

Dark Ages 651

Chapter 651 - Shatter the star gate, crush

A ten-meter-tall creature laughed loudly. The upper body and lower body of a man turned out to be a scorpion, and the black body of the whole body was shiny.

“The Scorpio, a powerful race from the Scorpio.”

Qin Tiange murmured to himself, staring blankly at this giant Scorpion creature, laughing loudly in front of the Stargate.

The breath exuded from the opponent was completely a first-class powerhouse, but this was not in his eyes.

“Well? I smell human?”

Suddenly, the first emperor-level magic scorpion strong was surprised, his nose sniffed, and he saw Qin Tiange floating above.

He didn't hide the figure, nor did he hide the breath. Let the master of the Scorpion clan smell the breath and see his trace.

“Human race, haha, I didn't expect to see a delicious food when I first arrived.” This magic scorpion strong haha laughed and rose into the air, and two huge pliers caught Qin Tiange.

Looking at the powerful Scorpion clan rushing up, Qin Tiange sneered, rolled his hands and pressed it with a loud noise, and the Scorpion was crushed to the ground on the spot.

A huge palm print appeared on the ground, in the center of the palm print, and the devil scorpion was completely broken, his head turned into flesh, and he died on the spot.

The first Emperor of the Scorpion family was killed by a single palm without reaction. I have to say that Qin Tiange's physical body and strength are too frightening.

Wow!

At this moment, in the star gate, a huge unmatched pliers slowly protruded out, revealing the dark luster, exuding the horror.

It was another powerful scorpion, which was about to pass through the interstellar gate. Before it came out completely, the powerful breath pressed the void on the moon a little.

“Get up!”

Seeing this, Qin Tiange gave a loud shout, five fingers and one clasp, and a loud bang came, and the entire star gate rose directly to the ground.

He grabbed the huge star gate, the black particles rolled and wrapped, and then penetrated into the turbulent space and was thrown directly into it.

The turbulent turbulence of space swayed the star gate, and the scorpion creature inside it suddenly stunned, and then issued a strange scream.

“Ah **** it, the Star Gate is going to be broken.”

The interstellar gate is about to be smashed by the turbulent flow of space, and in the open starry channel inside, a horrible Devil Scorpion creature is terrified. Before it understands what happened, it is twisted into powder by the broken channel energy.

The mighty scorpion exploded, two huge pliers stretched out fiercely, trying to break through the star gate, the mighty power, and the turbulent flow of space could not stop its double pliers.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange raised his hand and punched him with a bang, and a huge plier broke down on the spot, and blood and water spurted.

“No” came with a scream, flesh flew, and the broken star gate gradually went out.

The Xingmen was destroyed. It is not clear how many Devil Scorpions were buried in the passage, but Qin Tiange knew that it was only a small ox.

There are many more powerful scorpion races waiting to land through the wormhole of time and space to the earth world, that is the main force of the real starry race.

Destroying a star gate does not prevent the arrival of alien races. Unless you destroy that space-time wormhole, don't even think about it.

Even if you destroy the wormhole in time and space, there are alien groups on Earth who can build interstellar gates. At that time, you will also face the main force of these alien groups.

“Magic Scorpion” Qin Tiange looked at the broken star gate, carried the broken star gate, turned away from the space, and returned to the surface of the moon.

He flickered, followed the induction, and soon saw a huge space-time wormhole in front of a crack on the back of the moon.

Here, guards of all races gather to guard this interstellar gate.

“Who!”

“Well, Terran?”

There was a loud shout, and with the appearance of strong horizontal figures, the powerful alien creatures of the emperor class and the first emperor class rose into the sky and came to Qin Tiange.

His arrival didn't hide his breath, so he was discovered at once, shocking the strong men of all races guarding the wormhole in time and space.

Some scorpions have magic scorpions, dorsal wings, and fluffy hawk moths. They also have human fish faces, and shark fins with flying wings.

All kinds of creatures are one of the hundreds of starry sky, gathered together, surrounded Qin Tiange groups, and launched an attack directly.

“kill him!”

More than a dozen powerful creatures attacked all at once, and the energy storm exploded and swept away in all directions.

At the center of the explosion, Qin Tiange was expressionless, letting these energies bombard and erode without being moved.

There was no scar on his body, and even the bombarded energy was directly swallowed by the chaotic membranes in his body.

“His, is it all right?”

The surrounding strong men changed greatly, watching Qin Tiange stand there intact, all foreign creature strong men had the same complexion.

“Dead!” Qin Tiange stretched out a hand, slightly clasped his five fingers, and suddenly, the powerful creatures around him became stiff.

Just listening to the dull explosion of bangs, one after another powerful alien creatures were crushed and exploded, allowing Qin Tiange to swallow it cleanly, leaving nothing left.

“Come on!”

With the death of these powerful men, the various ethnic groups guarding around the wormhole were frightened, one by one, screamed, ran and ran away, escaping directly.

Unfortunately, they couldn’t run away. In a blink of an eye, a guard team was chopped and killed by Qin Tiange, and devoured all biological energy.

After killing these alien-type creatures guarding the wormhole, Qin Tiange came to the moonworm’s wormhole to look in silence.

Those alien groups, obviously have this space-time wormhole, why should we build an interplanetary door, is there any restriction on entering this wormhole?

He observed it carefully for a while, and soon realized that this space-time wormhole was extremely unstable and could explode at any time.

Once too powerful creatures step in, they will crush the entire wormhole space immediately before entering the wormhole, and cannot bear the arrival of powerful creatures.

“So it is no wonder that these alien families want to build the interstellar door. It turned out that they wanted to attract the strong.” Qin Tiange understood, a sneer on his face.

This moon wormhole cannot bear the arrival of powerful creatures above the star level. Once there are powerful creatures above the star level, it will immediately cause a collapse.

With Xinghai coordinates, it is not the same. You can build an interstellar door here. Although it can not transport a large number of alien creatures, it can attract some strong ones who cannot come.

“No way, there are suddenly a lot of powerful alien races in Europe, and they have also built an interplanetary gate?” Qin Tiange thought of it here quickly.

He had some speculation, and now it seems that these alien groups are secretly constructing the interstellar gate, and attracting more powerful creatures.

He glanced at the wormhole, turned around, flickered, disappeared on the moon, and returned directly to the summit of Tianzhu, the Pangu continent on Earth.

Huh!

Qin Tiange didn't hesitate. A person left the Pangu continent and entered the European plate continent, carefully sensing the breath and location of the Stargate.

With a keen sense, Qin Tiange quickly found an interstellar gate constructed here, which was actually in the middle of the Mediterranean Sea in Europe.

Rumbling

At this moment, a huge star gate stands in the middle of the Mediterranean Sea, and a powerful curtain of energy emerges, laying like a curtain of water.

The huge star gate is hundreds of feet high and extremely eye-catching. From one inside to the next, there are successively arrogant figures. The weakest are the Emperor Class, and the ancestor class is a lot.

“Well, Terran?”

At this time, the three ancestral creatures who had just stepped out of the Xingmen were horrified. Looking at this side, they just saw the appearance of Qin Tiange.

The three ancestors were surprised, but soon showed a smirk, and at the same time raised their palms to suppress Qin Tiange.

The powerful force and the horrible power caused the seas below to be depressed, rumbling and breaking, setting off a raging sea.

Faced with a sudden blow from the three great ancestors, Qin Tiange pointed out, and when he stunned, the three forces collapsed in front of him.

boom!

With a split palm, the void was hollow, and two ancestral creatures were smashed on the spot and swallowed up by Qin Tiange.

The last ancestor hid quickly, took a life, and looked at Qin Tiange with horror. When he met, he killed the two ancestors?

“Damn, the prince saves life, saves life” The remaining old ancestor was shocked, and ran directly to the Stargate, hissing in horror.

I saw Qin Tiange plunging into the space with one hand, sticking out from behind the ancestor, slamming his body with a palm, opening his mouth and swallowing it.

“Three ancestors are dead”

“Where is my prince, why not come?”

At this time, the surrounding emperor-level creatures were frightened, and all of them stepped back, their eyes looking at Qin Tiange became extremely frightened.

They wanted to run, and they were pinched to death here by Qin Tiange. All his energy, including the real spirit, was swallowed by him, leaving nothing left.

“Bold!”

“presumptuous!”

Just then, two loud drinks came from the Xingmen, and two strong horizontal figures came out of the Xingmen. Half of the body had already appeared, exuding a terrible breath.

Here are two Taurus, a pair of golden horns, full of anger on his face, Jin Chancan’s light shining through his eyes, murderous.

The Taurus family, from Taurus, is a strong family among the hundreds, and the breath of these two Taurus is infinitely close to the star star, which is a half-step star star.

Hum!

Qin Tiange punched, the space was buzzing, and two powerful Taurus passing through the star gate suddenly split open with half of his body bursting into pieces.

Qin Tiange was beaten to death by failing to fully break out of the Xingmen. His broken body and energy were swallowed up by him, and the two starry cores were about to be emptied. Qin Tiange swallowed it with his mouth open.

“Jack, my prince slaughtered you!”

With the killing of two half-step star-star Taurus celebrities, an extremely angry roar came out of the star gate.

A loud bang came, and then a golden palm passed through the star gate fiercely and fiercely chopped down towards Qin Tiange.

The mighty power and the endless energy fluctuations let Qin Tiange know that he met a star-rated star of the Taurus.

“A prince of the Taurus royal family?” Qin Tiange looked indifferent, looking at the golden giant hand that was cut off.

I saw him gently waving his arm, and punched up with a punch, the space buzzed, and then broke apart.

boom!

The fist swept through, and the golden giant hand trembled, and then Qin Tiange punched him here. The brutal force accompanied Qin Tiange to wave his fist into the star gate.

“what”

There was a miserable roar in the star gate, and two forces collided in the channel of the star gate. Eventually, the star gate could not bear the powerful punch, and it collapsed on the spot.

“The prince is not at odds with you”

As the Xingmen was torn by Qin Tiange’s violent fist, there was a burst of angry roar, and gradually no sound.

Chapter 652 - A prisoner of gods, brutal birth

The Taurus royal family, a prince was injured by Qin Tiange across the star gate, disappeared as the star gate broke, it is not clear whether it can come again.

“The main forces and strong men of all ethnic groups have appeared, and Huaxia must accelerate its pace.”

Looking at the broken star gate, Qin Tiange frowned secretly, thinking about pushing the speed of Huaxia’s evolutionary cultivation.

“Yiji” he immediately connected to him.

I saw that my own projection emerged and said directly: “Master, I have controlled the main core system of the moon, but the energy system has been exhausted, and a new energy system must be rebuilt in order to operate the super stronghold of the moon.”

Listening to his own explanation, Qin Tiange nodded and said, “In this matter, you arrange to control the restoration of the space fortress of the moon as soon as possible, and send out several anti-material missile vehicles to destroy the space-time wormhole on the moon. “

“Yes, master!” Jiji immediately took the order, without asking why, and directly mobilized three missile vehicles loaded with anti-material warheads into the moon, destroying the wormhole in time and space.

Since the moon is a space fortress, you can’t leave the wormhole there. You can directly destroy the wormhole and completely control the moon fortress.

With this fortress, plus the combination of Starkiller and the base on Mars, it is enough to guard the safety of outer space on Earth.

As for how to deal with the arrival of the main force of the alien family in the future, it will be put on the Martian battlefield, or even the space battlefield.

After all, the earth belongs to the place where humans originated. It is better to have less war damage here. Only by eliminating the enemy from the earth can it be considered a real success.

“Secretary, ask the Ministry of Science and Technology to speed up the research and mining of time crystals. It is necessary to build the house of time and even the mystery of time as soon as possible to speed up our progress.”

In the end, Qin Tiange conveyed this order, letting the people in the Ministry of Science and Technology go all out to find out the time crystal mining technology as soon as possible, and then mine the time crystal to build the time house and time secret of China, so that countless people in China can Enter to accelerate cultivation and growth.

“Understand!” I wrote down one by one and quickly conveyed the instruction.

After doing this, Qin Tiange was going to cut off the contact and go to see the situation at the European Three Gods System, but a message came from Jiji that made him have to give up this plan.

“Master, the African plate has strong energy fluctuations, erupting like a tide.”
Just listen to the message that my self has said.

She continued: “There, the nanosatellite detected strong magnetic field fluctuations, the energy tide was getting stronger and stronger, and it broke out every thirty seconds.”

“Where is the location?” Qin Tiange frowned secretly, but Africa was very confused.

Moreover, there was a strong and terrible restricted area there, which landed from the Tianwai battlefield and remained motionless.

“Target area, a big crack in East Africa,” Qin Tiange’s eyes couldn’t help but choke.

The big crack in East Africa, which is one of the most famous restricted areas on the earth, is bottomless. Inside it is hidden the fragments of the ancient battlefield falling from the sky, a restricted area.

“I see. You go to your business. I’ll check it out.”

Qin Tiange thought about it, and finally decided to take a look. If that restricted area ran out, then he must find a way to suppress it.

Of course, if he didn’t run out, he doesn’t care about these restricted areas now.

After severing the contact, Qin Tiange disappeared in Europe, and just after leaving, dozens of strong horizontal figures appeared here.

“The star gate is broken!”

“Miscellaneous things can’t keep the star gate.”

“Who dares to destroy the star gates built by our races?”

The strong men who came here were all ancestral creatures. They came from the alien aliens who invaded the European continent. Because of the changes in the star gate, they came immediately, but it was too late.

When I came here, I saw the broken star gate, and the corpses on the ground were not left, which made these foreign powerhouses angry and surprised.

“Don’t worry about it here, go back and destroy the human forces here, and then rebuild a stargate.”

Eventually, these ancestors left angrily, preparing to start a decisive battle to wipe out human power throughout Europe.

However, the support of the Huaxia army ushered in Europe, and the arrival of a powerful Chinese expeditionary force brought strong assistance to Europe.

At this time, the African plate was filled with a tyrannical atmosphere, and the energy tides erupted again and again, as if foreshadowing that something terrible would be born.

The Great Rift Valley of East Africa, with a total length of more than 6,000 kilometers and the widest area of more than 3,000 kilometers, is bottomless and is an out-of-the-way abyss.

Huh!

A figure emerged quietly, standing high, looking down at this huge abyss, dark and heavy, and the energy tide constantly poured out of the abyss.

Qin Tiange felt this tide of energy, wave after wave, as if something terrible was about to burst out of the abyss.

“Sure enough, it is one of the forbidden areas on earth.

With his eyes narrowed, he glanced at this terrible abyss. Within a thousand kilometers, everything was extinct, countless mutant creatures fell to the ground, his blood dried up, and some were still struggling in pain and whimpering.

Ooo

There are terrible disasters not only in mutants, but also in human survivors in Africa living in this area.

Qin Tiange flew past him and saw a large African primitive tribe below. Everyone, men and women, fell to the ground, his blood was dried up, and he was drained dry by no means.

Looking at the tens of thousands of human survivors in the entire tribe, Qin Tiange couldn't help shaking his head, looking at this restricted area, the prisoner's abyss, and understood that the things imprisoned here were coming out.

Why is this restricted area called: The Prison of Prisoners?

That's because the cosmic creatures captured by the human race once captured are imprisoned here, imprisoned on the battlefield and suppressed.

However, as the ancient battlefield of the human race was broken, the restricted area of these prisoners fell into the earth's ancestors, forming a terrible restricted area.

In the restricted area, the imprisoned ancient creatures and fierce creatures began to break out of the seal. Without the suppression of the strong human race, it was impossible to continue the seal.

And this abyss of imprisoned gods is rumored to imprison the most fierce tribe in the universe, the fierce tribe, known as the fierce god.

boom!

In the front, a large black mist erupted suddenly in the center of the big crack, and the dark air filled the sky, covering the whole prison god's abyss.

In the dark mist, a fierce evil spirit appeared, as if a ferocious **** had been born, breaking the seal from the abyss of the restricted area and coming out soon.

Span

“Roar!”

There was a loud noise coming down from the prison god's abyss, as if the sound of metal strikes, shook through all directions, accompanied by bursts of terrible roar.

Listening to the roar, Qin Tiange looked slightly condensed, feeling a kind of oppression, extremely fierce, as if there was a terrible fierce ***** imprisoned inside.

The brutal tribe, an ancient race of the previous period, is a very fierce tribe. It was once the enemy of the human race, but was finally defeated by the human race to conquer many ferocious gods and imprisoned in the battlefield.

Want to come, in this abyss of the prisoner gods, there are many fierce gods of the barbarous prison.

“It’s really troublesome.” Qin Tiange snorted. He didn’t want to ignore it too early, but now it seems that it won’t work.

Once these savages ran out, and swallowed up the continent’s creatures, and restored their former fierce power, it was a huge threat to China.

Qin Tiange is thinking about how to suppress the ferocious gods imprisoned here. This is a very difficult problem.

It is not in Huaxia, but in the African plate, which is a little too far away from Huaxia’s Asian plate.

It is close to the North American continent, but unfortunately, the forces there have been unified and extremely xenophobic. Qin Tiange went away and was rejected by the supreme ruler there.

As for the countless forces and tribal alliances on the African continent, Qin Tiange is a little speechless and shameless. It is too chaotic here.

Moreover, the African road is simply a paradise for mutant organisms. Various genetic variants are overbearing. Humans are the weakest group here.

“Would you like to let these fierce gods clean up the mutant gene creatures here?” Qin Tiange suddenly had this idea.

Use the fierce ***** under the prisoner’s abyss to clean up the mutants on the African continent, but finally thought about it and gave up.

This is simply the Kingdom of the Earth’s animals, a meat supply base, and it will certainly be the most important source of human meat in the future.

There is also the ancient species of the Pangu continent, where the species did not have a birth consciousness. Except for those few who entered the Pangu world to obtain metamorphosis to generate wisdom, no other creatures had metamorphic wisdom. This is one of the human meat sources.

“Well, I plan to build a meat processing base here, just to solve the current shortage of meat in China.”

The more Qin Tiange thinks, the more he becomes embarrassed, even thinking about how to build a meat supply base in the African plate in the restricted area.

“Roar!”

At this moment, a ferocious roar came down from the abyss, fierce and powerful, and it shook countless creatures on half of the African continent.

Qin Tiange squinted his eyes and stared under the abyss, a dark sky was rolling into the sky, there was a huge evil figure slowly climbing up.

It was a huge horrible creature. The barbaric people imprisoned here were fierce and terrible, terrifying and terrifying.

“How many years have passed, I finally got out of trouble.”

A low-pitched murmur came out, gradually turning into a roar, the fierce breath swept across all directions, shaking the mountains and rivers around the abyss, the boulder rolling down, the landslide, and bursting into the sky.

Qin Tiange watched quietly. Through the fog, he saw a huge creature climbing up from the abyss, locked with chains of copper rust all over his body.

“Our brutal tribe will finally die, Terran, wash your neck well.”

“Roar!”

“Brave, invincible!”

Under the abyss, a roar shook the world, and the entire African plate shook violently. The powerful and fierce momentum shocked the strong in all parties.

The ferocity is born, all parties are alarmed!

Chapter 653 - Fierce god, brutal fight

On the African continent, an outrageous and terrifying anger erupted, alarming many strong men on the entire earth, looking towards this side.

“Is this breath a brutal race that was suppressed by the human race in the last era?”

Some alien powerhouses were horrified, looking at the fierce gas, and felt an ancient flavor from the ancient clan of the last era.

This breath is extremely tyrannical and fierce, as if a fierce ancient tribe was born and reappears.

“The fierce **** who was suppressed by the human race on the battlefield in the past appears again. Is it going to stage another **** swallow the world?”

Kunlun, Zhenyuan looked dignified, looking at this direction, remembering the tragic and horrible disaster of the previous period.

Yaochi Fairy E frowned lightly and murmured: “The ferocity was born, and it still appeared in the place where the human race originated. This is bound to cause a huge impact.”

Brutal, a bloodthirsty, brutal and terrible ancient race.

Roar!

Just hearing a terrifying roar came, I saw the blackness and sky, rumbling through the clouds, stirring the atmosphere, forming a terrible scene.

Inside, a huge fierce creature was struggling hard, the chains on his body were rattling, and they screamed and stretched, and eventually they were broken one by one.

boom!

The fierce shadow roared, and when he raised his hand, he shot a hole in the sky, the clouds rolled away, the terrible power shook all directions, and countless creatures trembled.

A fierce **** first broke the seal and succeeded in being born. It attracted the attention of the powerful men from all sides and watched one after another.

“Well, is that Emperor?”

“Why is he there?”

Many strong men saw Qin Tiange’s figure, startled inexplicably, and then thought of something, all of them looked strange.

The Huaxia emperor is far-fetched, not only settling two restricted areas, but also destroying many pioneers of foreign races, killing the superior aliens.

Such fierceness is naturally the most hated existence of alien creatures. Many aliens can’t help trembling when they see him.

Now, seeing Qin Tiange appear in the sky above the prisoner’s depths, doesn’t it mean that the emperor’s eyes are looking at this place, is he going to conquer this restricted area again?

“There was a good show.”

“The emperor is in the forbidden area where the fierce gods are imprisoned. This fierce **** has just been born. Despite being suppressed by seals for countless years, his strength is extremely terrifying.”

“Ferocious, kill the emperor!”

Some alien masters are excited, thinking that the born fierce **** can kill the emperor, and they are all happy.

As soon as their thoughts fell, they saw that the born **** finally found Qin Tiange’s existence, and stared at him with huge eyes.

“Human dim sum, delicious, I like it.” The fierce **** grinned gigantically, his body was huge and tall.

The dark skin, with a hard luster, seems to be cast from black gold, and feels more like a black charcoal god.

“Dark guy, aren’t you brutal so black?” Qin Tiange said suddenly.

The air suddenly stagnated, the atmosphere was heavy, and the breath was extremely depressed, making people breathless and feeling uncomfortable.

“Dying ants, you look for death!” The black face of that fierce **** is even darker, his eyes staring at Qin Tiange, revealing a wisp of murderous murderous power.

With the bang of the palm, it fell down like a black ancient mountain. The strong air pressure knocked the ground out of a deep pit, and the rocks were crushed.

Hum! Qin Tiange looked calmly, waved his arm and punched, and there was a buzz in the air, which caused a burst and instantaneous boiling.

As the fist passed, the surrounding space cracked open, and the terrible fist swept across.

With a short bang, two fists, one large and one small, collided with a little spark, and then the powerful shock force knocked back the fierce god.

A wave of terror erupted from the central area of the two men, billowing and sweeping in all directions.

Roar!

The ferocious **** was angry and growled, "Humble people, dare to resist, and watch me swallow you."

This fierce **** roared, his body rushed up, wrapped in black gas, fierce and powerful, and suppressed the Quartet.

He waved an arm as if Tianzhu fell.

"Humble?" Qin Tiange's eyes were cold, and he hummed softly. "My people are humble, but I can suppress Seoul and other countless years here. What qualifications do you have to say that my people are humble?"

"In the past, my ancestors could suppress brutality, etc. Today, I can also suppress you, those ancient ancients."

When Qin Tiange was talking, his body emptied, and his fist waved, and the emptiness of the four sides shook, and his fist was covered with a light gray light, showing violent power.

With a bang, the fist hit the dark arm, causing a terrible collision, like a meteor impact.

I saw a bang, the arm of the ferocious **** was raised, and he was beaten back with a punch, his body backed, and his foot stopped in three steps.

Quiet!

There was silence all around, and many foreign powerhouses were shocked. Looking at the small figure, he punched back the fierce and fierce god.

Even the fierce **** was stunned, watching a faint mark on his arm, and was beaten back with a punch?

"Ah, this is true!" The fierce **** roared, unable to accept the fact.

The fierce tribe, as an ancient strong tribe in the previous period, naturally has pride, but was just forced to retreat by a young man of a tribe as soon as he was born.

This contrast made him feel a strong humiliation, roared, waved his arm, and slapped it in the palm of his hand to kill the human race.

“Dying ants, die!” The fierce **** is roaring, moving for nine days, a palm is like breaking up this world.

Qin Tiange was dancing with black hair, and his body was hunting, his armor was sloppy, and under the tremendous pressure, the ground collapsed and collapsed.

Behind a mountain crashed and smashed into powder by a strong palm wind. The terrible force struck, making people frightened.

“Barbarians, let me see how brutal and barbaric you are?”

Qin Tiange drank violently, and a quack came from his body, and then his flesh suddenly rose, and instantly grew into a giant giant.

“kill!”

Pangu’s blood was boiling. Qin Tiange waved a pair of fists and hit the dark giant hand. The booming sound burst and the waves billowed and wiped out the surrounding black clouds.

The fierce ***** was stunned and kept back, looking at Qin Tiange in horror, even being beaten again.

The black mist dispersed, revealing the fierce ***** of the savage tribe, his body was dark, his face and skin were just like black charcoal, except that his eyes were bloody.

“Ah, you’re looking for death!” He growled, exposing his white teeth, his black muscles trembling, and a burst of power belonging to the ancients burst out.

boom!

The two giants collided instantly, beating their fists and beating against each other’s body, a burst of thunderous noises were heard, deafening.

In the sky, Qin Tiange waved his fists, slamming his fist on the cheek of the fierce god, flesh and bones scattered and his bones broken.

boom!

Qin Tiange was punched in the chest with a dull sound, and his terrible brute force made him flutter slightly, but it was unscathed.

“You just have this power?” Qin Tiange Li Xiao, smashed with a punch, a crunching sound came, the fierce god’s left arm was broken, and several fingers were discounted.

He was fierce and violent, pangu’s blood was boiling, and a horrible force poured out, and every cell contained the power to open the sky.

Once it broke out, the fierce ***** couldn’t stop it, and even defeated, his face was beaten with flesh and blood, and screamed in sorrow.

“Roar, the gods have changed!”

The fierce ***** shouted, and his body was shrinking rapidly. The body of the thousand feet was rapidly changed to a body of two meters high. The dark muscles were full of strength, which was the oldest and barbaric force from the brutal people.

Seeing this, when Qin Tiange's body turned around, his quackness shrank, but his strength had not diminished, but he became more forceful and condensed.

“kill!”

He screamed violently, crushing the ferocious ***** on the opposite side with the force of the flesh. The brute force between the two turned out to be a brutal loss.

Boom Boom Boom

With one punch and one palm, they all used physical brute force, making the surrounding space tremble endlessly. With the collision of the two fists, the terrible scene of space collapse was bound to be caused.

In the middle of the night, Qin Tiange split with a palm, and a crunchy sound came out. There was flesh and bone blasting out, and he was inserted into a mountain, causing a mountain collapse.

“Roar!” The roar of the ferocious god, even if the ancient brutal forces were used, it was not enough for Qin Tiange to fight, and his body was wounded again and again, miserable.

“The terrible physical power, the fierce physical body is the most famous. I did not expect this emperor to have such a strong physical body, even suppressing each other.”

“Unbelievable!”

The alien strongmen who watched here were all moving, watching the two strong men, an ancient and fierce ***** of the tribe, one emperor, and the two even fought with physical strength.

The bodies of the two are staggered and constantly colliding, which is completely the most brutal style of play. They never dodged at all, but physically opposed each other's fists.

boom!

Suddenly, the jaw of that fierce ***** was hit with a punch, and the whole body flew high. Then, the figure of Qin Tiange quietly appeared, and his fist was slammed down.

A loud noise came from Xunlong, and the fierce ***** smashed into the ground, setting off a cloud of smoke and smashing into a bottomless pit.

“Brave, where's your fierceness?”

A loud drink shocked all parties, all the strong foreigners looked at Qin Tiange, his heart was cold, and he was more and more frightened.

It was wonderful to see that a powerful and fierce ***** was suppressed and mad.

boom!

The earth cracked, and a dark shadow came into the sky, the fierce **** came out, his complexion, and the dark skin all over his body suddenly appeared a strange red pattern, staggered and spread, exuding a horror.

“Battleprints of the brutal tribe?” Qin Tiange snorted, a smile twitching the corner of his mouth.

I saw the surface of his body, a gray pattern suddenly appeared on the body, the faint patterns interlaced, exuding a simple and mysterious atmosphere.

This is the battle pattern of the Pangu tribe, an ancient force belonging to the Pangu tribe. For the first time, Qin Tiange felt as if he could split the world.

“Roar!”

“kill!”

The two shot in an instant, each hitting a Xeon punch, the battle patterns were staggered, and the bumps collided.

Chapter 654 - Suppress and kill 1 ferocious god

Two fists collided, Gao Tian died silently, and then a sound of golden iron attack came, and two ancient battle patterns collided, bursting into sparks.

A turbulent wave rolled up from the center of the two people, and within a few kilometers of the mountains and trees were uprooted, rolled up at high altitude, the rocks and rocks flew, hit the void.

This kind of scene is amazing. The giant wood is uprooted, the chaotic stone penetrates, and is driven to fly by an invisible force, but it is shattered into powder.

Huh!

I only heard a gurgling sound, and the ancient war grains shattered and turned into blood light lasing. Many blood light fragments penetrated the mountain, and the whole mountain turned into powder, and the dust was flying.

The fierce god's face changed wildly, and he was horrified looking at the war pattern of his own family, which was broken and penetrated. It was almost unacceptable, and the invincible wild pattern was broken.

With a bang, the fierce god's body was shaken back a little, his arms raised, and the empty door opened wide.

“kill!”

Qin Tiange's eyes flashed violently, with a loud scream, he raised his hand and split his palm on the other's chest. On the spot, blood and water mixed with pieces of broken bones and burst out.

The fierce **** had a terrible face, his body was blown away, but he stared fiercely at Qin Tiange, regardless of his injury, and continued to charge up.

boom!

Brute force shakes the sky, the physical body of the brutal tribe is extremely terrible, and the recovery force is more terrifying.

Looking at the fierce ***** who continued to kill, Qin Tiange snorted, his fists waved, wrapped in a layer of gray light, and the runes were beating.

Huh!

The two fists collided. This time, the fierce god's arm was bent and his fist was smashed on the spot. Only a few scattered bones were stuck, which was extremely miserable.

"Ah," he screamed and flew back, looking at the blasted arm, looking horrified, never thinking that he would be broken by his own body when fighting for flesh?

"Brutal, do you have this power?" Qin Tiange snorted softly and stepped forward.

He was surrounded by a mysterious breath, and his mighty power overwhelmed the fierce god, and his breathing was quick.

"Human race, don't be arrogant. If I had been suppressed for countless years, how could you be bullied by your little human race?" The fierce ***** exclaimed, as soon as he recovered his arm, he continued to kill with his fist.

He broke out with brute force and fierce, but unfortunately met Qin Tiange, a terrible monster with Pangu blood, and he was a monster.

Roar!

The fierce roar burst, with a trace of misery, the fierce ***** was beaten by Qin Tiange again and again, the bones collapsed, and the roots broke apart.

Looking at the ferocious ***** that is being abused, the ancient brutal people are actually crushed by Qin Tiange with physical force, it is incredible.

"Why is the Emperor's body so strong?"

"That breath is terrifying, extremely old, and its origin is unknown."

"It feels older than the breath of the Tertiary."

The strong foreign races were in suspicion, speculating and talking, and looking at the ferocious gods who were being abused, they all trembled in their hearts.

Even some strong foreigners dare not set foot here, and can only wait and see from a distance by their own strength.

You know, the first time Qin Tiange conquered the Huangquan restricted area, many ancestors of foreign races went to watch it, and only a few returned.

Qin Tiange's fierceness has long been deeply rooted in the hearts of the people, deterring aliens, and making many powerful alien creatures dare not approach, for fear of being swallowed.

Roar!

"you wanna die"

The fierce ***** roared constantly, but still could not change the situation of being abused, but was mad by Qin Tiange again and again, and the black face became darker.

He yelled, screamed, and stirred up all directions with brute force, but couldn't stop the strong physical power of the Qin Tiange Pangu tribe. Each cell contained a ray of heavenly power. Think about how powerful this power is terror?

"It's you!" Qin Tiange drank, his body was close to the other side, and he smashed with a punch. The fierce god's cheek cracked, blood and blood sprayed, and miserable.

He waved his arms and fists, opened his bow to the left and right, and beat him fiercely and fiercely, making him almost suspicious.

"The ancestors of the past repressed you, etc. Today, I can still kill you fiercely."

Qin Tiange became more and more powerful, and his strength was boiling. With the physical fight with this fierce god, he actually stimulated the physical fighting power that originally belonged to the Pangu tribe.

Suddenly, a violent force emerged, his fists were simple, without a trace of fireworks, but punched through the ferocious chest.

Click!

The fierce body was stiff and was punched through by a punch. The whole freeze was there, his face was terrible, his left face was completely lost, and an eyeball was knocked out.

The miserable fierce ***** was mad by Qin Tiange as soon as he was born, and he began to doubt his life.

"Ah brutal, invincible"

The fierce ***** roared, still unwilling to give up, as if to explode a limit of power, want to restore the fighting power of the former peak.

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange did not give him this opportunity, and saw his left hand pressed against the other's Tian Ling with a click, his brain was cracked, and his forehead was screwed out of a crack.

"Do you still want to restore the glory of the past?" Qin Tiange snorted, his hands shook, his crackdown suppressed this arrogant fierce god.

An ancient ferocious god, who has been suppressed in the ancient battlefield for countless years, is still undead. It is conceivable that he is powerful, but now he was suppressed even after he was born.

"Ah, dare you swallow my brutal tribe?"

Suddenly, the fierce ***** made a scream and screamed, and the growl alarmed all parties. Many foreign strong men were trembling, and they felt furry, watching Qin Tiange eat up that fierce god.

The horror scene frightened countless creatures, and horrified many foreign race creatures, who did not dare to look any further and immediately hid.

“Roar!”

“Human race, you are wanton!”

At this moment, in the prison god’s abyss, a lot of terrible forces burst out, and many ferocious fierce gods were angry, and an angry roar came from the abyss.

They saw that Qin Tiange was actually devouring that fierce god, completely angered these fierce gods who were still suppressed in the prisoner’s abyss, all struggling and roaring fiercely.

Qin Tiange was expressionless and unmoved. He opened his strength and directly devoured the ancient power in the repressed fierce god.

The “no” fierce ***** roared, and the original flesh dried up quickly, and then his energy quickly drained away, swallowed by Qin Tiange Sheng.

Losing all his strength, the horrified discovery of this fierce ***** could not leave even his own true spirit and even the power of his blood, and he was swallowed up by Qin Tiange bit by bit.

“Ah, we are so fierce and incompatible with people.”

This fierce ***** made a final roar before death, with a strong unwillingness, and was eventually swallowed up by Qin Tiange and completely dispelled.

Consuming the strength and true spirit of the ferocious god, Qin Tiange’s body became more and more arrogant and horrible. The fierce power became more powerful and terrible, even far more than the fierce power of the brutal race.

“too frightening”

“Murder!”

The fierce tribe is known as the fierce god, but now it seems that Qin Tiange is even more fierce, and it is not too much to call it a generation of fierce men.

Qin Tiange devoured the life-long power of the fierce god, and then slowly turned around after thoroughly digesting, staring calmly at the dark abyss in front of him, prisoner of the gods.

boom!

Throwing it at will, the dried corpse of the fierce ***** directly smashed into the abyss, startling the terrible images of evil under the abyss.

Roar!

“What a reason!”

“Human race, you wait!”

There was another horrible roar from the prisoner’s abyss, and it was so powerful that a fierce fierce ***** was struggling to get rid of the original seal.

They were so angry that they saw that a tribe who had escaped from the seal was swallowed and killed by Qin Tiange Shengsheng. It was a shame.

“I’ll wait for you out!”

Qin Tiange spit out a sentence, his voice turned, sternly: “However, if you think about it before you come out, once you step out of the prisoner’s abyss, I will be killed and devoured.”

“I urge you to stay in the restricted area honestly and don’t cause trouble, it will still protect your life. If not, the fierce **** just now is your only end.”

“Ah, I’m so angry!”

“Human Triumph”

“I will kill you when I come out!”

Under the abyss, a terrible fierce vigor, roaring and shaking the earth, shattered the nearby mountains, flowers and trees directly turned into dust.

The terrible breath swept through the restricted area, and the group of fierce gods, who had been sealed for countless years without dying, were struggling to come out.

“If you want to kill me, then you need to see if you have the ability, now, stay honest with me.”

Qin Tiange drank coldly, his body emptied, and suddenly he swooped down into the abyss.

The rumbling sound came, the whole abyss trembled, the landslide, the boulder rolled into the abyss, but was ground into powder on the spot.

Just listening to the roar coming down from the abyss, a burst of violent drinking came, and the fierce collision sounded like a world breaking away, and soon calmed down.

Huh!

A figure flew out of the abyss, floating quietly there, holding a huge black arm in his hand, with blood dripping on it.

This man was Qin Tiange who had just entered the prison god’s abyss. He came out again, carrying a huge black arm, which was the fierce ***** of the fierce tribe below.

“Now, stay honest.” Qin Tiange snorted, dropped his arm, and turned to leave.

This time, there was no sound coming from the prisoner’s abyss. It seemed to be frightened and dead.

The Prison of Gods, an ancient forbidden area, was so upset by Qin Tiange that he couldn’t lift his head, and he huddled directly below, so he didn’t dare to say a word.

After killing a fierce god, rushing into the abyss and wounding the most powerful fierce ***** named, the whole prison gods’ abyss is completely quiet.

hiss!

“This man is too strong. We are not opponents at all.”

“If it wasn’t for the long years of repression, and our strength has flowed badly, how can we be bullied to this point by little human race boys?”

“Dormant Quietly recovering power, killing out every day, swallowing all races.”

Under the abyss, one by one, low voices came, showing anger and fierceness, apparently being overwhelmed by Qin Tiange.

The prisoner's depth is quiet, and no ferocious fierce ***** appears, but the black mist around the restricted area shrinks a large area, as if scared.

“Hurry up and hide, this emperor is just a murderer.”

For a time, those foreign powerhouses who watched here were frightened, hiding in secret, waiting for the main force of each ethnic group to arrive.

They did not dare to make heads, and even the major foreign pioneers and strongmen who were madly attacking Europe immediately turned around and ran away, hiding on the vast Pangu continent.

The entire earth has fallen into a weird peace. With Qin Tiange's suppression and swallowing up an ancient fierce god, and deterring the Prison God's Forbidden Zone, a strange and peaceful phenomenon has been created.

Of course, behind the quiet and peaceful, there is a more ferocious storm, a blood robbery is coming.

Chapter 655 - Magnificent Goal, Acquire Time Crystal

In front of the wormhole on the moon, three missile vehicles slowly unfolded, and three missiles carrying antimatter warheads aimed at the wormhole.

Huh!

Three missiles penetrated the air, and one of them penetrated into the space-time wormhole. Instantly, the antimatter warhead detonated inside. The instantaneous annihilation energy disrupted the space-time wormhole and directly destroyed the already unstable impulse.

The powerful forces swallowed everything around, even three missile vehicles were annihilated into powder at once, and the moon wormhole was destroyed.

The two figures stood quietly watching the destroyed wormhole in the distance, and that terrible force devoured everything within ten kilometers of the circle.

“Myself, with our current space technology, can we build our Stargate?”

After a long time, Qin Tiange opened his mouth and asked his uncle beside him, a strange light in his eyes.

Just listen to the self-confidence: “Master, at present, only space technology jumps can be formed in the solar system. If you want to break out of the solar system, it will take time.

“I don't want to do this first. Has the core system of the moon been mastered?”
Qin Tiange asked.

Xi Ji shook his head and smiled bitterly: “The energy system inside the Moon's core is completely paralyzed and cannot be controlled at all unless it is replaced.”

“Master, the space mechas stored in the fortress of the moon have been completely destroyed, and once activated, they will completely collapse.”

“Also, there is a warship mooring area in the lunar fortress, where a space carrier and hundreds of large space warships of various types have been found, but it has been completely paralyzed and abandoned because of too long no maintenance, and the level is useless . “

I have looked at the entire interior of the moon and found that there is a space carrier and hundreds of space warships of all kinds in the area where the warships are parked. Unfortunately, they are completely scrapped.

Qin Tiange groaned a little and said, “It is a pity to scrap it. We can copy the above technology. We make space carriers and space warships ourselves. Even those space mechas can be thoroughly copied.”

“Yes, master.” Jiji noted this and then said, “Master, there is one more thing, that is, the lunar fortress is completely paralyzed. Even if the energy system is replaced, there is no way to start the fortress.”

“That is to say, the moon fortress is actually useless?” Qin Tiange frowned secretly, somewhat dissatisfied.

The lunar fortress is completely scrapped, and many things have been decayed or even completely destroyed by years of erosion, unless the starry fortress is restored.

But repairing this completely abandoned Star Fortress is not as easy as rebuilding a super Star Fortress.

Qin Tiange thought for a while and said, “Then I used it as a model to study, and after eating the technology inside, I started to make our starry fortress. The goal is to set Mercury and transform Mercury into a starry fortress.”

“Mercury is feasible, and we have started to send engineering robots to the dormant sun surface, and we are studying the accurate data of the sun to provide more accurate data for the next artificial solar core energy body.” I have agreed to this plan.

Moreover, at present, due to the dormant sun, the temperature above is not high, which is the best time to study the sun and provide more accurate data information for the core of artificial solar energy.

Once you grasp the mystery of the sun itself, you can really make a core of solar energy. At that time, humans do not need to rely on this dormant sun.

“Research thoroughly as soon as possible, send more engineering robots, and start designing and building the Mercury War Fortress according to the starry fortress of the moon.”

“Yes, master!”

Ji Ji remembered these plans. Qin Tiange saw nothing and left the moon directly. There is not much threat here.

As for a small number of hidden foreigners, they will soon be discovered by the detection robots sent by the ego, and they will be wiped out one by one by the ego.

The moon is regarded as a frontier fortress base for mankind's march into space. As an abandoned old starry fortress, it can only be used for human research to build a starry fortress belonging to mankind.

On Mercury and the sun, a large number of large robots are descending here, and they are starting to do research or reform.

Even, according to Qin Tiange's meaning, the sun can be transformed into a star fortress. Once the sun is transformed into a star fortress, it is itself a huge energy body, which can continuously supply the energy required for war.

Of course, these all require huge technical support. Only by digging through some of the current high-tech technologies can we achieve this ambitious goal.

After leaving the moon, Qin Tiange returned to the earth, landed on the Tianzhu in the Pangu continent, ripped through the cracks in space, and went in.

Inside the mezzanine of space, a huge gray star floated quietly, motionless, and began to endless energy.

Dark energy, which originates from the dark side of the universe, is the largest energy in the universe. It is almost as large as the universe, as much matter, and as much dark energy.

Today, the starkiller has initially mastered and started, and energy is beginning to accumulate quickly for war.

“leader!”

Entering the Starkiller, a group of scientific and technological personnel are intensively studying, and the scientific and technological crystals contained in each region are interpreted a little bit and thoroughly eaten it.

Starkillers are far more advanced than the Moon Star Fortress, which simply does not belong to the three-dimensional world's ethnic civilization.

Starkiller is the product of a high-dimensional world, which contains extremely high levels of science and technology. It is really not easy to eat it thoroughly.

However, it is not difficult for Huaxia's group of scientific and technical personnel, especially everyone to develop the brain domain of their own brain, the research level is quite terrible.

“It would be perfect if several other planets in the solar system could be transformed into Starkillers or Star Fortresses.” Qin Tiange looked at the research of Starkillers.

A large number of robots have been adopted here, all of which are artificial robots, which are artificial skin and muscles constructed by themselves.

After all, always looking at a group of steel will appear aesthetic fatigue, so it is the emergence of these simulation robots.

Qin Tiange's plan is to transform several large planets in the solar system into star-killers or planet fortresses, so that the solar system is completely formed into a solid defense circle.

In that case, human beings have a chance to break through the three-dimensional barriers and step into the four-dimensional silver world.

“Leader, we have successfully mined two time crystals.”

At this time, Wu Lao hurriedly came, his face was excited and excited, and he said this exciting news.

Qin Tiange unexpectedly, has time crystals been mined? This was a little curious and surprised, and quickly came with Wu Lao to the area where time mining equipment was stored.

When I came here, I saw that a huge set of equipment had started up, and it was beginning to draw a mysterious energy from inexplicable space and time.

This energy breath makes Qin Tiange very familiar, that is the breath of time, yes, that is the energy of time.

“The power of time has really been mined?” Qin Tiange stayed blank.

He never thought that time could be mined. It was simply unheard of. For the first time, he saw that time was mined.

These time forces, after being collected, are directly condensed and compressed into a crystal shape through a set of equipment. This is the mining of time crystals.

“Look at the leader, the whole set of equipment, I don't know the power of time mined from the mysterious place, we have studied it for a long time and there is no answer.” Wu Lao pointed at the huge equipment in front of him and said excitedly.

Qin Tiange's eyes flickered, silver awns were intertwined, and through that huge set of equipment, consciousness quickly extended directly along the force of the mined time, faintly sensing a vast expanse of time and space.

There, it is completely the ocean of time. It runs through the entire universe and even how far away the universe world is. It is simply shocking.

As the power of Qin Tiange's brain forbidden time erupted, the vast mysterious energy was sensed along the power of time.

“The river of time?” Qin Tiange looked so happy that he felt the existence of the river of time.

He did not expect that collecting time crystals made him feel the breath of the river of time, although he could not capture the specific location, or even enter it.

But Qin Tiange knew that he was not strong enough. Once strong enough, he would be able to find the specific location of the river of time. When he entered it, it might be time for his time-forbidden power to achieve great transformation.

Time, mysterious, great unknown, invisible and untouchable. Even races in the higher dimensional world use only invisible time.

Collecting time, compressing it into crystals, using this as a source of energy to build a house of time and a time secret, this powerful technology does not know how those high-dimensional biological races can do it, but it still can't let people absorb this terrible Time power.

"Mr. Wu, how many time crystals can be mined by this equipment every day?"
Qin Tiange couldn't help asking this question.

I just listened to Wu Lao smiled bitterly: "Leader, this set of equipment can only collect one time crystal a day, we want more, we can't help it, unless we create more such strange equipment."

After listening to frowning, Qin Tiange was a little bit dissatisfied and then said: "You research thoroughly as soon as possible to make more of this amazing equipment, we need more time crystal."

"Understand!" Wu Lao looked down.

Qin Tiange took a look, and finally took away the three time crystals that had just been mined, leaving the Starkiller to absorb the power of time mined in these time crystals.

"Three time crystals should allow my current time taboo to directly complete the first transformation."

Holding three time crystals, Qin Tiange took a hint of excitement and swallowed the three time crystals without hesitation.

If the creatures in the Starry Hundreds could see it, Qin Tiange swallowed the crystal of time directly, and would definitely startle a chin. Then, the powerful Hundreds would come to suppress him and take him back to study.

Time, great and mysterious, can devour time-absorbing creatures, which is definitely the most terrifying existence among the stars and the universe.

Click!

A mysterious and crisp sound came from the brain, Qin Tiange's consciousness stopped for a moment.

Chapter 656 - Transformation, the heart of time

After swallowing three time crystals, Qin Tiange's brain suddenly trembled, drawing mysterious energy from the time crystals.

Suddenly, a mysterious object in the brain began to shine, that is the mysterious brain pineal gland.

The silky silver rays interweave, and a time of great power condensed, which gradually filled the originally dried and degenerate pineal gland.

As if rejuvenated, more and more time's forces came together and poured into it, and suddenly there was a rattling sound.

The pineal gland was degenerating, the outer epidermis began to fall off and disappear, and then another appearance appeared, crystal clear, like a silver pine cone.

Ziz

Inside the pineal gland, the power of time is intertwined, gradually spreading towards the brain's countless neural networks, radiating the entire brain as if it were a mysterious center.

Suddenly, Qin Tiange opened his eyes suddenly, and the stunned blast fired two beams of horrible silver awns, tearing the space and stopping the chaotic space around.

The silver eyes, constantly glowing with silver awns, the arcs were intertwined, and a series of fine neurons from the depths of the brain connected the eyes, even transforming the eyes.

With the glances of the eyes, the surrounding space was settled without exception, time stopped and everything was still.

Immediately afterwards, a more mysterious breath radiated, Qin Tiange swept his eyes, and the turbulent space in front of him suddenly reversed and gradually disappeared.

As if for a thousand years, these spaces directly let the space go backwards and disappear, and the terrible scene was simply incredible.

"This is the heart of time?" Qin Tiange woke up and muttered to himself, looking at his masterpiece just now.

Around, the chaotic and turbulent space turbulence is still, directly swept away by the eyes, and all are still. Even if his thoughts move, the space storm around him will go backwards.

This feeling is that the power of time taboo has broken through and transformed, completed the first true transformation, and made great progress.

The biggest change is that the pineal gland, which had been degraded to almost disappeared, directly rejuvenated and became a heart of time.

The pineal gland's disconnected neural network began to continue, spreading the entire nervous system of the brain, like silver wires, spreading a trace of the power of time.

Qin Tiange suddenly realized that if he could continue to grow the heart of time, and even continue to transform, he would eventually become a source of time.

And those neural systems that link to the source of time, do n't spread like crisscrossing rivers of time, and the entire brain becomes strange and unpredictable.

"Can I cultivate a source of time?" Qin Tiange looked weird, thinking about this question.

If you can enter the river of time and draw the power of infinite time, then it is possible to evolve into this step, but it is simply impossible now.

Even so, Qin Tiange is satisfied, because at this moment the power of time taboo has finally obtained the first transformation, and the power that can be exerted is even more terrifying.

“Time has completed the first transformation, and then the power of the time crystal must be continuously absorbed to accumulate and accumulate the next transformation energy.”

Qin Tiange thought so, stood up, and then thought that he still had the power to complete the first transformation.

“Don’t take the time to absorb the violent space power here in the chaos of space and transform itself?” He quickly thought of this question.

After the transformation of time is completed, the rest is the transformation of space. As long as the transformation of space is completed, and even the heart of space is condensed, it may form some mysterious change with time.

However, his power of space has reached a very high level, not far from metamorphosis.

“Go out first.” Qin Tiange thought, his body disappeared in the turbulence of space, and returned to the Earth’s Pangu continent.

He chose a direction, his body turned into black particles and disappeared, and then appeared again over the ancient fierce beast.

Below, a saber-toothed tiger is eating. With its ferocious nature and powerful power, it cannot give birth to a wise soul.

Huh!

His eyes flickered, and suddenly two beams of silver light burst out. Instantly, the saber-toothed tiger that was eating instinctively sensed a crisis and was about to jump away. As a result, the body was still in the void, and it was still jumping and still.

The mighty Saber-toothed Tiger is a tiger king in its own right, but it is fixed by a look.

Click!

As Qin Tiange’s thoughts moved, the body of the still saber-toothed tiger came a click, and a fear flashed in his eyes. The body was gradually aging, the fur was falling off, and the body was dry. Finally, it turned into a pile of bones within three seconds.

The mighty king-level fierce beast, an ancient saber-toothed tiger, was just killed by an eye, and he died inexplicably.

“Deprived of time, Shou Yuan is exhausted, it is indeed a taboo force of time.”

Qin Tiange murmured to himself, looking at the saber-toothed tiger transformed into a bone, a dignified color rose in his heart.

Just now, with the power of time taboo after transformation, he directly deprived the saber-tooth tiger’s breath of time, which directly caused it to live for a long time, but because of losing the breath of time, Shouyuan disappeared in just three seconds.

This ability is unheard of, and the time that deprives the opponent of vitality is equivalent to letting the opponent die directly. Of course, you must build on your own strong enough foundation to deprive the time of the opponent's vitality.

The new strength made Qin Tiange feel the pressure, thus seeing the powerful and terrible life in the high-dimensional world.

He seems to be very strong now. In fact, once he stepped into the starry sky, he could not find any waves at all, it was even smaller than a drop in the ocean.

“The road is still very long, accumulating little by little, sooner or later, the whole starry sky will be fluttering with our national flag.”

Looking at the dark starry universe, Qin Tiange murmured to himself, then turned around and disappeared here. The next moment he arrived at the frontier base of the Pangu continent.

The current base is already overcrowded, and it is constantly expanding outside, because this is the forefront of the entire Huaxia on the Pangu continent.

People who came to Pangu mainland for hunting and even looking for resources and opportunities were there. One group after another came here to enter the vast Pangu continent.

There are not only a large number of ancient fierce beasts here, but also a large number of various spiritual materials, even some powerful treasures.

People who come here are either dead or have a chance to fly into the sky.

Of course, although it is dangerous, it still attracts countless people to come here and form teams to explore the Pangu continent.

This has formed a huge union model, and even a large-scale civil guild has appeared in frontier bases.

“Hunter's Guild?”

Walking in the base, Qin Tiange looked at a huge building in front of which read the words “Hunter's Guild”.

Moreover, people come and go here frequently, it seems to be extremely lively, and it is very curious to go in and out of individuals.

Qin Tiange, curious, directly connected to his self and asked about the matter, and soon came to an end.

It turns out that this hunter's guild is a huge organization set up by the people. It is registered with the base, and specifically releases and collects information on various alien races, and even information on various treasures and spiritual materials.

Of course, all the hunting missions here are foreign enemies, and no one dares to hang up the message of assassination of their own people.

“Yanji, who is the founder of this guild?” Qin Tiange thought for a while and asked.

As a result, Xunji's news surprised him: "Master, the founder on the bright side is not the true founder, and the person behind the scenes does not appear."

"Is that so?" Qin Tiange pondered for a while and said, "You stare, and if you find that there are bad signs in this institution, just cut them off."

"Yes, master!"

After ending the call with his own self, Qin Tiange looked at the huge guild, but did not go in, but turned and left.

In his current capacity, he doesn't have much thought about these private institutions, as long as he doesn't betray the nation.

"leader!"

"Look, that's the leader!"

"Wow, I see the leader."

At this moment, there was a burst of cheering on the street. Someone found Qin Tiange's trace. He immediately exclaimed when he saw him, and detonated the entire street on the spot.

It seemed that countless people brushed together. When they saw Qin Tiange, everyone had a frantic expression on their faces, and they all rushed up to get close contact with this young and powerful leader.

Seeing the enthusiasm of the people around him, Qin Tiange reluctantly disappeared here, leaving a large group of excited people full of disappointment.

After learning about the situation in the base of the Pangu mainland, Qin Tiange hurriedly left here and returned to Huaxia to Beijing, because a message came from Jiji and a guest came.

"Master, the three major deities of the European continent are returning with the army and are currently preparing to reach the Asian region."

"However, there was an airspace mothership formation from the North American continent, and there were 200,000 artificial angels. The intention was unknown." Another word from Jiji surprised Qin Tiange.

Immediately after returning to the base in Shangjing, Qin Tiange heard a hint from Ji Ji, and the mission from Europe came back with the expeditionary force sent out last time to support it.

However, the human alliance on the North American continent has come to an airspace mothership formation? Qin Tiange was curious, and let his self-release monitoring screen please see the owner. I pointed at the monitoring screen, and there really was an air and space carrier formation with hundreds of missile destroyers and frigates of various types.

However, when he saw these airspace carriers and various air destroyers, Qin Tiange laughed. It turned out that this was the kind of aircraft carrier and warships of various types before the end of the day, but it was only transformed into a floating one.

There are a total of eight air and space aircraft carriers forming a formation, hundreds of air destroyers, densely packed with artificial angels, a full army of 200,000 artificial angels, and aircraft carriers carrying a large number of new fighter aircraft.

“Why do the airspace carrier formations over the North American Alliance come over here?” Qin Tiange thought secretly, his eyes flashed, and a sudden smile came to his lips.

He smiled and said to his own self: “My self, connect with them, and ask for their intentions. If they want to enter Asian airspace, they will stop for inspection. If they do not stop and force in, they will be destroyed.”

“Yes!” Ji Ji took the lead and directly connected to the other party.

After Qin Tiange finished speaking, he looked at the huge fleet on the screen quietly, thinking that most of this fleet was not good.

Chapter 657 - The two fleets fought and won

In the territorial waters of Asia, over the Huaxia waters, a huge fleet is slowly approaching. The transformed aircraft carriers are much larger and loaded with dozens of new fighter aircraft.

There are also dense artificial angels standing on it. They are numerous and powerful, coming from the sphere of influence in North America, but don't know why they came to the Asian region of China.

Suddenly, a rapid sirens came from within the fleet, which alarmed the entire fleet. Tens of people became nervous, and the entire fleet immediately entered the combat state.

“Alert, alert, system has been compromised.”

On the pilot ship, a group of powerful people looked nervous, watching the entire fleet's system be invaded.

Inside this group of people, a leading white youth general, looking somber and staring at the virtual screen of the command system, showed that the system had been invaded.

“General, the fleet system is paralyzed and cannot move forward.”

A programmer ran up with sweat, and said this unpleasant news, so that everyone present changed.

“Fix it, find out what invaded our system.” The young general almost growled and roared.

Zizi

“General, the system is back to normal.”

But at this moment, the fleet's system turned back to normal, making people feel confused and confused.

The next moment, a virtual projection emerged on the virtual screen. She wired directly into the fleet's system and sent projections to the front.

“Here is China’s airspace, the foreign fleet, please verify your identity and express yourself.”

Xunji’s cold words came, shocking a group of North American visitors present, staring suspiciously at the projection of Xunji in front of them.

The young general changed his face slightly and hummed, “When did this place become China’s airspace? This is the new continent, the new ocean area. Who stipulates that you are China’s?”

“Again, here is China’s airspace. External forces, please identify yourself and explain your intentions. If you want to enter China, you must park and check.”

Xun Ji’s voice was cold and unemotional, and what he said made the foreign powerhouses extremely upset.

This is the Asia map. It is close to the Asian plate and has entered the Huaxia waters, which is an invasion.

“Fack!”

“Do you say this is China Airspace or China Airspace?”

The young general sneered, dismissing: “I said, here is the airspace and even the territorial waters of our North American Alliance. Even the newly emerged continent of Gods belongs to our North American Alliance.”

“Don’t bother, just go ahead and bury the North American alliance’s boundary stones around the world, it’s equivalent to our territory.”

The general ignored it, and instead issued an order to continue. The system returned to normal and ignored the warning.

Joke, the task of their fleet is to fly to all parts of the world to see the survival of humanity and the forces of all sides.

The most important task is to gather information, and even begin to draw circles, to divide the newly emerged Pangu continent, and even occupy the continental plate of other continents.

“The last warning, the foreign fleet, immediately moored for inspection, otherwise annihilated as an intruder.”

I have given my last warning, but these people have simply ignored their warning and moved on.

The huge fleet started and continued to fly towards the Asian continent. It seemed that it did not take into account the warnings of its own, or even the warnings of Huaxia.

North America has achieved unity and belongs to a huge human alliance, known as the North American Alliance, which is extremely huge.

And they have a huge army of artificial angels in their hands, loyal, powerful, and forbidden, which is simply the best choice for war.

“Master, this fleet is unwilling to cooperate. It seems to be forced to break in. Is it necessary to use missiles to annihilate directly?” Jiji projected and asked Qin Tiange.

At this time, Qin Tiange was watching the monitoring picture of that fleet, listening to his own words, could not help showing a sneer.

“North American League? Do you think you are No. 1 in the world?” Qin Tiange snorted, broke into China's airspace, and didn't listen to the warning. It seemed that they had to give them some color.

“Order the First Fleet to intercept, bring 100,000 mech warriors, two hundred unmanned fighters, and take this fleet down, let alone the resistance.”

Qin Tiange gave a command lightly, and when he saw the floating base in Shangjing, he suddenly flew out a huge fleet. Two air-to-air motherships were escorted by 19 air-to-air warships and 200 unmanned fighters flew together to **** them. .

The first fleet has been expanded, with an additional spacecraft carrier and nine air battleships loaded with 100,000 mech warriors, flying directly to the fleet from North America.

At the speed of the air-space mothership and air battleship, only ten minutes came to the fleet in front of ten kilometers, and gradually formed the formation.

“Warning, warning, unidentified fleet found.”

“Warning, the fleet is locked in attack.”

At this point, the huge fleet sounded a sirens again, and this time it was really panic.

The entire fleet's system detected that it was locked by the opponent's weapon, and when it saw a huge fleet coming on, it belonged to the Huaxia Air and Sky fleet.

“Fack, why does Huaxia have a spaceship?”

“Hurry up, start the laser cannon system, the Holy Light Defense system.”

The fleet panicked, immediately activated the weapon system, and even activated the Holy Light defense system, and a layer of white light appeared.

A thin white light curtain emerges from each spacecraft carrier, and each destroyer also illuminates a layer of light, like a defensive energy shield.

“The unknown fleet in front listens well, and immediately berths for inspection.”

At this time, the fleet system received communication information from the Huaxia fleet and directly ordered the ultimatum.

“Fire!”

The young general coldly ordered the fire, and lasers blasted away fiercely, heading directly for the formation of the Huaxia Sky mothership opposite.

Suddenly, a series of electromagnetic light curtains emerged, blocking the bombardment of these laser cannons, and only a few ripples disappeared.

Seeing the fire here, the opposing fleet was finally angry, and an electromagnetic energy cannon had already been fully charged, and directly extended the muzzle.

“Fire and blow them up.”

Above the flagship of the Sky Mothership, the fleet’s highest commander had a cold face, his eyes were full of assassination, and he issued an attack order.

I saw a horrible column of electromagnetic light burst out, cut through the sky, and instantly bombarded the fleet here, completely flooding the fleet.

Bang bang

The powerful electromagnetic energy cannon became more and more powerful. As soon as the gun passed, I saw a destroyer Shengguang’s defensive wall collapse on the spot, and the ship’s hull was instantly torn apart.

Even the transformed air carriers were bombarded with horrible electromagnetic energy by shattering their defenses, and directly tore the hull.

boom!

The flagship suffered a violent shock, and a powerful electromagnetic light explosion exploded that sacred light energy wall, causing everyone to panic on the flagship.

“Do not”

“Retreat, retreat!”

Panic and fear, screams kept coming, and as one destroyer was blown up, a burst of sparks burst into the air, the general finally panicked.

The huge fleet wanted to retreat, but it was too late. Surrounded by the formation of the First Air Mother Carrier here, drones kept firing, killing the man-made angels who had escaped from the dead.

“Quick, fire me a nuclear bomb and destroy their flagship.”

The general hissed and snarled. On the flagship, two missiles were exposed. They were two missiles with large nuclear warheads aimed at the flagship of the fleet.

“Well, warn, you’ve suffered a missile lock.”

At the flagship, a warning sound came from the sub-system, and then the virtual light curtain emerged to lock in the source, which was the laser-launched missile.

Seeing this, although the personnel on the flagship were not dismayed, the Supreme Commander of the fleet was expressionless and gave an order.

“Intercept, destroy it!”

The two small missiles stunned out at lightning speed, even surpassing a hundred times the speed of sound, and immediately struck the two missiles.

A loud bang came, and two huge flares exploded, as if two hot suns had evaporated a large portion of the seawater below.

It was a nuclear explosion. It was huge and generated a powerful shock wave that swept away, but it did not affect the Chinese fleet here, and was shielded by the electromagnetic energy shield.

“Dare to use a nuclear bomb and destroy it all.”

The first commander of the First Fleet, a young general, calmly, gave an obliteration order, and directly ordered oblivion.

Xiu Xiu jeer

A horrific beam of horror screamed, all the main guns of the fleet opened fire, directly covering the huge fleet opposite.

“No ceasefire, fast ceasefire, we surrender.”

“Misunderstanding. This is a misunderstanding.”

Looking at the flood of terror beams of light that drowned, electromagnetic energy bombarded and exploded, and each battleship exploded, and the aircraft carrier collapsed into powder and exploded into fireballs.

Only one face-to-face was beaten without any help. The commander of this fleet finally knew that he had kicked the iron plate, and even the nuclear bomb was intercepted by the opponent, and he would immediately surrender with a white flag.

Unfortunately, he surrendered late, and the main guns of the opposite Huaxia Fleet fired together. After a round of roar, there was only a broken aerospace aircraft carrier's flagship floating alone there.

All other aircraft carriers were shattered, and all destroyers and frigates were completely destroyed. Only tens of thousands of powerful artificial angels and some strong men survived, floating above the sea.

“Fack, the **** Chinese.”

“Go on, land on the opposing Aircraft Carrier and rob this fleet.”

At this moment, the commander of the North American Fleet was crazy, and watching the huge fleet he brought with him was destroyed. Only more than 90,000 artificial angels and some strong men survived, and more than 100,000 survivors were shocked. Angry again.

He took the lead directly, led a team of powerful artificial angel guards, rushed out of the flagship, and rushed up with tens of thousands of artificial angels and tens of thousands of soldiers. This is to crush the opponent with great strength and seize The air and sky mothership formation, unfortunately, although the idea was good, it was wrongly noticed.

“Mech Warrior, strike!”

With an order, the 10,000-mechanical fighters rushed out of the Sky Mothership formation in an instant, each rushing forward, blocking the 100,000 artificial angel army opposite.

“Kill, catch the other commander alive.”

A powerful general wearing a ten-meter-high fighter mech slashed several artificial angels with a plasma electromagnetic light blade, snarling and giving orders.

The fleet was destroyed, and in the end there was a powerful artificial angel. The white general was almost going crazy. This was the biggest loss. He would definitely be dismissed or even sent to the guillotine when he returned.

“Kill, grab the Huaxia fleet!” He growled wildly, trying to grab the Huaxia fleet, this is the only way to live.

On the Huaxia side, with 100,000 mechas, facing a North American Alliance surviving more than 100,000 artificial angels and accompanying combatants, the two armies instantly fought into a ball. Who won or lost?

Chapter 658 - 2-party game, missiles fly into space

Rumbling

The army killed, 100,000 mechs opened the electromagnetic shield, waved the plasma light blade, and smashed one powerful artificial angel after another.

On the opposite side, the army of artificial angels is extremely tyrannical, each one is almost exactly the same, the ranks are all nine stars, very powerful.

However, the mech armies on this side are not weak, or even stronger. The outbreak of combat power directly tore the opponent's team and killed them.

boom!

An artificial angel's body was smashed and blown by a fighter mech, but soon the mech was smashed by a protective sword by an artificial angel and slashed the protective cover, smashing the mech.

The two armies fought, and the artificial angels from the North American Alliance were terrible, ruthless and painless, and they were all machines that knew only killing.

boom!

On the battlefield, from time to time, the organic shells exploded, and the internal personnel fell into the sea, and Qin Tiange could not help frowning.

Although the North American Alliance's fleet was destroyed, the opposing artificial angel army was still extremely powerful, causing a lot of damage to the mech warriors here.

“Master, there are too many of these artificial angels. The North American Union controls at least one billion artificial angels.” Jiji said his judgment.

In the North American League, the world was completely defeated by the army of artificial angels. Even the huge forces are difficult to invade.

Shengsheng used the army of artificial angels to choke off all alien races. This made the aliens dare not easily get involved in the forces of the North American Continental Alliance.

There suddenly appeared to be a huge unity of power. For artificial clone angels, it seems to have become the main force of the North American Alliance.

“Yanji, the mech’s defense and combat effectiveness are still not enough, too weak.” Qin Tiange was dissatisfied.

The performance of the first-generation fighter armor currently installed is too weak, and its defense is a bit weak except for the electromagnetic energy shield.

His own eyes flickered, and he said, “The current second-generation fighter armor is an exogene armor cloned in the form of genes. It has added a memory metal and integrated an energy system to perform self-perfect repair.”

“Once injected into the soldier’s skin tissue to form a set of external armor, and it can be changed twice, released in the form of mech or armor, it can be perfectly controlled by the soldier, and the combat effectiveness will increase even more. I have proposed the second-generation mech which is currently under construction.

It is a new type of mech created by the fusion of genetic technology and current biotechnology. The two super-technologies have been created in two forms, the first one is the common armor form, and the second is the mech form.

“The first generation of mecha was retired, and the second generation of mecha was accelerated.” Qin Tiange only said this after listening.

He looked at the battlefield surveillance footage, and as the drones joined the battle, soon the army across the North American Alliance collapsed.

The man-made angels were slashed one by one, and an upright kill was immediately formed, and the war soon ended.

“Master, an unknown satellite was found, coming from North America.”

Suddenly, Jiji opened a virtual light curtain, and a man-made satellite emerged from it, which flew quickly from space orbit over North America.

Seeing this satellite, Qin Tiange squinted his eyes and asked, “My dear, why did you not detect the satellite launched by the North American Alliance?”

I feel awkward, and whispered, “Master, I have spent most of my mind recently on the Starkiller and the Moon’s core, and even have to divide many subsystems to research and transform the Sun and Mercury. , The construction of Mars, and so on, I have no skills. “

“Forget it, destroy that satellite.” Qin Tiange is helpless, this is no way, even the powerful artificial intelligence self-employed, have been turned around by a lot of problems, negligence is normal.

“Order, lock unknown satellites and destroy them.”

At this moment, in a certain area of China, the ground suddenly opened a gap, and for a moment, a speeding missile blasted the sky, directly breaking through the atmosphere, and reached outer space three seconds later, hitting the satellite directly.

There was a loud noise, and a flare of light lit up in space. The advanced satellite was directly pulverized into powder and completely dissipated.

“Fack!”

“The satellite was destroyed.”

In the North American Union headquarters building, a strong group of people were watching the satellite surveillance, but the next moment, a rapid warning came, and the satellite was locked and attacked.

As a result, before they responded, the satellite was blown up into space, and all the senior personnel here were furious.

“President, it has been ascertained that the attack came from the China region.”

At this time, a technician quickly came up and reported this information. The satellite was bombed by a missile in the Asian region.

The highest president of the North American League is a middle-aged man with a stubborn breath. There is a breath of horror all over his body. There are two distinct forces hidden in his body.

A holiness, a darkness, as if two forces were compressed in his body, revealing a strong oppression.

Humph!

The chairman Lengheng, his eyes were cold, staring at the final image transmitted by the satellite, it was the image of a missile destroying the satellite quickly.

“Order, missile force, counterattack and destroy the surveillance satellite in space orbit above us.”

The president of the North American Supreme Alliance ordered that, somewhere in North America, missiles blasted off into space and whistled towards space orbits. The speed was very fast, and they entered space in almost thirty seconds.

With three missiles, the target is a nanosatellite in space orbit, which belongs to Huaxia.

“Master, you see, the North American Alliance counterattacked and wanted to destroy our satellites.” Suddenly he opened a monitor and saw three missiles flying fast, about to smash the nanosatellite.

“Intercept and destroy the other missile.” Qin Tiange said lightly.

When I saw the nano-satellite, three beams of light suddenly turned on, and powerful electromagnetic light hit the three missiles severely.

Three rumbling sounds, three flames exploded in space, and three missiles were successfully intercepted and destroyed without causing damage to the nanosatellite.

“Come without indecent assault and destroy their missile base.”

Qin Tiange Lengheng, sent a fleet from North America. I didn't want to worry about it, but now that an attack has been launched, there is nothing to say.

As soon as his order was issued, the Asian region suddenly blasted out six missiles, broke through the atmosphere, flew directly into space, and blasted towards North America.

“Didi Didi”

“Warning, a missile attack.”

“Target, Alliance missile base.”

There was a rush of sirens in the North American headquarters building, and the sirens of the missile attack caused a high level of madness.

A total of six missiles blasted from space orbit, targeting the North American Alliance's missile base.

“Fire interceptor missiles and destroy them.”

“In addition, aim at the Asian region and launch the first wave of 100 missiles to let them know that war must pay a price.”

The president of the North American Supreme Alliance issued a horrible order and started a missile war. At one time, in the North American Alliance's major missile bases, one missile blasted into the air and went directly into space.

Bang bang

In space, six missiles came in, and three of them were successfully intercepted by the opponent's interceptor several times. However, three warheads split and rushed directly into the atmosphere towards the opposing missile and its lasing.

“Hurry up, intercept, intercept!”

Seeing the missiles blasted down by the blast, the senior leaders of the entire North American Alliance were terrified, and the chairman even hissed and snarled, ordering interception.

As the interceptor missiles blasted into the air, they finally intercepted these three missiles after dozens of interceptions and exploded in the air.

“Order the second missile base, launch!” The president was stimulated, and once again ordered that the second wave of hundreds of missiles vacated into space orbit, dragging long fireworks, and bombarded Asia along the established direction.

These missiles are all new-type missiles. They are supersonic and difficult to intercept. In addition, two hundred missiles rushed into space and covered Asia.

“Master, the North American Alliance is crazy and turned on nuclear war.”

I looked at the space surveillance screen in astonishment, and a blast of fire came from it. There were a total of two hundred missiles, not carrying ordinary bombs, but nuclear warheads.

The North American Alliance uses nuclear warheads directly. It must be known that what Qin Tiange ordered before to launch was not a nuclear warhead, but an ordinary high-power missile, but intended to destroy the opponent's missile base.

Now, seeing the North American Union go crazy with two hundred nuclear warheads, as if stimulated, leaving Qin Tiange speechless.

“Intercept and detonate all of these nuclear bombs into space.”

Qin Tiange ordered that Jiji quickly convey his instructions. Immediately, missile vehicles rose up, intercepting the missiles and blasting into space, penetrating the atmosphere, rushing into space, and intercepting those missiles.

Xiu Xiu jeer

With the launching of hundreds of missiles by Huaxia, the huge movements naturally could not hide the induction of some strong ones, looking up at the sky one by one, the clouds of air that were cut through.

Immediately afterwards, a violent explosion exploded from space, and violent bursts of light erupted, lighting up the darkness and attracting the attention of powerful people of all races.

“what happened?”

“Is there a war in space?”

“It was a nuclear bomb. A nuclear bomb exploded in space.”

Within Huaxia, many people were surprised, watching huge fireworks hanging in space, as if the sun exploded.

Needless to say, anyone who has seen a nuclear explosion knows clearly that it was a nuclear explosion, and there was a nuclear feast in space.

A total of two hundred nuclear warheads were intercepted and detonated in space, and the intense light and huge impact produced a huge opening in the atmosphere.

“The North American Alliance actually used a nuclear bomb on us. It seems that they are too arrogant and forget that the human race on the earth is now under threat from foreign races.”

Qin Tiange looked cold and stared at all the missiles intercepted in space. The detonation turned out to be a nuclear warhead, which was very powerful.

Seeing this, he was furious. He had not thought about these human forces, and they belonged to the human race. However, the other party actually used nuclear weapons, which was intolerable.

“Yiji destroy all the other missile bases.” Qin Tiange ordered to directly destroy all the other missile bases.

“Yes!”

I took my life. In an instant, the entire Huaxia and even Asia, and even countless creatures around the world saw it. A huge flare of fire rose in the direction of Asia, penetrated the atmosphere, and flew directly into space.

The dense flames pierced the darkness and lighted the world, making countless people stunned. It was a missile, a huge number of thousands of supersonic missiles directly blasted into space orbit.

“Launch all missiles, intercept and destroy them!”

At the North American headquarters, the alliance president roared and ordered the launch of all missiles to intercept the other supersonic missiles.

At this moment, the earth fell into a dead silence, countless people stared blankly at the dark sky, and various foreign races lived in circles, watching the two huge rays cut through the night sky, and the east and west continents fought directly across a distant distance.

The two great forces confronted each other, fighting against each other, and the two missile groups flew into space, colliding with each other, constantly breaking through each other's interception and defense. For a time, the space was illuminated with a huge light.

Chapter 659 - Destroy the target and end the first confrontation

In space, blasts of fire exploded, like a small sun exploding, lighting up the dark world and attracting the attention of countless souls.

Bang bang

A loud noise came, and all the creatures on the earth were alarmed, staring at each other's flames exploding in the sky.

In outer space orbits, missiles quickly penetrated each other, pulling out a long flame, colliding with each other and exploding, and some broke through the other's interception and blasted towards the intended target.

Didi tick

“Intercept, block it!”

At the headquarters of the North American Alliance, the president of the Alliance hissed and snarled, watching the monitoring screen, and the missiles above passed through the defensive interception and bombarded down to the major missile bases.

Seeing this, everyone panicked and wanted to intercept, but thousands of missiles were fired, only intercepting most of them, but still a small number came over.

“NO”

“God”

“It's over!”

Looking at dozens of missiles blasting down, covering all major regions in North America, there are missile bases formed by the North American Alliance.

Suddenly, a violent ball of light exploded, and the rumbling sound spread throughout the North American continent, and countless creatures were horrified.

A powerful ball of light exploded, and then a huge cloud of mushrooms soared. The huge high temperature tore the missile bases on the spot and destroyed the missile bases that were hidden underground.

Dozens of missile bases, almost the entire nine-tier missile base of the North American Alliance, were destroyed, and powerful hydrogen bombs directly destroyed the target.

Of course, there are not many ordinary survivors in the missile base, some are only some combatants here, completely gasified.

The continental plate tremors were accompanied by a strong earthquake. The North American headquarters felt this huge earthquake, and all electromagnetic instruments lost their effect at this moment.

The entire world is dead dead, countless people are dull, but fortunately, the ordinary large gathering places on the North American continent have not ushered in those missile attacks.

Qin Tiange's order merely destroyed the other missile base, and did not kill those ordinary survivors. That was something that could not be done.

After all, human power is still very small on the earth. Once a violent civil war occurs, it is the loss of mankind, and the gains are worthless.

"Target destroyed, mission completed."

Nano satellites have received the latest information, all locked targets have been destroyed, and there has been completely razed to the ground.

Looking at the flames and high temperatures that subsided on the screen, the hidden underground base was completely destroyed by the new hydrogen bomb and there was no legacy.

"Okay, monitor the North American Alliance, and once they find that there are still missile launches, destroy their missile bases immediately." Qin Tiange ordered lightly, without much waves.

This sudden confrontation allowed him to see some of the strengths of the North American Alliance. The missiles were numerous, but they were now destroyed.

As for the other forces, Qin Tiange didn't care. If the other party dared to attack, it would be destroyed.

If stopped by this blow, he would also be happy to see some of the pressure from the alien race on North America.

"Jack!"

"Fack!"

Bang when bang bang

At the North American headquarters, the president of the alliance was roaring and roaring, his body was full of anger, and the violent power was constantly flowing. One black and one white force broke the surrounding steel tables and chairs and so on.

Many people were even taken off and shocked their bodies, which was shocking. The president of the North American League was very powerful.

“President, the loss calculation is completed, Jiucheng missile base is destroyed, and no other gathering sites have been bombed.”

Soon, a technician completed the statistics and came to report, and finally let the furious president stop.

He was gloomy, staring at the recovered surveillance equipment, which showed that the missile bases had been razed to the ground and completely destroyed.

This time against the Asian forces, they lost and Huaxia won.

“Chairman, the Third Fleet has lost contact.”

At this time, another news came that they had lost contact with the Third Fleet, who had sent out to collect current Earth intelligence.

Needless to say, it must have been obliterated by the First Fleet of Huaxia, because the satellite sent a monitoring screen before, which shows that the two fleets are fighting.

Now listening to this news, it goes without saying that the North American Third Fleet was completely destroyed, 100,000 artificial angels were killed, and the Supreme Commander was captured.

“Damn!” The chairman squeezed his fist and hated, “Hua Xia deceives people too much, we remember this feud.”

In fact, the cause of this confrontation was exactly the one that broke into Huaxia’s airspace suddenly. It had been warned to retreat, but it just broke in.

Qin Tiange will naturally not allow foreign forces to enter his own territory. What is that? Therefore, it directly destroyed this forceful fleet, and destroyed one of the other satellites.

It was precisely because the opponent’s satellite was destroyed that it triggered a strong rally in the North American Alliance, and directly launched a round of long-range confrontation with a nuclear bomb.

This confrontation was the first confrontation between the North American Human Alliance and Huaxia. The final result was self-evident. The North American Alliance failed and most of the missile bases were destroyed.

“Order, build a brand new missile base, build it for me with a mobile floating missile base, and I have to make Huaxia pay the price.”

The president of the North American Alliance gritted his teeth and issued an order to build a new missile base, but this time he was beaten to the heart.

He did not dare to act rashly, and was still worried that Huaxia would continue to launch missiles, so there would be no way to intercept and defend.

Fortunately, Huaxia did not intend to continue the attack. It seemed to have temporarily ceased, and the two sides had a tacit strike.

“Master, why don't you destroy the other party's main force?” Ji Ji was a little strange, Qin Tiange didn't destroy the other party's main force.

Qin Tiange heard a laugh and said, “The North American Alliance is a human force. If we fight with them, we have no time to prepare and develop.”

“Moreover, no one is more proud of the human civil war than the alien races. Do n't forget that there are still big troops getting closer to the earth when they come down.” Already.

No matter how strong North America is, or even how to jump out to do things, but now he is no longer looking at the earth. Think about it, with the Starkiller, and the moon fortress that is now stepping up to eat.

Once you have learned all the technologies of the Moon Fortress, the Mercury plan will be completely completed. By then, Mercury will be a brand new starry sky fortress.

What kind of tricks can the North American Alliance have? Even if the other party cloned countless man-made angel armies, Qin Tiange also did not look at them, unless they could clone the star-level angel armies.

But can the star army of angels be cloned? Don't be stupid, don't daydream unless you can make a planet out of clones.

“Master, our current population is too small to cope with future interstellar wars. We must have a sufficient population base to enter the Xinghai.”

Xianji said this with some worries. The number of the surviving population of Huaxia seems to be large, but it is actually not much.

Once scattered around the world, it is a drop in the ocean. It is impossible to occupy the entire earth effectively, and we must find a solution.

Qin Tiange frowned, lost in thought, and then seemed to make a decision.

“With the order, we will start the biological warfare program and implement internal recuperation. The main forces of large wars do not need the personnel of the major legions. As assistance and small-scale battles, we can participate in the training first.

“Yes!”

With the latest orders issued, for a long time to come, the major Chinese military corps will not participate in large-scale corps combat missions.

This time, Qin Tiange was ruthless and directly launched the biological warfare plan, and immediately invested in the biological clone super warrior plan.

Originally, preparations were made in this regard. Research and technology have already matured. Now that China's current population base is too small, it is necessary to recuperate.

Therefore, the biological warfare plan is imperative, and war is fought with technology and population, as well as powerful force.

If you fight against aliens and suffer heavy losses, how can you grow up in the future and enter the Xinghai?

In the military factory, dozens of hundreds of mysterious workshops have been opened. Inside them, huge cultivation tanks are being charged, and even these mysterious workshops are constantly being expanded.

This is the mysterious workshop for the production of biological warfare. It was opened for the first time and put into mass production. In the future, there will be a steady stream of powerful super soldiers. At that time, these are the main forces of the current war. The major Chinese army groups will assist and sharpen each Combat effectiveness.

Qin Tiange's latest order had to do it because North America started the development model in this form. Countless clones of the angel army did not feel bad when they died.

On the Qin Tiange side, once the strength of the clan is used to fight against it, how much loss will make people distressed, or take advantage of the current grinding, and then continue to accumulate the heritage of the clan.

At the same time, those hidden alien creatures gathered together to discuss the internal fighting between the peoples this time.

“What do you think?”

In the Pangu mainland, a group of strong alien aliens gathered in a cave, and they were here to discuss the Chinese clash with North America.

I saw a first-born creature with a ridiculous sneer: “Human races like civil war. The space missile confrontation just now seems to be the victory of the Emperor Huaxia.”

“The opposite Terran power, called the North American Alliance, looks weak.”

“Everyone said, are we soliciting hatred on both sides and even killing the people on both sides directly?”

These alien powerhouses are discussing secretly here, thinking about how to jump up the internal war of the human race and even rely on the internal power of the human race to destroy Qin Tiange, a powerful emperor.

“I can't wait to support the North American Human Alliance against the Chinese Emperor. What do you think?”

“feasible!”

“Split the people and let them kill each other. Even, I can quietly counteract some people in Asia. As long as the benefits are given, some people will not be able to resist the temptation and fall to us.”

The powerful alien races gathered and discussed secretly, and they became an agreement. In a moment, the entire earth began to secretly set off an undercurrent.

The North American Alliance suddenly ushered in a group of powerful mysterious people and met the North American Union President directly in secret.

Inside Asia, there are quietly more mysterious people hidden in human society, and they begin to lurk, and even gradually find targets to counteract.

Inside the peaceful Asia, a secret **** war was secretly set off.

Humans, the struggle against the stars and hundreds of people, has just begun.

Chapter 660 - Secret killing, pull God Atum

On the desert in the northwest of China, the wind and sand whistled, blowing the yellow sand all over the sky, gradually covering dozens of human bodies here.

“Huh, this group of people don’t know how to do anything, and even refuse our countermeasures.”

A dozen mysterious men in black robes stood beside these corpses, talking to one of the leaders, with strange and powerful breath.

If you look closely, the black robe is a face with cyan skin, not human, and there are two things with the same tentacles on the forehead, which are constantly shaking.

“General, the people here seem to have completely united, it is difficult to counteract, and even fierce resistance, killed many of us.”

“Yeah, this ethnic tribe of the Huaxia tribe has the emperor in it. It is difficult for us to succeed. We can only secretly destroy and kill some young talents of the tribe.”

This group of mysterious guys are not humans, but some alien group. They sneaked into Huaxia and secretly undermined them. They killed many people and wanted to ward off some people who were against China.

However, they had the wrong idea. At present, Qin Tiange’s prestige is absolutely beyond anyone’s ability. The whole of China’s heart has long been condensed by him, and even those who are interested cannot bear the resistance.

“Huh, I don’t believe that Terran is really a piece of iron.”

“Go, continue to search for targets, focus on those other peoples that Huaxia just conquered.”

The leader snorted coldly, turned to leave, and continued to lurk, looking for other Asian ethnic forces that China had just conquered.

These people have just been conquered, and their hearts are unstable. This is a good time for counter-insurgency. As for the Chinese people, they cannot shake it at all.

Just as these dozens of black-robed alien creatures were leaving, a strange shadow flashed away.

Flutter!

Just listening to the thump, Feng Mang scratched the neck of a man in a black robe, and then the back heart was penetrated through the heart by a sharp weapon and emerged through the body.

The man in the black robe died on the spot, his neck was severed, his heart was pierced, and he couldn't even scream before he died.

“There are enemies!”

Sudden changes caused the appearance of these alien creatures, and a little anger flashed on the face in the black robe.

In particular, the leader watched his own tribe killed, and was assassinated without even responding.

“It's a human assassin, be careful all around.” The leader whispered, his body glowing with green light.

Thirteen black-clad creatures glanced around vigilantly. As a result, the surrounding sand was diffused and there was nothing.

“Hiding your head and showing your tail, get out.”

Seeing that the other party did not show up, and they did not find any trace, the leader of the foreign race was angry and roared around.

He was agitated with strength, and blasted out in all directions, rolled up the mad sand, and flew into the sand for a while, the scene was terrifying.

“Kill, not one!”

There was a hoarse voice in the wind and sand, and then, a dark shadow flashed quickly, drawing a cold edge.

The fluttering voice came, the edge flickered, brought a touch of bright red blood, and some people in black robes screamed.

“Ah Xiao” a black robe foreigner screamed and was about to remind him that his head soared inexplicably, and even the black robe was cut off.

Around him, strange shadows flickered. When they appeared, they would take away the life of a strong foreigner. They could not capture it, and even died without seeing people.

“Asshole!”

The leader of the alien clan was a king-level master with great strength, which blocked the shadow attacks, but unfortunately he was left in the end.

For a moment, there were dark shadows quietly appearing all around, all wearing a black robe, step by step towards this foreign-level king-level master.

“Human assassin, you **** it.” This monarch-level alien tribe roared and launched a storm.

But the next moment, I saw a shadow flashing past and passing by him, bringing a strange edge.

The monarch-level foreigner was stiff, his body black hissed and shattered, revealing that cyan skin, two raised eyes, and a trace of terrified light remaining.

There was a bloodstain on his eyebrow, which gradually widened, and finally cracked in half, and was completely killed here.

“Clean up and move on to the next goal.”

The leader of the black robe, finished talking hoarsely, raised a small slender hand, with a peculiar device on his wrist, a small virtual map emerged on it, showing dots.

Among these dots, there are white dots, black dots, and red dots. The white dots represent humans, the black dots represent mutant creatures, and the red dots represent alien life forms.

Huh!

These mysterious black-robed people are all human beings, all powerful and weird, and it was incredible that they would assassinate a group of aliens.

The aliens sneak into the human race, and a silent war is going on all over Asia, lurking, anti-sneaking, assassination, and anti-assassination.

In this unknown war, groups of death gods walking in the dark began to show their fangs.

Shanghai, Leader's Office.

Qin Tiange quietly watched the monitor opened by Jiji, as well as some information introduction, and various information was quickly sent up.

“Master, this is the latest information from the shadows. We in China and even Asia have a large number of aliens sneaking in in disguise. They are hiding everywhere, integrating with human beings to start counter-attacks, assassinations, etc., and disrupt some local order.

I have stood in front of me and introduced this information lightly. Those alien groups have sneaked into the Asian region, integrated into the human society, disguised as a lurk, and even tried to counter assassination and assassination.

Qin Tiange tapped his finger lightly on the table, his eyes flickered, and he suddenly asked, “In addition to our dark system, there is a force that is assassinating these powerful aliens who lurk in. What is the power?”

I did not want to say, “Master, that is a free hunter in the hunter's guild. Suddenly a supreme mission was found in the guild to look for assassins who have sneaked into our Asian region.”

“Oh?” Qin Tiange quietly thought about his mind, and then laughed: “Forget it, since the Hunters' Guild has a heart, let them do it, if you sharpen the others, and take back the people in the shadows, Surveillance in secret. “

Xie Ji took the command and issued this instruction, then watched Qin Tiange get up and leave, and immediately stepped forward and called him.

“Master, wait, there is one more thing to report to you.” Xi Ji stopped Qin Tiange.

He turned and frowned, “Do you have anything else?”

I saw that Jiji opened another monitoring screen. The above scene caused Qin Tiange, who hadn’t noticed, to freeze his eyes, and looked at the scene in surprise.

“Master, this is the North African regional surveillance. That is the Egyptian pyramid. Suddenly, it started flying by itself.” He pointed to the huge building floating on the picture, which is exactly a pyramid.

That’s right, the ones floating in the air on the picture are actually the pyramids, one by one floating in the air, emitting a hazy light.

What’s most surprising to Qin Tiange is that these pyramids are not ordinary suspended objects, but large war fortresses.

“When is it?” Qin Tiange frowned secretly, watching these huge pyramids that suddenly appeared.

Unfolding one after another, it is like a huge space battleship, with energy symbols appearing on it, exuding a forceful atmosphere.

Sang Ji looked serious. She said, “This is what happened early. I also discovered the anomaly when I just scanned and monitored the nano-satellite.”

“Master, look at this again, there is an extremely powerful breath of energy, like an ancient creature.” Su Ji suddenly pointed at one of the largest pyramids.

Qin Tiange squinted his eyes and looked inside the dozens of pyramids. The largest one was three thousand feet high and eight thousand feet wide. The top of the tower was split squarely, exposing an iris of energy, and a hazy protective cover.

Through monitoring, Qin Tiange saw a burly figure standing on the top of the pyramid, wearing a gorgeous costume, a blond hair, and a crown, watching the direction of the nano-satellite in space quietly.

He can see the monitoring of nano-satellites. Through the monitoring screen, he seems to be watching Qin Tiange and others.

“Who is this?” Qin Tiange frowned secretly, thinking, how could there be such an ancient soul on the African continent?

Moreover, from the other side, Qin Tiange felt the kind of human breath. Is he a good member of the personal tribe? Is it a human of the ancient era?

“Master Lashen, what did you find?”

At this moment, behind that figure, came up gently a figure of a graceful woman, wheat-colored skin, a proud figure, a strange weapon on her back, and a strange wild beauty all over her.

And her title surprised Qin Tiange and couldn't help looking at the ancient human race who was watching quietly.

“Lah? Lord Egypt, Lha, Atum?” Qin Tiange muttered to himself, staring at the young and powerful man on the screen.

He is the pull **** in the legend of Egypt. He is an ancient human race returning from outside the starry sky. In fact, he is one of the human race masters who followed the meteorite rain to the earth.

The meteorite rain that time not only brought the eighteen sages of Huaxia, but also other ancient human races.

Like the **** of pull in the picture in front, he is the symbol of Egypt. At present, he suddenly wakes up, directly controls the entire Egypt, and awakens the Egyptian gods, rules the entire region, and even has the power of the African continent.

“Is the peep from the east a powerful **** of the east?” The silent pull **** suddenly spoke and said a nonchalant word.

Listening to the words of God Lamu Atum, Qin Tiange looks weird. Why do these self-proclaimed gods like to call themselves or call other powerful men gods?

“Self-confidence, closely monitor the situation in Egypt, the rest need not be ignored for the time being.”

Qin Tiange glanced at and turned and left without paying attention to the changes in Egypt. It doesn't matter if Rasuma Atumu unified the entire African continent.

With the current capabilities of Huaxia, it can indeed defeat the human forces in other sectors, but Qin Tiange does not like to do this. In this way, he will have to bear the pressure of foreign races alone.

Rather than keeping the status quo, let the human power of other continents compete with the alien family and share the current pressure of Huaxia.

Of course, if there is a force like the North American Human League, then make plans to break your teeth.

“Master, it's been a few days since the European Mission. Should you meet them?” At this moment, Jiji suddenly reminded him.

After hearing this, Qin Tiange said, “Let other people go and meet him. I have no time to meet the messengers of the three major gods, so let the people below arrange it.”

“Yes, master!” I answered.

After watching Qin Tiange's departure, he turned around and arranged for the mission of the Three Gods from Europe to prepare to send the corresponding high-level Chinese personnel to meet and talk.
