

Dark Ages 82

Chapter 82 - Successfully escape

Ang ...

A loud hissing sound came, shocked through the wild, like a dragon groan, shocking.

In the flames, the electromagnetic shock raged, but the dead star demon python raised his head and opened his mouth to his body, and suddenly sprayed a dark green liquid.

With a grunt, the black smoke burst, and the white phosphorus fire was extinguished in this way. The dark green liquid was the venom of the green scale demon python, spraying out like a dragon's breath, watering itself, and extinguishing that flame.

"This is all right?" Qin Tiange stared, staring at the demon python who had extinguished the flame of white phosphorus.

He didn't expect that the green scale demon python actually vomited venom to extinguish the white phosphorus flame burning by his body, and even extinguished the electromagnetic heat energy, which was really terrifying.

It coiled up and suddenly chased it up. On the whole body, the scales were broken, a white phosphorus incendiary bomb and a plasma bomb did not cause much damage to it.

The four-star blue scale monster python, the defense is really scary, the venom can even extinguish the white phosphorus flame.

Hiss!

The demon python is very fast, that is, the speed of the train is all caught up, with a huge head, and a mouthful of dark green liquid is sprayed up towards the tail of the train.

"Wo Ri ..." Seeing this, Qin Tiange's face changed abruptly, and he uttered a swear word. The whole man leapt to the back of the carriage.

I saw a loud noise, and the terrible sound of corrosive corrosion came. The last compartment was poured with numerous dark green liquids and was corroded on the spot.

The iron and steel were burned through, and the strong toxicity eroded the last compartment. Fortunately, Qin Tiange escaped in time, otherwise the body was estimated to be corroded and clean.

"Good danger!" After escaping, Qin Tiange secretly pinched a cold sweat, looking at the green scale demon python nearby, only ten meters away from the train, he could launch a violent attack at any time.

He put away the electromagnetic light blade, took out a sniper rifle, it was the electromagnetic pulse sniper rifle, and aimed at the green scale demon python.

Zi ... Bang!

There was a gunshot, electromagnetic light exploded from the head of the demon python, a fist-sized scale shattered on the spot, and a bright red blood flower splashed.

That was a plasma bullet. One went down, powerful and terrifying, but just breaking a scale of the demon python, you can see how amazing the defense of the four-star demon python.

Qi Qin Tiange's face was dignified, he squatted down, raised his gun with both hands and aimed.
boom!

I was shot again. This time the monster python reacted. The crisis could have let it avoid the vital eyes. A scale above the head exploded again. The pain made it growl angry.

Alas ... The demon python shouted angrily, rushing up to Qin Tiange's car, opened his mouth, and banged, rushing in from the broken car.

The whole train trembled, and the severe impact almost lifted the train up, scaring many survivors to scream in panic.

“Go!” At the end of the train, Qin Tiange first shot at the big mouth opened by the demon python, then pulled out the electromagnetic light blade and stabbed the demon python with a severe knife.

There was a flutter of blood, and blood blossomed, and the demon python's jaw was pierced by the electromagnetic light blade, and the blade was inserted three feet deep, causing considerable harm.

The demon python roared, and the head that had penetrated into the compartment retreated directly, raised high, opened its mouth again and aimed at the interior of the compartment, as if the venom was brewing.

“Not good!” Seeing this, Qin Tiange secretly made a bad noise. If he sprayed it in, it is estimated that in the remaining seven and a half carriages, everyone would have corroded into slag.

Seeing that the python was about to spit out venom, Qin Tiange became more dignified, calm, and quickly thinking of a solution in his mind.

The next moment, the train headed past the bridge and saw that it was about to rush out of the bridge. Qin Tiange had a thought and immediately had a solution.

He quickly took out dozens of grenades, some of which were originally obtained from the disco on the second floor of the town market, and some were left by those in the carriage.

Dozens of grenades, plus a bunch of explosives were ignited by his ring, and quickly threw it on the railway bridge, just crushed by the green scale demon python.

Boom!

There was a loud noise, and then, a terrible explosion came, and the huge body of the monster python was blown to the ground on the spot. The high head originally fell to the ground, and the venom sprayed to the mouth eroded the railway bridge. .

Because dozens of bombs exploded together, although only some scales of the four-star green scale demon python were injured, the bridge was blown up.

He only heard a loud noise, and the bridge suddenly collapsed, so that the green scale demon python that originally wanted to continue to chase down fell into the torrential river.

The train went farther and farther, only to hear a loud noise coming from behind, the bridge collapsed in half.

Hiss ...

I heard an extremely terrifying roar, the water was soaring, and then a huge green scale monster python climbed up to the shore, rolled up, and raised his head with an angry roar towards the distant train, shaking the earth.

The demon python was angry, but it was helpless, because now it was too late to chase after it, and it only roared angrily over there, opened its mouth wide, and bit a few giant green snakes and killed them on the spot.

“Finally escaped.” Seeing that the Greenscale Demon Python didn’t chase after him, Qin Tiange let out a sigh of relief, and the whole person was paralyzed in the potty train compartment at the back.

Here is the ninth carriage. As for the tenth carriage in front, it has already been almost corroded by venom, and most of the carriages are gone.

“God, how are you doing?”

At this moment, a group of people hurriedly came from behind, led by Moda, Liu Yan, and others, looking around in horror and nervousness, really afraid that the green scale demon python suddenly attacked.

Qi Qin Tiange stood up, put away the electromagnetic pulse sniper rifle, looked at the dimly visible giant demon python in the distance, raging and killing in the same group, venting his inner anger.

“It’s safe for the time being.” He said this sentence, but his heart was really low.

Wu Qin Tiange remembered that he hadn’t seen the train in his previous life, so he didn’t know whether the train also encountered the group of terrible green snakes and the dead-star green scale demon python.

In his opinion, ordinary people are bound to die in such a situation and cannot escape to heaven.

“Go back first!” Qin Tiange took a final look and turned away. Liu Ye and others looked at each other behind, but did not stay in this potty carriage.

I walked back to the road. In the compartments, there were many corpses of blue pythons. These huge green snakes that had rushed into the compartments were killed by Moda, Liu Yan and others.

As for some ordinary people being attacked by green snakes, they were either bitten and dragged out of the car window, they were bitten by poisoning and died, or they were killed by biting their throats on the spot.

“How many people are dead?” Qin Tiange suddenly asked as he walked.

Yan Liuxian heard a few quick steps and walked beside him, explaining the sudden situation. She whispered, "Tian Ge, this time a large number of large snakes were hit. The survivors on the train were killed and injured a lot. Eleven were dragged out of the carriage, eight were bitten and poisoned."

"Our people were not injured, but only nine cyan pythons were killed, and the others either ran or fell." Liu Ye introduced the attack on the green snake group this time.

Qin Tiange nodded and said nothing, but looked at the dead green snake, and said, "These green snakes have been mutated, at least one star. There are mutant nuclei growing in the head, collecting snake blood, and Take out the poisonous sac of the green snake and the courage of the snake, and the others will be skinned and stored as food. "

"Yes!"

Moda immediately took the lead and took a group of boys to get busy. As for Liu Ye, he took a group of girls to deal with those other survivors, comfort those who were disturbed, and avoid causing greater confusion.

Qin Tiange himself returned to the luxury compartment and cleaned the snake blood on his face. Then he came to the cockpit and saw Wu Xinlan and the captain clearing the glass fragments.

"Train captain, how long do we have to arrive in Shenzhen?" Qin Tiange came in and asked the captain immediately.
