

Dark Ages 74

Chapter 74 - Magical effect

A young man looks like a dead mansion, and his spiritual world is extremely rich, but he even imagined that he was a generation of emperors, three thousand beauties in the harem, and millions of invincible troops.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange shook his head softly and walked past the young man without waking him up, let him continue dreaming.

In the carriage, ordinary people were caught in their own spiritual world, and their anger and sorrow appeared on their faces. Some people burst into tears and some laughed wildly.

Some people were insane, and when they saw Qin Tiange passing by, they rushed up and attacked. Such a person was kicked by his merciless kick, and woke up in the corner.

He even saw men and women hugging together, doing the shameful thing, tearing each other's clothes, and having a fierce kiss, the scene was extremely fragrant.

"Life is full of ..." With a slight sigh, Qin Tiange crushed a stone and suddenly waved to the people in the carriage.

Xi Shizi turned into small stones, scattered quickly, hitting the ordinary people who were trapped in the spiritual world accurately, hitting them with pain and waking up.

As for the people of Moda, they were physically strengthened and more resistant than ordinary people, but in the end, some people's mental will was still weak, and they were motivated by the magical factors of colored powder to fall into their own mental illusions.

For example, Wu Xiaoyu, a little girl, is holding Moda at this moment. The two kissed me and I don't know if they are really in a fantasy state. Then this time, the illusion directly expressed their inner emotions?

I may have both, but Qin Tiange still awakened the two and instructed them to wake up the others.

The faces of the two who were woken up were flushed and embarrassed, but as soon as Qin Tiange left, Moda immediately grabbed Wu Xiaoyu's hands and looked expressionless.

"Xiaoyu, be my girlfriend, I will love you forever and protect you forever." Moda directly confessed that she really loves this girl named Wu Xiaoyu.

The latter blushed into an apple after hearing it, but nodded his head and shyly said, "I hope you remember this sentence, but Brother Qin heard it. If you dare to sorry for me in the future, then I will cut your thing."

Huh ... Moda's expression was stiff, and she laughed and promised quickly, and then she secretly wiped a cold sweat and let her down.

The two went to wake up the other boys and girls. As for Qin Tiange, he walked to the carriage in front and saw a scene that surprised him.

"God ... God ..."

In the corner of the carriage, two graceful figures are entangled. They are two women, charming and sexy, beautiful and charming two teachers.

Well, seeing this scene, Qin Tiange covered his forehead silently, the picture is too beautiful, and some dare not watch it.

He saw that Liu Yan actually embraced Long Xiaoya, kissed each other, lingered on each other, murmured something in his mouth, his eyes glowed with fiery radiance.

“Wake up, wake up ...” As a last resort, Qin Tiange stepped forward to wake up the two.

He really couldn't stand it anymore, and was afraid he couldn't hold it, so he went directly to wake up two ***** and charming beautiful teachers who were caught in a spiritual fantasy.

When the two of them were awakened, their eyes were wide and their eyes were small, and they looked at the person they were holding, but they were the same sex? Liu Yan and Long Xiaoya's cheeks turned red and shy, and even their clothes were messy, revealing flawless white skin, and the close-fitting ***** body of the two people. He screamed, only to find Qin Tiange on the side, a flustered emotion on his face, and quickly put on his clothes.

Xiaolong Xiaoya was a lot of generosity, smiled at him, and teased: “Little handsome, would you like to come and play, is this my first time?”

Qin Tiange shook his face, turned away with no expression, and left directly. Seeing him go, Long Xiaoya secretly relieved, his face blushed, quickly grabbed the messy clothes and dressed neatly.

The two were silent. After you get dressed, look at me, I look at you.

I really want to hear you just shouting” Tian Ge “, do you think of me as him?” Long Xiaoya's eyes were sharp, and the blushing cheeks were tender and touching.

Liu Yan's face turned red after hearing it, but he countered: “Don't you take me as him too? But I heard it, you kept crying,” God, love me “, etc. Now. “

“I'm strangling you ...” Long Xiaoya's face turned wild, and she immediately waved her hands and held each other.

The two scuffled together, and soon came the crisp laughter of the two beautiful teachers, as if they had forgotten the illusion they had just fallen into.

At this time, Qin Tiange came to the middle of the carriage, and just happened to see Yin Yin and her young mother. Her mother had fallen into her own spiritual world at this moment, and sat there desperately, crying silently.

She seems to be in a sad situation. Under the strong magical effect of colorful powder, her endless emotions erupted inside, sad, really sad.

Huh?

But what surprised Qin Tiange was that Yin Yin, a three-year-old girl, was not affected by the colorful powder, as if it had no effect on her.

Alas, it is not invalid, but her heart is pure and flawless, but under the strong magical effect, it stimulates her heart to be more pure and flawless, just like a fairy child in the sky, pure and immaculate.

I looked at the many survivors who had fallen into the illusion. Qin Tiange did not go to wake up, because Moda and Yang Xiaolin had already woken them up one by one.

And he came to the back of the car, where a large number of colorful colorful butterflies flying around chased over the train.

Looking at the colorful magic butterflies flying around, Qin Tiange murmured to himself: "The colorful magic butterflies, the colorful powder on his body is one of the main medicines for the development of medicaments in the brain domain, collect some first."

Huh!

He said, his body flashed and he jumped onto the roof. Suddenly, a cloud of colored clouds whistled overhead, and scattered colorful light spots.

Jain is a colorful powder, which is a kind of self-protected weapon that naturally evolved from this mutated butterfly body.

This magic smoke is actually made up of countless small powders. Once it is sprayed on the enemy, just take a sip of and it will be impossible to extricate yourself.

Unless he is a strong-willed person, he can wake up from an illusion, and Qia Tianqin is a man with a strong will.

He struggled with the end of the fifteen years of the previous life, casting his stubborn steel will, a star-level powder, which really could not affect him.

"Come here!" Seeing the colorful fantasy butterflies flying around in the past, Qin Tiange was not surprised and rejoiced, he suddenly stood up, quickly grabbed his two hands, and caught two huge colorful fantasy butterflies one by one.

As soon as someone landed in the carriage, immediately stepped on one of them with his feet, then quickly took out the empty test tube, and carefully collected the strange magical powder from the colorful magic butterflies that were caught.

At the lower abdomen of a fantasy butterfly, there was a powder with the most colorful powder. Qin Tiange collected this. Soon, he released the two colorful butterflies.

He did not kill these colorful butterflies. Although they are one-star mutants, there are no crystal nuclei in the colorful fantasy butterflies, and there are no other good things. Only those magical powders born on the surface of the body are good things.

I put two together and grabbed two quick collections. In this way, Qin Tiange quickly collected a total of ten test tubes of colorful to magic powder.

As he continued to collect, suddenly the train drove across the sea of flowers and entered a potted lotus base, which caught his attention.

"Huh? That's ..."

Qi Qin Tiange gave up and continued to capture colorful fantasy butterflies, but turned his head to look at the potted lotus flower cultivation field in suspicion, his expression became more and more surprised.

He saw that in the lush potted lotus field, a large area of lotus has died, withered leaves, rotten flowers, forming two sharp contrasts with countless flowers around, very dazzling.
