

Dark Ages 94

Chapter 94 - Death Camp

In the tenth-floor lobby, more than two hundred people gathered here, densely packed, but no one spoke quietly, all standing there astray.

Among them, a hundred people were tied up. These people were originally the group of Jiuye. They were all people who had eaten human flesh. Qin Tiange originally said that he was killing all, but now Moda is only holding on. kill.

I came here, Qin Tiange looked at these people, can not help but frown slightly, looked at Moda next to his eyes, with a hint of questioning in his eyes.

“Brother Qin, we want to throw them out to let the zombies solve them, but Teacher Long told us to tie them first and wait for you to deal with them.” Moda lowered her head and explained in a low voice.

When I heard this, Qin Tiange frowned and looked at Long Xiaoya who came over. Why didn't she stop Moda from doing this?

Everyone who has eaten human flesh is anti-human, and is the common enemy of all human beings. In the previous life, there was one who killed one, but now Long Xiaoya has stopped it?

He was very upset and looked at her unhappily, thinking that if he didn't give an explanation, then don't blame him.

“Say, why don't they let Moda deal with these people?” Qin Tiange asked blankly without expression.

Long Xiaoya looked as usual, but did not panic, but came to him, and whispered, “Tiange, although these people said that they had eaten human flesh, it was really a pity to kill them. It might be worthwhile to use them before death. It's about letting them do their crimes. “

“Dai sin and make achievements?” Qin Tiange's eyes flashed a dangerous light.

He chilled: “These people have embarked on the anti-human path, our enemies, and staying is a scourge.”

Long Xiaoya was tangled, hesitantly said, “Look, there are a hundred people who are killed and killed, but we have to go through the heavy blockade to the subway station. We might as well gather them and let them charge us, at least it can reduce us It 's a pity that these people are dead, is n't it?”

She said, looking at Qin Tiange seriously, facing each other with that cold gaze, they did not flinch.

Qi Qin Tiange didn't speak, but looked away and stared at the group of tied people, all of them are the fierce men of Jiuye, one by one, the heart is insane, and even the soul is perverted, and they have embarked on an anti-human path.

The death of these people is not a pity, but what Long Xiaoya said is also reasonable. Killing these people a hundred times, why not make use of them and finally let them open the way for themselves and reduce the loss of the original team?

Qin Tiange didn't speak, and none of the people at the scene dared to speak and looked at him quietly. The atmosphere was extremely depressed and heavy, making people's breath quickly.

Everyone was nervous, and the group of survivors who had been held in prison was even more nervous, afraid that they would be like Jiuye again.

Those who are **** are even more nervous 忐忑 No one wants to die, but they are desperate in their hearts because they have eaten human flesh.

"You guys, how do you want to die?"

After a moment of contemplation, Qin Tiange suddenly took a step forward, exuding his breath, his eyes were filled with endless horrific killings, and his bones were cold.

He was so murderous that he almost froze the hearts, scaring the group of Jiuye's men, his hands, his feet, his feet, his feet, his hands, his feet and his feet cold.

"No, we don't want to die, we really don't want to die." Someone said in horror.

Yeah, they don't want to die, who doesn't want to live? Cannibalism, because they were forced to do so, could not help but be hungry, and then persecuted by those who were Jiuye, so they had to make such a creepy decision.

"I don't want to die? But I don't want to let you guys who are anti-human survive." Qin Tiange's indifferent words spread, making everyone scared.

He really didn't want to let these people live, anti-human, that is the enemy of the whole people, you can slash the same kind to eat, as a normal human, who dares to cooperate with such people?

Once these people encounter similar situations, they will not even hesitate to chop their swords at their own people and then chopped them into food to eat. How terrible is this?

"We are also forced, we don't want to."

"Yeah, who wants to be an anti-human element?"

"We don't want to die!"

The emotions of the group immediately boiled, one by one, hate each other, and growled wildly. I really didn't want to die, but everything was forced.

I said it was forced. There were more than a hundred people, men, women, and even a few children at the scene. Why didn't these people eat and didn't choose to eat the same kind?

In fact, one is the nausea and fear in these people, and the other is that this group of people were originally kept as food for captivity. How could Jiuye let these people eat meat?

Look, the men and women in captivity, each one looking waxy yellow and apathetic, obviously can't eat anything, and even tortured by Jiuya.

“Please, let us do anything, as long as we can live.”

Finally, among the group, someone knelt down and mourned, begging for mercy. Those of them really don't want to die, who thought they would die?

There were a hundred people begging for mercy, and the scene was a bit chaotic. Those survivors seemed to see it. Qin Tiange meant to kill these people. That's a good thing.

By killing these people, they don't have to worry about worrying about being chopped for food all day, which naturally supports the killing of all those who eat similar food.

“Kill them!”

“They are demons and cannot be kept.”

“Yes, they eat humans, they are anti-human elements.”

Some people in the group shouted that they would kill them all, because they were tortured as immature, the men were better, the women were miserable, and the pretty ones could not escape the fate of being played around, and then waited Enough to kill slaughter as food.

Who doesn't hate this kind of encounter? That hate is really anxious to chop all of these people into flesh to be eliminated, and the inner fear cannot be erased.

“Silent!”

Looking at the scene a little out of control, Qin Tiange suddenly screamed, shaking everyone's eardrums, and immediately calmed down, looking at the person in fear.

He snorted coldly and swept over the guys asking for mercy, saying, “Originally, you guys shouldn't live in this world, because I don't want to guard against a group of guys who eat similar things.”

“However, our biggest enemy is zombies. If you want to survive, you must obey my orders. I will give you a chance to make a crime and make up for it.”

After he finished speaking, his eyes were cold, his murderous was permeating, and he stared fiercely at the people. Qin Tiange really couldn't help but kill these people and took a deep breath. He continued: “Listen, you only have one chance, that is to fight the zombies die in the battle, Atonement for your sins. “

“Now, I announce that the death squad camp is set up. Those of you who don't want to go, stand up and I will let you die now.” Qin Tiange Han said these words with a face.

Quiet, the scene was dead, everyone looked at him blankly. The crowd was thrilled, and then thrilled. It was natural to have a chance to live, but it was too scary to fight the zombies.

“No, I don't want to fight the zombies.”

How about being a dead man? Someone immediately panicked and screamed, not wanting to fight the zombies. The man stood up, backed up with anxiety, and looked a little crazy.

But he hasn't waited for him to take three steps back. A sharp arrow screamed and whizzed through his eyebrow and killed on the spot.

It was Long Xiaoya who stunned her. She lowered the steel crossbow gently, but did not say a word, but it deterred the group.

Qin Tiange nodded at her, then stared at the gang, and said coldly: "Now, who else doesn't agree and doesn't want to fight the zombies, stand up and I can give you a chance to die."

"we agree!"

"We are willing to fight the zombies!"

Finally, under the threat of death, before the only way to live, this group of people succumbed and chose the only way to live, which was to join Qin Tiange's death squad camp as a dead soldier.

Although it sounded like a group of people who were charged to death and had a very high mortality rate, they still have a chance to survive? Moreover, it is better to die in the battle with zombies than if you were killed by the other side now, and it is notorious for being anti-human.

In this way, the enemy camp was killed in fear, and it was established under such circumstances.

But the question is coming, who will lead this team?
