

Dark Ages 771

Chapter 771

The sea of chaos is a dead sea, the dark sea of water, like a boiling and rolling magic blood, is a deadly Dead Sea, there is no life or death, never living after the chaos of the dead sea Come down.

However, under the Dead Sea, there are many mysteries hidden. In fact, there are several huge springs under the Dead Sea.

What came out of it was a kind of venomous blood, which formed a terrible Dead Sea over time. The entrants were separated from the flesh and melted directly.

This Dead Sea feels like a place where the dirtiest substances in the world gather.

On the Dead Sea, hundreds of large and small islands, eight of which are the largest, are controlled by the eight strongest island owners.

There is a huge crack of magic blood under the island. Here, there are huge hundreds of masters hiding, hiding here, secretly planning something.

According to the true memory of the thousand-eyed monster, it is learned that the eight island owners here have united many ancient epochal creatures and led the hundred powerful men to quietly plan.

Qin Tiange was very concerned about this. They secretly planned for countless years, and the huge plan made him feel shocked.

Under the ground of the entire exile, how many paleontological creatures are hidden in the end, they have existed for a long time, one by one secretly, to seek a larger plan.

What is the plan, from the memory of the thousand-eyed monster, it is actually unknown, and even the information is sporadic, and it is impossible to see all.

Under the sea of blood, the devil's blood was boiling, flowing constantly, as if the underground rivers crisscrossed.

“That's it”

At this time, Qin Tiange and Li Luo quietly came to an area. Here, the magic blood did not boil, and did not flow, but was trapped in this area.

The two looked ahead. The strange scene caught his attention. According to the memory of the thousand-eyed monster, it was learned that there was a dense and dense array of ancient patterns.

“It's an ancient formation. There are many kinds of it. It's dense and dense. It seems to be merged by some force to form a huge area.” Li Luo glanced through the hidden mystery.

It was a dense array of ancient formations, which were secretly portrayed here, creating a world of patterns.

Qin Tiange's eyes glowed with silver and silver, and he saw the staggered lines, continuously connected, drawing the endless energy of the magic blood in the ground.

“These ancient formations contain all kinds of formations of hundreds of people, and when combined, they burst into unparalleled power.” Qin Tiange said to himself, his eyes flickered.

He could see that there were densely packed ancient arrays of hundreds of ethnic groups, staggered and merged to form a terrible scene.

If this secret ancient array was not learned by Qin Tiange from the memory of the thousand-eyed monster, it might not be clear.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange looked solemnly: “The Hundreds have greater plans. It seems that those ancient creatures and strong Hundreds have been plotting a huge plan underground.”

“Perhaps it has to do with leaving the place of exile, or they want to refine the mysterious demon blood beneath the ground.” Li Luo thought about it and made a guess.

Qin Tiange didn’t speak. He stepped forward a few steps, hiding his body and breath, quietly observing the role of these dense ancient ethnic arrays.

Gradually, he saw some of these doorways. The role of these ancient formations was to continuously absorb the energy of the underground magic blood.

Qin Tiange’s role is unknown for the energy that has been absorbed and refined.

The only thing that can be seen is that the hundreds of plots are very ambitious. This point must be cautious and vigilant, otherwise they will not be known in the dark.

“Li Luo, you look outside, I’ll go in and see what happens.”

Qin Tiange pondered for a while, and finally decided to enter the battlefield to see what was going on inside.

Li Luo frowned, a flash of worry flashed through his pupils, but did not stop, but waited outside calmly.

Huh!

Qin Tiange’s body turned into a black particle, suddenly merged into the dense array of ancient arrays, passed through the layers, hundreds of ancient arrays, sneaking into the center of the array.

The more you enter, the more Qin Tiange feels, there is a horrible breath hidden here, that is the infinite energy extracted from the magic blood.

Sure enough, when he entered the center of the array, Qin Tiange’s face could not help but change, and he saw that there was an overwhelming energy.

This energy is locked and suppressed in the middle of the formation, forming a terrible scene, the energy tumbles, and the continuous accumulation and compression.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange’s pupils shrank, and he secretly said, “These energies are very powerful, and it is not even clear how many years have been accumulated to have such majestic energy.”

In the center of the array, the energy is too huge. Once it bursts out, it will destroy the world.

However, in that core area of energy, Qin Tiange saw a strange pillar that connected a piece of black-grey flesh below.

Yes, there was a rolled flesh there, and shreds of meat spread around, sucking the pillar firmly.

However, this pillar draws those terrible energies, as if an oil pipe continuously draws infinite energy from the endless depth of the ground and gathers.

“This is to use the endless energy of the magic blood below the ground to condense and compress it with the ancient arrays of hundreds of people, and turn it into a barrier that destroys the world and destroys it?”

Qin Tiange blinked his eyes, murmured to himself, and made his own guess. Once the energy here burst, he couldn’t imagine the power and destructive power.

Moreover, this arrangement of ancient arrays can be more than just one place. Under the entire ground, hundreds of ethnic groups and paleontological creatures joined forces to arrange a large and hidden ancient array.

This is just one of them. So many ancient arrays draw the infinite energy of the magic blood under the ground, and most of them are the barriers to open the chase.

Qin Tiange looked for a while. Despite the infinite energy condensed here, he did not act lightly.

Before the situation is unknown, he cannot take risks. The densely packed ancient formations here must have other functions. Once touched, they may cause great trouble.

Qin Tiange quietly exited without disturbing the ancient array here, turning it into black particles forcibly attaching to space, and drilling out the dense ancient array.

“What?” Li Luo saw him coming out and immediately asked.

Qin Tiange shook his head gently, and briefly explained the situation inside, both of them thought the matter was not easy.

“Huang, I always think that the hundreds of people shouldn’t just want to break the place of exile. Perhaps, their purpose is to be underground.” Li Luo said his final guess.

Underneath, where is the source of magic blood? And what’s hidden in the ground of the exile, why is there a strong unknown biological guard?

“Go, and then look at the other hidden ancient arrays. Maybe we can see the true plot of the hundreds of people and those ancient creatures.” Qin Tiange groaned and left immediately, going to see the other ancient arrays.

Here is an ancient array. According to the true memory of the Thousand-Eyed Demon, it is learned that there are thousands of places in the ancient ethnic arrays under its control.

Hundreds of people and even ancient epochs have secretly laid out such formations in thousands of places. There must be a plot that Qin Tiange did not know.

When Qin Tiange and Li Luo came to another ancient array area, they could not help frowning when they saw it.

“Guarded by ancient creatures.” Qin Tiange frowned, and Huer sensed that there was an ancient creature hiding in the blood in a distant area.

This aroused the vigilance of Qin Tiange. There was no ancient creature in that place before, obviously it was the area guarded by the one-eyed monster.

And this area is guarded by another ancient creature, guarding this dense array of hundreds of ethnic patterns.

“Do you still want to go in?” Li Luo said quietly.

The two were hiding not far away, and their eyes were vaguely staring at the still blood in front of them, as if imprisoned by some force.

In the demon blood, there is an ancient creature hidden, which is guarding the location of this hundred ethnic ancient area.

Through the demon blood, Qin Tiange saw the appearance of the ancient creature, and his eyes couldn't help flashing a hint of light.

Chapter 772 - The return of the British soul, another battle, scrub the human shame

The chaotic land was boiling, and a faint spirit of British heroes emerged, all coming together, exuding all kinds of evil spirits.

They are all the heroic souls of the people who died here in the past, and they are buried here.

With the outbreak of Qin Tiange, he dissipated a part of his imperial spirit and sprinkled it on this land, directly summoning the remnants of the old war death without resignation.

One by one, they turned into heroic souls and returned. They burned their thoughts, and they all came under the blessing of imperial fortune.

Huh!

There was an old heroic hero, who came into the air with an iron spear, and quickly gathered in the chaotic city.

The Emperor, where they summoned their heroic remnants, needed them to come to the battle and wash away the shame of the former peoples.

“My heroic spirit, not yet return!”

Qin Tiange yelled, his voice billowed, pierced the sky, and spread throughout the chaotic land, causing great panic among all races.

With a roar, then, the creatures of all races in the chaotic land saw in horror, one by one, the burning spirits crawled out, and gathered into a sea of oceans.

“Human sinners, the remnants return, meet my lord!”

Suddenly, a dense crowd of heroic spirits came flooding together, covering the sky, converging into a vast ocean with no margins.

They are all heroes killed here by human races. The number is huge, and millions of heroes have been summoned.

Tens of millions of British souls worshiped in unison, everyone's face was excited, and they even restored their former consciousness, even if they knew it was a momentary glory, but it was enough.

At least, they died for countless years, and still had the opportunity to return again and meet the emperor of the human race.

“My soul, innocent!”

Qin Tiange yelled, guilty of innocence, burning millions of British souls, scorching warfare surging, all roaring loudly.

“Innocent!”

“We are not sinners!”

Exiled here for countless years, already long frustrated, but today, the Emperor came, summoned the hero, and heard the emperor personally say that they are not guilty, this is the greatest comfort to those heroes who died in the war in the past And rewards.

“Oh, my tribe, the shame of the past, with me today, thoroughly wash with the blood of the enemy!”

Qin Tiange turned around, pulled out the ancient sword, and snorted. The sword awn pointed directly at the creatures of the various races in the chaotic capital, which made the strong men of all races tremble.

“war!”

A word of war, completely ignited the last glory of millions of British souls, the Emperor summoned to let them wash away the former shame.

This is Supreme Glory!

“Battle! Battle! Battle!”

“Human race, immortal!”

Thousands of war spirits roared, burning the British soul, sublimating as much as possible, and the last glory erupted directly.

Their consciousness turned into a war spirit, which was the last battle, and it was necessary to wash away the shame of 100,000 years.

Bang ...

The chaotic land trembled. As ten million human spirits entered, instantly, powerful creatures screamed, their bodies were penetrated by the spirits, penetrated their bodies, shattered the real spirits, and took their lives.

The killings were staged, and the human spirit was summoned by Qin Tiange, at the cost of the imperial emancipation, but he did not regret it.

Because this must be done, the British souls need to rest, and let them fight again to wash their shame.

“kill!”

In the city, the sound of shouting and killing was trembling, but a sense of evil filled it, but it could not be emitted, and it was locked by the Pangu seal.

At this moment, tens of millions of creatures from all races in the Chaos Capital were terrified.

I used to think that Qin Tiange was too arrogant, but now he finally realized that it was not arrogant at all, but that he planned to slaughter the tens of millions of people here.

“Do not...”

“You dare to slaughter my hundreds of souls, and you will regret it.”

“Human race, you will cause a great disaster.”

There are powerful creatures roaring, not willing to be killed, and struggling to resist, but unfortunately they were killed by the heroic souls who burned their minds.

They are angry, frightened, constantly roaring, cursing the human race, and even think that doing so will bring about a terrible disaster.

The ***** and brutal repression began, and tens of millions of people of all races resisted and madly slaughtered. For a time, the whole chaotic city was shaken.

Bang!

The house collapsed, the smoke was so thick, and the sky was covered by the sun, forming a terrible extinction, one by one, tragic deaths, strangled by those crazy heroes.

The mighty were all shattered by the imperial imperial sanitation and killed here. The million elite army of all ethnic groups were besieged in the imperial battlefield and swallowed up a little bit.

Bloody blood, corpses covered the streets, houses were full of corpses, resentment was soaring, and anger was condensed.

Watching the whole city fall into a scuffle, the master of chaos, Sheshan looked in horror, completely stunned by such a scene.

He never thought that Qin Tiange would have someone to imprison the guard, and even summon the heroes of the human race who had died in this land in the past.

This is the power of the emperor. He lost part of his emperor's luck, which was the awakening of the heroic soul in exchange for the emperor's luck.

Perhaps this is the price of recalling the former British soul. If you want to get it, you must pay it. Qin Tiange has paid part of his luck.

“kill!”

Here, the elder Chengfeng was already flushed, and his eyes were almost burning.

He wielded his war spear and killed him, completely abandoning life and death. He wanted to wipe out the shame in the First World War and completely play the reputation of the human race.

After this war, no matter whether he was alive or dead, he had longed for it, because the emperor came, even if the war died, there are still emperors.

“Emperor ...” Zimo, the elder of the Ziling clan, muttered silently, looking at Qin Tiange’s mighty body, and Huer raised a burning gaze.

The emperor, even when he came to the place of exile, didn’t he say that he wanted to take away the people in the place of exile?

Then, as an ally of the human race, wouldn’t it be a chance to follow the emperor, kill the place of exile, and then return to the starry universe.

“My tribe is hopeful!”

Zi Mo’s eyes burned, and Tijian entered the chaotic capital. She knew that this was the only chance.

Even, she has already summoned the current patriarch of the Ziling clan to inform them of what happened here.

In the future, the Ziling clan must be close to the emperor, and conquest is inevitable, but if it can get the emperor’s attention, it will be the greatest benefit for the clan.

“Qin Tiange!”

Suddenly, there was a roar in the center of the city, and the Lord of Chaos was shocked and angry. Looking at Qin Tiange here, the two breaths were crushed up.

There was a thumping sound, and the breath of the Lord of Chaos was overwhelmed, unable to stop the general trend that Qin Tiange condensed on him at this moment.

That is the endorsement of millions of British souls Dedicated his beliefs directly to the emperor who called them back.

That potential is the potential of millions of people ’s heroes. Who can stop it?

“Lord of chaos, your way is done!”

Qin Tiange suddenly stepped forward, holding the ancient sword, step by step towards the center of the city, killing the master of chaos, and locked the opponent firmly.

The two Xeons face each other, killing and colliding, the war is about to start!

“I didn’t expect you to be the emperor, but you dare to expose it. It seems you are very confident. I don’t know if the strong man in the sea of chaos will come to wipe you out as a weak emperor?” The Lord of Chaos sneered. Said.

Qin Tiange was unmoved, and the ancient sword pointed indifferently, saying, “Today, chop your head, and sacrifice my nation’s war banner.”

“kill!”

The two blasted at almost the same time, the force broke out, the killing swept through, the ancient sword cut through the air and beheaded, Heige struck through the void, snorted, and the two arms hit each other.

Chapter 773 - Dominated by paleontology

In front of me, mysterious figures emerged and gathered, all of them were covered with thick fog clouds, and the real body could not be seen at all.

Nine weird figures emerged, all mysterious and unpredictable, and their breath was not leaked. They were completely unknown about their origin and origin.

“Well, hurry up, this seat is very busy.”

There was such a sentence in one of the black mist, looming where a single horn stood, and two lantern-like **** eyes, reflecting the fierce light.

Alas, it was the mysterious creature who went to check before. He looked at the talking creature and snorted softly.

“Hey, don’t hesitate, this seat calls everyone, just for the two guardian ancient beasts that suddenly disappeared.” He said sternly.

As soon as this word came out, there was a cloud of purple light coming out immediately, and a clear word came out from it.

“Do you mean, someone destroyed the ancient array that we laid out?” The woman’s words came from the purple mist.

It was a female creature, but it was unknown what it was.

“Fei Fei, your voice is still so beautiful. I have been chasing you for 300,000 years. Why have you never given a word?”

“Zhu Xi, you are too ugly.” Such a sentence came from the purple mist, full of disgust.

In this words, the creature who just spoke paused, and the red mist boiled, sending the slightest oppression.

“Okay, you don’t have to stop talking nonsense, alas, you hurriedly talk about whether Guzhen was destroyed or not. You are in charge of this matter. If it is destroyed, we are the only ones to ask.”

In such a scorching haze, there was such a faint utterance, and the sound was cold and extinguished.

It seemed to be hidden in a scorching sun, extremely hot, so that the blood around it was evaporated one by one.

“Candle photo, don’t you have any feeling with Youying?” He looked unhappy, his tone was a little bit irritable.

He sneered coldly: “The Ancient Array was not destroyed, but the two ancient beasts guarded were gone, and the spirit breath had disappeared, apparently dead.”

“Who did it?” A cold voice came, a cold chill.

There is a creature hidden in it, extremely powerful and weird, it is Youying.

At this time, Qin Tiange, who was hidden in the gap between the space, and Li Luo looked at each other, and they saw the surprise in each other’s eyes.

Because the nine mysterious ancient creatures gathered here are all extremely ancient and terrible species, and they have lived for a long time.

They are the masters of paleontology, the masters of nine paleontology creatures, they lead other paleontology, and plan for many years in the ground.

“Find out the creatures that killed Thousands of Eyes and Sorrows, and the plan must not be accidental.”

The candlelight opened directly, and a strong murderous tone was heard in the powerful tone, and the hidden murderer was directly found.

He finished looking at the cold mist of light next to him and said, “Yuying, you use your natural talent to investigate the dragon’s veins.”

“Yes.” A whisper came out of the cold mist, letting the hidden Qin Tiange jump out of his mind.

It would be really awful if the Youying could detect his trace with his natural talent.

Because he was hiding nearby with Li Luo, if he was found, he would definitely have to confront these nine tyrannical and mysterious ancient creatures.

“Forbidden time and space, lock me up.” Qin Tiange whispered secretly in his heart, a force of time and space poured out of his body, covering himself and Li Luo.

For a time, Qin Tiange and Li Luo were hiding in the space, watching the nine ancient creatures quietly.

The hidden Youying dominated, the cold mist surging, and then turned into a light curtain emerged.

There, it turned out to be the area where the hundreds of ancient arrays I had seen before, one was the area guarded by a thousand-eyed monsters, and the other was the area guarded by ferocious crickets.

The two regions were revealed, and the nine masters looked together, but weirdly nothing changed.

“Well?” A horror came from the mist, and only one sentence came from it: “Weird things can’t be traced back to the other side, even the breath doesn’t exist.”

“How is that possible?” Frown frowning, watching that there is no change at all on the light curtain, the killer did not appear, and how the two eyes of the worm and the murderer died did not know.

“No, there is a mysterious force that is blocking my talents’ ability to trace back. It seems that it is not easy to kill a thousand-eyed monsters and fierce creatures.” You Ying said, and fell into a long silence.

The candlestick on the side looked cold and hummed, “It can quietly kill the thousand-eyed monsters, and even kill the fierce crickets. It seems that the opponent is not weak.”

“Perhaps, the other party is hiding near us, peering into our conversation.” A clear voice came from Pfeiffer in the purple mist.

“How? Anything?”

For a long time, nine ancient creatures dominated Qi Qi’s divine thoughts, swept around, and explored again and again, but unfortunately nothing was found.

Qin Tiange and Li Luo almost evolved their breath into a part of the gap in the space, and they could not be found at all.

“No, candlelight, it seems that you are more attentive.” 栲 杌 shook his head, indicating that nothing was abnormal.

The nine master creatures swept over again uneasily, and finally thought that no one was hiding around.

Next, they started to talk about the ancient battles of the hundreds of people, involving some key information.

“The Guardian wants to revive that thing, and we melt it into energy to break the blockade of exile.”

“However, there is still a lack of one of the most important cores of the ancient formation. There are eight island owners in the Bai people who are ready. It is necessary for us to complete the plan as soon as possible.”

“Intensify the plan, and we can get what we have planned for countless years.”

“It’s a little gathering next, and those guardians have noticed a few of our plans recently.” Philip said, turning away alone.

The remaining eight paleontology dominated, all snorted, turned around with dissatisfaction and disappeared in this area.

As these creatures gathered for a while, they all ran away without worrying about whether they were being peeped.

“Wait, they didn’t go.”

Li Luo was about to go out, but was stopped by Qin Tiange, and quietly spread a voice. As soon as the voice fell, he saw that the ancient creatures who had left the house dominated one by one again.

They didn’t really leave, they went back, staring suspiciously at the quiet area around them.

They are familiar here. They had suspected that someone was hiding nearby, but they left without seeing each other.

“Candle photo, Youying, have you two sensed a mistake?” I asked, frowning.

Zhuzhao Lengheng, dissatisfied: “The talent of this seat does not sense errors. There must be something unknown from here a group of people look at each other, but if you still do n’t believe it, since you found each other Why didn’t you find the trace?”

“Shouldn’t you deceive us?” Pfeiffer exuded a purple haze of dissatisfaction.

The ancient creatures were very angry. They thought that the candlelight had deceived them, and whoever changed it must be in a bad mood.

“believe it or not!”

The candle shone coldly, turned and drove away in the hot mist, and disappeared in a blink, as if it had never appeared before.

Watching him leave, the rest of the other overlords looked at each other, and finally left it alone, and turned and left.

“Sure enough”

A cloud of purple mist pervaded, and the creature named Feifei kept quietly following the wave of waves.

Chapter 774 - Just a little bit

“Disappeared?”

A cloud of purple mist filled the chase, but found that a trace of breath disappeared.

In the purple light mist, a dozens of long creatures quietly stepped on four hoofs, and their purple hair was like a group of purple flames burning.

It looks like a fox but not a fox, but looks a little different. It has purple purple light in its eyes.

This is an ancient fierce beast, Philippe, cautious by nature, strong and cunning, and chased all the way, but he was lost.

“Philipp, did you track it down?”

At this moment, a cloud of black mist came, and a huge murderous creature was hidden inside, and the sound of a kind of slaying killing was heard.

“I just sensed it, all the way, and disappeared nearby.” Fei Fei’s clear and delicate voice came.

I saw, in all directions, bursts of strange mist suddenly burst out, breaking the blood of the demon, surrounded the area, three kilometers, surrounded by nine tyrannical ancient creatures.

“Confinement!”

Nine dominating creatures immediately shot. The powerful force completely confined the area for a three-kilometer area, and the blood of the demon was evaporated instantly.

There was an empty area there, and nothing was there. The nine ancient creatures dominated, and they quietly hid to keep up.

“Yuying, have you found it?” Candlelight illuminates the four sides with two eyes, and two hot rays continuously scan this area.

Not far away, a ray of horrible breath, a faint glow, mysterious creatures revealed in a group of gloomy light, constantly using his talent to explore.

For a long time, she said quietly: “It has disappeared. I must have been peeking around us before, so that I could avoid our tracking.”

“what exactly is it?”

The fierce Lengheng: “This creature is very cunning, killing a thousand eyes, fierce, and even peeping at us, can’t keep it.”

“Can’t find it, how to solve it?”

“It must still be hidden nearby, completely destroying this area. I don’t believe he can hide it?”

Zhu Jian’s fierce face and murderousness revealed, directly proposed to destroy this area.

“Okay, destroy this area and force it out.” Candlelight agreed immediately.

Several other paleontologists nodded in approval immediately, and their respective forces emerged, completely covering the area within ten kilometers.

“Huang, we were found.”

In the space, Li Luo looked dignified, and looked at the nine ancient creatures surrounded by him. He was found and tracked up.

Looking at the blocked area of 10 kilometers in radius, Li Luo was vigilant and secretly accumulated strength, ready to let go.

Can’t walk, then played a game, this is her belief.

However, Qin Tiange was calm, a black particle wrapped around the two people, attached to the space, and was never discovered at all.

“Don’t panic, let’s see.” Qin Tiange was also surprised. He didn’t expect the other party to find out, and they also caught up and besieged the two in this area.

Although no specific traces of Qin Tiange and Liluo were found, those who could persecute them to this area can be said to be dominated by these ancient creatures, all of which have extraordinary methods.

“drink!”

“get out!”

Suddenly, nine forces converged and swept across at the same time. The space in this area was collapsed by earthquakes, cracks spread in black paint, and the crackling sound of crackling sounded like a mirror.

The powerful forces all shattered the space, causing the space within a radius of ten kilometers to collapse like a mirror, turning it into pieces.

In the hidden place of Qin Tiange and Li Luo, the space collapsed, and the breath of the two was leaked.

“Over there!”

“Suppress them!”

Almost instantly, Qin Tiange and Li Luo both emerged and were captured. They were immediately suppressed violently by nine forces.

“Space barriers!”

Qin Tiange drank, and with the help of the broken space around him, turned into a space barrier to block the nine forces.

But these nine dominating creatures are too scary, the space barriers can’t be stopped at all, and they just collapse in a moment.

“God’s finger, broken!” And for such an instant, Qin Tiange seized the opportunity, held Li Luo and raised his finger, breaking open the space that had collapsed, and went directly into the space and disappeared.

boom!

As soon as it disappeared, it was bombarded by nine terrorist forces, causing a sudden collapse.

Unfortunately, these broken faces soon disappeared, and the mysterious power of the exiled land was wiped out.

“What about people?”

He screamed fiercely and looked very irritable. Looking at the flattened space there, the two newly revealed figures were gone.

Dominated by nine paleontology, originally tracked here, besieged Qin Tiange and Liluo in this area, forcing them to come out to death.

But never thought that the power dominated by the nine ancient creatures directly broke the space, allowing Qin Tiange to use the power of the broken space to block the moment, and finally penetrated into the space and disappeared.

“Did you even run?” Chan Zhao said in a somber tone, and snorted coldly.

“Unexpectedly, with our nine people joining forces, we even let the other run away.”

“Just now, those two figures escaped with the help of our open space. It seems that there is a force that grasps the space. No wonder it is impossible to hide the trace that is not detected by my talent.” Youying reveals two beams Mang, feeling bad.

Being run away by the other party means that their nine ancient creatures dominated the uselessness, and even two souls could not be kept.

“This is going to happen, and our faces are estimated to be lost.” Zhu Jian’s expression was extremely fiery, and he was very unhappy.

The nine leading creatures joined forces, and there are still no two creatures left. If this thing spreads, many ancient creatures will laugh at the big teeth and even let their prestige drop.

It is possible that the strong people of the hundred races are a bit scornful, and even two creatures can’t be found, or even can’t be kept. Is it that the years of cultivation have become too weak?

“You, who captured the breath of those two figures, what is the origin?” Chan Zhao asked at this moment.

He shook his head, Zhu Jian didn’t, his face was irritable, and the other master creatures did not capture the breath of Qin Tiange and Li Luo.

The body breath of the two was completely converged, not leaking, and even the figure features were never seen.

“I seem to feel it. The chaos breath permeates the two figures, which is only the chaos spirit.” Youying said lightly.

As soon as this word came out, several of the ancient creatures in the presence of the scene were cast aside, their eyes flickered slightly.

Chaos creature, isn’t that extinct long ago?

“Does the chaotic creature have insight into our plot?” Chan Zhao looked cautiously.

He then warned: “Next, our connections must be connected with each other with divine thought, and no more mistakes can be made.”

“The plan cannot be lost.”

“Ready now, our plan must be advanced.”

Dominated by several ancient creatures, all of them looked serious, and even revealed a dignified, chaotic creature’s appearance, making them feel that the plan may change.

Could chaotic creatures influence their plans?

“go!”

The strange figures such as candlelight, puppet, and Zhu Jian all rolled up in a mist of fog disappeared in this area, and disappeared in a blink of an eye.

One by one, in the end, only Youying and the Philippine Philip hidden in the purple mist remained.

“Philip, do you think that the two creatures just now are chaotic creatures, or that the place of exile is awake?” Youying asked gently.

In the purple mist, the creature like a fox and a non-fox flickered slightly and chuckled: “Yuying, are you trying to test me?”

“With your ability, you have obviously captured the breath of the other side, which belongs to the ancient and extinct chaos breath. What do you mean?” Fephii finished, turned and stepped on the four hoofs, disappearing in the purple mist not see.

The group of gleams gleam, permeated with the strong atmosphere of yin, frozen in all directions, a little bit cold and cold.

“Chaotic creatures represent the reappearance of chaos. Are you here to wake up?” You Ying said to herself, and finally turned a flash of light and disappeared.

Dominated by nine paleontology, Qin Tiange and Li Luo finally failed to catch, and could not even intercept each other.

Chapter 775 - Shocking plot

The ground, somewhere in the barren desert, suddenly cracked on the ground, and space cracks staggered.

boom!

I saw two figures rushing out of it, stepping on the ground for a while, and the dust was raging and flying.

When the smoke dispersed, only one man and one woman were found, Qin Tiange and Li Luo.

“It’s dangerous, just a little bit.” Qin Tiange frowned and said to himself.

Before, the two were almost surrounded. If they couldn’t escape, they would have to face the nine domineering and peculiar ancient creatures.

Those nine creatures, all powerful and unknown, have no ability, they have lived for hundreds of thousands of years.

“It seems that there are amazing things under the ground with paleontology and strong people of hundreds of people,” Qin Tiange finished, then looked up at the dark void.

His eyes were cold and stern, and he hummed, “And in the void, the guardians seem to be trying to figure out something.”

Li Luo Qiao said with a dignified face, “Hundreds of thousands of years of planning and plotting, these creatures seem to be making a sea change.”

“The creatures guarding the banishment land seem to be resurrected with the help of hundreds and even thousands of souls.” Qin Tiange lowered his head in thought, and expressed his guess.

Li Luo thought for a moment, saying, “Under the ground, the paleontology and the powerful people of the clans seem to have their own plans, they want to smelt the land of exile.”

“Well, maybe the place of exile is a living thing, but it is in a state of half-death.” Qin Tiange suddenly said this horrible guess.

The place of exile is to live, it is likely to be a horrible thing. Otherwise, the magic blood beneath the ground, crisscrossed like an undercurrent, isn’t it just like blood vessels?

Thinking of this, Qin Tiange couldn’t help but get cold all over his body, and how big the place of exile was, he didn’t know, just knew it was big.

And if the entire place of exile is an unknown creature, then this is terrifying and may even cause a huge disaster.

Because the creatures who guard the exiles are looking for ways to resurrect this half-dead thing.

“My people have been excluded for too long, so that the secrets of the place of liberation and expulsion have almost disappeared. Qin Tiange looked at the void and said quietly.

He thought quickly, then said: “Liu Luo, it seems that we have to face not only those guardian creatures, but also ancient creatures and powerful people of the race.”

“Well, no matter what you face, Li Luo has never changed her original intention.” Li Luo’s tone was firm and indifferent.

No matter what it is, as long as it is the enemy, then kill. Qin Tiange and her are in a place of exile. To go out, they must understand the secrets of the place of exile.

Do n’t count on the human race, it ’s almost destroyed, it ’s good to survive. Now the only way is to peep in secret.

Under the ground, paleontological creatures and powerful races of the hundred races are brewing earth-shaking schemes, and the Void, the guardian creatures are also brewing the calamity.

After all, the two forces will collide. At that time, it may be the best time to leave the place of exile.

“Li Luo, those millions of people, can you take it away?” Qin Tiange suddenly asked.

He thought for himself that the five million people had no ability to take it. The only way was to ask Li Luo, a creature of the ancient era.

After hearing Luo Li’s eyes flashed, he chuckled: “Have you forgotten, I used to gather a glamorous scattered star.”

“Isn’t Liuli broken up by me?” Qin Tiange heard it a little awkwardly.

After all, when he broke the liuli scattered stars with the star-killer, he discovered the liuo hidden in the core of the liuli star.

“No, there is a glazed scattered star in my body, which was reunited with the chaos spring eyes given by the emperor before.” Li Luo looked at Qin Tiange seriously.

In her body, there is a brand new star, and there is a real and complete star that can live.

Most of the stars cultivated by living things can be made to live in them, as long as the stars in the body are transformed into an environment suitable for life.

“In this way,” Qin Tiange squinted his eyes and blinked constantly. In fact, the ninety-nine chaotic stars in his body before him could also live.

But in order to condense the black holes in his body, he directly scattered these stars, which now disappears.

“Then, bring those millions of people and the allies of the Purple Spirit tribe into the glazed star in your body. We must be cautious. I feel that the guardian and the ancient creatures are about to collide.” Qin Tiange said, Looking at the void, the space area hidden by the guardian was faintly captured.

Before Li Luo entered it, Qin Tiange entered it once, and secretly remembered the exact location there.

Now it can be sensed by nature, and, as he has discovered the plans of the ancient creatures and hundreds of people under the ground for countless years, he has faintly seen that a shocking collision is coming.

In the true spirit of Qin Tiange, he is capturing the intricate pictures of the future, from which he glimpses into something that is beneficial to him.

“Go, go back, take away all the clan people, we are hiding in the dark, waiting for this shocking plot to collide with each other.”

After Qin Tiange finished speaking, a sneer appeared in the corners of his mouth, with Li Luo, the two returned to the chaotic capital at the fastest speed.

At this time, in the chaotic city, millions of people and purple spirits mostly entered the fiery blood cracks under the ground to repair.

Only a small part of the guards are left to replace, and they are always alert to the hundreds of threats from the sea of chaos.

“People!”

When Qin Tiange returned, the hundreds of young soldiers guarding each other saluted, solemn and excited.

He nodded one by one, and kept walking in front of the town’s soul monument, disregarding the crazy roaring and miserable hundreds of grudges, removed the town soul monument, and entered the underground.

“Elder, Zi Ji, come and see me quickly.”

As soon as he came in, Qin Tiange directly sent a message to the two, and instantly, he saw two figures, one man and one woman, rushing to the bottom of the blood.

It was the elders and Ziji who came, both saluting.

“See my queen!”

The elder and Zi Ji were surprised, why Qin Tiange came back from the outside, but didn’t ask much.

I saw, Qin Tiange looked around and said to the elder and Zi Ji: “The situation has changed recently, and something will happen in the place of exile.”

“I’m afraid the tribe can’t avoid it. I came to you and wanted you to take two tribal people into a place to take refuge for a while. Maybe, we are not far from exile.”

After he had said this, the elders and Ziji were shocked, and then excited in their hearts, could they go out?

“The emperor, what happened, but the support of the clan is needed?” The elder asked with a solemn expression.

Zi Ji said solemnly: “Person, if necessary, despite orders, no one from the Ziling clan will flinch.”

“No need for now You can’t solve it at this time, take the clan well, and leave the place of exile with me.” Qin Tiange groaned for a moment, and finally did not let the elder and Ziji follow.

After all, the two were not strong enough to follow Qin Tiange and Li Luo at all, and maybe they would be cumbersome at that time.

“You go down and tell the people to gather immediately and complete the migration as soon as possible.”

Qin Tiange gave an order. The elder and Zi Ji realized that things were more serious than they thought, and nodded, and immediately proceeded to prepare.

Hum!

At this moment, a strange buzz came from the void, and all the creatures felt a strange and terrifying breath.

“Not good!” Qin Tiange’s expression changed, and he agreed: “Gather all the people at once, Liluo, quickly, and take away the people and the Ziling.”

“Yes!”

Li Luo Qiao’s face changed slightly, and she felt the powerful threat from the void, and immediately realized that the guardians had started.

Chapter 776 - Blood burial

Click!

A black lightning splattered with a loud noise, and the 100,000-foot-tall town soul monument cracked and burst on the spot.

“what...”

The sky is full of grieving grievances, mad growling and struggling, breaking away from the suppression and restraint of the town soul monument, and flying out.

As a result, these tens of millions of grieving ghosts scattered away were sucked into the ground by an inexplicable force.

boom!

Qin Tiange smashed a fragment of a monument, his eyes were cold, and he looked at the huge roar that kept coming from the void.

A stream of black mist rolled, electricity dazzled, and a black-purple electric arc coiled around, continually splitting down, smashing the Soul Soul monument into pieces.

This is that these lightnings did not harm those grievances, but instead drove them to the ground and were absorbed by a mysterious force.

“They are going to do it.” Li Luo rose into the air and stood beside Qin Tiange.

She looked dignified, staring at the sudden change in the void, sensing the breath belonging to the guardian creature, and they started.

Seeing Li Luo coming out, Qin Tiange was relieved when he wanted to take away all the people and purple spirits.

thunderbolt!

Hur, a black lightning bolt struck down, and the targets were Qin Tiange and Li Luo.

The lightning was fast, almost instantly, and bombarded the area where Qin Tiange and Li Luo were located.

There was a loud bang, and the chaotic capital collapsed and turned into ashes, which was turned into dust by a single blow.

The powerful energy shock formed an extinct within hundreds of kilometers of the circle, where the energy burst and the black light flickered.

Zizi ...

The black and purple lightning coiled around, but was gradually absorbed by the two gray swirls, and soon, the energy of that pillar of lightning was swallowed up.

“This is to bury blood of thousands of people.” Qin Tiange muttered to himself, his face was extremely serious.

He could see that those guardian creatures wanted to bury blood from all races. This discovery shocked his heart. Originally, he had the intention of burying hundreds of souls. Now, he still looks worse than others.

Whether it is a hundred races or various ancient creatures, within the scope of this blood burial, they will be blood burial by those guardian creatures to revive the terrible things in the exile.

“Roar ... watchdog, you guys are going to die.”

There was a sudden roar from the distance, and there was a powerful wrath of wraiths that seemed very angry.

However, this remnant was quickly blasted into the ground by the power of the void, and then absorbed and consumed by the increasingly terrifying power below.

“what...”

“no, do not want...”

The sea of chaos, the islands are filled with screams and horrors, and the lives of hundreds of people are terrified, and they endure the horrible blows that continue to fall from the void.

Bursts of black electro-optical energy exploded, shaking the islands constantly and starting to fall apart.

Those living in the sea of chaos, without exception, are bearing the sudden bloodshed.

“Quick, contact the owner ...”

On a huge island, a burst of violent energy burst out, blocking the rays of energy that kept bombarding.

Lightning intertwined and black emptiness seemed to be brewing the horrific annihilation of the world and destroying the world.

The sea of chaos boils, no hundreds of strong men unite, protect their islands, and tough resistance comes from blows in the void.

“Huang, those ancient creatures haven’t moved yet. The Hundreds have begun to fight back. They seem to have expected it.” Above the ruins of Chaos Capital, Li Luo looked at the horror scene in the direction of Chaos Sea.

Beside her, Qin Tiange just looked at the sea of chaos and stopped paying attention, but looked up at the void, where the terrifying power of extinction was brewing.

This force came suddenly, covering the entire place of exile, and all living beings, regardless of hundreds or ancient creatures, were included in it.

“Blood burials, what do they want to resurrect?” Qin Tiange frowned, watching the ever-changing emptiness.

There was a faint horror, there was a faint breath, and the creatures guarding the place of exile appeared.

“They’re here ...” Li Luo suddenly said solemnly.

The two eyes were burning, staring at somewhere in the void, where a crack opened, and two horrible eyes were exposed from the inside, overlooking the entire place of exile.

These two eyes opened, and the fierce rays of extinction revealed through the world, shattering the space and destroying everything.

Bang ...

Two beams of extinction and fierce light burst out, glanced around the place of exile, and everything went extinct.

One of the fierce lights of the world swept towards Qin Tiange and Li Luo, and the terrible sound of rumbling came from the earth.

“go!”

Qin Tiange drank, disappeared instantly with Li Luo, there was swept away by a fierce light of death, leaving only a gully wide and thousands of feet deep.

Seeing such destructive power, Qin Tiange couldn't help chilling, and then looked at the bottomless gully that was drawn. Below it was the surging **** magma, which was magic blood.

Endless demonic blood rushed out, roaring like a volcanic eruption, and scattered everywhere.

“They started!”

“Activate all bloodskins and melt the world!”

With a low roar spreading all over the place, I saw a terrible shock coming from the ground, and then, blood pillars of light burst out.

The sound of banging booms shook the world!

In the place of exile, blood-colored beams of light soared into the sky, violently erupting from below the ground, forming a terrible blood-colored beam of light that bombarded the sky.

The black clouds collapsed, the black mist burst, and huge vortices hit each other, and the sound spread throughout the exile.

At this moment, the two forces formed a terrible confrontation, the force of annihilation in the void, the blood light bursting from the ground, and the two crashed into pieces.

Qin Tiange's eyes were shining with light, and he saw the horrific ancient arrays of hundreds of people appearing beneath the ground, and the horrible pillars rose from the ground.

On these pillars, the horrible energy gathered around them, forming a horrible pillar of light that directly hits the sky, breaking the power of the world that is constantly falling.

“presumptuous!”

There was a loud drink from the void, and the guardian creature was angry. One hand penetrated the void, forming a giant hand and slamming it down.

The giant hand covered the sky with the extermination of the world, and banged on a pillar, sending out a terrible loud noise.

In one fell swoop, he failed to break the pillar, but was crushed and devoured by the dense array of ancient arrays around him.

After Kakaka's crisp sound, the gigantic giant hand was broken into numerous pieces, and then the ancient town was crushed and absorbed to strengthen its original strength.

Huge pillars burst out of the ground, densely packed, and directly rushed into the sky, starting a horrible and **** battle.

“Hundreds obey orders, kill the void, and kill the guard dogs.”

A huge roar of half death spread all over the place, and it turned out that the eight largest islands in the sea of chaos suddenly burst into infinite light.

Under the power of this light, eight huge islands blasted and blasted into the sky.

In nothingness, a wave of extinction and fierce light blasted down to crush the islands that flew up and pulverized many hundreds of souls.

Bang!

Here Qin Tiange waved his fist, shattered the amount of violent violence that was constantly used in the void, and punched and punched those forces.

Li Luo followed, left and right, watching vigilantly in the sky.

“Melting heaven and earth!”

Hur, a terrible roar spread throughout the exiled land, and then, seeing a sudden horror breath erupted beneath the ground, shaking the earth.

That breath even disrupted time and space, and even matched the energy of mysterious pillars to cover more than 80% of the exile.

The surging endless energy erupted from the ground. Everything that was eroded by this energy collapsed and was smelted into a formidable energy.

There are countless ancient lines on the ground, and I want to use the power of the large line to smelt the entire exile.

“Come out, it's time for the decisive battle.”

Suddenly, a horror of terror erupted beneath the ground, and old and powerful figures appeared.

Chapter 777 - Exile blood battle

A loud noise came from Mao Long, a giant beast came up, slammed the ground, roared loudly, and shook tens of thousands of miles, it was a cricket.

Alas, the huge body crashed into the sky, and the black gas broke, as if heaven had knocked it into a hole.

The thick tentacles, like a dragon dancing wildly, slammed into the sky, a crunchy sound came and the sky cracked.

Inside, there is a fragmented world, where the guardian creatures guard, and that is an exit from the exile.

“kill!”

That cricket was extremely fierce, with a huge island on its body, a powerful cricket, united with other strong men of various races, and rushed in crazy.

expensive!

To the west, under a huge island, a majestic yak suddenly emerged, holding up an island with one hand, carrying hundreds of thousands of powerful creatures, one-horned owls, croaking holes through the sky, tearing a huge gap.

The yak was fierce, slashing with a tomahawk and leaping straight into it. In the broken world, a terrible unknown creature guarded the exit of the exile.

“Ant, go ahead!”

The unknown creature drank indifferently, raised his hand and pressed it with a palm, the rumbling sound of the yak, the yak was robbed, the unicorn broke a large section, his head was sprayed with blood, his body was beaten down, and he fell into the endless Dead Sea , Set off a rough sea.

Roar!

“Reverse the world!”

With a roar coming out, Qin Tiange looked around and saw the entire underground of exile, all columns of blood-colored light suddenly erupted, the earth collapsed and sunk, and blood-colored waves swept up.

One after another the ancient formations broke out, scrolling the boundless energy, drawing the endless power of the demon blood, turning into a world-killing killer, and bombarding the sky.

Boom!

In one fell swoop, there was broken on the spot, a horrible unknown creature was beaten through, and blood and water sprayed in all directions, like a blood rain pouring down.

Boom boom ...

Shocking noises spread to all sides, and blood-stained beams of light hit the sky, making huge caves and bombarding the broken world.

There, the shadows of unknown creatures appeared, covering the sky, like the resurrection of the devil, directly pressing over the exiled land.

“This is the guardian?” Qin Tiange squinted his eyes and looked into the broken and broken world.

One and another horrible unknown creatures were guarded there, blocking the terrible bombardment, and the blood waves of annihilation were caught in it, but they were beaten down.

“Wake up, our Lord’s most loyal guard ...”

In nothingness, a low voice murmured, and there was a terrible shock from the place of exile.

With a snapping sound, Qin Tiange jumped to his heart and looked up. There was a terrible sea of red mist.

“Oh no...”

“We are not willing ...”

Inside the Red Mist Sea, an ancient remnant who was bound only issued a scream, which was drawn by the chain directly to the whole spirit, devouring an energy and pouring into the ground.

I saw that as dozens of tyrannical ancient remnants were swallowed up, those huge iron pillars slammed into the ground.

There was a loud bang, and the powerful people of the ethnic group turned their heads and looked at each other, and immediately saw a frightening picture.

The red misty sea sent a horrible shock. Then, the entire red misty sea began to rise, the ground cracked, and the weird mangroves began to sway, continuously emitting terrifying light.

“That’s ...” Qin Tiange’s pupils shrank, watching the red misty sea rising slowly, and the huge red misty sea rose slowly.

The earth was flying, the rubble rolled down, as if the world was collapsing, and the whole sea of red mist turned into a horrible thing and slowly climbed up.

Boom!

With a loud noise, I saw a terrifying hand supporting the ground, exerting a little force, slowly standing up, the huge body stood on the ground of exile.

A terrible monster stood up slowly, a pink hair fluttered, and a red mist filled the air. When it slowly opened its eyes, two beams of scary red mans swept across all directions.

“His ... Nima, the Red Mist Sea really has a problem.” On the sky, the one hundred thousand feet tall tadpole looked horrified, looking at the huge giant standing up here, turned into a million feet tall fierce Thing.

“Roar!”

The roar roared, the red mist was boiling, one arm slammed hard, and blasted at the giant cricket with the power of destruction.

“Ah ... Beiming swallows the sky.” The mighty howl roared, sending out the power of swallowing, and turned into a horror vortex to stop in front of that arm.

boom!

Photographed with a palm, the vortex collapsed, and a strong blow hit the cricket’s body with a click, and he was blasted into the void on the spot.

“what...”

On the uncle’s body, the island collapsed, and hundreds of people fell down in horror and screaming. They were slammed by the hand, grabbed the palm of their hand, and sent it directly into the mouth to swallow it.

“damn it!”

Under the ground, ancient creatures were extremely angry, looking at the horrible creature that had risen up. The original sea of red mist turned out to be the other’s head, and the mangrove tree was pink hair, looking extremely terrifying.

Qin Tiange twitched at the corner of his mouth, watching the million-meter-tall murderer, speechless in his heart, and burst into tears and laughter.

“The emperor, but this thing is from the chaos era, it is a chaotic creature, the blood in the body has been demonized.” Li Luo said with a dignified expression.

As a chaotic creature, it has a wonderful sense of nature. The red misty sea creature is actually an ancient chaotic creature.

“Hang it!”

Suddenly, with a swift drink spreading to all parties, I saw that the foot of the terror giant suddenly burst, and then a large number of ancient arrays suddenly broke out, turning into a monstrous force and rolling up the body of the giant god.

Tens of thousands of ancient formations, densely interlaced, have already been arranged and hidden there, obviously the paleontology knew the secrets of the Red Mist Sea.

Sure enough, with the outbreak of Guzhen, the venomous creature that was just in the process of torture was torn down on the spot by these dense Guzhen.

“Hmm ...”

There was a loud bang, and the million-dollar giant collapsed, smashed into thousands of ancient arrays, blocked and suppressed by chains, and even pulled into the true center.

Uh ...

Just listening to the maggots coming in, I saw a mysterious iron pillar piercing the body of the giant god, forming a terrible devouring force.

“Well ... roar!” The roar came, shocking, and the horrible giant was captured by Gu Zhen.

Yes, Qin Tiange can see very clearly that the terrible giant was actually combined with those ancient array powers by the ancient creatures and captured the terrible creature directly.

“Hundreds of thousands of years, we have waited for this day for hundreds of thousands of years, and today, let this fierce creature fight for us.”

A black mist pervaded, revealing a giant, an ancient creature, dominated by ancient era creatures.

When it came out, he waved his hand and took out a whip, and hit the body of the bound giant monster with a bang. At the moment, the monster roared, and stood up, dragging tens of thousands of ancient arrays to the ground.

boom!

The troll burst into anger, tore the sky with one hand, and directly broke into the broken world, stretching his arms and knocking back two guarded guardians.

“Jack!”

“Dare you betray my lord?”

The two repelled guardians roared, appearing strangely angry, and saw the ancient creature that had been summoned to wake up and beat them in turn.

How do you know that horrible creature showed a sneer and spit out: “The deity, the endless years of hard work, is to get out of the control of that guy, do you still want to control the deity?”

“Come on, you all die!”

This monster turned too fast. It turned out that it already had a rebellious heart, but it was just fear, and it couldn’t escape the restraining force in the true spirit.

But before that, tens of thousands of ancient arrays suddenly melted the restraining power in its true spirit, giving it freedom.

“Roar!”

“The deity is free!”

The fierce creature roared loudly, arms stretched out, and two guardian creatures rumbling and flying, and even injured the two creatures.

“Hwang, what should we do?”

Looking at this sudden change, Li Luo looked dignified and asked Qin Tiange beside him softly.

And he stared at the void, the one million-foot fiendish devil, who had entered the area and was fighting a dozen terrible guardians there.

“Look at it first, I think that those ancient creatures are not just as simple as trying to fight out, there should be other plots.” Qin Tiange said in a word, not in a hurry.

The death of the hundreds of races has nothing to do with him. He is most concerned about the plots of paleontology. There must be strangers. Look at the tens of millions of ancient arrays laid down in the exile. This thing has begun to work.

“You see that those ancient creatures dominated, but never came out. The secret is under the ground ...” Qin Tiange scorched his eyes, staring at the ground that began to melt and disappear.

Chapter 778 - Demon heart

Underneath, deep inside the blood, several strong horizontal figures gathered.

“How, can you open the core area?”

The sound of the candlelight was dignified, and his eyes stared at the darkness below, where there was no magic blood, but a void.

These ancient creatures dominated, and did not go to the guardian land, but hid here to plot something.

“Yuying, you talked, did you find the heart area of the devil?” He looked a little impatient.

The other poles dominated, looking at Youying, who had not spoken. The other party was exploring the depths of the ground and the source of the magic blood.

I saw, Youying slowly said, “The discovery is found, but we may not be able to enter there.”

“Why?” Zhu Zhaoning stared at Youying, waiting for it.

Youying sighed: “There is a guardian of chaos. If we rush in, we must pass through the chaos, and the demon heart is wrapped in chaos.”

“Gathering the power of the Ancient Array and blasting the chaos together, we must enter the heart of the demon, wash our flesh there, and achieve the body of the chaos, in order to kill this place of exile.” Chan Zhao said in a serious tone.

They are actually looking for the demon heart!

“Candle photos, for countless years, we have seen and understood that the place of exile is a demon god’s fallen body. Here, that year was the battlefield between the devil and the Pangu tribe. This demon was extremely powerful and was cut and sealed by the Pangu tribe. Ying tone airily told this secret.

Over the years, these ancient creatures dominated, and silently explored the secrets of this exile, and finally gave them a little secret.

The place of exile is a place of fierce fighting between the Pangu and the demon, which has continued since the Chaos era. Here is an ancient demon who once was killed by the Pangu.

But this demon does not seem to die, is undergoing a long period of recovery, and there is a possibility of resurrection.

The guardian creatures outside are actually various parasitic creatures in the demon’s body, come out to guard the demon’s body, and prepare for its resurrection.

How to resurrect, with the lives of thousands of people, the constant blood burial, and again and again, with the blood of the peoples of the world, to nourish this dead demon.

“For several epochs, the place of exile does not know how many souls were buried. Anyway, countless, the demon is about to wake up. This is our only opportunity. Once you enter the heart of the demon and train to become the body of the demon, then you can stare at the sea of stars.”

“Yes, I agree. Use the power of the ancient formation to open the chaos.”

Dominated by paleontology such as 桡杓 and Zhu Jian, one by one, they all agreed to this plan and planned for hundreds of thousands of years. What is it for, not for this moment?

As long as you enter the heart of the devil, use the real devil's blood and wash your physical body, it will inevitably transform into a real demon creature.

By that time, they can truly obtain the immortal body, and in the future, they will stare at the starry sky and overwhelm the universe.

"But, what about the hundreds of people?" Philip's words came through, a breath of coldness.

After hearing this, Zhu Jian immediately said, "What is the relationship between the death of the hundreds of people and us? Anyway, they just help us to block those guardians."

"Yes, it's a waste of time than nonsense."

The other ancient creatures hummed, all of them were unhappy, and the hundreds of people died. They didn't care. The only thing they cared about was their own interests.

"We have planned for hundreds of thousands of years and laid out countless patterns in order to block the blood of this demon **** and put the devil's heart into a state of silence, otherwise we cannot enter it."

"Activate the core formation and blast off the chaos barrier!"

Candlelight swept past the archetypes of the ancient creatures, and immediately ordered and acted directly, pulling a large number of ancient arrays, and began to work together to blast away the chaos that blocked them.

There, but the heart of the demon, as for the countless patterns they arranged, the purpose is to block the blood flow of the devil.

In this way, the devil's heart can be put into a state of silence, and the danger of the devil's blood in it can be minimized, so that they can use the devil's heart to cleanse the flesh.

"So it is!"

Secretly, Qin Tiange and Li Luo hide, watching these ancient creatures dominate the action, and finally understand their plans.

What is even more shocking is that the place of exile actually originated from the battle between the Pangu tribe and the demon god, and a horror demon ***** was buried here.

The demon creature from the chaos era is extremely scary. The terrible power of the immortal body cannot be imagined.

"Follow up!" Qin Tiange and Li Luo looked at each other, they could see each other's heart, since this is the case, then secretly get the chance.

The heart of the demon god, this point Qin Tiange is tempted, the same scary creatures of the chaos era, the creatures that compete with the Pangu tribe, can they be weak?

boom!

Under the ground, an ancient and huge array of ancient arrays swelled and immediately mobilized the dense array of ancient arrays, united together.

As soon as these ancient arrays were launched, they immediately blocked the underground blood flow, and even isolated a stream of magic blood flowing underneath.

Suddenly, the demon blood was blocked, forming a sea like the Dead Sea. At the deepest level of the ground, an ancient breath permeated.

There was a shroud of chaos, forming a huge area, and a cloud of chaos and raging chaos shrouded a huge heart like a planet.

That's the heart of the devil!

“The devil's heart is there, working together to drive away the chaos.”

Several ancient creatures dominated the excitement, watching the gray chaos in front, covering a horrible heart.

That heart, which is hundreds of thousands of times larger than the sun, is incredible. Even Qin Tiange is dumbfounded.

A heart is hundreds of thousands of times larger than the sun. What kind of heart is that? A heart is so horrible. How terrible is the master of this heart?

Qin Tiange felt a sense of excitement in thinking that it was all chilling.

Bear!

Suddenly, Pan Gu's blood in Qin Tiange's body boiled, as if it was stimulated by something, and it could not be suppressed.

In the chaos ahead, the demon's heart made the Pangu blood boil autonomously in his body, which was incredible.

“Take the power of the ancient formations and tear open the chaos!”

With an order, I saw countless ancient arrays uniting, and a horrible energy burst out. The huge energy that had accumulated for countless years suddenly swept along the veins of the ancient array and gathered in the heart of the main array.

This energy is extremely horrible and powerful enough to annihilate the world. As this main force condenses and converges this power, it utterly bombards the chaos in the chaos.

With a loud voice, a powerful beam of energy blasted the chaos, pierced the defensive chaos, and ripped a huge channel.

Click!

The passage opened, where a dark heart was clearly visible, and a demon heart belonging to the ancient Chaos era appeared.

“go!”

At this moment, Qin Tiange’s body was almost unable to suppress the burning of the Pangu blood, his expression changed slightly, too late to think about it, drank a little, and pulled Li Luo into the space and sank into the chaos ahead.

“presumptuous!”

“Jack!”

His breath was revealed, and he was immediately found by the ancient creatures, and immediately roared with anger, banging one by one, and only hit the chaos.

Seeing Qin Tiange and Li Luo rushing into the chaos, the ancient creatures such as candlelight dominated the rage.

“Damn, it’s these two creatures again, quickly, quickly chase.” Candlelight anxiously, growling wildly.

Seeing the results came to my hands It turned out that two bad things ran out, naturally I can’t stand it.

A group of paleontology dominated the lasing, passed through the torn chaotic channel, and reached the heart of the demon god.

Flutter!

As soon as they arrived, they saw Qin Tiange and Li Luo working together, and they both made a small cave outside the heart of the demon and dugged in.

“Chasing!” Chanzhao roared and almost ran away.

Behind, ancient creatures such as Zhu Jian and Ye snarled and rushed up, blasting a cave along the position Qin Tiange had just broken.

This hole, for a huge demon heart, is like a pinhole above the planet.

“It’s the two of them again.”

In the back, Fei Fei looked at Qin Tiange and Li Luo who had penetrated into the heart of the demon before, and whispered to himself, and then entered the cave.

In a blink of an eye, the hole he healed disappeared.

Chapter 779 - Best Supplements for Pangu

In the heart of the devil, like a vast world, the thick black-gray blood tumbling like an ocean.

A drop of demon blood is enough to wipe out all things, revealing the endless power of destruction, and here is death.

However, the devil has been silent for many years, and the blood vessels in the whole body were blocked by ancient arrays, causing blood to circulate and the heart to death.

It is in this state that you can come in safely without being annihilated by the demon blood of the demon heart.

boom!

Suddenly, a hole was opened in the heart barrier, and two figures rushed out from it, and came to the core area of the heart.

This is the inner core of the devil's heart, the area where all the blood of the devil is located. There, the blood of the demon **** is rolling and surging, showing the power of destruction.

“The emperor, the archaic creatures behind came after him.” Li Luo glanced at the back and felt several strong breaths coming after him.

Qin Tiange glanced at the healing hole behind him, then looked forward, and the rolling ocean was endless.

He calmly said, “Don't bother, go into the spirit and blood of the devil first. This is an opportunity.”

Huh!

As they said, the two leaped together and rushed into the tumbling blood in front of them.

It was the purest blood of the demon god. Inside the heart, there was such a strongest and most refined blood of the demon god. The energy was vast.

If you can draw the blood of this demon **** and temper the flesh, then no matter what kind of creatures can use it to transform into the body of the devil, strong and immortal.

Bang ...

At the same time, the heart barriers broke open, and a series of shadows burst out. They came to the heart of the demon **** and saw the endless ocean of demon spirit blood.

“Demon blood!”

Zhu Zhaozhao looked excited and roared, “Ah ... we have succeeded, for hundreds of thousands of years just for this moment.”

“Go, wash your flesh, and achieve the immortal body of the demon god.” He growled and rushed straight away, not minding Qin Tiange and Li Luo who ran in before.

Came here, completely forgotten the other, in my eyes only the blood of the tyrannical demon god, conspiring for hundreds of thousands of years, for this.

Uh ...

These ancient creatures dominated Qi and swept into the air, rushed into the spirit blood of the deities, and disappeared in a blink of an eye.

Behind, Youying and Feifei, who came late, looked at the vast ocean, and they couldn't help but be excited.

“Philip, I’ll take a step first.” You Ying said, blinking into a glimmer of immersion into the blood of the devil.

The remaining Phoebe was alone, looking around with his head crooked, but didn’t rush into it, but stared straight at an area.

There was nothing there, but she sensed something, staring at the area staring at it.

“I know you’re hiding there, but I’m not interested in being against you, and don’t bother to come to me.”

Philip, suddenly speaking, spoke a universal word that entered the open area, but received no response.

However, she didn’t care, glanced twice, turned and kicked, turning into a graceful figure wrapped in purple mist and immersed in the spirit of the devil.

When she left, two dead figures suddenly appeared in the deadly blood of a dead demon not far away. One man and one woman were Qin Tiange and Li Luo.

“This paleont is interesting. How did you discover us?” Qin Tiange was a little surprised and lost in thought.

The Filipino has extraordinary abilities. Like the Youying, he has a strong talent and can detect the hiding of Qin Tiange and Li Luo.

“The emperor, the Philippine, was an ancient tribe belonging to the human race in the period of the Paleocene, but this branch finally broke away from the human race and disappeared mysteriously.” Li Luo groaned a little, and said such a message.

After hearing this, Qin Tiange nodded and said flatly, “No matter who it is, as long as you are against me and against people, that is the enemy.”

“Let’s go, we need to cleanse our flesh.” Qin Tiange said, a gray mist gushes out of his body and turned into a black hole instantly.

He directly released all the black holes in his body, launched a crazy devour, and absorbed endless demon blood.

The silence of these demon **** blood is the best time to absorb it. Once the demon **** blood recovers, it will bring extremely terrible destruction.

boom...

Two horrible black holes erupted, hovering in the sea of blood of the demon god, swallowed the sky, and the powerful suction pulled the blood of the devil **** within dozens of kilometers, even hundreds of kilometers.

The most terrible thing is Qin Tiange himself. There are a hundred black holes in his body to devour, far beyond imagination.

He is like a bottomless pit, devouring the blood of the devil, and using the energy of the ancient majestic blood of the devil to open the pits of the body one by one, he must condense and create horrible black holes.

Ok?

Suddenly, Qin Tiange's brow was deep, and he felt a strong erosion in his body, and wanted to wear away his body.

There was even a horrible will, which directly collided with the Pangu blood in the body, and directly fought into a ball.

It was the will of destruction from the blood of the demon god, as if a demon was roaring, and it was going to crush and destroy his Pangu power, which was a bit scary.

boom!

Qin Tiange's body shook, and he shook out the blood of the demon ***** who had swallowed it in.

He got up, frowned, and looked at the boiling blood of the demon god, but did not continue to absorb it.

“Li Luo, these demon blood, have the will of the demon, can assimilate the power of living beings, can you absorb the transformation?” Qin Tiange sent a word to Li Luo.

In the distance, Li Luo was devouring the blood of the demon god, and suddenly opened his eyes when he heard it, and the ray of gray light flowed.

“Huang, I can absorb it. My body is uniquely fused with the eyes of chaos, enough to melt the blood of these deities.” Li Luo gave the answer.

Qin Tiange listened to frown. He couldn't smelt the blood of the demon god. Once inhaled, he rushed against Pangu's blood immediately, like water and fire.

Although he can obliterate those demon thoughts, it is very laborious and even cost a great deal of money to train out the pure demon energy.

This made him unhappy!

“Devil, isn't it a natural enemy with the Pangu clan?” Qin Tiange was silent, watching the surging blood of the demon ***** rolling around and unable to train.

Once tempered, the blood of the demon gods flows like madness, destroying Pangu's blood.

Zizi ...

At this moment, the Pangu blood in the body was constantly boiling, burning, showing a kind of simple and vicissitudes.

Qin Tiange's expression moved, looking up at the distant blood of the demon ***** rolling in the distance. There seemed to be a force that attracted him in the endless ocean.

No, or the force that attracts Pangu's blood, the Pangu's blood boils and burns in the body, and is attracted by some kind of power to stimulate calmness.

"Li Luo, you stay here, I'll look over there." Qin Tiange dropped a sentence, turned around and broke through the demon blood, disappeared without a trace.

Leo Luo was left alone, worried, and without hesitation, he got up and gave up practicing, and immediately followed Qin Tiange.

Watching her follow, Qin Tiange felt warm, but smiled bitterly: "I'll go and take a look. Why did you give up such a rare opportunity?"

Li Luo shook her head and smiled without saying a word, followed Qin Tiange closely, her strength gathered, and she looked around vigilantly.

Soon, the two broke through obstacles and entered the most central position of the demon heart, where there was chaos.

No, or a gray sea, a wave of gray blood tumbling there, sending a rumbling sound of terrible vibration.

"Chaos blood?"

Qin Tiange's pupils shrank, and looking at a large piece of gray blood in front of him, it was chaotic blood, which belongs to the natural blood of chaotic creatures.

Here Hidden the destiny of the deity, a large chaotic blood, showing endless coercion, with a breath of violent destruction.

The demon, his energy is in the blood of chaos, but it was this that caused the Pangu blood to boil in his body.

"The chaotic blood here is definitely the source of the power of the devil's body, like a lake ..." Qin Tiange's expression was agitated, and he couldn't help his inner excitement and joy.

Chaos blood is the best supplement for the Pangu tribe. Once it can absorb the chaos blood, it is absolutely incomparable to the growth of the Pangu body.

"Li Luo, you and I work together to pull two drops of chaotic blood. Be careful, this blood contains the true spirit, which is the core energy of the devil."

Qin Tiange warned solemnly, then, the two joined forces and carefully pulled out two drops of gray blood, which were chaotic blood.

Grunt!

A drop of chaotic blood was swallowed by each person. At the moment, Qin Tiange and Li Luo exploded a chaotic gas, which directly enveloped the two bodies, and gradually disappeared.

Chapter 780 - Metamorphosis

A crackling sound came from Qin Tiange's body, and then, chaos surging, Pangu blood swallowed this blood as if it were crazy.

A gray drop of blood, like a chaos demon, roared angrily, and launched a fierce attack on Pangu blood.

boom!

The two forces formed a fierce battle in the body, using Qin Tiange's body as a battlefield, and the overwhelming force collision caused Qin Tiange to be a bit scary.

The chaos essence of the demon turned into a demon, and he was destroyed madly in his body, as if he encountered a natural enemy and began to kill.

Hum!

Qin Tiange's true spirit came into the body and merged into the blood of Pangu. He turned into a giant on the spot and launched a counterattack, suppressing the will of the demon god.

Suddenly, the true spirit smashed the ray of true spirit contained in the devil, and swallowed it on the spot.

Swallowing a ray of true spirit from the chaos blood of the deities, Qin Tiange's people's books have a sense of saturation, but soon digested.

The chaotic blood was absorbed by refining, poured into the body as a force of chaos, and the body of Pangu was tempered.

Click! Click!

A strange and crunching sound came from the body, and one by one, the pores in the body opened, and endless chaotic energy poured in, turning into black holes.

Just one drop of chaotic blood has brought endless benefits to Qin Tiange. Although the previous fierce battle cost a lot, the remaining pure energy is still majestic.

One, two, three, five, eight, ten ...

Inside the body, a few acupoints were bombarded and gradually condensed into black holes, and the number was growing crazy.

One hundred holes from the beginning were opened one by one, condensing into black holes, producing a mighty power.

As the number of black holes increased, Qin Tiange's body became more and more horrible, exuding an unparalleled power of devour, and the physical body became stronger.

Huh!

The body shook, Qin Tiange woke up, his eyes glowed with burning light, staring at the chaotic blood in front.

His expression was agitated, and a drop of chaotic blood actually allowed him to directly condense twenty black holes, most of which were used to enhance the intensity of Pangu's blood.

Looking at Li Luo, at this time, he was absorbing the drop of chaotic blood wholeheartedly. His breath became more and more rude and simple.

"This is the best supplement for the Pangu tribe." Qin Tiange licked his lips and smiled.

He stepped forward, digging it with one hand, clenching a chaotic blood with five fingers and pulling it out.

Grunt!

Swallowing up this chaotic blood, Qin Tiange felt that it was not the blood he swallowed, but a horrible chaos demon.

The frying pan inside the body, chaotic blood turned into a horrible destruction of demon gods, destroying along the five internal organs.

However, it was quickly blocked by Pangu's blood, and even under the crushing and crushing of the true spirit, a ray of true spirit remnants of the devil was swallowed and refined.

In Qin Tiange's body, a terrible buzz came, as if opening up a world of magical caves, turning into a force to swallow the world.

The black holes condensed one by one, and the speed was so scary that Qin Tiange himself was shocked. The chaotic blood was so powerful that he had obtained unimaginable benefits.

In fact, he can be regarded as luck. Even if the chaotic blood is hidden in the heart of the demon, it is impossible to find it, but the devil was originally suppressed and suppressed, and even the dense ancient array blocked the blood circulation, which caused the chaotic blood in the heart to emerge.

This was the induction of Pangu blood in Qin Tiange's body, which allowed him to find the most quintessential part of the devil, the chaotic blood.

You know, Chaos Blood is the best supplement for the Pangu tribe. Rumors that Chaos Demon is the favorite food of the Pangu tribe.

Don't be surprised. The Pangu tribe is overbearing. What to eat? Of course, it is chaos essence, plus chaotic creatures, and Chaos Demon is naturally the best food source for the Pangu tribe.

Qin Tiange inherited the Pangu blood and became the Pangu tribe. When encountering the chaos blood of the Chaos Demon, it is naturally attractive.

This is not, just absorbing a small group of chaotic blood, let him directly condense hundreds of black holes out.

"Swallow!" Qin Tiange opened his mouth and directly swallowed, swallowing a ball of chaotic blood about the size of a basketball.

Suddenly, the body was broken by that violent force, but it repaired itself instantly, cracked again and again, and repaired again and again, Pangu's body became stronger and stronger.

Inside the body, the pits were re-opened outrageously, creating horrible black holes one after another, creating a terrible scene.

Two hundred, three hundred, four hundred, the number is still increasing madly, so that Qin Tiange's body seems to be assembled from countless black holes, and naturally exudes the power of horrible devour.

With a bang, the chaotic blood rolling in front was drawn, and it directly turned into a sea of ocean that drowned Qin Tiange.

Li Luo just woke up and saw Qin Tiange drowned in chaotic blood, his face changed slightly, and he didn't want to rush up.

boom!

As a result, Luo Luo was hit by a chaotic blood. Fortunately, she merged with Chaos Spring Eyes, her body became stronger and was not injured.

But she was also overwhelmed by the chaotic blood and had to start to refine and devour it to stop the violent chaotic blood from invading her body.

If it was consumed by assimilation by the demon remnants contained in chaotic blood, then Li Luo would become the demon's clone, and it would not be her own time.

The two were wrapped in chaotic blood and lost their tracks, and in the distance, a strong horizontal figure, under the training of the spirit and blood of the deities, began to transform themselves.

“Roar ...” A roar came, revealing the fierce anger, a behemoth slowly swelled, and became the body.

It was a horrible cricket, swallowing the sky and swallowing the endless blood of the demon god, opened the mouth, washed the flesh, and gradually evolved towards the immortal body of the devil.

Not only this, but in the heart of the devil, in the endless blood of the devil, the ancient creatures are dominating themselves.

They are absorbing the blood of the demon god, purifying themselves, gaining the transformation of the flesh, and evolving towards the immortal body of the devil.

“I smell delicious ...”

Suddenly, a low voice came and saw a round of black sun rising slowly, the glowing light diffused, and an endless destruction was revealed.

It is a candlelight. The body is like a black sun, but it is invisible to anyone. There is a pair of scarlet and blazing eyes, and it is a real ancient creature.

“That's the atmosphere of chaos ...” Chan Zhao stared at the red eyes, staring directly at an area far away, where a trail of chaotic blood escaped.

Seeing this, the candlelight almost didn't hesitate, the black sun rummaged through the endless demon blood and came to the gray area, where a large chaotic blood floated and rolled.

“It turned out to be chaotic blood, the most powerful destiny source of the devil.” Chan Zhao stared with wide eyes, shining with scorching light, and excitedly came forward to swallow the chaotic blood.

boom!

The result was miserable, and Zhu Zhaozhao's body burst on the spot, and the black sun was blasted into a hole. The severe pain made it unable to bear the tragic sound, quickly spit out the chaotic blood, and scared back on the spot.

Chaotic blood is not a chaotic creature. It is difficult to absorb. Once it is forcibly absorbed, it will directly ignite and explode the original blood and energy in the body.

“Damn ...” Candlelight recovered, and the black sun was fierce and roared, but he dared not continue to absorb the chaotic blood.

It can only reluctantly retreat, and honestly absorbed the blood of the demon **** nearby, but still refused to give up those chaotic blood.

Huh?

Just as the candle dragon absorbed the blood of the devil around him to wash his flesh, he suddenly felt a strong breath coming from the chaotic blood and revealed it.

He immediately turned his head, his eyes flooded, and faintly saw a gray elementary child sinking in the chaotic blood, constantly devouring the chaotic blood.

“What's that?” Candlelight was startled, staring at the gray child, like an egg, floating in the sea of chaotic blood.

At this time, in Yuan Yuan's body, Qin Tiange's body continued to transform, collapsed and reorganized again and again, with the help of Chaos Yuan Fei, she even transformed into a more perfect Pangu body.

Moreover, with the addition of Chaos Yuantai, the chaotic blood around him was snatched by Qin Tiange in a frenzy, not swallowed, but snatched.

The chaotic elementary fetus is robbing the surrounding chaotic blood and directly swallowing it. Part of it supplies Qin Tiange to transform itself, and part of it supplies chaotic growth.

Gradually The amount of chaotic blood around is getting less and less, plundered by the chaotic primitives, a small piece of chaos inside begins to take shape, and a world finally begins to evolve and form.

boom!

Almost instantly, there was a roar from Chaos Elementary, and then all the chaos blood around it was swallowed up, robbing all of it, allowing the whole chaos blood to burn directly to one third, instinctively felt the threat, and immediately violent Rolling up the rest of the chaotic blood, disappeared instantly.

In a blink of an eye, the vast chaotic blood was gone, and the concealed disappeared, and the chaotic Yuantai turned back to Qin Tiange's body, letting him and Li Luo's figure both exposed.

“Chaotic creature?”

Candlelight stared at each other, two horrible cold mangs flickered, and saw Qin Tiange and Li Luo cross there knees absorbing the chaotic blood there.

And the chaotic blood around him was completely cleaned, which made Chanzhao's incomparable flesh hurt and even jealous.

It exposed its black mouth, fangs, and scorching sun, and opened its mouth and swallowed directly towards Qin Tiange and Li Luo.
