

Dark Ages 721

Chapter 721 - Do n't roll, then die!

A click made a crisp sound and spread across hundreds of ethnic cities.

A thrilling scene appeared, and the black hole was split in half by Jianmang from top to bottom.

The black hole cracked and was split into two halves. The result was still a horrible suction, but it gradually trembled.

"Ah," the hundred-city-city lord screamed suddenly, his body flew out inexplicably, and smashed into the city-lord's house.

A loud bang came, the city's main house collapsed, and the smoke billowed, covering the city's huge body.

The impact of the two Xeon strikes, a sword that breaks the ground, and splits the black hole condensed by the owners of the hundreds of cities.

And a sword drove him out, smashed the city's mansion, and lay there motionless, as if there was no sound.

Around him, there was death-like silence. In the entire city of hundreds of people, countless races of creatures and strongmen were stagnant, watching the huge figure lying in the smoke.

That is their city owner, the invincible, mysterious and unpredictable hundred-city city-owner, who was killed by a young man with a sword?

"hiss"

"I, am I right?"

"Citylord, dead?"

Hundreds of cities were quiet. Many creatures looked at the terrible scene and couldn't help trembling in their hearts.

All the creatures, watching the motionless city lord lying there, cracked a huge sword mark on his chest, flesh opened, and black and red blood flowed.

boom!

For a long time, the city of one hundred ethnic groups took the initiative and reached out to support the huge body, rumbling up.

His face was haggard, his eyes were full of horrific murderous power, and he was staring at Qin Tiange, who stood here with a sword.

"Not dead?" Qin Tiange raised an eyebrow and sneered coldly. "I didn't expect you to take a blow from me. Now that you're next, let me kill you."

"go away!"

Qin Tiange shouted lightly, letting countless creatures in the entire city of hundreds of horrors, looking at his hundred feet body, full of shock.

He actually let the host of the hundred ethnic cities get out of the way, and returned the contempt of the other party just now, which was a kind of counterattack.

“You’re looking for death!” Hundreds of cities lived in anger, and as the grand master of a city, when was trampled on like this?

Qin Tiange snorted, his eyes were cold and cold, and he said, “You took my sword, now you can roll away.”

“Don’t roll, do you want to die?” Then, Qin Tiange stepped towards the owner of the city of one hundred ethnic groups.

The two were facing each other far away, their huge bodies were full of oppression, the breath collided, and a burst of horror bursts were heard in the air.

The lords of the hundreds of cities were angry and heartfelt, their faces were haggard, and the black and red magic horns exuded the sound of haggards.

On him, there was still a sword mark just now, and the marks of the heavens eroded his wound and could not heal.

“Human boy, you hurt the owner of this city. Today, don’t you want to walk out of the hundred city.”

The lord of the hundreds of cities was very angry, especially when he was chopped up with a sword, and his face couldn’t get through. He even trampled on Qin Tiange’s words and let him get away. This is the strongest shame.

“If you don’t roll, then leave your life behind.” Qin Tiange went expressionless and walked step by step with the ancient sword, his breath became more and more terrifying.

Bang bang

Step by step, he stepped on the ground and shook his feet. His body was 100 feet tall, and he was surrounded by a mist of mist.

As he approached, the lord of the hundreds of ethnic cities roared loudly: “Ah, this city, you mainly dig your heart, draw your bones, make your skin into a monument, imprint it into words, and warn your people.”

Listening to his roar, Qin Tiange’s face became colder and colder, and the murderous condensation in his eyes almost turned into substance.

The words of a hundred people living in the city have already announced his fate, that is, no matter what, he cannot live today.

“Then look, who’s pumping the bones!” Qin Tiange screamed angrily, waved the ancient sword, kicked it up, and lifted the ancient sword to the other side.

At this moment, the two Xeon collided again, and this time it is no longer a simple competition, but a life-and-death fight.

Just now, the city of hundreds of people humiliated Qin Tiange and let him get away. Now Qin Tiange has also humiliated and hit back at the other side. The two have already been dead to each other.

“kill!”

Hundreds of cities lived in Xiao Xiao, arms stretched out, and a black hole was condensed on each palm, which was a black hole.

He condensed two black holes again, killing them one by one with one hand, and banging in front of Qin Tiange with a strong suction covering.

Huh!

Qin Tiange lifted his sword and slashed, the two of them struck each other, and the powerful forces made each other back out.

With his feet on the ground, Qin Tiange Han kicked his face with a loud bang, and a sunken pit appeared on the ground.

“Swallow the heavens and swallow the earth!” The lord of the Baizu city roared, waving the black hole with both hands, rolled up the octagonal material and sucked into the black hole to devour.

Qin Tiange himself waved the ancient sword, and the power of Pangu merged the power of the chaotic membrane, and the two merged into the ancient sword.

Hum!

The ancient swords quarreled, and a surge of skyward sword erupted, more intense than before, as if he had not exhausted all his power with the previous sword.

“Breaking new ground!”

With a dark drink, as Qin Tiange lifted the ancient sword slowly to split, the nothingness in front clicked and cracked, and a huge trace was unfolded.

The sky was split, and the ground cracked a huge crack on its own, and it continued to expand. The scene was extremely scary.

The sword fell slowly, and the city of Baizu felt the threat of death. Li Xiao combined his two palms into one and turned it into a super black hole.

哐 Dang!

The two collided again, and nothingness collapsed. Thirty miles in the center of the city turned into a dust and was swallowed up.

No matter who they are, as long as they are within thirty miles of each other's battle, they are instantly broken into powder and disappeared.

The huge force of destruction caused a devastating effect, which directly engulfed the city's main mansion of a hundred ethnic cities, where it became completely dead.

“Ahhh!”

A roar came from the center of the fierce battle, and then there was a loud noise. As the energy collapsed, the smoke and dust disappeared, revealing the scene there.

I saw, Baizucheng lived on half-kneeling, covering his neck with one hand, supporting the ground with one hand, his face was furious, with a touch of fear.

He was almost slain by a sword just now. If it wasn't strong enough, or even dodged in time, he might have died.

Even so, he was still severely traumatized, kneeling there, blood dripping from his neck.

“Damn, who the * are you?” Hundreds of cities lived roaring, his voice seemed a little husky, his neck was cut open, and his speech was a bit difficult.

The most terrible thing is that the mysterious power is attached to the sword mark, which is difficult to eliminate and recover. You can only watch the wound eroded and cannot be repaired.

“Dead, don't need to know who I am.”

Qin Tiange walked step by step, his feet were bent, and a bang suddenly leaped, and the man jumped thirty feet high, slamming his arm with a fist from top to bottom.

“No,” a hundred people lived a stern roar, trying to dodge resistance, but unfortunately he couldn't do it.

His eyes widened, and he watched Qin Tiange hit his head with a punch.

Chapter 722 - Starting today, I will take charge of the 0-city

With a bang, the hundreds of cities shook, and within a hundred miles, a terrible vibration was heard.

I saw that the location of the city's main palace was soaring into the sky, the waves were rolling, sweeping over thirty miles, and the powerful breath shocked many hundreds of cities.

They looked up, and a large figure slowly stood up in the smoke and stood quietly in the smoke.

When the dust cleared, the scene there was exposed, and all the creatures took a breath of air.

“His hiss is terrible!” Zi Ling shook her face, her body shivering, her eyes widened, and she looked at the proud Qin Tiange in the dust.

At his feet, a huge corpse lay there, his head was completely broken, half of his body was trapped in the mud pit, and the blood continued to gush into a pool of blood.

The tyrannical city of the hundred lives, died, was smashed in the head with a punch, and died on the spot.

Seeing this scene, there was a quiet place in the entire hundred ethnic cities. No one dared to speak, and even breathed away.

Grunt!

For a long time, a living creature swallowed, and said in a horror: "Citylord, dead, black hole-class strongman, was he killed like this?"

They had to be shocked, they saw the powerful and mysterious city lords of hundreds of ethnic groups, and they were killed by Qin Tiange.

"I said, if you let you go, you don't, then you will die." Qin Tiange said indifferently, swallowing with a mouthful of Gu Long.

It's not enough to kill the hundred city masters, but they swallowed directly. The scene can be as cruel as it is cruel, and it scares the lives of all ethnic groups.

Watching the lord's body be devoured into a dry corpse, which gradually turned into ashes, and finally, a residual spirit shot up.

"Want to run?" Qin Tiange sneered, reaching out and grabbing the remnant.

That was the remnant of the city owner. He was hiding at a critical moment just now, but now he wanted to escape, but he was wrong.

"Don't you dare swallow me, the strong of my tribe won't let you go." The lord spirit of that city snarled, struggling but couldn't escape Qin Tiange's palm.

I saw, Qin Tiange pinched the city's residual spirit, opened his mouth and stuffed it in, and chewed and ate it.

Fear, all races were terrified. Looking at the ferocious and abnormal Qin Tiange, he had never seen such a brutal human race.

In the past, hundreds of people swallowed human races, and human races have always been a state of ceremonies, and rarely did such cruel things.

Killing the souls of various ethnic groups has rarely been directly devoured. It is the first time that a person like Qin Tiange has seen it, and even the other true spirit is not let go. It is even more brutal than the fierce gods of other ethnic groups.

"You Ye Clan, You Fu Clan, turned out to be two close races." After swallowing the remnant, Qin Tiange muttered to himself, sneering.

He turned around, sweeping his eyes sharply across all sides of the hundreds of ethnic cities, and countless creatures were afraid of them, avoiding them all, and dare not look at them.

Deterrence, powerful deterrence permeated, and no one in the entire city of hundreds of people dared to look at each other, not even dare to stand up.

Up and down the city, the creatures of all ethnic groups did not say a word, bowed their heads to silence, their bodies shivered, and Qin Tiange was shocked inside, and the soul couldn't help trembling.

The scene of devouring flesh and blood and willing to eat the true spirit is deeply imprinted in the minds of the living beings of all ethnic groups and cannot be forgotten.

“Too, so cruel, Terran, when did you become so cruel?” There was a powerful creature embarrassed, curled up in the corner of the house, and dare not come out.

Seeing Qin Tiange so cruel, how can he not be afraid? Not to mention that they are the creatures of all ethnic groups, that is, Ziling, a Ziling tribe who is a human ally, feels chills.

She looked at Qin Tiange with a complex expression, and sighed in her heart: “Human race, perhaps forced by a hundred races to the limit, can no longer bear it, and began to show the * fangs belonging to the human race.”

Boom!

Suddenly, a shock spread throughout the city, causing the spirits of all ethnic groups in the city to jump and look up.

I saw Qin Tiange stumbling on the ground, sending a terrible shock, and his eyes swept coldly and ruthlessly.

He said one word at a time: “My people have always been a nation of etiquette, but anyone who bullies my people will give back his teeth.”

Hum!

Speaking of it, Qin Tiange reached out his hand and grabbed the void. Endless dust gathered, and flashes of light filled the air, continually gathering on his palm.

Gradually, countless rocks and dirt gathered, and even the fragmented fragments of the city’s main government gathered, and in a blink of an eye he was compressed and condensed into a simple stele.

As soon as he heard it, the stele appeared in the palm of his hand, and gradually became huge. A huge stele up to thirty feet appeared in Qin Tiange’s hand.

“Ning!”

Qin Tiange drank coldly, waving his fingers constantly, engraving something on the stele, a little bit of blood penetrated the stele and turned into a shocking killing.

Along with a gurgling voice, there was a sorrowful sky, turning into a horrific killing, imprinted with immortal faith in it.

Each piece of simple text was branded, revealing a * light, revealing the sky’s war will and killing the sky.

Boom!

With Qin Tiange abandoning the stone monument, Qi Long stood in front of the gate of the Baizu City, towering 30 feet high, exuding a mighty assault.

On the stele are engraved words of horror, showing killings and indomitableness.

“Those who commit my tribe will be beaten!”

He screamed and shook all directions, and the horrific killings shocked all ethnic groups in the city of one hundred people, some of them were paralyzed and scared.

On the stone tablet, the words “Those who commit my tribe are strong, will die!”

This is how Qin Tiange broke into the hundred-city city all the way, powerfully bombarded the hundred-city city owners, and then cast a strong dignity belonging to the human race.

Dignity is something that needs to be killed. Fighting among hundreds of nations and fighting among nations does not rely on etiquette, but on tough means of killing.

Only by killing the horrors of the hundreds and the fears of the tens of thousands can they stand forever in the forest of the universe and survive tenaciously.

Qin Tiange's eyes were clear, and he swept across the hundred-city cities, saying, “The people of the hundred-city cities have invaded my people, and now they are fuxi. From now on, the people of the hundred cities will be the people.

“Whoever disagrees can come up!”

The faint words spread throughout the hundreds of ethnic cities, and the powerful men of all ethnic groups changed color and became wild and angry, but they were helpless.

No matter how dissatisfied, uncomfortable, or even angry, they couldn't change Qin Tiange's strong entry into the Hundred Cities.

Killing in all the way, the streets were covered with the corpses of various ethnic groups. In the end, they were killed by hundreds of city masters, swallowed the true spirit, and made him so famous.

Who dares to jump out against it? Who dares to jump out and disagree?

“All the living beings of all ethnic groups living in the city, except for my tribal allies, other ethnic groups, all pay double the tax.”

A word came again, the whole city was boiling, countless creatures and strong men of various races were angry, and finally a powerful creature couldn't help jumping out.

“Jack, you're robbing, do you think you can escape?”

A powerful creature jumped out, angrily accused Qin Tiange, and was extremely furious. He almost rushed up But as soon as his words fell, he saw a gray hand over his head, Five fingers spread out, and a thump shot.

“what”

A scream came, and then it was completely extinguished. The creature that jumped out was directly pressed to death with a single palm, the flesh was blurred, and the dead could not die.

Seeing this, the strong men of all ethnic groups in the hundred ethnic towns were frightened, dared to anger and not to speak, and no one dared to jump out.

Qin Tiange, a strong entry into the hundred ethnic cities, raised the taxes of all ethnic groups. Except for the ethnic groups that belong to the human race, all other ethnic groups had to pay double.

And what is the tax? Naturally, it is the quenching body fluid. Originally, every living being had to turn in a pound of quenching body fluid for one month. Now it has doubled to pay two pounds.

“In three days, I built a brand-new city main mansion, and it failed to be built after the expiry date. In the city, residents of all ethnic groups fined three pounds of quenched body fluid.”

Then, Qin Tiange once again said a word, spreading across the hundreds of ethnic cities, and suddenly made all ethnic groups dumbfounded and aggressive.

Chapter 723 - 100,000 pounds of precious liquid, quenching Pangu body

The city of a hundred ethnic groups changed, and the original city owner was beaten in by a young ethnic group and killed him.

At present, Qin Tiange is in charge of the Baizu City, and he should have become the owner of the Baizu City.

In addition, in just three days, the city hall of the hundred ethnic groups has built a grand and magnificent city main house with a height of two hundred feet.

This is a huge city main mansion built by the residents of all ethnic groups in the entire hundred ethnic cities, as well as the powerful people of all ethnic groups.

Qin Tiange said at that time that a brand-new city main house was built in three days, and the hundreds of people living in each city could not be punished with three pounds of quenching body fluid.

This time the frypot is out, and some races have run away, but most of them still form this magnificent city main house.

Even Ziling was stunned, and never thought about it. Qin Tiange's words made the people of all races and the strong in the city horrified.

“Qin, Lord of Qin City”

In the city's main house, Ziling seemed somewhat restrained and could not let go. After witnessing Qin Tiange's war, she actually had a kind of awe in her heart.

Qin Tiange looked at her like this and laughed: “You still call my name or call me Brother Qin.”

“This, okay, Brother Qin, you are so good that you can't even say that the strong men of all races in the hundreds of ethnic cities dare to say a word, and even kill the original city masters.” Ziling said, restoring her nature, and said excitedly. .

She is really excited, because Qin Tiange's arrival directly equals a strong occupation of a city.

The area where the Baizu City is located is extremely chaotic. Many cities, large and small, gather a lot of chaos. In fact, the Baizu City is just one.

Few strong men of all races here are really willing to manage this chaotic land, but Qin Tiange directly killed a city owner and occupied the city.

Now, he has the final say in the entire city of hundreds of ethnic groups. According to the review just now, there are more than 300,000 people of all ethnic groups in the entire city.

This is a huge amount of data. Once each person pays two pounds of quenching body fluid each month, it will be 600,000 pounds.

Zi Lingguang was very excited when he thought about it. Such a gain is too great. I really can't imagine how Qin Tiange would kill the city owner as soon as he came.

In fact, it can only be said that this hundred-city city has done too much. Erecting a stone monument at the gate of the city and sealing many people's grievances has angered Qin Tiange.

In the end, he rushed in and slaughtered the owner.

"Well, you hold these hardened treasure liquid, it is my investment to you, in the future, I may need your help." Qin Tiange opened the door and sent a storage magic to Ziling.

He made it very clear that this is an investment. In the future, perhaps he really needs the help of foreign ally such as Ziling.

When you open your door to see the mountain, you can gain the trust of your allies, just like Ziling. After thinking about it, you finally grit your teeth and accept it.

"Well, as long as you use me, I won't let the allies down." Ziling solemnly promised.

Allies must have enough trust to exist. Qin Tiange gave his own benefit, which is equivalent to tying Ziling to the chariot.

In the future, no matter where Qin Tiange fights, Ziling will not be able to refuse or even ignore it.

"Then I'll go back first, I need to go back and say to the elders in the clan, by the way, send some strong people of my clan to station here." Zi Ling left, carrying the heavy gift Qin Tiange gave back to her In the tribe.

Watching her leave, Qin Tiange smiled and murmured: "The place of exile, the place of chaos, the starry sky and the universe, all human races need allies, human races, and they cannot fight alone."

He can see very clearly that the human race cannot fight alone. If the human race alone faces the starry hundreds of powerful enemies, or even the universe, it is a joke that even the most powerful races will be destroyed.

Harmony is the best way to survive among the hundreds of stars and even the universe, and we must learn to draw alliances to help our families share the pressure.

"Well, this city owner is really rich. He has 100,000 kilograms of quenching body fluid and thousands of pounds of magical treasures. This guy has a wealthy family." Qin Tiange soon showed a hint of interest.

He looked at the bottom of the killed city owner's house. There was even 150,000 jins of ordinary hardened body fluid. He had previously brought back 50,000 jins of Ziling. This was a message to the seniors of the Ziling clan. Take charge and come to cooperate if you want benefits.

The sweetness benefits were given. As for not coming, Qin Tiange didn't care, and all came with joy. If he didn't come, then don't want to set foot on his warship again.

Chances are often only once.

Grumlong

In the city's main house, a slight shock came. Qin Tiange swallowed up the body fluid, which was one hundred thousand catties, which was enough for him to train Pangu's body.

There is even a thousand pounds of more advanced demon treasure medicine, this thing is the most punctual treasure medicine, extremely precious.

The body of Pangu needs to be tempered and become stronger. Here, the body is the foundation of everything, because once it is used, it will completely dissipate and cannot be maintained and restored.

Qin Tiange must be careful not to use it, otherwise he may regret it if something goes wrong.

Since all the races in this place of exile rely on their strong flesh, then come on and see if the strength of each race is strong, or is his pangu strong?

boom!

Qin Tiange's body trembled. Inside his body, a powerful treasure fluid boiled. Outside the body, the numerous treasure fluids that were sucked up poured into the body, and was absorbed by the flesh and muscles a little, and became stronger.

This quenched body fluid is very magical and has a mysterious power that can constantly strengthen the body. This is its mystery.

After absorbing these quenching body fluids, Qin Tiange found that his Pangu body became heavier and stronger, although it was slow, but it was a good phenomenon.

Because here, he found that he could not go back, could not enter the Pangu forbidden area, and was isolated from the place of exile.

In this case, if you want to enhance the Pangu body to become stronger, you must use the unique material here to train.

"It works, it's good, it seems I'm good to be here." Qin Tiange felt his body was getting stronger, and a smile appeared on his face.

There was a little worry in his heart, and he began to train the body with all his heart. The strength of the Pangu body was beyond imagination, and it was extremely difficult to train and improve.

One hundred thousand pounds of quenching precious liquid was quickly absorbed by him, but the effect of ordinary quenching precious liquid disappeared.

And his body has only improved by 20%, which is 20% stronger than before, and he has rarely seen it, but it is already very scary.

"Ordinary quenching body fluid is invalid. It seems that what I am looking for is the stronger magic fluid." Qin Tiange opened his eyes, frowned slightly, and then opened his mouth to swallow the magic fluid. One thousand pounds, plus Swallow the ten pounds you got before you got there.

Huh!

After swallowing the demon treasure medicine, Qin Tiange's body turned red, as if a terrible flame was burning inside his body.

The powerful heat wave rolled away, making his body look like a horrifying sun, and constantly emitting horrible heat.

“Good energy, magic demon medicine. It seems that I'm going to see what those so-called demon creatures are.”

Qin Tiange looked uplifted, watching his body become even more arrogant, and the simple atmosphere gradually became rich, as if a body that had become stronger after countless years.

This made him even more curious about the so-called demon creatures. What kind of creatures have such mysterious and powerful physical effects?

Chapter 724 - Devouring phalanx, casting immortality

Qin Tiange's body became stronger after absorbing the devil's treasure medicine, but he was still a little dissatisfied because the danger of hiding was everywhere.

Don't look at him killing a hundred-city city master, in fact, he is not a strong one, and most of them are medium creatures.

If you want to face those powerful beings who have been exiled here for countless years, you must have a stronger body and strength.

Huh!

I saw, Qin Tiange took out a pair of skeletons, the whole body is black and purple, which was obtained by a * bone creature that had been killed before. This pair of immortal bones has gone through eighteen births.

In other words, this pair of bones has undergone eighteen cycles of life and death, becoming extremely tyrannical, with a hint of immortality.

“The * bone family is really strange, and can even give birth to new spiritual wisdom from the bones.” Qin Tiange curiously looked at the pair of bones.

Soon, he directly refined the huge energy contained in the bones. In fact, this creature could not really mobilize the energy in the immortal bone before.

That is the energy accumulated after the eighteenth birth. Once it is in full control, it will become more terrible. Unfortunately, it is killed.

Huh!

Qi Qin Tiange pierced the heart of the bone with one hand and swallowed it. The powerful suction wanted to absorb the internal energy and immortal force of this skeleton.

But soon he was surprised to find out that it could not be absorbed, yes, the hidden power in the bone could not be absorbed.

“I don't believe it anymore.” Qin Tiange snorted coldly, his whole body boiled with blood, and a cloud of gray chaos enveloped the immortal bones.

Suddenly, the sound came, and the sound of crisp golden iron clashes came out, immortal bones resisting themselves.

Chaos flames ignite and directly burn this pair of bones, refining a huge amount of hidden energy inside.

First of all, hands, let Qin Tiange wash the bone marrow in his hands after cracking, that is the spiritual pulp, the immortal pulp, is the source of true strength.

Powerful pith energy flowed into the body and merged into his own bones. Qin Tiange found that his already powerful bones were growing at a rapid rate.

It's always the best way to gnaw the living beings to strengthen themselves. This is the reason for Qin Tiange's brutality. His Pangu blood needs too much energy.

Inside the maggot, the bones are constantly vibrating, and the sound of maggots is heard, absorbing the power of the powerful spirit, strengthening itself and becoming stronger.

Finally, when the two immortal bones were absorbed, Qin Tiange's arms and bones became transparent and gradually became cloudy.

The bone marrow is boiling, and a gray force is pouring out, constantly transforming all the bones of the body, becoming more and more simple.

He is casting an immortal bone. He wants to make his own bone into an immortal bone, even if the flesh is broken, it is still immortal.

Click ...

The two unbroken bones of the hand were broken and turned into powder to dissipate. The pith was completely absorbed and completely dissipated.

Immediately afterwards, the immortal bone disappeared little by little, and the hidden infinite energy in it was devoured by his brain.

At the end, the whole immortal bone was completely broken into powder, and the energy inside was completely absorbed, and even the trace of immortality was absorbed and devoured.

Buzz!

At first glance, Qin Tiange's body uttered a strange buzzing sound, and there was a continuous burst of clamor in the bones.

At some point, reached its zenith, completely cast, and became more and more simple and powerful, as if immortal.

Now, Qin Tiange dares to say that if he lived in the previous hundred-city city, he could easily smash the black holes condensed by the other party without inducing the power of the chaotic membrane.

“Not enough, not strong enough!”

Qi Qin Tiange opened his eyes, but flashed a definite determination, feeling that this was not strong enough, and he could become a little stronger.

But now that everything is absorbed, how can I become stronger? Qin Tiange looked at the mysterious finger bones inside the chaotic membrane.

This thing can be countless times stronger than the bones just now. This is where his eyes are. Once this mysterious finger bone is absorbed and devoured, his bones will inevitably be transformed.

“Chaotic fetal membranes have been metamorphosed for a long time. It is better to swallow this phalanx, and first quench my body bones to a stronger level.” Qin Tiange muttered to himself, and finally made a decision.

He forcibly sucked and devoured the phalanx and broken phalanx directly from the chaotic membrane, and the energy and immortality contained in it were even more amazing.

A small section of finger bones seemed to contain endless energy, burning blue flames, but he couldn't hurt him.

With the help of the chaotic membrane, Qin Tiange soon learned one of the divine powers.

Boom!

As soon as the maggot was absorbed into the body, Qin Tiange's complexion changed slightly. He felt that his body was about to explode, and his bones were lumpy and glowing.

Devoured, Qin Tiange began to devour insanely, bluntly refining this terrible divine energy to absorb and improve the already strong bones and flesh.

What 's even more crazy is that Qin Tiange directly crushed this phalanx with chaotic fetal membranes, extracted all the mysterious energy inside, and swallowed directly into the body.

Clicking ...

The body broke and the bones trembled and buzzed. It seemed as if it could not withstand this force. It was too powerful.

However, Pangu's blood burned and turned into a chaos flame, which continued to quench and devour, and then tempered and devoured, and finally gradually supported it.

A piece of mysterious finger bones, containing the mysterious power is extremely magnificent, Qin Tiange swallowed up as if endless.

At this moment, he really felt the power of Pangu's body, and it was growing at a rate that was visible to the naked eye.

Power surged, flesh and blood became more and more powerful, and bone density became stronger, as if after numerous crushing and crushing, and then crushing and compression, became heavy and unmatched.

Qi Qin Tiange was surprised to find that his body weight and mass were growing rapidly, as if a star collapsed and its mass became stronger.

Pupae swallowed faster and faster, Pangu's body was transformed, bones were transformed, and Pangu's blood was transformed, resulting in a terrible scene.

With a loud bang, the ground was crushed, and Qin Tiange's body weight was unbearable.

I heard only a muffled sound, and the air was crushed and broken by an inexplicable breath. Qin Tiange stood there quietly, feeling the strange transformation brought by his body.

This time, he swallowed the mysterious skeleton, and did not promote it. He completely poured out to temper Pangu's body, and finally obtained an unimaginable transformation.

Qi Qin Tiange felt that each cell was as heavy as a star, and it was full of ancient majestic energy, which was the power of Pangu.

Huh!

Slightly moved The ground couldn't help trembling, the city's capital shook steadily, which attracted the attention of many people of all races, all of them showing fright.

I saw that Qin Tiange stepped out of the city's main house step by step and walked in the air. Although he only walked in the air ten meters high, it was already scary.

“Oh my God, walk in the air, did he break the limit of the place of exile?”

Some were screaming in horror, watching Qin Tiange stepping out of the air, even breaking the taboo of exile in flight.

The exile land has terrible imprisonment power and cannot fly. Unless you can break through this power, you can walk in the air with physical force.

Now, Qin Tiange has done it. After the physical transformation is completed, it seems to be different. I feel that the impact of the mysterious pressure has become smaller.

“Is that if you want to play the place of exile, you must be strong enough to break free of the mysterious force here?”

Qin Tiange stepped into the void, looking up at the dark sky above his head, flashing such thoughts in his heart.

He can now break to the extent that he could not travel in the air, but he can only walk freely at a height of ten meters, but he cannot do it upwards.

“Huh?” Suddenly, Qin Tiange turned his head, staring at the darkness in front, and patted it with a backhand.

With a loud noise, the black curtain spread, revealing a secret and terrible atmosphere inside, gradually revealed.

“Who is watching, get out!”

Qin Tiange sighed, rushed into the air, and waved his fist and punched him up. The strong fist shattered the sky of the void and rumbled apart.

Chapter 725 - 1 old man, strong enemy

boom!

The void exploded, and the black curtain slowly spread, revealing the hidden figure inside, which was an old creature.

He looks like a twilight old man, with a gray beard, sunken eyes, and heavy eyes in the muddy eyes.

The most terrible thing is that this old man's body is like a black hole, constantly engulfing the surroundings, as if even the light was captured and absorbed.

The area he was in was completely dark, and as he walked step by step, the void shuddered wherever he passed.

“You, the young human race that killed me?”

The old man spoke, and a hoarse and low word came out, which made people feel depressed, and the real spirit couldn't help shaking.

The old creatures give endless terror!

Qin Tiange frowned slightly, looking at the old man, feeling dangerous, a terrible creature.

“I killed, how are you going?” Qin Tiange shouldered his hand and looked at the old horror in front of him quietly.

I was a strong enemy. I didn't expect to come so fast. It didn't take long to kill the Baizu City, and the other party came.

Qi Qin Tiange had expected that the killing of this hundred-city city owner would definitely lead to a stronger existence behind him, and it really came.

“The old man doesn't bully you, kneel down, and go to the clan with the old man to ask your elders to discuss.” The old creature said indifferently.

As soon as this word came out, many souls in the hundreds of ethnic cities were excited and almost cheered.

“It is the orderer of the chaotic capital. Maintaining the order and honor of the chaotic capital, this tribe is dead.” Someone said in surprise the origin of the old man.

It turned out that he was the orderer in the chaotic capital, and he was dedicated to maintaining the order in the cities in the chaotic land. To put it plainly, he was a thug.

“This tribe is over, do you think he's okay?”

“Orderer, quickly take him away, killing and killing the prestige of the human race is too arrogant.”

In Wucheng, all the strong men of various ethnic groups who had been unhappy with Qin Tiange had been excitedly speaking, and they looked very excited.

However, Qin Tiange's next sentence made their faces froze.

“Those who talked just now turned in three catties of magic demon treasure. If they didn't, they would use their lives to make up for it.”

In a word, he spit it out from Qin Tiange's mouth and spread it all over the city. Everyone's face was stiff and dead.

Quiet!

This remark was so amazing. Qin Tiange didn't seem to put the old man in his eyes at all, and directly addressed the strong men of various ethnic groups who just dared to jump out. He all turned in three pounds of magic liquid. If there wasn't one, he didn't turn in a ray Compensate by your life.

A word full of blood and horror made the strong men of all ethnic groups in the city horrified, afraid to speak, but extremely angry.

“Boy, haven't you heard the old man's words?” The old man's eyes flashed, his light shone, and he stared at Qin Tiange.

He was so angry that this ethnic young man ignored him and could not be forgiven. He wanted to take the elders to his elders for extortion. Now it seems that he should give him some lessons.

Qi Qin Tiange looked up and said indifferently: “You just peeped at my secret and gave you ten thousand pounds of demon treasure medicine. I can ignore it and spare you a life.”

“Arrogant! Do you know what you are talking about?”

The old man was furious, his breath was boiling, and his powerful devouring force unfolded, as if a black hole was angry and devouring all beings.

The savage qi emitted from his body was enough to freeze people's hearts, so that many hundred races were back in terror and afraid to approach.

“Let the old man break you, and then take you to see your elders.” The old man moved and stepped forward.

“Old things, shame your face. In this case, then you will leave your life.” Qin Tiange drank coldly, and suddenly rose into the air.

The two figures approached quickly, each punched a punch, and the bangs slammed together. At that moment, hundreds of cities shook, and many creatures flew out on the spot.

Ten meters away from the void, Qin Tiange's body was haggard, glowing with radiance, and the power of terror erupted above his fists.

boom!

When the two of them retreated, they stepped on the void three steps before they stopped. Qin Tiange was surprised and looked at the old man opposite.

The other person looked surprised, stared at him, and hummed: “No wonder you are so arrogant. It turned out that you were physically in this situation. Tell me the elder behind you, and I may let you once.

When he heard this, Qin Tiange chuckled: “Old man, if you open your mouth and ask me to kneel, please drop down. Are you my bones soft?”

Boom!

As soon as the chanting voice fell, Qin Tiange blasted out with a punch, and the void shuddered, and the powerful punch swept past, shaking the old man's clothes and hunting apart, revealing the dry body.

His hollow eyes widened, and his whole body burst into anger, with a loud bang, his originally thin body swelled and turned into a strong middle-aged man.

Babble ...

Twisting around his body, the arcs of coils coiled, and the bulging muscles were full of explosion, as if filled with the power to destroy the world.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange squinted his eyes and looked at the old man who had become young and sturdy on the opposite side. He was secretly alert and his sense of crisis was stronger.

“Boy, you can die!” The restored young man smiled coldly, and patted it with one step.

His body is very strong, with the power of 凜冽, bombarded in front of him, as if it were not a hand, but a sky.

哐 Dang!

With a punch and a punch, Qin Tiange only felt the endless power flowing from his opponent's hand, and was instantly shaken by dozens of meters.

He stomped his foot in the void with a bang, his body suddenly blasted away, strong wind pressure rolled over, his fists broke, and he banged in the door of the old man.

boom! Bang bang bang ...

The two were extremely fast, the figures flashed and staggered, the collisions continued, the fists hit each other, and they hit each other's bodies, making a thunderous noise.

Qi Qin Tiange punched him, hit the flesh and fluttered in the middle of the old man's face, but he was smashed into the forehead by the old man, flesh and blood flew.

“kill!”

Anger came, the two strong men slaughtered, the fists went to flesh, and the  fighting began in the air ten meters high, rolling the parties, the smoke was billowing.

Suddenly, with a loud bang, the old man was chopped down by Qin Tiange's palm and smashed into the ground, smashing a house.

“Miscellaneous account!” The old man rushed in rage, gathering black light, as if a black hole devoured everything.

He is unmatched and powerful, with frightening power on his fists, shivering in emptiness and shivering on the ground.

A slap of palm wind swept, and a bang, a house in the city collapsed into powder, and several creatures who were too late to dodge were all shaken.

“Open the sky!”

I suddenly drank aloud, and saw Qin Tiange slashing his sword with a clap, and clicked, knocking the old man down again.

In the dust, the old man's body was wrapped around his head, his frontal bone was cracked, his bones were clearly visible, his sunken eyes were gradually spitting out, and his middle-aged look became younger and younger.

“Reverse the flesh and blood, return to the peak?” Qin Tiange frowned, watching the old man change again, as if he had become a young man.

Yes, after the old man was injured, he even changed strangely, becoming younger and stronger.

The old man lost his beard, his hair was thick, young, strong, and exuding pressure.

“You forced the husband to rejuvenate twice and set foot on the peak of the past. Today no one can save you.” The voice just came, and a strong breath permeated.

He was physically fit, stepping into the air one step at a time, and each hand gathered a powerful force, and launched a Xeon killing against Qin Tiange.

老 “Old things, even if you regain your youth and return to the heyday, you still can't change your destiny. Watch me kill you.” Qin Tiange drank coldly and came out in one step.

Boom!

Chapter 726 - Stripping the old man Shouyuan, a ferocious act

There was a loud noise, and the dust was rolled up.

The two silhouettes turned into light, and they constantly collided, sending out a burst of sounds of trembling sounds, as if the iron and steel clashes, deafening.

Qin Tiange fought fiercely with the restored old man. The two were physically domineering, and each punch brought an oppression.

Huh!

With the fists striking each other, a terrible spark came out, which was a strong performance of the physical body, and tempering the body to this extent was already comparable to the stars.

This body is heavy and unmatched, with terror, every move is as horrible as a star explosion.

If there was no mysterious power to suppress the exile, it would be possible that the cities of the hundreds of ethnic groups would be completely destroyed by the aftermath of the fierce battle between the two.

boom!

The collision again, the momentum of returning to the young old man is a bit, but Qin Tiange was beaten down and hit the ground.

He stood high, looking down at the old man who had risen, his breath became stronger and stronger, as if the Vietnam War became more courageous, and the power was endless.

“You are old, and you ran out, and today is your death.” A word from Qin Tiange's indifference came, and his body disappeared.

That is the speed of the physical body to the extreme, hard to distinguish with the naked eye, even the old man can only blur a shadow.

Huh!

The old man roared and waved his arms for an extreme blow, blocking Qin Tiange's fierce punch, the ground crashed, and he could not bear the amount of violent violence of the two.

"Roar ..." The old man yelled, his black hair fluttered, and his body was instantly condensed, turning into a real god-man wrapped in his fist.

Along with a punch, the loud noise of Xun Long spread throughout the city, and the two punched them beyond their limits, causing a big collapse.

The smoke and dust rolled up and spread out in all directions, hitting a lot of creatures of all races too late to dodge, lying prone in the distance.

At this moment, in the smoke and dust, two strong horizontal figures stood opposite each other, and a scary fissure broke out between the fists, and the void was broken.

"Old things, your strength is weak. It seems that you are running out of blood and can't last long." Qin Tiange's mouth evoked a cold smile, and his words were heartfelt, making the restored young man look slightly different.

He knew best that he was young and strong, and looked very strong, but once his blood was exhausted and exhausted, it would take some time to recover.

The old man was furious and wanted to win Qin Tiange quickly, but in the end he couldn't fight, and the power of the opponent seemed to never run out.

After all, how old is Qin Tiange? Coupled with the ancient Pangu body, it has just obtained terrible transformation. This old man came to the door, didn't he die?

"kill!"

The old man was roaring, and the thick black hair gradually appeared a ray of silver, which was a manifestation of strength exhaustion.

Regardless of his breath or strength, he began to retreat, and the strong young peak fighting power gradually began to weaken.

This is the bottom line. Compared with Qin Tiange, he is really old.

boom!

Qin Tiange was young and strong. When he boxed, he smashed into the door of the old man. His flesh flew and his bones cracked. The scene was extremely tragic.

"Ah ... dead!" The old man roared, splitting his palm on Qin Tiange's cheek, cracking flesh and blood, but he recovered without even bleeding.

The powerful Pangu body combines the immortal body with the immortal bones that have just been cast. The three are united, and the old man is doomed.

Bang bang ...

The two waved their fists without any defense and hit each other's body, but it was the old man who was beaten back and forth and vomited blood.

Qin Tiange is too strong, his power is endless, and every cell in the body is filled with powerful and ancient Pangu power.

Such a powerful, how can a dead-blooded old man be compared?

Perhaps, before the old man was exiled, he was an invincible powerhouse in the sky, but he was so embarrassed that he had been worn away in the place of exile.

The only thing that can support him is his physical body. No matter how strong he is, he is already old. Once he loses an invincible cultivation, the physical body will slowly age, and Shou Yuan will accelerate its exhaustion.

Just like now, the old man was beaten by Qin Tiange, and his young body gradually aging, his appearance is no longer young, and he is getting old.

boom!

Qin Tiange slashed with a palm, the old man's left arm was crossed, but he was discounted, his teeth flew away, and blood stained the corners of his mouth.

His thick, black hair began to turn gray, and his beard gradually became unnecessarily white, and his breath became more and more dusky.

"You're all old. You don't enjoy your old age at home, and you run out of nosy affairs. If you don't die, who will die?"

Qin Tiange stepped into the air, stepped hard, and a loud noise came. The old man's body was stepped on the ground.

His eyes widened, his smooth skin began to wrinkle, and the sharp and invincible spirit had just gradually faded, and his strength was declining rapidly.

"No, it's impossible. Even if the old man is old, he can't exhaust so quickly. The old man still has 38,000 years to live."

The old man was frightened, and suddenly realized that something was wrong. He obviously had tens of thousands of years to live, and could not even decline so quickly.

He realized that it was wrong, but it was too late, his physical strength was rapidly depleting, his blood was dying, and Shou Yuan seemed to be losing.

Seeing his horror, Qin Tiange sneered, and his eyes were flashing with strange silver awns.

In fact, Qin Tiange has already used a mysterious power from the beginning to erode the old man's mighty and mighty power a little bit and directly exhausted it.

That was time acceleration. The old man didn't even understand it. Sadly, sadly, he originally had a strong peak strength, but Qin Tiange used time to accelerate the force, a little bit of life wasted his power.

“My husband doesn’t believe it ...” The old man growled and slammed in his right arm.

Qin Tiange stepped on it with a thud, and his arm clicked, and that arm was broken by him.

He was expressionless, his fingers stabbed into the other’s heart, and he fluttered, and the scene fell into a dead silence.

“You ...” The old man vomited blood, his eyes opened in anger, watching his heart pierced, and Qin Tiange Sheng dug it out.

Qin Tiange grabbed each other’s heart, a strong heart, beating constantly, exuding a strong breath.
Humph!

He looked at the death-free old man and hummed coldly, “Do you still want to live another 38,000 years? Then you see, do you still have a life to live?”

Speaking, Qin Tiange’s palm was covered with a misty silver mang, and he gently stroked the old man’s body, and a scene that made the old man scared appeared at once.

“Ah ...” He continued to scream, fear spreading, because he saw that his body was dying fast, and the body with strong vitality was gradually withering, and he had no vitality at all.

This situation made him extremely frightened, and his eyes looking at Qin Tiange became extremely frightened.

“No ... you, you dare to draw the old man’s Shou Yuan?” The old man was horrified, watching Qin Tiange even draw his Shou Yuan.

Yes, Qin Tiange directly used the power of time to cut out the old man’s 38 thousand years of life, and then he killed his life.

Time can not only accelerate the backward flow, but also directly turn into the life-saving Shou Yuan. Just like now, Qin Tiange cuts out the old man Shou Yuan and condenses into a strange power. It seems like time, but not.

That is the product of the evolution of time. It is a force that steals the sky from life.

How many years of life can you live, Qin Tiange’s understanding of time has reached a deeper level.

Grunt!

After exhausting the old man’s Shou Yuan, Qin Tiange opened his mouth and swallowed it, which strangely increased his original Shou Yuan and became more endless.

The old man’s eyes burst, his feet kicked, and he died directly. He was alive and angry, and the true spirit broke away from the body, soared into the sky, and wanted to escape.

Unfortunately, as soon as he rushed out, he hit a wall that was Qin Tiange’s palm, his fingers were fastened.

“No, I’m an orderer in the chaotic capital. You can’t do this ...” The old man’s true spirit screamed in horror.

“Lord save me, Lord save me ...” The old man’s true spirit screamed.

With this cry for help, a violent wave came from a distant place, and then a thought came.

“Let him go ...” A thought came out, like a nine-day deity, with an irresistible will.

Qin Tiange sneered, and spit out: “No one can save him, and anyone who dares to come to my troubles must be prepared for the fall.”

Then, he grabbed the old man’s true spirit, and in front of the living beings of the various ethnic groups in the city, in front of the mysterious existence, threw the old man’s true spirit into his mouth, chewed and swallowed, and his soul fluttered.

A ferocious scene that shakes all parties!

“presumptuous!”

With a resentment and endless fierceness, the master of the will was angry.

Chapter 727 - 1 read the matter, will fight

A mighty will permeated, with a click, the black mist of the void spread, revealing a huge murderous creature.

Huh!

The roaring beast roared, and Qin Tiange smashed it down. It was as powerful as a real beast, but it was actually a metamorphosis.

Metamorphosis is a powerful means of will attack, which can only be achieved by those who sharpen a strong will.

“A thought?”

Qin Tiange snorted, his eyebrows glowed, and a snorting sound came out, turning it into an ancient sword.

Just listen to the cymbal, the two will collide, the beast roars, the ancient swords scream, the two fiercely collide above the void, and there is a sound of golden iron and iron fighting.

The immortal will like steel, every thought turned into the force of killing, colliding and fighting in the void.

Groan!

Suddenly, the ancient sword transformed into a sentiment uttered a shocking sword groan, and then a sword was chopped down. A crunching sound came, and the beast was split in half.

The fierce beast collapsed, but once again turned into a huge bone mountain, the rumbling suppression came down, and the ancient sword wailed.

This time, Gu Jian collapsed and Qin Tiange frowned.

“kill!”

A thought burst out and merged into the collapsed ancient sword. At that moment, a gray * phoenix soared into the sky, and Fengming was nine days old.

Chaos God Phoenix burst out of the void, opened his mouth to spit out the raging Chaos God Fire, and hit the mountain of bones, causing a terrible explosion.

The loud rumblings kept coming, the landslide broke, and Bone Mountain was burned to ashes on the spot by the chaos fire.

“Think of everything, kill the heavens.”

In the distance, if there is a whisper of Li Xiao, the powerful creature behind him is angry.

As the voice just fell, a huge will came, a click, and the black mist cleared, revealing a terrible creature.

It was a terrible creature transformed into a mind. When the huge body moved, it swung his arm and smashed at Qin Tiange.

This is an idea suppression. Once hit, the consciousness collapses and the true spirit dies. It is one of the most terrifying and dangerous killing tricks.

In the face of such a violent blow, Qin Tiange looked calm and moved his thoughts. The chaos * phoenix flew into the air, sending out endless chaos fire, blocking the terrible creature.

boom!

A fierce battle erupts in the void, and the will of the will is extremely dangerous. If you are inadvertent, you will be chopped up by the opponent and even swallow your consciousness.

This is one of the most dangerous ways of killing. Those with weak will are shivered and shaken by the huge will.

“Cry!”

“Roar!”

Fengming was roaring fiercely for nine days, and two terrible wills were at war. Qin Tiange’s thoughts turned into a mighty and mighty * Phoenix, who burned all around with a spit of fire.

The terrible creature on the other side was fierce and fierce, and its huge mouth sprayed endless water mist, extinguishing the chaos.

That huge body covered the sky like a terrible fish.

“Well, one of the eight fierce stars, is as famous as the giant monster in the sea of stars.”

It was a tadpole, with a huge body and a thick and dense long beard on the abdomen. The black long beard slammed in a wave and wanted to break the phoenix.

The fierce battle between the two was a collision of ideas and a battle. It was Qin Tiange’s first encounter.

boom!

Finally, Shen Feng still lost. Several of the captive long beards collapsed on the spot, and saw that Zhang opened his mouth wide and wanted to swallow the collapsed Shen Feng.

A roar came, and the collapsed phoenix Huer turned into a jade unicorn, roaring loudly, and full of auspicious air turned into an endless auspicious cloud.

Kirin stomped on Xiangyun's foot and stepped on the back of the cricket severely. The crackling sound of the cymbal spread all over the place, and the huge body of the cricket was cracked.

The huge puppet was finally shattered, his thoughts spread out, part of it was swallowed by Kirin, and the remaining part condensed into a ball.

“Very well, I haven't met a human master like you for many years.”

A cold word came from the will of the group. I saw that the idea was surging, and then it turned into a sword, a sword, a sword and a sword, all inclusive.

Dense countless soldier blades burst into the air, blasted, and slaughtered with puppets, penetrating directly into the body of Mo Yuqilin, and was smashed on the spot.

Qin Tiange's eyebrows glowed, his broken will turned, and he slammed into a starlight, and then a sharp ancient sword and ancient halberd were born.

Uh, uh ...

The void was chaotic and endless. One piece of the blade came with a peerless killing blast, collided with each other and struck, and the sound of the golden iron and iron fighting came out, shaking the four sides.

In the city of hundreds of ethnic groups, many powerful men of various ethnic groups are stunned. It is extremely rare to fight at the level of will.

Because most creatures are unwilling to fight with their will, that's very dangerous. One who can't crush the opponent will be broken by the other.

Except for some strong-willed creatures, they will confidently crush their opponents with their own will. Just as now, Qin Tiange is fighting a terrible creature from the chaotic city.

The rumbling noise kept coming, a handle blade was broken, and the original dense scene began to collapse. In the end, there was only an ancient sword and a black spear.

Groan!

Gu Jian issued a shocking sword groan, suddenly revealed a shocking killing, and a sword penetrated in an instant.

The black gun buzzed and came through quickly. Both of them collided and the edge was sharp, sparking endless sparks.

Hearing only a crisp sound, the black gun cracked and was broken by the ancient sword all the way.

With a strong will, Gu Jian devoured the broken black gun, and then flew back to Qin Tiange's eyebrows, crushed and crushed directly with the willpower of the other party, and swallowed it clean.

“What else is there?” Qin Tiange said, looking at Yuankong lightly.

There was a dead silence there, the dark mist rolling, showing the pressure of terror. The strong man in the chaotic capital was silent. He just lost his will just now.

Part of the will was swallowed up directly by Qin Tiange, from which he obtained a little memory of the other party, and learned a little information of the other party.

“You’re fine. I admit that you are the owner of this city and hand in 100,000 pounds of demon treasure every year.”

After a long silence, the sentence came from that huge will, and had to admit Qin Tiange’s status as the master of the city.

The people in the Baizu City were shocked, staring blankly at Qin Tiange, standing silently, expressionless.

The strong men of all races were horrified, and watching the strong man of the chaotic capital even admitted that Qin Tiange was a human race to lead this hundred-city city.

“Joke!” How do you know Qin Tiange sighed coldly, turning his thoughts into a shocking ancient sword, splitting the void directly, the black mist was clear, and a thought inside was revealed body.

He didn’t come out, his eyebrows flickered with godliness, and he said coldly, “What kind of thing are you? This city is my master. As for handing over the magic potion? If you have the ability, you can come and get it yourself.”

“Arrogance!”

The murky figure was furious and uttered a bang, filled with murderous spirit, raised his hands to turn the light, and the whole body turned into an aurora stabbing Qin Tiange’s brows.

This blow contained the power of terror, the tyrannical will condensed into a killing technique, to penetrate Qin Tiange’s eyebrows to understand the sea, and to kill his true spirit.

Qin Tiange sneered: “I think you are arrogant, thinking that you can suppress me with a volition of will?”

“I’ll let you come and go.” With a loud shout, Qin Tiange’s brows glowed with mysterious golden light.

Then, a ray of golden mist filled with golden symbols smashed out, hitting the will body that penetrated through the air instantly.

Chapter 728 - Lord of Chaos

Jin Guang came in and broke the body of will with a bang.

“Ah ...” The volition body had no time to make a scream, and was wrapped in that golden light and swallowed into Qin Tiange’s heart.

The powerful blow was easily broken by the opponent, and then the whole will body was crushed and crushed, and even swallowed.

When he thought of strangling, Qin Tiange's will was not only arrogant, but also a mysteriously existential book, and no force at the level of will could shake him.

Qin Tiange was right, trying to crush him with a will, it was really an egg touching a stone, no return.

boom!

Consumed this thought body, the emptiness of the distance broke, and then a new powerful will came.

The creature behind him came directly to this place in anger, but seemed extremely vigilant, staring at Qin Tiange from afar, without coming up.

"For many years, you are the first person to dare to swallow this body of will." The figure was hazy, but with terrible pressure.

In the city of hundreds of ethnic groups, many strong men of various ethnic groups were stupid, watching Qin Tiange hang off that volition body and devour it.

They couldn't believe their eyes. Is this young human being really terrible?

"Lord of Chaos, do you want to come and fight with me?" Qin Tiange replied lightly, and he was so angry.

He was condensed with breath, frowning, showing a terrible killing power, pointing directly at the hazy figure opposite.

On the opposite side, the will of the Lord of Chaos was silent, his eyes flickered, and he naturally knew the risks of the will coming, but he couldn't escape.

Qin Tiange did not know what method was used to crush and kill one of his volition bodies, and even swallowed it cleanly, not even passing back a message.

This made him very vigilant, so he ventured to come here, and wanted to take a good look at the origin of this sudden emergence of the young ethnic people.

"In the cities of the Terrans and even the main city in the place of exile, I have never seen you in this seat. Who are you?" The dim figure spoke in a solemn tone.

He was cautious, but a little bit angry, and was swallowed with a body of will. Although it did not hurt him much, it was definitely a great shame.

As the Lord of Chaos, has it ever been swallowed up by a strong human race? No, it can be said that only he devours others, and no one else devours him, but now he has been swallowed in turn.

Qin Tiange smiled slightly, looked at the volition body in front of him, and said, "You don't come by real body, do you want to send me a volition body?"

As he said, a ray of gods bloomed in his brows, and his powerful will directly turned into a shadow.

It was his mind body, wearing a shirt, exuding a terrifying breath all over him, and simply, holding the ancient sword to the Lord of Chaos.

When he didn't agree, Qin Tiange didn't bother to talk nonsense, he didn't dare to come to the other party, or he came directly.

Huh!

The ancient sword came out of the sheath, and it turned into a shocking sword-man, and the sky broke.

Faced with such a terrible sword, the Lord of Chaos was so angry that his body turned into a terrible fierce creature, covering the sky and the sky with fierce vigor. He turned out to be rampant.

The Dai is one of the fierce stars in the sky, and the Lord of Chaos turned out to be a puppet. This surprised Qin Tiange, but didn't care.

With a click, the sword marks are cut off, and all things Jiexiu!

Qin Tiange's volition body was cut off with a single sword, and I saw that the huge body of the uncle trembled, and before being counterattacked, the body was cut off with a sword and split into two halves.

"Human race, Qin Tiange, this seat, remember you ..."

As soon as the voice fell, the severed will exploded and disappeared on the spot.

He's will completely collapsed, deserving to be one of the fierce clan, fierce enough to explode his will, and not let Qin Tiange devour.

Self-destructive will is equivalent to self-destructing the corner of the true spirit, which requires extremely strong determination to dare to do so.

In fact, he regretted it a bit. He was damaged twice. Although he can recover, it is definitely not something that can be done in a short time.

This made him have a strong hatred for Qin Tiange and remembered this young man.

"The Lord of Chaos, the Dais ..." Qin Tiange muttered to himself, watching the self-defeating crickets, and his will was turned back to the sea of knowledge.

He stood there quietly, looking into the distance, as if he saw a distant chaotic capital, and a magpie was looking over there.

The place of exile, the human race, the hundred race, seems to have some strange balance, but with the emergence of Qin Tiange, this balance was broken.

"Well, just after the will of the will, I vaguely felt the breath of an ancient spirit ..." Qin Tiange suddenly turned and looked at a certain direction.

When I was fighting with the will of the chaotic master, I suddenly felt a very vaguely ancient remnant breath.

This discovery made a slight change in the look on his face, thinking that he was going to catch this ancient remnant.

One is that sleeping Luoluo wants the ancient remnants to recover, and Qin Tiange is going to take a trip to the misty sea to find the true spirit grass and see if it can accelerate the true spirit recovery.

If so, maybe he can completely repair his true spirit in the place of exile, and even restore the ancient soul of Li Luo.

How strong is Luo Luo who restored the former peak? Qin Tiange is looking forward to it, once Li Luo has restored his former peak strength, he has more confidence.

“City ... City Lord ...”

At this moment, in the hundreds of cities, fearful figures came not far behind, and they all bowed down in fear.

They are all the strong men of various ethnic groups in the hundreds of cities, or they are the creatures of various ethnic groups that have spoken before.

Qin Tiange had said before the fierce battle with the Lord of Chaos that anyone who spoke would have to hand in three catties of the demon treasure. If he didn't hand it in, he would use his life to compensate.

Now the Lord of Chaos is defeated, two mind bodies are hanged, and one of them is devoured by him.

This fierce scene, of course, scared those creatures who had spoken before to let the Lord of Chaos teach Qin Tiange.

Sure enough, seeing the end of the battle, the Lord of Chaos did not dare to come, and they ran in horror one by one and delivered their respective three-pound demon treasures.

“Worry comes out of your mouth, do you remember?”

Qin Tiange faintly swept through the hundreds of strong men of all races, who were first-rate powerful creatures. Unfortunately, they were afraid of being killed.

“Please forgive the Lord!”

“This is the demon treasure that I will turn in.”

More than a hundred strong men of various races, three catties per person, more than three hundred, nearly four hundred catties of magic demon treasure.

Qin Tiange put away and waved his hands to let these creatures go. The strong men of various ethnic groups who had already been frightened, such as amnesty, quickly retreated in a respectful manner and did not dare to stay, for fear that Qin Tiange would change his mind and directly kill them.

This one, but came in all the way, and even swallowed many powerful creatures. One who did not cry well when he was swallowed.

“It's time to go, Li Luo and my true spirit are repaired. It's urgent.”

Watching those strong men of various races afraid to leave Qin Tiange looked at the sky, muttered to himself, and decided to leave immediately.

As for this hundred-city city, in fact, he didn't even look at him. If anyone dared to occupy it, he would just kill it.

Since he took it, there is no reason to spit it out. If he wants, he must be defeated.

Huh!

Qin Tiange said that the figure flashed, and he quickly broke through the air to leave the speed to the extreme. He left the Baizu City in a blink of an eye.

Many strong men of various races saw him leave, but none of them dared to think, because of the fierce fighting just now, they had regarded Qin Tiange as the level of tyrannical masters.

Fighting with the Lord of Chaos, Qin Tiange's fierce name spread throughout the chaotic land, and even among the races in the land of exile.

When it came to the human race, many of the strong people in the race did not believe it, and immediately sent the strong people to the chaos to see what happened.

Unfortunately, they arrived late and Qin Tiange left early.

Chapter 729 - Red misty sea, weird, dangerous

The mist shrouded, the endless pink mist boils, and here is the Red Mist Sea.

The Red Mist Sea, one of the weirdest and most terrible areas in the exile, can be described as a forbidden area for all ethnic groups.

All the creatures who come here, no matter what race they are, will be polluted by the strange red mist to pollute the true spirit, obliterate consciousness, and become a madman.

Red mist is one of the most terrible substances in the exile. It is said that the red mist sea erupts every ten years.

Qin Tiange just came to the place of exile the last time, and the red fog tide he encountered was exactly the tide erupting from the red fog sea.

“This is the Red Mist Sea?”

A figure came out of the red misty sea, and quietly looked at the endless red misty sea in front of him, rolling and surging, showing a strange and terrible breath.

The person who came was Qin Tiange, who was pursuing the spirit of the remnant, came to the Red Mist Sea and made him surprised.

Near the Red Mist Sea, Qin Tiange obviously felt that his cultivation had been suppressed so badly that the ninety-nine stars in his body were eroded by a mysterious substance, which could not be broken.

Feeling his own change, he frowned deeply, and murmured, “The weird place of exile actually suppresses the erosion practice, as if there is no cultivation practice here.”

In Qin Tiange's body, ninety-nine giant stars were wrapped in something, constantly eroding and compressing, and wanted to obliterate his cultivation.

This material is very mysterious and weird. It was felt from the land of exile. It was not so strong before. Now it is extremely scary when the Red Mist Sea comes.

Xiu was blocked and even worn away by Qin Tiange. This caused Qin Tiange's heart to shake. In this way, it would not take many years for him to disappear.

“No, you have to find a way to stop the erosion of these substances.” Qin Tiange's eyes were so sharp, how could he sit still?

Immediately after the idea fell, I saw that the chaotic membranes in Dantian changed, and suddenly a spit of chaotic energy poured into the ninety-nine stars, and instantly formed a powerful resistance.

This chaos has resisted the erosion of mysterious matter, and formed a strange balance.

Qin Tiange looked in surprise, and soon revealed a smile: “Chaotic fetal membranes are indeed a real baby universe.”

He felt that as the chaotic fetal membrane emerged from the force, it supplied the ninety-nine stars to absorb, forming a strong resistance to counter the terrible erosion and wear.

In the course of this confrontation, the ninety-nine stars became more and more pure, and even had a qualitative transformation. The process was slow, but it was steadfastly improved.

Perhaps we can use the mysterious power of the exiled place to suppress the grind, so that the ninety-nine stars in the body become stronger? Maybe?

Even if it was worn out and repaired, the ninety-nine stars slowly became stronger and more powerful under this kind of sharpening. Perhaps once it was out of the place of exile, the repair immediately rose and broke.

This made Qin Tiange think that if the souls in the place of exile went out, it would be an extremely horrible phenomenon.

Because once they get out of the mysterious suppression of the place of exile, when they reach the starry sky, they will form a blowout growth, repairing and breaking through and recovering. No one knows how terrible it will be.

“Well, let's put this aside in advance. It is still unknown whether we can get rid of it. It is most important to find a way to restore the true spirit.” Qin Tiange woke up from his thoughts, staring sharply at the red misty sea in front of him.

Inside, there were dense and dense old trees, blood-red throughout the body, exuding a strange atmosphere, and it was a mangrove forest.

It is rumored that these mangroves were eroded by the strange red mist in the red misty sea, and then slowly turned into this strange red tree.

Don't think that these mangroves are ordinary. In fact, mangroves are also a terrible crisis, because the mangroves contain a terrible sap, and the sap that absorbs the red mist becomes highly toxic.

Once contaminated, it will inevitably be polluted and eroded by the true spirit, and will even be erased on the spot.

Qin Tiange stepped into the sea of red mist and walked in the weird and scary mangrove forest. The huge ancient trees are towering, the roots are coiled, the whole body is blood red, and the blood is shining through.

He walked into it very carefully, sweeping around vigilantly, his thoughts circulated, but he was compressed in the range of 100 meters.

I have to say that this area is terrible, the ancient remnant that Qin Tiange sensed is hidden in the Red Mist Sea.

In order to capture this ancient remnant, Qin Tiange had to take risks, and there was another kind of treasure in the Red Mist Sea, that is, the true spirit grass.

Both are coveted by Qin Tiange and naturally cannot be ignored.

Just after a tide of red mist, the red mist in the red misty sea is extremely dense, more than ten times the usual.

At this time, no soul dares to set foot here, but Qin Tiange has come.

call...

A breeze blew through, and a red mist came in front of him, causing Qin Tiange's eyes to erupt, a powerful momentum erupted, and the golden symbol of beating beat around his body.

The red mist came and collided with the golden light. The two forces actually formed a terrible collision, and the sound of chanting came out.

The ground book was a true character, blocking the weird red mist, letting Qin Tiange breathe a sigh of relief, and finally had the confidence.

With the true character of the ground book, Qin Tiange does not need to worry about the erosion of the red mist, he can walk the red mist sea with confidence and even explore the secret behind the red mist here.

Roar!

As he was walking, a dark shadow suddenly burst out in front of him, growled and snarled, rushing down.

Qin Tiange shook his body to avoid it, only to find that it was a gray and black beast with strong limbs, scarlet eyes and pink light.

This is a beast eroded by the red mist, leaving only the mad killing instinct to drive, and seeing a non-eroded creature like Qin Tiange will launch a fierce attack.

The fierce beast turned around and rushed suddenly, Qin Tiange snorted, and raised his hand with a lightning-like split.

With a bang, the beast wailed, his body smashed and flew out, hitting heavily on a tree trunk.

The tree was cracked open, and a stream of pink sap flowed out, which stained the fierce beast, and a strange scene appeared.

The fierce beast, whose head had been cracked, was restored under the sap of this sap, and his eyes were scarlet, and he was culled again.

Qin Tiange smashed his eyes, slammed his arm and smashed into the head of the fierce beast, burst with a click, and died instantly.

Looking at the dead beast, Qin Tiange was silent for a moment, and came to the cracked red tree, and the observer's pink liquid flowed down.

Just now, it was these liquids that brought the dead beast back to life, which caught Qin Tiange's attention.

“Can these red sap be brought back to life?” Qin Tiange was very curious and grabbed the dead beast.

He pressed the head of the beast against the red sap, and instantly, the red liquid poured wildly into the broken head of the beast, forming a strange repair.

During this process, the entire tree was rapidly withered, and gradually turned into powder to dissipate.

“Roar!”

The beast opened his eyes and issued a fierce roar, biting at Qin Tiange, and he was indeed resurrected again.

Qin Tiange had a dignified look, and he had been prepared for a long time to smash this resurrected beast again. This time, he blasted the other half of his body.

“Can it be recovered?” Qin Tiange looked serious, carrying the savage beast that had been broken in half, and came to another mangrove tree.

Click!

He split the tree with one palm, exuding a thick red sap from it, and then put a half of the corpse's carcass on it.

Next, a weird and terrible scene appeared ...

Chapter 730 - Infinite resurrection, mysterious and weird matter

Qin Tiange's pupils shrank, and he stared at only half of the beast with a look of dignity.

The red sap flowed out, and the big tree gradually withered and was absorbed by the carcass of the beast, and finally the whole tree was turned into loquat powder and dissipated.

What is weird is that the fierce beast, which had only half a corpse, was completely restored again, and the scarlet eyes were opened and resurrected.

“Roar!”

The beast growled and tried to struggle, but was restrained by a force.

Qin Tiange squinted his eyes, constantly looking at the resurrected beast, and a hint of interest flashed in his eyes.

“Resurrection again, what caused it to die and resurrect?” Qin Tiange was interested in this.

He could clearly remember that he had hit the upper body of the beast, but he could still recover, which was a bit weird.

Resurrection from death is something that Qin Tiange can do. As long as the death does not exceed one day, he can easily resurrect with the power of time.

But after more than a day, you have to pay the price for resurrection. In the past, the jade corpses were resurrected in front of countless people on earth, and that cost a lot.

Now seeing that this ferocious beast could be resurrected with the strange sap of the mangrove tree three or two times, which caused Qin Tiange’s attention.

If you can find the reason for this resurrection and master it, it will be a powerful ability, even a powerful substance.

Click!

Qin Tiange severed the forelimbs of the beast directly, and the blood flow was endless, but there was no sign of recovery.

Then he cut off the limbs of the fierce beast one by one and did not recover. He was lying there struggling miserably, and stared at Qin Tiange fiercely, sending out a fierce growl.

Looking at the beast that was unable to recover by himself, Qin Tiange exploded the beast again, and determined that the resurrection of the beast relied on the sap in the mangrove.

This time, Qin Tiange shattered the whole body of the beast, turned it into scattered pieces, his eyes flickered. Thinking about how to recover?

“If it can still be restored, then ...” Qin Tiange looked cautiously and slammed into a huge mangrove tree next to him.

With a bang, the trunk cracked and a thick stream of red sap flowed inside.

A more weird scene appeared, and the red sap poured into the scattered flesh and blood fragments on the ground, gradually interwoven with each other.

Uh ...

Soon, the mangrove fell to ashes, and the broken beast could not be repaired.

When Qin Tiange saw this, he directly interrupted several weird mangrove trees nearby, and a stream of red sap flowed out constantly.

Soon, several nearby mangroves gradually withered, and a stream of mysterious red liquid flowed out and turned into ashes. The broken beast was once again repaired intact, and the breath was even more terrible.

Roar!

The beast became more cruel and stronger, and was twice as powerful as before, which shocked Qin Tiange.

Looking at the roaring beast, the breath really became stronger. As a last resort, Qin Tiange directly blasted the beast and shattered several mangroves again.

Death and resurrection time and time again, Qin Tiange was a little shocked. This is an infinite resurrection.

“Infinite resurrection?” Qin Tiange looked dignified, his heart beating with a hint of excitement.

He knew very well that he had been killed a hundred times, killed a hundred times, and resurrected a hundred times.

What is this concept? Unbeatable, infinite resurrection, this ability is what everyone wants, Qin Tiange is no exception.

He had an undead body integrated into Pangu, but it was only injured and recovered, but he could not be resurrected when he died.

Seeing such strange and terrible countless resurrections, how could he not be attentive?

boom!

This time, Qin Tiange not only blasted the body of the fierce beast, but even shot a flame of chaos into ashes.

This time, the beasts cannot be resurrected, and their bodies are reduced to ashes, even if the sap is weird, no resurrection target can be found.

“Let me see, what are the secrets of these sap?” Qin Tiange squatted down, looking at the thick sap flowing under his feet.

He stuck a little with his fingers. At that moment, the red weird liquid directly melted into his body, and a strange power surged towards the sea of knowledge. To erode his soul, it was unfortunately destroyed by the soul's true charm.

Even the cells in the body were being eroded by another strange force, but unfortunately they were chopped up by the power of Pangu.

“Strange ...” Qin Tiange stared at the red sap, and tried again, and finally tried to catch him a strange strand of material.

This substance is magical and mysterious, with unknown power.

After finding this mysterious substance, in order to verify his idea, Qin Tiange immediately found a madman in the mangrove forest.

It was a madman in human form, a crazy killing monster that was formed after the human race of the exile was eroded by the true spirit.

Roar!

The madman was struggling, but his limbs were broken by Qin Tiange, and he was completely unable to move and was suppressed.

Qin Tiange stared expressionlessly at the crazy monster's arm. The originally smashed arm was slowly growing into a full arm under the erosion of red sap.

"It's that kind of material ..." Qin Tiange's eyes brightened, and his strong will captured the crazy monster's arm just now, and the mysterious material melted into his body, so that this crazy monster recovered.

Finding the reason, Ye Qing killed the madman, and then continuously collected the red sap in the mangrove to extract the mysterious substance.

"Is this a mystery?" After extracting all the sap of a whole hundred mangroves, Qin Tiange obtained a small mysterious substance.

This substance is very small, and it would have been a mysterious and powerful resurrection effect unless it was really invisible after refining and gathering.

Why does it have this powerful mysterious effect? Unlimited resurrection, even the beast that was killed by him can be resurrected, just do not know if he can repair his damaged true spirit?

This mysterious substance seems to have an extremely powerful effect on the restoration, which made Qin Tiange's idea.

Grunt!

Qin Tiange gritted his teeth and drank the refined mysterious substance. Instantly, a cold feeling spread all over his body.

Those mysterious substances poured into the body, and were immediately brought into Qin Tiange's own true spirit, where the densely packed ground books really stood up.

Buzz ...

The ground truth trembled, guarding the true spirit of Qin Tiange, but in the face of the mysterious substances that flowed in, the true charm played a role of tempering and filtering.

When those mysterious substances poured into the real spirit, Qin Tiange only felt the influx of countless memories.

It was a kind of broken memory, very many, extremely broken and chaotic, all the broken pictures flashed away.

Absorbing the mysterious substance actually accelerated Qin Tiange's self-healing, and also brought some damaged fragmented memories. Although I can't see clearly, I can feel that this mysterious substance contains fragmented memories.

This is not his memory!

Mysterious matter, carrier's broken memory, infinite resurrection?
