

Dark Ages 84

Chapter 84 - Pick up the train?

“what?”

“Let us get off?”

News conveyed that everyone on the train was frying pans, one after another arguing constantly, crunching in horror in the corner of the compartment, just refusing to get out of the car.

Just kidding, why are you getting out of the car so scary outside? What’s more unacceptable to them is that this group of people told them to get off the train together and carry the train forward.

I carried the train forward, and they heard it right, that’s what Moda and others said. Everyone got out of the car, lifted the train together, and then walked through the damaged railway.

“Your brains are rusted?”

Someone dissatisfied and cursed: “How heavy is the train, can we people lift it?”

“Just, don’t think we are afraid of you, how heavy is the train?”

A carriage, with a weight of tens or hundreds of tons, and a full nine carriages, can these people lift up? Just kidding internationally. When you hear these words, these people first want to laugh, then they scold a bunch of stupid pigs.

I carried the train over, but they wanted to come up with this idea. Who would be able to carry a train of hundreds of tons?

On the train, the number of survivors alive, except Qin Tiange, this hundred people, although there are still more than two hundred people, but you have to lift the train, do not dream.

“Don’t get out of the car?” Moda stared at the group and grinned suddenly. His smile was like a demon, inexplicably chilling.

Moda’s smile converged, and Han said, “Give you three seconds to consider. Whoever doesn’t get out of the car, throw it away.”

“three two...”

I began to count. Hundreds of people in the carriage began to be scared. Watching Moda and others came forward with a knife and a shield, each one showed a murderous look, showing a slight smile.

At this time, most people start getting off the bus. There is no way. The situation is better than people. If they don’t get off the bus, they may encounter bad things.

However, there are still a small number of diehards who don’t want to get out of the car and live or die. They don’t believe what Moda dared to do to them.

“It’s time, all dropped without getting off the car.” Moda said expressionlessly.

After speaking, he took the lead in front of a young man, grabbed each other’s clothes and lifted them.

“Don’t, don’t, brother, don’t throw it, I’ll go down.” The young man wanted to resist, but when he was lifted up, he immediately extinguished the fire and begged for mercy.

Moda chuckled, hehe said, “I want to go on my own, it’s late.”

boom!

The young man’s body was thrown out of the car door, and he was thrown on the ground fiercely. He made a bitter howl, and scared the person who was still seated and ran out of the car immediately. The speed was called fast.

I didn’t run, but I was thrown out. This group of humans was very discouraged. They were a bit different from humans. They were just demons in human skin.

“Damn, I’m the mayor’s secretary, how dare you treat me this way?” A middle-aged man shouted and was carried by a boy to the door of the car.

I heard him yell, the boy hesitated, and then he laughed and said, “How about cheating a ghost, even if the mayor is here, you must obediently get off the bus, you?”

“Come on!”

With a bang, the middle-aged man, who claimed to be the mayor’s secretary, was immediately thrown down, and said tossed and thrown away. As long as he didn’t get out of the car, both men and women were thrown away.

In the crowd, Yin Yin took her mother’s hand and looked up and asked, “Mom, why do we get off the car, do we really want to take the train and go?”

Uh!

The young mother froze and didn’t know how to answer. Could she say it was impossible? Look at her three-year-old daughter, Yin Yin, who is three times stronger than an adult. What kind of change is this?

Everyone got out of the car, one by one, looking at a young man who was walking down in fear, he was the brother Qin, who was said by Moda, and the leader of the team.

“Listen, the kilometer track in front of the train has been damaged, we must carry the train in the past, put it away, and continue to take the train to enter the Shenzhen city.” Qin Tiange said this.

His sharp eyes swept everyone, and then he said, “Of course, you can not listen. Of course, you must walk into Shenzhen City on foot. I don’t know what will happen during this period.”

“According to the map information, here near Longhua Qinghu Park, to enter the deep city center area, you must pass through the siege of countless zombies, and even be blocked by mutants. Do you think clearly?”

After I finished speaking, Qin Tiange stopped talking, so I watched this group of people quietly. More than 250 people, men and women gathered there, talking like a grocery market.

“Just a joke, can we lift the train?” Someone looked upset and looked at Qin Tiange like a fool.

Even if they are stronger than ordinary people and very powerful, it is impossible to lift the train, right? Everyone didn't believe it. Naturally they refused. Carrying the train, it was funny to be overwhelmed.

“We don't have the energy. If you want to lift, then come by yourself, we just look at it.”

At this time, someone said these words. It was a middle-aged man with eyes, apparently the man who claimed to be the mayor's secretary just now.

Qi Qin Tiange glanced at the other party and stopped paying attention, but looked at other people. Only a small number of people stood out reluctantly and expressed their willingness to help.

Among them, Yin Yin's mother came out with Yin Yin. After all, in her opinion, it was safer to follow Qin Tiange, a group of mysterious and powerful people, and it was nothing to listen to.

“Wang Feng, go.”

Two young soldiers came out and agreed to come up to help, and also wanted to see if they could lift the train.

In fact, the two had a faint guess in their hearts. Qin Tiange did this in order to clearly distinguish among those who could use and who could not.

All the people who stood up could be used. As for those who didn't move or even scolded them, they had been labeled as unusable or even abandoned.

Yeah, that's just being abandoned!

Moda and others watched more than half of them still, and still whispered in situ, some even scolded. They look at these people with some pity, and those who don't know the situation are not qualified to live in the last days.

What kind of person is Qin Tiange? This one is not only ruthless, but also deeply thoughtful. Everything he does is well thought out, and even implies a lot of meanings.

For example, now, it is said that everyone is working together to carry the train forward But there is not no temptation in it. You have to see how many of these people can use.

Sure enough, when I saw more than 250 people, there were only more than 80 people coming out. The rest did not come out, but stood there watching the joke.

Humph!

Qi Qin Tiange sneered at the corner of his mouth, and secretly muttered, “It's not that I don't give you a chance, but the opportunity is in front of you but I don't know how to cherish it, so no wonder I am.”

“Everyone backs up, forms a formation, defends in place!”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange waved and issued such an order, so that everyone in the scene stayed still.

I haven't waited for them to react. Moda and others reacted first, and immediately raised the shield and surrounded a group of people over Qin Tiange to form the sword shield wall.

In the middle, there was a long line of people standing in the back. At the back, the girl carried a steel crossbow, with a vigilant look, without doubting the authenticity of Qin Tiange's words.

Roar...

Suddenly, a terrifying roar came around, terrifying, and scared everyone present.

Zombies were crowded and countless zombies appeared. As soon as the train stopped, a huge number of zombies on the outskirts of the suburb were immediately alerted, and came towards this side.

"Zombies, zombies, run back to the carriage ..."

There was a panic scream from the crowd, and they ran back to the carriage, but they found that the carriage door was closed and they wanted to open from the outside, their ordinary people's power was simply impossible.

The only way to enter the car is behind Qin Tiange and others. There is the back car where the train is broken. Only here can you enter the train.

"Come forward, kill!"

I watched the crowd panic, and it was going to be shocked. Qin Tiange coldly issued this order, and everyone who hit them was shot and killed.
