

THE DARK AGES

Chapter 8 - Hunting operation

Downstairs, several small zombies were shaking and wearing high school uniforms. They looked like junior high school students and had short stature.

Huh!

Suddenly, a dark shadow rushed across the corner, and the sword flashed, and he saw a head soaring inexplicably, and the blood sprayed around.

The one-star zombies were killed with one shot, and there is no pressure on Qin Tiange now. One-star evolution has ten times his physical fitness to make him invincible in the same realm.

Roar!

In the aisle, the four zombies heard the movement at the same time, smelled the flesh and blood of Qin Tiange, and immediately snarled and rushed with their teeth and claws.

However, in the face of Qin Tiange who has completed ten times strengthening his body, they have no room to fight back and are quickly killed.

Dig out the brain crystal, Qin Tian Ge Liso walked up the stairs of the teaching building, all the way to see flesh and blood debris, visceral debris splashing all over the floor, and even a head in the corridor on the second floor is constantly roaring.

It was a zombie head and dragged a long spine. It was originally bitten by other zombies and devoured flesh and blood limbs. Finally, the remaining head became a zombie.

Click!

He stepped forward and stomped his head, picked up the crystal nuclei inside, Qin Tiange glanced blankly at both sides of the corridor, and a lot of zombies swayed outside the door of a classroom.

I watched quietly from the window, the classroom was a mess, the seats were scattered everywhere, and the books were scattered all over the ground, stained with blood.

Qi Qin Tiange saw that there were a dozen zombies in this classroom, lying under a pile of tables and chairs and swallowing the corpses, the scene was * and horrible.

He made a visual inspection. From here to the door of the classroom was four meters, and there were two zombies lingering there. If they could not be killed as soon as possible, the zombies in the classroom would be alarmed, and other zombies might be besieged.

After groaning for a while, thinking about the risks, Qin Tiange clenched the steel knife, and suddenly a light stride passed, and the man held up the steel knife on the way and severely chopped on the neck of a zombie.

With a click, his head moved, only one face to face, killed the zombie in one second, and then three swaying zombies beside him heard the sound and rushed up.

Qin Tiange was calm and terrifying. He stared at the nearest zombie. The steel knife seemed to have no weight and pierced the opponent's head with lightning. Then he crossed his hands and pulled out the steel knife suddenly and shattered it. Head.

He then raised his knife and slashed forward, banging, and the front of a zombie was blasted in front of him, and his body fell straight.

The last two zombies had just raised their claws, and before they had time to attack, they saw a blade of light across their necks, two heads soaring, and black blood spewing up.

Clean and clear, the four zombies from waking to being killed, but a little more than three seconds before and after, had to say Qin Tiange's strength at this moment is quite terrible.

Roar!

At this time, most of the zombies in the classroom were shocked, and they stood up growling, gray eyes could not see anything, but they could smell the flesh and blood of human beings, and even heard faint movements.

Outside the corridor, Qin Tiange was physically close to the wall next to the door of the classroom and remained motionless. He carefully sensed the movement in the classroom. He felt that two zombies were coming out.

Sure enough, the next moment, a dazzling figure came out of the classroom, wearing a school uniform, extremely fat, and a fat man.

That chubby face was full of foul black blood, full of flesh and blood, and it was disgusting to bite a large intestine in his teeth.

flutter!

The fat zombie's body hadn't left the door yet, and suddenly a knife fell off, and the fat zombie's head moved directly.

Qin Tiange turned around and lifted his feet to fly the fat headless corpse, hitting the thinner zombie that followed him and holding it down.

He took a step forward, lifted his knife and stabbed into the suppressed zombie's brain, killing him on the spot.

At this time, fifteen zombies in the classroom were alarmed and immediately rushed out to bite and swallow the fresh flesh that had just appeared.

However, these middle school students who have just become zombies are not Qin Tiange's opponents to strengthen ten times their physical fitness.

With the steel knife in hand, taking advantage of the limited space at the entrance of the classroom, soon one by one, the zombies were slaughtered. When the last zombie was chopped off his head, Qin Tiange began to excavate the brain crystal.

One by one, the full twenty brain crystals obtained in the hallway entered his pocket, and the harvest was not small.

He stood up, the cat was standing, Qin Tiange came to another classroom, and quietly looked in through the window. There were more zombies inside, which was 26.

It seems that most of the students in this class turned into zombies, and a small part was swallowed clean, and the rest may be alive, but these Qin Tiange didn't care.

He cares about brain crystals. Only by killing these zombies can he get brain crystals, and finally redeem enough benefits in a limited five days.

Alas!

A steel knife suddenly pierced through the broken window and clicked, piercing the back of a zombie on the spot.

Squat down with a knife, and the cat moved forward quickly. Qin Tiange didn't panic. He came to a window next to him and quietly looked in.

He happened to be, a zombie seemed to feel it, and slowly turned his head, and suddenly saw a steel knife piercing his mouth fiercely, and he slumped with two beeps.

Killed two zombies in a row, silently, so that the zombies in the classroom could not find the trace of Qin Tiange, but only by the smell to distinguish the living people outside the corridor.

Roar...

The zombies in the classroom were agitated, and they stood up, shaking their bodies one by one, and walked out of the classroom outside, opened their teeth and claws, and smelled the smell to distinguish them.

At the door, two zombies squeezed out at the same time, but they were greeted by Qin Tiange's fierce and savage sword attack, and his neck broke with a click.

At the same time, another zombie was stabbed into the mouth with the tip of a knife and killed on the spot. He couldn't even growl and was killed.

Two zombies died, but they stimulated a dozen other zombies in the classroom, almost violent, and rushed out of the teacher's door.

Unfortunately, the door to the classroom at UU Kanshu www.uukanshu.com was a bit small, and three small zombies rushed out at the same time. As a result, it was tragedy. Naturally, it was squeezed by the narrow door.

Flutter flutter ...

Three consecutive swords, three 狰狰 heads soared, Qin Tiange looked like a killing machine, blocked at the entrance of the classroom, kept waving the steel knife, cleanly slaughtered one by one in front of one another.

Twenty more zombies were quickly killed and a total of eighteen were killed. The remaining ones came out of the other door and roared up the hall.

In the face of six zombies, Qin Tiange didn't panic, but quickly flashed into the classroom, making those zombies have to chase them in.

With the help of an upside-down seat inside, Qin Tiange quickly killed the six zombies, but the movement over here caught the attention of the zombies in other classrooms nearby.

Quickly dug out these brain crystals, full of 26 brain crystals, made Qin Tiange excited, as if he saw countless good things beckoning to him.

Roar!

此时 At this moment, a large number of zombies were pouring out of the classroom next to them, and they rushed out one by one. Obviously, the movement here attracted them.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange didn't stop, rushed out of the classroom, quickly ran across the corridor, then ran up the stairs and went up to the third floor.

Behind the puppet, a large number of zombies followed the surging and ran quickly. As soon as the prey was found, the zombie would erupt at the maximum speed to chase the prey and fall to the ground.

Roar...

On the third floor, a group of zombies blocked the entrance of the stairs, and when they saw Qin Tiange rushing up, they immediately rushed down, and two of them jumped and jumped down.

Humph

Qi Qin Tiange looked cold and hummed coldly, without fear. He leaped sharply in two steps, and the man waved his sword in the air towards the necks of the two zombies.
