

Dark Ages 681

Chapter 681 - The transformation of Beiling, killing the King Tianjing

Alas ,!

On the earth, the inheritance of the steles rose up, attracting the attention of many people, looking at the inexplicable steles in horror.

One stone after another emptied, passed through nothingness, and directly broke into Mars, sending out endless bursts.

“That is?”

“Inheriting a stele?”

On Mars, countless soldiers saw it, whether it was Huaxia or humans on all continents, and the piece of stone that suddenly burst into the sky was the heritage stone.

But what they couldn't figure out was how the inheritance of the stele came, it looked like it had been called.

Stone blocks, densely packed through the air, continued to gather and collide above Qin Tiange's head, sending out a terrible sound of crickets.

Huh!

The steles collided and merged with each other, and turned into a larger stele, exuding an extremely strong breath.

“Human heritage stele?”

The prince of the Tianjing clan was horrified, staring at the continuously erupting steles, colliding and merging, and turned into a larger stele.

Gradually, as more and more steles came to the sky, they condensed and merged directly over Qin Tiange, and the inheritance steles on the entire earth disappeared. They came to Mars and merged with each other, turning into a stunning stone stele.

boom!

A horrific breath erupted, sweeping all directions, defeating the atmosphere of Mars, and a huge stele like Optimus Prime stood on Mars, inserted into the atmosphere, and penetrated into space.

The stone monument is tens of thousands of feet high, boundless, floating there, spilling a misty breath, revealing the simplicity and mystery.

“Isn't Beiling in the human race MSI?” The prince of the Tianjing tribe looked dignified, staring at the huge stone stele, looking surprised.

He heard that the inscription in the ancient heritage stele of the human race seems to be at the Ziwei ancestral land of the human race. How do you look at the current stele?

This was weird, but before he had time to think about it, he saw that huge monument suddenly burst into infinite light, covering the entire battlefield.

Bang ...

A violent shock came, and it was seen that the atmosphere of the human army suddenly soared, and the combat effectiveness soared by more than 30%, which directly killed the alien army.

At this moment, countless people feel that their strength has become stronger, and even their whole body has become a little different, and they feel that they have been blessed with a certain strength by the stele.

“Damn, you dare!”

Seeing this, the prince of the Tianjing clan was angry and was about to start. As a result, the onslaught of Emperor Yin Yin was ushered in, and one party's big seal was severely suppressed.

Just listening to the bang, the prince of the Tianjing tribe was shaken back, staring dumbly at the Emperor Seal Seal, holding the Emperor Seal and rushing towards it.

“Look for death!” The prince of the Tianjing clan yelled, his palms soared into the sky, and the piece of treasure was finally displayed in front of the world.

It was a lonely leaf, exuding a mysterious atmosphere, as if it could travel through time and space, and looked like a treasure traveling through time and space.

“It turned out to be space-time shuttle, watch me swallow you.” Qi Ling said with a smile on his face.

The gaze staring at the space-time boat was full of the idea of devouring, causing the anger of the prince of the Tianjing clan, without saying a word of killing, raising his hand was a split with a palm, holding a space-time boat in the palm of his hand.

哐 Dang!

A big seal from one side hit hard, blocking the mouth of the space-time boat, and the two collided in the void. In the end, the seal of the emperor was even better.

After all, the seal of the emperor is an ancient treasure, which belongs to the human emperor's portable treasure. The super powerful and ancient treasure is not comparable to the space-time boat.

Huh!

At this moment, the huge stele in the void sent a fierce slap, and when the light flashed, the stele disappeared and replaced with a graceful figure.

She is the spirit of the tablet, holding a small bit of stone, and quietly fell in front of Qin Tiange, gently bowing her salute.

“Ten calamities, thanks to my emperor for perfection.” Beiling ten calamities thanked him softly.

She looked faint and excited, thanking Qin Tiange for her accomplishment, which made many people unknown. In fact, it was Qin Tiange that allowed her to get rid of the limitation of the inheritance monument, directly and completely cut off the connection of the ontology, and cut off the tracking and influence of the old antiques that controlled it.

“Sister Beiling, congratulations on getting rid of the restrictions of the body and gaining freedom.” In the void, a fierce battle came from the imperial Emperor Spirit, and congratulations to the inheritance of Beiling to get rid of her freedom.

Seeing Ren Huangyin fighting against himself, the nose of the prince of the Tianjing clan was distorted.

“Come on, suppress the prince of the Tianjing clan, and let me see your current ability.” Qin Tiange nodded his head slightly and said this.

I saw that his voice had just fallen, the body of the ten calamities disappeared, and the prince of the Celestial clan in the void suddenly felt a cold, and felt a crisis coming.

“Town!” An indifferent word came, and saw the crown of Prince Tianjing split open, and a stone tablet cracked down.

The prince of the Tianjing tribe was so impressed that there was a ray of light on his brows, and he slammed the stele with a snoring sound, and both retreated.

“Damn, the human race is ten stele monuments, aren’t you at Ziweixing?” The prince of the Tianjing tribe was furious, his eyebrows trembled, and blood dripped down.

Although the Ten Calamity Monument was repelled by a single blow just now, the sea of consciousness was hurt by a terrible shock, and it almost hurt the soul.

“Suppression!”

Shi Jie was expressionless, indifferent, and a cold tone came. I saw her gently point her down, and the tens of thousands of tall stone tablets were suppressed severely.

The rumbling noises continued to shake and shook the entire battlefield. Countless humans and even army soldiers of all ethnic groups looked at them in horror.

“Miscellaneous account, break me!” The prince of the Tianjing clan yelled, his eyebrows bloomed with inexhaustible light, hesitated, and a terrible sharpness broke the space.

I saw a light soaring into the sky, and then it shattered. The prince of the Tianjing family trembled, his face turned pale, and he suddenly spit out a blood, which was obviously badly hit.

One of his treasures was crushed by a stone stele, which directly hurt his heart, and almost made his consciousness collapse.

“Tianjing God Armor, the stars shine.”

With a scream of thunder, the Emperor Tianjing exudes Yingying Jingguang, transforming into a set of Tianjing armor, and then a crystal sphere floats above her head.

It was a planet, a sphere like Tianjing, turned out to be a star, a star condensed in the body of Tianjing Prince.

He is a star-strength strongman, and is not a star-level star master of ordinary level, but he is cultivated as a profound star-strength strongman. It is like a riot of stars, full of destruction.

“Broken!” The prince of the Tianjing clan snarled, holding the crystal star with both hands and slamming into it, turning it into a big star and slamming against the stone monument.

Just listening to the loud noise from Luo Long, I saw the stone tablet paused. As a result, it was pressed down severely, and the star burst and cracked.

puff!

The prince of Tianjing opened his mouth to squirt blood and looked horrified. Looking at the pressed stone stele, he couldn't believe his eyes, couldn't he stop it?

I saw the big star above him smashed into pieces, scattered into pieces quickly, and he himself was about to be suppressed there.

“Tianjing's blood, burst!”

He roared to the sky, his mouth and nose were bleeding, and he couldn't bear the huge pressure. The terrible power from the ancient ten calamities made him hard to breathe.

With a snarling roar, the blood of Prince Tianjing burst into blood, turning into a flame, and the crystal flame burned.

The crystal flame was burning, and then, the prince of the sky crystal vacated, and suddenly a celestial sword was added to his hand.

哐 Dang!

Seeing a sound of impact, Jianmang soared into the sky, as if a star exploded, pushing the ten calamities monument tens of meters away.

But that's all. The monument of Ten Calamities is too large and heavy, but it is suppressed more quickly, and it is pressed on the body of the Emperor Tianjing.

With a loud noise, the prince of Tianjing was tragedy, and he was crushed on Mars with a scream.

There was a rumbling sound, where the dust was soaring, and the 100,000-foot stele was pressed under Mars, as if to suppress him into the core of Mars.

“Jack, let go of the prince.”

At this moment, the powerful men who followed the Tianjing prince finally came to their senses. Among them, the old Tianjing anger drank and rushed directly.

For dozens of days, the crystal masters frantically killed and wanted to rescue their prince. Unfortunately, before they rushed over, the sky suddenly dropped a giant hand.

Bang!

The giant hand was pressed down fiercely, with five fingers and one clasp, caught the pinch of the dozens of Tianjing clan strongmen, and after the bang and squeak, all the dozens of Tianjing clan strongmen were pinched and exploded, all flesh and blood and even the true spirit All swallowed up.

“Do not...”

There was a roar from below Mars, and then the stele slammed and flew up, floating in front of Qin Tiange.

Below the ground, a wolverine figure rushed out, full of anger, and an extremely huge energy burst out in the body, as if a star had come to an end, and an extreme explosion occurred.

At this moment, the prince Tianjing is like a supernova explosion, and the horrifying energy emitted sweeps all directions, crushing many alien creatures too late to smash into powder on the spot.

“My lord, this person exploded the stars in his body, and thus gained the energy of a supernova explosion. Be careful.” A reminder came from the spirit of ten calamities.

However, Qin Tiange was expressionless, watching the energy breath erupting from the Emperor Tianjing, not worried at all, but showing a touch of happiness.

“The stronger the energy, the more energized it will be.” As he said, Qin Tiange raised his hand and turned into a mighty light in the palm of his hand.

A mixture of black particles swept out of the silver thread, turned into a giant hand, and slammed hard against Prince Tianjing.

boom!

Emperor Tianjing counterattacked, punched up, the two collided, the result was miserable, and Qin Tiange broke into the ground with one palm.

The black giant hand swelled with bangs, his five fingers slammed, and he was taken out of a large pit with the dirt, and finally he held the Emperor Tianjing in his palm.

“Do you dare to swallow this prince?” The prince Tianjing was furious and was defeated and suppressed in a row. Now, seeing Qin Tiange was going to devour him, he was horrified.

Qin Tiange said with no expression, and coldly hummed, “You can die, rest assured, it won’t be long before there will be princes of various ethnicities to accompany you.”

“you dare...”

“what....”

The prince Tianjing was about to growl, but turned into a scream, and his body was directly crushed by Qin Tiange, and then he savagely devoured his energy. The energy of the supernova explosion was swallowed by the repression before he released it. .

Swallowing the explosive energy of the Emperor Tianjing, Qin Tiange sensed that the ninety-nine stars in his body were finally full, and a few more emperors could make a huge breakthrough.

Chapter 682 - I accidentally killed a monument

hiss!

“Prince Tianjing is dead?”

Looking at the crushed body, the energy of the whole body was swallowed up by the Emperor Tianjing, all alien species were frightened.

The arrogant prince of the Tianjing tribe was easily killed in this way and couldn't believe it.

Huh!

At this moment, there was a whistle of voice from the void, and then a fierce light burst, and countless people saw an ark broken by the imperial seal, and then swallowed it cleanly.

The poor prince of the Tianjing clan brought a half-step space-time ark, and was killed before he was proud of it. He was swallowed by Qin Tiange, and the ark was swallowed by the emperor's seal.

After devouring the ark, the human emperor's sealer Ling Huer frowned, dissatisfied: “This is not a half-time space-time treasure, it is just a fake, it is abominable and deceived.”

Qi Ling's face was dissatisfied. After eating the ark, she realized that this was not the treasure of half-step time and space, which made her very dissatisfied.

It also took a lot of effort to shatter the other party, but after eating it, I realized that this dish is a bit unreal, it turned out to be a fake.

“Linger, you can be satisfied. It's good to have something to eat.” Shi Jie Bei Ling said with a smile and a smile.

The emperor's instrumental spirit then put away the unpleasant feeling, and flashed with a smile, standing in front of Qin Tiange and saluting gently.

“Ten apocalypse, since you have been separated from the body, then you should recover yourself. The little energy just used will hurt your original origins.” Qin Tiange nodded slightly, and then faced Shi with dissatisfaction. Calamity learned.

He saw it at a glance. The reason why the ten sacred monuments had just been able to suppress the prince of the Tianjing tribe just because they had used their original power.

This is to eager to express herself, thinking of her strength, even at the expense of the source, naturally made Qin Tiange dissatisfied.

Most of her origins are above the ontology. Now that she is detached from the ontology, it is equivalent to regaining her freedom. She was originally the damaged origin, and now she uses a little less.

“Ten Calamities remember the teachings of my emperor.” The fear of Shi Calamite's face had to be carefully recorded, and a touch of emotion flashed in his heart at the same time.

At least, Qin Tiange still doesn't want her to consume too much of the source. At present, the main thing is to recover. The future is really difficult.

He wanted to have a powerful treasure, the imperial seal of the emperor and the ten calamities were ancient and imperious treasures, but unfortunately they were incomplete, naturally he wanted the complete treasure.

What Qin Tiange can now get are ancient swords, ancient halberds, and a set of magical bows and arrows. Other things are of little use.

The imperial seal of the emperor is broken, and it is not easy to restore it. Fortunately, there are 100,000 emperor immortal guards inside, and the instrumental spirit is currently recovering well, and it can be used.

If he does not recover as soon as possible, he may not be able to keep up with him in the future, and he will not be able to provide more help.

“what?”

“Where is the prince of the Tianjing clan?”

At this moment, two strong horizontal figures emerged from the wormhole of time and space. The breath was soaring that they appeared directly on the battlefield and looked around in surprise.

These two creatures looked like humans, but a huge sharp tail hook grew behind them, shining with a horrible light, and was the royal prince of the magic scorpion family.

As for the other one, Qin Tiange glanced twice and found out that the other party's origin is a young strong man of the Silver Star clan with strange patterns on his face, looking like a certain ethnic pattern.

That is the clan pattern of the Silver Star Royal Family. He is a prince in the Silver Star Royal Family. He is a minor, but his strength cannot be underestimated.

The two princes appeared, and looked around suspiciously. It was strange that the Tianjing clan prince had not just come out.

“Here are the two princes of the second royal family. This time, I can eat enough.” Qin Tiange eyes widened, staring at the two princes of the two starry royal families who came out there.

Feeling the gaze here, the princes of the Silver Star family and the Magic Scorpion family looked at it together and immediately saw the trace of Qin Tiange.

“Huh? How could he have the breath of the Emperor Tianjing?” The Silver Star clan murmured in surprise.

The prince of the magic scorpion sneered aside: “What do you care about the human waste, the crystal prince must have run into the ancestral land of the people that day.”

“But why is there a human ambush here?”

The two princes looked at the entire battlefield and suddenly found that something was wrong. The main forces of the various ethnic groups were even defeated by the human army and even collapsed.

Seeing this, the two princes had a bad consciousness. The princes of the Silver Star family said nothing, turned around and flashed, and shattered the space and ran away.

“Want to run?” Qin Tiange was surprised, but snorted coldly, his body disappeared suddenly, and then he came to the head of the magic scorpion prince who was about to turn around.

“Damn!” The prince of the scorpion was furious, watching that the prince of the silver star race ran away, but was trying to run, but the crisis was sensed. Without a word of brow, he took out a strange treasure and turned back.

The figure of Qin Tiange emerged, holding a simplistic stele and smashing it in the head.

哐 Dang!

After a loud noise, the prince of the Scorpion clan broke into the hands, turned into fragments and was swallowed up by the stone monument, and then smashed unstopably.

With a click, the head of the prince of the scorpion blossomed, bursting on the spot like a big watermelon, and the entire brain was stunned by a monument.

The brain plasma was mixed with blood and water, and it stunned everyone on the battlefield, including countless humans.

Not to mention them, even Qin Tiange stunned and looked at the prince of the Scorpion clan who was killed by a monument in front of him.

Yes, Qin Tiange is speechless. Why is this Prince of the Scorpion clan so embarrassed that he would die when he hit a monument.

A monument killed the prince of the scorpion family. Qin Tiange, who was troubled by this incident, was a little speechless. Do you feel that the prince of the scorpion family is fake?

“I’m going. Is this Prince of the Scorpion Family a weak chicken?” Qin Tiange shook his head silently, looked at the simple stone monument in his hand, and looked at the body of the dead Prince of the Scorpion Family. In the end, he could only trust the other party. too weak.

Weak to a monument, he was smashed to death. The prince of the scorpion clan was also considered a tragedy. As soon as he came out, he had not yet killed any human race, and was killed by a monument to Qin Tiange.

“Forget it, even if it’s a prince again?” Qin Tiange smiled, grabbed the opponent’s body and devoured the opponent’s energy before it had time to erupt.

In a blink of an eye, the corpse of the Devil Scorpion dried up and finally dissipated into a dust, and the two stars in the body were completely swallowed up.

Originally, the prince of the scorpion clan would not die like this, but it was too sudden just now, the prince of the silver star clan who came with him drove away.

And before he had time to run, he was stopped by Qin Tiange, and had no time to break out of a force, and was immediately knocked to death by the other side in a hurry.

This is a lively tragedy. When the prince came to him, it was considered unique, and he could only say that he had run into Qin Tiange.

“This fellow of the Scorpion family, can be a prince so poor?” Qin Tiange murmured suddenly dissatisfied.

It turned out that he ransacked the other person’s treasure, but found that there were only a few inconspicuous things, all of which were thrown to the ten jewels and hanged as prizes.

In fact, he is not clear that not every prince has huge wealth, and the princes in some races are even poorer than ordinary strong ones, because the royal family’s resources are more competitive.

It can only be said that the prince of the scorpion clan is a loser. He was thinking of the old side of the ancestral land of the people tribe. As a result, he was killed and he died in a strange land.

“The prince of the Yinxing tribe is very refined, but he went straight away. It seems to be a frequent escape, otherwise he would not be so numb.” Qin Tiange looked at the silver star prince who had long disappeared and had to admire in his heart. The other party escaped.

When he saw something wrong, he turned around and ran, even Qin Tiange didn’t expect that the other prince would run away.

In fact, many princes of the royal family are proud, and there is almost no escape. Of course, this is based on their ability to crush the opponent.

“Damn, when has the Terran grown to this point?”

In the distant space, a silver mang flickered out. It was the prince of the Silver Star family who had just fled. He was afraid and looked at the direction of Mars with fear.

He didn’t feel right just now and ran immediately. Now he was grateful that his reaction was fast enough, otherwise he might be as sad as the dead scorpion prince.

“The Terran Army is here to guard the rabbits. Fortunately, the princes of various races and the main army of other races have quietly descended, otherwise they will be ambushed and intercepted by the Terrans. I will quietly enter the Terran ancestors. , Turned around and disappeared into the sky.

In fact, when the vanguards of various ethnic groups were wiped out a lot, the princes of various ethnic groups have received the news that the soul lamps of their ethnic groups have gone out, proving that they have died in battle, and thus an agreement has been reached to build an interplanetary gate. Quietly came to earth.

“My queen, the Silver Star prince just ran away. It is a potential threat. You must find out and kill it as soon as possible.”

At this time, the human emperor Yin Ling reminded him aloud, and Qin Tiange thought a little bit, and said, “The other person wants to run, it is difficult to find out in the solar system. Wait, he will always show up.”

“Meet my emperor!”

Seeing the four powerful figures flashing together, it was the four sages such as the sword demon Dugu who came to Qin Tiange and seemed to have something to do.

I saw the giant spirit whispering Weng Qi: “My queen, do you find that there aren’t many foreign troops?”

“Yes, I can see it, it is not much different from the previous vanguard, but there are a few more powerful ones.” Li Zijun nodded likewise.

After listening to frowning, Qin Tiange looked at the whole battlefield, and found that there was something wrong. There are no more foreign army in the space-time wormhole.

Seeing this, he vaguely understood something, frowning: “You are right, these foreigners are really cunning. They ran in a few miscellaneous princes and led some foreign army troops to explore the road. Maybe they already knew the pioneer army. A lot of news was wiped out, and the rest of the royal family and even the true main force of each ethnic group never appeared from here.”

“So, where did they show up?”

As this question came out, Qin Tiange turned around and looked at the direction of the earth. Perhaps those other main foreign army corps who were not here are preparing to quietly descend.

“Interstellar gate ...” Qin Tiange suddenly thought of this problem, and the strong men of all races seemed to be able to build an interstellar gate.

Thinking of this, Qin Tiange has understood that the wormhole above Mars may have been abandoned by the main force of foreign races.

“Tell me to order the destruction of the foreign army and the end of the battle. Perhaps other foreign troops have already landed on the earth.”

Qin Tiange said, looking up at the direction of the earth, looking directly at the Pangu continent.

Chapter 683 - The spirit of son-in-law, the road of Xixi

Over the Martian battlefield, Qin Tiange stood quietly there, suddenly waving his hand and holding the bright red Chinese flag, and suddenly waved.

Dang!

The battle flag fluttered, and the void in front of it shattered, revealing several strong horizontal figures inside, and was hit on the spot.

“Damn!”

The three strong foreign nationals with a horrified face retreated, turning around and leaving, but how could they escape Qin Tiange's killing?

Qin Tiange sneered, waving the battle flag, and only heard a bang, an alien race strong was just broken and half of his body was broken, flesh and blood flew, extremely miserable.

“what...”

“Come on!”

The screams screamed the other two alien powerhouses, screaming in panic, struggling, their strength almost exploded, and finally passed through the void.

Seeing the two running through the void, Qin Tiange sneered, and stabbed into the space in front of him with a flag of battle.

With a thump, in the turbulent stream in front, a figure heart was penetrated by the battle flag, his flesh and blood was drawn clean by the battle flag, and it was swallowed on the spot.

“No ...” The last alien powerhouse screamed in horror, watching Qin Tiange waving the battle flag through, the power broke out, and it turned into a huge star blocking it.

It is a pity that the flag of war is unparalleled, piercing the planet directly, piercing through the center, piercing the strong man's body, and crucifying in the void.

Killing three alien alien powerhouses in a row, but the half-step star-strength supernatural beings, but with no resistance, Qin Tiange was crucified with a battle flag.

“This battle flag has finally been initially completed. As long as the continual expedition and devouring the blood of the hundreds of stars in the sky, it will inevitably become a true immortal battle flag.” Qin Tiange looked a little excited, looking at the Huaxia battle flag Murmur.

This battle flag was exactly created by him based on the simulation of the Terran Battle Flag. Even his ambition was a little bigger. He wanted to gather the immortal soul and create an immortal warfare.

Now that the Huaxia Battle Banner has finally completed the initial casting, it is a successful first step. Whether it can grow in the future depends on whether the Chinese people can kill the stars and shake the stars.

“Order, strangling aliens, one will not stay!”

Qin Tiange suddenly drank coldly, issued a strangulation order, suddenly thrown the battle flag, floating in the air over the entire battlefield, spilling endless blood, condensing the horror of war.

As soon as the Huaxia battle flag came out, all the military corps of the entire Huaxia tribe suddenly boiled, and their combat effectiveness skyrocketed.

Moreover, some people who had just died in the war were revived under the blessing of the river of life under the immortal reversal of the war flag.

“Brother Qin ...”

At this time, over the battlefield, Yan Xiqiao's face was a little pale, her breath was unstable, and it was still difficult for her to support the huge river of life.

Qin Tiange came forward and looked at Xi Xi like this, without a word, a powerful force broke into her body.

It was an ancient power of the true spirit, which he had specially stored. Seeing that Xi Xi had just hit a small force of true spirit energy into her sea of knowledge.

With a bang, Xun Xi's body transformed, and the real spirit suddenly appeared an illusive projection, converging above her head.

Qin Tiange froze and looked at the ghost of the real spirit that appeared above Yan Xi's head. It was the real spirit of the human serpent. It was a little hazy and seemed incomplete, but it exudes the ancient meaning, revealing endlessness. The charm of life.

“The spirit of the son-in-law?” He said in horror, surprised.

Qin Tiange's identity was actually not well understood, she only knew her role and its hugeness, and left her by all means.

Now looking at the real spirit projection of Yan Xi, the ancient breath of the spirit really surprised him, only to find out that he has never seen the true identity and origin of Yan Xi.

“It's no wonder that Dongli tried everything to take away Xi Xi. That's the case, it's even more difficult for anyone to take her away.” Qin Tiange looked at the gradually disappearing true spirit projection of Xi Xi and decided in his heart who Can't take away Xi Xi.

Seeing Xi Xi's incomplete real spirit, Qin Tiange immediately realized that Xi Xi was probably the reincarnation of the son-in-law's spirit.

“Brother Qin, what happened?”

At this point, Wu Xi woke up unconsciously, only feeling full of strength on her body, and a solid feeling came from the real spirit, as if it was very fulfilling.

That is a reflection of the real spirit being supplemented, the enhancement, and the fullness of the repair. It feels real, and makes Xi Xi a little confused.

Qin Tiange laughed: “This is a good thing. I just injected you with the energy of an ancient true spirit, and your true spirit has repaired a lot.”

“Thank Brother Qin.” After listening to it, Xi Xi was excited, and saw her hands waving, the huge river of life running through the battlefield.

This long river is boiling continuously, emitting endless power of life, more powerful than before, making many people feel a powerful guardianship.

Qin Tiange looked at this river of life and suddenly laughed: “Xi Xi, if you can integrate the river of life into the veins of your blood vessels in the future, so that each blood vessel is a river of life, and finally gather In the heart, turned into a source of life, then you can truly become a truly strong. “

Xi Xi listened to this, and the whole person was still, completely surprised that Qin Tiange would say so. She thought that every blood vessel in her body had become a river of life. It was no longer ordinary blood, but a vast river of life. How terrible was that?

That way, who can kill such an evening? A blood vessel is a river of life, containing the terrifying power of life, and even the heart becomes the source of life.

At that time, Xi Xi will have endless life force, it will be difficult to be killed, or even immortal.

“Really, can you do it?” Yan Xi paused.

Qin Tiange’s words opened the door to a brand new world for her, as if she saw endless mysteries, and even felt a sense of impulse, wanting to step into it and soar.

Watching Xi Xi fall into epiphany, the river of life above him became more and more immense, the water of life boiled, and gradually there was a scene of diversion.

“The river of life is diverging, and the future will converge into a source of life. On the evening, whether you can come to this step depends on yourself.” Qin Tiange muttered to himself.

These things, in fact, he devoured the ancient remnants, and even realized from the life of Li Luo.

The way of practicing Xi Xi should not be like this, but to consolidate one or more stars of life, but now Qin Tiange tells her that all blood vessels and veins can be turned into a river of life, turning herself Completely turned into a source of life.

This type of practice is simply incredible, and it is exactly the kind of practice before the extremely ancient era.

Qin Tiange has acquired the memories of ancient remnants. He has an extremely deep understanding and understanding of these, and even gained the insight of Li Luo’s life as a treasure to him.

Since absorbing and comprehending those spiritual insights, Qin Tiange has become clearer about his spiritual practice, and even has vaguely different ideas.

“My cultivation cannot follow the current system, but go hand in hand with the ancient cultivation system.” Qin Tiange muttered.

He was thinking about his cultivation path, but in fact he could not do it exactly according to the current system, because not only there were only ninety-nine crosses in his body, but also a chaotic membrane.

That chaotic membrane is the most terrifying and powerful thing. Once the transformation of the chaotic membrane is completed and it becomes a chaotic universe before the baby universe, it is a horrible phenomenon.

Think about it. By then, Qin Tiange’s every move carried the power of a chaotic initial universe. He hadn’t even brought the ninety-nine growing rampages. Once it evolved into a supernova and even a black hole celestial body, it would become even more terrifying.

“Accelerate the power of conserving chaotic fetal membranes and condensing cells in cells, and strive to turn every cell in the body into a real chaos. In this way, I will have endless power, who can stop me?”

Thinking of this, Qin Tiange’s complexion couldn’t help but arouse his excitement, as long as he thought that every cell in his body was full of Pangu’s power.

In the end, opening up small mini chaos in the cells is an extremely scary scene. No matter how many cell dust worlds are successfully developed, it is a horrible transformation for Qin Tiange.

The path to future cultivation has been determined. Qin Tiange firmly believes that as long as he persists unswervingly, he will certainly be able to make a name of his own.

Uh ...

Suddenly, a change in the river of life on the battlefield broke up, and a small diversion was made.

Yes, the river of life is successfully diverted and gradually grows, making the main river of life more and more vigorous, as if to be transformed into an immortal river.

“I succeeded.” Xi Xi opened her eyes in excitement, surprised, and couldn’t help raising two red flushes.

She looked at Qin Tiange, with joy in her eyes. It seemed that the method Qin Tiange said was feasible, and Xi Xi was gradually turning the river of life into her body.

Qin Tiange nodded in appreciation laughed: “Yi Xi is doing well, that’s it, your path is clear in the future, depending on where you can go.”

“Well, Brother Qin rest assured, I will continue to work hard.” Xi Xi pinched the powder fist, with a firm face, and never had the determination to cultivate as hard as ever.

She looked at Qin Tiange and vowed secretly in her heart that she would not be left behind, and she would definitely follow his steps and become stronger.

“Well, I’m out.”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange looked up at the void, where there was a ripple, and then it collapsed, revealing the scene inside.

I saw a number of broken corpses flying out of it, all of which were aliens who were killed by their own self, and several others were suppressed by their self and brought up.

“Yiji, look at Chen Xi and Xi Xi a little, I leave first and go to Pangu mainland to have a look.”

Qin Tiange nodded to his own self, and after saying this, he turned around and disappeared on the Martian battlefield.

Chapter 684 - Ice Palace, Lord of Ice and Snow, and another ancient life

In the Pangu continent, a figure stood on Tianzhu and looked down at the entire Pangu continent, but there was no trace of the main foreign army.

“No?”

Qin Tiange frowned, returned from Mars, and searched the Pangu continent for three days, but he didn't find any trace of the foreign army, was he guessing wrong?

This made him a little bit confused. According to the truth, those foreign pioneers hidden on the Pangu continent, although they could sense some, but it was definitely not the main force of foreigners.

“Master, maybe they are not coming on the Pangu continent?” The figure of his self quietly emerged and said gently.

Qin Tiange saw his self coming and asked, “Did you run down, the battle on Mars is over?”

“It's over, all threats have been cleared, and it's entering the final cleanup stage. It won't take long to clear the battlefield.” Xi Ji said with a smile.

She frowned, and then said, “However, strong energy fluctuations have been found in both Antarctica and South America, especially Antarctica, where the cold of the entire earth converges here.”

“Antarctica?” Qin Tiange frowned, and said a moment of contemplation: “Let's go and see.”

As they said, the two flickered, disappeared on the Pangu continent, and reappeared over the Antarctica, ice and snow, with extremely low temperatures.

Even ordinary intensifiers can't come here. You can imagine how cold the Antarctic is now. With the passage of the ice age, the coldness of the entire earth is strangely converging towards the Antarctic side.

Antarctic plate, a strong cold current gathered, constantly from here and there from all corners of the earth, as if the global cold has been absorbed by Antarctica.

“There is a secret here.” Qin Tiange looked down at the continent.

He looked seriously, looking at the Antarctic continent, feeling the terrible cold coming from all sides, converging into a cold current that swept the Antarctic continent.

The air here is extremely cold, especially in the central area of Antarctica, as if it has entered the absolute zero space, it feels that people must be frozen into scum when entering.

boom!

A glowing glow radiated, a strong temperature surged in his body, and the light shed, blocking the terrible cold.

Qin Tiange didn't care at all. Even if the cold current swept through, it seemed all right, so he flew over the Antarctica and came to the Antarctic continent.

Huh ... coming here, Qin Tiange obviously felt that the cold air was thicker, and even the entire central area of Antarctica was completely frozen, and the air was condensed into glaciers.

In the entire central region of Antarctica, it was completely frozen into glaciers, becoming taller, larger, and lower in temperature.

“Here is a secret place.” Qin Tiange suddenly felt the breath of a secret place.

Moreover, this breath is still very familiar, once entered, such a cold secret atmosphere, perhaps only once entered the extreme cold secret.

“An extremely cold secret?” Qin Tiange murmured, and then suddenly felt a strong cold coming out, exuding a terrible breath that frozen the void of all things.

This cold current passed, everything was frozen, the void was transformed into ice, and the entire Antarctica was suddenly caught in a wireless near-zero temperature environment.

“His, what’s hidden in the extreme cold secret?” Qin Tiange took a secret breath, frowning his eyebrows and hair, but soon melted himself.

His body was covered with a trace of chaotic fire, blocking the surrounding temperature, watching the strange changes in the Antarctica, and immediately realizing that something was coming out of the extreme cold secret.

Sure enough, as soon as the thought fell, I saw a burst of cracks in the Antarctic region. The space was frozen and cracked, gradually expanding, and it was broken like a mirror.

哐 Dang!

The Antarctic continent, the space was frozen and cracked, more terrible cold currents emerged from it, and the temperature was infinitely close to absolute zero.

Qin Tiange and Xun Ji both watched the changes in Antarctica quietly, without moving or leaving or approaching, but watching from a distance.

After a long time, the cold air no longer gushes, but the temperature is getting lower and lower, accompanied by an ancient atmosphere, the entire South Pole seems to be dead.

“Freezing in the void, it is said that absolutely zero time can be frozen?” Qin Tiange muttered to himself, staring at the broken space, revealing a terrible breath inside.

The breath was extremely old and weird, as if something was waking up.

boom!

With an explosion, the Antarctic continent suddenly shook, and the space broke apart, slowly extruding a huge glacier from the inside.

Qin Tiange squinted his eyes, looking at the frozen things that were constantly squeezed out, and gradually saw that it was a palace.

An ice palace!

The huge ice palace, with only one corner exposed, has made people feel extremely magnificent, showing a strong cold, and the air and the space are frozen.

“It’s such a strong cold. Is this absolutely zero?” Xu Ji looked a little cautious.

Inside this ice palace, there is an extremely terrifying atmosphere hidden in the cold and ancient, as if a creature from the ancient era is waking up.

Rumble ...

The huge ice palace rushed out completely, floating over the Antarctic continent, exuding a horrific cold, rolling up a cold current, and covering the whole ice palace with something like a prison cage. cry!

Over the ice palace, two huge ice phoenixes hovered and danced. Scarlet eyes represented that they had no self-awareness and were completely two fierce beasts.

The two ice phoenixes circled and danced, looking at this side, a trace of brutal and fierce light in the scarlet eyes.

Qin Tiange didn’t care about the two ice phoenixes, but stared closely inside the ice palace, where there was a breath to wake up.

“It is a new reincarnation of Yiji, I, Lord of Ice and Snow, do anyone still remember?”

Inside the ice palace, a cold murmur came suddenly and crisply, but it contained a strong meaning of freezing and could freeze the mind.

Listening to this sentence, Qin Tiange stared into the ice palace, and faintly saw a horrible figure, like an ancient existence, returning to life and death cycle again and again.

“This breath ...” Qin Tiange looked surprised, and suddenly felt that this breath was somewhat familiar, and seemed to have known him.

He has not seen this breath, but it is certain that this breath is very similar to the ice silkworm he obtained.

Huh!

Just this year, a distant icy air passed across the distant void, and it flew into the sky over Antarctica in a blink of an eye.

It was a small, icy figure, crystal clear, exuding a strong cold, and turned into a frozen field within ten kilometers.

“Ice silkworm?” Qin Tiange was surprised, looking at the suddenly appearing figure, it was ice silkworm.

That’s right, it was the ice silkworm that came from the coldest room in the scientific research room of Shanghai to wake up and came directly to the sky above Antarctica.

“Master ...” Bing silkworm was surprised when he saw Qin Tiange, and flew up suddenly.

This ice silkworm has now grown to a horrible level, sleeping in an artificially cold laboratory space, absorbing countless energy supplied to it, once again falling into life and death, and finally waking up.

“Haha, you have finally completed metamorphosis, yes.” Qin Tiange smiled and gently stroked the head of Bing silkworm.

I saw an iced word from the ice silkworm suddenly: “Master, I sensed the ancestor’s breath, and it was inside, she was calling me.”

“The smell of your ancestors?” Qin Tiange froze, and thoughtfully looked at the huge ice palace. The ancient atmosphere that awakened from it might be the ancestor of the ice silkworm.

No wonder it feels familiar. It turns out that a strong and ancient ice silkworm is hidden here, but she seems to have experienced many reincarnations, which is very amazing.

“Descent of my bloodline?”

Inside the ice palace, a word of indifference suddenly came out. Then, the ice silkworm floated up and entered the ice palace.

As for Qin Tiange and Xunji, they were excluded, but he didn’t care, but was thinking about the appearance of the ice silkworm, and the identity of the ancient creature inside was a little clear.

“Descendants of my tribe, go and practice well. I, continue to embark on a new journey and complete the unfinished ...”

Suddenly, a light and shadow flew from the ice palace. It was the ice silkworm that had entered before and returned to Qin Tiange’s shoulder.

I saw, the ice palace suddenly brightened, a strong cold burst through the void, with a click, the huge ice palace directly penetrated the void, and disappeared here in a blink of an eye.

During the whole process, Qin Tiange didn’t stop because he couldn’t stop it. The ice inside the palace was extremely terrible. According to the ancient memories obtained, she was as old and powerful as Liluo of the ancient Liuli people.

This creature is extremely scary, and with all kinds of horror means, it can definitely come back again and again.

“Master, that gas is too strong.” Li Ji looked at the disappearing Ice Palace, and said something carefully.

Just now, she felt that the cores of the artificial sun in her body suddenly faded, as if to be extinguished instantly, very terrifying.

“The Lord of Ice and Snow, another ancient master of the times, she is naturally terrible, and she can come back again and again, and this kind of creature is hard to kill.”

At the moment when the Lord of Ice and Snow awoke, Li Luo, who was hiding in the core of the sun, suddenly opened his eyes, saw through time and space, and saw the huge ice palace that was moving fast.

“The Lord of Ice and Snow is also awake, and it seems that she is going to go there again to complete what she hadn’t done.” Li Luo mumbled to himself, looking complex.

She glanced at the earth, then closed her eyes and went to sleep, realizing that the soul of the book of the true meaning of the soul, and wanted to repair her true spirit.

At this point, her body’s heart position has gradually been restored, and it may be completely restored after 10,000 years.

“There are still some extremely ancient races and life forms hidden in countless multiverses of all time and space. If you can find ancient life forms like Li Luo, it may be an extremely important thing for me.”

Qin Tiange looked at the sun in the sky, murmured to himself, thinking about the future, and wanted to find more ancient and powerful life forms like Li Luo to help him.

The universe is vast and mysterious in time and space. It is unknown how many terrible existences are hidden. In addition to its own strength, there must be some powerful life forms to protect him.

“Let’s go and see in South America. There is a forbidden area where monsters run rampant. Perhaps the main force of the alien race is hidden there?”

Qin Tiange said this suddenly, thoughtfully, looking at the direction of the South American continent, faintly felt a strange and powerful breath, which belongs to the strong breath of the starry hundreds.

Chapter 685 - Tai 1 royalty, aggressive 9 prince

South America, Amazon jungle.

The spirits here are soaring, and various demonic creatures gather, which is completely a paradise of monsters, and it has become a restricted area.

Previously, due to the alien invasion, the humans here have been defeated, and eventually they have to retreat into the restricted area where the group of monsters run rampant.

Here, there are all kinds of evolved monsters, natural elves, and even strange life forms that have never been heard before.

In the heart of the Amazon jungle, the demon is pervasive, converging into a patch of horrible demon mist, as if the dark clouds are rolling over the party.

Under the demon cloud, there is a large group of towering palaces, where a large number of scary monsters gather.

“Nine prince, the dragon palace did not come to see you, this is your contempt for the prince.”

A word came from the palace, and I saw people sitting on the upper part of the hall, with a tall figure, wearing a royal jersey, and depicting only three-legged Jinwu, showing nobility and majesty.

He is the pure-blooded imperial prince of the Nine Demon Nine Royals, ranking ninth and known as the Nine Prince.

As for the kneeling man in the hall, the half-demon who had been frightened and fleeing in the east before leaving, was lying on the ground in the hall, afraid to look up.

Dong Li, even kneeling in front of this young man, can imagine that his identity is absolutely noble, and there is a pure blood of monsters hidden in his body, oppressing Dong Li.

“Dragon, this is the nine royals of my demon tribe. Her identity is equal to mine. It is normal to not come. Unfortunately, she refuses to accept the prince’s proposal.” The young man said lightly.

As the voice had just fallen, his pure and enchanting body spread, revealing the handsome appearance, his eyes were faintly flashing with golden light, and a strange weird pattern appeared on his forehead, as if only a small Jinwu.

This one, but one of the nine royal families of the semi-demon family, and the nine princes of the too royal family, are extremely powerful and unpredictable.

The so-called half-demon royal family has pure and noble blood, and the bloodlines in the body have been eliminated. Only the pure blood of the monster family can be a royal family.

As for the dragon palace he said, the dragon egg in the forbidden area of the East China Sea Dragon Palace was the princess of the dragon family.

The nine emperor had just arrived here and sent Dongli away to propose his family. Unfortunately, Dongli was beaten out and almost died in the East China Sea.

“Nine princes, she is too blind, she not only despises the princes, but also kills her subordinates. If the princes were not treated with divine medicine, she might die.” Dong Li said heartily, still in the atmosphere.

However, when the words just came down, the sound of bang, Dong Li flew out of his body inexplicably, smashed heavily on the pillar of the hall, spit blood.

“Presumptuous.” The nine emperor’s face was somber and coldly hummed: “The * half demon, what kind of thing do you dare to denigrate the three princesses, no matter how, in the future, maybe she will be the princess of the prince, you Are you humiliating the prince? “

“Don’t dare, Dongli doesn’t dare, the prince forgive me.” Dongli knelt in fear, begging for mercy.

Poor Dongli, originally, after coming to earth, he had his own careful thinking. Since he discovered the existence of Xun Xi, he directly concealed Xun Xi's identity and wanted to occupy it by himself.

As a result, it was destroyed by Qin Tiange, and even nearly died a few times, so he had to lead the nine prince down and wanted to deal with Qin Tiange.

In addition, he told the ninth prince that there was a newly-recovered semi-demon royal princess and the third princess of the dragon tribe, so that the nine prince was very emotional and sent him directly to propose a marriage.

However, the third princess of the Dragon family did not bird him. The ninth prince had never been able to get through his face. Now Dongli is so good about it. How can he say that the three princesses are the women he looks after, and he may be his princess in the future.

"I want my prince to spare you, but what is it for you?" The nine prince looked indifferently at His Highness Dongli.

That faint tone, with a hint of murder, apparently moved the killing heart, scared Dong Li's face pale, panic, and finally had to grit his teeth and say a message.

"Prince Nine, his subordinate discovered a secret, Tianda's secret." Dong Li finally spoke this sentence.

That was the news he didn't want to say, and even deliberately concealed. Now, under threat of life and death, he has to say it.

"Oh? What secret?" The Nine Prince looked at him lightly.

I saw Dongli gritted his teeth and said, "Prince of Nine, my subordinates have found out. There is news of our maiden in this place where the human race originated."

"What?" Prince Nine suddenly stood up, looking shocked.

His figure flashed, holding Dong Li's neck directly with his hands and lifting it up, and asked with a serious look: "You dog thing, honestly explain, what is going on?"

Dong Li's face was terrified, and her heart was resentful, but she didn't dare to show it. Instead, Fifty spoke out his discoveries, and revealed the identity of Mi Xi and various discoveries.

"My maiden ... is she really my maiden?" The nine prince murmured to himself, almost pinched to death without seeing Dongli at all.

Dong Li's face turned red, and he continued to struggle, but he couldn't break the hands of the nine emperor. He gradually turned his eyes and his mouth and nose were bleeding. He was obviously going to be pinched to death.

boom!

I saw the ninth prince waking up, throwing away Dongli and humming, "Humble things, how dare to hide this thing."

“No ... Keke, prince, I didn’t hide it. This is the news just confirmed, that Xi Xi is my semi-demon maiden.” Dong Li got up and kept coughing, but explained in a hurry.

The ninth prince returned to his seat, meditating quietly, with intense light in his pink eyes, as if there were terrible energy fluctuations.

“Nine princes, Xi Xi is currently in Huaxia, but is under the control of Emperor candidate Qin Tiange. It is not easy to take away.” Dong Li said carefully.

In the seat, the nine emperor’s eyes were cold, and he hummed, “Fuck man, don’t say that he is not the emperor.

“Let’s go with the Prince of China to the Huaxia tribe. I’ll see what is terrible there, so that the army of various ethnic groups will lose their troops?”

With that said, the nine princes got up and were about to leave the hall and go to Huaxia to see what happened. He has just landed on the earth, and he is not clear about the current form. As far as Dong Li said, most of them are actually concealed.

Dong Xianghuan is impure, he has great ambitions, but unfortunately his strength cannot keep up with his ambitions, and can only be suppressed by the Prince Nine.

“The prince is careful, I feel that the ancient breath is approaching.”

At this moment, such a sentence came from the heart of the nine princes, which made his steps stop and stopped.

He was horrified, and the reminder came from his mind, and he knew it very well, and he knew who this message was from.

“Teacher, what is the ancient atmosphere you said?” The Nine Prince moved his mind and asked anxiously.

I saw that in his knowledge of the sea, a hazy figure appeared, that is the ancient remnant, the teacher of the nine emperor, or the master.

“No, the prince hurry up!”

This voice shuddered and terrified, and it was too late to explain, and the power of the true spirit erupted, wrapped in unknown nine emperors, flashed through, and disappeared here.

When he disappeared, a figure suddenly appeared in the hall. It was Qin Tiange who frowned and looked around, and finally locked the area where the nine emperor left.

“Strange, obviously you feel the breath of the ancient remnants, why are you gone?” Qin Tiange muttered to himself, making Dong, not far away, dumbfounded.

“You, you you ...” Dong Li face horrified and kept back.

He looked at the nine princes who suddenly ran away. The whole man was shocked and stunned. He didn’t understand what was going on and saw Qin Tiange appear.

Combined with the words of the nine princes, they turned and ran without saying anything. Doesn't this mean that Qin Tiange scared the nine princes away?

"Oh, it's your half demon ..." Qin Tiange then noticed Dongli, watching him keep backing, trying to escape the hall.

Qin Tiange looked at the other with a smile, suddenly raised his hand and reached out and pointed his finger at the void in front of him. The sound of rattling was crisp, and Dongli was covered with cold, only the space around him felt cracked.

"No ..." Dong Li screamed in horror, wanting to resist and the body broke apart inexplicably, leaving only his head floating to Qin Tiange's palm.

Seeing Qin Tiange holding his head, Dong Li was horrified and screamed, "No, no, no one, I know nothing."

He wanted to beg for mercy, but unfortunately Qin Tiange didn't want to let him go, crushed his head directly, forcibly imprisoned the opponent's true spirit and swallowed it.

"Ah ... Prince Nine, you must not die." Dong Li Zhenling issued a stern curse before his death, and the object turned out to be Prince Nine.

In the end, he was swallowed up. Qin Tiange directly captured his true spiritual information, and even captured all his memories, and finally saw the information about the figure that had just fled.

"Of the Nine Royals of the Half-Demon family, too royal family, nine princes?" Qin Tiange understood after learning from each other's memory.

Thinking of this, his eyes were bright, and he didn't want to directly tear the space and step into it, and followed the unavoidable induction.

"Teacher, what are you doing?"

In the solar system and meteorite belt, the Taoist figure rushed out in horror, and it was the nine emperor who was wrapped and ran away.

His face was gloomy and growled angry, because he didn't understand what was going on, so he was run away by the ancient remnant, and he was just ashamed to his home.

"The prince hurry up, two extremely ancient beings are coming, run away."

Knowing the sea, the hazy remnant screamed in horror, and after sending out a strange cry, the power in the remnant broke out immediately, wrapped in the aggressive nine princes, and disappeared.

"Want to run?"

This scene happened to be seen by Qin Tiange who came, cold hum, raised his hand and hit Daoguang, it was a jade seal, and the emperor's seal struck across the air.

The sound of a gurgling sound, the void burst, and the nine emperors were so frightened that they almost died, and were almost killed by the seal.

“Ah ... I am the strongest of Di Ji, I have no intention of offending ...”

There was a sudden and scream of oldness in the void I saw that the body of the nine emperor exploded, and was almost broken there inexplicably. Fortunately, it was wrapped in an ancient true spirit and flashed quickly. , Gone.

“It’s late, let it run away ...”

A glazed nucleus burst into the sky, and a broken figure appeared in it. It was Li Luo. She sensed the ancient remnant breath leaked from the nine emperor and immediately caught up, but it was too late.

“Running fast!” Qin Tiange arrived, his face flashing with regret.

Li Luo looked at him, and said lightly, “The emperor, that breath, it should be some awakened ancient remnant, living in that creature, but it’s too late.”

“It doesn’t matter!” Qin Tiange shook his head gently, not minding: “Run and run, and after a while I arrange things on the earth, I will walk with you into the stars and look for the hidden ancient remnants . “

“Okay, you arrange. I’ll wait for your news.”

Li Luo nodded, talking about the flash of light, returning to the core of the sun to continue the cultivation, leaving only Qin Tiange people quietly meditating.

Chapter 686 - Hidden races, cage tactics

Outside the solar system, somewhere in the deep space universe, the waves rippled, and then someone rushed out, lying on top of the space block meteorite without an image.

puff!

The man opened his mouth and spewed crystal blood, his complexion was pale, and there was still a trace of shock in his eyes, and he looked at the small solar system in the distance with lingering fear.

He was the nine prince who ran out of the solar system, his face was depressed and resentful, not to mention how aggrieved at the moment.

Before he saw anyone, he was scared away, and almost fell into the solar system. He didn’t even know who the enemy was.

“Teacher, what the * is going on?” The Nine Prince looked grimly and growled wildly.

He was very angry. He had never been so embarrassed. How could he allow himself to run away somehow, and he could hardly escape.

In the sea, the hazy figure was looming, and his breath was a little weak and chaotic. The eruption of the real spirit just now caused him serious wear and tear.

The ancient remnant sent out the words, saying, "Nine princes, there were two extremely ancient beings just now. If you were not old and run fast, you and I may have finished playing."

"Its breath is like the powerful life form of the Liuli ancient people of the Jiji period. If they don't run, they will be swallowed up by the other party," said the remnant with a lingering heart.

He sensed the extremely ancient atmosphere of Qin Tiange, and immediately realized that it was not good. He even ran away without the explanation.

Fortunately, he responded fast enough. If he slowed down a bit, he might not be able to run away. Even at the last moment, Li Luo, the ancient being that came almost stopped him.

The scene was thrilling, or it was the power of his erupting spirit that barely escaped from Qin Tiange and Li Luo.

This is the reason why he stayed clean and hesitated to stay. If he stopped in front of Qin Tiange just now, it would be impossible to run.

"Damn, why are there two ancient living beings hidden here?" The nine emperor vomited blood and roared resentfully, and the surrounding meteorites collapsed into powder.

He was angry and depressed, but he had no choice but to die because he didn't run. Standing here, looking at the direction of the solar system, the nine princes were indignant, but there was a sense of fear in the heart for the rest of the disaster.

"Nine princes, the decay is so severe that they must fall asleep. If they want to wake me up, they must devour me with more flesh and soul to recover." The weak word from the remnant was weak.

Then he proposed: "Prince, you still leave here. There are too many secrets hidden in this place of origin of this tribe. Change somewhere."

The ninth prince listened to the gloomy back, and his eyes were fierce, and he hummed, "It's all from the * in the east.

"Let's go. Fortunately, I have a teacher for you, or I will really be buried in this place where the human race originated."

"Go to other ancestors."

The ninth prince said, taking out the bizarre treasure, the body turned into the light, and then disappeared through the flash.

He left, and did not dare to stay, because the previous experience had already scared him. Where would he dare to go back?

The nine emperor could run away, thanks to the ancient remnant in his body, otherwise, he could only be swallowed up by Qin Tiange and had to say his luck.

...

Earth, Qin Tiange came back again, standing over the palace group, wondering and looking at the palace here, it was completely new.

“This should be built by Dongli with those half-demon army, want to be a base camp, but unfortunately just ran away a prince.” Qin Tiange still a little sorry.

A little induction, in the entire Amazon heart area, there are many powerful demons hidden, but only the turtle shrinks and trembles.

Those tyrannical half-demons are afraid, and they dare not move, and dare not come out, because Qin Tiange’s fierce name is too strong.

“Strange, where are the main foreign troops?” Qin Tiange frowned, glancing over Dongli’s memory of the half-demon.

Soon, he found relevant memories, and was surprised to find that the main forces of foreign races had even been hidden in every corner of the earth.

“Scattered and hidden, these foreigners, alas, want to enter the Pangu world?” Qin Tiange looked at Dongli’s memory and discovered these secrets.

In fact, the main force of the alien aliens has already quietly landed on the earth, but it is hidden deep and has never taken the lead.

It was just that Qin Tiange didn’t find it, and his self-monitoring couldn’t take pictures. This has to be said that foreigners who want to hide are actually hard to find.

As just now, if Qin Tiange did not come to the nine princes, he really didn’t find out that the other party had already arrived, but it just felt that some powerful breath leaked out.

“It’s really a trouble ...” Qin Tiange frowned, glanced at the monster jungle running through the monster.

Instead of paying attention to the monsters here, he turned and flashed, disappearing into the void and disappearing here. When he left, the monster here was suddenly relieved.

Countless half-monsters sighed softly, and the nervous heart finally calmed down. There was no way. Qin Tiange was so fierce that the half-monsters couldn’t stand the slightest resistance.

“The murderer is finally gone.”

“Everyone says, will Prince Nine be killed by him?”

“It’s over. It’s a wrong decision for us to come here.”

In the jungle, the horrible monsters were boiling, and many powerful semi-demons were crying without tears, guessing that their nine emperor must have been robbed.

Even Dongli, the pioneer and commander in chief, was dead, which made many semi-demons horrified and regretted coming to earth.

No matter what these half-demons think, Qin Tiange doesn’t care about these messy half-demons anyway, so he doesn’t need to deal with it at all.

“Where will those aliens hide?” Qin Tiange floated in the atmosphere, looking down at the earth below.

He quietly pondered, thinking about where the secret descendants of the alien clan’s main force are hiding.

The earth has become too big, and there are many mysterious areas, that is, he has never entered, and the main force of those alien races must be hidden in every corner.

“Pangu continent ... the ocean ...” Qin Tiange muttered, his eyes flashed.

He has already guessed that most of the main alien aliens are likely to be hidden in the mysterious Pangu continent, because their goal is to enter the Pangu realm.

Moreover, most of the earth is the ocean, and in the vast and mysterious ocean, it is normal for the main army of alien races to be hidden.

Qin Tiange still believes this point, because from the beginning to the present, human steps have never set foot in the depths of the ocean, where there is always a mystery.

Even now, Qin Tiange has never been involved in the ocean. Now it seems that it is time to involve the ocean area.

As for the main force of those aliens, there is no need to worry, since they are hidden, it means that they will not act lightly.

In this way, Huaxia will be able to gain time for development. At that time, the main forces of these foreigners will dare to come forward and directly kill them.

“Master, there was an ancient and powerful alien atmosphere found in North America, but it suddenly disappeared.”

At this time, the figure of Li Ji appeared quietly, came to Qin Tiange, said this sentence, she just returned from North America.

Listening to her news, Qin Tiange frowned slightly, then sneered: “The North American Alliance seems to have reached an agreement with those alien races.”

“Would you like to unite with the aliens in North America?” Xi Ji’s face changed slightly, guessing this.

Qin Tiange shook his head and smiled: “No matter what, in short, you stare at the North American side, and tell me if there is movement.”

“Yes, master.” Jiji directly ordered.

Later, she added, “Master, I believe that the main force of these alien groups may be hidden in the Pangu continent, but the Pangu continent is shrouded in a mysterious magnetic field. It is difficult to break the monitoring of nano-satellites.

“Send nano-robots and spread them on the Pangu continent, and conduct a carpet search. I don’t believe they can hide.” Qin Tiange made a decision.

He asked Jiji to send numerous nano-robots to perform a carpet-like search on the Pangu continent, and he did not believe that these hidden alien main forces could not be found.

How can such a large main force be completely hidden? If it is not for the special nature of the Pangu continent, it has a mysterious magnetic field to block nano-satellites, and it may be able to achieve comprehensive monitoring.

“Master, I want to go home.”

At this moment, the ice silkworm on his shoulder said a clear word, so Qin Tiange froze and looked down at the ice silkworm.

It said that when it came home, where was the home of the ice silkworm, Jiu Li was forbidden. Qin Tiange suddenly remembered that Jiuli was a strong branch of the ancient ethnic group. Jiuli ancient people were all members of the ethnic group.

“Jiuli’s forbidden area, I don’t know what happened to Long Xiaoqian?” Qin Tiange thought secretly, then smiled: “Okay, then you go back and see what happened to Long Xiaoqian by the way.”

“Thank you, master. I’ll go.”

The ice silkworm jumped up happily. After coiling around Qin Tiange for a few laps, the ice silk disappeared and disappeared, leaving only strings of snow falling.

This ice silkworm has to go back to Jiuli’s forbidden area. It seems to be its original home. Qin Tiange already knows this.

I just don’t know How is the situation of Long Xiaoqian in Jiuli’s forbidden area at the moment? Qin Tiange originally wanted to take time to look at it, but now it seems that there is no time to go.

“Dear oneself, speed up the construction of the base in the Pangu mainland, build a few more bases, and gradually transfer our Huaxia personnel to the Pangu mainland.”

“Also, searching the entire earth and even the solar system, I will imprison all the hidden stars and hundreds of people to make them cage birds.” Qin Tiange issued a fierce, cold-looking order.

He didn’t have much time. He wanted to solve the hidden dangers of the earth’s native land as soon as possible, and then his eyes were set on the starry sky.

Qin Tiange knows that if he wants to continue to grow quickly, he must step into the stars.

“Master, here comes a strong breath.”

Suddenly, his face moved, his eyes flickered and looked at the distant waters, and he felt that the powerful breath was approaching rapidly.

In fact, Qin Tiange had already sensed that this breath came towards this side, and the purpose was very obvious, it was directed at them.

Chapter 687 - Descendants of the Era of Tribes, enslaved captives

Huh!

A figure appeared quietly, floating quietly in front of the two Qin Tiange, looking at Qin Tiange carefully, his expression was a little complicated.

The comer was a woman, and there was another encounter. At the beginning, Qin Tiange threw the life spar hidden in the falling meteorite into the outer space.

One of them was the woman in front of her. She had a clan flavor, but it was a little weird. Qin Tiange was curious. She hasn't seen her since she came out of the Pangu world. How come now?

"Find me something?" Qin Tiange asked softly.

He did not believe that the other party ran for no reason. This must be something to do with him. This woman is most likely the starry people who came to the earth's ancestors with Li Bai.

However, it may have been thrown into the outer space by Qin Tiange at that time, annoyed this person, he never appeared again, never asked Qin Tiange to get angry, almost forgot.

"Princess, I am here to tell you that the main forces of various ethnic groups have quietly arrived, and they are planning to destroy the Pangu continent." This woman uttered an astonishment.

As soon as she said this, Qin Tiange was stunned, and looked at her strangely, even if she had a strange look on her face, she seemed a little surprised and puzzled.

The woman suddenly knelt down and bowed down suddenly, and said with a sad expression: "The Emperor, my name is Noah, from Xinghe Ancient Waste Star, is a descendant of the previous tribe, and we descendants of the previous tribe are all enslaved by foreign slaves."

"This is our slave seal. It has been passed down from generation to generation and cannot be destroyed. It represents the slaves of the hundreds of stars in the sky. There is no freedom, and life and death cannot be autonomous. I implore the emperor to rescue our people in the future."

Noah said with a grimace, raising her forehead and exposing a weird symbol, which is a mark of slavery, a true spirit that can enslave souls.

"Slave?" Qin Tiange's pupils shrank, his breath was depressed, and a trace of murder spread out, apparently angered.

Without him, he would have learned a bit of information from ancient memories. It is said that there were hundreds of slaves of the slavery in captivity, which was originally thought to be just rumors.

At first glance, it turned out to be true. In the Starry Hundreds of People, there were actually slave human races, and the human race descendants of the previous era were enslaved in captivity.

These enslaved people can't escape this kind of  for generations. Even if the descendants born are all with bondage, the true spirit is enslaved and they can't have freedom at all.

Noah, from the Milky Way ancient waste star, is a descendant of the human race of the previous period. Since her birth, she has carried a slave seal, which belongs to one of the hundreds of stars in the sky.

However, she was not willing to be enslaved in this way, so she tried every means to get rid of this inherited bondage, and found a solution from her bloodline and her soul, but still couldn't solve it.

She fled to the earth's ancestors at any risk, just to find a way to break her * and break her fate of being enslaved.

Human race, longing for freedom, but the descendants of the previous generation, who were captive by the Stars and Hundreds, are they suffering?

"You get up!" Qin Tiange waved his hand gently, and a force helped the other side.

Noah looked at Qin Tiange with a look of anticipation, and said, "My people and other people have passed on a legend for generations, and only someone emperor can rescue the enslaved people."

"Mr. Emperor, can you really save our enslaved people?" Noah looked sullen and anxious.

She wasn't sure if Qin Tiange was the real emperor in front of her, but watching many foreign celebrities call him like this, it was the emperor that he was.

As to whether it is possible to rescue the descendants of the previous generations who had been enslaved in captivity, it is unknown whether Eno came to meet Qin Tiange with his teeth.

"Let me see this slave seal ..." Qin Tiange thought for a moment, and finally decided to take a look at the slave seal.

There was a fire in his heart, not pity, but a kind of anger in his own family. Watching his fellow people being enslaved and captive, as long as he thought that he might also be captive, what was that anger?

Who wants to be captive, and even future generations to be captive, for generations to come, can't get rid of this terrible fate?

Qin Tiange didn't want it, the whole Chinese nation didn't want it.

"This slave seal can be inherited in the same way for future generations?" Qin Tiange frowned, muttering to himself.

He came to Noah, and gently touched the other person's forehead. The mysterious and imprinted mark invaded with willful hints of small golden symbols.

Huh!

A strange ray of light escaped, blocking Qin Tiange's thoughts, being isolated and unable to enter.

"Ah ..." Noah suddenly screamed, falling down in pain, holding her head, her face suddenly twisted, looking extremely painful.

It was a torture of the real spirit. Seeing this, Qin Tiange's face changed slightly, and he grunted coldly, pressing his palm on Noah's forehead mark.

Suddenly, a magnificent golden light poured into her brain to understand the sea, and golden symbols burst into the other's true world.

boom!

The sea was boiling, and endless weird force came in, resisting the true soul of the book, but unfortunately it was defeated one after another, and it was quickly crushed by the golden symbol and retreated to Noah's true spirit.

In the real spirit space, Qin Tiange's idea surfaced, covered with golden symbols, staring coldly at the strange power in front of him, all strange runes entangled in Noah's true spirit.

This kind of power is very weird. It invades the true spirit, as if fused with Noah's true spirit. It cannot be dispelled at all, and once forcibly dispelled, it will detonate the true spirit.

"It's a vicious and evil method, and it is integrated into the true spirit, even into the blood marrow genes, and passed down with the offspring." Qin Tiange murmured with a face.

He saw that the viciousness of this kind of slavery was not only to control the true spirit of slavery, but also to inherit it as the man gave birth to offspring. For generations, he could not escape the power of slavery.

The horrible and vicious slave seals caused Qin Tiange's anger, so wouldn't the entire huge ethnic group be enslaved?

No matter how many generations you have, you will be subjected to terrible slavery, which is an extremely hateful force.

"Supposed to enslave the entire human race, okay, it's very good." Qin Tiange snorted, already knowing what kind of mind people are under this kind of slavery.

This is to enslave captive people, and then continue to give birth. After finally developing into a large group, they will integrate into the people and then merge with the normal people. At that time, the offspring's genes and blood will carry such terrible slaves. Seal.

Once it is not controlled or even eliminated, it is likely that the entire human race will be controlled and enslaved without any freedom.

"People, this imprint is accompanied by the bloodline gene and even into the true spirit. It cannot be removed. Once touched, it will detonate the true spirit."

Noah's true spirit spoke weakly, but she said firmly: "However, Noah is willing to sacrifice her true spirit, so that the emperor can see the mystery of this slave. I only hope that the emperor can come up with Way, rescue me and other countless slaves, Noah died without regret. "

"Wait." Qin Tiange stopped her, and hummed softly: "Square slaves, they just want to control the entire human race, it's too naive."

"You hold back and watch me break it."

After Qin Tiange finished speaking, his face was serious, and a silver gleam flashed in his eyes. For a moment, Noah just felt that his true spirit was still.

Yes, she was frozen at this moment, time was still, and even the power of slavery was instantly stopped.

“Break!” Qin Tiange waved the spirit of a book of ground to the true spirit and broke into Noah’s true spirit.

Just hearing a click, the weird force collapsed, and the force that met the true charm of the soul melted down and collapsed, and could not be stopped at all.

The mystery of the earth book acts on the true spirit, and a multitude of symbols of the true spirit pour into Noah’s true spirit, instantly blocking this strange power entangled in the true spirit.

After doing this, Qin Tiange blinked his eyes, Noah returned to normal, and suddenly found that the terrible power in his true spirit had been eliminated.

“Really, did it?” Noah was stunned and couldn’t believe it was true.

However, the long-lost sense of freedom from the soul consciousness and even the true spirit instinct made her truly appreciate the value of freedom. For a time, she burst into tears.

She cried, so excited that she couldn’t calm down, and even the real spirit had a violent fluctuation.

“Don’t be excited, this power has not been eliminated, but it was temporarily blocked by me.” Qin Tiange’s words awakened Noa.

She was suddenly awakened. Now is not the time to be happy. The emperor’s means can remove this power to enslave her, but it seems to be over.

I saw, Qin Tiange frowned, staring at the weird power wrapped in front of the soul.

“Why strange power, who gave me the vicious imprint of the descendants of the previous generation?” Qin Tiange Han’s face flashed in his heart.

Such beings, who dare to enslave the entire human race, are definitely the enemy of the human race, and they are still enemies and endlessly die.

“No matter who you are, I will definitely destroy you completely.” Qin Tiange murmured secretly in his heart, determined to destroy the master behind this unit of power.

Such a creature cannot be left behind. It is a huge scourge to him and to the entire human race, and it can even be said to be a threat of terror.

“Off!”

Qin Tiange pointed out, the silver brilliance shone, mixed with a black particle, plus the power of the soul’s true charm, the combination of the three directly smashed this strange power.

With a bang, the weird force burst, but the next moment, an extremely weird breath filled out.

“Who is it, dare to destroy the mark of the deity?”

A cold word came out, as if it came from endless time and space, shaking the sea, setting off a stormy sea, and instantly breaking Noah’s soul, the sea of stones However, this power was blocked by Qin Tiange When he stopped, he waved his hands to reveal the true soul soul, suppressing the sea of knowledge that was about to collapse, and protecting Noah’s true spirit.

“I’ll see you tomorrow, I will chop you.”

Qin Tiange uttered this sentence word by word, turning it into a golden symbol and piercing the mysterious and unpredictable breath in front of him.

A loud bang, as if through the endless time and space, there was an angry roar of terror, and was provoked by Qin Tiange’s provocation.

“Presumptuous, dare ...” A voice of anger came, and a terror force trembled through endless time and space.

Humph!

Qin Tiange coldly hummed, directly raised his hand, crushed the strange idea left by the other party, opened it with his mouth, swallowed it, wiped the mark here, and disconnected the horrible energy that poured in. .

In the end, under the action of the powerful and mysterious ground book truth, Noah’s strange power in the real space of consciousness of the sea was destroyed, and the mysterious connection was cut off.

Chapter 688 - One day, the tribe will settle down the ancestral land of the tribe

North Korea wiped out the slave seal in Noah ’s true spirit space, completely released her true spirit, and got free from the other party ’s control.

“The problem of the true spirit has been lifted, but the blood in your body and even the bond marks at the genetic level have not been removed.”

In Zhenling Space, Qin Tiange looked at Noya with a serious look, and said this sentence, which made Noya surprised.

Qin Tiange’s voice changed, and he laughed: “But you don’t have to worry about it. I’ll help you break this slavery and let you be free.”

“Thank you Emperor!”

Noah was full of excitement, and bowed down. There was an indescribable joy in her heart. The joy of regaining freedom and regaining a new life could hardly be expressed in words.

She finally firmly believed that the legend passed down from generation to generation was true, and only the emperor could help them escape from the sea of suffering and regain their new life and freedom.

“Get up, solve the trouble in your body first.” Qin Tiange nodded, accepting thanks from the other side.

However, he was worried that the overbearing means was to immediately deal with the power of the slavery in Noah's genetic blood.

Withdrawing from Noah's true spirit space, Qin Tiange returned to consciousness, opened his eyes, and two beams of horrible light burst out, and the clicking noise stopped the space and time around him.

"Soul is true, break the falsehood!"

Qin Tiange drank, his hands were drawn, the golden symbols beating and intertwining, continually converging in front of him, 999 mysterious symbols rushing in unison, smashed into Noah's body crazy.

Suddenly, a powerful and mysterious force contended, constantly emerging from the level of Noah's genes, resisting the power of this ground book.

It's a pity that the power of the true charm of the earth book is not so confrontational. The power of slavery can't be confronted at all and has been rushed to some corner of the body.

"Broken!" Qin Tiange's eyes shouted, he screamed loudly, and the innocence ran into a riot. The rumbling thundered the defense of that weird force, and wrapped the power out of Noah's body.

The gold flickers, and the true character beats, coils back and forth, enveloping a mysterious and strange power and breath, this power reveals a terrible erosion.

"Hum!" Qin Tiange snorted quietly, watching the force of the slave seal suppressed by the package, and suddenly said, "Slave our people, I hope you can bear the anger of my people."

"Ant, dare you?"

Suddenly, a sentence of anger and drink came out from the strange breath, and time and space were shaking, as if to collapse.

There was a trace of terrible will in that breath, supreme, as if a terrible creature was looking down at Qin Tiange.

Gradually, the strange power of the regiment in front of it changed, and it became a shadowy figure in the eyes of Qin Tiange, Jiji and Noya.

This figure is extremely strange and unpredictable, it is not real, as if there is endless space and time barrier, the breath revealed makes people look up, and the mind is extremely depressed.

"Little cricket ant, how dare to destroy the imprint power of this seat?" The weird figure opened up, and his eyes stared straight at Qin Tiange.

Instead of being timid, he curiously looked at the figure in front of him, gradually showing his slight interest.

“Interesting, it turns out to be a complete idea, able to read the form, and your realm looks very strong.” Qin Tiange’s mouth slightly tilted, instead of being surprised, he was very excited.

Yes, he is very excited. The figure in front of him is the ray of thought that exists behind him.

The existence of this mind-formation is simply indistinguishable, and it is totally a terrifying life form of terror. It is beyond imagination and has incredible power.

But what makes Qin Tiange even more concerned is that this idea contains complete consciousness and memory. Doesn’t it mean that you can get the other party’s memory if you swallow it?

“Which ant, what do you want to do?” The ghost image immediately felt bad.

Looked at by Qin Tiange’s eyes, even if he is as strong as he cannot bear pain, it seems that this ant-like people kind of gives him a bad feeling.

Qin Tiange sneered, he said, “What do you want me to do? Naturally, I have eaten your mind body and captured your memory.”

“Dare you?” The idea body shook, and the arrogant idea slammed into the air, ripples in the void.

With a click, the void around them was frozen, time was still, and everything stopped.

Qin Tiange directly anchored the void around him with the power of time, so he pointed at the position of the eyebrow of that thought body, clicked through it, and broke his thought body.

“Ah ... ants, you wanton ...” The thought body was broken, and a roar of anger was heard, but it could not change the fate of being swallowed.

Qin Tiange faceless, fingered to break the other party’s idea, opened his mouth and swallowed this powerful and strange idea body, crushed the other party’s consciousness with the authenticity of the book on the spot, and began to absorb and digest.

Persecution of the mind, even if it is only a ray, contains horrible energy, so that Qin Tiange’s true spirit is full of meals, the speed of repair is accelerated, and he recovers a little.

“Good thing, unfortunately, it’s a little less.” Qin Tiange devoured the power of the other party’s thoughts, watching his broken true spirit recover a bit, but sighed with regret.

Seeing that he was eating the other person’s thoughts, he still looked dissatisfied, making Noah next to him stunned.

However, it is not strange to be self-conscious, as if accustomed to it, knows Qin Tiange’s habits very well, and does not care at all.

“Master, this power is extremely weird, is it some unknown terrible existence?” Qi Ji asked softly.

The breath emanating from that thought body just now is extremely strange and unpredictable.

At this point she had to be cautious, guessing that the other party must be a terrible and unpredictable living body, and there was a hint of worry on her face.

Qin Tiange laughed: "Don't worry, the existence behind that can't find us for the time being. His thought body is isolated by my time and space, and even the mark here is erased. His thought body cannot escape from nature. There will be no problems. "

"Well, I have expelled the power of slavery in your bloodline genes, and you will be completely free in the future."

Qin Tiange turned his head and said to Noa in a daze next to him, woke her up, then suddenly woke up, and he really got free.

The kind of freedom that day and night are constantly pursuing is finally obtained, but it feels a bit unreal and time is unclear.

"Noah, thank you my lord!"

For a long time, Noah was sober and came to Qin Tiange to pay respectful respect. She was excited inside, her eyes were left with tears of excitement, the kind of freedom that had been pursued countless times, and now she finally realized it.

Her dream, from the moment she was self-conscious, she did not want to be free all the time, but unfortunately she failed so often that she almost gave up and confessed her fate.

But remembering the legend passed down from generation to generation in the clan, only the emperor could give the enslaved clan people a new life and freedom, and that was the idea that supported her.

Qin Tiange waved his hand gently, holding up Noah with a gentle force, and asked, "You get up first, tell me, how many people are you enslaved to?"

Noah stood up, wiped off the tears on her face, and said, "My lord, above the stars, there are a large number of descendants of the Era of the Hundreds, and they are all kept in captivity as slaves."

"As for the specific number, I do n't know. I only know that there are tens of millions of people in the Great Wild Star where I am enslaved. There are also many people who are close to the neighbor. Up people. "

Noah's words made Qin Tiange's eyes cold and cold, and the murder was permeated. I did not expect that so many people were enslaved.

These people were all slaves after the defeat of the human race in the Era. They were kept in captivity for hundreds of generations, and they became slaves of the hundreds of stars.

This alone is enough to make Qin Tiange angry, never thinking that the human race's encounter above the starry sky is so miserable.

How sad and distressed that the powerful human race has fallen into the situation of being a slave of hundreds of captives?

“Master, in this way, at least hundreds of billions of people are enslaved in captivity in the hands of the Hundreds of Stars.” Li Ji looked serious, frightened by his own calculations.

Even this set of data will be even more. Tens of billions of people are held in captivity as slaves. What kind of scene is that it is simply intolerable.

Even if Qin Tiange doesn't want to care about these people's life and death, can you watch these people continue to be enslaved by the starry hundreds?

In that case, what other face of the human race will survive in the universe, and who will face the older generations?

Qin Tiange's expression gradually calmed, looking up at the void, and murmured: “This can't be anxious, we don't have this strength at the moment, take it slowly, and eventually, my people will settle the ancestral land of the hundreds of people and let them pay back Huge blood debt. “

“Noah, willing to follow my emperor and follow the people!” Noah bowed with excitement and vowed to follow Qin Tiange to conquer the stars.

At this moment, her heart is completely hatred. Since she was free, she only recognized Qin Tiange, the emperor Because Qin Tiange broke the layer of  that enslaved her and responded to that. Legends have been passed down from generation to generation that only the emperor could rescue them as slaves.

“Get up first, and want to settle down the ancestral land of the hundreds of people, that requires strong strength, let alone settle down the ancestral place of the hundreds of people, it is difficult to get close.” Qin Tiange said with a smile and let Noya get up.

He immediately said: “At present, the most important thing is to solve the hidden main forces of the hundreds of people on the planet. When these potential threats are eliminated, it is when we build up our strength to break through the dimensional barriers and kill the stars.”

Noah showed a slight hatred on her face, and suddenly said, “My lord, I know the hiding place of a foreign prince, and Noah was enslaved by this family, and her mother died in the hands of this royal prince.”

After hearing Qin Tiange's eyes brightened, he said, “Very well, take me there, just to kill another starry royal family.”

“Yes, my lord!”

Noah was pleasantly surprised, and she immediately turned around and took Qin Tiange to a barren island on the earth, where the main force of the alien family that had already arrived was hidden.

Chapter 689 - UFO Royale, Nothingness

On the deserted island reef in the original Pacific region, three figures quickly landed.

“My lord, here it is.”

Noah pointed at the island and said cautiously, "There is a submarine channel hidden here, straight into a secret place in the deep sea, where the main army of the young people of the Ufu family is hidden, and it is the emperor of the Ufo family.

"Yufu tribe?" Qin Tiange frowned, muttering to himself.

Of course, he knows that the UFO is a large strong family among the hundreds of stars and belongs to the four-dimensional strong family. It is said that this family can enter the five-dimensional large galaxy.

Qin Tiange scanned the eyes of the island reef and saw through the hidden secrets here. The island reef center set up a block to hide an entrance.

This entrance is just a passageway into the undersea secret. It is deeply hidden. It is really hard to find it unless you come here to check it.

"Surely hidden here."

Before coming to the ban, Qin Tiange sneered, regardless of the previous seal, and walked straight in.

boom!

There was a loud noise, the island reef trembled, and the ban was directly broken by him, revealing a dark channel in front.

Inside is an entrance to the bottom of the sea. Stepping into it, Qin Tiange felt countless powerful breaths.

Those breaths are exactly one of the hundreds of stars and sky that quietly landed on the earth this time.

"who?"

As soon as he stepped into the secret realm, Qin Tiange saw a burst of drink from the front, and then several powerful forces bombarded him.

Looking up, the three tyrannical creatures launched an attack directly, attacking him, each with three strange traces of power, Qin Tiange.

"Break!" Qin Tiange was bland, pointing out gently, and the void in front of him collapsed into pieces, and the three energies were swallowed and crushed on the spot.

After breaking the strength of the other party, Qin Tiange looked at the three creatures in front of him in suspense. His face was very human, but his nose had a nostril. Moreover, the hair of these creatures seemed to be transparent, and his body looked even more powerful. An illusory feeling.

The most significant feature of the creatures of the Ufu tribe is that they have three nostrils, and nostrils in between. They can breathe the dark energy of the universe. Although very weak, it is a strange ability, and the weird body is like an illusion. Normal attacks are simply Can't reach each other.

“Human race?” The three Ufu creatures changed their faces slightly and had strong breaths. They were all emperor-level and guarded at the entrance to the mystery.

The three looked at each other, and Qi Qi bombarded them, but without Qin Tiange’s hands, Noah around him shot angrily, and split it.

The sound of booming and powerful palms directly split three emperor-level UFO creatures, killing the three UFO creatures on the spot.

“My lord, there are tens of millions of the main troops of the Ufu tribe. Although they are all young and young, the Ufu prince is terrible and unpredictable.” Noah killed the three. After careful reminder.

Qin Tiange bowed his head and said, “I have sensed that there are no less than ten million Ufu creatures hidden in this broken secret, and there are more than a dozen stars, and it seems that the Ufu comes this time A lot of experts. “

“Master, would you like to assemble the army?” Xi Ji asked cautiously.

Qin Tiange suddenly sneered and said, “It’s too late, it seems that the Umbrella Prince has found us, and my emperor’s immortal guard is just digesting, it is time to eat.”

This remark was shuddering, as Qin Tiange showed that fierceness, Lu Tun killed the powerful of foreign races, and his fierce vigor became stronger.

He now kills foreigners, plundering the strength of many parties directly, and even the true spirit is not let go, he is simply the murderer.

“Here ...” Qin Tiange’s mouth was slightly tilted, his eyes flashed through the fierce path, staring in front of the secret realm, and a powerful breath came.

Sure enough, as the voice just came down, a few empty sounds came from the distance, and dozens of strong horizontal figures appeared together and came to the three of Qin Tiange.

“Human race?” Dozens of powerful breaths, the young man headed by it, is the prince of the Ufu royal family.

When he saw Qin Tiange’s moment, he frowned slightly, then glanced at Noah, his eyes suddenly sharpened.

“It turned out to be you cheap, alas, you betrayed the prince?” The prince Yufu froze, his eyes sending out two horrible cold mans.

Noah, who was a captive of the Ufu tribe, escaped this adventure and landed on the earth’s ancestors at a great cost. She came to seek faint hope.

Now, she has successfully escaped from the slavery of the other party and gained freedom. Now her only wish is to kill all foreign races who enslave her and countless human races.

“My mother’s hatred and clan’s blood debts will make you pay it back.” Noah’s words were clear and bitter.

It is a kind of hatred that cannot be resolved. Only by using the blood and soul of the other side to wash away, can we clearly understand the kind of bitter hatred that was enslaved.

“Xiaoxiaojian, slave, you’re looking for death.” The prince Yu Leng hummed, his eyebrows lightened, and suddenly wanted to destroy Noah’s true spirit directly.

But soon his face changed, because Noah’s true spirit could not be sensed in his consciousness, let alone want to crush her true spirit.

“What’s the matter?” Prince Yufu was surprised.

Noah’s pretty face appeared with taunts, without speaking, standing quietly behind Qin Tiange and point back, as if a guard.

The prince Yufu finally realized what, and said gloomily, “Small, slave, you got rid of the control of slavery?”

“A prince of a royal family, are you so confident that the slave seal cannot be broken?” Qin Tiange’s indifferent voice came, which only aroused the vigilant prince.

At this moment, an old man next to Prince Yufu quietly said: “The Prince is careful, this person is weird, and his body is permeated with an impenetrable fog.”

“Well, it’s just a small humble family. Watch the prince suppress him and enslave him.” Prince Ufu’s face was arrogant and confident.

He didn’t take Qin Tiange’s eyes, that was the inherent pride of being a royal family, thinking that the human race was born into slavery by them.

“Ten stars, old and immortal, it seems that you Yufu Prince is still a bit worse, not even a black hole-level guard?” Qin Tiange glanced at the dozens of Yufu clan opposite him. Person, shaking his head satirically.

In this words, the opposite of the Ufu tribe, Qi Qidun, changed his face slightly, especially the Ufu tribe’s gloomy look and fierce eyes.

Prince Yufu smiled coldly: “Human race boy, you are very arrogant, if you can’t go through the wormhole or enter the interstellar gate, you have the courage to say this?”

“Moreover, even if there is no black hole-level guard, this prince is as easy as killing you and just killing ants.” His words showed strong confidence.

Qin Tiange stepped out, saying: “Sting ants? Actually, the ants are also members of the Starry Hundreds. Do you mean that the strong ants can make you easily die?”

“You ...” Prince Yufu was very angry and snorted coldly: “Let you be arrogant and see this Prince suppress you.”

“dead!”

When an icy word came, he saw the void above his head turned into an illusive giant, and suppressed Qin Tiange severely.

That hand, illusory, looked transparent, with a whisper of unknown, pressed down with horrible and strange power.

“Just this skill?” Qin Tiange chuckled, and his backhand was patted away.

The buzzing sound, the air burst, and the surrounding space constantly trembled, and then an invisible force broke out. After the loud noise, the giant hand broke into the sky.

Looking at the collapsed giant hand, the prince Yufu stared, and finally faced Qin Tiange, the young man who broke in.

“Give yourself up, kill those ten star-powered men, and if you can suppress them, catch them and raise them for blood.”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange uttered a sentence that angered the ten star-rated Ufo clan guards on the opposite side and almost let the other party run away.

“Arrogance!”

Ten powerful breaths erupted, as if the stars exploded, and the terrible power fluctuations poured out, the entire mystery was shattered.

The ten star powerhouses rushed together to kill Qin Tiange, but were blocked by the graceful figure.

“Go back!” Xi Jijiao yelled, waved his fist, hit the ultimate punch, and burst out hundreds of thousands of artificial solar core energy.

Bang!

Suddenly, ten star-rated powerhouses were repelled by their own self and pulled directly into the circle of war. It was impossible to leave.

“Prince, I’ll solve him.” At this time, the old man stepped forward, and was about to kill Qin Tiange, a young man of this ethnic group.

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange ignored him and just ran out of the thing. It was the seal of the emperor, who smashed in front of the old man.

The powerful coercion scared the old man of the Ufo tribe, and waved it instinctively, and was hit by the emperor.

“Impressed Emperor, you are a candidate for Emperor Emperor here.”

Seeing this large seal, the Umbrella Prince looked stunned, and then sneered: “Just because you killed the candidate for the Emperor, this Prince should be able to gain the appreciation of his ancestors and even compete directly with the throne.”

“Come on Void Spirit, put it on me!”

The prince of Yufu growled in the sky, filled with a strange atmosphere, as if the subordinate had become an illusion.

“My lord, be careful!” Noah’s face changed slightly, reminding him, “This is the nihilistic body of the UFO royalty, claiming to have immortal power.”

“Ethereal body, immortal body? Exactly, let me swallow him!” Qin Tiange snorted, stepping away, the words suddenly turned into strange black particles.

“The arrogant people, look at this prince to suppress you and enslave your true spirit.”

The prince of the Ufo drank swiftly, his body turned into the light of the emptiness of the Tao, and the laser beam came instantly, and the surrounding space cracked and cracked.

The two rays of light penetrated quickly, the black particles and the light of nothingness collided with each other in an instant.

boom!

There was a loud noise, the space collapsed, the area of the heart sank, and then turned into a film extinction. Within ten kilometers, it completely turned into a film of nothingness.

Chapter 690 - The power of Pangu, breaking nothing

The two auroras collided.

Click! Click!

The space is cracked, revealing that the cracks are constantly spreading, and the collision heart is turned into a void.

There, the two auroras collided constantly, sending out bursts of noise, accompanied by a thunderous sound, rolling apart, and shocked the secret.

Just listening to the sound of “Boom”, some people flew out, looking embarrassed, and those with a dull complexion would drip water.

“You can hit the vain body of the prince, a bit of skill.” The prince Yufu said in a calm tone, with a slight anger.

Here, Qin Tiange walked up expressionlessly, and his body was intact. He just turned into a space particle with the power of space and fought fiercely with the opponent, but the opponent lost.

“Nothingness, but so, you are too arrogant yourself.” Qin Tiange said as he walked.

After hearing this, Prince Yufu was so angry that he screamed, “It’s arrogant, I will kill you today.”

Immediately after the voice fell, the body of the prince Yufu disappeared, the body of nothingness, nothingness and reality, it was difficult to distinguish, and it was impossible to capture.

But in Qin Tiange’s eyes, there is no secret at all. Even if it is a real body, nothing can hide his eyes full of time.

“Bad delusion!” Yelped, accompanied by two bunches of silver awns passing through, and a crunchy sound came, and the body of the Utopia Prince who turned into an aurora emerged.

His face changed greatly, and as soon as he was beaten, he was severely hit by Qin Tiange, and his fist slammed into his chest.

The thunder and thunder rang loudly, and Prince Yufu’s body shook, his face flushed, and only felt the endless power coming, as if to break his body.

The strength was mysterious, ancient and unknown, and his nimble body shuddered, and even nearly collapsed.

“Damn, what kind of power is this?” Prince Yufu screamed back, struggling to remove the terrible power.

However, what responded to him was Qin Tiange’s violent fist, which came quickly, and the croaking crunch passed out, with broken bones flying and blood water spraying wildly.

Prince Yufu’s nihilism was injured, a blood pit was punched on his chest, his bones were broken, his mouth was bleeding, and he looked extremely miserable.

“Why, isn’t it an undead body that’s supposed to be unharmed? Is it just that?”

Qin Tiange stepped forward, with a sneer on his face, and the words reached the ears of Prince Yufu, which deeply stimulated each other’s inner arrogance.

I saw the prince Yufu not speaking, his body was flooded, and his body scars recovered in the blink of an eye.

“You succeeded in angering the prince,” he murmured, his eyes killing.

He lost his track again, and Qin Tiange snorted, his body turned into black particles and quickly penetrated, and the two auroras collided again.

boom!

The mystery trembled, endless energy waves shattered the space, and the two figures directly entered the storm of the void.

This time, Qin Tiange found that the combat power of Prince Yufu had soared a lot, and that the Vietnam War became stronger, which made him extremely surprised.

“The blade of nothingness!”

The space was turbulent, and there was a sudden loud noise, and then saw that the imaginary sharp blades were born, and they came through Qin Tiange.

Looking at the imaginary sharp blades, Qin Tiange’s face remained unchanged, and he pointed out gently, the space rustled and shattered, and countless sharp space blades shot away.

Uh ...

The sharp blade of space and the blade of nothingness, the two terrible forces constantly intertwine and collide, and both disappear and disappear.

This phenomenon made Prince Yufu's face unbearably changed, and he stunned: "The power of space, it turns out that you have mastered this power, no wonder it is so arrogant."

"However, even if you master the power of space, this prince can kill you."

You Xiao, the prince Li Xiao, exuded a stronger force of nothingness, flashed in an instant, turned into a nothingness storm, and rummaged to death.

Watching the terrible storm of nothingness, the chaos breath was shattered, and the horror breath that strangled all things swept wildly.

"Space storm!" Qin Tiange shouted, his body turned into black particles, where a terrible storm of black paint instantly formed, rumbling loudly to shake the space.

Endless space turbulences converged and turned into a space storm. Two terrible forces hit hard.

Rumble ...

The collision resulted in the trembling of the void, the collapse of the space, the two extreme forces colliding with each other, and the two secret forces of space and nothingness were competing.

At the beginning, the two were evenly divided. However, as time passed, the emptiness storm gradually weakened. Instead, the force of the space storm to absorb the surrounding turbulence became stronger.

In the end, the emptiness storm was shattered by the force of the space storm, and the prince of the Ufo flickered, and was hit by a terrible storm.

boom!

The blood was spilled in the space and the prince Yufu spurted blood and suffered heavy blows. The wounds on his body were cut out by the space.

"I have nothing but immortality. You can't kill me." The prince Yufu looked calm and didn't care about his injury.

I saw the scars of the original horror, and he recovered in an instant, as if he had never been injured.

"Really?" Qin Tiange appeared, looking at each other lightly, sneer: "In my opinion, nothing is unbeatable."

"Then you try it!"

The prince of the Ufo drunk sharply, his figure flashed unreally, and growled, "The power of nothingness, the realm of nothingness, the incarnation of nothingness."

The rumbling sound, a world of nothingness suddenly appeared in front of it, as if all things didn't exist, there was nothing.

The world of nothingness skyrocketed, directly covering Qin Tiange, trapped in the realm of nothingness, and could never come out.

There is nothing but nothingness here. Once people are trapped inside, they will even be assimilated into nothingness.

This mysterious power possessed by Prince Yufu has aroused great interest of Qin Tiange, and is carefully examining this boundless void.

Hahahaha ...

“Enter the realm of the prince’s nothingness. Now, wait for your death.”

Nothingness, echoing loudly with laughter, and then came the words of Prince Yufu, from all sides, without clear direction and location.

Qin Tiange looked immobile, and quietly looked at this realm of nothingness. His eyes were faintly revealing the silvery awns. He saw through the delusion and saw the so-called nothingness.

“Nothingness?” Qin Tiange’s mouth slightly twitched and murmured, “Didn’t you know how to stop me?”

“You are too arrogant. The prince wants to see. How did you break this void of nothingness?”

The words of Prince Ufu came around again, looking very angry, but very confident in his nothingness.

I saw that the voice had just fallen, and there was an inexplicable pressure in the realm of nothingness, which acted on the body and imprisoned the power of the stars in Qin Tiange’s body.

He was surprised to mobilize the power of the stars, but found that only 30% of the power could be mobilized, and the remaining 70 were suppressed.

But Qin Tiange didn’t care, because he found that the chaotic fetal membrane in Dantian was not affected, and the Pangu Kaitian power in each cell of the body was also not affected.

Seeing this, he couldn’t help laughing, and said, “Since you want to see, then I will break your void of nothingness and let you see what is the real power.”

“Arrogant boy, die!”

The prince of the Ufo chuckled, and the power of nothingness surged in, turning into countless sharp blades and shouting toward Qin Tiange.

Facing the dense blades of nothingness, Qin Tiange looked calm, calm and calm, with a simple and desolate breath all over his body.

“Pangu blood!” The voice drank secretly, and Pangu blood in Qin Tiange’s body burned instantly, each cell trembled, and the power of Pangu implied inside was suddenly released.

Suddenly, Qin Tiange’s body continued to expand, turning into a giant giant. Although he could continue to expand, he felt that it was enough.

Thousands of giants emerged, and the endless blade of nothingness came up.

Ding Ding Ding ...

The blade of nothingness struck Qin Tiange's body, but there was a thunderous sound, and he couldn't stop the skin.

Qin Tiange stood there, allowing the blade of nothingness to hit his body, but there were no scars. Instead, he shattered those blades of nothingness.

“Star of nothingness, suppress!”

Suddenly, there was a loud noise from the nothingness, and an endless amount of nothingness gathered. Then a huge star emerged, and Qin Tiange cracked down.

This planet looks like nothingness, but it is real, but it looks like nothingness, a star in the body of Prince Yufu.

“Finally made it?” Seeing this star, Qin Tiange sneered, his eyes pierced through the falsehood, and he saw the prince hiding in the core of the planet.

I saw Qin Tiange's body moving, taking a step forward, and the sound of thunder rose into the sky.

That is the Pangu tribe's power to open the sky, pouring out of every cell in the body, and converging on his fists.

Hum!

Qin Tiange waved his fist, and the four sides of the nothingness shivered, as if nothingness had collapsed. The terrible power belonged to the Pangu tribe's power to open the sky.

The sky can be split Moreover, it's nothing.

“open!”

The sound roared and shook the square, his fists glowed with gray light, and the clicked smash broke the realm of nothingness. The power remained unabated, and he struck the star that had been suppressed.

Listening only to the loud sound of “Boom”, the entire star of nothingness trembled, sunken in his heart, and cracked with a click, and was finally penetrated by Qin Tiange.

boom!

The big star exploded, generating endless energy to sweep through the nothingness, and shattered this nothingness on the spot.

When the star was burst by Qin Tiange, the prince hiding in the star core looked terrified and had no time to escape. He was then smashed by Qin Tiange's fist and seriously injured.

“No ...” Along with the screams of screams, the realm of nothingness collapsed and was blasted by Zun Qianzhang's life, and even the star was broken apart.

The power of Pangu, the fist shattering of nothingness, the power of Kaitian is frightening.
