qin Tiange smiled, put away his ancestors, and said, “You should be very clear that the epoch information contained in the ancestors is definitely very attractive to the strong.”

“Three things, but not very advanced things, do you think you can get a complete ancestral spirit?” Qin Tiange’s expression was indifferent, not in a hurry.

He looked at Zero quietly after speaking, the dead businessman, his face changed, as if doing some sort of struggle.

“You know, the rules of the life court” zero, hesitating.

But as soon as this remark came out, he was interrupted by Qin Tiange and laughed: “Don’t say anything about the court of life, they are not qualified to control our human affairs, no matter what institutions and forces outside the stars are not qualified to control human affairs. . “

“And, are you really afraid of the court of life?” Qin Tiange’s mouth slightly angled, watching the dead businessman with interest.

He didn’t think that the other party was afraid of the life court. Sure enough, he shook his body and hummed, “Of course I’m not afraid of the life court. I’m going to hide in time and space, let’s not talk about it.”

Zero feeling awkward, immediately sounded, and then said: “I have one thing here, and you can take it out with the three things you just saw for your complete ancestral spirit.”

“What is it?” Qin Tiange became interested.

Just listening to zero expression solemnly said: “This is something beyond your world dimension, you have to be careful, once leaked it will surely lead to court judges to clean up.”

“Oh?” Qin Tiange looked dignified, and his heart became more excited.

“Now, these are the three things you look at. The only thing I have is one on me. I don’t want anything more for you.” Zero, took out three things, all of which are space compression treasures.

The first one is naturally a black hole bomb, and the second one contains red matter, which is not much, only one ton.

The third thing is the most important. It is stored in a space box, and it is, which is the star weapon, this super weapon.

The starkiller is a super planet that can be hidden in the faults of space. It can absorb the dark energy of the universe and directly destroy the planet and even the galaxy.

“As for the last thing, I won’t say it, you can see it for yourself.” After finishing zero, a bunch of memories were condensed and sent directly to Qin Tiange.

Then, he took out a space seal solemnly, densely, full of nineteen floors, and carefully gave it to Qin Tiange.

“Just take care of this thing, my ancestor, bring it.” After zero delivery, he reached out and looked at him.

Qin Tiange did not hesitate to take out the sealed group of ancestral spirits. As for those golden symbol seals, it was impossible to give this dead businessman.

“My friend, I’m very interested in this kind of symbol. I don’t know if I can sell it to me, just a rune. I will exchange another kind of treasure that transcends your dimension world.” Zero Yi looked at Qin Tian with a stunned look Golden palm symbol.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange flashed his eyes and laughed inwardly, changing a rune for a treasure beyond the earth’s dimension?

Chapter 642 - Breaking into 4D key, time crystal

“Do you know this kind of symbol?” Qin Tiange looked at him with a smile, with a golden symbol on his fingers, mysterious.

Zero, very eye-catching, the eyes in the black robe show a strong desire, he said: “Although I haven’t seen it, I can guess that it should be one of the three strange books in the universe, the soul symbol in the earth book. “

“Deserves to be a dead businessman. I know all of them. Yes, this is the symbol of the soul in the book.” Qin Tiange was surprised and had more knowledge and speculation about the businessman.

He played with the golden symbol of the beating of his finger, which is the soul symbol contained in the earth book, which has a great power of mystery and unpredictability.

“Sure enough, it is the soul of the ground book. Did you get the ground book?” Zero look horrified, looking at Qin Tiange’s eyes a little differently.

Qin Tiange shook his head and regretfully said: “I saw the book once, but I can’t suppress it and let it run away, but I have recorded a small part of the soul that is true. If you want, then you can get my heart. Things. “

“You definitely need this thing.” Full of zero confidence, he waved his hands and released a protective cover, covering them, and directly disappeared into the space fault.

In the space fault, the black robe was removed by zero, revealing its true appearance. The human face has cat ears, and a pair of small dragon horns grow on the forehead.

He is a My Neighbor Totoro who travels through time and space and travels the dead merchants of all realms.

“My friend, in order to show my sincerity, I will trade with you in true colors. You must know that our Chinchillas never trade with people in true colors.” My Neighbor Totoro, Zero, said solemnly.

His ruby eyes, full of sincerity, glowed with a strange light.

Qin Tiange thoughtfully and laughed: “Say, what do you want to exchange for, you must know that the soul of the earth book is true, there must not be many creatures and strong people in the entire universe.”

Take out a silvery white vigilance carefully and seriously: “This time crystal is the standard and the only way for any three-dimensional civilization to enter the four-dimensional.”

“Time crystal?” Qin Tiange’s pupils shrank, his heart tightened suddenly, and he stared at the silver-white crystal, showing the breath of time.

Yes, it was the breath of time that shocked him, and there was a crystal of time?

“If you want to come, you still don’t understand. Any three-dimensional space or civilized race, if you want to break the dimensional restrictions to step into the four dimensions, you must have a crystal of time, otherwise you can’t step into the four dimensions.” Zero expression solemnly reminded.

He pointed at the time crystal and said, “This kind of thing is collected from the river of time. As for the specific location of the river of time, no one has ever seen it, but all races have gathered this time crystal in various ways and secret methods to collect it for promotion. A sign of a four-dimensional race. “

“Four-dimensional creatures can use time. Only by using the river of time can they officially step into the three-dimensional world and enter the higher-level four-dimensional world.”

“The time crystal is used to build the house of time, accelerate time, or build a huge cultivation secret to accelerate the cultivation progress of the younger generation of this family.”

“Even in the four-dimensional world, the trading currencies of all races are these time crystals. It seems that these are circulating currencies, but in the world and race below the four-dimensional, this is contraband.”

Listening to the introduction of Qin, Qin Tiange finally understood that although he had acquired a lot of ancient memories, it was not complete, and it was normal for many things to not be understood.

As for the eighteen sages returning from the stray sky, such as Li Bai, Qin Tiange did not have time to ask them about these things. Now it seems necessary to talk to those sages.

“You mean, aren’t all the races in the four-dimensional world able to use the power of time?” Qin Tiange looked a little dignified.

Zero could not laugh or cry, saying nothing: “The crystal of time can only be used to build the house of time or the mystery of time. Who can absorb the power of time?”

“That’s the power of taboo. Absorbed, it can immediately make a powerful creature grow old and fail directly, and then turn into a bone. Would you like to try it?” Zero Yi said with a smile.

Qin Tiange was uncomfortable, and his heart was finally relieved. If all four-dimensional creatures can use the power of time, then there is no need to play.

He thought for a while and asked, “Do you mean, want to use my most common currency in this four-dimensional space to trade me a true soul?”

“Let’s go. One day we will rush out of the three-dimensional ancestral land and step directly into the four-dimensional space and time. If you want this true soul change, that is whimsical.” Qin Tiange shook his head and turned to leave the space fault. .

“Wait, there is something to discuss.” Zero anxious, directly blocked Qin Tiange.

He eagerly said: “You have to be clear that four-dimensional things cannot be transported to three-dimensional, that is a contraband, it is smuggled, and it must be found that the judges in the life court will be directly destroyed.”

“Okay, okay, I’ll give you a few more things.” Watching Qin Tiange unmoved, Zero Cat finally compromised.

He took out a few things with a bitter smile and introduced them one by one: “This is a space crystal, which is the ultimate expression of the development of three-dimensional creatures. It contains various technologies and knowledge that can make space objects, use space technology or create space secrets. . “

Qin Tiange glanced at space technology. After three-dimensional biological ethnic civilization developed to the extreme, he could use space technology, such as space jumping, to carry out space travel.

In addition, space technology can create space objects. This is how various space storage equipment is developed, as well as advanced technologies such as space folding, space distortion, and space compression.

“This is okay, but it’s not enough.” Qin Tiange nodded, be regarded as approval, but not enough.

Yilian was depressed, gritted his teeth, took out another thing and introduced it: “It’s gone, this is a technology and equipment for collecting time crystals from Zhixing. Anyway, these things are a lot in 4D space-time, so I will give you a secret . “

“That’s it. If it doesn’t work, I really can only regret to give it up.” The Zero Spreader said that this is the biggest bottom line.

Qin Tiange’s eyes flickered and he looked at each other quietly. The two confronted each other, and no one was willing to give in.

“Well, then I’ll make it difficult and change with you.” In the end, Qin Tiange agreed to the exchange proposal.

Zero was relieved, and immediately gave the good things directly to Qin Tiange, the time crystal, space crystal, time crystal collection technology and equipment.

After collecting these things, Qin Tiange smiled with  deep, a golden symbol appeared on it, mysterious and unbelievable, which is exactly the soul of the book.

Only one of them was dropped to zero, and the latter took it carefully and sealed it with one thing.

However, he blinked his eyes and looked at Qin Tiange hehehe laughed and said, “My friend, how many souls in your body are true, I use another four-dimensional treasure to exchange it with you.”

As soon as Qin Tiange heard it, he twitched his face and looked at this zero cat silently. It was really treacherous, business nature, and there was even that. Did n’t he just say it was gone?

“You use four-dimensional money-time crystals to count the four-dimensional treasures. Now you say the four-dimensional treasures. I even suspect that what you take out is some  in the four-dimensional world.” Qin Tiange said lightly.

After listening to zero, I was embarrassed, he laughed, and promised: “I didn’t lie. As a businessman, sincerity is necessary. Am I not telling you clearly?”

“Time crystal is a four-dimensional currency, but the three-dimensional world is forbidden from being transported or even circulated. If it is found, it will be seized directly by court judges, and even wanted by the entire universe, all time and space.” Zero Yilian explained seriously .

He spread his hand and said, "Look, I'm so honest, I think you shouldn't refuse my sincerity to buy or sell, right?"

"Of course, what do you want to exchange with me?" Qin Tiange looked at the businessman with a smile.

So far, he took out something mysteriously and said, "This is a super-dimensional defense circle. The super-defensive shield from the six-dimensional strong tribe can defend the dimensional strike force from the high-dimensional world."

"To tell you the truth, generally speaking, racial creatures in the low-dimensional world are difficult to break out of this world dimension, because some four-dimensional strong races have been dealing with these races that are about to break the barrier of dimensionality into the four-dimensional world."

With no serious warning, he said: "Once a race is found to break through the dimensional barrier, it will usher in a kind of strike, a dimensional strike force from the high-dimensional world, directly returning this race to its original form."

"Return to the original form?" Qin Tiange's pupils shrank, and he couldn't help being shocked.

What kind of terrible weapon is it to return a powerful race or civilization that is about to break through the three-dimensional limitation directly to the state of primitive civilization?

"This dimensional defense circle can release a strong energy and defend against the kind of ultra-dimensional strike from high latitudes. Generally, there is no race on the low-dimensional plane." Zero Yilian introduced it indifferently, but in his eyes, There was a trace of treacherous.

You don't need to look at Qin Tiange to know This guy must be holding ordinary items in the high-dimensional world, or some high-latitude useless things to flicker him.

Think about it. Ultra-dimensional strikes are only available in four dimensions, right? Then, since there is the so-called life court, does not it mean that no race dares to use such a genocide?

But it is also uncertain. Qin Tiange always feels that the so-called court of life is not very useful in the hundreds of stars and even the universe. The war of the stars in the sky is always a matter of life and death.

The law of the universe is the most primitive killing and devouring, living and dying. There is no mercy to say, and there is no so-called goodness.

"A soul is true." Qin Tiange spit out lightly.

Zero Cat was full of black lines, but he exchanged them directly. His face was full of smiles. I can imagine that what he took out was of no use to him.

"I still have here ..." Zero Cat spoke again, only to see Qin Tiange turned black, walked away and stepped out of the space fault.

“Hey, wait, I haven’t finished it yet. This time it is really precious. I won’t lie to you.” Ling Yi panicked and caught up.

Chapter 643 - 1 dead baby universe

Shua

In the space mezzanine, Zero Cat flashed quickly and stopped in front of Qin Tiange.

“Wait, listen to me.” Zero Cat said with a sad look.

Qin Tiange was carrying his hands on his back and looked at him quietly, saying nothing, embarrassing Zero Cat, but he did not let it go.

With a serious look on his face, he assured him: “You listen to me, this time is truly an absolute treasure, and it is a rare treasure that is rarely seen in the multiverse and does not lie to you.”

“Really?” Qin Tiange answered gently.

Zero Cat doesn’t make nonsense, just type a message and introduce: “The treasure I want to tell you, this is it, look at it.”

“Huh?” Qin Tiange was originally concerned, but glanced, his pupils couldn’t help shrinking, staring at the information introduction above.

This thing that Zero Cat brought out is really a treasure, even a treasure, or an invaluable treasure.

“Universal membranes, dead baby universe?” Qin Tiange’s heart beat, his face was calm, and he couldn’t see anything strange.

But there was already a raging sea in his heart, and he never thought that this guy would come up with such a thing.

The baby universe is a newborn universe, just like a baby just born. This is the baby universe.

Unexpectedly, how amazing was Zero Cat to come up with a baby universe, although it was a dead baby universe.

Yes, the introduction above, this is a cosmic placenta in the initial period, called the baby universe, or the placenta, the placenta, which contains a baby universe.

It is a pity that this baby universe is already broken, and it is dead, just like a stillbirth of a biological fetus.

“How, this thing is precious, right?” Zero Cat looked at Qin Tiange proudly.

He said with excitement, “This thing, but something I accidentally saw from the gaps in the multiverse, was robbed by dozens of super strong people at the time, and I was quietly taken away.”

“Well, do you know how precious this thing is?” Zero Cat looked proud, and looked at Qin Tiange with a smile.

He introduced: “The baby universe, even if it is dead, contains great value. You must know that no matter who is in the universe, if you want to be the master of the universe, you must create a universe in your body. , And the baby universe seems extremely precious. Once you understand the rules of the universe, it will certainly be able to achieve the master of the great universe. “

Talking, he was frantic, as if a speaker were talking about the broken baby universe, even the dead universe membranes, and the golden lotus was flooding. Site-based sermons have become the masters of the universe.

Qin Tiange’s mouth twitched, and he scolded the businessman just to be able to say, if it was really good, he would have been fully aware of himself, and he had already become the master of the universe. Is he still recommending products here?

“Okay, don’t ink, isn’t it a dead baby universe, really as good as you said, why did you go?” Qin Tiange rolled his eyes and was speechless.

The Zero Cat was interrupted, which was a bit embarrassing, because Qin Tiange knew this, and there were introductions to the far universe in several ancient memories, and the baby universe was one of them.

The baby universe, if it is a brand new, living baby universe, is bound to attract countless mighty cosmic powers to come and snatch.

As for the dead baby’s universe membrane, it is really of little value. In addition to being able to study it, don’t even want to understand the universe’s mystery from it, because all are dead.

“Well, even the dead baby universe has the same super value. If you think about it, once you study and understand the mystery of the baby universe, you can immediately create an internal baby universe and then become the master of the universe.” Zero Cat Still don’t plan to give up.

The soul of the earth book is really tempting. This thing is a super mysterious treasure at the beginning of the universe. It contains the eternal mystery of the true spirit. Who does n’t want it?

“Although it is a good thing, it has almost no value. At most, it will give you another soul.” Qin Tiange said lightly.

“No, I want to replace all the souls in your body.” Zero Cat vetoed firmly.

Qin Tiange shook his head and said scornfully: “I have nineteen souls in my body. You are just like you are about to finish. It ’s just a joke. A dead cosmic membrane of a dead body gives you up to two souls. Now. “

“Nineteen?” Zero Cat looked surprised, looked at Qin Tiange enthusiastically, and said immediately: “No, I want fifteen, this is the least.”

“Five”

“Fourteen”

“No, there are only eight, which is my bottom line.” Qin Tiange strived to expel the bottom line directly.

Zero Cat struggled, and finally gritted his teeth. “Don’t fight, I want nineteen souls to be true. I’ll add something, and you can see what you can see and take it all away.”

Qin Tiange’s eyes flickered, he didn’t speak, looked at the things listed by Zero Cat, densely packed, all kinds of things.

He didn’t hesitate to choose something that seemed to be useful to China at the moment, but also something and products from Zhixing, or other high-dimensional races.

For example, some super-dimensional wisdom star technologies, although castrated, have equally great research value.

In the end, plus a dead baby universe, the two reached a deal and directly exchanged these things with nineteen souls.

“Now, this is the Baby Universe Membrane. You have your own seal. My seal is very precious and must not be given to you.” Zero Cat took out the baby universe with the seal.

A group of gray things, which contained a strange atmosphere, as if a baby was sleeping inside, that is the dead universe.

Moreover, it is still a baby universe that died just after its birth, just like a stillbirth, which has no vitality at all, even energy, like a baby universe that has exhausted its energy and failed to evolve.

Bang bang

After receiving this baby universe, Qin Tiange’s expression changed greatly, and Pangu’s blood boiled endlessly. Even the ninety-nine star cores in Dantian violently vibrated and made a loud buzzing, as if the world had collapsed.

Too late to think about it, Qin Tiange directly sealed the dead baby universe, put away the cosmic membrane, and suppressed it with a page of gold paper and countless golden symbols.

He wasn’t abnormal on the surface, but was excited in his heart, because at the moment when he got the baby universe, there was an extremely strong desire in Pangu blood, as if he was eager to devour the baby universe.

“The transaction is complete, I should go back.”

Zero Cat got the nineteen souls he wanted, and said with excitement: “I didn’t expect to come here again, and I have learned so much. It seems that I will bring more good things next time.”

“Oh? Do you have something better?” Qin Tiange smiled after listening, and that smile was a bit treacherous, making Zero Cat a little uncomfortable.

I only listened to Qin Tiange smiling and said, “Zero cat, actually, I still have ninety-nine souls here, do you want it?”

“Uh, what did you say?” Zero Cat stared, staring blankly at Qin Tiange.

He thought he had read it wrong. As a result, Qin Tiange opened his palm, and a golden symbol was constantly intertwining and beating. There were ninety-nine symbols, mysterious and unpredictable.

Seeing this, Zero Cat stared and was stupid. He burst out: “Wo-Yu, you lie, you are so cunning.”

Grunt!

Looking at the ninety-nine symbols, the kind of magical breath that reveals the true meaning of the soul makes the zero cat extremely desperate, even stunned.

“You wait, I will come again soon, bring more good things, save these things well, don’t leak them out, otherwise it will cause trouble.” Zero Cat reminded solemnly.

Qin Tiange laughed secretly. In fact, what he possessed was all the souls in a complete set of ground books. As for the specific number of souls, that is 99,999, the difference is one. One hundred thousand.

Taking out ninety-nine, which is nine cattle and one hair, is not a problem at all, and Qin Tiange is willing to exchange more good things.

As for the completeness, he is not stupid, and certainly will not leak out. Only the purple clothes that had been forcibly taken away at the beginning could have a complete soul truth, which was to protect her true spirit from being destroyed by the strong.

“Okay, I’m leaving immediately, you wait for me, I will come back up to a year later, next time I will bring that thing and show you, maybe you will be interested.”

After finishing Zero Cat, he finally glanced at those souls, and then turned reluctantly, stepped into the void, and disappeared in a blink of an eye.

Watching him disappear, Qin Tiange’s face disappeared, his eyes flickered, it was not clear what he was thinking, it took a long time to leave the space fault and return to Mars.

“It was a good harvest this time. Go back and study those things.”

Qin Tiange’s face was faintly agitated, this time the harvest was too great, for him, everything was extremely precious.

The black hole weapon is not mentioned He returned to the group of people of the Ministry of Science and Technology directly to the group of people in the Ministry of Science and Technology, as well as some of the high-dimensional scientific and technological knowledge passed on by trade, and the space crystals containing space technology were handed in To the Ministry of Science and Technology.

The red matter and ultra-dimensional defense circles are temporarily stored in the Ministry of Science and Technology. As a research, the remaining star star, Qin Tiange thought about it first, and waited for a while to discuss how to deal with it.

In the end, there are time crystals left, as well as the technology and equipment for mining time crystals. A thing with a 19-layer space seal, the baby universe has not been taken out.

For others, the crystal of time cannot be absorbed, but for Qin Tiange, the power of time has always been difficult to grow because there is no way to draw it. Now, the appearance of the crystal of time has shown him the growth direction of taboo power.

And the thing that most concerned him was the baby universe that was traded. This thing is likely to bring his Pangu blood to a higher level, and it is not even impossible to repair it.

“Myself, I want to retreat. Don’t contact me if it’s not urgent.”

After explaining everything, Qin Tiange cautioned himself, stepped directly into the turbulent space, and entered a retreat.

Chapter 644 - Return to the Forbidden Land of Pangu, and draw half a step of space-time bloodline energy.

In the gray and chaotic space, a figure sat cross-legged, quietly watching a palm of his hand holding something, and the dense seal on it was a seal of space, which isolated all breath and energy.

“Half-step space-time corpse, the strength of the zero cat is not simple.” Qin Tiange muttered to himself, looking cautious.

Inside the seal, a corpse is stored, yes, it is the treasure from the high dimension that he exchanged for the true symbol of the soul, and a corpse of half-step space-time.

This corpse has a long history, and the Zero Cat warned him that once released, it will be immediately sensed by the corpse’s master, and even a time and space-level strong will directly break through time and space and come to him.

“How can I isolate the scent of this corpse from being sensed?” Qin Tiange pondered this question carefully.

The introduction information from Zero Cat, he has obtained this corpse for 10,000 years, but never dared to take out the half-step space-time energy inside.

Because I didn’t dare, once it was released, it could attract a space-time master to kill. This is that Zero Cats are very cautious.

“That guy, it seems that you just lost this hot potato.” Qin Tiange couldn’t help whispering, thinking that Zero Cat must be handling this hot potato.

Throw it to Qin Tiange in exchange for the true soul of the book, which is an absolute bargain. Moreover, Qin Tiange wants to draw the energy of this corpse, and must have the ability to isolate the sense of time and space.

“Well, I don’t know if Pangu Forbidden Ground can isolate the induction of the time and space-level strong?” Qin Tiange suddenly smiled.

Zero Cat could never have imagined that he could enter the Pangu realm and even enter the Pangu restricted area. Can outsiders sense this place?

Inside the Forbidden Ground of Pangu, there is a seal of the Pangu tribe. This seal force can certainly isolate the induction of the strong in space and time.

“Go back to Pangu forbidden area first, and practice there is the safest.” Qin Tiange thought, and decided to return to Pangu forbidden area directly.

He closed his eyes, frowned, and then a simple text appeared in front of him, snoring, breaking the chaotic space.

A word “pan” emerged, and a ray of light fell, wrapped around Qin Tiange’s moment and disappeared here.

Huh!

Qin Tiange only felt a flower in front of him, and then appeared in the Forbidden City of Pangu. The ancient and huge forbidden city, the ancient Pangu seal stood in four directions, emitting eternal and immortal light.

After coming here, Qin Tiange finally reassured himself completely, and opened the dense space seal directly in the forbidden area of Pangu.

A crunchy sound came, and the seals of the space were untied layer by layer, and the nineteen layers of seals were opened. Suddenly, a horrible might came out.

With a thump, Qin Tiange was shocked by Zhen Fei on the spot, his mouth was bleeding, and he was injured by the terrible breath.

“It’s so strong, it’s worthy of being a high-dimensional life, half a step in time and space, and also a prince of a royal family. It really is different.” Qin Tiange wiped his blood with a touch of excitement.

He looked at the broken space seal in front of him, and a human-shaped body emerged from the inside, with a mysterious symbol flashing in the eyebrow, which was the pattern of the royal family.

“Royal Gallows, half-step time and space ...” Qin Tiange looked cautiously, staring at the corpse.

This youth-like corpse was the Prince of Luo Xingxing who was extremely powerful. Tianjiao who was ten thousand years ago was unfortunately beheaded and his eyebrows were pierced and his true spirit was not cut.

However, even if he dies, he still exudes a terrifying breath, suppressing time and space, and approaching will be crushed by this forceful breath.

Unfortunately, here is the Pangu forbidden area, all foreign creatures were suppressed. Sure enough, the body was immediately suppressed by the terrible forces in the Pangu forbidden area.

boom!

The corpse exploded with a force that was extremely horrifying, as if it could penetrate time and space. Unfortunately, the power sealed by Pangu was imprisoned directly.

The body was crushed to the ground, his strength and breath were completely suppressed, and even a little breath could not be leaked out. Seeing this, Qin Tiange finally laughed.

“The Pangu tribe, the tyrannical race of the initial era, if the Pangu tribe had not been able to suppress a corpse, it would not be justified.”

Qin Tiange came forward with a hint of excitement and came to the corpse. Without hesitation, he sat directly next to the corpse and began to devour.

He wants to absorb the energy of this half-step space-time corpse, which will be used to fill the ninety-nine star cores in his body.

boom!

Immediately after being absorbed, I saw a horrible amount of energy pouring into my body. Immediately, Pangu's blood boiled, snarling directly, and severely suppressing this energy.

The energy that entered the body was even suppressed by Pangu's blood, and then the ancient seal of Pangu forbidden area easily crushed this force and devoured it.

“Sure enough, my plan is feasible.” Qin Tiange faced a little surprise, converged, and began to practice with all his heart.

He needs more power. This half-step space-time corpse is just an opportunity. As long as he absorbs the energy in this corpse, he can break through the predicament.

Buzz ...

Inside the body, ninety-nine star cores vibrated, buzzed, released a powerful suction, and devoured the energy left after being consumed by Pangu blood.

Pangu blood, it is swallowing these super energies to strengthen itself, just like an ancient blood self-absorption and evolution.

The corpse was shaking, as if instinctively to resist, and the remaining thoughts in the corpse were a little stimulated to wake up and wanted to resist.

It's just a pity that here is the forbidden area of Pangu. The idea of this corpse was completely crushed and clean, and there was no resistance at all.

Qin Tiange let go of his guts and madly absorbed the majestic energy of this corpse. Ninety-nine star cores in the body were rapidly expanding, and a strange cloud of mist was turned into a nebula.

This is the derivation process of the planet. Starting from the nebula, a little bit of convergence into the core of the star, and then draws infinite energy to begin to grow into a real star body.

Starting from the first emperor level, the blood veins returned to the ancestors, and then they must condense their own stellar bodies to truly enter the ranks of the starry strong.

Once a stellar body is condensed in the body, that creature will break away from the earth and truly travel the stars, and it is rumored to be as bright as the sun, the moon, and the stars.

Moreover, there are rumors that some tyrannical people can live as long as stars. Think about how long a planet has a lifespan of at least tens of billions of years.

Of course, it is not that the stars condensed into the body have a life span of tens of billions of years, but that with the continuous growth, the stars in the body are truly indestructible, and the human is indestructible.

“Bloodline genes return to ancestors. Can Pangu blood return to ancestors?”

During the cultivation, Qin Tiange's consciousness flashed such an idea, and then, he instinctively absorbed the blood in this corpse, that noble and powerful blood.

That is the blood of the Gals and the High Royals. This blood contains ancient power and was drawn out by Qin Tiange Sheng. Then it was absorbed, and Pangu blood was absorbed and evolved to form blood veins and return to the ancestors.

The Pangu blood is very powerful. Once the return to the ancestors is successful, wouldn't it mean to be the same as the ancestors of the Pangu tribe?

Rumble ...

The corpse kept shaking, blood flowed out, was sucked into Qin Tiange's body, and a terrible sound came from Pangu's blood, like a torrential river rushing through the body.

I saw that the original red Pangu blood gradually transformed after consuming the huge energy and consuming the power of the royal blood of the Gala.

This transformation is not an increase in quantity, but a qualitative transformation, which becomes more simple, as if returning to ancestors.

The slight grey light emerged, and the red blood became cloudy, becoming more and more turbid. In the end, it turned into a gray torrent that roared and pierced in the body, exuding the ancient vastness and eternal immortality.

boom!

A loud noise emanated from Qin Tiange's body, as if it opened up the world, and a burst of foul blood was ejected from the body and sprinkled around.

That was the last trace of impurities in the body, which was directly repelled, and only the ancient and powerful blood in the body existed.

In the gene cell, it was completely replaced by the power of a gray gene, which was a brand-new power of heaven.

With the successful return of blood to the ancestors and the transformation of Pangu's blood, Qin Tiange felt that every cell in his body was undergoing self-transformation and evolution, and mysteriously spawned a force of openness.

Inside each cell, there is a ray of force to open the sky. As the ancient power of the Pangu tribe, it is a natural and powerful force.

If you can see your own cells, you will find that each cell turns out to be like a gray egg, wrapped in a ray of power and a ray of thought.

That is Qin Tiange's willpower, scattered in every cell of the body, the power to control each cell of his own, powerful and terrifying.

“This is the power of Pangu blood to return to the ancestors?”

At this time, Qin Tiange awakened from his cultivation and felt the transformation of his body back to his ancestors.

The blood of Pangu, transformed and returned to ancestors, gave birth to the true strength of the Pangu tribe. The power of opening the sky covered the whole body, as if it was inexhaustible and inexhaustible.

Just thinking that every gene cell contains a wisp of power to open the sky, that feeling can make people feel terrible.

Once the power to open up the sky in all cells has erupted, what kind of scene will it be?

No wonder the Pangu clan is so powerful, but unfortunately, the pangu clan eats chaos. The pangu clan without chaos will gradually weaken, its blood veins will degenerate, and then it will become extinct.

Chaos broken Pangu extermination, perhaps, this is why the Pangu extermination.

“Can every cell in the body open up a world?”

At this time, Qin Tiange thought of this problem, and was horrified, frightened by his own thoughts.

He shook his head with a bitter smile and didn't dare to continue thinking. Instead, he put his hand on the heart of the royal corpse, and devoured his energy and blood madly.

“Bloodline success is successful, but it is not enough, I still need more powerful strength.” Qin Tiange expressionless, directly devouring endless energy, and quickly improve his heritage and strength.

The success of Pangu's blood metamorphosis was initially entered into the ancestor class, but it was only the ancestor of the first level, and there was a generation of ancestors and ancestors.

He wanted to ascend, and Pan Gu's blood still had ascendancy. Since there was no lack of energy, he rushed to the ancestor's realm with enthusiasm.

The first great ancestors were in the realm of mastering the power of the Pangu tribe. Although there were only 10% of the blood of the Pangu tribe, it was quite scary.

Chapter 645 - Promoted to Dazu, Dantian mutation

Rumble ...

In the forbidden area of Pangu, a powerful breath permeated, and a mist of gray surging covered a shadowy figure, with its knees crossed and motionless.

If you look closely, the figure's armor is completely broken, muscles are agitated, and the body gradually expands. The body that is nine feet high, ten feet high, and twenty feet high is full of oppression.

A series of gray lines flickered and intertwined, spreading continuously on the surface of the body, exuding a quaint and vicissitudes of breath.

Inside Qin Tiange's body, Pangu's blood boiled and burned into a cloud of gray flames. Chaos flames actually melted into Pangu's blood, burning the impurities inside.

At this time, the chaos flames became increasingly tyrannical, revealing the scent of destroying everything, and with a violent vitality, burned the body, but became more tyrannical.

I don't know how much energy was drawn, Qin Tiange didn't remember how long he absorbed it, anyway, the energy in that corpse showed no signs of weakening.

And in his body, the ninety-nine star cores have swelled to a horrible level, surrounded by nebulae, and they have begun to autobiography like a planet.

The ninety-nine star cores gradually grew, madly devouring energy that belongs to the half-step space-time level, and the high-level energy put the star core into a violent growth.

The nebula grows larger and richer, rotating around the cores of the nebula, exuding a strong gravitational force, drawing energy from all around into it, and constantly devouring and growing.

The formation of stars has slowly experienced a miracle of planet birth in the body, which may be the mystery of star stars.

The living creatures are derived from the practice of simulating the planet, thereby building a real planet in the body, stepping into the star, and achieving the star power, as if they were a star traveling the sea of stars.

How much energy is contained in a planet? In Qin Tiange's body, there are actually ninety-nine planets. Once he has completed metamorphosis and becomes ninety-nine stars, his combat power can absolutely crush the same level and even challenge higher levels of existence.

The evolution of the stars is very long, and the practice is also extremely long. This is one of the reasons for the long life of the souls after becoming stars.

Some souls, hundreds of thousands of years, millions of years may not be able to improve a level, even hundreds of millions of years have remained at this level.

Cultivation is very difficult. Just look at the evolution of stars and understand that some stars fail to evolve, explode directly, or become dead stars.

Once the cultivation fails, the body's stellar evolution fails to become a dead star, which means that this creature is completely dead.

boom!

Suddenly, the gray mist boiled, sending a violent shock, and saw a more powerful breath erupting in Qin Tiange's body.

From the beginning of the second generation ancestor class, they broke open directly and entered the first generation ancestor level. The domineering breath swept the Quartet, and it even broke the ruins in many forbidden cities.

“One generation of ancestors is not enough ...” Qin Tiange looked mad, and stared at the body of the royal Luo who still had not weakened.

The blood of the royal family and half-step space-time energy do not decrease at all. There is a huge black hole in the opponent's body surrounded by a huge galaxy, which is completely inexhaustible.

No matter how he absorbed and devoured, he could not absorb one billionth of the energy of the other side. If the body was suppressed by the seal of Pangu Forbidden Zone, it might be that Qin Tiange would not directly consume the energy of the other side, but would be directly engulfed by a body.

This is not a joke, because the stars are more terrible black hole levels, the evolution of stars is slow, but in the end, the stars will evolve into a black hole object.

Once a black hole celestial body is built, it can continuously draw dark energy from the universe to improve itself. With a black hole celestial body, it no longer draws energy from the universe.

At this level of life, if there is almost no accident, the time to live is extremely long and terrifying.

Once you have accumulated enough information, you can detonate the black hole, impact the star's main stage, and regenerate a star field. The king, the emperor, the first emperor, and the first ancestors are all powerful men of the earth, and they can only rule the king on the planet.

Above the ancestors are the star power, the star, the black hole level, the star master level, and the space-time level. These are the powers that can truly travel the Xinghai.

This corpse of the royal family of Gallo was a star-level powerhouse before his death, and was about to impact the time-space-level supernatural beings.

Unfortunately, when he struck the space-time level, an accident happened. Finally, the enemy took the opportunity to sneak in and kill, and directly sealed the body.

Once the corpse's breath leaks, it will inevitably attract the strong space-time class of the Garo, because the body belongs to the prince of the Gal.

For the people of the royal family, the corpses must be recovered after death, so that the foreign people will not be allowed to go. In that way, the foreign people will obtain the meaning of the blood of the royal family and peep into the secret of the power of the blood of their own family.

“Swallow!” Qin Tiange drank, released his strength, and devoured directly.

He knew that in order to draw the energy of this corpse, it was only possible in the Pangu off-limits. It was impossible to leave the Pangu off-limits.

How could such an opportunity be missed, so he directly put aside all thoughts and devoured the infinite energy of this corpse frantically.

High-level energy has brought him unimaginable benefits, allowing him to become familiar with the characteristics of these high-level energies in advance, and even it will be easier to promote these levels in the future.

Moreover, drawing such a high level of energy now is of great significance to Qin Tiange's Pangu blood.

Pan Gu's blood can grow from the blood of the other party's royal family. This is a powerful ability, so Qin Tiange was thinking to accumulate his own madness.

As he stepped into the realm of the first ancestor, Qin Tiange swallowed up even more violently, as if he were constantly swallowing infinite energy like a black hole.

The ninety-nine stars released the power of devouring in the body, and the scene was shocking. If he drew energy from the air to cultivate outside, it would surely attract the attention of the entire earth.

Therefore, he has never dared to practice outside, he is totally in a turbulent space, or now he has a better option, and it is better to practice in Pangu Forbidden City.

I don't know how long it has passed. Finally, when Qin Tiange's eyebrows began to show a mysterious pattern, Pan Gu's blood no longer absorbed the power of the other's royal blood.

Because Pangu blood is currently saturated, the Pangu blood in the body is only 10%. If you want to continue to grow, you must increase these concentrations.

Huh!

With the last energy pouring into the body, Qin Tiange's eyebrows burst into a puppet, and a simple and simple rune flashed and imprinted on the eyebrow.

The grey runes reveal the charm of ancient simplicity and vicissitudes, like chaotic ancient writings, representing the complete establishment of the identity of the Pangu people.

boom!

A surge of momentum soared, Qin Tiange rose to his feet, his body swelled swollen, and every breath rose a little bit. When the body swelled to a hundred feet high, it finally stopped.

Qin Tiange opened his eyes slowly, the gray mist surging, and a silvery white light was revealed from time to time.

"The first ancestors have completed the promotion." Qin Tiange muttered to himself, a faint gleam of joy in his heart.

He completed the breakthrough of the first ancestors, the Pangu blood gene was completely transformed, and reached the realm of the first ancestors, which is equal to the limit in this realm.

In the body, the ninety-nine star cores can almost completely transform into stars. They are real star bodies, not illusory.

"Strength is improved, now it's time to absorb the power of time crystals and enhance the taboo of time."

Qin Tiange completed the promotion of the first generation and became the ancestor of the first generation of Pangu, which is considered to have reached the current limit.

As for breaking the star star, this seems to be only one step away. In fact, it is very difficult. It is not enough to have energy. It also lacks some things, such as the understanding of the mysteries of the rules of the universe.

"Time crystal, I don't know if I can absorb it?" Qin Tiange actually had no idea in his heart.

Regarding these mined time crystals, as a higher-dimensional currency, he wondered if he could absorb them with the power of time taboo?

With a look of anticipation and doubt, Qin Tiange took out the crystal of time and began to try to absorb the power of time inside.

Click!

A ray of silvery mysterious power poured out and entered the body. At once, the body seemed to be frozen, and there was a feeling of being destroyed.

But soon, a force of taboos came out in my mind, madly grabbing the power of time and strengthening the power of taboos.

“There is a play!” Qin Tiange looked ecstatic, immediately began to devour, and immediately swallowed the time crystal nucleus in his hand into his stomach.

Swallowing the crystal of time, Qin Tiange felt that what was swallowing was a terrible time, which would directly wipe out his body and even life.

Fortunately, this melting time crystal is directly absorbed and devoured by the time secret force in the brain domain, and strengthens itself.

Gradually, the power of time taboo in the brain domain finally began to grow. From the beginning to the present, the first growth has occurred. This discovery made Qin Tiange excited.

A crystal of time has allowed the power of time taboo, which has not been able to grow, to grow by as much as 50% at this moment, and it is almost possible to make a breakthrough.

It is a pity that Qin Tiange is somewhat regrettable that the time force contained in this crystal of time is not much, but he quickly cleared his mood and got excited.

Because he has a complete set of technology and equipment for mining time crystals, this is obtained from Zero Cat.

“When I go out this time, I start to discuss how to mine the time crystal, this thing is very important to me.” Qin Tiange looked excited, thinking with some dignity.

He needed more time crystals, and even, he thought that it would be better if he could find the specific location of the river of time, so that there would be no such trouble.

After completing the promotion of the first ancestors and absorbing the crystals of time, Qin Tiange finally looked at the dead baby universe.

“This dead baby universe can actually cause the boiling of Pangu’s blood, and it must have some mysterious effect.” Qin Tiange blinked his eyes, thinking secretly.

He took out that sealed baby universe, a dead newborn baby-like universe with no energy at all
Why did Pangu’s blood boil?

boom!

Just after taking it out, Qin Tiange didn’t have time to look at it, and felt a strong shock coming. The Pangu blood in his body burned directly, and turned into a torrent that engulfed the broken baby universe and swallowed it.

“I’m going, I’m not ready yet!”

Qin Tiange made a strange cry, and saw that the baby universe was rushed into Dantian by Pangu blood, and at once, the entire Dantian was crushed.

One side of the real universe rushed into Dantian, what the scene was, it was simply destroying the sky, and ninety-nine stars bloomed immensely, protecting a corner of Dantian.

Immediately afterwards, the deceased baby universe wrapped all of Pangu's blood in it, and instantly turned into a gray ball, floating quietly in the center of Dantian, crushed and crushed by nothingness.

Huh!

At the same time, the stone monument in the Pangu forbidden area lit up. It was the Pangu monument. Suddenly a strange light shone over Qin Tiange, and then mysteriously disappeared.

Chapter 646 - Newborn Pangu, Assessment: Reappearance of Chaos

"Newborn Pangu: The newborn babies of the Pangu tribe, with a blood concentration of 10%, entered the assessment of the firstborn Pangu: a repetition of chaos."

Stupidly, Qin Tiange heard a mysterious voice coming, a little sober, and was shocked to find that he had been sucked into the Pangu monument again.

And there is a cloud of chaos surrounding it. Obviously there is an egg here. The mysterious voice of Pangu Stele is introduced. He is now a new born Pangu, and his blood density is not enough. It is not a true Pangu at all.

Hearing that he is now equal to the newborn baby of the Pangu family, Qin Tiange is so dangerous that he does not vomit blood. Doesn't it mean that the newborn baby of the Pangu family is much stronger than him?

"Repeat Chaos?" Soon, Qin Tiange remembered this.

Waiting for doubt, Dan Tian came with a fierce throbbing pain, and suddenly realized that he hadn't got rid of the danger, Pangu blood wrapped the dead baby universe in Dan Tian today.

At this moment, inside Dantian, the space collapsed and the extinction of all things was extremely terrible. As one side of the real universe entered Dantian, it caused horrible damage.

One universe, what kind of scene is that, although it is only a baby universe, but also a semi-finished failure universe, the failure of the derivative death.

But when a real universe enters the body Dantian, it is definitely something that crushes the body and can even crush Qin Tiange to ashes on the spot.

Kaka ...

Sure enough, there was a crackling sound from the body. Qin Tiange was shocked by the intense pain. No wonder he immediately mobilized Pangu's blood to absorb the surrounding chaos and repaired his flesh.

The body of Pangu, which is 100 feet high, was constantly cracking, but recovered under the chaos around it, and the immortal body was desperately recovering itself.

"What is chaos reenactment?" Qin Tiange thought about this question while devouring the surrounding chaos frantically.

The reminder of Pangu Bei said that the newborn Pangu tribe's assessment was to repeat chaos, which surprised him.

Do you want to repeat a chaotic world in yourself? Moreover, it was Pangu Bei who inhaled him here autonomously, which seems to be related to the baby universe in his body.

With a bright eye, Qin Tiange invaded his body and came to the Dantian world. He saw the dead baby universe on that side, and he was drawing energy from ninety-nine stars and endless chaos.

Seeing here, he understood that this is to re-enact a piece of chaos in the body. This dead baby universe died after the failure of the re-generation. Now the absorption of chaos will gradually return to its original state and re-enact the chaos.

The evolution of the universe fails. Generally speaking, it will directly fall back into evolution, return to chaos, and then continue to accumulate energy to produce a big bang and spawn the universe.

But this baby universe doesn't know why the transformation failed, like exhausting all its energy, and it's impossible to return to chaos.

"I see. Pangu blood is an instinct. It directly wrapped the baby universe into Dantian, and wanted to regenerate one side of chaos."

Qin Tiange understood it, and was excited, looking at the dead baby universe of Fang, after drawing the chaos outside, it turned out a little vitality.

Yes, it is a chaotic vitality. The dead baby universe is dead and dead, without any energy.

However, as a wave of chaos gas poured into the baby universe, it instantly triggered the original instinct of the universe to work directly, and gradually began to return to its original state and repeat the chaos.

With the gradual recovery of the infant universe and the re-entry into the stage of evolution, Qin Tiange's entire human consciousness and even the true spirit were absorbed into the infant universe.

Even Pangu's blood was sucked into it, fused with the true spirit, and fell asleep in a small piece of chaos in the central area of the baby universe.

Rumble ...

The baby universe collapsed, and the internal universe that failed to evolve internally began to shatter, turning into a wave of violent energy, returning to the ego, and developing chaos.

A ray of chaos full of rage and destruction, with endless power of destruction, directly caused the baby universe to fall into great destruction.

The destruction of the universe caused terrible consequences: Qin Tiange's body was shattered, but it was strangely surrounded by chaos around it, and it was restored again, exploded again, and restored again and again. The whole process and its Horror scary.

The transformation of life and death, the immortal body and Pangu body are completely integrated into one body, regardless of each other, the power is even stronger.

In each cell of Qin Tiange's body, there is a ray of undead power, and an inner power is brewing inside, which is getting stronger and stronger.

After undergoing metamorphosis again, Qin Tiange's body became stronger. Pangu's body, a powerful force belonging to the Pangu family, finally began to show.

boom...

Chaos is boiling. In this Pangu clan's assessment world, the gray chaotic gas is boiling, constantly flowing into Qin Tiange's body, absorbed by the baby universe in the body, and absorbed by the ninety-nine stars to strengthen itself.

Chaos, incomparably pure, contains the oldest and most violent power, bringing unthinkable benefits to the ninety-nine stars.

The Baby Universe, turned into a gray tire membrane, quietly floating in the center of Dantian, surrounded by ninety-nine stars, constantly revolving around this chaotic membrane, like the earth around the sun, fantastic.

The original Baby Universe, after taking in the chaos here, gradually returned to itself, re-enacted chaos, and turned it into a chaotic membrane.

This chaotic membrane is the original form of the universe. Chaos, everything comes from chaos, and the Big Bang comes from chaos.

Chaos is the accumulation of energy, and the endless and endless energy can be used to carry out a metamorphic explosion, and then evolve the universe. If it fails, it will return to chaos, and continue to accumulate endless energy for the next evolution.

Qin Tiange's body Dantian at this time was occupied by the dead baby universe, and then gradually returned to the chaotic membrane structure, absorbing endless energy, accumulating the vast energy that was originally consumed.

The chaotic membrane is like a gray dome, which is completely transformed into chaos of fury and destruction, revealing a terrible breath, but there are waves of miracles of life coming.

In the center of Chaos Membrane, there is a mass of Pangu blood that envelops the true spirit of Qin Tiange. Here he falls asleep and absorbs the violent chaos around him.

In this process, Qin Tiange's consciousness was immersed in the wonderful realm of chaos in the universe, as if he saw the mystery of the big universe.

His consciousness fell into it, with the cosmic membranes returning to chaos together, witnessing the origin of the universe, realizing the various mysteries belonging to the big universe, and being immersed in it could not extricate themselves.

All the rules, uprightness, seem to appear in front of the eyes, it is no longer a secret. However, these infinitely deep things can be seen but not touched, and even extremely difficult to understand.

With a little effort, Qin Tiange finally gained a lot of insights and gains, but when he wanted to continue to comprehend them, the feeling had disappeared.

"It's a pity ..." Qin Tiange woke up, looking at the thin chaos around him, with a faint sense of loss, and was quickly cut off by him.

Qin Tiange sat quietly in a pan, and the observer's own Dantian was surprised to find that the entire Dantian had changed.

The ninety-nine huge stars in the original central area were squeezed apart, replacing a huge round gray tire membrane, which is gray and gray, exuding a simple and mysterious atmosphere.

It was a chaotic membrane. The dead baby absorbed the chaos gas, returned to itself, and transformed into a chaotic membrane.

Around this chaotic membrane, ninety-nine giant stars constantly surround the autobiography of the chaotic membrane, spilling powerful strands of energy into the membrane, and the chaotic membrane grows.

“Originally, is this a reenactment of chaos?” Qin Tiange muttered blankly.

Suddenly, he came to his senses, did the newborn babies of the Pangu tribe all have to go through this hurdle? Will they have to repeat the chaos?

Thinking of this, Qin Tiange felt a chill in his heart and replayed one side of chaos. If he succeeded, he could be regarded as a qualified newborn baby of the Pangu tribe.

How strong is the Pangu tribe? Just look at these assessments and know that the newborn babies of the Pangu tribe have such terrible power. How strong and terrifying is the adult Pangu tribe?

“Qin Tiange, male, identity: newborn infants of the Pangu tribe, elementary assessment: regenerating chaos. Successful completion of the assessment, time-consuming: 99 years, Pangu blood concentration: 10% ,: Evaluation: Excellent, reward for ten days into the Pangu blood pool ... “

With a mysterious voice, the gray world around was gone, and the figure flashed. Qin Tiange found himself in a vast sea of blood and fell directly.

“Pangu blood pond, ten days, ha ha ha, make a lot of money.” Qin Tiange was drowned by a wave of blood as soon as his body fell.

The Pangu Blood Pond is like an immense expanse of blood in the ocean, which contains the extremely pure Pangu blood, which is an incredible thing.

Qin Tiange didn't want to waste a second. He directly opened his stomach and devoured and absorbed abruptly, sinking into the sea of blood and devouring the endless blood around him to enhance and strengthen his Pangu blood.

Gollum ...

At this moment, the chaotic membranes in the body trembled, sending out an endless and powerful engulfing force, and a horrible suction erupted instantly, as if a black hole directly absorbed the mysterious essence blood around the body.

With this horrible devourer, Qin Tiange's absorption speed skyrocketed thousands of times instantly, allowing Pangu blood immersed in the chaotic membrane to grow madly.

swallow! swallow! swallow!

Qin Tiange was mad, and erupted in strength and means. He incarnates a black hole and directly swallows the essence of countless Pangu blood pools, strengthening his physical body and Pangu blood in his body.

One day, two days, three days, four days ...

Time passed by little by little, Qin Tiange forgot everything, and only remembered to devour, no other thoughts except swallowed.

It's a rare opportunity not to be missed. This time, Qin Tiange devoured it madly for ten days, and it's not clear how much blood he had swallowed in Pangu's blood pool.

Chapter 647 - 100% Pangu blood, Europe has changed, sent troops

Ten days later, Qin Tiange was thrown out of the mysterious space of Pangu Blood Pond and appeared directly in the forbidden area.

Huh!

After coming out, Qin Tiange hadn't awoken from that madness, and it wasn't until later that he gradually woke up, exhaling lightly.

With a loud noise, a cloud of gas ripped through the void, tearing a black crack, extremely scary. boom!

Qin Tiange gently squeezed his palms, pinching the air with his five fingers, and even scratching the space. His arrogant force shocked him.

At this moment, he felt that there was an inexhaustible force in his body, and each cell was filled with ancient and terrible power, which belongs to the Pangu tribe's power to open the sky.

“Qiang, is this Pangu tribe?” Qin Tiange froze.

He did not expect that the Pangu tribe turned out to be so arrogant. After only two assessments, they received the Pangu blood pool for about ten days to absorb the metamorphosis reward.

If there is a big ancestor creature in front of him now, Qin Tiange is confident and can pinch the opponent with one hand.

This is the arrogance and fear of the Pangu tribe. In addition, Qin Tiange feels that in the Dantian world in his body, ninety-nine stars can be completely broken through the stars and evolve into real stars.

The gray stars, like chaotic stars, exude a simple and powerful atmosphere, with strong gravity, and absorb endless energy outside the body.

Even more frightening is that in the center of Dantian, one side of the chaotic membranes floats quietly, with ninety-nine stars surrounding it, constantly supplying a steady stream of energy into the membranes.

In the chaotic membrane, a terrible breath is being bred, which is the breath of the true spirit, and even the breath of Pangu blood.

“To what extent is my current blood concentration in Pangu?” Qin Tiange was curious, and he reached forward and touched the Pangu monument.

With a click, the light flashed, and a message appeared.

“Qin Tiange, male, Pangu tribe: newborn Pangu, Pangu blood concentration: 100%”

Looking at this information, Qin Tiange froze, and did not expect that Pangu’s blood concentration had reached 100%, wouldn’t it be perfect?

However, he suddenly frowned, feeling that his Pangu blood could continue to improve, or that he could continue to refine, and that he could grow even higher.

At this moment, Qin Tiange really understood that he is now a real Pangu tribe and a real Pangu tribe.

However, this is a newborn Pangu, which is a bit surprising. Now this level is considered a newborn Pangu baby, which makes him cried and laughed.

“I’m actually a Pangu baby just born. How strong and terrifying is the Pangu who grew up?” Qin Tiange couldn’t help but be excited and looking forward.

I moved my body a bit, adapted to the current amount of violent violence, and the surge of cultivation in my body.

Ninety-nine stars that are about to be transformed into stars contain immense amounts of energy. The most terrible thing is the chaotic membrane in the center of Dantian.

The power in this chaotic membrane is the most terrible. Once it broke out, Qin Tiange did not know how powerful it was.

Returning to chaos with a real baby universe, deriving one side of chaos. Although it is a depleted baby universe returning to chaos, the power born now is already terrible.

As time accumulates, this energy will become more and more terrible. Once the accumulation of the energy of the baby universe is restored, what will it look like?

Wouldn’t it mean that Qin Tiange can now enter the universe level as long as he has enough energy?

He shook his head with a bitter smile and thought it was not that simple. It would be really stupid to think so, and he felt like he was thinking too much.

“Go out first” Qin Tiange turned around, preparing to leave the forbidden area of Pangu.

However, he came to the body of the half-step space-time Royal King Luo, and saw that the threat of the body was not so strong.

Qin Tiange looked at it and murmured: “If this corpse suppresses the chaotic membrane in the body, can it draw on the vast energy of his body to supply the chaotic membrane to grow?”

Thinking of this, Qin Tiange acted directly to suppress this corpse with thousands of souls, and then took into Dantian’s chaotic membrane and swallowed it.

When the corpse entered the chaotic membrane, it was suppressed by a violent chaotic gas, and then it was torn and devoured madly, and the entire chaotic membrane was continuously absorbing the vast energy.

Rumbling

The chaotic fetal membrane vibrated, like a burst of cheering, constantly absorbing the energy of the corpse, strengthening itself, so that Qin Tiange could not help showing a smile.

It's feasible, then treat it like this, support the chaotic membrane, let your Pangu blood and true spirit reshape in the chaotic membrane, and train it into a more perfect Pangu blood.

After doing this, Qin Tiange finally left the forbidden area of Pangu and appeared on the top of Tianzhu in the Pangu continent. Standing on top of the mountain, he looked at the universe starry sky.

“Hundreds of stars, come on, I'm ready to meet you.” Qin Tiange looked at the starry universe and murmured such a sentence.

He stood at the top of Pangu Tianzhu, looking at the dark and deep universe starry sky. Looking down at the entire Pangu continent, through the atmosphere, he could see the vast land, hiding a powerful breath.

“Didi”

“Master, please come back as soon as possible.”

At this point, the self-conscious subsystem awoke and immediately received the information from the subject.

Qin Tiange checked this message and sent it to him, and asked him to go back as soon as possible, as if something had happened.

He didn't hesitate, his figure flashed, and he quietly disappeared on Tianzhu, and appeared again. He had returned to Huaxia and went to the base of Beijing.

“leader!”

Back in Shangjing, I saw a group of high-level officials discussing something, and saw Qin Tiange suddenly appear, but it was a long time since he was used to it, and he was not too surprised.

Qin Tiange swept all the people present, frowning, “What happened, jealousy, what are you talking about when you come back to me?”

When he was done, he looked at his uncle aside, and saw that she stood up gently, condensing a virtual light curtain in front of Qin Tiange.

“Leader, the situation in Europe has changed.” Xi Ji said the first sentence is Europe.

Qin Tiange was surprised. Looking at the picture on the light curtain, it is the current situation in Europe. The combination of the three gods could not resist the invasion of foreigners.

Even with some masters returning from the Pangu world, they are also unable to stop these foreign invasions, and they are losing ground. It has reached the final critical moment.

“The leader, the messenger of the Three Gods System, has become an ant on the hot pot, and has repeatedly pleaded with us to send strong people to support.” Ji Ji said this sentence gently.

She continued: “We were just meeting to discuss whether to send troops and who should have carried out this campaign to aid Europe.”

Qin Tiange didn’t say anything. Most of the high-level people who were present here were strong men. The kings were the most. There were dozens of them. The emperor ranks a little less. The emperor ranks even less.

And here, there are only four ancestors, Chen Xi, Shicang, Liyang, Wuyun, four ancestors, and eighteen ancestors are not here.

“Look at the leaders, this is the army of three foreign nations in Europe, originally only about 5 million each, but recently I do n’t know why. Suddenly more than doubled. Even the strong inside seemed to have a lot more. There are more than thirty of them. “Jiji frowned and said the news.

She suddenly condensed another light curtain and pointed at an area, saying, “Leader, according to my monitoring, there has been frequent space magnetic activity in this area, and it may be that aliens have constructed a starry channel such as the interstellar gate.”

“The Gate of the Stars?” Qin Tiange squinted his eyes with a cold smile on the corner of his mouth.

He looked at the area, waiting to speak, but saw a soldier rush in, salute, and say a word.

“Leader, the ambassadors of the three major deities of Europe are here again.” The soldiers retired after speaking.

Qin Tiange was a little contemplative. Looking at the current situation of Europe’s impending fall, he finally decided to send reinforcements to the past and wipe out the alien army there.

“Let them come in.”

As the order was communicated, Athena and the three envoys waiting outside walked into the meeting room immediately and saw the supreme leader of China.

“Meet Her Majesty!”

The gods of Athena, Artemis, Queen Arthur, and Geoffrey were saluting. They looked calm, but there was a ray of anxiety in their eyes.

Qin Tiange knows that they are worried about the European form, so they don’t talk nonsense, it is straightforward.

“The current situation in Europe is not optimistic. Since several people have come to China for help, we, as members of the human race, deserve to contribute our own strength.”

“I ordered that the First Fleet should be assembled, and Ishikura, Lizhang, and Wuyun, as the vanguard of this army, will support Europe.”

“Your task is to protect the accompanying scientific and technological personnel to build quantum portals, and to transport the main army to Europe.”

Qin Tiange issued a combat order, without hesitation, directly ordered the generals, and then set out with Athena and others.

Having said that, he said to Athena and others: “You gods, you can return to Europe with the vanguard.”

“Thank you Her Majesty!”

The Athena looked very happy, and finally invited the powerful Chinese gods, and finally had an explanation this time.

“The next thing is, you discuss the arrangements and draw up a war support plan as soon as possible.” Qin Tiange nodded and said something, turned around and disappeared in the conference room, and went directly to the Ministry of Science and Technology.

Here, he was seeing a large number of scientific and technical personnel, such as Wu Lao, enthusiastically researching around a thing. It was a black hole bomb, a very strange and terrible bomb.

“Have you found out the results?” Qin Tiange asked as soon as he came.

“leader!”

Seeing the leader coming, everyone stopped together, but was stopped by Qin Tiange, and what should be continued, only Wu Lao followed him to explain.

“Leader, the black hole bomb has been thoroughly studied by us. We originally had research and theoretical support in this area. Now the two phases have been verified and we can directly enter the experimental stage.”

“As for the red matter and the ultra-dimensional defense circle, these two things are too weird, for the time being we haven't frowned.” Wu Lao said, his enthusiasm continued unabated.

He went on to say: “As for space technology, we have already stepped up to understand it, and we are applying it to our actual life, and it will be used in all fields.”

“Leaders, there are so many at present, what instructions do you have?” Wu Lao said, looking at the Supreme Leader with great anticipation.

Because these things come from this leader, it feels like he has endless scary things.

“Mr. Wu, you secretly select a group of scientific and technological personnel, and you will be responsible for following me through a thorough research on a big killer. That will be our strongest weapon in the future period of China and even the entire earth.”

Qin Tiange quietly uttered this decision, which surprised Wu Lao, and then excitedly went to select the staff. He was really looking forward to what kind of super weapon he said. What was it?

This thing, naturally, is the star-killer, the destroyer of the artificial galaxy, which can absorb the dark energy of the universe and launch a super weapon that can easily tear up the planet and destroy a galaxy.

Chapter 648 - Starkiller's Secret

At the summit of Tianzhu in the Pangu continent, a crack in space stood there, exuding the terrible breath.

In the crack, a huge oval-shaped huge thing is floating in the space interlayer, floating quietly.

This thing is like a planet, which is a hundred times larger than the moon. It is gray in color, and is painted with dense and strange symbols, showing a mysterious color.

Starkiller, a terrible weapon that can break the planet and destroy the galaxy.

Inside the Starkiller, thousands of scientific and technical personnel are gathering at this moment, and they begin to look inside to study the mystery of the Starkiller.

“Leader, this is the Starkiller. It’s incredible. It’s a product of the pinnacle of technology.”

Inside Starkiller, inside the huge land planting base, countless foods and plants can be planted, which can provide billions of people to live and live in the superstar.

The entire Starkiller internal space is divided into living areas, planting areas, breeding areas, cultivation areas, training areas, fighting areas, and many other areas.

Each region is extremely large, as if it is one continent after another, divided into nine regions.

The central core area is the energy core of the entire Starkiller, and there are nine black hole celestial bodies compressed by hyperspace technology.

This thing is the key core of absorbing the dark energy of the universe as a transformation energy source. With nine black hole celestial bodies simultaneously absorbing the dark energy of the universe at all times, the accumulation is transformed into a kind of super energy for use as a weapon.

Starkiller’s powerful force was made entirely to annihilate the stars, firing nine super-energy main guns and ninety-nine auxiliary guns.

The main gun was very powerful. Once it was fired, the earth before the last day was directly pulverized and turned into cosmic dust.

And the power of the secondary gun, one shell bombarded the surface of the planet, like a meteor impact, directly causing super horrible destructive power.

How terrible even some small planets can be shot through.

Of course, such an overbearing weapon system must have super energy as its supply. The nine black hole celestial bodies are the core of energy supply.

It draws dark energy and then directly converts it into a super-destructive power through the energy conversion system in the central area of Starkiller. []

This power is close to the level of four-dimensional creatures, using super high-level energy to bombard the planet.

“Leader, the entire Starkiller is too huge. We must have enough people to start and operate such a huge star. In front of us, unless we move the entire Asian population, it is difficult to operate all the systems here.” Wu Laoyi face With a bitter smile came to a conclusion.

Qin Tiange did not agree with this statement. He said, “Lao Wu, don’t just look at the human who runs this star-killer, we can change the angle.”

“What does the leader mean?” Wu Lao’s eyes flashed and he was suddenly excited.

Qin Tiange nodded and laughed: “I mean, this star-killer will let your Ministry of Science and Technology study the crystal technology here, and it will launch all the craftsmanship and technology of this star-killer. . “

He thought for a while and said, “As for the task of running Starkiller, leave it to Jiji. At present, the number of robots is extremely large. It can be regarded as a group of cannon fodder. It is useless at all. It is better to let Jiji enter here with the robotic cannon, and directly run Starkiller. As China ’s secret weapon, it acts as a deterrent. “

After listening to it, Mr. Wu greatly appreciated it and laughed: “The leaders said that the war robots are a group of cannon fodder, and they ca n’t do anything with aliens. Since this is better, all those who stay in the star-killer start it, as our Huaxia Killer. “

“However, the leader should pay attention to the absolute loyalty of her own artificial intelligence, otherwise she has such a terrible weapon.” Wu Lao said solemnly.

Qin Tiange nodded with a smile and explained: “Wu Lao rest assured that my self has completed the transformation of the evolution of the living beings, and already has a real soul under my control. There is no doubt about this.”

“Then I will rest assured, then give it to her.” Wu Laowen made it clear and no longer asked.

These are Qin Tiange’s secrets. The leader’s powerful mystery is not clear to him, and even he does not have this mind.

He only has a thoughtful research technology, and wants to take Huaxia’s current technology and technology to a higher level.

“Yan Ji, Xing Xing Zhe will give it to you in the future.” At this time, Qin Tiange opened the Xie Ji subsystem to contact Xie Ji.

I saw a light and shadow emerge, and my own projection appeared inside the Starkiller, looking at the environment in shock.

“Master, I didn’t expect you to get this, and my cannon fodder finally has a place to use it, but we must remake some of their functions.” Xi Ji said excitedly.

She is still in the corpse of Huangquan. The finishing work is about to end, and the big troops are ready to return in triumph.

When she comes back, she can immediately bring those cannon fodder robots that have been useless into the Star Warrior, run this huge war machine, and then can give Huaxia a strong hole card.

“Mr. Wu, there is one more thing, your Ministry of Science and Technology has given me time to study thoroughly.”

At this moment, Qin Tiange took Wu Lao to the other side, and asked solemnly.

I saw him pointing to a free area not far from the central area, where strange and dense equipment was stored.

Wu Lao looked at these devices and was a little surprised. He asked, “Leader, the equipment here looks strange. What is it for?”

Qin Tiange looked solemnly and reminded: “This thing is some equipment from a higher-dimensional world that can mine time crystals.”

“Time crystal?” Wu Lao pupil brightened, looking at the huge and complicated equipment here, and started to feel a little excited.

It is a new super-tech technology, and I heard Qin Tiange’s message about the high-dimensional space world, which proves that those alien races are races from the high-dimensional world.

“Our earth is currently in a three-dimensional lower plane. If we want to break through the barriers of dimensional limitation, we must be able to manufacture and mine time crystals, and even use time to integrate into all aspects to break through the barriers of dimensionality and enter the four-dimensional higher world.

Qin Tiange’s solemn reminder reminded him and expressed some of his own knowledge and opinions, which shocked Wu Lao’s face and was extremely shocked.

Just listen to Qin Tiange saying: “At present, our Earth’s solar system is actually a low-dimensional world in the eyes of higher dimensions outside.”

“If we want to break through the restrictions and enter the four-dimensional higher world of the Milky Way, we must have sufficient strength and background.”

“So, you must fully understand these time crystal acquisition technology and the entire set of equipment, and even combine our current overall situation to develop our unique time acquisition technology to complete the transformation of science and technology.”

Listening to Qin Tiange’s solemn order, Wu Lao looked solemn, realizing that the burden on his body was a little heavier, but instead of fearing to shrink, he felt an excitement.

When it comes to burdens, in fact, the most important burden on Huaxia is Qin Tiange, the supreme leader.

“Leaders rest assured that the Ministry of Science and Technology must take down these scientific and technological knowledge and create the most suitable time collection technology for us.” Wu Lao promised.

On behalf of the entire Ministry of Science and Technology, he took up this great task. Whether he can make China’s human civilization as a whole jump into four dimensions, break through barriers, and enter the four-dimensional higher world Milky Way depends on their efforts.

“Leader, I have a proposal. If Huaxia can unify the human forces on all continents of the earth and bring all the super talents on the entire earth together, then the research and development of science and technology will be faster.” Wu Lao made this suggestion.

What he meant was that Qin Tiange had the ability to directly unify the human forces on earth and co-ordinate the human resources of the entire earth.

Not only Huaxia has talents, but other countries and nations on the planet also have super-tech talents. As long as all these people are brought together, it is a terrible force.

“You don’t need to worry about this, you can do it with peace of mind.” Qin Tiange nodded with a smile and didn’t answer.

Wu Lao left with interest, and convened humans to start frantically researching various scientific and technological technologies inside Starkiller, and even researching the technology and equipment of time collection.

All of this takes time to settle, but will the starry people give time for humans to grow up?

Therefore, this is what Qin Tiange is most concerned about the mining and utilization of time crystals. As long as the time crystals are mined, the house of time, even the mystery of time, can be produced.

The house of time allows science and technology personnel to research technology inside, one day outside and ten years inside. Such terrible progress will certainly bring unimaginable benefits to humanity.

The mystery of time also enhances the speed of human individual cultivation. With these two things, in the future, humans on the earth want to break through the three-dimensional yoke and enter the four-dimensional galactic world.

At the peak of Tianzhu, Qin Tiange stepped out of the crack in the space, and before leaving, he saw a message from his personal terminal.

“Didi ...”

Chen Xi’s projection emerged, looking worried and anxious, and she said, “Tian Ge, Chen Yuan hasn’t heard anything for a long time. What will happen?”

Since Qin Tiange rushed them out to go through the training, some people have disappeared, and it is not clear whether life or death, such as Chen Xi.

He closed his eyes slightly, as if looking at something, and soon a smile.

“Don’t worry, Chen Ye is okay is in a secret retreat, don’t think about it.” Qin Tiange said this message with a smile.

After listening, Chen Xi was finally relieved, at least Qin Tiange could feel Chen Qi’s breath, just fine.

There are several other people who are currently trapped in some secret realms and have gained their own opportunities. Don’t worry about this. Qin Tiange can sense their true spiritual information. It is not dangerous, but just trapped in some secret realms. .

“By the way, Tian Ge, Xi Xi ran to Kunlun. Does that person want to take Ji Xi?” Chen Xi asked with some worry.

Qin Tiange shook his head and looked at Kunlun and smiled: “She didn’t have the courage, but Xi Xi, but I value it. She is very clear that once Xi Xi is moved, it is equal to confronting me. The price to bear is not She can stand it. “

He said this with strong confidence and self-confidence. Now that he has achieved the true Pangu tribe, how strong is Qin Tiange’s strength? He has a general guess. As for the strong men left over from the last century, there is not much that can threaten him. Yes.

“However, I’ll go to Kunlun.” Qin Tiange said, nodded to Chen Xi, cut off the connection, turned back and wiped out the space crack in the back, the figure flashed and disappeared here. 32

Chapter 649 - Reentry Kunlun, Li Bai's apprentice, Qinglian sword body

Over Kunyao and Yaochi, a figure walked out of space.

“Waiting for the Emperor!”

Below, a graceful figure emerged, bowed gently, and came to meet Qin Tiange, who was the nine-tailed snow fox she had encountered.

Looking at the respectful look of Jiuwei Xuehu, Qin Tiange smiled, turned his palms, and revealed a strong breath of blood, which was a drop of ancestor blood.

“You can lead the way, this is for you.” Then, he threw this powerful ancestor’s blood to Nine-tailed Snow Fox.

When the latter saw it, she was very happy, and thanked the ancestor for the good blood: "Xue Ling thanked the emperor for his generosity."

"Person, please follow me."

Talking, she led the way, and the two walked into a space ripple, entered the Kunlun secret realm, and came to Yaochi Xiangong.

"The emperor is approaching, and there is a loss."

At this time, in front of Yaochi Xiangong, there were two figures, a man and a woman. The man was Zhenyuan, the powerful creature.

Woman, naturally, is the master of Yaochi Fairy Palace, Kunlun, Yaochi Fairy.

Behind the two, Qiao Shengsheng stood a young girl, eyes fixed on Qin Tiange, Qiao's face was full of excitement, but there was a ray of loss in her heart, she was Xi Xi.

It was the Yaochi Fairy who transmitted to her before, calling her to come, but she wanted to wake her up to some knowledge about ancient bloodlines.

"There are two laborers for a long time." Qin Tiange came up with a smile.

Zhenyuan is still the same, but Yaochi Fairy was the first time Qin Tiange saw it, and he couldn't help but observe two more eyes. Needless to say, his appearance is naturally peerless.

What he cares about is not the appearance of the other party, but the strong breath emanating from Yaochi, which is even more arrogant and scary than before. Obviously, he has gained a lot of good things from Pangu World and recovered a lot of strength.

"Princess, please!"

Zhenyuan and Yaochi both invited Qin Tiange to enter the hall. The three came to the main hall of Yaochi Xiangong Palace and sat down separately. The nine-tailed fox immediately brought up the fairy tea and offered them one by one.

"Brother Ye" Qi Xi Qiao was standing beside Qin Tiange, with her head bowed, her face flushed slightly, and her heart a little bit sloppy.

Seeing her like this, Qin Tiange smiled and nodded, and said, "Xi Xi, what can you learn here?"

"Yes, the Lord of the Yaochi Palace was very kind to me and taught me a lot." Xi Xi immediately raised her head, a smile of excitement raised on Qiao's face.

She came here to learn a lot of things, and the power of her bloodline genes is becoming more and more mature and powerful, and it will not be long before she can make a breakthrough.

Qin Tiange nodded, then turned to Yao Chi on the theme, and smiled: "Thank you for the care and teaching of Xun Xi by the host."

"Anyway, this is what I should do. I have a good relationship with the son-in-law of the previous period. Naturally, I have no obligation to teach Xi Xi, and the emperor does not have to thank me." The master of Yaochi Palace smiled lightly.

Zhenyuan aside, holding his long beard, smiled and said, "People, come here this time, but the old man wants to talk with you."

"That's the intention." Qin Tiange nodded gladly.

After drinking tea and chatting for a while, Qin Tiange, Yaochi Gongzhu, and Zhenyuan began to enter the theme, gradually exchanging their own cultivation experiences, or in other words, explaining their own Tao.

This is an exchange, and it is also confirmed each other. In other words, Yao Chi and Zhen Yuan, two strong men of the last era, intentionally opened a small stove for Qin Tiange.

As for practice, Qin Tiange didn't know much, but he gained a lot of ancient memories and even had his own understanding.

Therefore, they can also participate in the discourse between Yaochi and Zhenyuan. Gradually, all three forget the time, and explain their own cultivation paths here.

In the end, Qin Tiange stopped talking, because the way of Pangu couldn't be explained, and he couldn't explain it at all, because people without the blood of Pangu couldn't understand.

Why do you say this? Because to explain Pangu's way, you must have Pangu's blood in order to understand the meaning of chaotic text.

Without Pangu blood, you simply do n't understand what he 's talking about, it 's like you do n't understand a foreign language just do n't understand it, it 's like the people of the earth do n't understand the language of an alien family.

Yaochi and Zhenyuan, the two did not understand what Qin Tiange was talking about, and looked at each other. In the end, Qin Tiange simply stopped elaborating on the Pangu way, quietly listening to the explanations of the two, and absorbed and proved his own cultivation understanding.

On the side, Xi Xi sat a little behind Qin Tiange, listening quietly, falling into a certain mood, full of breath, exuding a wonderful breath of life.

The nine-tailed fox, sitting cross-legged not far away, absorbed the blood of the ancestor, and his breath became stronger and stronger, and Yaochi nodded secretly.

For a long time, when both of them stopped, Qin Tiange woke up from his contemplative comprehension, and the whole person's energy and spirit went to a higher level.

"Thank you both for your preaching. I will do my best as I ask." Qin Tiange stood up and made a solemn promise.

Since the people are full of friendship, and he does not hesitate to preach for him, this must be what he wants from the future. Qin Tiange understands people and has clear grievances, so naturally he won't be stupid.

"Good!" Zhen Yuan and Yao Chi smiled at each other, nodded and finally relieved.

The reason why the two took pains to help Qin Tiange is nothing more than wanting Qin Tiange to help them in the future. Although they do n't understand what it is now, at least it is not a simple matter.

“Xi Xi, do you stay here to practice or return with me?”

At this point, Qin Tiange got up and left, asking about Xi Xi who woke up, and the latter hesitated.

Qiu Xiqiao's face changed, her eyes flickered and she looked at Qin Tiange and asked, “Brother Ye, I want to continue to practice here for a while.”

After hesitating, she finally decided to stay and practice for a while, where she got the guidance of Yaochi and Zhenyuan, and she made rapid progress.

Qin Tiange nodded, not forced, but smiled: “Since you want to stay, practice well here, and go home when you are tired.”

Family!

After hearing this, Xun Xi stayed a while, thinking about the meaning of this sentence, and Qin Tiange said goodbye to Yaochi and Zhenyuan. This time he came to see Xun Xi and let her calm down and practice.

He didn't wake up until he left, but the person had already gone, his heart was suddenly lost, and he felt empty and uncomfortable.

“Xi Xi, if the attachment in your heart is firm enough, if you still want to follow in his footsteps, you must become stronger, and you must continue to chase and walk firmly with him to succeed.”

The Lord of the Yaochi Palace came to her and comforted him softly. She said: “He is the emperor, destined for life's ups and downs, and the danger will be more and more. The people who follow him will inevitably have a greater crisis. If you want to stay alive and follow him all the time, you need your courage and strength. “

“Some things, especially feelings, can't stand the test in the long years. If you are true and eternal to him, and never die, then don't care about the superficial things.”

Yao Chi patted her gently, and said in her ear: “From ancient times to the present, there are not many women who can follow the Emperor. Everyone around the Emperor has followed the Emperor's trials and hardships. The sincere and unforgettable feelings that came out of countless baptisms of war. “

“Nice!” Zhen Yuan smiled lightly: “I remember that there was a queen and nine princesses around the emperor of the previous period, who together assisted the emperor to complete the great cause of reunification, of which there were three of the nine princesses Not human, but dedicated his life to the great cause of the human race, even overwhelming his own destiny. “

Zhenyuan sighed and sighed, “In the last century, the emperor died, and the queen followed the emperor with nine concubines. He also died on the battlefield. You can't imagine that war. Almost all follow the emperor. All were almost killed, and the human race almost wiped out. “

Ugh

Thinking of the past, Yaochi sighed faintly and said, “Xi Xi, if you want to be such a person, you must seriously consider it, because once you have made a decision, you cannot regret it. If you have no feelings for him, cut it off in time. Fen Nian Xiang, because he is one of the candidates for the Emperor of this era, the future is doomed to blood, whether the competition is successful, and where it can go is still unknown. “

“I won’t give up. I want to cultivate and become stronger. I want to help him. If it doesn’t work for a hundred years, it will take him a thousand years, ten thousand years or even one hundred thousand years to impress him. I firmly believe that I can do it.” After Xi listened, Qiao’s face became firmer and firmer, as if making a decision.

Yaochi and Zhenyuan glanced at each other, both flashing a smile, it seemed that they deliberately dialed Xi Xi, because the two clearly know the identity of Xi Xi, in the future can represent the entire family of half demon.

Once Xi Xi is close to Qin Tiange and is willing to give everything to him, it is equal to the entire half demon family, which will become a great help for Qin Tiange to step into the stars in the future. Bloodlines have a long history.

Out of Kunlun, Qin Tiange came to the territory of Huaxia, in front of a thatched hut, and looked in amazement at the large, small, and two figures in front of the hut.

“The emperor is approaching, and Taibai misses.” Li Bai arched his hand gently, a faint smile on the corner of his mouth.

Qin Tiange nodded, his gaze moved to the side of a petite figure. It was a little girl, who looked about eight or nine years old.

But she was extremely powerful, and she was a king-level powerhouse. She had to say that it surprised him, and she soon remembered who it was.

“Lin Yiyin?” Qin Tiange froze, looking at this little girl, it was Lin Yiyin.

“leader!”

The little girl Lin Yingyin was so excited that she looked at Qin Tiange brightly. She turned out to be a leader. Yes, she saw the supreme leader of Huaxia appearing in front of her.

Moreover, the leader seemed to know her, which made the little girl Lin Minyin excited, and her little face turned red.

Lin Yiyin How could you be with Li Bai? Qin Tiange glanced at Li Bai, who naturally saw his doubts and explained with a smile.

“Princess, this is the disciple I just collected, Lin Yiyin, who is the only sword body in Qinglian who is born. He is born to be a super genius for practicing Qinglian sword song.” There was a touch of excitement on Li Bai’s face, like his heart. Can’t help but be excited, but imagine how happy he was to meet Lin Yanyin.

“Qing Lian sword body?” Qin Tiange was weird, looked at Xia Lin’s sound, and found that there was a strange breath in her body, which was strange.

Li Bai smiled: “She is Qinglian’s reincarnation. She is born immaculate, pure and unique. Once Qinglian sword body is turned on, it is a genius without any one, and future achievements may surpass me.”

“Congratulations!” Qin Tiange smiled and congratulated.

But he remembered something in his mind, Lin Yingyin’s father, the veteran who had rescued Long Xiaoya on the train, and his ashes were still with him.

“Lin Yingyin, this is your father’s ashes, he is a hero.”

Qin Tiange came to her, took out a cremated altar, and handed it to Lin Yiyin, so that she was stagnant.

Chapter 650 - Moon Mystery, Stargate

“father”

Lin Yiyin’s mouth was flat, her lips were biting, her eyes were full of tears of tears, and the big teardrops of the beans were dripping on the ashes.

She hugged the ashes with her hands. This was her father, the retired soldier, who died because of saving Long Xiaoya.

“I’ve always wanted to find you. This is the picture I found from your father’s hands, and now it belongs to the original owner.” Qin Tiange took out a photo, which was the only thing Lin Daoyin’s father left at the time.

Lin Yiyin grabbed the photo, and stared at the father and mother above. Her mother had died to protect her at the beginning of the last days.

Now, I finally heard the news of her dad, but it was the news that she had been sacrificed. Fortunately, Qin Tiange kept the ashes and waited until now to hand it to her.

“Thank you, leader!” Lin Yanyin wiped her tears, and the young and tender hand saluted.

Qin Tiange patted her small shoulder gently, encouragingly said: “Before leaving, your father’s greatest wish is to hope that you can survive and become a strong person in the world, stand up and protect yourself.”

“Follow your master and study hard. He is your best master. Don’t let your father down.” Qin Tiange smiled and encouraged, and nodded to Li Bai, turned around and disappeared here.

“Master Wow”

After Qin Tiange left, Lin Yiyin couldn’t help but turned back and rushed into Li Bai’s arms, crying, his heart was very sad.

Li Bai patted her shoulder gently, silent, comforting. He has experienced so many farewells and even forgotten his unforgettable experiences in the long years.

Now looking at his little apprentice crying sadly, a wave was rising from his heart, but soon calmed down.

Qin Tiange didn't stay much. It was a good thing to find Lin Yingyin. The little girl was so talented she turned out to be Qinglian's sword body. She had no time to get Li Bai's favor and was directly accepted as a close disciple.

For Lin Yiyin, Li Bai was the best ending for her master, but it was also his wish.

"Master, I'm back."

At this time, Qin Tiange, who had returned to Shangjing, saw his own self, and walked up with excitement, telling in detail about the process and harvest of clearing Huang Quan's corpse this time.

"Look, master, this is Huangquan soil, which can die of human flesh and bones." Xiji took out a touch of dark yellow dirt.

This is Huangquan soil. It is rumored to be able to live and die. This is not to say that people are resurrected from death, but that after a person dies, the body buried in this kind of yellow spring soil can produce abnormal changes, or corpses.

As for the flesh bone, the skeleton is buried in the yellow spring soil, which can make the skeleton grow a kind of carrion, and then mutate into an alternative corpse, which has a bloodthirsty instinct.

This is Huangquan soil, and there are many other functions. For example, Chung Lai is doing research on biopharmaceuticals, which is likely to be equipped with a super-regenerating medicament.

"Leave it to the pharmacy for research." Qin Tiange made the decision directly.

These things are of little use to him, but they have a great effect and significance for research, and naturally cannot be wasted.

"Master, I just received the latest monitoring signal from the super-nano satellite. There is an inexplicable energy fluctuation on the moon. Would you like to investigate?" Ji Ji suddenly whispered.

Qin Tiange frowned slightly, pondered for a moment, and nodded, "Yeah, there is a wormhole on the back of the moon, we must go up and take a look."

Mars is already nervously preparing for the battle city and preparing for the next war, but the moon has never been able to go up, or even watched it.

Since Xun Ji said that there are inexplicable energy fluctuations, some changes that he did not know may have occurred, and he must take a look to be assured.

"go!"

Just go and go, Qin Tiange and his own self penetrated into the void, reached the summit of Tianzhu in the Pangu continent, and entered space.

Looking from here, the moon is exactly in space orbit at the peak of Tianzhu, a long distance, but if it is up to his current ability, it does not take long.

I saw a black particle pouring out from Qin Tiange's body, disappearing in a moment, wrapped in his own body, and reappeared in space orbit.

Soon, both of them came to the moon and stepped into this mysterious lunar land.

"Master, there's a breath of life over there." As soon as he entered the moon, his self pointed at the front and said the discovery.

The two flashed quickly and came to an uneven area, strewn with some huge meteorite.

"What kind of creature is this?" Qin Tiange came here and looked down, with a few strange creatures crawling below.

These creatures were born horribly, and, even when they were digging, seemed to be digging the moon, which caught Qin Tiange's attention.

Flying all the way, Qin Tiange saw many such creatures, densely scattered on the moon, digging on the moon's surface.

"They are digging the moon, as if they are going to penetrate the moon's heart." Qin Tiange and Jiji concluded that these inexplicable creatures were going to penetrate the moon's heart.

When they looked at each other, they saw each other's surprise. They seemed to guess what they were and immediately set off to the back of the moon.

"Good guy, these aliens are actually digging the moon?"

When he came to the back of the moon, Qin Tiange looked at the dark moon surface in front of him in surprise. There was a huge pit of ten thousand meters, where densely packed creatures were reclaiming and digging.

Around, there are a large number of alien guards, many powerful, but none of them found the arrival of Qin Tiange and Jiji.

The two looked for a while, and Qin Tiange finally found out that the large pit was not earth, but a layer of special alloy structure, like a huge mechanical whole.

"Master, I sensed that there is a special energy wave in this big pit. It seems that the energy core has leaked out." Fu Ji said solemnly.

Qin Tiange can see that the moon is not just as simple as an earth satellite, but a huge secret hidden inside.

"Is the moon an ancient and powerful battle star?" Qin Tiange squinted and looked at the huge pit that was dug out.

Inside, layers of huge metal defense structures are extremely hard, and these alien creatures can only dig to a depth of three kilometers, and they can no longer go down.

There are powerful energy fluctuations there, as if the entire moon defense core has been activated, and it is resisting the excavation and destruction of these alien races.

“Say yourself, solve these alien race creatures, let’s go and see the hidden secret of the moon.” Qin Tiange’s eyes flickered, and he said something lightly.

The two disappeared almost at the same time. Then, many alien creatures and strong men below were quietly killed, and some even screamed.

“Enemy attack!”

“Enemy attack!”

The sound of exclamation and screaming caused huge confusion. Many powerful alien creatures reacted and wanted to resist, but were mercilessly slaughtered.

“Bold!”

There was a roar of powerful first emperor-level powerful men who rose into the sky and burst into strength, but the next moment was crushed into the air by a hand.

“Ah, run away”

The screams kept coming, and one powerful alien race after another was killed, and a slaughter was staged here.

Only two people have slaughtered hundreds of thousands of strong alien aliens here, and one has not stayed.

He killed all the alien guards here, and even the inexplicable creatures he had unearthed were cut and killed by him one by one, and completely emptied.

“Go, look down.” After solving these guards, Qin Tiange fell into the deep pit dug out.

At the bottom, Qin Tiange clearly saw the metal defense structure here. It was extremely hard and the defense was super scary.

Even he could barely break it open and had to surprise him. What secrets does the moon hide?

boom!

One punch smashed the blocking metal defense structure and opened a passageway inside. Qin Tiange and Xunji glanced at each other and jumped into it instantly.

Entering the channel, Qin Tiange only found the hugeness here, which made him doubt whether the moon was another star-killer.

The huge aisle walked along and came to a huge empty field, which was filled with dense metal machinery.

They were mechas, and there were powerful mechas standing there, which made Qin Tiange feel a little surprised. Some did not understand why there was a mecha here.

It looks like a super high-tech product, and these mechas are not the ground fighter mecha currently produced by Huaxia.

These mechas are as high as hundreds of meters as a whole, and some are as high as one thousand meters, which is just a monster.

“This is a space fighter mech.” Jiji looked cautiously and expressed his knowledge in surprise. All the mechs here were space fighter mechas.

Qin Tiange stepped forward and looked at a mecha, which could not be started without energy supply, but he was surprised to find that once the energy supply was available, these mechas would be activated.

He glanced at his uncle, already having a plan in his heart, and found such a huge secret, how could he let it go?

“Yanji, immediately send a robot to build a quantum portal, the moon cannot fall on the hands of those aliens.” Qin Tiange immediately made a decision.

On the moon, it is likely to be a startable battle star, a huge planet fortress used for space wars, which contains some ancient war machines.

These things, as to how Qin Tiange did not care, now that he sees nature to occupy, otherwise bye bye to those aliens?

Qin Tiange said cautiously: “Dear oneself, check to see if you can control the energy system here, and even if the core system can break into it to control the entire fortress core system.”

“Understand, my master!”

I have acted directly and went to see where the inspection system was located, to invade the core energy control system here.

As for Qin Tiange, I wandered here, looked at one area after another, and gradually learned the hidden secrets of the entire moon. UU reading books www.uukanshu.com

Suddenly, the subsystem sent a self-warning warning: “Master, some area on the back of the moon has detected a strong space energy fluctuation, and something unknown has started.”

Upon hearing this, Qin Tiange frowned, and flew out of the core of the moon, and came to the area where Ji Ji said, just to see a huge metal portal standing there.

“Stargate?”

Seeing this, Qin Tiange could not help frowning in surprise. It turned out to be the interstellar gate, which was an interstellar portal constructed by the alien family.

This door, with a diameter of three thousand feet, opened a wall of energy like a water curtain, breaking the starry passage, and the interstellar door leading to another planet was activated.

“Hahahaha”

“We finally came to the oldest place of origin of the human race.”

A huge figure stepped out of the interstellar gate, and laughed loudly, shaking the ground around him, and the sky was full of sand.
