

Dark Ages 85

Chapter 85 - Chaos, advance

“Zombies are here!”

“Run!”

A group of people became confused and screamed in fear, attracting the attention of the nearby zombies and immediately raging.

Here, near an industrial park, there are many factories and crowded people. Many people have become zombies and wandered around after the last-day disaster.

When Xun chose to come to Shenzhen, Qin Tiange already counted the zombie piles here, because in the previous life, this was the occupied area.

Yes, in the previous life, Shenzhen was the occupied area, where zombies were the most, because before the disaster, it was one of the most densely populated cities, with factories all over the place and a large number of migrant workers.

Hoo ... Hoo!

The corpses snarled, and zombies began to appear, coming from all directions, all attracted by the movement of the train, smelling the lively atmosphere of the crowd, and immediately rioted.

I watched a horrible zombie appear, and the crowd was frightened, screaming to run back to the train, but unfortunately, the train door was already closed before getting off the train.

“Hurry up, smash the car door!” Someone picked up a nearby stone and smashed the car door, one by one, nervousness and fear broke out. Amazing power broke out, and they really smashed the car door.

When I saw these people rushing back to the carriage, Qin Tiange looked cold and stared at these chaotic crowds, and couldn't help flashing a killer in his heart.

“A bunch of waste, panic screaming will lead to more zombies.” He snorted, and then confessed everyone to defend in situ, rushed into the compartment, and came to the luxury compartment to collect his pot of mutant lotus.

These plants can be collected in the space bracelet. Once the space bracelet is collected, the mutant lotus will fall into a dormant state, and it will wither and die after a long time.

But fortunately, there are crystal nuclei as energy nutrients for the lotus to absorb, so there is no need to worry about the death of the lotus in the space bracelet, this is the powerful vitality of the mutant lotus.

Moreover, the dormant mutant lotus will accelerate the absorption of energy from the nucleus as a nutrient, and grow and evolve faster.

He did this because he knew in his heart that the train could no longer keep up, more and more zombies came near him, and a dense siege had formed. It was impossible to rely on the train to defend it.

The only way is to kill them, otherwise, sooner or later, they will be drowned by the zombies.

“Tian Ge, there are more and more zombies, we must find a way, otherwise we will all be buried here.”

I received the mutant lotus, and just as I jumped out of the car, Liu Ye came up anxiously and said the news.

Nearby, more and more zombies, a large crowd of people have returned to the compartment, only the group of Qin Tiange is still in place, if Moda and others are on the perimeter guards, more than 80 ordinary people in the middle have long been confused Already.

“I can’t keep it here, we must kill it!”

Qi Qin Tiange quickly swept around, and saw a crowd of people shaking, gathered quickly, he knew that those were zombies, and they had already been surrounded.

Industrial zone is not good. There are too many people. If you don’t kill it in time, it may be buried in this terrible zombie city.

“Everyone, take the weapons and kill them together. We will not protect anyone, but if you want to survive, take up the weapons and follow them.” Qin Tiange swept the ordinary survivors, straightforward, and thrown away A bunch of weapons like steel knives.

The next moment, regardless of these people, Qin Tiange took Moda, Yang Xiaolin, Liu Yan, Long Xiaoya and others to leave the place directly and quickly, leaving only a group of people who looked at each other with fear.

“Go, let’s keep up!”

Two young fighters, the king of wind, were the fastest. One picked up two steel knives and quickly followed. Later, many people came to their senses, immediately picked up the steel knife, and quickly followed.

The majority of these 80 people are young men, a small number of women, and a few children.

They saw Qin Tiange taking someone away and panicked immediately, picking up weapons one by one to follow immediately, for fear of being abandoned.

As for the group of people hiding on the train, they were forgotten or abandoned by Qin Tiange.

“They went away?”

“Damn, why don’t they protect us?”

I saw Qin Tiange and they left. The people running back to the train panicked. Some even scolded and blamed Qin Tiange for not protecting them.

Some people even cursed them, and it was better to die in the zombies. At this time, Qin Tiange took people away, and the tail of the train was vacated, allowing the rushing zombies to climb up from here.

Roar...

“Ah ... the zombies are here!”

“Run!”

On the train, more than 180 people panicked, screamed, and turned into a mass. Some people have to run, and some people just close the carriage doors.

Some people curled up in the corner and even rushed into the cockpit to close the door.

“Ah ...” Zombies rushed in, plunged into the crowd, and began to bite directly. Each survivor was bitten by blood and brutality, and screamed in horror before death.

As more and more people were thrown and bitten, the  smell permeated and attracted more zombies, and the entire train was surrounded by zombies.

“Save me, save me ...”

A woman was lying on the window of the car, and the two zombies flew left and right behind her. She could only slap the window, screaming in horror, and gradually, blood splattered on the window, and soon Fell to the ground and was bitten and devoured.

I was terrified, the chaotic crowd was completely desperate, and zombies continued to flow in, more and more surrounded by trains, drowning the trains in the sea of corpses.

下 Under the overpass behind the train track, a group of people killed here. The leading Qin Tiange slashed a zombie slashed, and then looked back at the train.

“You see, those people won’t end well.” His words were very flat, but made the more than 80 survivors who followed them panic.

I was so scary. It only took a few minutes just to stop the train and get off the crowd. It was so scary to attract so many zombies.

Here is an industrial park with many factories, a particularly dense migrant population, and the largest number of zombies. Otherwise, the previous Shenzhen city would not be the first city to be occupied.

“Train conductor, will you drive the subway?” Qin Tiange turned suddenly, looking at the trainer who was breathing heavily and asked.

The latter heard it and hesitated for a moment, but nodded and affirmed, “Of course it will be I can drive as long as there is a train, you mean, let’s go to the subway station?”

“Yes!” Qin Tiange nodded and admitted that there was indeed such a plan. It was supposed to quietly carry the train through the damaged track, but now it seems to be unworkable.

The only way to do that is to choose another way to leave. You can find some cars to travel, so driving to the deep city center, but this is very difficult.

Suddenly, I suddenly thought of a problem, looked at the map taken from the train, and found that there is a subway line No. 4 to Shenzhen, which is not far from here.

“Go, we must go to Qinghu Metro Station, which is the No. 4 subway line leading to the city center of Shenzhen.” Finally, taking a look at the train surrounded by countless zombies, Qin Tiange turned and walked away.

A group of people looked at the train drowned by countless zombies. They had a lot of embarrassment. They were pale and silent, and they were glad to have followed them. Otherwise, it is estimated that they were bitten by the zombies.

Moda followed Qin Tiange’s left, Qiqi walked to the right, behind, Yang Xiaolin took the long-sought, Liu Yan, Long Xiaoya took the girl’s steel crossbowman, and the team gradually formed.

“Tiange, I seem to remember that there is a five-star Wiener Hotel in front of us. It would be better to go there and take a break first. After all, it’s going to be dark.”

At this time, Wu Xinlan stepped up quickly, and gently proposed this proposal in Qin Tiange’s ear. She is still familiar with the terrain and environment here. She often runs around with trains, and is still familiar with the surroundings of Shenzhen City. There is a Wiener Hotel here, she remembers.

“It’s okay!” Looking at the sky, Qin Tiange agreed with her proposal, waved a knife and chopped a zombie corpse in front of him, and led the team, rushing towards a five-star hotel in front of Wu Xinlan.
