Chapter 741 - My Emperor's Killing Order: Passed by the Battle Banner

The whole city was dead and silent, all the creatures brushed together and looked out of the city. Three figures came out of the air, led by the murderer Qin Tiange.

“Qin Tiange, you are wanton!”

A low roar came, the Lord of Chaos was extremely angry, and Qin Tiange’s words completely ignited the anger.

What a shame to call him out to die? Moreover, listening to what he meant seemed to say that he could slaughter all the living beings of the chaotic capital without going out?

For a time, a strong wrath filled the hearts of the strong men of all races, surging spirits, rumbling eruptions, gathered in the sky above the chaotic capital.

“Arrogance!”

“Today, you Qin Tiange must die.”

“Kill him, hang it at the gate!”

There was an angry roar in the city, and the strong men of all races and even the souls of all races in the city were provoked by Qin Tiange’s words.

Watching the raging evil spirit condensing, the wind behind him and Zi Mo drew the corners of his mouth, and he was really surprised by Qin Tiange’s words.

Do n’t have to play like this? Isn’t this a deliberate stimulus to the strong of the races of the chaotic capital, or even the anger of the races of the entire city?

Qin Tiange’s move is actually annoying all races in the city, because he knows that the human race has been suppressed for too long, and it must be washed with blood for 100,000 years of depression.

Before the slaughter of the 100 cities, it seemed that they had deterred all ethnic groups, but in fact they did not shake the ethnic group’s attitude of 100,000 years.

What he wanted was to break the trivialities of all races, to break their invincible attitude of suppressing the peoples, and even to imprint a horror in the souls of the living beings of all races.

“You see, arrogant people, today, I see how you rounded up your arrogant words?”

In the city, a dark air emptied, there was a terrible creature hidden there, scarlet eyes looked at Qin Tiange outside the city.

He is the master of chaos. Laoshan looked at Qin Tiange with a sneer. The strong men of all races in the city were provoked by Qin Tiange and formed a lore.

“Tear the human race and destroy Qin Tiange!”

With his orders, the strong men of all ethnic groups in the city broke out, and the raging Chao Qin Tiange pressed down.

The horror of terror seemed like a torrent of torrents, like a storm of extinction, and both Chengfeng and Zimo were a little apprehensive.

Huh!

Suddenly, a gurgling came from the gate of the city, and the human flag, Huer, flew high and swept away.

The violent explosion of the rumbling spread, and the fierceness condensed by the whole city's beings was wiped out directly by the battle flag.

A flag of battle flared up, hunting and hunting, exuding a terrible killing, and shocked the strong faces of all races.

“The shame of my human race for 100,000 years, all the races of the chaotic capital today will be flesh and blood, thoroughly washed away!”

Qin Tiange drank coldly and stepped out of the air. Zhang Zuo spit out a ray of light, and saw a large seal dripping on the void.

That was the Seal of Human Emperor, and it finally appeared again. It had never been used. This time, Qin Tiange was cruel, and he wanted to thoroughly cleanse the human shame for 100,000 years.

“Come out, immortal guards, for the human race, to wash away the shame, to pass the battle flag, to leave nothing in the grass!”

With an extremely depressing murmur spreading, I saw that the Emperor Seal suddenly emitted immense light, covering all directions.

The sound of chanting came, the light dispersed, and a powerful army appeared in front of the world, a hundred thousand.

The 100,000 army is uniform, without a sound, as if it were a whole, it is the immortal guard of the emperor.

Huh!

Suddenly, a leader of the guards reached out and grabbed the national flag of the human race. With a sigh, the momentum of the entire legion erupted and turned into a whole.

“My emperor's killing order, the battle flag has passed, and nothing is left!”

The indifferent words of the guards spread to all parties, awakened the lingering souls of all ethnic groups, and looked at the army with horror.

“The Emperor's Immortal Guard?”

“how is this possible?”

“Why is the Imperial Guard here?”

For a while, the whole city was boiling, and the strong men of all ethnic groups looked at the terror army in horror. It turned out to be the imperial guard.

The Emperor's Immortal Guard, how can the Guardian who claims to belong only to the Emperor appear in the place of exile?

The next moment, all the creatures looked at Qin Tiange in unison, and their eyes became different, with fear and disbelief.

“He, he is the emperor?” Some creature screamed and kept backing.

There is no way, the prestige of the immortal guard is too strong, and even tens of thousands of people are afraid, that is the real legion that cannot be killed or destroyed.

The number is not large, but it kills every ethnic group and is the most powerful guard of the human tribe.

Now that the Emperor's Immortal Guard appears, how can you not be surprised?

“The Emperor is immortal, he is the Emperor?”

The Lord of Chaos was horrified, his eyes looked at Qin Tiange, his horror and murderousness permeated, obviously he did not expect Qin Tiange to control the imperial guard of the emperor, that is to say, he is the emperor.

Thinking of this, the Lord of Chaos issued a killing order almost immediately.

“kill!”

With a violent drink, the chaotic capital million million of the most elite chaos guards were killed, and Qi Qi rushed to Qin Tiange's side.

When the matter is here, there are no more words to say. Only by killing the other party can this incident be resolved.

“Seal of Pangu, suppress!”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange raised his hand and threw nine huge chaotic stones, directly covering the whole chaotic city.

Suddenly, the Pangu seal was started. It was originally a seal after the fusion of the two Pangu seals. The power was stronger. The whole chaotic city was covered by nine chaotic stones, completely sealing.

“Ah ... what happened!”

“My strength, our strength is suppressed by 90%.”

Horror and screams kept coming, and all the strong men and creatures in the chaotic capital suddenly felt that their power was sealed.

Seeing this, all creatures were terrified, and looked at the nine gray chaotic stones with dread, no one knew what it was.

“Kill, let the grass stay!”

Qin Tiange waved his face expressionlessly, issued a strangulation order, leaving nothing in the grass is to completely kill the souls in the chaotic capital.

There are no human races, no allies, but only the living beings of various ethnic groups, who are the enemies of the human race.

Since it is an enemy, then it has slaughtered all the enemies in this city and completely razed it here.

Human shame requires the blood and flesh and blood of various ethnic groups to be washed away. Only in this way can the human race in the exile place truly stand up and reignite the indelible warfare belonging to the human race.

“kill!”

The emperor’s immortal guard commanded a cold drink and waved the battle flag, all the way into the chaotic capital of the Pangu seal.

Bang!

One hundred thousand emperors immortalized the guard and launched a horrific killing. It was a one-sided slaughter, and no soul or strong person could stop it at all.

Because they were suppressed by Pangu’s seal, Jiucheng’s strength was not much.

In the face of terror, the emperor’s immortal guard has only one way to die, and there is no second way.

boom!

“what...”

The city screamed for days, the roar was intertwined, and the strong men of all races rose up to resist, and the millions of elite city guards fought back.

Unfortunately, it was impossible to compete with the imperial guard of the Emperor, watching the slaughter and being powerless.

Qin Tiange suddenly yelled from the sky: “My people, the heroes of the human race who died in battle, where are you, come back, use the blood of strong people of all races to wash away the humiliation of my people for hundreds of thousands of years, use their corpses to cast My people are invincible. “

Qin Tiange, holding an ancient sword, stood on the tower of the chaotic city, and was filled with a force of luck belonging to the human race, spreading all over the place, covering the whole chaotic land.

“Hahahaha, my clan is here, my clan is here.”

“My queen is coming The people in the exile, we are not sinners, not sinners, my queen is here!”

The wind suddenly burst into a frenzied laugh, roaring frantically, tears falling down from his eyes, tears of pain, a pain of exile and forgotten countless years, and now he has finally been completely released.

The emperor came to the place of exile, so that the exiles who had been despondent for many years immediately felt the sound of a hot bloodstream, the blood that belonged to the human race.

“My tribe is here, I can fight again!”

“Old folks, it’s time to wake up!”

“Follow my emperor and wash away the shame of yesteryear!”

With the advent of imperial fortune, it turned into an endless light that shrouded the chaotic land. At that moment, ancient remnants crawled out from the soil.

They were all the lingering thoughts of the human race fighting here, and were filled with the power of imperial fortune, immediately transformed into heroes, and they will fight again.

The return of the heroic spirit, following the humane emperor to fight another war, to wash away the humiliation of the human race for 100,000 years!

Chapter 743 - Dai, Beiming devours the sky, and kills the head

With a short slap, the silhouettes staggered past, splashing out a splash of blood.

Laoshan looked somber, turned around, bowed his head, and watched a sword mark on his chest. He could see the bones and blood.

Looking at Qin Tiange again, holding the ancient sword standing opposite, his body was unscathed, and the two of them fought against each other because he fell behind.

“Kill!” Wu Shan screamed, and the black battle Ge buzzed and burst into the air, stabbing in front of Qin Tiange’s eyebrows, killing him.

The speed of this attack was extremely fast, almost breaking through the void barrier, but Qin Tiange’s figure was faster, and turned into two afterimages and passed by Laoshan side.

Two beeps, the left and right two swordsman’s arms crossed Laoshan’s arm, and his two arms were split with a click, and almost two hands were severed.

“Roar, look for death!” Sheshan was furious and was wounded twice in a row, which was simply shame, and the unbearable outbreak of Xeon Power.

The black battle Ge broke the void with a buzz, swept over it, and he was blocked by Qin Tiange’s horizontal sword grid.

The powerful forces shook them apart, Qin Tiange backed away, but held up the ancient sword with both hands, and the horrible swordsman gathered the swords.

“The mark of heaven, cut!”

A sword splits, and the void breaks open, turning into a sword mark that cuts through the void, and the mark of heaven is cut off.

Laoshan’s face changed greatly, and the black Zang Ge resisted, and the crackling sound came, and Zang Ge was cut into two parts.

Jian Mang fell, and despite his best avoidance, he was still chopped, and a small sword mark appeared, almost divided by a sword in half.

“kill!”

Qin Tiange slashed into the air, pointed directly at the opponent’s eyebrows, and the lore of strike made Laoshan’s heart tremble, his face changed several times.

“Roar!” In the face of the lore, Laoshan roared, his body full of darkness, and suddenly turned into a huge soar.

Its huge body was pressed over Qin Tiange, and its huge tentacles waved hard.

Bang, huh ...

Qin Tiange slashed with his sword, the sparks splattered, and he continued to chop off, eventually cutting off two tentacles and retreating.

He looked up, staring at the giant puppet who reminded him that it was the puppet clan who was one of the fierce clan in the sky, which was extremely scary.

It is rumored that the Dai people can stand up to the giants of the starry sea, devour the sky, and do everything.

“Bei Ming swallows the sky!”

A roar came, and Sheshan turned out of her body and opened her mouth wide.

A strong suction came, and that mouth looked like a black hole, no, it was a black hole, and a mouthful of black hole was directly swallowed.

It is rumored that the Dai people’s North Swallowing Sky can swallow the world and even swallow a star field in one bite. As to whether it is true or false, it is unknown.

But among them, Qin Tiange couldn’t help but be surprised. Looking at that fierce suction, the main cities of the surrounding city were uprooted and submerged into the giant mouth of Laoshan.

boom!

Qin Tiange felt his body was torn up, Huer waved his sword, and a violent collision came. Two forces hit each other.

But this time his chopping was useless, even if the mark of the heavens could not cut the black hole, he saw that he was going to be swallowed.

“Kaitian!” Suddenly, he drank in a low voice, Qin Tiange’s muscles swelled up, and the power of Pangu boiled, converging the sword body, and splitting a sword instantly.

This sword, like breaking the ground, cut open the sky, split the ground, split the black hole in the sky into two halves, and broke.

“Ah ...” The stunt was broken, Sheshan screamed, the huge body turned back into a human body, and there was a crack in his mouth, which was cut off before.

Once again, Laoshan was furious, and even the Dai people's Beiming devouring heaven was easily broken by Qin Tiange.

“What other abilities do you have to make it out, otherwise, you have no chance.” Qin Tian Geti sword stepped forward.

A sharp edge pointed at Laoshan, a powerful killing was permeated, Jian Yin burst in, and shocked Laoshan backed away, avoiding the sharp edge.

His figure flickered and kept dodging, and he did not dare to fight with Qin Tiange.

“Dai people, isn't the flesh supposed to be immortal?” Qin Tiange suddenly drank and put away the ancient sword.

He stretched out a finger and said coldly, “I don't need a sword, you don't have to dodge, come up and fight with me.”

“Arrogant, then I can fulfill you.” Sheshan was furious.

Qin Tiange is contemptuous. Instead of using an ancient sword, he has to use physical force to kill this Laoshan. In fact, the other party is too cunning, and his strongest now is the physical body.

“kill!”

Abandoned the weapon, the two roared and stood up, collided with one blow in the air, a loud muffled sound, and Laoshan was tragedy.

Qin Tiange's fist hit his cheek, he bleed on the spot, lost one of his teeth, and was hit with a punch and hit the ground.

“Damn, are you framing me?” Lao Shan was horrified, and then realized that Qin Tiange's strongest was the physical body.

Without hesitation, he turned into a body, a huge soaring slammed into the sky and hit Qin Tiange's body.

The loud bang and powerful force knocked Qin Tiange to the ground and crushed several houses in the city before stopping.

In the smoke, Qin Tiange stood up slowly, his body exuding bursts of gurgling sounds, and then swelled up to the height of one hundred feet.

“Look at me shredding you.” Qin Tiange roared, stretched his arms, rose into the air, and smashed a punch in Laoshan's belly.

With a bang and a heavy impact, Sheshan was foamed with a punch, and almost rolled her eyes and passed out.

The fat on the belly is very thick, and the defense is amazing. Under Qin Tiange's punch, he was not penetrated. I have to say that the body of the Dai people is really strong.

However, that powerful punch penetrated the body, making Sheshan extremely uncomfortable, and all the internal organs felt the pain of burning.

“Roar...!”

The roar came, and many creatures looked in horror, and saw that Laoshan’s huge body was smashed by a fist of a giant Zhangzhang, and the tentacles under his belly entangled Qin Tiange’s body, and he was imprisoned.

“Break!” Qin Tiange spread his arms, burst with blood and water, and dozens of tentacles were directly broken by him.

Then, he punched his arm on Laoshan’s belly with a click, and his fist penetrated his belly.

That violent power, like a sky, blasted off the strong defense of Sheshan, and directly damaged his body.

“Give me down!”

Surprised to see Qin Tiange jumped on his feet and stepped down on Laoshan’s head, violently shaking the parties.

There was a lot of smoke and dust, and gravel continued to hit the air. She was stepped on the ground and half of her head was caught in it.

The miserable appearance was horrifying, and the mighty Lao Shan could not resist Qin Tiange’s arrogant pangu force.

Qin Tiange held his arm up, smashed it with a punch, and made a loud noise. The smoke raged and turned into a terrible air.

“Ah ...” the scream of Laoshan came, and Qin Tiange stepped on the ground with his huge body, his fists fell like raindrops, his head roared, his bones cracked, and blood and water continued to be sprayed. Dozens of feet high.

“Yanshan, offer your head, and blood sacrifices my Terran War Banner.”

Suddenly, a loud roar came, Qin Tian Ge Huer pulled out the ancient sword, and chopped it around Laoshan’s neck.

“Roar ... Do you dare to kill me?” Laoshan screamed, eyes staring in horror at the huge ancient sword that fell down.

Chapter 744 - May my people be immortal

Flutter!

A stream of blood spurted thousands of feet, sprinkled on a simple battle flag, and heard a terrible sound of crickets.

With Qin Tiange’s sword in his hand, the entire head of Sheshan was cut off, and blood and water poured over the flag of battle, which inspired the endlessness of the flag of war, interweaving into waves of killings, shaking all parties.

“Ah ... how dare you?” Laoshan Lixiao, the beheaded head rolled down beside him, and opened his mouth a burst of crazy growl.

He is not dead, the true spirit is still there, the body separation is not very long, and he can still take it back. This is the power of the Dai people.

“Why don't I dare?” Qin Tiange sneered, stepping on the headless corpse of Laoshan, and swallowed directly.

With a bang, Laoshan's headless corpse suddenly trembled and trembled, and then, a powerful energy was absorbed and devoured.

Watching his headless body was devoured, Sheshan was furious, his eyes almost burst, and he was almost blown away by gas.

Qin Tiange actually swallowed the corpse in front of him, just to completely kill him and devour it, leaving nothing at all.

“Ah ... my Dai clan is endless with you.” Laoshan Li Xiao, like a ghost, his head suddenly flew up, and sent a horrible engulfment towards Qin Tiange.

A black hole condensed, and the rumbling Chao Qin Tian Ge swallowed it up. If he swallowed it, he might be crushed into a dreg by the terrible black hole.

The black hole was scary, but Qin Tiange was calm and unmoved, just watching the crazy swallowed Laoshan's head and suddenly grabbing the battle flag aside.

Click!

The battle flag smashed into a flash of light passing through, stabbing through Laoshan's mouth fiercely, revealing from his head.

The Quartet was silent, Qin Tiange's body was devoured into ashes by Qin Tiange, a huge head was penetrated by a huge battle flag, nailed to the void, and blood and water continued to flow down.

“Uh ... I, the Dais ... will not let you go ...” Sheshan was not reconciled, he had a strong strength, a strong power.

However, Qin Tiange suppressed the entire city with the Pangu seal, which resulted in his power being abolished by 90%, which led to his tragedy.

The mighty chaos master, Dai Shan of Shan, was directly cut off by Qin Tiange with a blood sacrifice banner.

“Puppet ancestors, burst ...”

Huer, accompanied by a horrible roar, Laoshan blew up his true spirit, which directly turned into a burning force, calling for the ancient ancestral spirit of the uncle.

boom!

With a loud noise, the whole chaotic city shook, the terrible breath permeated, and the powerful and ancient fierce power radiated.

Uh ...

The battle flag sent out bursts of fire, quickly withdrew from Laoshan's brain, returned to Qin Tiange's hands, and sent a monstrous murder.

Qin Tiange looked expressionless and looked at Laoshan's self-explosion. He even awakened an ancestor of the Dai people, or the lineal ancestor of Laoshan.

“Who, kill my juniors?”

In the skull of Laoshan, Huer heard a hoarse, low-snarling growl, showing endless anger, as if a terrible existence had awakened.

Its descendants were killed, awakened it with the true spirit, and summoned its ancestors directly from unknown time and space.

“Yi ancestor?” Qin Tiange murmured to himself, watching the increasingly arrogant breath, it was a terrible Qiang ancestor ancestor.

This is a super creature. There are terrible ancestors alive on Laoshan, and they are coming down from unknown time and space.

boom!

A thought swept through, the surroundings collapsed, and the house was swept into powder by an idea.

Qin Tiange stood there, motionless, with a banner in his hand and a terrible light on his brows.

“Is it you who killed my juniors?” That terrible Qiang strongman locked Qin Tiange's will, and his thoughts came over.

Qin Tiange opened his eyes, and the two clever caves came out, crushing the terrible idea pressed by the other side.

The will between the two will be evenly divided, so that the powerful existence is surprised, looking at Qin Tiange.

“It's weird.” That will body Huer took up Sheshan's head and turned it into a figure, his breath swelled and surpassed Sheshan's original breath.

Qin Tiange didn't stop, but watched the other side fully integrate this willpower into Laoshan's head, which revealed a cold smile.

“Old things, came just right, Li Luo, swallowed him.” Qin Tiange Huer laughed and said, let the strong Qiang who came down hold his will.

Then, a ray of light emerged, and a nucleus of a glass star was pressed over the powerful will that came.

“Presumptuous ...” The arrogant will raged and waved.

The result was a loud bang, but instead he was suppressed and his palms and even his entire arm broke apart.

Li Luo showed that mighty power, even if only a little bit of corpse was recovered, it can burst into an unparalleled lethality.

“Dead!” A cold whisper came out of Liuli’s nucleus, and Li Luo’s stubble lifted up a broken arm and reached out.

With a click, the overbearing will that came down shattered on the spot, the body formed with the sloppy head was beaten back to its original shape, and the ancient and powerful will was beaten out.

“Ah ...” As soon as this will was exposed, it was swallowed up by the liuxing nucleus, and only a miserable sigh came.

“No ... what time and space do you exist in?” The will roared, unwilling, but unable to resist.

Soon, his will was broken by Li Luo’s palm, and was swallowed up on the spot.

“Terrestrial, my Dai tribe is endless with you!”

Suddenly, in the depths of space and time, an extremely angry roar came, causing space-time shocks, but unfortunately the connection here was completely cut off.

The place of exile was originally isolated from the outside world, but this will be able to break through the barriers by virtue of the self-destructing call of the blood of the offspring.

It is a pity that the will that came down is isolated, and it is impossible to let the ontology know what is going on here.

“Well, it turns out to be the third-generation ancestor of the Dai people, you pay attention to it yourself.” Soon, Li Luo’s words came from the glass core.

After swallowing the will, she recovered a lot, and gained some memory, and knew who the owner of the will was.

It is the third-generation distant ancestor of the Dai people, an old thing belonging to the Tertiary Period, which has not died yet, and is hiding in a deep space and time.

After knowing this, Qin Tiange sneered, and didn’t care about it, so what happened? There are many dead enemies of the human race, and there is no shortage of a Dai race.

Taking back the glazed nucleus, Qin Tiange turned around and lifted his eyes across the chaotic capital. At this moment, tens of millions of living beings in the city have been killed on the edge of fear and collapse.

“The Lord of Chaos, Laoshan, has been sacrifice the banner of blood sacrifice, washed the chaos of the blood, washed away the shame of my tribe!”

Suddenly, a loud drink spread across the city, countless creatures looked in horror, and saw a battle flag raising a huge head.

It was the head of Laoshan’s body, which was extremely huge, and passed through to death, the true spirit extinguished, and the real ashes were extinguished.

Qin Tiange held the Terran Battle Flag, his breath was stunned, his eyes swept across the city like a knife, and the souls of thousands of people were boiling.

“My honour!”

“Humanity is immortal!”

“Kill, blood-washed!”

Thousands of British souls launched the final killing, completely burning the last power in his remnant soul, erupting the most brilliant glory in his life.

The glory that belongs to the human race has been suppressed for 100,000 years, and finally blooms out, shaking the earth, and can no longer be suppressed. The flesh and blood washed away the British soul, and completely radiated the glory belonging to the human race.

“Roar ... My lord, may I follow you in the next life and continue to fight.”

With a roar, a British soul exploded, turned into a splendid light spot, and flew off into the air.

The Ying soul extinguished, they completed their lifelong aspirations, washed away the shame, and finally embarked on the last journey, the Ying soul extinguished.

“May my tribe live forever!”

“May my people be eternal!”

“In the afterlife, fight the heavens with my emperor ...”

A loud roar came, spreading one after another with blessings, and the heroic spirits finally came to an end, dissipating in the air with satisfaction and blessing.

Tens of millions of British souls dissipated, with a touch of satisfaction, and a trace of regret, and failed to continue with the emperor Qin Tiange to conquer the heavens.

Chapter 745 - 0 family bones cast magic monument, Yongzhen resentment

The chaotic city, a dead silence, a little light floating on the void, is the light point of dissipated by the souls of thousands of people, it is their glory.

Dazzling and eye-catching, it has washed away the dust and shame for 100,000 years, giving out the most dazzling light.

Human Glory!

“Rest in peace,” Qin Tiange muttered to himself, without joy or sorrow.

In the whole chaotic city, there is no one living hundred races, some are just resentful rumblings, endless evil condensing, dark clouds billowing, showing horrible grievances.

Tens of millions of souls were killed, and the grievances they formed stunned all the races, wandering and mourning with resentment, telling their sad songs.

Qin Tiange actually killed all the non-human beings in the chaotic capital, and tens of millions of lives were thus buried.

On the road of the Emperor, corpses are everywhere, and the grievances cover the sky and the sky is full of resentment. Even the Pangu seal cannot stop this resentment.

hate! hate! hate!

They resent, resent Qin Tiange, and resent the human race, but this is inevitable. In order for the human race to rise again, they must step along the blood and carcasses of each race to kill them.

“What about resentment?” Qin Tiange stared indifferently at the resentment of the sky and hummed: “My people have been covered with shame for hundreds of thousands of years. We must use your blood to wash away the dust and glow with brilliance. To stop the resurgence of my people. “

The human glory of the past must be irrigated with the blood of various ethnic groups. As Qin Tiange said, it has been dusted for hundreds of thousands of years. The human race needs to be washed with the blood of the enemy and thoroughly clean the thick dust that has been pressed on the human race. Unleash the glory of the human race.

“Liluo, come and help me, condense the monument of ten thousand souls, suppress the grievances of hundreds of people, and use their corpses to suppress their grievances. They must never be born, let them witness the rise of my people.”

Qin Tiange suddenly drank, stretched his hands, and a powerful force spewed out. At the moment, he captured the endless grudges of the city, and the grievances of tens of millions of strong men of all races.

One after another, unwilling sorrows, telling their own misery and resentment, they would rather stay apart, turning into sorrowful sorrows day and night.

The evil spirit surging was forcibly condensed by Qin Tiange, forming a terrible evil spirit, wandering over the chaotic capital.

“Come!” A clear voice came out and saw the sky full of glazed fire bursting out, sweeping the city, and the endless corpses were rolled up and floated into the air.

Throughout the city, tens of millions of dead skeletons and broken corpses, one by one quickly rolled up high, condensed together with the burning of a glass fire.

The sea of thousands of souls melts together and turns into a horrible monument, condensed from the skeletons of the souls of various ethnic groups, exuding a monstrous spirit.

“Exercise!” Qin Tiange yelled, opened his mouth to emit a chaotic flame, and the two flames directly combined to smelt all the corpses in the entire city.

The terrible scene made the surviving Elder Zimo look dull, and lay there quietly, letting the broken bodies around him fly high.

She saw that Qin Tiange smelted a horrible monument from the corpses of various ethnic groups.

Huh!

With a whistle, all the corpses of the living creatures were smelted and turned into a huge monument with a height of one hundred thousand feet. The skeletons were intertwined, and the skulls were embedded, revealing the enchanting colors.

“Soul refinement, forbidden!”

Qin Tiange and Li Luo joined forces to seal the countless grievances flying in the sky directly into the mouth of the 100,000-zhang bone monument, and the sound of sorrow shook the world.

The resentment gathered, the blood poured out, and the sea of blood that had originally converged into the ocean was absorbed into the bone monument.

“what”

“Roar!”

A roar and a roar came from the bone monument, and I saw that grievances were constantly struggling and mourning, but unable to escape from the bone monument, locked up and suppressed.

Tens of millions of resentment of all races were sealed by Qin Tiange’s condensate. The monument floated, devouring all the evil spirits, and gathered into a terrible atmosphere.

With a bang, the monument ran across the sky and was severely inserted into the area of the original city’s main mansion, piercing the ground deeply.

Suddenly, the world shook, and all directions trembled, and the terrible evil sent out the 100,000-foot monument, shocking all ethnic groups.

“That’s, the Soul Sink?”

In the place of chaos, the creatures of all races were terrified, watching the towering bone monument on that side, the endless grievances roared and filled with terror.

The creatures of all races were terrified and trembled. Looking at the huge monument, they were horrified and killed, and even some weak creatures of various races were stunned.

“My queen, you are the strongest emperor I have ever seen. In this way, aren’t you afraid of attracting hundreds of ethnic attackers?”

In front of the huge magic monument, Li Luo was holding Qin Tiange through the liu star core, and his heart was extremely complicated. This method was somewhat amazing.

It is not enough to slaughter so many hundreds of powerful people at once. It is not enough for him to slaughter tens of millions of hundreds of souls. He even casts a magic monument with the bodies of hundreds of souls to suppress the grieving spirits.

Qin Tiange looked indifferent, without joy and sorrow, and calmly said, “What I do is nothing more than to face the enemy fiercely. What’s wrong with this?”

“Hundreds, what is your friendship with my people? No, it can be said that some have accumulated blood debts and hatred for countless years.” Qin Tiange’s tone was very flat.

He looked at the countless grievances struggling and sorrowing on the huge monument, and sneered: “Is there still few people who have died tragically?”

“Did you forget the tens of millions of British souls before?” Qin Tiangehan hummed. “A terribly chaotic place, where the bones of tens of millions of British souls are buried. How terrible is that?”

“Killing him for tens of millions, I still feel less. According to what I originally meant, the whole chaotic land was slaughtered directly, and then it was regarded as a real shock. Only the high-level people of the chaos sea would really attach importance to it.”

Speaking, Qin Tiange looked at the direction of the chaotic sea, where there was a constant gathering of horrors, and he felt the breath of wind and rain.

“The sea of chaos already has news. If you want to come, there is a strong one coming. How are you going to deal with it?” Li Luo asked for a while.

Qin Tiange looked at the direction of the sea of chaos, and Huer laughed: “Come and kill one. When I kill the strong of all ethnic groups, I dare not come, and even have to admit my existence, this is the beginning of my plan.”

“You want to do that” Li Luo stared wide, staring at Qin Tiange in shock.

I saw his eyes burst into two beams of horror, and he cried out, “Don’t you think that the creatures of the various races in the place of exile are redundant?”

Li Luo was silent, and looked at Qin Tiange’s gaze a little differently. This powerful first-generation powerhouse even gave birth to a ray of awe.

What does Qin Tiange want to do? His heart was big, terrifying.

“Mr. Emperor Fengfeng, killed in battle”

At this moment, Zi Mozhen came and said the news with a sad look.

Qin Tiange froze, and walked away, came to a broken body, looked at it quietly, it was the elder riding the wind.

He died, and the battle died here, or in other words, his life was exhausted. In fact, when he saw him at the first glance, Qin Tiange understood that the Terrans had sent an elder with a depleted life.

“I, riding the wind, without regret in this life can fight with my emperor.”

There was a line of blood on the side of Chengfeng’s corpse, which was carved before he died completely. This was his last battle, and he was washed away with shame and no regrets.

“Let’s go!” Qin Tiange sighed, Shou Yuan was exhausted, and he was powerless to take someone else’s Shou Yuan, but he couldn’t give others Shou Yuan.

Bang!

At this moment, a violent shock came from the northwest, and a strong breath swept through it.

Suddenly, a roar came and it was fierce!

“Roar”

“Human race How dare you slaughter the tens of millions of souls in the sea of chaos?”

“The jerk, we still smelt the magic monument with the bones of our hundred races, Yongzhen hundred races resentment, human race, you are so brave.”

Qin Tiange looked up and saw a black gas sweeping through. He wanted to break into the chaotic capital and break the magic monument, but was blocked by the Pangu seal and could not enter.

“A sea of chaos, here’s a killer!”

Seeing this, Qin Tiange sneered, set off in the air, and rushed out of the city with a will to kill, a strong will locked the figure hidden in the dark mist.

Click!

“Broken!” A roar came, as if the thunder broke through the thick black mist, revealing a terrifying creature inside, binocular scarlet, showing the fierce anger.

It reached out with one hand and slammed the magical monument on that side, trying to smash it and release the hundreds of grievances inside.

Chapter 746 - Elder, 8 million people, rekindled blood

There was a click, and a huge claw came up from the sky, and the scales shone with black light, showing terrifying pressure.

It was a scale-like creature, covered with thick armor scales, with red horns and scarlet eyes, extremely fierce.

“Bad my people?”

Just as Qin Tiange was about to make a shot, there was an indifferent and old voice in the black mist, showing a repressed anger.

Looking through the sound, he saw the black mist spread out, and a boneless old hand patted it fiercely, shattering the claw.

The powerful breath filled the dark mist there, revealing a thin figure coming out of it.

It was an old human race, skinny, with sunken eyes, and a dazzling fire burning in the cloudy eyes.

“Human race, elder?” The powerful creature from the sea of chaos was startled, staring at the coming old man.

This old man, like dead wood, is like a twilight old man who will die at any time. Shou Yuan is almost exhausted, but there is a surging blood in his body.

He is the elder elder of the exiled place, who led the people here, who has been a difficult survivor, survived to this day.

Qin Tiange’s eyes were prudent, and he felt countless battle trails from this old man. As if in the long years, he continued to fight for the clan, which made people feel a sense of respect.

“It’s impossible, it is rumored that you didn’t die three thousand years ago?” The creature seemed a little scary, and looked at the old man of the tribe a little fear.

This elder elder, it is rumored that he sat down three thousand years ago, and Shou Yuan dried up, but he did not expect to see it now.

“Old man never saw the hope of my people. How can he die willingly?” The old man’s voice was hoarse, and he came step by step. Ju Lou’s figure seemed to be miserable at every step.

However, his appearance scared the mighty creature in the sea of chaos, and kept back, watching the old man of this tribe come forward.

“Damn, you haven’t died, waiting for the Lord of Chaos to kill you.”

The creature left a word, turned directly to vacate, and left here.

“Come, don’t leave.”

But at this moment, the elder raised one hand, and patted it with a dry wooden hand, with a click, he heard a scream in the black mist.

“Ah,” a scream came, accompanied by a flurry of flesh and blood, and the chaotic sea strongman who wanted to escape was killed in the air by a single hand.

The true spirit never escaped, and was directly killed by that palm, arrogant and terrible. This is the elder elder who seems to die at any time, but it can burst out such a terrible power.

Qin Tiange squinted his eyes, looked at the old man all the time, and then glanced at the dark mist in the distance, where a dense and dense atmosphere appeared, it was a human atmosphere.

I saw that the elder walked down and came to Qin Tiange a few steps away.

“Sinner, Yu You, meet the Emperor”

The old man’s face was agitated, and the old man burst into tears. He bowed down, but was dragged by a force.

Qin Tiange appeared in front of him and gently lifted the old man: “The elder dedicated his life to my people.

“My queen, you are so incompetent. For 30,000 years, there is nothing we can do to make the people drop sharply year by year. It is almost destroyed. I am ashamed of the ancestors of the people.”

After You Yan said, he knelt down with a thud, and the old tears were vertical and horizontal, that Qin Tiange couldn’t stop trying.

Qin Tiange frowned, gently raised the old man, and asked, “How many people are there in the place of exile?”

You Xun's old face was sad, and he didn't speak, but lighted a light, soared into the sky, and exploded at high altitude.

Bang

Shocks came from afar, and then, a strong breath permeated, and gradually, a large number of people appeared in front of Qin Tiange.

These people, men and women, old and young, are huge in number, as much as eight million, but Qin Tiange could not help but sink his mind.

Eight million people, men and women, young and old, at first glance there are a lot of them, but if you think about them carefully, you can't help but feel cold.

Compare the number of living creatures of each ethnic group, the number of living creatures in the chaotic capital of Qin Tiange's slaughter, which is 30-40 million, and then compare with the 8 million men, women, and children.

Chilling!

Qin Tiange's face was Tieqing, and he exuded a strong chill. Why, because the elders brought them were the only remaining people in the entire exile.

Eight million people, this is almost extinct. Looking at the human races, all of their blood is decadent, and even a personal spirit is extremely decadent.

"Elder, don't you tell me, the people of the exiled place, that's all?" Qin Tiange's tone could not hear any fluctuations, but it showed a repressed anger.

To what extent have the human races decayed in the land of exile? The number of surviving people is less than one-fourth of a chaotic capital. What is happening?

"My queen, I'll be useless," You Xun's old tears crisscrossed, lying prone in front of him, refused to get up.

His words had just come to an end, and I saw eight powerful figures running in front of the team, but three middle-aged and five old men were all kneeling behind the elder.

"Eight million" Qin Tiange swept across the people in front of him, old and young, looking at him with anticipation, as if he saw a wave of hope.

Yes, in the eyes of the people here, I hope that in the emperor, only if the emperor pardoned the people in the exiled place can they stand up again.

The human race in the place of exile has been oppressed for a whole whole number of 100,000 years. From the beginning of its heyday to the near extinction of the tribe, after decades of generations, it still cannot guarantee that the tribe will continue, and it will soon be destroyed. Already.

"You guys, I am very disappointed." Qin Tian Gehuer said these words, the scene was silent.

Everyone stared at him blankly. The rumored emperor was disappointed with them.

“Your blood is cold. Your warfare has been wiped out by the Hundreds of Clan. Has your courage and courage been broken by the Hundreds of Clan?”

Qin Tiange shouted, shaking the ears of more than 8 million people in the presence, his heart shaking, his expressions changing, and his head bowed in shame.

Decadence, Qin Tiange felt a sense of decadence, which was from a kind of twilight gas that was produced after being almost destroyed.

“You have no sin, but you have given up your dignity as a human race, you have given up your courage, courage, and lost your blood. That is a major sin. You will be the sinners of my people until the people have been exterminated.”

“Tell me, guys, can you fight again?”

Qin Tiange drank angrily, shaking everyone’s heart, and a long period of depressed blood buried in his heart gradually rolled over.

They were not guilty originally, but they lost their courage and courage, which led to the near extinction of the people here. Once they were really destroyed, they were really sinners.

“Look what it is? The capital of chaos, the tens of millions of strong people, have all been slaughtered. Tell me, can’t the hundreds of people die?”

“Since we can kill, why are we human beings so close to extinction?”

“Because you have all lost your courage, lost your blood, and extinguished the unyielding war will of the human race. Who has consumed our war and blood?”

“It’s you.” Qin Tiange said after turning around, leaving a sentence: “You have forgotten the glory of the human race, you have lost the dignity of the human race, I am too disappointed.”

“No, we didn’t forget!”

“Men, we haven’t forgotten!”

When a roar came, Qin Tiange stepped forward, and saw the elder slowly stand up, with a strong blood permeating all over his body.

“Since I haven’t forgotten, then why can’t I feel any invincible blood and immortal warfare belonging to our people?”

“You guys, dare to fight?”

Qin Tiange turned around, surging with anger, and directly pressing on the eight million people in front of him. Suddenly, countless people burst into a strong blood.

Regardless of men, women, and children, each one opened his eyes, revealing an indomitable, boiling blood on his body He was thinly blown out by the dusty warfare, as if the volcano that had suppressed hundreds of thousands of years was generally turbulent and mighty .

boom!

“Battle! Battle! Battle!”

“My people, don’t be afraid of war!”

A roar shook all parties, and the eight million remaining human races were full of blood and warfare, and the former human races gradually awakened.

“Since I am not afraid of war, then I will pacify the cities of the chaotic land, those who do not obey, kill without pardon.”

Qin Tian Ge Huer threw a shot of the battle flag, stunned, and was thrown into the hands of the elder.

“Go, the battle flags passed, hundreds of people surrendered, and told the races with blood, my tribe is back, let me see if your blood is cold.” Qin Tiange’s indifferent tone penetrated the **** killing.

“war!”

The elder drank stubbornly, took the lead in carrying the Terran Battle Flag, and took the eight million remaining Terrans with a rumbling kill.

Chapter 747 - Change plan, the secret of the demon treasure

A chaotic city tower, Qin Tiange stood alone, expressionless, watching the elders kill eight million people to the cities.

He wasn’t worried at all. In fact, the cities in the chaotic land had been frightened by this battle.

The powerful chaotic capitals were all slaughtered by Qin Tiange, and among the tens of millions of grievances in Yongzhen’s magical monument, a mournful voice spread throughout the chaotic land.

Cities are naturally trembling, who dares to stop the path of the last eight million ethnic people?

“There are only eight million people, almost genocide. It seems that the plan cannot keep up with the changes.” Qin Tiange murmured suddenly.

Originally, he estimated that the human race in the place of exile would be the worst and not too bad, but he did not expect that the race would soon be destroyed.

This made him very angry. The original plan was to be broken, and it couldn’t be achieved. What can the eight million people do?

No wonder there were only three or two kittens sent by the human race before. It turned out that no one could send them, and as the elders of the human race, they were almost exhausted.

The elder Shou Yuan is about to die. Perhaps, once a strong person engages in a fierce battle with him, he will be completely weathered to death.

“My lord, the human race is almost exterminated here. The previous plan will be revised.”

A glazed nucleus emerged, Li Luo's voice came out, with a sigh of sigh, she did not expect that the human race in the place of exile was almost destroyed.

There are only 8 million people, young and old, young and powerful generations seem to be few, and not many can fight.

Qin Tiange had not anticipated this and had to re-examine the enemies of various ethnic groups in the exile. These ethnic groups were determined to overthrow the human race.

“Human races were driven to a most dangerous and barren place, and they were almost wiped out over time. This kind of hatred cannot be wiped out.” Qin Tiange said indifferently, his eyes were cold and murderous.

The sea of chaos, where hundreds of powerful men converge, occupies almost the most resource-rich area in the entire exile.

“So, how do you plan now?” Li Luo asked, frowning.

Qin Tiange looked at the direction of the sea of chaos, where there were hundreds of ethnic groups gathered, not to mention the huge number, and the strong were as many as the hair.

Like the powerful creature that was killed before, in the sea of chaos, it is just a strong midstream and downstream.

“According to the memory of the ancient remnant that I devoured, there are only two ways to distill the magic potion in the place of exile.”

Qin Tian Gehuer spoke this message, his eyes flickered and he snorted coldly: “One of them is the unique primitive demon creature in the hunting and exile land, and the other is the ground split blood pool.”

“Listen to the ground fissure blood pool, is it the crack under the chaotic city?” Li Luo said in surprise.

She sensed a crack under the chaotic capital, with a horrible breath hidden in it, extremely thick and bloody.

Qin Tiange glanced at the chaotic capital of Tukong and nodded and said, “I also knew this news, so I had the intention to destroy the chaotic capital.”

Below the chaotic city, there is a ground fissure pool, what is this?

The so-called ground fissure pool is the most mysterious and weird phenomenon in the exiled land. In some cracks cracked underground, strange blood-colored liquid flows out, as if it is a kind of blood.

In this blood, there is rich energy, which can be refined to make a magical medicine, which can temper the body.

And the primitive demon creatures in the exiled land actually mutated after absorbing this strange and mysterious blood.

“Most of the demon treasures are extracted and tempered from the eight underground cracks in the sea of chaos.” Qin Tiange’s eyes glowed coldly.

He hummed softly: “The eight island masters of the Chaos Sea have unfathomable strength. It is rumored that they have been repairing in these cracked blood pools, which is terrible.”

“It’s no wonder that the human race has been crushed almost to extermination. These only resources to enhance their strength have been occupied. It is no wonder that the human race is immortal.” Li Luo sighed.

Hundreds of people in the chaos, the eight major island owners, each occupied a fissure in the blood pool, thereby refining the endless treasures of the demon. As for the human race, they were completely suppressed and repelled, and rushed to the most dangerous danger zone.

Hundreds of thousands of years later, the originally strong human race has gradually decayed to the point where it is almost extinct today.

“You mean to kill all the living creatures in the chaotic land, or drive them away, the fissures and blood pools here cannot be evil.” Li Luo said softly.

Qin Tiange’s head admits: “Hundreds of people occupy the sea of chaos. Originally, I meant to directly break into a cup of tea, but now it seems that the heritage of the human race is not enough to support my plan.”

“Forget it, temporarily see how big the crack in the blood pool below the chaotic capital can support the rest of the eight million people here to recover the heritage.” Qin Tiange frowned, feeling a bit tricky.

Li Luo asked curiously, “If you can’t support it, do you want to break into the sea of chaos and want to get a share of it?”

“If you don’t call in, do you think we can have the resources?” Qin Tiange asked with a smile, not caring.

He said, “I have seen the pain of lack of resources along the way, and the people on earth have been cut off from inheriting resources. Do you understand the hatred?”

When Qin Tiange talked about this, there was an urge to slash people, and the whole earth’s inheritance support was cut off. How sad it was.

Let’s take a look at the people in the place where they are now exiled. They have been squeezed to almost extinction, and the resources can be said to be no.

I want to, I can’t fight, I can’t come in, I’ll die one by one, and bury the tens of millions of human spirits here.

As for the resources in the sea of chaos, don’t even think about it. Humans can only be forced to leave these areas and survive in the most dangerous areas.

“Well, the other breath should be the only ally of the human race, the Ziling race?” Qin Tiange suddenly looked up and looked somewhere.

He felt that a strong breath suddenly appeared in the chaotic land, with a large number, at least hundreds of thousands of strong breaths appeared.

Needless to say, that was the only ally of the human race, the Ziling clan, but the number of this clan is too small, and it can almost be said that it has been destroyed.

Hundreds of thousands of people, this small number of people, is almost endangered here.

Just like cherishing animals, they will soon become extinct with the passage of time. The purple spirits, humans, and both are about to be destroyed.

“What can you do with this person?” Qin Tiange reluctantly said to Li Luo: “You are ready, let’s go down and see if the energy in these so-called blood pool cracks can restore your remains even enhance my physical strength. “

“The next plan is that the creatures of the various races in the sea of chaos are the most critical part. I need your strength. At least half a step can be achieved. We can hope to rush out of the banishment.”

Qin Tiange quietly passed a sentence to Li Luo, with a dignified tone, that made Li Luo realize that the current human power is beyond use.

Originally, he believed that the human race should have a little strength to use, but now it seems that it cannot be done, then we must think of another way.

“Go, go down and find out!”

After Qin Tiange finished speaking, he turned around and went to the main palace of the city. He was already occupied by the huge monument.

In fact, Qin Tiange created it deliberately to cover people’s eyes and eyes, in order to cover the surging energy breath below with the corpses of various tribes.

Click!

Li Luo shot and broke a gap, and the two rushed directly into it. Then the gap here was covered and hidden by the magic monument.

Chapter 748 - Gushing blood, hiding the secrets of several epochs

Under the chaotic capital lies a mysterious crack.

“My lord, the breath is getting stronger and richer, and I want to come not far below.”

In the dark underground, a glazed nucleus constantly breaks through the hard soil layer, and cooperates with Qin Tiange, the two of them hard to break through the hard-sounding mud.

Entering the ground, Qin Tiange was a bit helpless, and the soil around him felt a little too hard, as if it were not dirt.

“Have you noticed that the dirt in the exiled land is too weird?” Qin Tiange stopped suddenly, looking at the surrounding soil, faintly radiating some kind of energy.

In fact, Li Luo already had a sense of instinct, and said solemnly, “If I guess well, maybe it’s just like you think.”

The two stared at each other, a hint of fineness was revealed in their pupils, and then they joined forces and broke into the underground.

Finally, after arriving here, Qin Tiange and the two found out that the surging breath kept coming up.

boom!

As the two forces erupted, Qi Qi blasted into an open area below and fell down.

The two fell down, standing on a raised platform, silently looking at a crack below.

The bright red light was diffused, and a thick **** mist wafted in the air, with a hint of black gas, and even a strange gray gas.

“This is the ground fissure pool?” Qin Tiange looked down, and there was a bright red crack underneath the bottom one hundred feet, as if it were a wound, and a stream of viscous plasma-like fluid was constantly flowing.

This thing exudes a breath of horror and is extremely powerful, even exceeding Qin Tiange’s original estimate.

He looked dignified, staring at the liquid, his heart was extremely shaken, and he glanced at Li Luo secretly, and the two had a secret communication.

“Do you think this crack looks like a ruptured capillary in the human body?” Qin Tiange passed a message to Li Luo.

The latter looked solemnly, staring down, and secretly said: “My lord, it seems that in the exile there are still unknown secrets, and even the secrets of several epochs.”

As an ancient creature of the First Age, Li Luo naturally knew the place of exile, but never came in, only heard of rumors.

Legend has it that the place of exile is left over after the chaos of chaos, it is weird, and there are hidden secrets everywhere.

The red misty sea in the past, and the ground fissure blood pool, one by one, are full of strange phenomena that remind Qin Tiange a lot.

“Earth magic blood, the mystery of the devil, whatever it is, try it first.” Qin Tiange cleared his mood, cut off bad thoughts, and said firmly.

The two nodded to each other and jumped down, jumping directly onto the **** liquid spewing from below.

Wow!

Immediately afterwards, a strong cross-flow air flow hit him. The blood gas turned into a mist and directly flew out Qin Tiange and Li Luo.

The two returned to the platform and fell down, looking serious, staring at the wound-like crack below, with thick blood-stained slurry flowing.

“I smelled the breath belonging to the chaos era. What do you think is under this crack?” Qin Tiange made his discovery seriously.

In the plasma below, he caught a breath belonging to the chaos era, which is only the most familiar to the Pangu people.

Li Luo’s expression changed in shock, and he took a look at Qin Tiange before saying, “Then you and I guessed it right, the demon treasure medicine, maybe it is to refine the mysterious energy here.”

“I just tried it, it can absorb and repair my corpse, and even the effect is surprisingly good, maybe I can completely recover my corpse within a thousand years.” Li Luo said this amazing words.

However, Qin Tiange shook his head and said, “It’s been too long for a thousand years. I want you to recover your corpse within a hundred years. I need your strength. There is something hidden in the place of exile. I can’t cope.”

“Okay, I’ll do my best.” Li Luo was moved, and Qin Tiange was taking a risk to restore her corpse.

Although she needed her strength, Li Luo was the first one that met countless people.

“Come, you and I work together to create some places for the cultivation of the people here. I want to make this place a place for cultivation, to accommodate my eight million people to cultivate and restore their former strength.”

Qin Tiange drank lightly, his whole body erupted, and the power of Pangu poured out. Together with Liluo, he forcibly dug out a place that could accommodate more people to cultivate.

Huh!

I saw Qin Tiange holding the ancient sword and digging on both sides of the crack, digging out caves one by one, allowing people to enter the place of cultivation.

There is a strong and mysterious energy permeating here, ancient and magical. Absorption and tempering can enhance the physical constitution of living beings.

Such a magical phenomenon had to make Qin Tiange have a lot of speculation, but now no matter what it is, he must use these energies to strengthen himself and even to restore the heritage of the only remaining people.

The excavation process was not smooth because the walls here were too hard, and even with the sharpness of the ancient sword and the power of Pangu, it took an hour to complete a cave.

However, after a hole has been excavated, it can be continuously excavated in it, connecting the walls on both sides of the entire crack.

Time passed by little by little, from the beginning of the difficulties, to the end, Qin Tiange swallowed while engulfing the mysterious forces around him.

And, in order to promote the quenching of Pangu's body faster, Qin Tiange gritted his teeth and jumped into the tumbling blood pool.

hiss!

Jumping into it, he must endure the erosion of those ancient and strange forces. Fortunately, Qin Tiange's body is strong enough, and with the support of chaotic membranes, it is enough for him to use the mysterious plasma here to enhance the body.

He did not refine the magical treasure medicine, but directly used the original underground plasma to train the body. This effect is better, but it is extremely violent and dangerous.

Even Luoluo got out of the lilac star core, stepped on the remains and swallowed into the vast blood pool to devour himself.

Although her body is broken, her strength is beyond imagination, she is not afraid of these violent amounts of plasma, and she completely takes a bath.

“My lord, the further down I feel, the more terrible the plasma energy concentration, maybe the secret of the place of exile is underground.”

While absorbing and repairing the stump, Li Luo heard the sound.

Qin Tiange sinks into it After hearing this, he said: “Don't take risks, complete the excavation first, and then deal with the next shock of the sea of chaos.”

“No need to worry, as long as it is not the chaos of the eight big islands, I can help you deal with it. Of course, we don't have much time and we must resume as soon as possible. Your plan has just begun. To complete it, you must walk through the entire exile. Li Luo reminded Qin Tiange seriously.

To complete his plan, he must travel through the entire place of exile and even enter some dangerous areas, such as the terrible area like the Red Mist Sea.

There are too many secrets in the place of exile, and it is very dangerous. If you are not careful, you may worry about your life.

“My lord, burying hundreds of people, can you really open the exit of the exile?”

Li Luo suddenly passed a word, Qin Tiange opened his eyes suddenly, revealing two beams of terror.

“If you don't do it, how do you know?”

Qin Tiange smiled inexplicably, rising into the air, holding the ancient sword to continue digging, and for a while came a violent digging sound.

Chapter 749 - Patriarch Ziji, opens up cultivation sites

Three days later, the elder returned with all the people, everyone was bloody, but none were damaged. There was no pressure in this battle.

Eight million people, men, women, and children have returned. In fact, this time, it was only Qin Tiange who asked them to see the blood, and renewed the blood in their bodies.

With tens of millions of creatures in the chaotic capital being slaughtered, the entire city of chaos in the chaotic land was disturbed and fled, and there were few left.

This time, hundreds of thousands of people from the Ziling tribe also returned, participating in the rebirth of the tribe under the leadership of the patriarch.

What can eight million people and hundreds of thousands of purple spirits do? In the place of exile, the human race and the only ally, the Purple Spirit, are almost on the verge of extinction, and they are almost extinct.

If Qin Tiange comes later, you may not see the human race and the Ziling race. The suppression and bloodwashing of the hundred races is very successful.

Shengsheng has wiped out the former strong people to this point. It has to be said that among the hundreds of stars and the universe, any race may be destroyed at any time.

Terran is like that! “Yu You, Zi Ji, meet the Emperor!” In the middle of the city, the elder and another woman in a black robe came to meet.

This woman shrouded in a black robe is the contemporary patriarch of the Ziling clan and the leader of the Ziling clan in exile.

“Two hard work!” Qin Tiange nodded, looking at the Ziling patriarch.

I saw that the other party slowly shed his black robe, exposing a soft purple long hair, and a purple imprint on his brows, as if the crystals were shining with a touch of purple.

She is the patriarch of the Ziling clan. She is peerless and outstanding, and exudes a temperament of motherhood all over her.

The Ziling tribe is a matriarchal social group. A woman is the master and the patriarch is the woman. The Ziling tribe here is the one in front.

“Ziji, thank you Ziling for coming this time to help.”

Qin Tiange smiled and thanked him.

Zi Ji’s eyes flickered a little, and Shi Li said, “You are polite, this is your duty and responsibility as an ally.”

“well.”

Qin Tiange laughed, and the other side understood that he wanted to take this opportunity to come out and fight against the people with the people.

In fact, the real purpose was to use Qin Tiange, the emperor, to leave this place of exile, because she saw that Qin Tiange did not belong to the place of exile.

The only possibility is that Qin Tiange came from the outside, so that Zi Ji, the patriarch, paid enough attention and moved, even faintly excited.

After many years, I finally saw the hope of going out. Perhaps, the only hope of going out of exile was in Qin Tiange.

“Elder, you are depleted and Shou Yuan is near, this is not a good sign.”

Qin Tiange then looked at the elders who looked like dead wood.

The latter looked bleak and said, “I have no regrets for death. I refused to breathe a sigh of relief. Now, seeing the advent of my emperor, I have wished, even if there is no regret at this moment.”

“No, the elder is wrong.”

Qin Tiange frowned and said, “You first let the people settle down, and the chaotic city has been slaughtered by me. From here on, there will be only human and purple spirits.”

“Also, pick a group of young people as soon as possible, I have something to explain.”

Qin Tiange said, his eyes turned to Zi Ji, the patriarch.

He thought for a while and laughed: “Princess Ziji, after you arrange for the tribe to settle down later, you also choose a group of young tribe to come to me.”

“Yes, Emperor!” The two took the lead together, surprised in their hearts, secretly guessing what Qin Tiange was going to do, would they start fighting with the hundreds of people? But obviously it is impossible. The only explanation is that they have secrets they don’t know, and maybe they will understand later.

The two went down quickly and led the people to settle their respective clan. After half a day, they each selected 10,000 elites to come and found Qin Tiange in front of the town’s soul-stabilizing monument.

“My lord, arrangements have been made.”

The elder, Zi Ji stepped forward to salute, indicating that the human race and the Ziling race were properly arranged and lived in the city.

Qin Tiange turned around and looked at the dense young people and the young purple spirit girls.

Looking at the Ziling clan, they were all women. Qin Tiange was speechless. No wonder the Ziling clan is rare, and men are a rarity.

Moreover, the Ziling tribe rarely or even intermarries with foreigners, which has caused the reason why the Ziling tribe is scarce.

Man, in the Ziling clan, has become a national treasure-level figure, which makes Qin Tiange cry and laugh.

boom! Suddenly, Qin Tiange waved his hand away from the town’s soul monument, exposing a dark underground passage.

Looking at this underground passage, the elders and Zi Ji looked at each other and saw the surprise in each other’s eyes.

Next to Zi Ji, following Zi Ling, the young girl, was curiously watching Qin Tiange. What is this channel for? “Everyone, go down.”

Qin Tiange didn't explain, and let the elders and Zi Ji bring people in directly.

As everyone rushed in, along the underground passage, came to the crack of the underground blood pool, all shocked.

“Here, this is the ground split blood pool?” The elder looked shocked, his face flushed with excitement.

He had to be thrilled that this thing, the Terran did everything to make it, and still couldn't break into the sea of chaos.

Because there are eight ground-split blood pools in the sea of chaos. The magic blood inside is the core of refining the demon treasure medicine.

Without these demonic blood, the human race can't refine the demon treasure, and if you want to get it, you must hunt and kill the demonic creature.

Or hunt and kill hundreds of living creatures, but unfortunately, the people who do not control a ground split blood pool cannot develop at all, but are getting weaker and almost destroying the family.

Now I see that there is a pool of magical blood hidden here. How can the elders not be excited and struggle for hundreds of thousands of years, today I see this natural excitement.

“Elder, maybe you can use the magic blood to restore the dying blood. As for your success, it's up to you.”

Qin Tiange said lightly.

Whether the elder can recover depends on himself. Qin Tiange cannot help him. The only thing he can rely on is himself.

“My lord rest assured that with the magic blood, I can live for another five thousand years without help.”

The elder emancipated a strong self-confidence.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange smirked and said, “Okay, here is the place for you. Cut out enough areas to accommodate the cultivation of the clan people. Here, this is the place where our people and purple spirits can restore their heritage and strong self. “

“The demon blood is very strong, but it hides huge dangers. You must pay attention to it. You cannot enter the blood pool without strength.”

Qin Tiange gave a warning Then he jumped, disappeared into the blood pool, disappeared.

The two elders, Zi Ji, and their respective excited tribe left, excavating, digging out a larger space for the tribe to come here to practice.

“Magic blood, we have struggled for hundreds of thousands of years for this, but we have never got it, and now there is a magic blood pool hidden under the chaotic capital.”

“No wonder, the Emperor is going to slaughter the entire chaotic city.”

Zi Ji murmured to herself with infinite emotion.

Under the chaotic capital, there is a magic blood pool hidden. This secret, in fact, is not clear to the strong among the hundreds. This is the information Qin Tiange obtained from an ancient remnant memory.

Demon blood, chaotic blood, with a violent and chaotic energy, can even cause souls to pollute demon creatures.

Opportunities are hidden in crisis. Although dangerous, they can extract the magical medicine of the gods, strengthen the body, and improve physical strength and quality.

With this infinite blood flowing out from the fissure cracks, perhaps the human race can grow up quickly.

Unfortunately, there are too few people here.

When the human race secretly excavated the cultivation site, the sea of chaos and the strong men of all ethnic groups gathered to discuss the Qin Tiange emperor.

Chapter 750 - Practice with demon blood

The Chaos Sea is a black sea with hundreds of thousands of small and large islands. The eight largest islands have been occupied by eight powerful ancient creatures. They are known as the masters of the eight islands and command hundreds of people.

Chaos on the edge of the sea, and chaotic incidents brought in here, immediately caused great movements, the strong men of all ethnic groups gathered to discuss this matter.

“What do you think of this emperor?” On a black island, there were dozens of strong men, all of them strong and foggy, unable to see at all.

This is the concealment of strong men of various ethnic groups. In fact, the hundreds of ethnic groups are not so united, and their own struggles often occur.

Something went wrong with the Terran side, and suddenly killed a Emperor, directly slaughtering the entire chaotic city.

With the chaos in the chaotic fledgling cities returning news, the Terrans came to a Emperor, which was amazing.

“What I care about is, how did this emperor appear in the place of exile?” A powerful creature opened his mouth, his voice ringing like a bell, shaking the Quartet.

He was extremely powerful and terrifying, like a black hole that devoured the world, devouring the light and heat around him.

The creatures here are shrouded in black mist, as if the real body cannot be seen, as if hidden one by one in the black hole.

“In my opinion, this emperor must have come from the outside. Our opportunity is here.”

“Yes, the emperor can come to the place of exile, then it proves that he has a way out, and must find a way out.”

“So, capture the emperor?” One powerful soul after another, discussing whether to catch Qin Tiange back and find a way to get the secrets that may be hidden from him.

These powerful creatures are not thinking about any rise of the human race, but thinking about the way out that Qin Tiange may carry.

The place of exile is a prison cage. They have been held here for too long, too long, and they all want to go out.

Originally, there was no way to find it, but now it is different. Qin Tiange’s appearance disrupted the entire place of exile and shocked the strong men of all ethnic groups.

What they see one by one is that Qin Tiange does not belong to the place of exile, that is, he came in from the outside, which is enough to make these strong men be tempted.

“How to catch?”

“His strength is not weak, and once he runs away, we have no chance to go out.”

A powerful creature opened his body, hiding in a dark vortex, revealing two beams of red awn, with a fierce light.

Just listen to him: “At present, the emperor has occupied the chaotic capital, and it is enough to see his murderousness by watching him slaughter the entire chaotic capital.”

“The one sent out before is dead. No one can catch him unless we are the ones who do it ourselves or the eight major island owners who are retreating.”

His words silenced dozens of powerful creatures present, and then some of them spoke their proposal.

“I don’t think there is a way for the emperor to go out. Maybe he was beaten down or entered this place by mistake.”

These words speculated that the secret of Qin Tiange’s real arrival was indeed mistakenly entered here.

“Anyway, pay close attention to Qin Tiange’s every move, and report to the eight island owners as soon as possible.”

“As for the chaotic capital, let it be given to the human race, and wait for the instructions of the island owner. After all, I have more important things to wait for, and the things that the island owner can explain can not be delayed.

In the end, a creature said this, and then the figure disappeared, and the vortex disappeared.

Next, these powerful creatures disappeared one by one, and this meeting did not make any sense at all.

As for catching Qin Tiange, they really want to, but they have more important things to do, and the things arranged by the eight island owners are the most important.

If they do it, but they are going to die, the island host's horrible horror is not something these strong men can provoke.

The chaotic city, underground, and in the blood of the devil, Qin Tiange is using the powerful endless blood of the blood to wash his body.

However, he found a problem, such that forcibly drawing the magic blood to wash, it is easy to be eroded by the powerful magic contained in the magic blood.

Once an ordinary creature is eroded, it may turn into a terrible demon creature, without any consciousness, it is completely a fierce evil.

This is much more terrible than those crazy monsters. Qin Tiange has noticed this, but he didn't care, because Pangu's body is enough to withstand this impact.

“Li Luo, what did you find?” Deep down in the blood, Qin Tiange came to a broken body, which was Li Luo's broken body.

At this moment, Li Luo is devouring the endless magic blood, repairing her incompleteness, and the powerful magic blood can provide her with the energy to repair the corpse.

This is incredible. You must know that only the unique energy of the First Age can make her repair her stump, but it is a bit shocking that these magic blood can do it.

“You find no, these magic blood are very thin, and the further down, the more intense the energy concentration of the magic blood is.”

Li Luo had a dignity on his face.

Tough and strong, she has great vigilance here, and has to say that the secret under the blood of the devil is frightening.

“Do you want to say that we may have entered a certain organism?” Qin Tiange looked awful, looking at the demon blood rolling around.

Judging by the flow of these magic blood, it seems that it really looks like it is in a blood vessel in a living body.

Qin Tiange suddenly felt that they were like parasites, drawing nutrients from these blood and improving themselves.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help shaking his head and smiled bitterly: “The more you practice, the more you feel small, and you can't imagine that if guesswork comes true, can we go out alive?”

“No need to guess, let’s use the magic blood here to recover ourselves. Power is everything.”

Li Luo looked at the rolling blood around her and said, “I feel that as long as I can go deeper, I may speed up the repair of my remains.”

Qin Tiange heard the words contemplative, and then said: “Since then, you and I ventured, and I just wanted to see if these demons can temper my body to a higher level.”

“Go!” After speaking, the two broke through these demon blood obstacles, dived straight down, and entered a deeper level under strong pressure.

The further down here, the higher the concentration of demon blood, with a terrible destructive nature, capable of assimilating all living things and substances.

The creatures that came here were assimilated and disappeared, but Qin Tiange relied on the powerful Pangu body to keep it from being eroded.

As for Li Luo, her physical strength was beyond imagination, despite her physical disfigurement. In addition to being unable to move, the magic blood here couldn’t wipe her out.

“You said, would the strong people of the hundred races sink into cultivation here?” Qin Tian Gehuer thought of this question. Perhaps, the strong people of the hundred races and even the eight island masters were hiding here for cultivation.

This is not impossible. Thinking of this, Qin Tiange became cautious and had to be wary of the powerful creatures that might be hidden here.

They can come in, no reason other strong can not come in, and maybe even more terrible things are hidden here Don’t forget the origin of the demon creature.

“These demons seem to have become darker.”

Soon, Qin Tiange noticed that the magic blood changed, and gradually, the blood red magic blood suddenly turned gray.

It feels that these dark blood are more violent, full of destruction, and even absorbed into the body will cause horrible damage.

“Be careful, I feel a few strong breaths, just nearby.”

Li Luo suddenly became vigilant, reminded aloud, and felt that something unknown was hiding around.

Qin Tiange squinted his eyes and seemed to see some terrible figures swimming through the endless magic blood.

“Huh?” Suddenly, a black blood burst in front of him, and a huge black shadow burst into a bang, opening his mouth and swallowing at Qin Tiange.

The sudden change was unexpected, but Qin Tiange responded quickly, and his body was well prepared to escape the shadow.

“Dead!” Qin Tiange turned and drank, waving his arm and punched him.
