

Dark Ages 71

Chapter 71 - Thrilling Journey

“Everyone, all killed?” Wu Xinlan looked at him with a horrified expression.

I didn’t expect that this man was so murderous. How did Kun Kun have 50 or 60 people? And, one by one, with guns and ammunition, was killed?

Fei Changping was a little shocked, looking at Qin Tiange’s eyes a little differently, and he was stunned, wouldn’t a group of tigers come to a group of wolves?

“Don’t worry, I won’t do anything to you, but only if you are honest, don’t threaten me and be safe.” Qin Tiange smiled and comforted.

“Of course, we have no threat to you!” Captain Fei Changping sweated and promised with a grin, who dares to threaten you?

Wu Xinlan was quite relieved, and barely squeezed a smile, saying, “I am a weak woman and will not threaten you.”

Qin Tiange didn’t say anything, what about weak women. In the last days, women and children will be forced by the environment to be fierce and dangerous inside. A careless accident is likely to overturn the gutter.

“Ah ... outside?” Wu Xinlan looked away and looked at the front of the train. The next moment she screamed, her eyes widened, it was incredible.

Fei Changping The train captain was equally astonished, looking at the scene in front of the train in shock.

Forest, a virgin forest, towering trees, numerous vines, the train tracks are covered with dense weeds, and some of the tracks are no longer visible, as if the train was in an overgrown ancient primitive jungle. Shocking.

“Where are we, where are we?” The two were dumbfounded and stunned by the sight in front of them.

At this time, the train was walking through the lush weeds, rolling over, and on both sides were towering huge trees, one by one, wrapping the train tracks into a forest avenue.

It looks as if the train passed through a tunnel of trees, huge trees, coiled with thick rattan, and it no longer looks like the earth.

“The world has changed, and these trees have mutated. This is good. It is terrible if some trees have developed consciousness and become refined.” Qin Tiange said with a look of disapproval, very light.

However, this remark scared Wu Xinlan and the train conductor on the side. They didn’t believe each other, but faintly felt that what he said was true.

The last days are here. The world is full of zombies and mutants. It is not impossible for the trees to become fine.

“Look, what’s that?” Suddenly, Wu Xinlan covered her mouth with one hand and her finger in front.

I saw, in the dense forest tunnel, large white nets hanging between the trunks, dozens of meters, hundreds of meters of huge web, how does it feel like a spider web?

Moreover, on these nets, there is really a huge spider standing on top of it, full of fur, eight feet long and huge, two sharp teeth, glowing with black and green poisonous light.

“That is a poisonous spider in the jungle. After mutation, it is more toxic, fierce and cruel, and very dangerous.” Qin Tiange looked a little dignified and stared at the spiders.

That is a mutated spider, a poisonous spider in the jungle. Each one has a length of at least one meter. The whole body is coiled and colorful. It looks extremely gorgeous, but it is very dangerous.

Creak ...

The train passed by, and immediately shocked the countless spiders in the forest, one crawled up and approached quickly. The original train track has been surrounded by crazy trees on both sides, forming a unique and natural jungle tunnel that extends all the way.

Above the jungle tunnel, between the trunks, a huge spider crawled down, as if smelling the smell of food, and immediately went crazy.

“Ah ...” Wu Xinlan exclaimed, and suddenly saw a spider hanging from the trunk in front, dragging a long white wire at the tail, like a rope.

The train rushed over, hitting the spider just hanging down, and its huge body was lying in front of the window of the train’s head. Looking at the huge and scary spider, Wu Xinlan couldn’t help the fear.

Click!

The glass broke and was bitten by the spider. Seeing that it was about to smash the window glass and rush in, Qin Tiange snorted coldly, and stabbed him in the eyes of the spider.

There was a thump, and the glass and the spider were pierced through, and penetrated the head with a knife, pierced its head, and shredded the small brain on the spot. As the steel knife was pulled back, the spider’s body slowly slid off the car.

“So terrible!” Wu Xinlan was pretty pale, hiding behind Qin Tiange in fear, and finally relieved after seeing him kill the spider.

At this moment, some spiders climbed to the roof of the train on the entire train, and the movement caused the vigilance of Moda and others, one by one, and saw those terrible mutant spiders.

“Spider, dear, is that a spider?”

“To die, to die!”

In the carriage, more than two hundred survivors screamed in horror one by one, seeming a little flustered. Fortunately, instead of running around, they were away from the window and lay on the ground in fear.

Only the talents such as Moda were the most calm. One by one set up steel shields, hand-held steel knives, and steel guns. A group of girls raised steel crossbows and were ready to shoot.

boom!

At the top of the carriage, spiders were biting the roof iron, and sharp steel teeth pierced the roof, scaring many people to scream.

“Shoot!” Liu Yan calmly ordered and took the lead in shooting.

The stern steel arrow pierced the iron skin and penetrated the spider on the roof of the car, and was quickly shot and killed by the girls. Along the way, many spiders hung down and landed on the roof of the train, one only started to climb into the carriage.

At this time, Moda and others started to step forward and meet each other to slash these horrifying spiders. With the sword and shield in front, long gun subsidies, and steel crossbow shooting, the cooperation has made them explore a complete set of coordination methods, and it is easy to kill.

Uh ...

The cockpit of the train, Wu Xinlan, who had just been relieved, looked pale, eyes widened, and looked at the front of the train window, and saw a dark sound in the dark jungle. It was dizzying.

Immediately afterwards, in the jungle, countless dark shadows exploded, the densely swirling flying circles swirled, and the sound of flapping wings was deafening.

“Mutant bats will * blood.” Qin Tiange said lightly.

In front of the urn, above the trees, a large black bat, large in size, with a body part of one meter and wings spread out for three meters, is very scary.

These bats are vampire bats that are generated after mutation. They are in groups and very scary.

Because these bats were alarmed by the passing of the train, countless bats roared, and constantly hit the moving train compartment, or the windows and other positions.

Wow!

Some bats broke into the window of the car and rushed in. They grabbed the nearest person on the spot, biting their teeth fiercely, and a red blood surged around their necks.

“Ah ... help, save me ...” That was a man in glasses, in his twenties, who looked very gentle, but he was one of those who scolded the veteran.

Now being bitten by a mutant bat, he immediately screamed in horror and asked for help from people around him, but unfortunately no one came forward to save him ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ Soon, the man was sucked into a dry by a vampire bat That completely ended his life. And the bat let go of the sucked young man, and immediately turned his head, flapping his wings and flying to a woman aside.

But before she continued to  on this woman, she was perforated by a sharp steel arrow hole and fell to the ground, continually struggling and convulsing, and soon died.

“Everyone, gathered in the center, no one is allowed to move, otherwise the sword and arrow have no eyes.”

Moda quickly stepped forward and asked all the survivors to quickly gather in the center to lie on their faces, otherwise the sword and arrow died without their eyes and they would not care about them.

On the train, they were attacked by mutant spiders and mutant bats, causing a lot of casualties, but these were ordinary people. For Moda, these things can not pose a threat, but only one star mutant creature, unless more Advanced.

Soon, the mutant spiders who had previously broken into the compartment were killed, and many mutant bats were killed, but there were still missing mutant bats that caused great casualties.

“Ah ... Yin Yin, run away!”

Suddenly, a panic and scream came from the carriage. Two mutant bats broke in through the window and flew towards the nearest Yin Yin and her young mother.

The young mother was panicked, and Huer rushed up frantically, hugging a mutant bat, screaming in his mouth, and telling her daughter to run, but it was too late.

One of the bats rushed at the little girl Yin Yin, her face was dull, as if terrified.

“Ah ah...”

The little girl suddenly gave out a sharp, scream, full of panic and confusion, looking at the huge bat that rushed up, closing her eyes, and waving her little arms, like a terrified child, slap the mutant bat that rushed up.
