

Dark Ages 811

Chapter 811 - Fire demon dies tragically, the human race is not weaker than others

A bang came, and I saw that in the No. 8 gladiator arena, the flame-like five-meter-high body ignited a blazing flame, and the blue flame was extremely hot.

“Dead!”

The Flame Demon roared, and ran away with a sneer, with a terrifying breath, waving a pair of flame arms and slamming up.

That blow contained terrorist power, as if a star exploded. If the gladiatorial arena was specially created, and even with numerous dense lines of defense, it might be broken.

A fierce blow, the heat waves rolled around, but Jing Shan looked indifferent, his eyes remained unchanged, as if he didn't see the blow come down.

boom!

Suddenly a muffled sound, Yan Demon flew out, hitting the energy wall of the gladiatorial arena and slowly falling down.

It was blown away by a blow, an inexplicable change, and the scene's hot shouts suddenly stopped, one by one staring.

I saw, Jingshan didn't know when he came to Yan Mo, waved his arms, and his fists fell like rain.

Bang bang bang bang ...

Immediately thousands of punches blasted down, Yan Mo's huge body was splattered with flames, and the hard rock layer skin fell off every inch.

“Eh ... I killed you!” The flames screamed, the body exploded, his arms and fists swept across, pushing Jingshan back.

He got up, cracked, seeping out like magma, burning the ground.

This Yan Demon is very strong. It is an extremely powerful one in Hengxing, but it was accidentally killed by Jing Shan.

It snarled and rushed, its fists wrapped in blue flames, swept through, covering the whole gladiatorial arena.

Boom boom!

There was a terrible vibration in the gladiatorial field, a roar, and the horror of countless creatures on the scene was terrified, and then roared.

“kill him!”

“Burnt him!”

“Destroy Terran!”

With a loud shout, the wave was higher than the wave, the atmosphere at the scene was driven, and the excitement and enthusiasm were so great that they thought the human race was over.

Looking at the hot atmosphere at the scene, many creatures couldn't help but stand up and dance, their eyes flushed, showing a sick mood.

Bloody, stimulating. The creatures of all races here seek stimulation in such **** fighting entertainment.

In the room, the fairy girl's maidservant blinked her eyes and looked at Qin Tiange himself from time to time, but unfortunately the body was filled with gray mist, and his appearance and expression could not be seen at all.

Qin Tiange watched quietly, behind him, Li Luo stood behind him silently, guarding him firmly.

“Master, don't you worry about your war slaves?” The fairy waiter couldn't help asking, very curious.

Qin Tiange didn't answer, but looked at the No. 8 gladiatorial arena, where the blue flames shrouded in flames, covering the scene inside.

But he could clearly see that Jing Shan was surging in the flames, and his eyes showed the killing power.

boom!

With one punch, the Yan Demon stepped back, screaming and killing, but was emptied by Jingshan and struck his forehead.

With a click, the Yanmen's forehead cracked, the rock's skin splashed and scattered, and blood flowed down, looking miserable.

It turned out to be beaten. Here, in fact, it is already very strong, but Jingshan was beaten into a monster by Qin Tiange Sheng with the blood of the devil.

No way, for the spar of time, the human dignity is even greater, even the human slaves cannot be underestimated or even despised by all ethnic groups.

What about war slaves, even if some people call them war slaves, they cannot be ignored, nor can they be ignored.

“Roar ... how is that possible?”

The Flame Devil shouted, looking shocked and unbelievable. Isn't the human race very vulnerable, why is this human war slave in front of him so arrogant?

Not to mention a powerful person, the power of the stars in the body erupted, and one move was like a supernova explosion, full of destruction.

In particular, the physical body of Jingshan is arrogant, like a demon **** body, which is completely refined by Qin Tiange's blood.

“Kill!” Jingshan's eyes flashed, killing surging surging, his heart was extremely excited, and he had never felt so powerful.

He began to have a hint of doubt and even awe in Qin Tiange, the mysterious master.

Not only his strength and mystery, but also his means, and his courage, washing his face and body directly with unknown and powerful blood, creating his current strength and crushing the same level of inflammation.

“My people, not weaker than people!”

Jingshan howled, rising into the air, and a terror broke out inside the body, like a supernova blasting off.

As he smashed with a punch and banged, Yan Demon lay on the ground, his shoulders were shattered, and blood and water splashed in all directions.

Gradually, the flames scattered around, revealing the scenes in the gladiatorial arena, and the Yan Demon lay there, struggling hard.

It uttered an unwilling roar: “I don’t believe it. People are vulnerable. Why, why?”

boom!

Jing Shan stepped on, stepping on the head of Yan Mo, saying, “My people are not weaker than any race, but you are arrogant!”

Talking, Jingshan grabbed the huge body of Yan Mo, his arms vibrated, and a violent force broke out, with his arms tearing fiercely.

“Ah ...” A scream came violently, and the tyrannical inflammation monster was torn in half by Jing Shansheng.

Hissing, the Flame Demon’s body split into two halves, the blood and intestines scattered all over the ground, leaving the whole gladiator field dead.

The flame demon was dead, shattered in half by human war slave Jing Shan, and died on the spot.

“how is this possible?”

“Yanma is dead?”

“Fake, fake!”

At the scene, countless creatures were sluggish. Looking at the No. 8 gladiatorial arena, the fierce death of Yan Yan was deeply imprinted in their hearts.

That kind of disbelief, that kind of shock, who couldn’t believe their eyes at all, the fierce Pyro War slaves died?

All the creatures looked at the only person standing on the field. It was Jing Shan, the human slave.

His eyes were calm, and he swept across the gladiator arena, and suddenly roared to the sky, a roar full of grief and depression.

The human race was scorned by various races, and even despised by the various races. He had never been seen by the various races. At this moment, he even tore a powerful flame.

“The eighth gladiatorial arena, the Yanmu tribe slaves died, and the human tribe slaves Jingshan, won!”

A sweet voice came, awakening the countless dazes in the presence, and then really realized that the fighting tribe had won.

“Damn!”

“Jack, my spar ...”

Accompanying them are numerous wailing sounds, and those creatures who bought the bet Yan Mo triumphed without exception, all screaming wildly, looking very angry.

“Human war slaves won?”

Many souls and strong men couldn’t believe it. Why did the Yan Demon die and the human war slaves won?

Do n’t you say that people are the most vulnerable? Now, Jingshan directly killed the opponent’s Yanmu tribe and won, so many strong people realized that the human race was not as weak as they imagined.

If it is said that they are weak, it is because the tribal defeat of the previous generation almost destroyed the tribe. Only then did the tribe decline, and was suppressed and insulted by various ethnic groups.

“Congratulations on winning.”

Beside her, the fairy waiter was shocked, her eyes were surprised, she knew best about Jingshan’s strength, not a month ago.

She blinked and laughed: “Sir, war slaves win a game and get 10,000 time spar, two games are 20,000, three games are 30,000, and so on, when the tenth game will be Double it. “

“One hundred million time spar I didn’t expect time spar to be so profitable?” Qin Tiange said to himself, flipping a card in his palm, showing one hundred million time spar.

Before the spar has been pressed for 100,000 hours, Jingshan’s odds are one thousand times. Winning is naturally a hundred million.

Looking at a lot, in fact, the 100 million yuan that was purchased by Yanmao on the market was 100 million yuan, and 99.99 billion yuan was accompanied. The gladiatorial arena made a lot of money.

“Dear viewers, the next arena will begin to draw.”

Soon, a sweet voice spread throughout the hall, the No. 1 gladiatorial court began to draw, and the name of the line above began to emerge.

Soon the lottery was over, and as a result, countless creatures of various ethnicities on the scene stunned again.

“The No. 1 gladiatorial arena, the draw result, No. 5: Human War Slave: Ruby, Battle No. 9: Fierce Beast-Nine Infant War Slave.”

Along with this sentence, the atmosphere at the scene was once again hot, and the creatures were extremely excited watching the two figures appearing on the gladiatorial arena.

One human woman, one ferocious beast, nine infants.

Chapter 812 - Ruby VS9 baby, who loses who wins?

Terran Ruby VS Vicious Beast Nine Infant!

A special killing is about to begin. In the gladiatorial arena, the eyes of all the living creatures and the strong are gathered.

“The human race and the nine beasts of the beast, haha, there was a good show this time.”

“Nine babies, it is rumored that the former ancient fierce tribe had blood from the pre-Palestinian period, extremely powerful and fierce.”

The atmosphere at the scene was hot, and everyone could see the blood boiling and excitement. This was the war slave of the fierce beast family, Jiuying.

In the gladiatorial arena, Ruby looked stern and stared at the ninth infantry slave in the opposite, fierce and strong.

This nine-infant war slave is a male, with a cold face and no hair on his head. Instead, he has nine black snake heads, which are constantly swinging.

“Human, I haven’t eaten it for a long time. It should be delicious to come to your flesh.”

The Nine Infant War Slaves said inscrutably, spitting their cores, licking their lips continuously, exposing two tusks.

Ruby was indifferent, without saying a word, and the whole body condensed, and suddenly two eyes of terror and murder were blooming in his eyes.

“The hand is open, please bet.”

Just listening to a sweet voice spread throughout the audience, the No. 1 gladiator arena opened the handicap, one is the human war slave ruby, and the victory odds are up to 1000 times.

However, the winning odds of Jiuying here are not low, and the odds of 500 times are regarded as a change of the senior level of the arena.

Jingshan won before. Fortunately, only Qin Tiange bought 100,000 time spar. If he bought it with a little more life, he might lose his life.

This time the senior staff who opened the handicap arena learned immediately and directly improved the odds of Jiuying.

“Bet bet, I don’t believe Terran can still win!”

“A tribal woman is fragile and Jiuying can eat her in one bite.”

“I buy nine babies to win.”

All of a sudden, in the whole arena, the rich and powerful people of various races and creatures all bought and bet.

Most of them bought Jiuying, a fierce beast, to win. After all, Jiuying is famous for being powerful and fierce.

As for the human race, it has been cowardly for too long, and it is almost forgotten by the Starry Hundred Races. Moreover, it has also become the target of hunting by the younger generations of all ethnic groups, which makes all people think that the human race is the weakest.

“One hundred million, Ruby wins.”

In the suspended room, Qin Tiange took a swipe and bought the 100 million time spar in it directly to win the ruby.

Above the market, the number of creatures who bought the nine babies was soaring, they soared all the way, then broke through the 100 billion mark, and finally stopped at 250 billion.

As for the buyers of red jade, in addition to Qin Tiange’s 100 million, there are other races to buy her to win, a small amount of purchase, only about 20 million, adding up to 120 million.

The market is blocked directly and can no longer be purchased, the game begins.

“Fighting starts!”

With the start, Ruby and Jiuying left almost at the same time.

With a bang, the two stood in opposition, and then a terrible muffled noise came, and then the air burst and the waves of air rolled out.

“The power is good, this kind of human race is more delicious. Come, let me taste the deliciousness of the human race.” Jiuying turned around, grinning hehe.

He said as he walked up, as if walking in the court, showing strong confidence, he did not take Ruby in his eyes.

In Jiuying’s view, he is a fierce race, and his race is food, the lowest race in the starry sky.

“Eat her soon ...”

“Nine babies, tear her up.”

“We want to see you tear up this human woman.”

The scene was extremely hot, and countless creatures roared and shouted.

Looking at the entire scene so hot, exceeded the expectations of the gladiatorial arena, quite unexpected.

Then I realized that people of all races really like to suppress human races. When they see human races, they can’t help but bully and behave proudly.

In fact, this is a kind of morbidity, that is, the inferiority of the human race in the past to dominate the starry sky, left over from the dynasties.

Inferiority deep into the bone marrow, the peoples ruled by the human race, naturally appear a little inferiority and anger, to the human race that saw the opportunity to slam and kill.

“kill!”

Nine babies drank violently and were so fierce that they swept through their strength and turned into a nine-headed giant behind them.

It was a ghost image of Jiuying, which was condensed by his own strength, turned into Jiuying's fierce beast, and was directly culled.

boom...

Inside the gladiatorial court, it was completely occupied by the huge shadow of Jiuying. Nine huge heads opened their mouths and swallowed down.

Outside, Qin Tiange looked at his face quietly, without any worries about the safety of Ruby, but quietly watching the No. 1 gladiatorial arena.

Inside, the ruby figure flickered again and again, avoiding the crazy assault of Jiuying. She has no expression on her pretty face, red hair dancing, and her breath is not leaking, just like a weak woman of a human race.

Huh!

Suddenly a snoring came, all of them jumped, looking at the gladiatorial arena, and saw a flash of red rush, fluttering, a head of Jiuying was cut off.

Ruby's arms waved, two blood-colored sharp edges condensed out, split the air, and severed a head of Jiuying.

“His ... hell!”

Nine infants roared fiercely, eight heads danced in unison, bursting out endless black flames, full of corrosive power.

He was so angry that his head was weirdly cut off by Ruby, which scared him.

“Roar, I swallowed you.” Nine infants roared, and the eight bodies of the main body opened their mouths to bite Ruby.

The rumbling noise, the gladiator's table vibrating, and the energy wall all sent terrible waves. The terrible impact caused the rocks and rocks to fly in, and the smoke and dust covered the battle scene inside.

Only with a strong practice, can she see through the scene, and see Jiuying's eight heads biting together, but unfortunately, she can't bite the ruby at all, and she was elusively avoided by one by one.

“kill!”

Suddenly, Ruby gave a cold drink, his arms glowed with red blood, turning them into two sharp blood blades.

With the flickering of the figure, a click sounded, a head fell, and it collapsed and dissipated on the ground.

Immediately afterwards, the ruby figure turned into a blood-colored rainbow, split the vacuum, and struck the other heads of Jiuying.

“what...”

As soon as a scream came, he saw that Jiuying’s massive ontological vision collapsed, and his head was cut off, completely dissolving the ontological vision.

And the figure of Jiuying emerged with embarrassment, the corners of his mouth were bleeding, and the sight of looking at Ruby was full of disbelief.

“You, your strength ...” Jiuying was startled, startled: “I remember you, there is no such strength in the war slave camp, why?”

Yes, Ruby was originally in a war slave camp, she did not have the current strength, and she was not purchased.

Why is it so powerful now? Not to mention Nine Infants, it is because many people at the scene remember that the human slave slaves in the war slave camp were stunned by the power of Hongyu.

“This war slave and the previous one seem to be stronger, don’t they ...”

The fairy maidservant looked surprised, and looked at the ruby, which had broken the shadow of Jiuying’s body, and looked at Qin Tiange, who was hidden in the mist, perhaps related to him.

“Roar!”

Just listening to the roar, and awakened the countless souls present, all looked up, and saw Jiuying growling sternly.

As a result, the body was cut across the chest by a red awn, blood and water splashed, and three bones were broken, being cut apart.

He looked horrified and kept back, avoiding the rapid attack of Ruby. At this time, the red jade completely broke out of an extreme force, and he didn’t leave anything at all.

She waved her arms, turned into a rainbow, holding two red blood blades, one blade at a time, to cut the vacuum, and cut it in front of Jiuying, to kill him.

“Vacuum Strangle!”

Suddenly he screamed loudly, and the red jade’s body bloomed with a red awn, suddenly disappeared, and suddenly there was a trace of **** traces around him.

It was horrible knife marks, and the knife marks drawn by the sharp blades were staggered, densely intertwined into a net, covering the nine infants.

puff!

Jiuying’s body cracked, and was suddenly crossed by a red awn, flesh and blood separated, and his bones broke on the spot, unable to stop it at all.

“Ah ...” He growled in anger The body exploded a horrible mist, the stars in the body expanded, instantly compressed, and turned into a black hole.

He directly forcibly advanced and entered the black hole level, hoping to use this to gain tyrannical power against this somewhat powerful and terrifying human war slave ruby.

boom!

With a bang, Jiuying released a horrible black mist outside his body, turning it into a black hole, which devoured everything.

Uh ...

A multitude of red knife marks staggered and gathered into one piece, forming a vacuum strangulation.

It seemed as if a red storm rolled up and surrounded the nine babies, constantly spinning and strangling, forming a terrible lore.

“No ...” A terrifying growl came from the storm, then calmed down.

When the red storm subsided, two figures emerged from the gladiatorial arena, and Jiuying and Hongyu stood quietly opposite each other.

Both were motionless. Who loses and who wins?

Chapter 813 - Earn 100 billion yuan, buy Xianfu, send Xianji?

As the red storm dispersed, all the creatures brushed up and looked at each other. On the field, two figures stood quietly there.

Jiuying looked dull, her body was intact, and she looked unharmed, but her eyes were awful, as if she had lost her glory, and she had no life fluctuation.

Looking at Ruby again, his eyes were moving, his wicked spirit disappeared, and he slowly looked up at Jiuying.

Click!

Suddenly, Jiuying’s body cracked, and then scattered like a piece of blood, blood and water mixed with the pieces of meat scattered all over the place.

Jiuying, dead

There was a dead silence at the scene, and no one could believe that a human war slave of no one at all could actually kill the nine beasts.

It was a nine-baby beast with a stellar star limit, and at the end, it forced the stars in the body to collapse into a black hole.

In spite of this, the fate of being killed by the ruby was still escaped, and it was directly broken into a piece of flesh and blood and died completely.

“Dead, dead?”

“How is it possible, how did Jiuying die?”

For a time, countless creatures roared angrily throughout the gladiatorial court, one by one looking very irritable.

The ending and expected speculation form a huge contrast, making those bets who buy the Nine Infants one by one angry and furious.

If it weren't for the hands here, or even for the stage, there might be souls going up to kill the ruby.

Even so, many tyrannical creatures and even some star masters, because they lost too many spar, made them show terrible murderous power to ruby.

“Miscellaneous account, check for me, who is this war slave and who is it?”

There was a fierce roar of the star master, and his voice rolled away, and many horrified creatures were frightened.

The atmosphere of the creatures and the powerful of the various ethnic groups burst on the scene, and they seemed extremely unstable. Fortunately, this is the fairies' arena.

“As a result of the battle on the No. 1 platform, the nine infants died, and the human race slave ruby, won!”

With the sound of a sweet voice, the result of this gladiatorial battle was announced, and the human war slave Ruby won.

The moment the result was announced, there was a slight change in Ruby's expression, and his breath gradually weakened.

In fact, her blow was very expensive just now, and it was not so easy and simple to play against Nine Infants. It was okay to look at herself, but she had reached the final limit.

If it was the last move to kill the undead Nine Infant, she might be in trouble, and she would have suffered a lot of trauma.

“Miscellaneous accounts, to find out who these two races are.”

Some star-level creatures roared and ordered their hands to find out who the warriors, Jingshan and Hongyu, were.

The results of the two consecutive battles of human war slaves were won by human war slaves, and these creatures lost completely, causing huge losses and natural anger.

Qin Tiange was not moved by the roar of these creatures, but fiddled with the card in his hand gently.

The above shows a set of data, a full 100 billion time spar, making a lot of money.

Qin Tiange had to be sighed. It was really easy to make time for the spar here. Of course, he knew it was because Jingshan and Hongyu suddenly became stronger, which led to a contrast this time.

Next, I want to use Jingshan and Ruby to make money, it is almost difficult, because with this encounter, the rules of the arena are not allowed to compete with opponents with great disparity.

Next time, if Jingshan and Hongyu continue to compete, the opponent must be a more powerful creature, most likely both black hole-level.

“Go, get me an immortal card, and buy the immortal house you rented before, and deduct it yourself.”

Qin Tiange suddenly lost the card and flew to the hands of the fairy maidens with sullen faces, letting her catch it hurriedly.

She looked at the card in her hand, a hundred billion time spar, not a small number, and never thought that Qin Tiange would send two war slaves to fight two games to get such a huge return.

One hundred thousand becomes one hundred billion. Is this just an overnight rich?

“Master, slaves do it now.” The fairy maidservant had a complex look, and her heart was bitter and lost.

She understood that this time, perhaps her master would give her directly to Qin Tiange for free.

As she left, she headed to Jiuzhongtian to report the incident of the immortal master here.

“Lord, this is what happened.” She bowed and reported.

Ahead, in the misty fairy mist, a word came from the immortal master.

“So, Caiyun, you and Caiyi should be treated as gifts to buy Xianzhai and Xiandi cards, and follow him later.”

The immortal shook his hands and made a decision. He would directly send the intimate waiter Cai Yun who came to report, and a top fairy Ji, Caiyi, both of which were given to Qin Tiange as gifts.

The rule here is that anyone who buys a top fairy house can give away a top fairy girl of the fairy family for free.

And when you apply for the Emperor Card, you will naturally get a top fairy girl, Caiyun and Caiyi as gifts.

The fairy maiden, Xian Ji, looks good, but in fact it is one by one, and it will be a sad thing to be sent away sooner or later.

“Yes!”

Caiyi and Caiyun, the two maids immediately backed off, went through all the formalities in an instant, and came to Qin Tiange with the immortal card and a set of deeds for the fairy house.

The two came to Qin Tiange, knelt down gently, and one submitted a deed to Xianfu.

“Caiyun, meet the master, this is the master’s deed to the fairy house.” Caiyun bowed obediently and handed the deed to the fairy house.

Qin Tiange was surprised, but didn’t react much. He had expected that the immortal master might have noticed him.

Next to him, another fairy girl presented a fairy card in her hands, exuding a noble breath.

“Master, slavery Caiyi, this is the fairy card.” Caiyi said softly.

The two fairy maiden fairies are not only beautiful, but also have a halo of fairy light behind them, and they have a wonderful attraction.

Qin Tiange did not speak, playing with the Emperor Emperor Card, watching a set of top land deeds for Xianfu, and spent a total of 15 million time spar.

“Gift two top fairies, fairies, really generous.” Qin Tiange looked at the two fairy maids of Caiyi and Caiyun with a smile.

Listening to these words, Caiyi and Caiyun turned pale, realizing that Qin Tiange apparently knew the plans of the masters behind them.

But he said nothing, waved his hand and said, “Come up, Caiyi, you take this card and help me open two more Emperor Cards and give them to my slaves Jingshan and Ruby.”

As soon as this word came out, several people in the scene were stunned, Caiyi was surprised, looked at Qin Tiange covered with mist, and looked at Jingshan and Ruby with a stunned face.

“Yes, the slaves do it now.” Cai Yi directly and simply, without asking, left after receiving the card.

Qin Tiange then looked at another fairy girl, Caiyun, the fairy maiden who had always received him.

He chuckled: “Originally your name is Caiyun, since your master has given it to me, then you should know, who is your master from today?”

“Yes, Caiyun knows that she doesn’t dare to have any slightest feelings, so please ask the owner to make a note of it.” Caiyun looked down in fear and bowed down.

She knew in her heart that this was Qin Tiange’s warning to her, and since it was sent, it was equal to him being her true master in the future.

Once she finds that Caiyun has any bad thoughts and practices, Qin Tiange will not hesitate to erase her, so what’s the use of raising a scheming maid?

“It’s good if you understand. In the future, I will be your master. I have forgotten all the past.” Qin Tiange said calmly, stood up, and went straight out.

In the arena, a group of star-level creatures gathered and blocked outside the arena, waiting for someone to appear.

“These two slaves!”

As soon as Qin Tiange and others came out, they were immediately blocked by a group of star-level creatures. When they saw Jingshan and Hongyu, they immediately understood that Qin Tiange was the master of two war slaves.

Huh!

Jingshan, Ruby almost didn't hesitate, and stood directly in front of Qin Tiange, his face filled with anger.

"Retreat!" Qin Tiange waved his hand gently, Jingshan, and Ruby immediately backed down, staring at the star-level creatures vigilantly.

Both sides looked at each other, and there were nine star masters, all looking at Qin Tiange, each of them was surprised.

"It turns out that you are the master of the two human slaves?" A star-level creature spoke.

Unfortunately, the star-level creatures are surrounded by a halo, just like galaxies are diffusely shrouded, and a little bit of starlight has blocked others from peeping.

"Let's go, otherwise, I'll think you are provoking."

Qin Tiange said indifferently, his steps were not very straightforward, and he walked directly to the main creatures of that group of stars.

"presumptuous!"

A star lord scolded and was about to stop, but saw a ray of fairy light passing by, Cai Ning stood up and stared at the star lord.

She said word by word: "I saw you presumptuously, let it go and block my master's way, so be prepared for the fall."

Qin Tiange's words surprised Qin Tiange, looked at her more, and couldn't help showing a strange smile.

"Retreat first, just remember him."

"Yes, let the master come to him to settle accounts."

Aside, several star masters saw Cai Ning immediately retreat, and there were many who knew her identity. They were personal maids beside the immortal master.

"Master, it's done."

At this point, Caiyi was back, very fast and handed in a few cards.

Qin Tiange bowed his head with a smile and said, "Very good, Jingshan, Ruby, you have one card for each of you. Go to the trading area and see if you want anything."

One person and one Emperor Card were thrown away, Qin Tiange took Li Luo directly, led by Caiyun and Caiyi, and returned to the set of top-level Xianfu just purchased.

The remaining groups of star creatures stared at each other, looking greedily at the two immortal cards in Jingshan and Hongyu's hands.

The immortal card is not to say that it can be done. In fact, it is not possible to apply for the spar with time, but it must be nodded by the immortal master.

Qin Tiange, even to his two war slaves to apply for two immortal card, and also completed, what is his identity? This has envy and horror in the hearts of the stars.

You know, their star masters can only apply for the Xianjun Card.

“Lord”

Jingshan and Hongyu looked at the departing Qin Tiange, silent, with intense light flashing in their eyes, their moods were extremely complicated.

Chapter 814 - Fight in secret, devouring time crystals

Suspended islands, nine top-level fairy houses, each occupying the entire huge island, are divided into nine areas, which are the top-level residential fairy-tale houses here.

A set takes more than 10 million time spar, of course, this is the most common time spar.

Among them, Qin Tiange's Xianfu is located on the top of nine clouds of immense mist, and the whole body is shining like a fairy palace.

The top-level fairy house is different. It is spacious and decorated like a fairy palace. There is a large hall inside it, which is extremely huge. It is divided into nine levels. Each floor has several luxurious rooms. The top floor is the most luxurious place.

Living there, you can see a vast sea of stars and sky, as if the stars and stars of the immortal world are hanging in the void, extremely colorful.

“It is indeed the top fairy house.”

Standing on the ninth floor, Qin Tiange had no choice but to say a word, the fairies really enjoyed it. Such a top-level fairy house is enough to see how powerful and wealthy the whole fairies are, even for a while.

He sat on a set of true jade thrones, and quietly looked at the two fairy maidens standing in front of him, which were Caiyun and Caiyi who gave them to him free of charge.

“I don't care who your previous master was, but remember the two of you. From today on, you are my niece of Qin Tiange, and I am your master.” Qin Tiange said verbatim.

Cai Yun and Cai Yi's expression changed, and Qi Qi knelt down: “Slave knows, master ...”

The two were talking about what to say, but Qin Tiange frowned suddenly, Li Luo behind him suddenly looked up, his eyes flickered with two horrible glazes.

“Huh!” Qin Tiange snorted coldly, flashed forward, and both hands pointed at Caiyun and Caiyi.

With a humming buzz, the two erupted from the eyebrows, and then gradually formed a hazy figure.

This figure was crushed, crushed and completely dissipated by Qin Tiange.

“what?”

In the Ninth Heaven, the mysterious master of the mystery issued a suspicion, the breath fluctuated, the fairy mist filled with boiling, and the slightest rays of light fell, and it seemed very unsettled.

The figure inside was horrified, his eyes flickered, and he was surprised: “I can find my thoughts. It seems that Caiyun and Caiyi are useless.”

Then, she looked through the barriers and looked at a top fairy house on that island.

Unfortunately, Xianfu was filled with a mist of mist, which blocked her eyes and the detection of ideas.

“It’s a bit interesting.” The fairy lord laughed slightly and looked away without peeping there.

At this time, in the immortal house, Qin Tiange slowly put down his hands, looking indifferent, looking at the starry sky. He had just captured the source of the peep.

“Jiuzhongtian, Lord of the Immortal, but I am a guest. If you peep at the privacy of the guest again and again, then I will move directly to the eighteenth floor of hell, or live in heaven ...” Caiyun and Caiyi in front of them looked terrified.

Everything was just too sudden, Qin Tiange suddenly shot, and directly broke a hidden god’s thought in the sea.

It was left by the immortal master from the Nine-Fairy Immortal Realm. As two impersonal maids of the immortal master, naturally she had a god.

Unfortunately, just now I wanted to peek in secret, but Qin Tiange was simply shredded.

As if I heard Qin Tiange’s words, in Jiuzhong Heaven, the breath of the immortal master fluctuated a bit, and finally calmed down.

“Come here!”

Just listening to her call, she saw a graceful figure flying quickly, kneeling gently.

“What does the master tell me!”

The hidden fairy master waved and threw out a jade box, and said softly, “Take this thing, go to No. 1 Xiandao, and give it to the owner of No. 1 Xianfu, and say that it was an apology. “

“Yes, master.”

The immortal immediately flew out, leaving only the immortal master alone, silent, thinking about the secret contest just now, which made her feel a little shocked.

“The mysterious power is unknown, and this palace is becoming more and more curious.” Xianzhu said to himself.

The seventh day below, a fairy shadow landed in front of No. 1 Xianfu of Xiandao, and rang the gate of Xianfu gently.

With a click, the gate of Xianfu was opened, and Caiyi saw people stunned, and naturally knew it.

“I’m looking for the owner of No. 1 Xianfu,” said the smiling head of Xianji.

Caiyi wakes up and takes her directly into the ninth floor to meet Qin Tiange.

“Slave was ordered to come with a gift. My lord said it was an apology to you, and I hope you will accept it.”

Xian Ji said, holding a gift box in her hands, it was a jade box, the whole body was crystal, and the fairy was flowing.

Qin Tiange bowed his head, and Cai Yi sent it to the box. He gently scanned the jade box, but did not open it for inspection, but closed it.

“Go back and tell your master, I will accept it, and I will come to visit in my spare time.” Qin Tiange said calmly.

The fairy girl’s eyes flickered a little, without saying a word, she retreated. She turned away and didn’t stay at all, and soon went back to report.

After seeing her leave, Qin Tiange looked at Caiyun and Caiyi and said, “After that, you two will be free and you will help me take care of Xianfu.”

“Yes, master.” Caiyi and Caiyun all bowed to lead.

Qin Tiange looked at the two and told Caiyun: “Take my card and exchange the time spar in it, preferably the highest-level time spar.”

Cai Yun looked at Qin Tiange in amazement, carefully: “Master, 90 billion time spar can be exchanged for 9 million higher time crystals. Is it really all exchanged?”

Qin Tiange groaned after hearing this, and then said, “Stay 10 billion, and exchange everything else for me. I want the crystal of higher time.”

“Yes, slaves do it now.” Cai Yun took the card and went straight for it.

Not long after, she returned and handed Ye Qing a storage ring and card containing eight million high-level time crystals.

Qin Tiange glanced at the crystal of time inside, with a faint excitement in his heart, and finally he could continue to absorb the power of time.

He looked at Li Luo, and laughed: “Li Luo, take this card and see if there are any treasures that are useful to you, go shopping by yourself, I will retreat for some time.”

“Okay!” Li Luo took the card. It was a fairy card and 10 billion time spar.

Li Luo left, leaving only Qin Tiange alone, as well as Caiyun and Caiyi, two fairy maids who were given away.

“You step back, you can’t go up to the ninth floor without my orders.” Qin Tiange waved his hands and let them go down.

“Yes, the slaves retire!”

Caiyi Caiyun both retreated, Qin Tiange then released the Pangu seal and closed the ninth layer directly.

After doing this, he began to remove the time crystal from the storage ring, which is the highest level of time spar.

The previous time spar was an ordinary currency, and only the high-level time crystal contained a powerful time force.

“Eight million crystals of time, I don’t know to what extent my time power can transform, can I break through the space-time barriers in one fell swoop?”

Qin Tiange is very much looking forward to it. It will be a wonderful thing if the crystal of eight million times of advanced time is absorbed.

When it comes to doing it, he holds a fist-sized time crystal in one hand and directly swallows it, absorbing the power of time inside.

A huge mysterious force of time is drawn out, swallowed into the body, and strengthens its own time power.

Qin Tiange fell into a mad practice, absorbing the power of time in the crystals of time, while Li Luo exchanged a large amount of time spar, and quietly left the Nine Nine Immortals to meet secretly with You Ji and Fei Rou.

Chapter 815 - Space-time door at your fingertips

Andromeda Central Interstellar Continent, transit trading area.

Huh!

Two shadows emerged quietly, hiding in the mist, not real, but they could be seen as extremely powerful.

I saw, there was a figure in the shadow in the front corner, and the whole body was filled with chaotic glazed light. She was Li Luo.

“Li Luo, what are you looking for in a hurry?”

“What does the Lord command?”

It was You Ji and Fei Rou who looked at Li Luo who came out of the shadow in front of him and asked a little strangely.

Li Luo is beside Qin Tiange and has been guarding him. Now he must be Qin Tiange.

Sure enough, Li Luo said softly: “The emperor’s secret order, you two check it yourself, this is a storage ring, which has 5 billion time spar.”

After speaking, Li Luo took out two storage rings and gave them to You Ji and Fei Rou. There were also two rays of memory, which were Qin Tiange’s secret orders.

In fact, Qin Tiange called Li Luo out, not to let her go shopping for treasure, but to have another hidden task for her.

It turned out that they were looking for You Ji and Fei Rou and gave them Qin Tiange’s latest secret order.

“Lord, let me enter the eighteen hells?” You Ji looked at the light of that memory and instantly learned of Qin Tiange’s secret order.

Philip Roy wondered: "Let me go to heaven. The Lord wants to establish a force that earns time spar and collects various cultivation resources in two places?"

"Yes, you take care of it yourself, I'll go first." Li Luo nodded, turning and disappearing.

Leaving Youji and Fei Rou together and silent for a long time, Fei Rou said quietly: "Sister You Ji, do you want to take root here?"

You Ji shook her head with a groan, she said, "I don't think so. The meaning of the Lord is probably just to earn more time spar and collect more cultivation materials to take home."

"Perhaps, there is also the meaning of building a force here. I will lay a nail. I don't have to guess. Just follow the instructions of the Lord." You Ji nodded to Fei Rou, turned around and flickered, disappeared .

Philip Rouge looked around and examined carefully before leaving quietly. The three met and no other creature knew.

Since then, a small force has begun to appear on the eighteenth floor of Hell and Heaven, in order to specifically earn time spar, and even collect various cultivation materials for storage, which was a temporary decision made by Qin Tiange.

Since seeing the opportunity to earn time spar in the Nine Dragons World, he has started to make an idea, just to let You Ji and Fei Yan act independently.

There is a cloud of chaos in the Ninth Fairy Realm, the seventh heaven, and Qin Tiange's Ninth Floor. Nothing can be seen inside.

This place is locked by the Pangu seal. Any detection is useless, and with a previous secret contest, the fairy master here will no longer easily peep at Qin Tiange.

After all, it is the most unwise behavior to offend a mysterious strong man from a mysterious background. One temptation is enough, and then it is tantamount to provocation.

In the fog, Qin Tiange sat cross-legged, surrounded by a lot of crystal powder, all of which were absorbed by time.

With a snapping sound, two crystals of time above Qin Tiange's palm exploded, and disappeared into powder.

While practicing Qin Tiange's body shook, and then, the spar of time scattered and scattered, directly submerging him in it.

For a time, the power of time was blurred, like a lake of time, constantly intertwined and gathered, and was attracted by Qin Tiange.

Time boils, turning into a silvery flame, which was originally invisible time, because it was turned into this kind of light after being specially collected.

He is devouring the power of time, and the heart of time is constantly growing in his body. It is like a source of time, densely wrapped with silk threads, covering the entire brain network, and even radiating up and down the whole body.

Zizi ...

Outside, the silvery silver wire coiled, gradually lit the flame, a cluster of flames burned, and then a bunch of flames converged into a small cluster of flames floating above the head.

It was the manifestation of time, like a flame burning, exuding a mysterious breath and energy fluctuations.

In the process, the true spirit of Qin Tiange was immersed in the ocean of time, constantly floating, and sinking into the great mystery of time.

Gradually, he realized the higher-level power of time. He had mastered the high-level spatial mystery before. Now, it has absorbed and consumed countless crystals of time, and finally it is time for transformation.

Hum!

Suddenly, Qin Tiange's body uttered a strange buzz, and he saw the void around him freeze, as if time was still.

As a mysterious wave pervaded, the space and time of the entire room were frozen, which seemed extremely strange.

A moment of clapping, a lot of crystals of time scattered, floating on their own, constantly flying around Qin Tiange, a force of time gushing out and sucking into his body.

When all the crystals of time were swallowed up, Qin Tiange's consciousness suddenly shook, suddenly opened up, and faintly saw a door.

The hazy gate, lingering through the years, is endlessly long, as if immortal.

"The gate of time and space."

Qin Tiange murmured unconsciously. When he saw the door of time and space, an idea was suddenly born in the real spirit, and he immediately understood that as long as he stepped into that door, he could achieve time and space.

The gate of time and space can step into it to achieve the level of time and space, thereby realizing the one-dimensional force in time and space, completely condensing the body of time and space, and using the power of time and space to distort space and break it.

The space-time level is extremely powerful and mysterious. Once at this level, it is difficult to be killed because they can hide in space-time.

For example, if you realize the power of one dimension, you can use the power of time and space to break through the barrier and enter the one-dimensional world, hiding in it, invisible and elusive.

Understanding two-dimensional, you can hide in two-dimensional space-time, three-dimensional space-time, four-dimensional space-time, five-dimensional space-time, until the nine-dimensional space-time, is the strongest peak of space-time level.

The time and space-level strong can even use the power of dimensionality to directly reverse the space-time, hit the lower-dimensional world, and directly kill the opponent across the space-time dimension.

Buzz ...

The door of time and space trembles, constantly buzzing, strange sounds, as if from an endless distant space and time, giving a sense of mystery.

Qin Tiange's consciousness was dim, he walked involuntarily, getting closer and closer, and it seemed to be within reach.

Time and space, right in front of you, are within reach, but there is still a layer of invisible obstacles that prevents him from advancing and cannot reach the door of time and space at all.

No matter how hard he tried, he couldn't reach the door of time and space, he couldn't touch the door, let alone push the door open to enter it.

Looking at the door of time and space in front of me, striding past is the level of space and time, how can Qin Tiange give up willingly?

“Chaos elementary, condensing my body, thousands of stars, deriving star fields ...”

With a rumorous drink, Qin Tiangedan suddenly burst into an endless stream of chaos, rushing into the body on the spot, and constantly refining and reforming.

Even more, chaos gas poured into the stars of Dantian. There were 999 stars in total. The whole body was gray and gray, like the ancient stars of chaos.

These stars are frantically chasing the spirit of chaos, growing and recompressing, as if to collapse into a black hole celestial body.

Unfortunately, the Chaos Star is too large and powerful, and it is very difficult to collapse. It can't be done for a while.

In the end, Qin Tiange found with regret that he could not break through the barrier and touch the empty gate in time, and could not cross the past.

Cultivation is not enough. At present, his state of cultivation is only a star, and even the black hole celestial body has not condensed out.

It is the physical body that has successfully condensed black holes, and the horrible trick holes have turned into black holes. The strength is beyond imagination.

Moreover, with the continuous supply of chaotic gas practice by chaotic primitives, the number of black holes in the body is increasing, from crypts to black holes, and finally cells gradually evolve into black holes.

Hum!

At this time the dim space-time door disappeared, and the trace was lost in an instant, which made Qin Tiange regret that he failed to jump into the space-time door after all.

However, he has reached this critical point, the door of time and space is within reach, and the mystery of time and space is gradually unfolding to him.

As long as the future repair is completed to complete the transformation, the chaotic ancient star transforms the black hole celestial body, and then condenses the repair to reach the limit, it is estimated that it can break through the space-time level in one fell swoop.

“if I get it I am lucky, but if not, it is fate.”

Qin Tiange woke up and was not disappointed. Cultivation didn’t happen overnight, and he was ready to touch the empty door in time.

As long as the future crosses over, stepping on the door of time and space and pushing open this mysterious door, you can step into the temple of time and space.

“Hwang, I’m back.”

At this time, the words of Li Luo came from outside, so that Qin Tiange was awake, took away the Pangu seal, and just saw Li Luo who was waiting for him.

Chapter 816 - Royal Naland, invitation

“How’s it going?”

Qin Tiange sat on the throne of true jade, drank the immortal wine delivered by the colored clothes, and asked softly.

I saw, the head of Li Luo said, “It has been arranged, You Ji and Fei Rou have already executed it.”

“That’s good.” Qin Tiange put down the jade cup and asked, “Jingshan and Hongyu haven’t returned yet?”

“No, should I go and see?” Li Luo thought for a while and asked.

The two war slaves have a low status, and it is easy to provoke right and wrong in the trading area. Even holding a huge amount of time spar will attract peeping.

However, Qin Tiange was not worried at all. He let Jingshan and Hongyu go out in order to attract trouble.

Yes, it is to attract trouble, because there is a chance to make money because of trouble, right?

“No need, just wait for them to come back by themselves.” Qin Tiange said, his expression moved, and he lowered the Jade Cup to look outside.

Li Luo felt something, turned around and looked out of Xianfu, two figures, a man and a woman, were quickly approaching the gate of Xianfu.

The visitors were Jingshan and Hongyu, but this was not what Qin Tiange paid attention to. He noticed that they followed Jingshan and Hongyu back.

“Lord, Jingshan, Ruby. See you.”

Outside of Xianfu, Jingshan and Hongyu respectfully salute the gate of Xianfu. As a war slave, they would not dare to break into the master’s Xianfu without the command of the master.

Moreover, this time Qin Tiange directly gave the two of them a lot of time for the spar to go out, which made Jingshan and Hongyu have different views on Qin Tiange.

At least at present, he has gradually respected him. Such a master is quite okay. As a war slave, he has no freedom at all. It is very good to have these treatments.

With a bang, the gate of Xianfu opened, and Caiyi came out pretty.

“Come in, the master is waiting for you inside.”

When she finished giving way, Jingshan and Hongyu looked at each other, then went in without hesitation. Behind them, the two following creatures were about to enter, but was stopped by Caiyi.

“Come here to stop, explain the intention.” Cai Yi looked at the two creatures indifferently, his face blocked by a fog, unable to see clearly.

These two souls came with Jingshan and Hongyu. When they saw the opening of Xianfu, they naturally wanted to follow in.

“We are the guards of the Nalan royal family. At the command of the great prince, we came to look for the master of the war slave.”

A creature said something faintly, looking very proud, as if he had a very high status, and even felt like he was looking down on people.

Caiyi dismissed: “Please go back. Outsiders are not allowed to step into Xianfu without a command from the host.”

“Bold!” The other creature shouted loudly, “Your little niece, dare to stop us, do you not know our identity?”

“Royal Nalan, two royal guards, don't you want to hit me here?” A slight contempt emerged from Caiyi's pretty face.

In fact, she knows the Nalan royal family, and also knows that this is a super strong family in the Fairy Nebula.

However, the overlord of the fairy galaxy is the fairy, and she is the fairy, and the Nalan royal family dare to spread wild in the Nine Fairy World of the fairy.

“Okay, here is the Nine Fairy Realm of our Fairy tribe, not the Royal Star Club set up by your royal family.” Caiyi waved a hand lightly, paying no attention to the dull faces of the two people.

She said word by word: “If there is nothing, leave nothing, or if you hand it over to me, I will show it to the owner. If the owner meets you, you can enter.”

The words of Caiyi made the guards of the two Nalan royalty look gloomy, and their eyes were cold, but they still resisted.

After all, this is the land of the fairy maidens. Even if the princes of the Nalan royal family behind them dare not presumptuously, let alone two guards?

“interesting.”

Inside Xianfu, Qin Tiange looked at the situation outside the door, his mouth slightly tilted, a little surprised at the performance of Caiyi, very strong.

This is exactly in line with his appetite, that is, even though she is relying on the might of the fairy genre, she is very tough.

“Lord, those two are the guards of the Nalan royal family. They said they came to see you.” Jing Shan explained carefully.

At this point, Ruby took the initiative to speak and said, “Lord, this is caused by Ruby. They want to take Ruby away to the Grand Prince.”

“Oh?” Qin Tiange stared at his eyes, revealing his ruthless murderousness, and humming, “A prince of a royal family, dare to say who he wants?”

“I was thinking about how to make people come in trouble. I never wanted to come to a prince of the royal family. It seems that the oil and water are enough.” Qin Tiange said to himself, so that several people around him looked at each other.

Jingshan and Hongyu were stunned and strange in their hearts. This master seemed to intentionally let them go out to cause trouble.

“Caiyi, let those two come in.”

Outside the door, Caiyi looked moved, surprised to look at the two royal guards in front of him, and let go.

“You go in, my master said let you in.” Caiyi finished, looking at the two royal guards.

After listening to Leng Huo, one of them said, “Count on the master and son behind you, otherwise, my house will look good when he comes down.”

Said that the two entered Xianfu, but did not see Caiyi look disdainful, the two guards were so rude, they will look good when they are.

“You are the master of these two slaves?”

Upon entering, one of the royal guards looked arrogant and pointed Qin Tiange directly to ask questions, as if interrogating the prisoner.

Qin Tiange looked indifferent, drank Xianzhu, and glanced at the two royal guards in front.

“I ask you, you dumb ...”

boom!

Before he finished speaking, he saw a glazed light flashing and a loud noise. His body flew out quickly, and fell heavily outside the gate of Xianfu, vomiting blood, and his chest collapsed.

The blow from the blow made the royal guard look terrified and a little angry.

“Damn, do you dare?”

The rest of the royal guard was furious, glaring at Qin Tiange and Li Luo beside him. It was Li Luo who just shot.

Anyone who insults Qin Tiange will be hit by her relentlessly. If Qin Tiange didn't speak, he might have just killed the guard just now.

“I'm rude, open your mouth!”

Li Luo spit out a faint whisper, the guard was covered with cold, and was about to dodge and back away, but a loud noise came from his face.

With a slap, the guard turned around a few times, staring at the stars and breaking his mouth.

He was terrified, watching Qin Tiange not care at all, drinking Xianjiu, his eyes could not see any emotional fluctuations.

“Say, what do you want to do when you come back with my two slaves? Talk about people, otherwise it won't be as simple as playing two times.” Qin Tiange said quietly.

The words came out, so that the royal guards felt cold and felt the threat of death. As a black hole class, he was sweating like a falling ice cave.

“I, I, we are here to convey the words of His Royal Highness Naland Royal Family.” He finished tremblingly.

Qin Tiange looked up, his eyes flashed an inexplicable light, and chuckled: “Tell me, what's the matter with your great prince?”

“His Royal Highness let us spread a word and ask you to go to the Royal Star Club.”

After the guard finished speaking, the whole person almost fell down, because Qin Tiange exudes a forceful will, suppressing him deadly, and once he can't tell the truth, he may be ruthlessly erased his consciousness.

“Royal Interstellar Club?” Qin Tiange said to himself, and then smiled inexplicably, he said, “Go back, tell your great prince, and say, I will visit as scheduled in three days.”

“Yes Small resignation.”

The guard, like amnesty, turned away in fear and escaped from this fairy house. He was too scary to stay here, and would die at any time.

Outside the door, Cai Yi Qiao's face was full of contempt, watching the two royal guards who had just stood up, and within a few minutes of entering Xianfu, they saw one being blown out, seriously injured, and one finally ran out in panic, scared Blind.

“The emperor, the prince of the Nalan royal family, what do you want to do?” Li Luo asked softly as he looked at the two royal guards who had fled away.

Qin Tiange’s eyes flickered and he smiled and said, “What else can we do? It’s just sending us spar.”

“Li Luo, get ready, we will go to the Royal Star Club three days later.”

After he said it, he looked at Jingshan and Hongyu, and commanded: “Jingshan, Hongyu, you two are not strong enough. You must make a breakthrough in three days and follow me.”

Speaking, Qin Tiange, with a look of jealous Jingshan and Hongyu, went to the ninth floor to retreat, helping the two to make a breakthrough.

Chapter 817 - Nalan Feather, Royal Event

The Royal Star Club is built by the Nine Xeon Royals. The interior is high-end and full of royal honor. Most of the people who come here are royal life.

Of course, there are all kinds of powerful people, or those with status status can come in, but most of them are royalty.

The royal families who came here felt that they had a lot of face, and felt that they were all high above them. That kind of enjoyment still made many royal families linger.

The royal clubhouse, inside is a palace, progressively layer by layer, full of nine levels, the lowest from the first to the third floor, open to the public.

The third to sixth tiers are the paradise of the strong, the world of the royal family. Here, you are either a royal creature or a powerful person.

Otherwise, the third to sixth floors have no chance to come in, and the seventh to ninth floors can only be entered by people with a status of the royal family, or only some strong stars can enter them.

For example, some royal princes, even if you have no strength, as long as the royal prince can enter it.

Here, entertainment, wrestling, trading, auctions, everything, and even a variety of royal entertainment.

For example, gambling, which is the royal family’s favorite entertainment activity, there are gambling fights that come into play in person, and there are slaves, mounts, and even pets to gamble.

“this way please!”

At the door of the royal club, Qin Tiange brought Li Luo and Jing Shan, and Ruby came here, and saw a royal waitress who had been waiting here to guide her, and took him directly to the seventh floor.

This place is different from the Nine Fairy Realms of the Fairy Nation. It is a symbol of the Supreme Royal Family.

The royal sons and daughters who come here all have eyes higher than the top. There is no way. As a royal family, the eyes are higher than the top. Otherwise, they are not the royal family.

“His Royal Highness, someone has brought you.”

At this time, the royal maid brought Qin Tiange, Li Luo and others to a palace with three large characters on it, Feiyu Palace.

“Come in ...” Just listening to a quiet word coming from the palace, exuding a distinguished breath.

Qin Tiange’s mouth slightly tilted, stepped into Feiyu Palace, followed by Luo Luo closely behind, Jingshan, Ruby is like a loyal guard, inseparable.

boom!

As soon as I stepped into it, I saw an immense power coming forward, boundless and boundless, as if a heavenly emperor had come down and overwhelmed for nine days.

Qin Tiange has no waves, stepping up step by step, ignoring this power at all, understatement, just as easy as free breeze.

“Eh?” He walked by, walking away from all the might, as if he could not avoid it, and made several people in the hall stunned.

In the hall, there were various figures sitting there, looking at Qin Tiange’s four people in surprise, ignoring their invincible might.

In the middle of the hall, the supreme protagonist, a handsome young man wearing an imperial robe, was surprised to look at the two men who came.

“A little patience, please sit down!”

The young man on the throne smiled indifferently, raised his hand and waved, and immediately a seat appeared in the hall below. The wooden one was ordinary.

Qin Tiange’s eyes were clear, and he didn’t care, but Li Luo’s expression cooled down. As an emperor, he was treated like this. Isn’t that a shame?

She was about to stand up, but Qin Tiange gently shook her head to stop, sitting indifferently in that position.

boom!

When Qin Tiange settled down, an overwhelming force swept away, overwhelming and directly suppressing the entire hall.

Suddenly, Qin Tiange floated slowly with the connected tables and chairs, and a cloud of chaos appeared inexplicably behind him, holding the three of Luoluo, Jingshan, and Ruby, rising to the same level as the youth on the opposite subject. level.

“Bold!”

Seeing that Qin Tiange was so presumptuous, he was so arrogant that he was on an equal footing with the main character, and someone immediately jumped out and scolded him.

As a result, as soon as his words fell, Li Luo swept away and slammed. The man was hit on the wall by a forceful will on the spot, vomiting blood, and his expression was terrified.

“Royal Nalan, great prince, Nalan Feiyu, is this your way of hospitality?” Qin Tiange’s tone was flat and waterless, there was no fluctuation, and he couldn’t hear any emotional changes.

On the theme, the young man’s eyes flickered and he smiled suddenly: “I was negligent, and I still hope Brother Qin is not surprised.”

“Anyway, can you tell me what’s wrong with me?” Qin Tiange lightly exposed the past, showing an air of irrespective.

There was a sense of indignation and arrogance all over him, and with every move he carried immense coercion, so that the young people sitting on both sides of the hall looked iron-clad and somewhat angry.

They saw that Qin Tiange was actually looking up, and he was unconsciously short of a class. There was a gas in his heart, but he couldn’t vent it.

On the subject, that young man is the great prince of the Nalan royal family, Nalan Feiyu, with a lofty identity and powerful arrogance.

At the first glance, Qin Tiange knew that the opponent was not simple, but he didn’t take it seriously. With his current strength, he was enough to crush any strong person below the time and space level.

“In fact, it’s nothing, that is, our royal family recently held a grand entertainment event, just as if you were invited to participate.” Nalan Feiyu smiled lightly.

The breath of the two is opposite to each other. Don’t look at the surface very kindly, even without any anger, in fact, already secretly contested in the dark.

Qin Tiange’s expression was indifferent, an invisible force permeated, and he continued to transform into an ancient sword.

On the opposite side, stars and rivers are falling, and Qin Tiange is to be drowned. It is a contest of the will level. It cannot be seen from the outside, but it is actually a dangerous contest.

Around him, the nine young creatures looked horrified and looked red, feeling as if they were out of breath with some force.

“too horrible!”

A creature was horrified to death. He was the one who had been blown out by Li Luo before. At this moment, he felt the vast willpower of Qin Tiange and immediately persuaded him.

Several other young strong men, without exception, were shocked by Qin Tiange’s toughness, and they were able to compete with the great prince of the Nalan royal family.

But they didn't know. At this moment, Nalan Feiyu was equally frightened, and her eyes looking at Qin Tiange became different.

"Good man, is this the extent to which you have touched the door of time and space?" Nalan Feiyu looked serious and gradually withdrew her willpower.

Soon, the heavy breath in the hall was relaxed, and everyone was relieved, one by one cold sweat.

"Brother Qin really hides it. Today is exactly the time when the royal entertainment begins. I wonder if you are interested in playing?" Nalan Feiyu said with a smile.

Qin Tiange smiled indifferently, and bowed his head and said, "Just right, I have nothing to do, or play, I also want to see, what entertainment activities are there in the royal family?"

"But don't let me down." He said with a smile.

Nalan Feiyu laughed and stood up and said: "Brother Qin is assured that the entertainment of the royal family is rich and colorful, and they have everything they want to play."

"Come, Brother Qin, please!"

Said, Nalan Feiyu, the royal prince, smiled and invited Qin Tiange, and the two went side by side.

Behind them, the nine young creatures looked at each other, and they were jealous. Qin Tiange was able to talk and laugh side by side with the great prince of the Nalan royal family.

That was incredible, because Nalan Feiyu was the great prince, and he was originally the heir to the supreme throne of the Nalan royal family.

In the future, he will be the emperor of the Nalan royal family. Such a distinguished identity can really not be much with him.

As for their followers, they are just some small people, all of them are Nalan Feiyu's group of followers.

"Brother Qin, your two slaves are very sharp. If you are interested, how about you and me?" Nalan Feiyu asked with a smile.

Qin Tiange glanced at Jingshan and Hongyu, and laughed: "Brother Feiyu has this elegant, I naturally have no reason to refuse, you say time is."

"Okay, it's so refreshing. Then after this royal entertainment, you and I will gamble in private again Nalan Feiyu smiles and looks a little proud.

Qin Tiange laughed without saying a word, and was proud, depending on what you are proud of. If you are not capable, it is obedient to give him a spar of time.

"When it arrives, the battle beast camp is in front. The first event is to use war beasts, or pets, mounts, and even captive spirit beasts. The top three rewards are rich."

Soon, Nalan Feiyu took Qin Tiange to a huge building, which was full of gold and glory, just like a round arena.

The entire space is formed into a starry universe, and the seats floating on the starry sky are dense and dense, forming a circle, surrounding a huge stage in the center.

That is the Royal Starry Sky Fighting Platform, where various pets and beasts such as war beasts, spirit pets, mounts, etc. can participate.

At this point, two giants were facing each other on the gladiator platform.

“Splitting sky? Meteor beast?”

As soon as Qin Tiange arrived, he saw the two giants on the field with a look of amazement.

Chapter 818

On the star-fighting platform, there were two giants, one of which was a scorpion, like a dog but not a dog. The whole body was full of scales, with canine teeth all over, scarlet eyes and cruelty.

It has no consciousness, it is completely wiped out of consciousness, and it becomes a murderous creature that only knows killing and obeying orders.

Fischer Rift, the ancient blood of the fierce tribe flowing in the body, extremely cruel, this is a rare fierce beast in the starry sky.

When caught, it erases consciousness and becomes an excellent mount that can be easily used. Many royal families like to scratch the tempest and erase consciousness as a mount or pet.

That split sky cricket is one of them. Its huge body is like a small star. If it were not an open world of stars, it might not be able to accommodate such a behemoth.

As for the other one, Qin Tiange was a little surprised. It was a flying star beast. The so-called flying star was the dark stars surrounding it.

It was a real astral body. Around the huge body of the meteor beast, there were black dead stars, showing a sense of sensation.

These stars are burning with a black flame, faint and cold, and it is rumored to be a terrible World of Warcraft living in the Dead Sea star field.

The flying beast, chasing the stars month by month, stepping on the stars, and the speed is very fast. The huge body makes people feel oppressed. It likes to compress the stars as a toy, trapped around itself and play as a weapon.

“I didn’t expect to see the Flying Star Beast, it was a worthwhile trip.” Qin Tiange sat in a set of starry sky, overlooking the starry sky arena below.

Beside him, Nalan Feiyu smiled calmly: “A small star beast, just if you like Brother Qin, I will ask someone to send you one.”

“No need.” Qin Tiange was surprised, but shook his head to veto: “Thank Brother Feiyu for his good intentions, I don’t like Fei Xingshou, it’s too ugly.”

“Uh...”

Behind them, a group of people looked at each other, looking at Qin Tiange, all speechless, too ugly?

They are not ugly looking at the Flying Star Beast. In fact, they can be said to be extraordinary, even the mounts that many royalty pursue.

The taste of the royal family is different, and the pursuit of perfection must be strong, with ancient bloodlines, and even look beautiful.

Fei Xing Beast, not to mention, the whole body is black, like a star jade carving, covered with black mane, flowing and extraordinary.

This is like a Pegasus, in fact, it is not a horse, but a head with a unicorn-like shape, and it looks extraordinary.

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange didn't like it, and Nalan Feiyu said that he would send him a flying star beast, which was not so easy to pick up.

Dedicate yourself to nothing, or steal it!

"Too ugly?" Nalan Feiyu showed all her eyes and smiled, "If Brother Qin likes beautiful ones, then there are so many strange beasts on the starry pasture of my Nalan royal family. They are naturally beautiful, and mighty. Intentionally, I will take you to take a look. "

"Oh?" Qin Tiange was surprised. He glanced at him and smiled. "Since that is the case, then take a look."

Starry sky ranch, but raises all kinds of exotic animals in the starry sky, each royal family has its own ranch, which is located in the star domain of each royal family.

The royal starry sky ranch, which is rumored to have super horses from various royal families, is a good mount for the starry sky.

Qin Tiange's thoughts fluttered in his heart. Compared with the earth's people, Qin Tiange suddenly found that the people's heritage was too weak.

If you look at these starry royal families, you will know that one by one, they have established huge commercial systems, and even formed their own huge starry sky ranches, raised starry combat riders, cultivated starry armed forces, conquered the stars, and were invincible.

Look at the Terrans now, Qin Tiange had to sigh in his heart, the Terrans really did not fall after the defeat.

To become stronger and to rise again, Terran has a long way to go, and he has a long way to go.

"The game has started, Brother Qin, which one do you like?"

At this time, Nalan Feiyu asked with a soft smile, looking at Qin Tiange, wondering which one he liked?

Qin Tiange looked serious and looked at the two mighty war beasts on the starry sky. The split-day prince needless to say, very strong and very fierce.

The flying beast is a little more a mount, but Qin Tiange feels that there is a faint mysterious wave in this flying beast.

It was a mysterious power that surprised him. If it erupted, this power would surely crush the opposite rift.

The two battle beasts have the same level of realm strength, almost a level, and their breath is the same.

Without a little eyesight or even a special ability, he really can't see the stubbornness and weakness. Qin Tiange can see through the mystery of the flying beast.

"Brother Feiyu, which one are you optimistic about?" Qin Tiange asked without asking.

I only heard Nalan Feiyu laugh and said, "I think the split sky is stronger, after all, it has ancient blood."

Qin Tiange froze for a moment, smiled indifferently, and saw Nalan Feiyu directly bought a billion time spar.

Seeing his wealthy appearance, Qin Tiange laughed secretly, and he was so rich in oil that it seemed that he had to cut off a layer of oil and water.

"Brother Qin, don't you buy?" After betting, Nalan Feiyu looked at Qin Tiange in amazement.

Qin Tiange dumbfounded and took out a card with a smile. It was the Emperor's Card of the Nine Immortals. The crystals of time stored in them were all universal.

He didn't hesitate to brush 100 million directly, bought Fei Xing Beast to win, and made Nalan Fei Yu froze and looked at him curiously.

"Brother Qin, are you optimistic about Meteor?" He was curious. Why is Qin Tiange optimistic about Meteor?

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange laughed without saying a word, watching the odds of Fei Xingshou and Shi Tianzhang, they are one to one, really few.

It made him have to be sighed. Before Jingshan and Hongyu could have a 1000 times odds, that was just a mistake in their judgment.

"Roar!"

"Oh!"

The war started, and two giant beasts were killed in a mass on the star-fighting arena, extremely fierce and brutal.

Here, you fight, either you die or I die. I did n't admit defeat at all. Of course, you can also admit defeat, but you must accompany the part of the bet you lost.

The loud bang, the star burst, and the two behemoths fought fiercely, causing countless souls on the scene to cheer.

Looking at such a scene, Qin Tiange suddenly showed a sneer. Such entertainment activities will erode the will and kill the war will over time.

He didn't care about this, but was happy to see that if the human race wants to rise, they must step on the corpses of other races, otherwise, how can anyone be willing to break the current balance of the starry sky?

When there is a rise, there must be a fall. When a human race rises, other races must die. This is the law of the starry universe.

In the past, when the human race fell and almost disappeared, this led to the rise of the hundreds, and the prosperity of the people, but the human race became more and more difficult and small.

Rise and fall of race, who can say that his own race is eternal?

boom!

“Hmm ...”

A loud roar came, awakening Qin Tiange's thoughts, and looking up, he saw that the split-day maggot was blasted into two sections by the black dead stars surrounding the body of the flying beast.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange smiled, and he really guessed very well with him. There was a terrorist force hidden in the body of the Fei Xing beast, which broke out and was severely injured and dying.

“Feixing Beast won?” Nalan Feiyu looked at Qin Tiange in horror with suspicion. He didn't see it. Qin Tiange saw it, which made him highly appraise Qin Tiange A few minutes.

“Brother Qin's eyes are sharp.” Nalan Feiyu smiled and praised.

Qin Tiange shook his head, lacking interest, he said, “Brother Fei, don't you think this kind of entertainment is boring?”

“Also, let's go I'll take you to a place, which is where all the major royal princes play, show you something more interesting, where Brother Qin is absolutely satisfied.”

Nalan Feiyu said, staring brightly, talking about getting up to take Qin Tiange to a more fun place.

Qin Tiange thought it was boring, and in line with Nalan Feiyu's mind, he took him directly to the place where the royal princes gathered and entertained.

The Royal Club, on the ninth floor, is a great place for entertainment by the royal princes belonging to the fairy nebula.

Led by Nalan Feiyu, Qin Tiange and his party quickly entered the ninth floor of the Royal Club, where they met the souls and young strong men of the various royal families.

“Yo?”

“Prince Feiyu, why don’t you bring your stupid sister to play today, and bring a stranger, and is he a royal family?”

As soon as I entered the ninth floor, I heard a sadistic word from the front, full of irony.

Chapter 819 - The blasphemer, kill!

Qin Tiange looked around and saw a group of young people coming up in groups of three or five, headed by a monster young man with the first stone horn.

“Yanma, keep your mouth clean.” Nalan Feiyu frosted, her eyes showing the undisguised murderous power.

The two were tit-for-tat, seemingly hostile. Qin Tiange thought that there was no peace in the hundreds of people, and that there was a lot of hatred for killing.

Just like Nalan Feiyu in front of you, and Yan Mo opposite, one is the great prince of the Nalan royal family, and the other is the great prince of the Black Rock royal family.

The Black Rock Royal Family, the ruler of the Black Sea Star Field, has huge power and is no less powerful than the Naland Royal Family.

The two constellations are relatively close to each other, so small wars often occur in the borders, and there is always a year of fighting and fighting in the borders, and the hatred naturally grows.

The two royals sometimes fought for a resource star, or even started an interstellar war.

“Did I make a mistake?” Yan Mo sneered, looking at Nalan Feiyu, and laughed: “In all the royal families, everyone knows that you have a silly sister, who is born silly. This is the laughingstock of the royal family. Am I Can’t laugh? “

“Also, what kind of person does this person belong to and belong to the royal family?” Yan Mo looked at Qin Tiange, looked up and down, with a sneer.

Qin Tiange, looking very strange, in the Fairy Nebula, the princes and members of the royal family have information, understand each other, but never met him, naturally doubted.

Moreover, this is a private casino for the children of the real royal family. The royal family must be able to come here, otherwise they cannot enter.

“This is my friend of Nalan Feiyu, you are not qualified to let it go, otherwise don’t blame me.” Nalan Feiyu was straightforward, warning coldly.

As soon as this word came out, the group of young people on the opposite side became a little bit eager to move. One by one, they seemed to be fighting hard.

“Nalan Feiyu, do you think I will be afraid of you?” Yan Mo sternly, humming: “If you don’t agree, then you will take your army and fight with my borders, who will kill who?”

Yan Mo’s words were full of fierce horror. He wanted to start a border war, which was to fight with Nalan Feiyu’s legion. He was very confident.

Qin Tiange looked weird, but didn't speak, watching the good show quietly, this is a rare good show.

However, the tree wanted to be calm and the wind was endless. The opposite Yan Mo stared at him suddenly and questioned: "This is a royal club, not the royal family rolled down immediately, otherwise we have the right to bomb you here."

"Prince Yanma is right, boy, get off now, or you will look good."

"roll!"

The gang of followers and dogs are fighting against each other. This is the use of the identity of the royal family of the Rock and Horse, and it makes people speechless.

Qin Tiange sneered, and didn't speak, but Jingshan around him, and the two were about to start, but one was faster.

boom!

With a muffled sound, the head of a person who had previously spoken burst on the spot, bursting like a watermelon.

Everyone was frightened, and they brushed back, watching the headless corpse with their heads smashed to the ground, and then suddenly woke up.

"Fast!" Nalan Feiyu was shocked and glanced at Li Luo behind Qin Tiange as if she hadn't moved.

But just now he really caught the moment when Li Luo started to do it, and flashed around and slapped the guy who had just spoken to death.

"Damn, do you dare to do it?" Yan Mo was furious, never thinking that someone would dare to kill his men in front of him to follow him.

This made him lose face and felt ashamed. He was about to explode, but was locked in by a murderous act, afraid to move.

"Blaspheme my lord, kill!"

Li Luo spit out a sentence indifferently, full of the sound of killing through the body, and the people around him were trembling with their souls.

Yan Mo's expression changed slightly, looking at Li Luo, his heart seemed very vigilant, an old man behind him stood guard vigilantly, staring at her in suspicion.

"His Highness, this person is extremely dangerous, be careful." The old man reminded that it was Yan Mo's close guard.

Yan Mo listened to the dark concubine, how strong the old man was himself, but he looked at Li Luo with vigilance and looked very dignified, which had to be taken seriously.

“I am from Yinhe, Brother Feiyu. The royal family of your fairy nebula is really of poor quality. Can any cat or dog jump out of the way?” Qin Tiange said suddenly, and said something lightly.

As soon as this remark ended, everyone at the scene froze, Yan Mo squinted his eyes, looked at Qin Tiange, and felt the slightest oppression.

Moreover, he felt a pure imperial power from Qin Tiange, which was the breath of imperialism that only the royal family could cultivate.

This is even more certain, the other party is a royal family, and, more surprisingly, he comes from the galaxy?

“Haha, let Brother Qin make a joke, don’t bother, let’s go play with us.” Nalan Feiyu was heartbroken, and then Haha laughed and seemed very happy.

He was actually very surprised. I didn’t expect that someone who looked mysterious and mysterious would come from the galaxy, and it looked like a royal strongman.

This made him happy. The Milky Way, the largest galaxy closest to the Fairy Nebula, has a lot of royalty and strong power.

“Brother Qin, let’s go. Today we have to drink a drink without getting drunk ...”

Nalan Feiyu seemed a little happy, and took Qin Tiange directly to Yan Mo and others, and no one dared to stop.

Even if Yanmadu is silent, everyone has indicated their identity and comes from the Milky Way. What else is there to say?

“He came from the galaxy, which royal family, and how did it mix with Nalan Feather, did the Nalan royal family have secretly united with the royal family over the galaxy?”

Yan Mo watched Qin Tiange and Nalan Feiyu pass by, looking gloomy and angry, but did not continue to be embarrassed.

Deliberately making things difficult will give people excuses, just like, just now, one of my classmates jumped out stupidly, even humiliating a royal family from the galaxy, just happened to be killed by a beautiful lady’s guard.

“The royal family of the galaxy, hey, this time has some fun.”

Yan Mo thought for a while, suddenly chuckled, and told a guard around him: “Go and spread the news, and let the other princes look for the trouble from the galaxy.”

“Yes!”

The guard immediately left, spreading Qin Tiange’s royal identity from the galaxy, and added something inside.

As soon as the news came out, the sons and daughters of the royal families in the royal club suddenly stunned the princes, and the princes were shocked and then misled.

“The royal family of the galaxy, come to us to find the difference?”

“Dash, dare to say that the royal families of our fairy nebula are weak chickens?”

“Come to the Fairy Nebula and leave, and go and teach him a lesson!”

The news spread. The princes and grandsons immediately above the royal family exploded the pot, and each one filled with indignation, because the news said that Qin Tiange despised the royal families of the Fairy Nebula.

He even threatened to challenge the young generations of all the royal families in the Fairy Nebula, which angered all the royal families.

At this time, after receiving the news, Qin Tiange stunned and laughed.

“That rock horse is really interesting.” Qin Tiange smiled and watched the news from Nalan Feiyu.

Seeing that he was not angry, Nalan Feiyu looked somber and said, “Brother Qin, I’m sorry, I have caused you this trouble. Yan Mo is trying to use other royal families to anger them to come to you. This is intentional spread Rumors. “

“Anyway, those who can come to me for trouble are all guys without brains, such as Feiyu Brothers Tianjiao, how can they believe a rumor?”

Qin Tiange shook his head with a smile and didn’t care. The words of Nalan Feiyu were soothing.

The royal family Tianjiao, this praise really made him feel relieved, and he paid more and more attention to Qin Tiange. He had thought about whether he could draw his own people, but it seems that the other party is not easy. It just happens to be friends.

“Your Highness, Your Highness, something bad is bad.”

At this moment, a guard hurriedly, covered with blood, came in and threw himself on his knees.

Nalan Feiyu looked at the person, and her face was pale and pale.

“Say, what?” Nalan Feiyu gritted her teeth, her voice trembling a little.

The guard horrified, “His Royal Highness, go and rescue your little princess, she has been robbed by the Black Sea fiends.”

“What?” Nalan Feiyu suddenly stood up, her face turned wild: “My sister was taken by the Black Sea fierce?”

“Come, order the Royal Warship, and follow me immediately.” Nalan Feiyu drank sharply and gave an order.

“Brother Qin, I’m sorry, I have something to deal with. I can’t accompany you.” Nalan Feiyu said anxiously, leaving without a word to Qin Tian Geduo.

Watching him leave, Qin Tiange blinked his eyes, thought for a while, and laughed: “Just look at what the star pirates of the Black Sea have to do and dare to plunder a princess of the royal family.”

“go!”

Talking, Qin Tiange took Liluo and Jingshan, and the three people immediately followed.

Chapter 820 - Royal starship, ambushed

In the Royal Star City, a huge battleship broke into the sky and instantly entered the starry sky, rushing away towards the distance.

The battleship, which is 90,000 meters long and smooth, is engraved with dense rune fronts, intertwined to form a ray of light covering the battleship.

Huge battleships, belonging to the royal family, are equipped with hundreds of superpowered cannons, which can destroy a star in one shot.

“You said, Nalanda Feather left his warship?”

At the Royal Star Club, Yan Mo was surprised when he heard the news, and then his eyes flickered, as if thinking about something.

I only listened to the report from his subordinate: “His Royal Highness, there is exact news that the little princess of the Nalan royal family was taken away by the Black Sea robbers.”

“Haha?” Iwaki capped and laughed, “Haha, Nalan Feiyu, are you still dead this time?”

“Go, spread the news, and let the other princes and princesses go to see the good show. Others follow me back to the battleship to see the good show of Nalan Feiyu.” Yan Mo sneered, and stood up to leave .

He led a group of men to the Royal Star City, opened his own personal royal battleship, and emptied into the Xinghai, catching up with Nalan Feather’s battleship.

For a while, the entire Royal Star City was boiling, and the princes and princesses of the various royal families were excited and had a good show.

The robbers of the Black Sea took away the little princess of the Nalan royal family, who was born as an innocent little princess of the royal family who became a laughing stock.

Nalan Feiyu’s sister, born a fool, has no intelligence and lives as if she had lost her soul.

Unexpectedly, the gangsters of the Black Sea were bold enough to dare to take away the princess of the royal family.

As each of the royal battleships emptied, the princes and queens drove their own battleships into the Xinghai Sea.

...

At this moment, in the Xinghai, a huge royal battleship was moving fast, and Nalan Feiyu was frowning at a light curtain in front of the main cabin of the battleship.

“Haven’t found it yet?” With his somber dripping water, his sister was taken away, and it was just annoying him.

I saw that several of his men were busy, and it seemed to be a sensory device that was looking for something.

Soon, one of his servants was pleasantly surprised: “Her Royal Highness, look, the royal information sign on the princess has already captured the position.”

“Where?” Nalan Feiyu kicked his eyes and looked at a point displayed on the light curtain, which point represented the position of his sister.

As a royal family, each one of them naturally has special induction things, such as the true soul of the soul, such as various treasures.

“It’s near the star field near the Black Sea, where there is a dead starfield, gathering galaxy dust and various dead stars.”

A quick answer was provided by the men, and the specific position was calculated to find out the exact position and direction.

“Full speed, start space jump, chase!” Nalan Feiyu gave a cold command and pursued directly.

In the back, Qin Tiange kept watching quietly. He caught up, just to see how capable the so-called fierce pirates of the Black Sea dare to take away a princess of the royal family.

Depending on the situation, Nalan Feiyu was very concerned about the younger sister, and, listening to him, there were more than a dozen strong guards around him, and a star-level strong.

But why was he taken away? There was a lot of fog in it. It was even a premeditated operation.

“Brother Qin, let you see the joke.” Nalan Feiyu turned back and smiled forcefully.

Qin Tiange shook his head and comforted: “Don’t worry, I guess that the black sea robbers ran away with Lingmei, obviously with some purpose, and now it is safe for now.”

“I hope so!” Nalan Feiyu was worried, he said, “The robbers in the Black Sea are extremely ferocious. They are fierce. Brother Qin, you may not know.”

Nalan Feiyu frowned, explaining: “It is rumored that the emergence of the Black Sea fierce fighters is behind the scenes of some space-time strong men with starry wandering.”

“Even if several major royal families hanged together, they could not be annihilated, and finally they faintly understood that behind the Black Sea, there were some fierce spatio-temporal murderers supporting them.” He said, his face was more worried.

After Qin Tiange was surprised, he looked at Li Luo and looked at each other with a feeling of surprise.

An interstellar pirate, with space-time support behind it, seems to have an unknown secret.

“It is rumored that there is a big secret hidden in the Black Sea, and sometimes space-level murderers gather to live in it.”

Nalan Feiyu said cautiously: “Presumably, Brother Qin, you also have this kind of fierce galaxy pirate?”

“Huh!” Qin Tiange bowed his head. In fact, it was not clear at all whether there were any pirates in the galaxy like this.

But most of the time, it is normal. In a huge galaxy, it is normal for interstellar pirates. If not, Qin Tiange would feel abnormal.

“His Royal Highness, the space has finished jumping and has reached the edge of the Black Sea.”

At this time, a subordinate reported that the warship had completed the space jump, penetrated the space wormhole, and reached the edge of the Black Sea, the death star field.

Here, the dark interstellar dust is shrouded like a sky, there is no light at all, dim, dead, full of horror.

Through the light curtain in front, Qin Tiange saw a dark star field outside, a dying dead star, and thick interstellar dust forming a sky curtain, spanning this star field.

If you look at this star field from a distance, it looks like a huge demon head, snarling at the starry universe, full of deep evil thoughts.

“It’s a strong fierce spirit. How many cruel creatures are gathered here?” Qin Tiange was surprised, feeling the terrible fierceness in the star field.

Living here for many years, even the pure souls are polluted by erosion and become fierce and fierce creatures.

No wonder, the interstellar pirates gathered here will be so fierce, apparently transformed by the murderous gas here.

“Brother Feiyu, I feel a danger. You better check the void around the battleship carefully.”

Qin Tiange suddenly reminded him that Nalan Feiyu frowned, and then frowned instantly, then waved his hands and let his men detect immediately.

“Order, warship alert, and first level readiness.”

Nalan Feiyu calmly ordered, took decisive measures, opened up the energy protection, and opened a door of divine cannon.

As the battleship followed, it traveled through the thick interstellar dust, passing through the dark nebulae.

Finally, the positioning of the message on the light curtain was not far away from them, making Nalan Feiyu’s expression a little nervous.

The battleship slowly moved through a nebula in front, and then saw a huge red death star.

That information position is just above the red star in front, and seeing this, Nalan Feather looks cold.

“Open the space to hide and enter the star ball in front.”

With a command, the battleship fluctuated slowly, and a wave rose around, and then miraculously disappeared into the starry sky, hiding.

The royal battleship was hidden, quietly approached the planet, gradually approached, and finally submerged into the aura of the planet, and entered the atmosphere.

Watching the warship enter the atmosphere, Qin Tiange suddenly gave a warning and felt wrong. There seemed to be some crisis hiding here.

“Be careful, I feel wrong.” Qin Tiange had to remind him.

Nalan Feiyu frowned, staring at the light curtain with a dead expression, the information sense was in the planet, and he had to go in.

However, just after the royal battleship completely penetrated the atmosphere of the planet and entered the inside of the planet, Nalan Feather finally felt a ray of uneasiness.

Qin Tiange frowned suddenly at and yelled, “Fast retreat, this is a trap. It deliberately attracted us.” boom!

With his voice falling, a powerful shock came, and the whole planet sent a terrible shock, which made Nalan Feather’s face change greatly.

“It’s a trap. Make a U-turn and kill it with all your strength.” Nalan Feiyu responded quickly, the warship turned sharply and turned around, blasting with blast, trying to rush out.

But unfortunately it was too late. Suddenly, there was a huge torrent inside the planet, like a chain, coiled around and locked the huge royal battleship firmly.

“Danger, go!”

Qin Tiange drank, flashing with Jingshan and Ruby, tearing the space with Liluo and rushing out of the battleship.

“Let’s go!” Nalan Feiyu’s expression went wild, roaring and erupting, and she rushed out with Qin Tiange with a dozen powerful guards.

The moment they left, a force of terror fell from the sky, and a thunder broke through the royal battleship.
