

Dark Ages 821

Chapter 821 - Star Fortress, 0 Devil

With a thunder, a beam of horror fell from the sky, running through the sky with the extinction of the world.

In the atmosphere of the planet, a 90,000-meter-long royal battleship was so penetrated by a column of horrifying light that fell from the sky, and it instantly disintegrated and was torn apart.

The huge wreckage flew down to the Quartet. There was originally a powerful royal elite army with a number of 100,000, and it was thus beaten into cosmic dust.

With just one blow through the Royal Warship, it was able to defend against the Royal Star Warrior's bombardment for decades and it would not be broken.

terror!

The escaping Qin Tiange and others looked in shock, looking at the huge beam of light that connected the heavens and the earth, penetrating the entire planet, and then triggering a big explosion on the red planet.

Just listening to the sound of a bang, the planet exploded instantly, like a supernova sublime to the fullest, erupting endless energy, completely destroying the starry sky.

There, a fireball swelled and rumbled across the starry sky, sweeping the thick cosmic dust into nothingness.

The strong light burned through space and distorted time and space. The power of that blow was beyond imagination.

Qin Tiange did not expect that he was ambushed, and that he was still killed in a lore, and he was almost buried in this red planet.

Fortunately, he is vigilant and has the ability to tear up high-level space channels, otherwise he really has to explain, even if he does not die, he will be seriously injured.

“A strong blow, who is ambushing you?” In the dark sky, dozens of people rushed out.

Qin Tiange looked dignified, looking at the light ball that was constantly exploding, which was a shock wave from a supernova explosion.

Light and heat burn through space, distorting time and space, and the power is extremely terrifying. If you are in the center of an explosion, you may be torn apart.

Nalan Fei Fei looked iron-blue, watching the dying planet, and was buried in the Xinghai together with his royal 100,000 elite guards and royal battleships.

“Who is causing me to die?” He yelled and gritted his teeth, and suffered a terrible loss.

One hundred thousand royal guards are his most powerful and powerful personal guard army, who will always accompany him to grow up, finally reach the throne, and then become the royal guard.

It is a pity that this blow was directly buried and it made him angry and bloody, which was a huge loss.

There were only eighteen black hole-level guards, two star-level guards, and each of them looked terrified, watching the supernova explosion that had subsided gradually, and they were all in a cold sweat.

I was almost dead just now. I could n't start the space jump in time to escape. I thought it was dead. But in the end Qin Tiange suddenly showed the Xeon method, tearing apart the wormhole in space, letting them escape.

"Thank you Brother Qin for saving my life, Nalan Feiyu will report in the future." Nalan Feiyu turned solemnly, bowing deeply and thanking him.

This time, thanks to Qin Tiange to follow up, otherwise, he dare not imagine the consequences, it is impossible to escape this calamity.

The previous blow was a near-space-time blow, a blow that penetrated the royal battleship, and even hit the entire planet.

That 's the power of space-time, which is terrifying. Sometimes the space-level wants Nalan Feather's life?

"No, I don't think it's a space-time level yet. It's at most a half-step space-time level." Qin Tiange shook his head, thinking that he hadn't reached the space-time level.

Although he has not seen the time and space powerhouse, he can clearly feel that the sudden blow just now did not reach the time and space level.

If it is time and space level, Qin Tiange believes that the blow must penetrate space and time, and it is only right to smash that space and time.

"Who would it be and want to kill you?" Qin Tiange looked serious, watching Nalan Feiyu and his two star masters and eighteen black hole guards.

Everyone looked at each other, their faces turned blue, they didn't know who wanted to kill them. Was it the Black Sea fierce?

"The fierce pirates of the Black Sea, not only took away my sister, but also wanted to kill me, why?" Nalan Feiyu's face was somber, looking at the direction of the energy column just now.

There is a dark cloud covering it, and a thick nebula covering it. A vaguely black hole can be seen there, and it is filled with super horror energy.

Gradually, the dark nebula spread out, revealing a behemoth inside, like a small star.

"Interstellar fortress!" Nalan Feiyu's pupils shrunk, angrily, "Damn, it is interstellar fortress. Isn't this thing forbidden for sale in the Black Sea?"

Interstellar fortress, there is actually an interstellar fortress, with endless runes densely branded on it, beating and emitting hazy light.

The hit just now was a shot from the Star Citadel, which was a super divine cannon. It was extremely powerful and rumored to be close to space-time strike.

Qin Tiange squinted his eyes, looked at the interstellar fortress, and said in astonishment: "A mere fortress can actually surpass the main power of the star, the power is not weaker than the starkiller."

"Space prison, hide!"

Suddenly, Qin Tiange waved a space prison cage, directly covering the people and hiding.

I saw, the interstellar fort suddenly bursts of light sweeping around the starry sky, as if detecting something.

Looking at the rays of light coming over, Nalan Feiyu and other people mentioned that they almost thought they were found.

After a long time, those lights disappeared, Qin Tiange carefully looked at the huge interstellar fortress, like a huge battle star.

It was imprinted with a huge image of evil, with open teeth and dancing claws, as if it were a locked demon.

"This is the Black Sea Thousands of Devil Thieves, one of the three strongest robbers." Nalan Feiyu's eyes flashed intently, said hatefully.

At a glance, he could see that the fierce demon Peugeot was the thousand demon robbers, notorious, fierce and cruel, and powerful.

That was one of the three most powerful robbers in the Black Sea. It is rumored that the Thousand Devil robbers were formed by another terror demon.

Peugeot is exactly one of its forms. It is fierce and intimidating.

"Thousands of fiendish thieves?" Qin Tiange said to himself, his eyes clear, he asked, "Brother Feiyu, what are you going to do now, your sister should be on that star fortress."

"As for the positioning of the information just now, it must be a trap, which will lead you to destroy you in one fell swoop." Qin Tiange made a guess.

He looked at Nalan Fei Fei Tieqing's face and said softly, "I'm curious, why did they catch your sister, and hearing that your sister had no intelligence at birth, as if she lost her main soul, right?"

Nalan Feiyu's expression was gloomy, and he hummed, "My sister was born without a soul and had no intelligence at all. I don't know why they caught my sister."

"Brother Qin, this matter has nothing to do with you. You can retreat. After all, in the face of a robber such as the Thousand Devil Robber, the power is strong. I must let the father emperor dispatch the royal guard to come over.” Nalan Feiyu said, sincerely Looked at Qin Tiange.

This matter has nothing to do with Qin Tiange. He doesn't want to involve Qin Tiange. Nalan Feiyu already has the intention to make Qin Tiange sincerely.

Just because Qin Tiange's ability to tear up the wormhole in space just moved and paid attention to him.

“Anyway, I was almost killed by them just now. I felt a fire in my heart, and, as a friend, how could I stand idly by?” Qin Tiange smiled indifferently.

He didn't leave, but was curious, why did this thousand devil robbers take Nalan Feiyu's sister.

“They're gone!”

At this time, Li Luo reminded softly, and sure enough, that interstellar fortress emits a hazy circle, and the circle surrounds the interstellar fortress, then squeezes into the space and gradually disappears.

“Brother Feiyu, have the courage to follow me into the interstellar fortress?” Qin Tiange suddenly asked with a smile.

Nalan Feiyu froze, and then she realized that she nodded immediately and said anxiously, “Brother Qin, if you have any trouble, you will rescue my sister. I would like to thank Nalan Feiyu for your kindness.”

“Thanks for the time being, your men are too weak to let them leave the best.” Qin Tiange looked at Nalan Feiyu's eighteen black hole-level guards and said politely.

This made the eighteen black hole-level guards look unhappy, but no one dared to object, because Nalan Feiyu nodded in approval.

“You enter it, dodge for the time being.” Nalan Feiyu flipped through the palms, a green planet emerged.

It was the stars in his body, which unfolded directly, and put eighteen guards in it, and temporarily set them aside.

“Jingshan, Ruby, you are wronged.” Qin Tiange said, looking at Jingshan and Ruby.

“It is Lord!” Jingshan and Ruby both arched their hands together without any opinion.

Watching the two enter the stars of Nalan Feiyu together, Qin Tiange did not expose the stars in his body, nor did he expose Li Luo.

Because they both have secrets, they don't want Nalan Feiyu to know. Seeing this, Nalan Feiyu's eyes twinkled, but they didn't care.

“Go, follow up!”

Qin Tiange's eyes flickered a little, and he said, wrapped in Luo Luo with space black particles, Nalan Feather, and two star-level guards.

I saw a "swipe", the black particles flickered, and several people disappeared.

Chapter 822 - A soulless and soulless girl

Inside the Star Fortress, a hidden corner quietly appeared.

The people who came were Qin Tiange, who quietly entered the interstellar fortress without causing any alarm.

This made Nalan Feiyu's heart extremely shocked, and without alarm, could she quietly enter someone else's interstellar fortress. How much patience would it take?

Qin Tiange's space accomplishment has already reached its peak and reached the space-time gate faintly, convinced that as long as he takes another step, he will become a half-step space-time level.

"This is the grocery storage area inside the Star Fortress." Qin Tiange glanced to know where it was.

Moreover, there is no monitoring method here, which makes people have to wonder whether they are overconfident and there is no monitoring method.

Do you think that the interior of the interstellar fortress cannot let the enemy invade? In fact, this is the interstellar fortress itself, and the outer energy shield is to prevent space shuttle, but unfortunately Qin Tiange can pass through silently.

"Lord, in the past, there should be a place where prisoners and slaves are detained, there is a lot of vitality." Li Luo said softly.

Qin Tiange's eyes flickered and he looked at Nalan Feiyu, who had already found the position of his sister by virtue of some kind of induction between the royal families.

He nodded and said, "Yes, my sister's breath is there, and she must be locked there."

Now the question is coming. Now that he has found his sister's place, is it to go directly to save people and leave, or what?

"Brother Feiyu, you decide." Qin Tiange smiled lightly.

Nalan Feiyu's eyes flickered, and he snorted softly: "If I don't figure out why they took away my sister, I'm upset, and even if they are rescued, they will probably continue to take away."

"Then, Brother Feiyu meant to explore their purpose?" Qin Tiange said afterwards.

"Yes, I hope Brother Qin can help me." As he said, he directly saluted, and the two star-level guards followed suit at the same time.

After watching the three requests, Qin Tiange smiled: "Anyway, since I am here, naturally I will not stand idly by. You are the only friend I know in the Fairy Nebula, and it is sure to help you."

“Thank Brother Qin!” Nalan Feiyu was touched in his heart, regardless of whether this remark was true or not, but he did have the intention to truly associate Qin Tiange.

“go!”

Qin Tiange waved his hand, and a few people were five meters away. They were all wrapped in a touch of space, hiding behind them and walking forward.

In the grocery area, there are some debris piled up everywhere. Through the long aisle, you can see that there are two evil spirits guarding with guns in front.

The two creatures, wearing thick armor covering their entire bodies, could not see their looks at all.

Several people walked step by step without even letting the two guards find it, and they didn’t even see it when they walked near them.

The two star-level guards of Nalan Feiyu were shocked, and deeply jealous of Qin Tiange’s methods. Such people were terrible.

In such an interstellar fortress, no one can find him at all, such as walking flat. If such a strong person sneaks into a certain royal family, what would it be like?

I feel chilling in the imagination, Nalan Feiyu is paying more and more attention to his heart. Qin Tiange, a mysterious young man who claims to be from the galaxy, is a strong man he deserves to associate with.

“Be careful, there is some kind of pattern fluctuation, it is some kind of inductive pattern, and it will be found once you touch it.”

As he walked in, Qin Tiange stopped suddenly, reminding him softly that there was a slight fluctuation in front of him.

Once a person who does not understand walks by, it will inevitably trigger or even directly trigger the alarm of the entire Star Fortress.

When Nalan Feiyu was tangled with the two guards, how could he pass without alarming the formation, but saw Qin Tiange suddenly wave his hand, and there was a strange pattern of waves around the crowd.

Then, they walked into the formation and passed through the dense passage full of formation symbols without any change.

The two guards passed through here in horror and fright, all around, depicting not only the alert formations, but also various lore formations. Once triggered, they would be stabbed to the ground by ash.

All the way to safety, everyone came to a dense crowd of cages, in each cage, there was a dense array of flashing lines, the energy wall blocked the exit.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange couldn’t help narrowing his eyes, and there were a lot of differences around him. On both sides of the passage, there were dense rows of prison cages.

Inside each cage, there is a figure, all ethnic groups, but they are all women, and they are still young women.

There are cat cats, fox cats, mermaids, and mermaids. They even saw a worm mother, a human worm body, and a charming and charming face, but underneath it was a creeping worm body and dense sharp paws.

“These are all ethnic girls who have been arrested.”

Nalan Feiyu looked gloomy, looking inside the cages, locking the girls captured by various ethnic groups.

A prisoner in front was holding a blue-haired girl with a sapphire flashing in her brows. She was of blue blood.

Along the way, Qin Tiange saw a sturdy double-headed girl and a strange three-eyed beauty.

One by one, they were all held in prison cages, all bound by energy chains, unable to move at all.

In front, in a prison cage, a young girl with white wings behind her, wearing a white dress, is sacred and elegant, like an angel.

That is the God Wing tribe, which is divided into light and dark, and the girl inside is a holy girl of the Light Wing tribe.

“Why did they catch these girls from all ethnic groups?” Li Luo asked in wonder.

Qin Tiange shook his head and smiled, “There are only two possibilities. One is the leader of a thousand demon fighters, who wants to grab and enjoy, and the other is to catch these pure-blooded girls of all races to sacrifice. Blood sacrifice or something. “ “Immolation, blood sacrifice?” Nalan Feiyu’s expression changed wildly, as if remembering something, a look of shock and anger appeared on her face.

He solemnly said, “Brother Qin, I may know what they did to catch pure girls from all ethnic groups.”

Qin Tiange looked at him differently, only listening to Nalan Feiyu saying: “It is rumored that Qianmo has been sacrificing something. Every hundred years, pure blood girls of all ethnic groups are collected, as if sacrificing a certain horrible ancient fiend. “

“Oh?” Qin Tiange was different, thinking about it and thinking about it.

As he was talking, his footsteps suddenly stopped, and Nalan Feiyu stopped at the same time and looked up at the front. A young girl was being held in an independent prison cage.

The young girl, with her head down and eyes blind, sits silently, as if a statue.

“Sister!” Nalan Feiyu looked shocked. This was his sister.

Qin Tiange was amazed. He looked at the girl in the prison cage and saw some secrets through her eyes.

This girl, Nalan Feiyu’s sister, was born with no soul, yes, she was born with no soul.

This surprised Qin Tiange, why do you say that, because there is no soul in her body, not even the true spirit?

How did a young girl without a soul grow up?

Qin Tiange immediately became suspicious, because there is no soul, not a lack of soul, this girl is simply an empty shell.

That's right, Nalan Feiyu's sister has no soul in her body, not even the spirit of the remaining soul. It's empty and clean, as if there has never been a soul.

“A soulless person, really exists?” Li Luo's pupils shrank, and she looked at the girl with shock.

As soon as she sees the secret of the girl, she is a soulless girl, she has no soul and no real spirit.

If a soul has no soul and true spirit, how can it live? Even fierce beasts have cruel chaos.

But this girl is a soulless soul. Between heaven and earth, there is no soul and true spirit.

This is why Li Luo was shocked. It is rumored that soulless people cannot die again, and born with nothing, is the best and most holy spirit girl in the world.

The so-called spirit girl is to let the will of various big men come, and it is the spirit girl who becomes a substitute.

Because she is born without a soul, without any rejection, it is like a avatar, she is completely flawless, and is the person who countless powerful beings want to find.

“Brother Feiyu, what's your sister's name?” Qin Tiange asked softly, very curious.

Nalan Feiyu calmed down the inner fluctuations and said, “My sister's name is Nalan Jingyu. Because she was born without a soul and didn't say a word, her father took Jingyu as her name ~ ... Qin Tiange said to himself, looking at Nalan Feiyu thoughtfully.

Does he not understand that his sister is born with no soul, or does he deliberately hide it? Couldn't he see it?

Or is it true that no one in the entire Nalan royal family can see that Nalan Jingyu is born with no soul, which is the most special existence?

Qin Tiange had to be surprised and curious because he could grow up without a shell and soul.

“The emperor, a soulless and soulless person, should not have survived, but she can live to this day, and there must be a secret in it.” Li Luo said quietly.

Qin Tiange nodded softly, watching the soulless and spiritless girl waiting to speak, and suddenly felt that a few powerful breaths came.

“somebody is coming.”

Speaking of it, Qin Tiange wrapped up a few people with black particles of space and disappeared, hiding in the space interlayer and clinging here.

It didn't take long before I saw a few powerful figures coming towards this side.

Chapter 823 - Black Sea, the old nest of murderers

Several weird and strange creatures came.

The head of a creature is three meters high, four arms are thick, and the two arms growing on the chest have sharp claws and glitter.

A tail grows behind it, the scale armor is shining, shining, and the body is exuding a ferocious breath.

“Head, why does Lord Ural let us come and see?”

“Yeah, these people can’t run again. What’s so nice about it?”

Five creatures, two of them are obviously a little unhappy, because the commander of the Star Fortress, Ulla, let them take a look at the young girls who were captured.

“Shut up!” The creature headed snorted, yelled: “Master Ura must come when we ask, who dares to be careful and I will throw him out.”

Several of them had chills under their hands, all of them bowed their heads and did not dare to speak, and began to look at the girls of all ethnic groups held here honestly.

They looked at them one by one without any problems, and finally came to the deepest part of the cage, holding the soulless and soulless girl alone.

A few people looked at the girl with great attention, and they were relieved without a problem. The creature headed was mumbling.

“Really, waste my expression.”

The creature was actually very dissatisfied, and muttered, “This young girl is the one designated by the leader to arrest, and she doesn’t know what to do, she’s a silly girl.”

Then, he shook his head, turned and left with a group of men.

When they left, the space here fluctuated, and then Qin Tiange and others quietly emerged.

He looked at the departing creatures, thoughtfully, as if he had been faintly guessing.

“Brother Qin, they have been premeditated for a long time. What on earth does Qian Qian want to catch my sister?” Nalan Feiyu looked dignified and looked at the sister who was being held.

He was in a heavy mood, and those people seemed to value his sister and seemed to have some purpose.

This made him dare not act lightly and wanted to wait to figure it out, but worried that he would not be able to rescue his sister at that time.

“Perhaps, your sister has the ability to be valued by them.” Qin Tiange whispered, looking at the dumb girl.

Nalan whisper, the little princess of the royal family, born with no soul or spirit, is an empty shell.

It is a miracle that she can grow up to this day, and most of them have her brother Feiyu taking care and protection.

“What about the guards protecting my sister?” Nalan Feiyu frowned suddenly, feeling wrong.

It stands to reason that among the guards protecting her, there is a master of the star level, and it is impossible to die completely.

“Well, the Star Fortress penetrated the space mezzanine and arrived at its destination.”

When Qin Tiange’s expression moved, he immediately sensed that the interstellar fortress broke through the space mezzanine and came to a dim star field.

He knew that the interstellar fortress came to the Black Sea, and it is rumored that it is one of the largest fierce areas in the fairy galaxy.

In the Black Sea, there are big fierce names, and many interstellar fierce fighters are hiding in such fierce land, making it difficult for major royal families to annihilate.

“We’re in the Black Sea, Brother Feiyu, are you saving your sister now, or should we leave and look at it?” Qin Tiange looked at Nalan Feiyu and asked him.

Nalan Feiyu tangled in her heart, struggling for a while, and finally made a decision to make a decision.

“Wait a minute first, I have to figure out why Qianmo specified to arrest my sister, otherwise I’m uneasy.” Nalan Feiyu made a decision directly.

Qin Tiange bowed his head, but didn’t say much, a black particle poured out, wrapped around a few people and disappeared into the interstellar fortress.

At the moment of disappearance, Li Luo quietly played a glazed light, quietly submerged into the body of the soulless girl Nalan Jingyu.

“what?”

At this moment, in the interstellar fortress, a domineering creature was surprised, the figure flickered, came here, and stared at the detained girl.

He was shrouded in fog, unable to see clearly, and it was faintly visible that it was a humanoid creature.

“Strange, why do you feel a wave of fluctuation, is it my delusion?” This man was very strong, and put into a horrible black hole.

He was the highest commander of the Star Citadel, Ulla, who was arrogant and had just sensed a faint wave. He immediately came. Unfortunately, he found nothing.

After looking around for a while, Ula shook her head, turned around and left here, she didn't know that someone had just come

At this moment, the interstellar fortress landed and walked among the interstellar debris, and the huge pieces of the planet floated, and the huge dense pattern was engraved on it, mysterious.

These events were artificially condensed into a large interstellar array. Based on the star fragments, they formed a dense and dense defense array to resist foreign enemies.

The interstellar fortress passes through the thick dust sky and enters into a vast star field, where stars shine, and a few hot stars are distributed in this star field, illuminating the darkness of the entire star field. .

“This is the Black Sea.”

Behind the interstellar fortress, several small figures followed far into the star field.

Here is the legendary Black Sea, which is notorious and is the largest fierce domain in the Fairy Nebula.

In this fierce domain, there is a huge number of gangsters, which is simply a gangster's nest.

It is rumored that there are a large number of ferocious wanderers in the star field, all kinds of powerful creatures, fierce and towering, and it is exactly a gathering place of fierce creatures.

Roar!

A stark roar came from the distant starry sky, and several people looked up, a vicious shadow looming in the darkness.

It stands above the starry sky, covering two stars, huge and unmatched, fierce and powerful, and the unconscious soul trembling.

“Thousands of evil spirits, that's the old nest of thousands of evil spirits.” Nalan Feiyu looked extremely serious, looking at the horrible shadow.

The fierce shadow covering the two huge stars, the thousands of demons that are formally fiercely known, are rumored to have ancient fierce monsters flowing in their bodies.

It lay across the starry sky, exuding horrible black smoke, billowing like tide, flooding all directions and covering two huge stars.

There is its old nest, the headquarters of the Thousand Demon Slayers, and the other planets are the other old Slayers.

The horrors were revealed one by one, making Qin Tiange cautious, because he sensed a terrible Qi machine.

“There are more horrible things hidden here, so be careful.” Qin Tiange warned.

Nalan Feiyu was shocked, nodded and said: “Brother Qin rest assured, I know, now, what should we do?”

“Following the interstellar fortress, we enter the old nest of the thousand demons.”

Speaking of this, Qin Tiange’s body changed for a while, and the mist was surging, and then a handsome young man with twin wings and horns in his head appeared.

Kirin Horn, Phoenix Wing, can see Nalan Feiyu startled, almost thought that he was wrong, and even thought that this was the body of Qin Tiange.

“Go!” Qin Tiange smiled slightly, flashed everyone, and disappeared into the sky. After the disappearance of the thousand demon shadows, he entered the huge planet.

This planet is shrouded in dark nebula and the mist is rolling, but the interior is full of vitality.

boom

The interstellar fortress moored inside the planet, above the atmosphere, hidden in the rolling mist.

Soon, a neat and powerful team came out of the Star Fortress, carrying prisoners one by one, and entered the inside of the planet Brush!

On the planet, outside of a huge magic city, several figures quietly landed and came to the old nest of thousands of fiendish fiends.

“Brother Feiyu, let’s separate. Be careful yourself.” Qin Tiange came here and proposed to separate directly.

“Okay!” Nalan Feiyu nodded, releasing all the people hidden in the stars in his body.

“You and I explore separately, what this thousand demon wants to do, rest assured, your sister’s position and security are under control.” Qin Tiange reminded and comforted him.

After speaking, he took Liluo, Jingshan, and Ruby to leave quickly, and walked to the majestic magic city ahead.

As for Nalan Feather, he took two star master guards and eighteen black hole-level guards into the magic city in the other direction.

Thousands of magic old nests, what is hidden, why Qin Tiange entered here personally, in fact, before he felt a strange breath.

With a faint guess, he came to see for himself.

Chapter 824 - Magic star

In front of the huge magic city, two men, two women and four people came over, and the head of the man was born with a unicorn horn, and a phoenix wing, carrying a horror all over him.

The woman, shrouded in fog, can’t see the real body. The two are Qin Tiange and Li Luo, followed by Jingshan and Hongyu.

“Hwang, what do you notice?”

As he walked, Li Luo inquired softly, and the voice came over, as if guessing something.

Qin Tiange bowed his head and replied, “Don’t you think this huge magic star is alive?”

“Out of the planet, the black mist-like nebula, constantly swallowing and contracting, is like the planet is breathing.” Qin Tiange said the amazing news.

This planet is alive and a spirited magic star.

It devours the fierce mist, constantly gathers the stars, and wants to transform from the stars to achieve the star god.

Qin Tiange looked at the dark earth around him. There was a stream of magic gas in the soil, and he sucked it into the ground.

Listen carefully, and you can hear the sound of breathing, if any, that is the breath of the planet, which is a magic star.

“You can remember that before that thousand evil spirits, it was that it was struggling hard, wanting to break free from the planet, and free and easy.” Qin Tiange said no more.

Speaking of this, it is very clear that the old nest of the thousand demon fiends is the thousand demon star, and this demon star is also a planet that produces consciousness.

Some planets generate consciousness and can be called star gods, because they are purely immaculate, but some stars are extremely scary.

For example, this demon star is completely a terrible and fierce demon. It does not become sacred and is completely transformed into a star demon.

Li Luo thought for a while and asked, “Perhaps, that Thousand Devil wanted Nalan Jingyu’s body to drive the shell as a way out of the constraints of the stars?”

“This magic star is not simple. I guess there was a demon’s remains buried here, and a demon fell alive here.” Qin Tiange’s mouth slightly tilted, looking at the towering gate of the magic city.

There is a team of powerful fierce guards, who need to pay the time spar when entering the city.

There are also many creatures of various races living here, which is equivalent to the foundation of thousands of demons to train warriors.

“Into the city, four time spar, not more than ten hours.”

In front of them, two fierce pirates stopped, their eyes were stubborn, staring at Qin Tiange and Li Luo, and they spoke directly.

Qin Tiange didn’t even look at it. Three time spar was thrown away. Two fierce pirates immediately fled and let the four enter.

When you entered the city, you saw a wave of fierce evil coming, and the creatures living here were all fierce.

They are accustomed to slaughter and death, and they experience  and brutal slaughter every day. It is so messy here that you dare not imagine.

bump!

A huge figure flew in front of him, smashing not far in front of the two, and looking down only to find that it was a fierce creature.

It's a pity that this creature's head was torn and died, and the creatures around him seemed to be commonplace. There was no movement at all, and each one went its own way.

“The strongest breath here should be the leader of the Thousands of Demon Slayers, and that one is probably the incarnation of the Devil Star.” Qin Tiange quietly transmitted a message.

As soon as he entered the city, he sensed a horrible breath in the middle of the demon city. It was extremely powerful and fierce.

“Huang, are we talking about its capture?” Li Luo asked softly.

Qin Tiange nodded and laughed: “You should know that the creatures born of stars are all mysterious, and don't you think this magic star is ready to step into space and time?”

“Perhaps, there is a corpse of a demon  in space and time buried inside the magic star, that's what I want most.”

Qin Tiange said that the ultimate goal was the corpse of a suspected  of time and space buried under the demon star.

If this thing is obtained, it will be absolutely precious to Qin Tiange, and he can even understand the meaning of time and space from it.

Wow ...

At this moment, on the street in front of the magic city, there was a commotion suddenly, and a neat team came out step by step.

This team is not many, but each one is arrogant and exudes fierce evil spirits.

“It seems that what the thousand monsters found.” Qin Tiange looked at the powerful team passing by, frowning and guessing.

Watching this powerful team appear, and in all directions of the magic city, suddenly a forceful team emerged, all of them terrible.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange knows without guessing, Qian Mo seems to have found out.

“It was Nalanda Feather and they were found where they were.”

Qin Tiange quickly realized that the group of people who should be Nalan Feiyu was found out.

This made him speechless, which could be found. It seems that Nalan Feiyu had traitors around him.

“Traitor, it should be from the star-level guard of Nalan Jingyu, maybe he found Nalan Feiyu them.” Li Luo said softly.

Qin Tiange shook his head and said silently: “Wasn’t that even we were exposed? Really, the royal guards were turned against by fierce fighters.”

“Huang, what do you do now?” Li Luo murmured softly.

Qin Tiange watched a group of powerful teams passing by, and he was lost in thought. When he was found, he must take action.

As for Nalan Feiyu, this guy must be fleeing, don’t bother. As the royal prince and heir to the future throne, no one will believe without a hole card.

“Let Nalan Feiyu draw the attention of these people, and we will go directly to the main city.”

Qin Tiange finally made a decision and went straight to the city’s main mansion, where the incarnation of Qianmo is located, and it is the only way to the core of the underground of the magic star.

“go!”

Speaking, Qin Tiange waved a wave of black particles and instantly wrapped the three of Luoluo in a blink and disappeared.

The four disappeared at the corner of the street and none were found.

brush!

Deep in the city’s main house, a ripple ripples, and then calms down. If you can see through the space mezzanine, you will definitely see Qin Tiange taking Li Luo and others to hide in the space.

The four came to the city’s mansion, and quietly approached along the strongest, most fierce breath.

“Check, dig the ground three feet, and scoop out those infiltrating rats.”

In front of it, a huge magic hall towered, and from it came a terrible and terrifying voice.

The master of this voice is Qianmo.

Through the gate of the magic hall, Qin Tiange saw a dim shadow sitting high on the throne of the magic hall.

“Qian Mo ...” Qin Tiange secretly flashed a thought in his heart, and at a glance he saw that the other party was Qian Mo.

Thousands of magic eyes were seeing through the fog, and a dozen powerful figures swept across the scene, all of which were star-level powerful men.

“Go on, you can’t catch the intruders, you don’t have to come back.”

Thousands of demons waved their hands, and a group of star masters immediately turned to retreat, and all of them quit in fear.

When these people were gone, the Thousand Demon suddenly breathed aside, and the black mist rolled around the magic hall, which turned into an extinct area.

“Huh?” Qin Tiange was surprised. Looking at Qian Mo’s actions, he apparently found them, which made him surprised and cautious.

I can find him. This is a very powerful one, even with a mysterious ability beyond imagination.

“Come out, a few mice, dare to break into the magic hall of this city, the courage is really fat.”

Qian Mo sneered, looking at the void, where there were several silhouettes. It was Qin Tiange and others.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange knew that hiding was useless and let the other party find out, but he didn’t panic.

“It is indeed a thousand demon, but you can find me. It seems that you are a bit capable, it is indeed an incarnation of a magic star.”

A word of indifference came, and the space rippled, and then four figures emerged from it.

The people who came were Qin Tiange, Li Luo, and four others, standing inside the magic hall, and quietly looking at the opposite Qianmo.

Qianmo also looked at him, looking at each other, the atmosphere was gradually suppressed, and the battle was about to start.

Chapter 825 - Sacrifice, 0 devil’s plan

“Unexpectedly, someone can sneak into the magic hall of this seat and say, how do you want to die?”

Silent for a long time, Qian Mo slowly opened his mouth, revealing a grinning smile, a tone of fierceness in his tone.

As the incarnation of the magic star, this is fierce, plus he is the leader of the fierce corps, naturally more fierce.

“I’m curious.” Qin Tiange looked at Qian Mo and smiled. “What do you want to do when you come to Nalan Feiyu’s sister?”

“Hey, hey ...” Qian Mo laughed and heard Qin Tiange and others covered him.

The entire magic hall disappeared, as if taken away by some force, and integrated into time and space.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange is different: “Sure enough, you have already stepped into the pole of space and time. It seems that it is true that a demon corpse is buried in this planet?”

“You know too much, and you will die quickly.”

Thousands of fiends said fiercely, the whole person lost track, and then an extremely dangerous breath came from behind.

Qin Tiange’s pupils flickered, and no action was taken, while Li Luo beside him had disappeared.

Bumper!

There was a burst of fierce fighting in the hall, and the waves were rolling and the magic was blowing away, revealing two figures.

Qianmo looked surprised, and looked at Li Luo, humming: “No wonder so confident, there was a half-time space-time guard.”

Li Luo made Qian Mo mistakenly think that he was a powerful player in half-step time and space. In fact, Qin Tiange didn't know what level Li Luo was in.

The ancient powerhouses from the First Age are not so simple. The strength of Li Luo is beyond the imagination of others.

“Li Luo, kill him. I feel that the breath of Nalan's quiet words is moving towards the heart of the magic star.” Qin Tiange frowned suddenly, saying this sentence.

As soon as the words fell, Li Luo turned into a chaotic glazed light. A crystalline plain hand wore out of the chaos, and a touch knocked the whole thousand magics into flight.

The powerful blow made him feel a lot of pain, and the blood on the corner of his mouth was obviously injured by a single palm.

“The magic star is gone!”

As soon as Li Xiao came, I saw thousands of demons pouring out of the magic mist, and the black magic stars floated around Qin Tiange and others, forming a lore of star formation.

The magic star turned and smashed into it with a breath of destruction, and the huge black stars slammed, as if to die.

Bang ~!

Qin Tiange raised his hand with a punch, and suddenly, a black star was blown in front of him on the spot.

He was wild in strength, the fist wind swept away, and the stars rushing all around burst into pieces.

Huge crowds of stars came across, but unfortunately, both Qin Tiange and Li Luo were blown up by their lives. No matter how many they came, they were blown up.

Overbearing strength, every move has been able to destroy the stars, shake the star field, and destroy a star with a magical body.

boom!

When Qin Tiange punched the two stars in front of him, an extremely dangerous breath permeated him, and he didn't want to raise his hand to take a picture of the sky.

With a loud bang, there was a terrible magic tumbling and breaking, and a powerful palm gave a space to a magic shadow.

The man was a thousand monsters, hiding around and taking advantage of the opportunity to ambush, unfortunately, Qin Tiange noticed it was broken.

“Half-step time and space, I would like to know, have you absorbed the demon corpse?” Qin Tiange walked step by step, with a ray of murder in his words.

Thousands of magic pupils flicker, magic light is bright, fierce. He sneered: “You want to know, this book takes you there.”

Speaking, Qianmo sang aloud, the magic gas was boiling, and then the whole magic hall suddenly sank under the ground.

In the blink of an eye, the magic hall came to the inside of the magic star, and the overwhelming coercion swept across to kill Qin Tiange and others.

“You back away!”

Qin Tiange waved his hand to let Li Luo back with Jingshan and Hongyu back, while he stepped forward, the figure disappeared, and it quietly emerged from behind Qianmo.

bump!

Qian Mo turned back and punched, just colliding with Qin Tiange’s palm, his powerful force distorted his face, and his entire arm was twisted and broken.

One palm broke Qian Qian’s arm, and his arrogant strength scared the star demon.

“Damn, your power is weird.” Thousands of demons drank coldly, and the surrounding magical spirits flooded the hall.

His trace disappeared, so Qin Tiange could not find the other party’s hiding, could not help frowning.

“He ran away.” Li Luo frowned and said this, Qianmo ran away.

That guy, using the power of the Magic Hall and the Magic Star, directly covered his whereabouts and ran away, blocking Qin Tiange and others from investigating.

Moreover, at this time, the magic hall was sinking into the depths of the magic star, and a terror force turned into a dark river.

The magic gas is liquefied, as if the dark rivers of death submerged the entire hall, constantly erosion and erosion.

“If you can’t run, we can directly break the attack of the magic star dark river and kill the core of the magic star.” Qin Tiange said, and simply punched the back of the magic hall with a single punch.

With a bang, the magic hall smashed and was blasted by a punch, and powerful punches swept across, breaking through the raging magic river.

In the meantime, four people rushed out of the broken magic hall, headed by Qin Tiange, wielding a pair of swords, breaking through a raging dark river and killing them.

In the back, Li Luo was protecting Jingshan and Hongyu, and went out with Qin Tiange.

The four were extremely fast, breaking through the core of the underground magic star from the terror undercurrent.

“Damn, how can you catch up?”

At a glance, Qian Mo immediately became angry. He said that he had mobilized the huge energy of the magic star to use it. The endless earth and rock mineralized into a terrible wall, blocking Qin Tiange and others.

Even more, a torrent of terrible energy surpassed them and drowned, and the power of the stars continued to erupt.

Just like the torrent resulting from the supernova explosion, several people from Chao Qin Tiange swept over, full of terrible power.

“Break!” Qin Tiange shouted, wielding his two fists in constant bombardment, punching all the energy used with one punch.

No matter what, he couldn’t stop his footsteps, punched up, and the walls in front of them collapsed one by one.

“Time and space are distorted!”

Finally, Qianmo used the killer 铜, blocking Qin Tiange, while erupting extreme power, distorting time and space.

This is to use the power of time and space to directly distort Qin Tiange and others and even exile.

Humph!

Qin Tiange snorted, silver-eyed eyes were intertwined, and a little bit of black particles merged into them, and the terror of the two broke out.

Suddenly, the space and time around him were locked and locked up.

Looking at the imprisoned time and space, Qianmo showed a shocked look for the first time, only to find that Qin Tiange had also mastered this power.

“You also touched the space-time gate?” Qian Mo’s solemn Li Xiao sounded very irritable.

In front of it, a horrendous torrent of energy collided, and then a more violent force of destruction broke out that Qin Tiange used.

Thousands of magic, panic!

Two suspected masters at half-step time and space level made him feel a deep threat and had to do everything possible to talk to the other party to block it.

“Damn, fight!” Qian Moyan watched Qin Tiange unable to stop, and immediately gritted his teeth and made a decision.

As his body burst into a raging flame, it instantly burned his body to ashes, turning into a dim magic light.

That's the real spirit. Seeing this, Qin Tiange is more certain that the other party is the true spirit of the magic star.

“Blood offerings of all souls, open!”

With a roar, the entire magic star shook, and then, the countless fierce beings living on the magic star, regardless of their strength, were suddenly absorbed by the ground inexplicably.

Then, the adsorbed creatures, one after another, found in horror that their own flesh was being swallowed continuously by the ground, and suddenly turned into a pile of bone ash.

“what...”

The screams were ups and downs, and countless creatures lived on the entire magic star, but at this moment were buried by blood.

The demon star was devouring the flesh and blood of all spirits, forming the power of blood sacrifice, so Qin Tiange couldn't help narrowing his eyes.

“Burned all souls, and used the real spirit of all souls to feed the demon corpse. It seems that this is your plan?” Qin Tiange sneered, watching the endless living flesh and blood energy and even the true spirit being sucked into the earth's heart.

There, a demon corpse was buried, seeing this, Qin Tiange faintly understood.

“It turns out that you are the remnant of the demon corpse.” Qin Tiange suddenly realized.

The true spirit of Qianmo sneered: “What do you know Now, this seat has found the world's shell that should not exist in the world. Now, see how this seat can be reborn with her , Perfect resurrection. “

Bang ...

Speaking, the entire magic star shook, the mighty magic power swept the sky, and Xinghai shook for it.

In the middle of the magic star, a broken body is devouring the flesh and blood of the planet to recover itself.

Moreover, there was a petite figure lying in the corpse, which was Nalan Jingyu.

“The emperor, the sacrifice has begun, and the demon's resurrection ceremony has entered the final stage. If the demon wreckage and Nalan Jingyu's shell drive are merged, then the resurrection will be completed.” Li Luo said softly.

Qin Tiange stared there, sneering: “No hurry, just use this opportunity to erase the demon's true spirit consciousness and create a brand new, pure true spirit.”

Click!

Just listening to the sound of a crisp sound, the core of the star cracked, and the huge demon corpse inside melted slowly, and poured into the shell of Nalan Jingyu.

Chapter 826 - Forced out of time and space

The devil's remains melted, and gradually poured into the shell of Nalan's whisper, and the real spirit breathed.

"Nine turns of the demon, and you will become a demon again. You have a good plan."

Qin Tiange looked at the melting devil's body there, showing a sneer, and wanted to resurrect with the help of Nalan's quiet soulless shell.

This dead demon wants to be resurrected with the help of a soulless and spiritless chaser, get rid of the dead demon body, and become a demon again.

The calculation is good, but he met Qin Tiange and Li Luo. One was a monster, and the other was a strong man who survived the ancient era to this day.

Both of them are capable of erasing the true spirit of the demon god, and before that, Luo Luo has quietly done something in Nalan Jingyu's body.

"My, come back ..."

Cunningly, an extremely terrible voice came, with a rebirth of excitement and joy, the magic came to earth.

The dead demon awakened, the remains completely melted, poured into the body of Nalan Jingyu, and re-evolved into the body of a lifetime with the help of the soulless and soulless shell.

"Hahahaha ... Uh, finally resurrected." Nalan quietly floated up, stood there, surrounded by magic, like black dragons flying back and forth.

The powerful magic power continued to be released, shaking the entire magic star, the earth cracked, and a black magma gushing.

The entire magic star is trembling, collapsing, turning into a dead magic star, sinking into the world.
boom!

With a loud noise, the magic star burst, no, it wasn't a burst, but it suddenly collapsed into the body of a figure.

The powerful force swept away the creatures on the entire planet. Numerous fierce bandits sorrowed and mourned. They did not understand what happened and were directly swallowed into ashes and died.

"Her Highness, leave!"

Above the magic star, three figures rushed out, blasting into the air, breaking through the rolling magic cloud, and rushing out of the atmosphere of the magic star.

It was Nalan Feather, and there were two star-level guards. As for eighteen black hole-level guards, they were killed before.

"Is that ... sister?"

At this moment, Nalan Feiyu rushed out of the magic star, and looked at the collapsed magic star, blending into the body of a hazy figure.

That man was his sister Nalan Jinghua. At this moment, she was filled with horrific power all over her, surpassing the star level.

What he couldn't believe was that his sister had become so scary?

"It's Brother Qin ..." Then, Nalan Feiyu saw the four figures in the endless storm. It was the Qin Tiange four.

I saw, Nalan Jinghua smiled strangely, looking at Qin Tiange, she slowly said: "You, witnessed the return of my next life, now, I will give you two ways, one, kneel down immediately to submit, Yes ... dead. "

Bang ...

As soon as the words fell, a wave of magic swept through, but was undermined by Qin Tiange's understatement, without any change on his face.

"No one can convince me yet, you, an outdated and incomplete demon, have this qualification?" Qin Tiange snorted, step by step.

Watching Qin Tiange come up, Nalan Jingyu's face appeared cold and stern, humming: "Since you don't want to surrender, then die."

bump!

At about the same time, the two shot a palm at each other, and the Xeon force collided, causing the starry sky to burst and the space to collapse.

The powerful force swept out, causing the star tide to sweep across, Qin Tiange's body backed up two steps, the same as the other.

The two are evenly divided, which makes the big demon's expression occupying Nalan Jingyu's shell change slightly.

"No, you haven't touched the space-time level, why can you use the power of time and space?" She asked with an unbelievable look.

Qin Tiange is not a space-time class, but he can use the power of space-time, which is incredible.

In fact, Qin Tiange is not using it, but using it. He has the power of time and space, which is different.

"Li Luo, you can do it."

Qin Tiange didn't answer, but said a word lightly, and saw that the static Luo Luo flashed suddenly and shot a palm toward Nalan Jingyu.

The sky was filled with chaos, the void was boiling, and a powerful blow made the big demon look different.

Bump!

The two quickly matched each other a thousand times, and separated in a blink of an eye, Nalan's quiet expression turned blue and her face changed constantly.

"What did you do to me?" She was shocked and flustered, feeling that her body was out of control.

At this moment, the three of Nalan Feiyu rushed to see her sister became so terrible, and suddenly horrified.

"Sister, you ..." Nalan Feiyu began to say something, but Nalan whispered and flew out.

A spit of blood spit out and was hit badly. Poor Nalan Feiyu came up and was taken out by her sister.

He didn't believe his face and looked at his sister. The sister, who had been lacking in spirits, sneered at him and hurt him with one palm.

"She is not your sister and is occupied by the incomplete demon god." Qin Tiange frowned, admonishing.

"Damn, * it!"

On the opposite side, Nalan Jing's face was emaciated, and a ray of golden light continued to flash on his brows, as if something had been imprisoned by the true spirit.

The real spirit of the demon became very irritable, because the real spirit was imprisoned by a mysterious force, which made it a little frightened.

"Do you dare to occupy the true spirit of my sister?" Nalan Feiyu was shocked, watching her sister Nalan whisper, being occupied by something.

"Don't worry, its real spirit has been imprisoned by me and can't get out." Qin Tiange raised his hand to stop Nalan Feiyu from rushing up.

Opposite, Nalan stared quietly at Qin Tiange and Li Luo, and said gloomily, "What did you do to me?"

"Of course it is imprisoning your true spirit, erasing your consciousness, and creating a brand new true spirit. I am very interested in such things." Qin Tiange said word by word.

This was his intention. The moment he saw Nalan's whisper, he realized something faintly.

Something wanted to be resurrected with the help of her shell drive, which made him interested, and wanted to see if he could create a new creature.

If an inborn soulless shell removes a powerful true spirit and uses this as a medium, can it ignite the spiritual fire in the shell and create a new soul?

Nalan whispering should not have existed in the world, but she could survive, which made Qin Tiange curious.

If a new spirit is created, what will it look like, can he let him peek into the mystery of the true spirit, and that new way of nirvana may have important inspiration for him.

“court death!”

The great demon’s anger was directly transformed into a demon domain, covering Qin Tiange and others.

Around, endless magic gas surging, several people from Chao Qin Tiange swept to kill them.

“You back off!”

Qin Tiange drank softly, stepping into the air step by step, raising his hand was breaking the endless magic of a palm, hitting Nalan Jingyu.

Her complexion changed slightly, her hand lifted, and a slamming up came. The two palms collided, and naturally she flew out.

Nalan Jingyu, who did not cultivate any strength at all, was not the opponent of Qin Tiange, although he was incorporated by the demon body.

“broken!”

Qin Tiange shouted and waved both, leading to a wave of chaotic storms, which swept through the magic domain, shattered this magic mist boiling star domain.

With a bang, a magic star exploded in front of him, and turned into a figure rushing out quickly.

Nalan quietly whispered, the power of the devil was boiling, but it was a pity that Qin Tiange returned home with a single hand.

“The book of the earth is a true character, destroy the soul!”

Suddenly a low drink came, and I saw a golden light burst, and I passed through Nalan Jingyu’s eyebrows ah ... I fight with you. There was a scream in the sea, and the real demon roared, and the demon glowed with horror and black gas, bursting out instantly.

An overwhelming force that surpassed the main level of the star pervaded, that was the energy belonging to the half-step space-time level.

“The door of time and space, open!”

With a roar, I saw Nalan whispering endless magic light, and the endless magic gas sprayed out from the top, slamming the sky.

With a loud bang, a powerful blow distorted time and space, shattered the space barrier, and hit a door.

That is the gate of time and space!

Seeing this, Qin Tiange couldn’t help but change his expression. He never thought that the demon was so determined that he opened the door of time and space and forced open the door of space and time.

“I want to achieve time and space, dream!”

He grunted, and the figure quietly appeared in front of Nalan Jingyu, killing him with a finger.

Chapter 827 - Time and space robbery

With a click, nothingness was pierced by a finger.

One finger of Qin Tiange penetrated through the nothingness, and the eyebrows of Nalan quietly spoke, surrounded by golden symbols, so that the deity really inspired the threat.

“If you want to kill my true spirit, you will die terribly.”

Nalan sneered quietly, the space-time door suddenly opened rumblingly overhead, and there was a horrific light.

The time and space gate, once forcibly drawn out, there will be horrific punishment, which is to destroy the kind of soul that forcibly leads out of time and space gate.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange's face couldn't help but change, this is a time and space robbery.

“Huang, be careful, that's time and space punishment.” Li Luo's vigilant voice came over.

As soon as the words fell, the force of robbery that sprang up from the gate of time and space, the silver torrent rushed across instantly, drowning the bodies of Qin Tiange and Nalan Jingyu.

“Lord!”

Jingshan, Ruby exclaimed, was about to go forward, but was stopped by Li Luo.

The two were in a hurry, because once Qin Tiange died, they would also die together.

“Sister!” Nalan Feiyu was terrified, looking at the terrible power that emerged from the gate of time and space, which was a robbery of time and space.

The robbery from the space-time gate, once a soul is forcibly brought to the space-time gate, it must bear this robbery.

Only when you can withstand it can you hit the space-time door and step into the space-time door to achieve the space-time god.

boom!

The robbery was like a torrent of annihilation and a mighty mass, which instantly wiped out tens of thousands of kilometers of void.

Li Luo waved and rolled out Jingshan and Ruby, and behind them, Nalan Feiyu and two star-level guards fled in horror.

“Ah ... Your Highness rescues me.” A star guard screamed and was dragged back by a robbery.

Seeing this, Nalan Feiyu turned to rescue him, but was pulled back by the guard, holding his hand.

“Do you dare?” Another guard was furious, watching Nalan Feiyu being dragged back, and was about to be involved in the torrent of time and space robbery.

bump!

At this moment, a crystal-clear hand patted his hand through the air, hitting the guard directly into the robbery.

Nalan Feiyu was frightened, escaped from there, and looked iron and angry after escaping.

“He turned out to be a traitor?” Nalan Feiyu’s face was somber that he could not believe that the guards around him were traitors.

This made him angry, no wonder his sister would be so easily taken away. It turned out that not only the star guards around his sister are traitors, but also the guards around him have traitors.

Just now, I was almost involved in it. The guard wanted to use Nalan Feather to block the rear robbery. Unfortunately, Li Luo entered the robbery with the palm of his hand.

“what...”

With a scream, the guard’s body was drowned by the flood of time and space, and the entire body instantly turned into fly ash.

The power of time and space robbery is not that anyone can afford it, but sometimes it can only be afforded by space class.

“Brother Qin will be fine, right?”

At this time, the exited Nalan Feiyu looked at the turbulent torrent of time and space with a grim expression.

The force of robbery came from the gates of time and space, constantly pouring out, stirring all directions, sweeping all things.

Li Luo looked calm, looking at the time and space robberies, looming a strong figure, fighting fiercely there.

boom!

There was a loud noise, and the turbulence was boiling open, revealing two powerful figures inside.

One of them is the demon who led the door of time and space, occupying the shell of Nalan Jingyu, and the other is Qin Tiange.

The two fought fiercely in the robbery of time and space, but they still fought fiercely despite the erosion and erosion of the time and space.

Bang bang bang ...

Figures staggered and kept fighting. There, Qin Tiange waved his fists, each hit with the power of extinction, shook Xinghe, and shattered time and space.

The torrent of time and space is boiling, but it is unable to obliterate his body, but has a meaning to help him refine his body.

In contrast, the demon was beaten back and forth, and the two kept fighting under the gate of time and space.

“How is that possible?” The demon God became more and more frightened, the true spirit was restrained, and it was firmly suppressed and blocked by the ground truth.

It can't do anything to get rid of Nalan Jingyu's shell. The only thing it can do is keep on resisting and kill Qin Tiange.

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange's arrogance is beyond his imagination. At the star level, Qin Tiange is invincible.

“Breaking time and space, you are looking for death!” Qin Tiange drank coldly and punched him over.

With a touch, the devil was robbed and bombarded with a punch, and the golden symbols in the eyebrows flickered constantly.

Gradually, the real spirit of the demon found that his real spirit was imprisoned a little bit, and he could not even exert his original power.

“What is this?” The demon horrified, screaming constantly.

It was scared. Without saying a word, it forcibly broke the space-time robbery, went up against the current, and rushed into the space-time door.

This is to forcibly break the spatiotemporal robbery, rush into the spatiotemporal door, and prove the spatiotemporal level. Only in this way can we get rid of the terrible symbol of suppression and imprisonment of its true spirit.

“Want to testify?” Qin Tiange snorted, stepped forward, broke the endless robbery, and stopped the demon.

Rumble ...

Under the gate of time and space, the two figures fought fiercely, * each other, and constantly colliding, making bursts of terrible sounds.

In the gate of time and space, a wave of robbery turned into a torrent of floods, flooding the heavens.

Outside of Qin Tiange's body, he was eroded by endless robberies and constantly beaten and corroded his body.

The power of time and space turns into robbery, killing two people, trying to destroy them.

Suffering from the bombardment of time and space robbery, two people who can still fight in it, the strength is really shocking.

“Did they already have the ability to step into the realm of space and time?” Nalan Feiyu looked shocked.

Especially when I saw my younger sister, she was taken over by a demon god, which was almost intolerable.

But he was not able to go up, he could only grit his teeth, and watched the two people who were constantly fighting inside.

Qin Tiange's power has not been fully demonstrated, but he does not want to hurt Nalan Jingyu's body, but wants to obliterate the real spirit consciousness of the demon god.

This process is very dangerous. One is not good. You may be involved in the robbery of time and space.

It is not the time and space class of sermons, but it is completely shattered by the space-time door and falls directly.

"Hoo ... get away!"

The devil roared, blasting out a force directly, causing endless magic to surge, turning into a shock and breaking Qin Tiange's block, stepping into the gate of time and space.

When it stepped into the gate of time and space, its breath suddenly skyrocketed, and the breath beyond the main level of the star diffused, causing the positive Black Sea star field to vibrate.

"drink!"

At the same time, Qin Tiange killed him, stepped into it, and waved his fist and hit Nalan Jingyu's back again.

There was a muffled sound, and Nalan was quietly whispering, and was almost knocked out of time and space.

But both of them stepped on the space-time door with one foot, and a force of time and space rolled up, dragging their bodies into the space-time door.

"This is not the time to preach time and space." Qin Tiange's eyes were frozen, and a vast force emerged from his body, bursting out of the restraint of that force and breaking out.

"Ah ..." The demon screamed, with an unwilling roar, was dragged out of the gate of time and space by Qin Tiange Sheng, and his breath died down.

Falling from the gate of time and space The breath is exhausted, and the time and space door that was forcibly printed out gradually becomes unreal, and then disappears.

"Now you can die."

I saw Qin Tiange pressing the heavenly spirit of Nalan Jingyu with a palm, and a golden light emerged into her open space.

There, a terrible demon spirit is roaring, unfortunately, unable to escape the imprisonment suppression of the golden symbol.

"You, you want to erase this seat?"

The demon's true spirit was terrified, and as he watched the sky full of golden symbols, he immediately realized that he might be finished.

Thinking of this, his eyes revealed a savage light, and growled, "Even if I die, it won't let you succeed."

With that said, it will explode the true spirit and destroy everything, but unfortunately, the power of the true character of the earth book is directly suppressed, and its true spirit is completely imprisoned.

"Do not..."

Seeing that his true spirit was suppressed, he couldn't even explode, the real spirit of the demon was really aware of the bad.

Chapter 828 - Funeral time

The real spirit of the demon * saw that he couldn't explode, and his heart was furious and even more terrifying, but it inspired the fierce side of the devil.

"I am dead, and I will drag you to bury time and space together."

A fierce roar came, making Qin Tiange jump heartily, waiting to wipe out the other party's true spirit consciousness.

As I saw, Nalan Jingyu suddenly lighted her heart, the infinite black light diffused, and there was a vigorous and powerful nothingness from the heavenly spirit.

Rumble!

A loud noise came, and above the heads of nothingness, the original hidden space-time door was drawn out again.

But this time is different, the spatio-temporal door with endless looting, turned into a chain of space-time chains coiled towards the two people.

With a buzz, the space-time door vibrates, releasing endless space-time power, turning into a chain of order coiling, locking Qin Tiange and Nalan Jingyu.

This is to bury the space and time. The demon * is a ferocious burial. He directly burials the space and time gate with his true spirit. Even Qin Tiange cannot stop it.

Because funeral, whether or not the true spirit is suppressed, will cause the spatiotemporal door to appear and devour the funeral soul.

"Burning time and space?" Li Luo exclaimed, and immediately set off, rushing out of the world with a shock.

With a bang, a powerful blow could not shake the power of the funeral. Instead, it was frightened by the endless order of time and space.

She changed her face, and reminded, "Hwang, come out soon, that is the power of funeral time and space."

Qin Tiange's expression changed slightly, and he stared at the space-time door above his head solemnly, and that powerful force could not be stopped.

“Funny time and space, you’re ruthless.” Qin Tiange gritted his teeth and said resentfully, making the demon on the other side utter a dreary laughter.

“Hahaha” the devil laughed wildly, and the pretty Nalan whisper became extremely embarrassing, she growled: “It’s all yours. I should have revived my life. You broke my life and bury the space together.”

It’s crazy, even burying time and space directly, that is a self-destructive future, or even self-destructive practice.

Once the true spirit burials space-time, leading to the space-time door, it is tantamount to becoming a complete funeral of space-time.

Wow!

The chain of order flew and coiled around him. Qin Tiange looked serious, felt the blockade of the order of time and space, and felt heavy.

However, instead of panic, he calmly responded and took a step forward, pointing at Nalan Jing’s brows.

There was a squeak and a loud roar, and the real spirit of the devil was unwilling to be wiped out of his consciousness.

“Chaotic elementary, suppress my body!”

Qin Tiange screamed endlessly, and an endless stream of chaos erupted throughout his body. A forceful force broke out from his body, and it was shocking.

Hundreds of black holes erupted in unison, the force of time and space taboos surging, and the body suddenly broke away from the blockade of time and space order.

“go!”

He sighed and broke the time and space blockade of Nalan Jingyu, and led her out of the space and time suppression area.

However, at the next moment, the space-time gate followed the shadow and floated above Qin Tiange’s head, completely unable to escape.

The endless chain of time and space is wavy and coiled down, and the power is stronger, coiling up and blocking Qin Tiange’s whole body.

The powerful tearing force brought him up, and he was to be dragged into the space-time door for burial, and closed and buried inside forever.

“bad!”

There, Li Luo looked tense, watching Qin Tiange blocked again, his eyes revealing an astonishing murderous power.

She was covered with gray chaotic glares, and forceful waves of force swept away, flying Nalan Feiyu and others far away.

Li Luo wanted to start, trying to forcibly break the restraint force of the time and space door from the outside to rescue Qin Tiange.

boom!

One palm splits, nothing breaks, and Crystal Vine breaks the yoke of time and space, and is about to break the restraint of time and space.

But at this time, an endless robbery rushed out of the space-time door, and slammed hard against Li Luo.

Li Luo Qiao's face was cold and her arms were stretched, and her crystal hand continued to chop a series of chaotic glazed lights.

"Li Luo, back off!"

Under the gate of time and space, Qin Tiange scolded and yelled at Luoluo: "The funeral gate of time and space must not be broken by external forces. Once you do, it will lead to the horrible power strangulation inside time and space."

"Imperial, to save you, Li Luo's death is not a pity." Li Luo gritted his teeth, his expression was firm, and he had already determined to die.

Looking at her expression, Qin Tiange's face changed and she screamed angrily, raising her hand to slap it outward.

bump!

Li Luo was directly blown out with a single palm. He never expected that Qin Tiange would hit her with a single palm. A strong blow, although he did not hurt her, knocked her out of the time and space.

"Imperial" Li Luo was sorrowful, looking at Qin Tiange, who was surrounded by the dense space and time order, and was about to rush up.

However, Qin Tiange stared at her with words, saying, "I command you, step away immediately, and take a step forward, you and I will be righteous."

Li Luo's approach moved Qin Tiange, but wasn't it chaotic? If she died, she would be more sad, and the space-time door might not be able to lock him.

Li Luo stopped, and Qiao's face flashed with struggle, but she didn't rush forward anymore.

Bang!

At this time, the endless order flowing from the space-time door locked Qin Tiange's body and slowly pulled into the space-time door.

"Want to bury me, dream!" Qin Tiange roared, and a wave of chaos filled his body.

He waved his hands, splitting thousands of times in an instant, unceasingly chopping off the order of time and space locked on Nalan's body.

Then, Qin Tiange's eyes glowed faintly, seeing through a mysterious change in Nalan Jingyu's body.

"There is nothing out of nowhere, and the true spirit is rebuilt. It turned out to be so." Qin Tiange looked stunned, his mind filled with an epiphany.

He saw Nalan Jingyu's body, and began to emit a new breath of true spirit, which is the true spirit belonging to Nalan Jingyu's body.

The original empty shell had no soul and no spirit, but the real spirit of the demon was wiped out of consciousness by Qin Tiange, and then shattered and scattered into her shell.

At this moment, nourished by the energy of the devil's true spirit, a trace of aura began to emerge inside the cells of Nalan's body.

Yes, that's the breath of the true spirit, allowing Qin Tiange to capture this mystery of being created out of nothing.

Since seeing Nalan whisper, as long as the other party is born with no soul and soul, this kind of thought and plan has been born.

Now, the danger of being buried by the gate of time and space is to peek into the existence of the real spirit and to recreate the new immortal mystery.

The true spirit can be born out of nothing, then it is not possible to live endlessly, even if it is destroyed, it can be rebuilt and reborn or reborn.

"Go out!" Qin Tiange saw all the mysteries, obtained what he wanted, and immediately threw Nalan Jingyu out of the space-time blockade.

boom!

At this point, Nalan's whisper was lost, and all the power of the space-time gate was suppressed by Qin Tiange.

The order of time and space flooded wildly, and the order of time and space pierced Qin Tiange's body. It was transparent inside and outside, and constantly coiled and blocked.

"Imperial!"

"Lord!"

Seeing this, no matter Liluo or Jingshan, Hongyu and others, without exception, looked at Qin Tiange in horror and were pulled into the space-time door a little.

Nalan Feiyu caught her sister, and when she heard the exclaim, she looked up, her face was terrified and shocked.

There, a time-space door, a horrible chain of order constantly flowing through Qin Tiange's body, bound back and forth coiled, dragged into the time-space door.

"No one can bury me!"

Qin Tiange raged in the sky, his strength broke out, and he kept struggling, shaking the iron chains of time and space order.

He sublimated as much as he could, releasing all his powers against the powerful tearing force of time and space.

Quack

Qin Tiange grabbed several large iron chains of time and space with both hands, kept straightening, and gritted his teeth with a deep roar.

Wrestling between the two, the space-time door released endless power to pull the car Qin Tiange's body, to be buried in space-time.

And Qin Tiange's outbreak of extreme power seems like a chaotic black hole is constantly resisting and refuses to enter the gate of time and space.

Huh!

At the juncture of crisis, there was a rush of brow A shocking sword came through nothingness.

It was an ancient sword. It was the ancient sword that had followed Qin Tiange all the way, and suddenly came out on his own.

Click!

The ancient sword penetrated through nothingness and clicked into the space-time door, and the entire sword body was inserted into the space-time door, blocking part of the strong tearing force inside.

But this was not enough. Qin Tiange was still dragged into the space-time door to enter it, and powerful forces burst out, dragging him into the space-time door little by little.

Hum!

The eyebrows shone again, a radiant gush came out, and a quaint seal struck the sky, breaking a chain of order with a click.

It was the seal of Emperor, and a clear word came out: "Master, I will seal the door of time and space for you."

Said, the Emperor's Seal turned into an endless robber, and the rumbling turned into a mighty god's seal sealed on the space-time door, completely blocking the space-time door.

Ancient sword, imperial seal of the people, the two forces together, finally blocked the powerful tearing force of the door of time and space.

Chapter 829 - The secret of blocking, immortality

The space-time door was blocked and the powerful tearing force disappeared. However, Qin Tiange's body was penetrated by dense space-time order, penetrated into the medullary meridians and could not be removed.

"The funeral of time and space is to be a funeral of time and space, unless the door of time and space is broken to achieve the level of time and space." Qin Tiange murmured to the door of time and space blocked by the imperial seal.

On the mysterious gate of time and space, an ancient sword was inserted, and the imperial seal blocked the gate of time and space. Together, the Qin Tiange crisis was finally solved.

But only temporarily, if the door of time and space is not broken, it is tantamount to always having a time bomb over his head.

Moreover, the dense order of time and space runs through Qin Tiange's bone marrow meridians, completely blocking him.

Once the imperial seal and ancient sword cannot block the gate of time and space, Qin Tiange will again be pulled into the gate of time and space and become a time and space funerary.

Unless, he has the ability to smash this space-time door in one fell swoop and step into the space-time level with strength to break the funeral force.

However, all living beings pushed open the space-time door and stepped into the space-time door. I have never heard of anyone who can break the space-time door.

Because the space-time door is extremely mysterious, and no one has ever heard of anyone who can break the space-time door.

“Master, we can only help you block the millennium. If the master can't break the gate of time and space in the millennium, we will bury the space and time with the master.”

There was an ethereal word in the seal of the Emperor. It was the seal of the Emperor. She spoke her limits.

Join forces with the ancient sword to block the space-time door for thousands of years. This is the limit. If Qin Tiange cannot break the space-time door during this period, the three must be buried.

“Rest assured, within a thousand years, I must break the door of time and space.” Qin Tiange said solemnly.

I saw a slight vibration of the Emperor Seal and the Ancient Sword, and a buzzing sound, as the gate of time and space gradually disappeared into nothingness and disappeared.

However, in Qin Tiange's body, the dense chain of time and space order still locked his body. Once these order chains were triggered, the door of time and space would be drawn out.

Wow!

The densely coiled chain of order gradually disappeared with the door of time and space, not disappearing, but in his body.

Seeing this, Li Luo was finally relieved, but he was a bit heavy. Although Qin Tiange temporarily avoided being pulled into the space-time door for burial, he was still in danger.

“Huang, are you okay?” Li Luo flashed forward and looked at Qin Tiange with a worried look.

Looking at Li Luo worried, Qin Tiange shook his head and smiled: "It's okay, don't worry, one day I will break this time and space door."

"I hope so!" Li Luo sighed in his heart, this is difficult, no one has ever broken the door of time and space.

Looking at the hidden space-time gate, Qin Tiange sighed in his heart, he could clearly sense the existence of the space-time gate, even the ancient sword inserted in the space-time gate and the seal of the person who blocked the space-time gate.

Without these two forces, Qin Tiange himself cannot really get rid of the tearing force of time and space.

"There's a lot of noise here, let's leave before we talk."

Qin Tiange watched Nalan Feiyu, who was rushing, and others whispered, he must leave here.

Just such a huge movement has already attracted the attention of other fierce pirates in the Black Sea, and many pirate leaders are coming here.

"go!"

Speaking, Qin Tiange spewed a black particle inside his body, enclosing the crowd, instantly penetrated into the space, directly implemented the space jump, broke through the Black Sea star field, and left here.

Even though his body was locked by the order of time and space, it did not affect his ability to play, but it was more difficult to mobilize the power of time and space.

As soon as they had just left, there were gigantic interstellar fortresses surrounding the empty starry sky, where the magic star was originally, there was nothing.

"What happened here?"

"Where is Thousands of Magic Stars?"

The strong men who arrived were all the fierce gangsters in the Black Sea, all of whom were powerful and did not lose thousands of demons.

These people, looking at the disappearing Thousands of Magic Stars, were shocked one by one, speculating in horror what happened.

Unfortunately, everything here was wiped out by the robbery from the gate of time and space. The atmosphere of Qin Tiange and others was never left behind.

What happened here became an unsolved mystery, the thousand magic stars disappeared mysteriously, and the thousand magic fiends broke down.

At this point, leaving the range of the Black Sea, Qin Tiange and others came to an area of stars, here, already close to the central continent of the fairy galaxy.

"Brother Qin, thanks to you this time, otherwise I can't rescue my sister."

On a starry sky, in a royal battleship, Nalan Feiyu sincerely thanked Qin Tiange.

Without him, maybe not only his sister was taken away this time, he would even be buried under the ambush of Qian Mou Kou.

“Thank you for your help, you have said a hundred times or more.” Qin Tiange shook his head with a smile.

He glanced at the sleeping Nalan whispering there, his eyes flickered, and he suddenly reminded: “Brother Feiyu, your sister’s soul has been made up, I destroyed that demon spirit, and made up her soul. Maybe, she Wake up soon. “ “Really?” Nalan Feiyu was startled, then exulted, and looked at his sister Nalan quietly.

His younger sister, born with a lack of soul, was foolish with one finger, not even aura.

This made the entire Nalan royal family upset and upset. Unexpectedly, his sister was able to recover after being robbed today.

“Brother Qin, don’t say a lot, your kindness to my Nalan royal family, I will not forget, I will faithfully report my father to the emperor.” Nalan Feiyu solemnly saluted.

He truly realized that Qin Tiange’s power, that kind of power, destroying the true spirit of the demon god, and even resisting the funeral of time and space, is definitely not something that ordinary people can do.

Qin Tiange smiled and said nothing. When everyone came back, they met the royal princes and queens who came to watch the show, but unfortunately they couldn’t see the wonderful show.

“Well, now that I’m here, I’ll go back to rest first.”

It didn’t take long before finally returning to the mainland. Qin Tiange filed a resignation. With Liluo and Jingshan, the three jadeites returned to the Nine Fairy Realms of the Fairy Tribe.

Returning to his own Xianfu, Qin Tiange let Jingshan and Ruby go to rest, only then released the Pangu seal and blocked the entire Xianfu.

“Hwang, what did you find?”

In the Pangu seal, Li Luopan sat opposite Qin Tiange and looked at him with a serious look.

I saw, Qin Tiange’s eyebrows flickered, and a ray of light burst out, immersed in Li Luo’s eyebrows.

He slowly said, “I have seen a glimpse of the immortality of the true spirit. You realize it, and I want to see it.”

Speaking, he sinks directly into the mind, and the true spirit sinks into the kind of comprehension that he had before.

For the immortality of the true spirit, Qin Tiange has learned a real meaning from Nalan Jingyu’s body.

The mystery of being born out of nothing and recreating the true spirit is exactly the immortal true meaning of the true spirit that he realized.

“Being born out of nothing, recreating the true spirit, even if the body is broken and the true spirit is broken up, it can be born again.”

There was a murmur in Qin Tiange’s consciousness, and then he saw his soul will suddenly converge, turned into a towering giant, and stood in the chaotic world of the chaotic elementary birth.

“San!”

With a low drink, the 100,000-foot tall soul body suddenly broke into pieces, turning into endless small points, and merging into every cell of the body.

Qin Tiange realizes the mystery of the real spirit, the soul regeneration, directly dissipates his arrogant soul will, and integrates into every cell of the body.

There, each ray of light gradually integrated, began to take shape in the cell, and gradually evolved a new soul.

One cell and one soul, if the transformation is completed, Qin Tiange’s will will be unparalleled transformation and promotion, and it can even be said to have reached the level of immortality Even if the body is broken, as long as it remains By holding a cell, you can reunite and come back with this cell.

Perhaps this is the true meaning of immortality.

Hum!

As the soul’s will flow into every cell of the body, a strange buzz came from Qin Tiange’s body, and the breath became more mysterious.

At this moment, Qin Tiange seemed to feel different. No matter the body or soul level, even the true spirit had an inexplicable transformation and sublimation.

“It turns out that this is immortality?”

Qin Tiange slowly opened his eyes, and two beams of gray light were diffused, just facing Li Luo who woke up, and the two looked at each other and smiled, and they both obtained this mysterious transformation and sublimation.

“Lord, Lord Lord, please.”

At this moment, a clear word came from outside the seal, which was Cai Yun’s voice, which made Qin Tiange’s eyes blink, slowly got up and went out with Li Luo.

Chapter 830 - Fairy's invitation, civilization competition

The endless sea of clouds is boiling, the sky is filled with rays of light, the immortals are breathless, and they are intertwined into a fairyland that looks like illusion.

This is the Nine Fairy World of the Fairy Nation. On the ninth floor, huge fairy islands float above the clouds, and there are palaces in groups, looming.

There, there was a vaguely strong breath, extremely vague, if you didn't sense it carefully, you wouldn't find it.

Qin Tiange was led down here by a maid, looking calm, and walking up a ladder.

Around, there are clouds of colorful clouds, dancing constantly, like a fairy in the clouds dancing.

He looked at the top of the clouds in the distance. Inside those islands, there was a terrible atmosphere.

Those are the breath of the strong, there are a lot of them, so Qin Tiange guessed that they should be the strong of the fairies, offerings and the like.

“Sir, please ...”

At this moment, the maid leading the way stopped in front of a towering and magnificent Xiandian.

This immortal hall is grand and magnificent. The whole body is made of immortal jade.

Stepping on the jade steps, Qin Tiange thought secretly, why did the master of the fairy invite himself here?

“Sir, here you are, please go in by yourself, and Lord Xianzhu is waiting for you inside.” The maid stopped outside Xiangong and said respectfully.

Qin Tiange bowed his head and didn't say much, stepped into this fairy palace where Xianmang was circulating.

As soon as you entered the imperial palace, you felt a swaying breath, as if an emperor was located deep in the imperial palace.

That's not the breath that was deliberately emitted, but a mighty power revealed by the instinct of autonomy.

“Half-step space-time level, interesting.” Ye Qing squinted his eyes, looking at a figure on the hall.

The man was hidden in the mist of fairy light, invisible and hazy, giving an extremely mysterious and powerful feeling.

Both were looking at each other. The immortal trembled in his heart. From the moment Qin Tiange walked in, he looked carefully, but the more he saw the more he couldn't see through.

Qin Tiange's body is surrounded by a gray chaotic mist, like a super black hole, devouring endless light, even if the eye light is inhaled and cannot escape.

“Is a strong!” The immortal master determined at first glance that Qin Tiange was a strong who was not weaker than her, and there was even more mystery.

Qin Tiange is different. A master of the Nine Fairy World, the master of the fairy, turned out to be a half-step time-space powerhouse.

The power of the Supreme Overlord Fairy, the Fairy Nebula, is certainly beyond imagination.

“My name is Xianer. Brother Qin can just call me Xianer. This is my responsibility. The last time I was Tang Tu, I always wanted to apologize to you in person. I just saw you coming back today, so I asked you to come and tell me Please forgive me. “

After a long silence, the immortal master finally spoke, and dispersed a mist of fairy light that he shrouded.

Gradually, the immortal light disappeared, revealing the perfect glamorous, peerless peerless shadow.

Fenghua peerless, unique in the world!

Qin Tiange had to give a secret praise. It is indeed fairies, and they are called fairies, which is not unreasonable.

The fairy, born with colorful apertures, was born noble, and was a royal queen with a high bloodline.

“Sit!” Fairy smiled slightly, and with a slight wave of his hand, the hall immediately changed its appearance, and directly turned into a void pavilion, relying on the surrounding stars, and Yunxia flying around.

Qin Tiange smiled. Since the other party showed his true face, he could not lose his politeness.

Wow ... the chaos dissipated, revealing Qin Tiange’s true face, and at the first glance at him, Xianer’s eyes glowed with radiance.

“Big Brother Qin is truly extraordinary and heroic. It is rare in the world. He was offended the other time. He asked Big Brother Hai Han.” Xianer said with a look of admiration.

Qin Tiange shook his head, sitting slowly opposite, smiling with a smile: “Girl Fairy speaks heavily, so trivial matters, but a misunderstanding.”

“It’s a trivial matter for you, but it’s a matter of credibility and credibility for me as a whole.” Xianer looked solemnly, then poured a glass of immortal, and hands up.

“Brother Qin please!” Xian’er looked at him with a bright smile.

Qin Tiange smiled and took the drink and drank it. It was a smile of gratitude and enmity. The previous peep and unpleasantness were exposed.

Putting down the glass, Qin Tiange smiled and asked, “I don’t know what the fairy girl asked me to do, wouldn’t she just apologize?”

“Of course, this is just one of them. Brother Qin can’t be surprised.” Xian’er admitted generously.

She said with a smile: “In fact, please come, in addition to apologizing for the recklessness before, there is one more thing, and I want to ask Brother Qin for help.”

“Oh? Would you like to hear the details!” Qin Tiange’s eyes flashed, and the immortal master sighed with a big brother.

People who don’t understand thought the two had a deep friendship, but in fact, the two really met for the first time.

Seeing her lowering her posture makes people feel unpretentious, as if it is natural, giving a kind of intimacy.

I have to say that no one of the royal family is simple.

Xian’er’s eyes flashed and she smiled: “That’s the case. Recently, a civilized and ethnic exchange event will be held on the mainland. Xian’er wants to invite Brother Qin to participate as Xian’s ally. What’s the matter?”

“Civilization and ethnic exchange event, allies?” Qin Tiange said to himself, looking at Xianer’s sincere eyes, secretly shocked.

It was weird that she ran to ask herself, and soon Qin Tiange understood, apparently speaking the information from the Milky Way to this ear.

Sure enough, Xianer chuckled: “Brother Qin is from the Milky Way, and this comes from the royal club.”

Qin Tiange bowed his head and didn’t care. He had expected it. Seeing his indifferent expression, Xianer flashed a surprise in his heart.

She immediately laughed: “Brother Qin, I don’t know what Xianer’s proposal is, of course, it doesn’t let you leave empty-handed, and you get half the benefits, and I personally give Brother Qin some benefits.”

“Three days later, there will be a grand auction, where you can choose whatever Brother Qin wants, as long as you see it, it is free.” Xianer said with a domineering voice.

That kind of grandeur really surprised Qin Tiange by three points, and even dared to say that what he wanted to see was given to him for free.

This ceremony was a bit heavy, letting Qin Tiange know in his heart that the so-called civilized race exchange event is not so simple.

He held a wine glass and lost his thoughts. The so-called grand event of civilization here must hide the mystery that he does not understand. If the human race wants to rise, he must understand it clearly.

“Okay, I promised.” Qin Tiange groaned for a moment and directly agreed.

This made Xianer Qiao’s face slightly happy, a flash of joy flashed in her pupils, and soon returned to normal.

She smiled and thanked her: "Thank you Brother Qin, Xianer thanked him in advance, as long as Brother Qin looked at anything and treasure here, even the fairy girl of my fairy genre, he could give it to Brother Qin for free."

Seeing her like this, Qin Tiange was more certain that the cultural exchange event was very important, otherwise, Xianer wouldn't ask herself this way.

As for why he was asked, maybe because he couldn't see through his strength, or even because he knew a little bit of his strength.

These are not important. What Qin Tiange wants is to understand the exchanges and struggles between civilizations, and to find a way for people to rise from it.

"You don't have to do this. When you leave, you can just inform me." Qin Tiange shook his head and refused, saying this.

Instead, let Xianer look a little higher in her heart. This young man who looks like a human race is covered with thick fog all over her body. If she hadn't taken the initiative to disperse a fog to show people.

Maybe she couldn't see through Qin Tiange's true body, and this was the sincerity to be treated with sincerity.

"Okay, that fairy will give a little message to Brother Qin." Xianer agreed with a smile.

Next, the two talked about heaven and earth, and each wanted more information and secrets from each other.

This chat was one day. In the evening, Qin Tiange finally got up and left, leaving Jiuzhongtian.

"Mysterious youth from the galaxy, what race are you?"

In the sky of Nine Heavys In front of Xiangong, Xianer stared at Qin Tiange after leaving, thinking to himself and lost in thought.

She didn't see what kind of race Qin Tiange was. She came from the galaxy, but she had a mysterious atmosphere and couldn't see through.

"I don't know. Can our tribe dominate this term?"

Xianer looked worriedly at Yunxia in front of her, anxious, and the fairy genre looked at the domineering fairy galaxy, but the crisis was perilous, and a bad one would fall down directly.

This is also after the start of this civilization exchange event, the fairy maiden began to gather some strong people in the Quartet, preparing to participate in this competition of civilization overlords, to ensure that the hegemony status is not lost.

The competition of civilized races has always been  and cruel, but this way is extremely rare.

At this point, Qin Tiange left Jiuzhongtian and immediately returned to his own fairy house, where he saw two figures waiting.

"Brother Qin, you are back."

One person came face to face, it was Nalan Feiyu, and the one next to him made Qin Tiange different. It was Nalan's whisper. She was awake.
