

Dark Ages 90

Chapter 90 - the enemy will arrive in the field in 30 seconds

The team is separated, each team is eighteen, and there are ten teams, each team is responsible for the first floor of the hotel.

Qin Tiange was not at all worried about those who brought him out of the school, each of whose physical qualities were at least ten times that of an adult.

He took ten people and took the elevator directly to the top floor of the hotel. There is the most luxurious top-level aerial presidential suite in the entire hotel, the most luxurious and luxurious floor.

On the top floor, there is not only a private swimming pool, but also private ballrooms, restaurants, and ordinary people cannot come here for consumption.

“Then, Jiuye is on the top floor. The elevator can’t go directly to the tenth floor, but there are dozens of thugs there, and they have guns in their hands.”

In the elevator, Ying Mo, the beautiful chef, whispered the news she knew, and showed them the way for Qin Tiange. She hated the group of Jiuye.

If Qin Tiange hadn’t arrived in time, it is likely that she was violated by the big man. While invading or even forcing her to cook, the pervert really shouldn’t be alive.

“Kiki, Liu Yan, wait to see people, no matter who they are, as long as they have a weapon, shoot me on the spot, without hesitation.” Qin Tiange suddenly gave a faint command.

Behind him, Liu Yan was shocked, his face was normal, and he nodded, not saying that he was clear. In fact, she was very uncomfortable, holding the steel crossbow with both hands, and the killing power in her eyes was getting stronger and stronger.

I’m cannibal. She has only seen it in news newspapers before, and she has seen it in movies, but she never thought that she would see such a terrible scene in person.

It is difficult for her to imagine why these people have become so scary. Is she so hungry that she really cares nothing and can kill and eat similar food?

I have the courage, why not go out to hunt zombies, or even go out to find food? You know, even in small cities, there are retail shops and supermarkets everywhere. There is still food in them. How can people start eating in the last few days?

Ding...

The elevator climbed rapidly, and the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth floors stopped at the ninth floor. It turned out that someone on the ninth floor wanted to go down.

With a click, the elevator door opened, and five shirtless men outside were whispering and laughing, walking into the elevator with a smile.

“We went down to take the buns and ate them, and we were starving.”

“I want to eat grilled meat, that taste is too fragrant, especially the child’s meat is crispy and tender, it tastes particularly delicious ...”

“No, I just ate a child yesterday ...”

Uh!

Outside the elevator, the five joking men came in, but they were speechless in the next moment. Because a sharp steel arrow flew out of the elevator, the five were shot into a hedgehog on the spot.

Qiu Liuxu was holding a steel crossbow, angry and irritable. She just heard it very clearly that these five people didn’t even let the children go, they were just demons.

“Damn, kill!”

She stomped a few feet hard, pulled out the steel arrows, and after quickly packing, dragged the body into the elevator. After closing the door, the elevator continued to rise, the tenth floor.

In the elevator, the atmosphere was dignified and depressing. Liu Yan and Qiqi’s girls looked cold and almost burst into fire in their eyes.

They heard that these people even killed their children and couldn’t believe it. For women, children are their treasures. How can they endure that their hearts are full of motherhood and love?

“Tiange, you must kill them all, kill them!” Liu Ye looked a little embarrassed, as if a demon had been released from his heart, Qin Tiange frowned slightly.

伸 He reached out and slammed, and the heavy pressure on his shoulders suddenly awakened Liu Ye, and he was frightened by the cold sweat.

Qi Qin Tiange frowned and warned: “Be careful to control your emotions, don’t be controlled by the killing in your heart, otherwise you will be sad later.”

“I’m sorry, I’m so angry, I will pay attention, thank you.” Liu Yan took a deep breath, calmed down the murderous heart in his heart, and thanked Qin Tiange for his thanks.

Ding!

When the tenth floor arrived, the elevator doors slowly opened, revealing a row of people, each holding a gun and aiming at the elevator.

“Kill!” Almost as soon as the elevator door opened, Qin Tiange gave a low drink and the person had disappeared. I saw a group of people on the opposite side suddenly appeared confused, one after another, their heads flew and rolled, and the screams were killed before they could be called.

When I saw this, several boys rushed out with their shields, waved their steel knives, and went straight into the crowd.

“what...”

“Shoot, shoot!”

“Hurry up and report to Jiu Ye, an enemy sneaks in.”

There were more than a dozen bad guys screaming. Someone roared and raised a gun to shoot. As a result, a steel arrow pierced his brows and died on the spot.

These people, before waking up from the horror, ushered in a horrific blow from Qin Tiange and others, and started a one-sided killing.

Someone saw that the machine was wrong, and immediately ran away, and Liu Yan just wanted to shoot an arrow, but he was too late to let him run away and turned to the top floor.

“Damn, run away!” She was indignant and raised her feet to catch up, but was stopped by Qin Tiange.

He looked at the ninth floor and looked at the entrance of the stairs. He felt that a squad had come up from the stairs. Sure enough, he saw a squad of eighteen people within a few moments.

“Brother Qin!” The squad arrived, and immediately came to report, each one a little ashamed on his face, even a step slower.

Qi Qin Tiange nodded slightly and ordered: “You clear the ninth floor, come to me on the top floor when you are done.”

He said, he took people directly to the top, from the corridor to the top floor, the hotel’s top presidential suite.

It is extremely luxurious here, and there is even a private helicopter berth, which makes one have to wonder whether it is a private luxury venue?

Uh ...

On the top floor, two bodyguards carried a small punch and brought a man and a woman. The young woman was beautiful, panicked, and clenched the young man’s hand tightly with some fear.

“Jiu Ye, here you are!”

One of the bodyguards bowed slightly in front of the swimming pool. Around the pool, three steps, one post, and five steps and one whistle. All were bodyguards in black, all holding guns, all were submachine guns.

At this time, in the swimming pool, a middle-aged person is swimming, without any rush, slowly swimming to the shore.

This man’s national character face, with a banhu, and his eyes revealing a yin, shuddering. This person’s name is unknown, and his nickname is Jiu Ye.

“Nie Teng, think about it, do you mix with me or resist?”

A * beauty in a bikini came holding a towel. Jiuye wiped the water on her face and asked gently.

Xie Nieteng, the young man who was brought up, had a beautiful face, but his eyes were extremely bright, especially his calm and murderous eyes, which made people dare not belittle them.

叫 His name is Nie Teng, and the young girl beside him is his girlfriend. Originally he and his girlfriend were playing here, but the end came, and countless zombies were eating people, and the scene was horrible.

He was lucky, and encountered a stone tablet that fell from the sky, so that he knew the secret of the stone tablet, hunted a few zombies, obtained brain crystals and exchanged a quenching agent, which improved his physical fitness.

But, just once he was going out alone, hunting more zombies, and exchanging a potion for his girlfriend to improve his strength, Jiuye came and caught his girlfriend.

Fortunately, he returned in time, otherwise his girlfriend would be miserable, but now it is not good. Jiuye saw that he had powerful power, more than three times that of an ordinary adult, and immediately healed his mind.

It's a pity that he arrived late, and the stone stele disappeared the next day because five days had passed, which led Jiuye to just exchange some guns and ammunition, as well as a quenching agent, to strengthen himself.

"Now, there are two ways for you. One is to follow me. It's good for you to be delicious and spicy. Second, I kill you and train your girlfriend as a slave. You choose it yourself." Jiuya said lightly. Such a sentence.

Giggle!

Xie Nieteng's fists squealed and stared at Jiuya with a stern face, beside him, four submachine guns muzzled against his brain. Once he said nothing, he was really dead.

"Want me to kill you and eat people with you? You were dreaming ..." Nie Teng suddenly showed a disdainful mockery.

He held his girlfriend's little hand in one hand and hummed, "No matter how bad I am, Nie Teng will not eat the same kind. You are not worthy of being a man and you are not worthy to let me follow you."

"Kill if you want to kill, big deal to fight a dead net break." Nie Teng's face was hard, not convinced.

Grandpa Jiu laughed, and the grinning smile almost froze the air. He said inscrutably: "Well, since you don't know how to lift, then I will turn your little girlfriend in front of you."

"Do you dare?" Nie Teng burst into anger, screaming in front of his girlfriend.

Jiuye Ye's eyes were ruthless, he snorted coldly, and waved his hand directly. Then he ordered to take down this unidentified thing, and then stepped forward to ask his little girlfriend to open up.

"Nine Lord, Nine Lord, something bad!"

At this moment, a figure rushed in a hurry, and his face was disturbed, as if something had happened. The shout of this person caught everyone's attention. Jiuye even frowned slightly, staring fiercely at the man.

"Say, what's panic?" Jiuya asked, suppressing his anger.

The man gasped sharply before panicking, “Jiuye, the enemy has 30 seconds to reach the battlefield, please Jiuye be prepared.”

Snapped!

Immediately after he finished speaking, Jiuya slaps him in the face, triples the strength of an adult, and the man flies three meters away on the spot, his face swells into a pig’s head, and his mouth falls to the ground.

“Miscellaneous things, you have eaten too much pesticide, tell me clearly, and dare to say something about the game, I ask you to dig into your liver and treat my mother as a snack.” Jiuya was so angry, the words were extremely cold, Full of horror.

Jiuye Ye stared at the man, saying, “How long will it take for the enemy to reach the battlefield?”

Uh...

After I said this, he stopped, everyone was stupid, Nie Teng laughed, hahaha laughed wildly, without a smile.
