Chapter 93 - 3 Star Blood Corpse

Uh ...

The shadows staggered, and three crisp sounds came in succession, and I was surprised to see that the **** zombie had been beaten up and hit the corner.

“Blood, fed with living human flesh, how dare you raise a zombie?”

Qi Qin Tiange held a knife in his hand, his face was cold, his eyes stared at the Jiuye, and a tone of indescribable murderousness was revealed in his tone.

The blood corpse, which is a kind of mutant zombie specially fed by human flesh and blood, is filled with a blood-colored aerosol, so it is named blood corpse.

The zombie in front of me turned out to be a Samsung blood corpse. I don't know how much blood it absorbed, or how much human heart did it eat to grow into Samsung?

“Feeding a living person?” Liu Ye and others heard that they were all cold all over the body, only feeling a cool air rising from the soles of their feet, straight into the brain.

Many people did not expect that this Jiuyao dared to raise zombies, and it was still a kind of mutant zombies fed with living flesh and internal organs. It was filled with thick blood mist, which was very scary.

Jiu Ye looked sullen and growled, “What do you know? It's my mother, my mother, and my mother is hungry and naturally she needs food for her.”

“I killed a lot of women before. After playing half-dead, I threw them to my mother and let them become the nourishment that my mother recovered. Now, you also want to be my mother's food.” Jiuya looked snarled, almost growling. Come out of such words.

Thriller, horror!

The zombie turned out to be Jiuye's mother, his biological mother. This guy is simply not human. It is incredible to feed his living mother with a living person.

“You lunatic!” Liu Yan was stunned and speechless.

How many living talents do you need to feed a Samsung Mutated Blood Corpse? She didn't know, the only thing she knew was that there were definitely many people who died in this blood corpse, and more people died in the hands of Jiuye.

He is an outrageous lunatic, it is unreasonable and even incomprehensible. If it becomes a zombie, it is a zombie. How could it be his mother?

“Mother, go, eat them!”

Jiuye Ye went crazy, roared loudly, and greeted his mother, the three-star blood corpse that he had grown up to feed Qin Tiange and devour them.

I saw that he was close to the Samsung blood corpse, Qin Tiange showed a hint of sarcasm on his face, a sneer evoked from the corner of his mouth, as if watching a good show.

Roar...

Three blood corpses roared and issued a terrifying roar, just like a beast, and those scarlet eyes stared at Qin Tiange, showing a trace of fear and fear.

Yes, it is fear. It has a not weak consciousness, and senses a strong threat from Qin Tiange, making it instinctively fear.

“Just a trio of blood corpses!” Qin Tiange scorned and taunted: “Your mother is only equivalent to the physical fitness of 35 adults, which is really not enough in front of me, unless it is a four-star blood corpse, evolution If there is a ray of blood poisoning, then I will jealous of three points, but unfortunately, your mother does not have the opportunity to evolve. “

“It’s impossible, my mother is the best. Don’t you want to run anymore, mother, go and kill them.” Jiuya was completely insane and went up in two steps.

Roar!

He was just approaching the Samsung blood corpse. At that moment, a roar came, and the blood corpse suddenly turned, scarlet eyes bloodthirsty and staring at Jiuye who came up, he did not hesitate to find a **** claw.

He only listened to the sound of “pooping”. Jiuye was stiff, his chest was pierced by a claw, and he grabbed a still beating heart. That was his heart.

Samsung blood corpse swallowed the heart with a mouthful of mouth, swallowed it a few times, and an inexhaustible look came out, which was chilling.

Jiuye Ye looked stiff, and his trembling expression seemed extremely painful. His mouth made intermittent words, which was very difficult.

“Mom ... for why, me, I am your son ...” Jiuya exhausted his last strength, roared out, and his body fell suddenly.

He was unwilling and unbelieving. His mother, who had raised him for so long, actually murdered him heartily, took out his heart and swallowed it in three or two mouthfuls.

Retribution, this is retribution. Jiuye feeds this blood corpse with the flesh and heart of others, but in the end, the Samsung blood corpse is taken out of the heart and eaten.

“Zombies will always be human enemies. Even if it reborn, it is still a zombie and an enemy of our human beings. You better remember this, otherwise don’t blame me if you die in the future.”

I looked at the dead Jiye, Qin Tiange said expressionlessly, and said these words, shaking the hearts of everyone present, silent one by one.

Zombies are human enemies. They are no longer good people, but groups of bloodthirsty and scary monsters that only eat living creatures, including people.

Roar!

Samsung's blood screamed, his mouth was bloody, and the blood dripped down, looking extremely disgusting and horrible, which made people disgusted.

It was Jiuye's mother before his death. After becoming a zombie, one was locked by Jiuye and fed with a living person. Until now, it directly killed Jiuye's former son and ate his heart.

"This is the retribution!" Nie Teng sighed for a while, hugging her little daughter tightly to prevent her from seeing such a **** scene.

"Huh? Want to run?"

Suddenly, Qin Tiange's body moved and he blocked himself in front of the window, staring at the Samsung blood corpse moving in front of him, and the other party wanted to run.

Yes, this Samsung blood corpse knew how to run away. It was awful. It ate too much living flesh and heart, which caused its weak consciousness to gradually grow.

What a pity, how could Qin Tiange allow the other party to run away, so he stopped at the window one step first, raised the knife directly three steps forward, and slashed it with a knife.

Roar!

The blood corpse whistled, his claws waved fiercely, and a loud bang, the huge force slammed the floor of the room, crashing down.

Qi Qin Tiange and the blood corpse both fell, fell from the top floor, and fell directly into a luxurious suite on the tenth floor.

"Dead!" As soon as Qin Tiange landed, he kicked his feet suddenly, pulled out the electromagnetic light blade to kill it instantly, and the hot electromagnetic blade drew past the left rib of Samsung Blood Corpse.

There was a flutter of blood, the blood was gushing, and there was a strange blood red in the black blood, which was a bunch of toxins, a **** toxin, known as blood poison.

Blood poison, which can erode the blood of living creatures. Once it is scratched by such **** zombies it will immediately cause the blood to coagulate and be instantly paralyzed by consciousness.

Zou's mouth snarled and his blood-colored paws danced wildly, but unfortunately Qin Tiange was too fast, and even in his eyes, the movement of the blood corpse was too slow.

I watched the two **** claws wave slowly, and he sideways dodged, then suddenly accelerated forward, stabbed sharply in the blood corpse's mouth.

Huh!

There was a squeaking noise, the blood corpse was not moving, there was stiffness, there was an electromagnetic light blade in his mouth, and half of his head was cut off.

Samsung blood corpse, originally a terrible zombie, but met the pervert of Qin Tiange, the body of a one-star evolutionary contains dozens of people, very scary.

I killed the blood corpse and dug out a Samsung brain crystal from its brain. Qin Tiange looked around and found a group of people around him.

“Qin brother, are you okay?”

Coming from Moda, I have come to the tenth floor and just finished cleaning the hotel on this floor. I was going to report to Qin Tiange. But I never thought that the roof would suddenly collapse and two figures fell down. One of them turned out to be Qin Tian. Ge, the other is a terrible Samsung zombie.

“I’m okay, things are done?” Qin Tiange patted the dust on his body, and then asked the current situation.

Mo Moda stepped forward, earnestly reporting: “Qin Brother, the entire hotel has been searched and everyone is gathered and controlled. As for those who resisted, most of them were killed, and half were **** by us.”

“Oh?” Qin Tiange frowned slightly, originally ordering to kill all of Jiuye’s men, but why did Moda not do it?

With doubt, he came to the tenth floor hall with a few people from Moda. There were hundreds of people gathered here, but no one dared to speak, and the scene was quiet.
