

Dark Ages 961

Chapter 961 - Original Crystal Ore, Poor Master

Inside the underground palace, bright crystals were set on the walls, emitting faint light, which illuminated the darkness around.

“Where did you get these spar?”

Qin Tiange stood in front of a spar, and the detective dug straight down, looking at Antu, the western zombies, in surprise.

Antu scratched his head and wondered, “Leader, this is what I found when I dug the earth palace. The body was buried in these spar. I do n’t know what it is useful for, and the energy in it ca n’t be absorbed, so I It was used as decoration. “

After hearing this, Qin Tiange’s expression was weird, his eyebrows jumped, playing with this strange spar, which contained a primitive energy.

This energy is the power of the source. It is so incomparable that Antu said that it cannot be absorbed?

Click!

Qin Tiange crushed the spar, and immediately another stream of pure and primitive energy poured into the palm, and was immediately absorbed by the cosmic membrane of the body.

It’s true. It turned out to be a source of power. It was so pure that he couldn’t help wondering why Antu couldn’t absorb it?

“Leader, can you absorb this energy?” Antu was startled, staring at Qin Tiange with wide eyes, some could not believe it.

He stuttered: “I tried it. Once absorbed, my body will quickly ulcerate and become powder. If it absorbs more, the entire body will turn into fly ash.”

“Oh?” After listening to Qin Tiange thoughtfully, looking at Antu, he understood what was going on, and the other party was unable to adapt to the power of the source.

Because the power of the source is the growth nutrients of the universe, there must be a premise to absorb it, that is, you must have your own internal universe.

This Antu, although said to have achieved the space-time level, has no internal galaxies, but only the physical transformation and evolution.

Instead, a strange crystal evolved in his body, that is, a corpse crystal, which contains a spatio-temporal fluctuation, which has obviously evolved into a crystal of space-time level.

“How many of these crystals do you have?” Qin Tiange asked gently.

Antu said without thinking, “I don’t know the exact number, anyway, the body was buried on a lot of these crystals.”

“Take me!” Qin Tiange was a little excited.

He naturally knew that the origin of these crystals was a kind of original crystal ore, a pure natural original crystal ore, which is a ore formed by the condensation and condensation of the power of the original.

This original crystal ore has a huge and pure original power, which is even more pure and huge than the spar obtained by killing the original beast.

Once the number of such original crystal ore is enough, Qin Tiange stated that he must be able to breed all the cosmic fetal membranes in his body.

“Leader, just ahead. The corpse is weird. It keeps fresh and does not rot, but has no living breath, no soul.” Antu said as he led the way.

He took Qin Tiange to the deepest part of the earth palace, an empty area, and strange rays of light illuminated it.

Once inside, Qin Tiange felt a strong source of power coming to his face, but Antu seemed a little nervous and alert.

He was afraid of this source of power and could easily be injured, so a strong corpse permeated the body, blocking this force from eroding.

“Look at the leader, that’s the corpse.” Antu pointed to the empty space in front of him, and the surrounding area was completely made of crystal walls.

These crystal walls are completely constructed by the original crystal ore, exuding a hazy light mist, boiling and rolling here, covering the four sides.

Seeing this scenario, Qin Tiange was surprised that there were such a large number of original crystal mines that they were structured into a tomb.

That’s right, in Qin Tiange’s view, this is a burial chamber, which has been artificially constructed and made of countless original crystal mines.

He looked away and looked at the central area, where there was a crystalline sarcophagus made of the original crystal ore.

Inside the sarcophagus, there is a corpse lying, but it is not human-like, because there are two crystal dragon horns on the forehead.

“A dragon corpse has been eaten half by you?” Qin Tiange was speechless, looking at Antu beside him, and he had to say that this guy was very lucky.

Why do you say that, because the dragon corpse is lying there, it is not dead at all, it is just that the true spirit and consciousness are trapped somewhere.

Qin Tiange judged from the breath that this is a dragon-level creature of the realm level, but was buried here, apparently hiding his true body here.

However, Dragon Spirit seemed to be trapped in the boundary sea and couldn’t get out, causing his body to be found by Antu, the zombie, and eating it bit by bit, resulting in a space-time zombie.

“Well, leader, I don’t think it’s too much for me to eat a little bit of meat. After all, he has no sound, and after eating a few mouthfuls of meat, he grows up again. It’s okay.” Antu said embarrassedly, carefully.

Qin Tiange shook his head and smiled, “You are lucky. If his dragon spirit is still there, maybe you don’t say it eats its dragon meat, it is difficult to get close.”

After shaking, he shook his head, and had to sigh, this dragon strong is really unlucky, and a mighty lord was eaten by a zombie.

That’s right, this dragon corpse is lying in a sarcophagus made by Yuanyuan Crystal Mine for sleeping, but his dragon spirit encountered an accident, and it seems that something can’t be returned.

For the creatures that have opened up the kingdom of God, the physical body is gone, and the will of the true spirit can still die in the realm of the realm.

“You keep this dragon corpse, you have eaten it anyway.” Qin Tiange waved his hand, and the dragon corpse flew out immediately.

Antu scrambled to catch the dragon corpse. The heavy body made him almost unable to catch it. The poor dragon corpse fell into Antu’s mouth and became food.

Qin Tiange looked at Antu and laughed: “This dragon is not simple. It is a master creature above time and space. Although the dragon spirit is gone, you better eat it quickly, or once its dragon spirit returns, You will be miserable. “ “Ha?” Antu was startled, and almost threw the dragon corpse, but fortunately he calmed down quickly.

He thought that since Qin Tiange saw the other party’s level and details, he proved that he was not afraid, even stronger than the other party.

“Thank you, leader.” Antu immediately laughed and didn’t care, even if the other party came back, wasn’t Qin Tiange the leader?

Looking at the huge number of original crystal mines around, Qin Tiange asked: “How many more are you from Earth like you?”

Antu froze, and then looked sadly: “As far as I know, not many are left behind, but fewer survive like me, as if there is one, in another desert of this wilderness. “

“So, how many people are there?” Qin Tiange frowned and asked this question.

But Antu’s answer made him unexpected. He only listened to Antu saying, “Leader, there were a lot of people here, but they disappeared mysteriously with the leader’s wife.”

“Mysterious disappearance, none of them left?” Qin Tiange was a little surprised, looked at Antu, and determined that the other party was not lying.

Antu nodded and said: “When we first came here, we once united with the ancient peoples here and experienced many violent battles. We were almost defeated, but all of them suddenly disappeared.”

“Is that so?” Qin Tiange muttered to himself, already vaguely guessing what Chen Xi and others must have grasped.

In other words, they found a way to leave, and directly took away the people here, away from the origin.

“Come on, I’ll rest here for a while, don’t bother me when I’m fine.” Qin Tiange waved his hand and let Antu go.

Antu was very knowledgeable, carrying the heavy dragon corpse, and turned and left directly. The spots were unambiguous and even closed the underground palace.

He didn’t want to trap Qin Tiange, he just wanted to prevent someone or zombies from breaking in and disturbed Qin Tiange.

“Original crystal ore, it seems that this is the unique product of the origin of the land.” Qin Tiange looked at the dense crystal ore around.

These are the original crystal ore, which is just right for him to absorb and expand the conserved cosmic fetal membrane. Once he successfully bred and matured, his power would skyrocket to an incredible degree.

As long as the thought of the 999 cosmic fetal membranes in the body has matured and the baby cosmos has been conceived, it is a horrible transformation.

However, this process is very long, even difficult. The universe is not so easy to breed, and it is not so easy to breed.

Even the baby universe is a very scary thing. It was lucky to have a broken baby universe embryo in the past.

“Let’s get started, and hope to grow the cosmic membrane in our body as soon as possible.”

Qin Tiange lay in the sarcophagus created by the original crystal ore, and began to absorb the power of refining and refining directly.

Here, the huge number of original crystal ore is enough for him to absorb for a while, and may even go further.

boom!

As soon as it started to absorb, there was a slight vibration in the entire underground palace, and Antu in the outer castle was frightened.

He felt that Qin Tiange’s breath was too terrifying, and he didn’t even have the courage to face it. It was indeed the supreme ruler who controlled the whole earth.

“The leader is the leader, can’t compare it Antu smiled secretly, opened his mouth to bite the mighty dragon corpse.

Losing the dragon spirit, the dragon corpse had no resistance at all and was directly swallowed by Antu tearing away the dragon's flesh.

Strange to say, this dragon corpse was bitten off by a piece of meat, and the wound soon healed, and flesh and blood grew quickly.

For Antu, this is a fat meal that can never be eaten, and the taste of dragon meat is simply superb.

The poor dragon corpse, a dragon-level creature of the world, was actually eaten by a zombie, perhaps it is the most miserable dragon in history.

In the underground palace, a mighty source of power poured into the sarcophagus, which was absorbed by Qin Tiange's frantic plundering to expand the cosmic membrane.

He underestimated the growth and consumption of his cosmic membranes. In the blink of an eye for ten minutes, the original crystal ore stored below the entire underground palace was directly swallowed by him and completely consumed.

"It just grew a little bit, the universe is really too difficult to conceive."

Qin Tiange's body floated up, and the original sarcophagus smashed into a powder, and the dense crystals around the source crystals were completely turned into ashes, which were exhausted.

He felt the cosmic fetal membranes in his body, only to grow a little bit, making him unable to bear the bitterness, it is difficult to raise a universe, let alone the 999 universes he raised?

Qin Tiange suddenly felt that he had the feeling of rocking his own feet and raising 999 cosmic membranes. Can he afford them?

Besides, there is a more primitive chaotic membrane. With such a huge consumption, there is no hope for swallowing up the original place.

"My way is a bit difficult."

Qin Tiange talked to himself, went out of the palace, and thought about how to quickly cultivate the maturity of the cosmic membrane in his body?

Chapter 962 - Scepter

"Leader, you are out."

As soon as I stepped out of the underground palace, I saw Antu walking around here, looking a little impatient, as if something had happened.

Qin Tiange wondered: "Look at you with impatience. What happened?"

"Leader, one of my men found someone outside."

Antu uttered this sentence directly, let Qin Tiange stumble, isn't his subordinates the zombies in the wasteland?

"Picked up?" Qin Tiange was curious and followed Antu to a room in the castle.

A thin figure was lying on the bed of the room. He looked young and was a little boy.

He was wearing a set of broken animal skins, his face was dirty, a little weak and pale, and he was obviously hungry.

Qin Tiange saw through at a glance that this little boy is a member of the human race, and the ancient blood of the human race is flowing in his body, which is a pure human race.

“Where did you find him?” Qin Tiange stepped forward and found that the little boy just fainted without any problem.

Antu was embarrassed, scratching his head and saying, “I was discovered by an Emperor Zombie under my hand. When he saw him unconscious on the edge of the wasteland, he brought it back.”

“I have warned all my men that as long as they are not actively attacking us, they cannot do anything to members of the human race.” His words made Qin Tiange look weird.

Qin Tiange looked at him with a smile and said, “So, when I came, why did the zombies attack me?”

“This ...” Antu was embarrassed, a little bit distressed and confused, and muttered, “I’m also wondering, why are they the offensive leader?”

“Forget it, obviously their crisis instinct. I feel that they are too dangerous. Instinct shots are normal.” Qin Tiange waved his hand and didn’t care about this.

He looked at the comatose little boy, and the palm of his hand flipped, a drop of green water emerged, poured into the little boy’s mouth, and instantly turned into a vitality that pervaded the whole body.

Soon, the little boy woke up, a pair of bright eyes staring blankly around, and the moment he saw Antu shuddered.

However, when he saw Qin Tiange’s first glance, he leaned instinctively towards him, curled up beside Qin Tiange, and carefully looked at Antu’s zombie.

“Don’t be afraid, he is Antu and won’t hurt you.” Qin Tiange gave a comforting breath, a strange breath in the gentle tone, making the little boy insecure.

Qin Tiange looked at him and asked in a warm voice, “What’s your name, where did you come from, and why was you out of the wilderness?”

“I ... I ...” The little boy seemed very hesitant, but after seeing Qin Tiange as a human being, he felt a sense of belonging.

He hesitated, and finally said, “My name is Starscarp, from the Xingyue tribe. Since the mysterious disappearance of the major tribes, our tribe has been attacked by various tribes. There is no way to ask for help. We can only use the tribe to migrate. When the herd attacks, I run away from the tribe.”

Listening to the star marks, Qin Tiange’s eyes flickered and he turned his head and asked, “Antu, do the people here live in the tribe?”

“Yes, leader.” Antu respectfully said, “The peoples of this world seem to be still in the primitive tribal stage. Most of them are matriarchal, and it feels like they are being suppressed by the growth and progress of civilization.”

Antu's words seemed a bit heavy, he solemnly said: "I guess that it should be the suppression of all ethnic groups, do not want to develop ethnic civilization, only to suppress ethnic civilization, limited to the primitive tribal social form."

"It's all races again, this is because people are afraid of the development of human races." Qin Tiange said to himself, his eyes shone a bit coldly.

Whether it is in the Milky Way, or even the major galaxies, even when they come to the higher level of origin, the hundreds of people are afraid of people.

To suppress the emergence of human civilization, prevent the evolution of human civilization, and limit human race to a primitive and wild tribal civilization, which cannot develop.

This is the fear of the human race. The human race once ruled the universe. This is a shadow. The fear of the hundreds and even the races is certain.

But it is impossible to uproot the human race because it is impossible to uproot the human race. The human race is too widely distributed, and there are traces of the human race in the entire universe.

If you want to completely destroy the human race, it will cost a lot, even some races are not willing to destroy the human race. Instead, they want to suppress and continuously consume the human race, and use the human race to sharpen their own ethnic growth.

"Where is your tribe?" Qin Tiange asked softly, looking at the star marks.

The star mark pointed, at that time in the east, Qin Tiange said nothing, the magnificent spirit of the will run through the east region and shrouded all the way.

Soon he sensed a large number of human flavors, which were pure ancient human flavors, and were being chased by the dense herd of beasts and fled.

"kill!"

"Defend the tribe!"

"All warriors, block the herd, and fight for the people to escape."

Groups of barbaric ancients were holding war spears, bows and arrows, bone knives and other weapons, gathered one by one, turned into a wall of people, blocking in front of that billowing tide.

The woman headed by it turned out to be a woman with a set of bone armor on her body. The dense lines flashed with fine light and strong breath, but she was just a strong star.

The people here are still in the most primitive matriarchal social structure. This young woman is the chief of the Xingyue tribe.

The entire tribe can have tens of thousands of people, but it can only be regarded as a small tribe, not a large tribe.

"Oh!"

Rumble ...

All the beasts roared and swept through the mighty smoke and dust, as if the thunder rolled, and drowned like a flash flood.

Seeing that this human race was in precarious condition, Qin Tiange opened his eyes and the will of terror crushed.

boom!

“Uh ... hoo!”

In the eastern part of the wasteland, a large number of fierce beasts screamed in horror, suddenly being crushed by a vast will, shattering their consciousness, Qiqiao spurted blood, and all fell down in wailing.

There are hundreds of thousands of beasts, and they just lie down and lie down, all dead, none of them survive.

“what happened?”

The tribal warriors who had been waiting for a while and were planning to fight to death, looked at each other in a dull, dull look at the countless beasts lying on the ground in front of them.

These fierce beasts are all dead, one died with only seven tricks, and the inexplicable collective died in the end. The terrible and weird scene made everyone chill.

“What is helping us?”

The chief female chief, looking at the void, seemed to sense a vast and terrifying will to look down at them.

But no matter who helped her, she quickly responded and immediately ordered: “One person, one beast body, resist leaving.”

Simply, the female chief brought tens of thousands of soldiers, one by one carrying a dead beastly body, and caught up with those who fled.

The body of 10,000 ferocious beasts is enough for the tribe to eat for a long time. This female chief is still a little knowledgeable, knows the choices, and knows how to seize the opportunity.

Whoever killed these beasts obviously came to help them, and that was enough.

“Stars, is your sister a tribal chief?” Qin Tiange looked back at Stars and asked.

Sure enough, Starshadow nodded and lost his way: “After the death of my mother, my sister is the new generation chief of the tribe, leading the tribe.”

“Antu, you take the star marks and go into the tribe into the wasteland, and bring that female chief to see me.”

Qin Tiange stood up and looked out at the vast wasteland out of the window. This word passed into Antu’s ear, and he immediately understood what he meant.

“Yes, leader, promise to complete the task.”

Antu immediately walked out of the castle with star marks, took him directly into the air, flew towards the ethnic tribe fleeing team.

“Human race, why are they suppressed by hundreds of people everywhere, and why are all people afraid of human race?”

Qin Tiange watched Antu flying away and stood alone in front of the window, muttering to himself, thinking about the problem.

Along the way, what Qin Tiange saw most was that the hundreds of people seemed to be specifically targeted at human races. Whether it was hunting, suppressing, or enslaving, they felt a sense of targeting human races.

It didn't take long for Antu to come back, followed by a tens of thousands of primitive tribal people.

Men and women, old and young, with more than 50,000 people, are all the people who survived the hardship here and survived in the primitive tribal form.

“Leader, man brought.”

At this point, Antu came in with a star mark and a young woman holding a bone jade scepter.

That young woman is the current female chief of the Xingyue tribe. Xingyue, each chief of the tribe is a female, all named Xingyue.

Buzz ...

Suddenly, the bone jade scepter in Xingyue's hand trembled slightly, making her look slightly different, looking at the oscillating bone jade scepter, which was a status symbol.

The Bone Jade Scepter is the highest token of the Xingyue Tribe, a token of the rule of the tribe chieftain, and a symbol of status.

But this and the scepter actually issued a cumulative tremor, broke out of Xingyue's control, flew to Qin Tiange in front of him, and uttered a contention.

“This ...” A few people in the room froze, watching this scene blankly unknown.

Only two people at the scene understood what was going on. One was Xingyue, her pretty face was full of shock, and she looked at Qin Tiange with incredible eyes.

Qin Tiange was surprised, looking at the bone jade scepter floating in front of him, which contained a piece of debris.

“People's Imperial Seal Fragment?” Qin Tiange frowned slightly, and immediately understood that there was a Fragment of Human Imperial Seal in this calcaneus jade scepter.

Hum!

Sure enough, Qin Tiange's hand grabbed the calcaneus jade scepter. At once, the whole scepter vibrated autonomously, and then it shattered into a pile of powder.

In the end, only a small piece was left, crystal-clear like jade, exuding a majesty of the emperor, exactly the shard of the emperor's seal.

Huh!

A hazy figure emerged, looking at the debris in surprise.

“Master, this is the fragment I was before.” The comer whispered, it was the emperor’s seal, and Linger was awakened.

She had fallen asleep in the chaotic Yuanta, but did not expect to be awakened by this breath, and when she came out, it turned out to be her former shard.

“You have gotten rid of the body, this thing is useless, you can take it back.” Qin Tiange tossed the fragments to her, who then turned around and flashed. It continued to fall asleep.

“Xingyue, meet the Emperor Supreme!”

Suddenly, Xingyue was enlightened, and immediately bowed down in respectful respect, his expression seemed extremely excited.

Only in her heart was the most clear what that bone jade scepter represented. Once it was broken and the contents inside returned to the body, it was tantamount to the arrival of the Emperor.

The scene just now does not exactly indicate that this mysterious young man is the Supreme Emperor in the rumor of the human race, and the Supreme Emperor is here!

Chapter 963 - Fortune and fortune, build immortal war spirit

In the ancient castle, Xingyue was full of excitement, kneeling down there, and even knelt down with a stark mark on her face.

The two face down, worship with both hands, as if kneeling down to worship a great and sacred being. This is the emperor’s only belief.

“No courtesy!”

Qin Tiange raised his hand gently, Xingyue and Xingshen sister and brother were held up by an invisible force, but the soft breath contained irresistible strength.

Xingyue lowered her head and did not dare to look at Qin Tiange as if she would be offended. However, the star marks curiously looked at Qin Tiange, the mysterious powerhouse, the Emperor.

Antu next to him was aggressive and quickly reacted. Qin Tiange was not only the supreme leader of the earth, he had even walked out of the royal road on the stars.

“I want to know the situation of the people here.” Qin Tiange groaned and said this sentence.

He never claimed to be solitary in front of the human race, but gave people a kind of intimacy, without the overlook and indifference of the so-called emperor.

“Return to the Emperor, this is the recorded information of the chiefs of the Xingyue tribe. Please look at it. Our tribe needs the people to look forward to the new emperor from generation to generation.”

Xingyue took out a jade bamboo slip and presented it respectfully. This is the knowledge recorded by the chiefs of the Xingyue clan.

Qin Tiange thought about it, immediately absorbed all the information recorded in it, and silently looked at the huge information inside.

The records in it are not huge, they are just some information learned by the Xingyue clan, but they also give Qin Tiange a little understanding.

In the place of origin, there are many ethnic groups scattered in various corners. In the vast and vast place of origin, the number of people is actually not small, and the strong are no longer in the minority.

But the human race has never been able to form unity, because the birth of the emperor is not here. Even if you create a huge empire, or even establish one dynasty, you will eventually be overthrown by the forces of the hundreds.

In the past, countless human dynasties and empires were born here, generation after generation, and the rise and fall of civilization represent the resistance and unyielding of the human race.

Looking at this piece of information, Qin Tiange was silent, and he could imagine that the people here are fighting again and again, and that persistence and indomitableness is the most fundamental reason for the people to maintain the immortal.

Qin Tiange learned that Chen Xi and others have been here, and once united the humanity in this area to fight against the powerful races in the place of origin.

But in the end, the mystery disappeared. No one knows the reason for this. It is only clear that the people in this area have disappeared.

“The lost human race has been torn apart, the emperor has been gradually erased, and the human race can be remembered as glorious, almost gone.”

Qin Tiange gave an inexplicable sigh and returned Yujian to Xingyue, looking at Xingyue in front of him, star marks, and Antu, the zombie.

After thinking about it, he said a decision: “I will build an imperial human city in the wasteland, and all my people can come and live here.”

“Get up!”

As soon as the words fell, Qin Tiange suddenly raised his hand and probed into the void, with a click, the nothingness in front of him was penetrated.

Xingyue, Starscarp, Antu, and the three were dumbfounded, watching Qin Tiange’s hand poke into the nothingness, as if holding something.

If anyone can see the situation in the boundary sea, they must be able to see a hand passing through the barriers of the boundary sea and falling directly into the four-dimensional galaxy space.

boom!

In a dead star field, a sudden shock suddenly appeared, a huge crack suddenly emerged, and a terrifying giant hand emerged from the inside.

This huge giant hand was covered in a mist of gray, with five fingers spread out, covering the entire galaxy with a bang, this galaxy was suddenly taken away.

With that hand back, the huge galaxy where it was originally lost track, and all the planets and matter were gone.

Click! Click!

In the original place, inside the ancient castle in the wilderness, Qin Tiange's hand slowly pulled out nothing, holding a galaxy in his palm.

Seeing this scene, Antu almost stared, almost scared. He saw that Qin Tiange had caught a galaxy, that was a galaxy.

“Refining!” Qin Tiange whispered, and a piece of galaxy caught in the palm of his hand was immediately refined. A cloud of gray flame directly refined the entire galaxy into a ball.

After that, countless stars were refined into huge and boundless cities, and terrible super cities were born.

Smelting from a galaxy into countless dense cities, which Qin Tiange can do, can only be achieved after he came to the high-dimensional universe and deep space.

There are a thousand horror giant cities floating on the palm, densely packed, and there is an unreal feeling in Antu's heart.

“The wasteland, as the human emperor's imperial city, from today, the human race will restore its former glory and prosperity.” Qin Tiange finished, and a bright city flew out.

With a roar, the entire wasteland shook, and a vast city fell from the sky, enveloping the entire wasteland.

Suddenly, all the people and even the creatures in the wasteland were sucked into the city, and they suddenly changed places.

Everyone was aggressive, countless zombies were dumbfounded, and staring at it all, it seemed a bit untrue.

boom!

Suddenly, the castle smashed and turned into a pile of powder. It was occupied by a huge palace, towering into the clouds, exuding supreme majesty.

In the Emperor's Hall, the three large characters revealing the sky to kill and represent the emperor's will.

“Xingyue, to appease the tribal people. From now on, all people can live freely in the imperial city.”

Qin Tiange's words awakened Xingyue, and then he was ignorantly awakened. Looking at the vast palace around him, this is the palace of people.

Looking down from here, the original wasteland is gone, replacing a magnificent to incredible city.

“Yes, my lord!”

Xingyue was excited, watching this miracle-like change, and realizing that the human emperor in the rumor of the human race had the power of a weeping ghost and god.

She went down with star marks to appease the tribe and arrange the tribe to live here. In the future, this is the royal city of the tribe.

“Antu, put together all the zombies and train them as an army. They were humans before their death and belonged to them after death.”

“Yes, Emperor.” Antu immediately became excited and had something to do.

Moreover, this is an opportunity. It is definitely a good thing to go to a high level. Antu is not stupid. Why not grasp it?

Watching Antu excitedly go down to command the zombies. In the entire wasteland, millions of zombies can be regarded as a small force.

But Qin Tiange is not satisfied. What can this force do? The place of origin is vast and immense. There are countless lives of hundreds of people. You can't kill thousands of years.

If the clan wants to have a place, or even to become a hegemonic power, they must have enough clan people to have enough strength and power.

Soon, Xingyue arranged for the tribe to return and report on the progress of the matter.

“Huang, the current number of people is too small. The entire imperial city is too large to form a defensive force at all. What should we do?”

Xingyue was anxious, and such a huge imperial city must have been noticed by powerful men of all races.

Once there are hundreds of strong people coming in, how can the human race resist? Only tens of thousands of people can fight, not many, and millions of zombies are not enough.

“As far as you know, how many ethnic tribes exist within hundreds of thousands of miles?” Qin Tiange looked calmly, looking into the distance.

Xingyue hesitated, struggling to recall, and smiled bitterly: “My lord, I don't know about hundreds of thousands of miles, but I heard that most of the large tribes have disappeared mysteriously.”

“Even if there are leftovers, there are not many, there are almost no large clans, only small clans like the Xingyue clan are too scattered.” Xingyue said the news.

Qin Tiange bowed his head. In fact, his ideas are spreading over an area of one million miles, and he saw people of all sizes and tribes scattered in this area.

Generally speaking, there are only tens of millions of people, which are simply some small tribes that have been left behind.

“Chat is better than nothing.” Qin Tiange said to himself, suddenly waving his hand to break the void in front, revealing a dark channel.

It is a space passage, which is directly penetrated by Qin Tiange, connecting densely packed tribal areas.

Suddenly, all the human tribes distributed in various directions were led by Qin Tiange, and all were directly received into the imperial city without response.

Tens of millions of people came down one by one, dumbfounded, you look at me, I look at you, my heart is cold, and somehow appeared.

For these people, Qin Tiange did not explain it, but looked at the hundreds of thousands of miles in the area, and the bones of countless ancestors were buried underneath.

“There are not enough living people, then summon the dead people.”

Qin Tiange said to himself, this word was heard by everyone in the entire imperial city who had just arrived.

But the next scene shocked tens of millions of people.

“Life is a hero, and death is a ghost!”

A big drink shook the whole earth, and the void shuddered, echoing this voice full of overwhelming meaning.

Qin Tiange stepped up into the air step by step, standing over the imperial city, looking down at the eight sides, exuding a strong royal breath.

boom!

A flow of imperial fortunes filled the sky, the majestic vastness, boiling like the sea, converging over the entire imperial city, it was shocking.

Just listening to the cymbal, Qin Tiange pulled out an ancient sword from the vanity and chaos, and the emperor's sharp edge swept through the void, cut off obscurity, and revealed the emperor's will.

Qin Tiange held up the Emperor's Sword, and mumbled in a low voice: “Oh, the hero who died in the war, unwilling faith, the immortal spirit, come back, the people need you, I need you!”

“I, Qin Tiange, are willing to give up the imperial fortune and baptize the former British soul into an immortal war soul. Come back and fight for the human race!”

boom!

As soon as the words fell, countless people widened their eyes and saw the endless purple light pouring out of Qin Tiange's body, scattered in all directions.

The rumbling purple gas flowed like a torrent and swept across like a tsunami, covering an area of hundreds of thousands of miles.

Here, countless creatures looked up, watching the purple ocean fall below the earth, the intricacies of imperial faith, the power of luck into the ground.

“what happened?”

“Is this breath the luck of the emperor?”

At this moment, hundreds of creatures and powerful men of all races were shocked and horrified. They were shocked by this sudden change of events and watched nervously.

The heavenly people's imperial energy was scattered into the earth, merged into a broken bone, and merged into immortal beliefs.

A ray of warfare, a remnant soul, a trace of conviction, was constantly wrapped in a wave of imperial fortune, and mysterious transformation took place I can fight again! “

“who am I?”

“Who is it, wake up our remnants?”

There was a low murmur, coming from under the ground, and a multitude of figures, hazy, crawled out from under the ground.

“Human spirit, immortality!”

“Immortal War Soul, come back!”

With a loud drink spreading in all directions, it awakened countless human souls crawling out of the ground, and one of them suddenly became blank.

They were originally at a loss, but with this loud shout, they ignited the underlying unyielding faith. Gradually, the spirits of the war were burning with flames of war and burning, and they understood something.

“People!”

“It was the emperor who awakened our remnants.”

“I'm willing to fight for the soul, for the clan, and for the emperor!”

Suddenly, the heavens and the earth faded, the situation changed, and the whole world seemed to dim all at once. The heavy oppressive atmosphere permeated and countless ghosts crawled out of the ground.

They came together, their instincts were awakened, their unwilling wills, their immortal beliefs were ignited one after another, and they came together from all sides.

Bang!

The dark clouds rolled and the thunder flashed like a cataclysmic calamity. Such a large-scale awakening of the dead spirits of the past was to attract inexplicable power to suppress it, and even a calamity.

“Roar!”

“Battle! Battle! Battle!”

Countless heroic souls roared and warfare burned. Under the baptism of the royal road dissipated by Qin Tiange, the former glory was restored, and the immortal war souls came together directly, densely turning into a torrent flooding for nine days. Thunder.

For a time, the world was eclipsed, and thousands of people were thrilled!

Chapter 964 - Bloodwash 0

“Battle! Battle! Battle!”

A roar came, the sky shook, and the thunder roared, shocking the strong.

Countless heroes were summoned to return, the scene was extremely horrible, and they crawled out and formed a vast torrent.

boom! boom! boom...

The heavens and the earth changed color, thunder clouds roared, and thousands of meters of thunder and lightning were coiled in the void.

It was a natural punishment. Someone touched the taboo of the universe and attracted a terrible natural punishment. This is incredible.

In the universe, there are many taboos that cannot be touched. Once touched, it will cause unknown signs, and even heaven punishment will come.

This is now the case. The endless heroic spirits are summoned back by a force, which is tantamount to acting against the sky and resurrecting those souls that have died for countless years.

“Curse?”

“Who is acting against the sky?”

“It’s the countless remnants of the human race. What do you want to do?”

At this moment, hundreds of thousands of miles were completely shrouded in thunderclouds. On the gloomy sky, horrible thunder and thunder intertwined.

However, the dense shadows crawling out of the ground, one after another, the ghosts were called back.

They were ignited to fight, burning flames, as if transformed into a terrible war soul, immortal, gathered into the sea.

Uh ...

Residual souls came together, the fighting intentions burned, and there was endless, one by one armed soldiers gathered to kill the sky for nine days.

They must fight against the punishment of the sky. As immortal war spirits, they must experience such punishment. Only when they come out under the destruction of the punishment is the true immortal war spirit.

“war!”

The roar spread through hundreds of thousands of miles, hundreds of billions of human spirits turned into torrents, and the soldiers were swept into the thunder.

With a bang, the sky is falling apart, everything is trembling!

There was a violent explosion in the void, a thunder raged, and the power of destruction was full of destruction, as if the Milky Way rolled down.

And the heavenly war spirits converged into a torrent of iron blood, indomitable, directly hit up, the two forces collided instantly.

Click! Click!

Cracks spread, and space was broken apart, and the barriers of time and space were violently shaken, causing the flood of annihilation.

“Kill, we can fight again!”

“Burning remnants, incarnate as war spirits!”

With a roar from nine days, the Xeon War Spirit burned with a mutilated faith, completely erupted, and broke the billowing thunder.

The rumbling noises and the endless gathering of heroic spirits ran through the entire sky punishment Thunder Cloud, made a huge hole, and rushed out from there.

“Break through nine days!”

“May my people be immortal!”

One by one the former British souls, the incomplete spirits crawled out, roared into the sky, and broke into the sky punishment.

They looked back without any worries, even if countless heroic spirits were destroyed by the bombardment of heaven punishment and disappeared, there was no wavering.

An old British soul roared upward, and the incomplete warrior waved, breaking a large thundercloud, but in the end he couldn't stop the bombardment of robbery.

“I, old, may my people endure immortality.”

The old English soul roared low, his body was torn by a thunderous sky, and it completely disappeared, but he did not regret it, but regretted that he was not strong enough and was old.

Residual souls crawled out one after another, converging into a torrent, turning into a neat army formation and killing them into the sky punishment, breaking through holes and holes, like a sky fall.

They fought from the punishment of heaven, and surrounded by horror thunders, they seemed to be heaven and earth soldiers, exhaling the evil spirit.

This is the immortal war soul, the immortal war soul fought from the sky punishment, immortal, and truly completed the transformation.

“Kill, break up the punishment!”

At this point, the branches that broke out of the heavenly punishment turned into a square matrix, and a sharp U-turn directly impacted the heavenly punishment.

Rolling sky punishment, the Sky Thunder was crushed directly by these immortal war spirits that had completed the transformation, and they ran into the road, breaking up the sky punishment.

Boom boom ...

A group of horrifying legions were uniform, stepping in the void, and there was a thunderous sound, and they stepped out of the sky.

They are powerful, invincible, full of immortal divine power, and they are truly the most powerful war spirits out of the penalty.

Huh!

Suddenly, a battle flag came across the sky, tearing time and space, inserted in the center of the penalty, and instantly killed the source of the penalty.

Just listening to the bang, the battle flag was erected there, inserted above nothingness, the flag hunted, and sent out to kill the sky.

“The return of the war spirit requires the baptism of blood. Former heroes of the past, go, there is no need for hundreds of souls within a million miles.”

A word spread to all sides, and the strong men of all ethnic groups were scared, and countless creatures were terrified. This was a direct killing order.

The order from the Emperor instantly caused the war spirit army that broke out of the heaven punishment to burst into the sky.

They were born for war, and the remnants returned, turning into immortal war souls, fighting for human races, fighting for emperors only.

The soul of war is completely born for the war. They are loyal, they are powerful, they are immortal. This is the immortal soul of war.

Of course, it is not easy to create an immortal war spirit. The first prerequisite is that an emperor is willing to lose his luck and baptize these heroes.

Who among the emperors of the past will do this, the only thing that has ever been done is the Supreme Emperor who once ruled the universe.

He built an immortal guard, this is how he came, but no one has dared to spit out his luck and baptism for countless heroes like Qin Tiange.

The large number is simply endless, which has brought about the extermination of the world, and it is necessary to destroy these forthcoming taboo war spirits.

“My lord has orders.

Suddenly, a powerful figure emerged quietly, holding a human war flag, and a dense army behind him, a hundred thousand emperor immortal guard.

The emperor’s immortal guard appeared again, as a war of overlords, overwhelming the void and overlooking the various races.

“kill!”

“Bloodwashed!”

A loud rumbling came, and in the void, a horrifying army of war souls rolled and killed with the power of robbery.

They are huge in number, each with tens of millions of fighting spirits. Under the leadership of the strongest ancient general, they will kill hundreds of ethnic forces within a million miles.

More and more ancient remnants crawled out from under the ground, converging into a mighty torrent, rushing into the sky and punishing the sky, ramming, killing the sky, and bathing the sky, thunder came out, and the baptism became the war soul.

“Do not...”

“Human races are taboo.”

“Men, do you dare to summon war spirits and slaughter hundreds of people?”

The next moment, there were hundreds of clans, and a terrifying roar came from within the clans. Countless powerful men of various clans were frightened.

They watched the war spirits descending from the sky, densely packed with endless robbery and rumbling to kill, flooding all parties and launching a ***** slaughter.

A massacre of blood-bathed people began, and countless heroes from the human race transformed into war spirits. They turned their spearheads and killed all races, and cast real immortal souls from the blood corpses of the people.

“My lord, I curse you not to die.”

“what....”

The screams came, and many powerful people of hundreds of races fled madly and did not dare to stop them, because the number of war souls summoned by this race was too large.

It is not clear how many human spirits are buried in this land. They are summoned to bring in the sky punishment, directly play the sky punishment, and emerge from the force of the robbery and become immortal war souls.

The so-called immortal war spirits are immortal war spirits that cannot be killed or killed.

Only time and space forces can kill these war spirits. However, the time and space-level strong are no exception, and they are wiped out by the imperial sanitation of the emperor who fights in the void.

boom!

A battle flag traversed the void, running through a powerful creature, a space-time creature was crucified to the ground, the banner hunted, and devoured its spirit.

One hundred thousand emperor's immortal guard is the original immortal war soul, and the expedition gradually transformed into an emperor's immortal guard.

This is the real immortality. It is the strongest ace in Qin Tiange's hand, and one is metamorphosing in deep sleep. This time it came out directly.

With the imperial seal of the emperor breaking away from the original puppet, the mysterious guard of the 100,000 emperor's immortal guard has undergone a mysterious transformation, completely out of the previous restrictions.

In other words, even the emperor who built them in the past cannot control this immortal guard.

Rumble ...

One after another, the human war spirits turned into torrents, swept through the heavens with the punishment of the heavens, and wherever they passed, the sorrowful sorrows of the hundreds of people were smashed and devoured, turning them into nutrients for washing the war spirits.

Throughout the entire process, hundreds of human beings within a million miles were slaughtered, none of them could escape, and they were completely strangled by the endless human war spirits.

Qin Tiange looked down at the Quartet, watching the hundreds of people being slaughtered, one by one the strong roared, and unwillingly roared.

Roar!

“People, you openly break taboos, you will die miserably.”

There was a shock coming from the Xeon Soul, roaring, and there were nine vast shadows of the kingdom of God.

He was very powerful. Even if the emperor’s immortal guard could not stop him, he was rushed over, and when he saw it, he would run into Qin Tiange’s face.

“Kill!”

A anger came, and the leader of the undead guard slashed into the air, and nothingness was cut off, and a powerful blow swept through.

With a loud bang, the horrible creature was repelled The kingdom of God on his body was sloshing and almost burst.

Hearing only a sigh, the Terran battle flag swept across the air, and the immortal guard guarded in front of that creature.

“Blasphemy my lord, oh!”

Just after the word “诛” fell, the battle flag exploded, and in the middle of the head of the main creature in the realm, the nine **** kingdoms in the body broke apart on the spot.

A powerful and unmatched blow really split the space and time, cut the kingdom of the sea god, and the blow penetrated a phantom of the kingdom of God.

“Ah ... unwilling, emperor, you are doing this, waiting to be wiped out.”

The Lord of Lords roared, his body was engulfed in the battle flag, and it was instantly broken into a source and swallowed into the battle flag.

The Terran Battle Banner has long been a super arcade, and since its growth, it is undoubtedly powerful and has become a major offensive arcade of the undead guard.

“The guards heard the order and pulled out that dark area.”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange raised his hand and pressed, a terrible vibration suddenly came from a dark area of 300,000 miles away, and the sky was so dark.

There was a thunderous sound, there was a terrifying breath, a terrible roar, and a tumultuous tumbling wave that caused shocks from all sides.

“Kill, settle all obstacles!”

One hundred thousand immortal guards were dispatched, and under the leadership of the commander, they directly entered the dark and forbidden area.

“Oh!”

“The one who comes will die!”

The sky was dark and the sky was covered in the restricted area. It completely lost all sights, and only a few terrible fighting sounds were heard.

One hundred thousand immortal guards conquered the dark restricted area, which contained great threats and terrible creatures.

Within a million miles, hundreds of living creatures and various powerful creatures were brutally washed, mourning voices spread to all sides, attracting strong eyes.

Chapter 965 - Who comes, kill who!

“Immortal War Soul? It shouldn’t exist!”

Above nothingness, a faint utterance came, with a hint of anger, and the Xeon spoke.

I saw a huge idea swept across, the Quartet trembled, and the terrible creature’s will came directly.

Boom!

The shaking came, and the will wanted to wipe out the souls of the blood-washed peoples. The mighty will was like a supreme god.

In the face of this will, the Terran War Spirit is naturally not an opponent. Seeing that it will be crushed, countless Terran War spirits roar.

Humph!

Just listening to the cold humming spread to all sides, the trembling of nothingness, accompanied by a surge of sound, banged out that overbearing will.

The two forces collided with each other, annihilated and disappeared in the nothingness, attracting the attention of more powerful people.

“Have you acted like this, emperor?”

Suddenly a word came from the hazy unknown place, showing its coldness and anger, as if the gods were angry.

As the voice had just fallen, a great figure emerged, overwhelmed by the void, covered with haze, revealing a vast force.

Behind this man, there are huge kingdoms of God, densely intertwined around the body, and the realm of the sea boils.

This is a phantom from the Jiehai. A powerful Jiezhū can't stand it anymore, and Qín Tiāngē is warned directly.

Humph!

Qín Tiāngē snorted, stepped into the sea of the sea, and said coldly: "Zhū Zhēzhū, dare to point at my people, and dare to do it, you don't have to go back, stay."

"Arrogance!"

The lord of the realm was angry and raised his hands to suppress the ten kingdoms of God together. The rally was magnificent, and Gaia was nine days and ten realms.

He is the master of the Ten Realms, who really touched the taboo and is about to bring about a Xeon who cleans up the universe.

The terror strike contains the power of ten kingdoms. Generally speaking, he has stood at the strongest peak under the barriers of the times.

However, he was facing the monster Qín Tiāngē, not to mention the kingdom of God. He had already transformed into a small chaos, which was not something that the other party could compete with.

boom!

Qín Tiāngē slaps with a clap, and there is a rumbling sound in the kingdom of God, one after another, the kingdom of God collapses and is completely blown away.

The real powerful blow knocked out ten kingdoms of God.

Watching Qín Tiāngē explode ten **** kingdoms with one palm, and even the power was not diminished, he shot directly at the gate of that realm.

"Ah ..." a scream came, and the lord's body was smashed into pieces, which was split into pieces by a palm on the spot.

He didn't even have the resistance, so Qín Tiāngē slashed across the barriers of the sea. In such a scene, the Xeon who were seen by all parties were shocked.

hiss!

"This ... how is this possible?"

"The dominion of the Ten Realms is already the strongest under the barriers of the era.

All parties in Jiehai, all horrified, drew air-conditioning, and were frightened by this scene, watching Qín Tiāngē smash a Shijie master with one palm.

The strongest under the barriers of the times have been able to break the barriers of the times, and the Xeon who entered the ancient times are even vulnerable.

"Did no one ever say that when you slaughtered people?"

Qin Tiange's eyes were cold, as if the blade generally swept across all sides of the Jiehai, and the entire Jiehai was silent.

The turbulent world of the sea suddenly became silent, no sound came out, and all the Xeons hidden inside were silent.

When the human race was slaughtered by the hundreds of people, why didn't they say that the people passed? Now, the Terrans have just started the slaughter, and they have jumped out to say that the Terrans have passed.

"People, then you can't summon the heroes of the past, and you want to create an immortal war spirit. This is a taboo against the universe, and you are over."

After a long silence, a voice came from Jiehai, and the most powerful one spoke, saying this, which is the most disagreeable to all parties.

The immortal war spirit is taboo when it appears. It summons the dead British soul on a large scale and casts it into an immortal war soul, which is a taboo that touches the universe.

"joke!"

Qin Tiange snorted and swept across the corner of the sea, disdaining: "My people are acting, I can't turn your fingers around, and no one is allowed to interfere."

"Who comes, kill who!"

In a word, whoever obstructs the human race, then kill anyone, kill one by one, destroy one by one.

This sentence full of murderous words caused the sea to boil and tumbling, and the Xeons hiding in the kingdom of God one by one felt the chilling murderous intention.

Qin Tiange, the emperor, can do it. The ten-sect master who was just killed is the end, dare to jump out and intervene in the human race to die.

"Honestly, my people are acting, no one is allowed to step in, and then someone jumps out to obstruct it. I don't mind the bloodwashing world."

Sweeping all sides of the Jiehai again, Qin Tiange's words passed into it and issued the strongest warning sound. If he dared to jump out, he would not mind slaughtering the entire Jiehai.

"Don't mind the bloodwashing of the sea ..." Sen Ran's words, constantly returning in the sea of the sea, made everyone in the world afraid and a little angry.

However, none of the masters dared to jump out, because Qin Tiange's evil spirit would really do such a thing.

Once someone ran out to obstruct it, then Qin Tiange really made up his mind to directly wash the sea of blood, so as not to be run out by these masters.

"Who wants to wash the world?"

Just as Qin Tiange was about to leave, suddenly a ruthless word came into his ears, and when he looked at it suddenly, he saw above the sea of sea, a terrible figure appeared in a barrier.

Bang!

As soon as this person appeared, the entire Jiehai immediately boiled, rolling up and rolling and beating, as if a breath could seduce the entire Jiehai.

Looking at the figure, Qin Tiange blinked his eyes, sneered at the corner of his mouth, and looked at the other without a word.

“The Lord of the Times is here?”

“This time, there was a good show.”

“The emperor, it seems that he once hit an ancient master. This one ran out, and it seemed that the breath was from the court of life.”

Inside Jiehai, all the hidden ideas are spreading. They are discussing and watching the drama.

An era-level strongman appeared, standing in the barriers of the era, looking down at the sea of bounds and the whole place of origin.

Especially those sharp eyes, with a hint of judgment and looking down, showed strong oppression.

“I want to slaughter Jiehai, why do you want to stop it?” Qin Tiange replied lightly, leaving Jiehai dead, and all the masters were trembling.

They were really worried whether Qin Tiange would actually slaughter the whole sea of the realm.

No one knows how big the Jiehai is. Just knowing how big the universe is, and how big the Jiehai is on the dark side. It is unknown how many strong people are hidden here.

Qin Tiange even suspected that there were some super-taboo creatures hidden in the sea, and he had to be careful.

To say that slaughtering Jiehai is actually a kind of warning. Of course, it is impossible to have the ability to slaughter the entire world.

It was still possible to kill the masters in an area. Qin Tiange smiled when he saw this era of strong men running out.

“Well, let’s not talk, I’ll take a look at this, how did you kill Jiehai?” The age-old strong man who seemed to come from the court of life spoke.

His words were full of irony, but Qin Tiange laughed: “It’s boring to kill the master of the world, it’s only fun to kill a strong man like you.”

“kill!”

As soon as the words fell, Qin Tiange’s figure disappeared, and the words of killing came, and he saw that the barriers of the times burst into pieces, and a figure broke into the barriers of the times.

That was Qin Tiange. He suddenly shot, broke the barriers of the times, and punched them in front of the strong man of that era.

The sudden blow made the face of that era-level strong man startled, very angry, and raised his hand to fight back.

boom!

The two fists against each other and made a move against each other, but it turned out that the era-class powerhouse was beaten out.

“Time-class, I haven’t really killed, you don’t have to go.” Qin Tiange step by step, his words revealed the world’s best killing.

He really prepared himself this time. Seeing that this age class dared to appear in the barriers of the age, this was the opportunity.

Dare to show up inside the barriers of the era and pretend to be dead, that is, the act of seeking death, was directly entered by Qin Tiange, and faced this era of strong men.

“You ...” The man looked horrified, looked at Qin Tiange in front of him, and suddenly disappeared. The reappearance had blocked his possibility of recovering the ancient times.

Qin Tiange waved the road to antiquity, and the surroundings were completely separated, and the barriers of the times were blocked.

“Do you dare to block the ancient passage of this seat, aren’t you afraid of being bitten back?” The man was angry and looked in horror at Qin Tiange, which could even block the ancient passage.

Yes, Qin Tiange directly blocked the passage to ancient times, that is, the passage he came from, was blocked.

“Before killing you, it’s enough to kill you!”

Qin Tiange sneered, stepping forward, as if stepping on the sky, the rumble was completely over the strong man of that era.

The age-level judges from the court of life, since ancient times, want to stop the emperor Qin Tiange, by the way pretense.

As a result, the pretense could not be achieved, but the road to return to ancient times was blocked, and this became a bird in a cage, waiting to be killed.

The only way is to kill Qin Tiange, otherwise he will be miserable.

“kill!”

The judge, Li Xiao, broke out with anger in his heart and hit Xeon, exceeding the limits of the past.

The blow was furious, and the force from ancient times broke out, shaking the barriers of the times.

Bang!

Two strong men were killed in a group, an era judge, walking down from the ancient times, one is a human tribe, not an era, but capable of fighting an era of strong.

Every move of Qin Tiange carried chaotic force, as if one side's chaotic power erupted, the judges who fought were crying out.

As the fight continued, the judge was horrified, because he realized that Qin Tiange's power was becoming more and more terrifying, and finally he completely suppressed him.

boom!

With a punch, a slam, flesh and blood flew from the judge, and a scream of screams shocked the whole sea.

It was only for Shang Qin Tiange to understand how terrible this emperor was. He was not a human, but an outright monster.

Facing him, it was like facing a small and dense chaotic world, violent and violent, unable to stop.

Chapter 966 - Fallen age collapse!

With a scream, someone spit blood, his body cracked, and it almost exploded into pieces. It was really scary.

The sea is boiling, the endless waves are rolled up, and the rude ideas hidden in the kingdom of God are watching the barriers of the age.

"His, that judge in the life court is not enough."

"Are the strong men from the ancient times unable to compete with this emperor?"

At all sides of the Jiehai, many world leaders and some taboo creatures awoke, watching the two figures fighting in the barriers of the times.

One of them was the judge of the life court from ancient times, who was very strong, but was beaten by the emperor Qin Tiange, and was miserable.

"You broke the taboo?"

The judge was screaming and looked shocked. His eyes were inconceivable. Obviously, Qin Tiange broke the taboo of the universe.

What are taboos are things that should not be broken. For example, certain taboos in the body, once broken, touch the taboos of the universe and bring threats.

Fighting with Qin Tiange, the judges deeply felt the terror power from his body, a kind of cosmic power.

No, or more primitive power, the power of great chaos, is a terrible power of the primitive universe, which belongs to the taboo of the great universe.

Qin Tiange possesses the power of this primitive chaos, which proves that he broke the taboo and embarked on a taboo path and became a taboo creature in the universe.

"You know it's too late." Qin Tiange replied indifferently, his figure flashed, and he raised his hand and slashed in front of the judge.

A strong palm contained a primitive power, chaotic boiling, and a bang cracked his frontal bone, flesh and blood scattered.

“Ah ... why didn't you break the taboo and not be wiped out?” The judge screamed, and yelled in horror.

He couldn't figure it out, broke the taboo, why he hasn't been wiped out by the universe and why he can stay here.

Looking at the miserable judge, Qin Tiange smiled coldly: “If I go to ancient times, do you still have a way to live?”

The words were suddenly chilling. The judge was suddenly cold and his heart stopped beating, apparently frightened.

Indeed, with such a powerful force as Qin Tiange, when he entered ancient times, no one could restrict his existence at all, even the power of ancient life courts.

However, the judges laughed and said, “You thought that the ancients would have these powers. If you go to the ancients, you must die terribly.”

“Is it?” A cold word came from behind, which made the judge feel cold, and instinctively tried to avoid it, but he was stiff and imprisoned inexplicably.

Just listening to the flutter, the heart was aching, and then saw the unknown heart pierce a hand, and a beating heart was grasped on the five fingers.

This heart is extremely powerful, containing the power of antiquity, a power of ancient times, and the ancient atmosphere is revealed.

“Isn't it possible to stop the power of ancient times?” The judge's pupils shrank, and a hint of despair flashed.

He has the power of ancient times, and he has been tempered to a terrible degree, not that the power of ancient times cannot break through its body.

But Qin Tiange is not in this column, the original chaotic power directly pierced the ancient forces and dug out his heart.

boom!

Suddenly, a powerful force erupted inside the judge, and Qin Tiange was shaken away, and he flew away quickly.

His face was pale, a hole was revealed in his heart, two sides were transparent, and blood poured out, leaving a heart missing.

“Do you think that you can't live without the heart?” The trial judge smiled horribly, and saw the hole in the heart squirming quickly.

The flesh and blood were intertwined, and a whole heart soon grew out, and then the wound healed and recovered.

The Lord of the Ancients has totally amazing power. They will not die if their heads or hearts are blown out. They have already embarked on a road of gradual immortality.

“The power of ancient times is interesting.” Qin Tiange smiled lightly, looking at the heart of his palm, which contained a strong ancient power.

With a click, the five fingers crushed the heart, and the ancient power contained in it was directly absorbed and refined by him, and soon assimilated into the power of chaos.

After absorbing this ancient force, Qin Tiange gradually realized some secrets of ancient times. This force has extraordinary mysterious power.

No wonder it surpassed the Lord of the Realm, got out of it, and was not cleansed by the universe. Obviously, everything was due to the power of ancient times.

Perhaps in a time farther than the ancient times, those strong are more terrible, already have an unknown and unsolvable ability, it is difficult to kill.

boom!

Suddenly a slap in the palm, the barriers of the times broke, causing great turmoil in the sea, and countless kingdoms of gods rose with the raging waves.

The hidden masters inside were all frightened and watching this world-famous battle, the judges of the era were actually dug and beaten.

Although I haven't died, even a broken body can recover in a blink of an eye. I have to say that the era is different from the past.

He stood in the ancient times, attracting the power of ancient times, constantly repairing his wounds, and carrying the violent bombardment of the emperor Qin Tiange.

“kill!”

Qin Tiange shouted and broke the barrier again with one punch, and with a click, the judge's entire head exploded, and he gathered and recovered all at once.

It was like a scattered piece of sand suddenly reunited, shattered and recovered, and it felt as if it could not be killed.

“Haha, you can't kill this seat.” The judge returned, taunting, as if thinking that Qin Tiange could not kill him.

Qin Tiange was really surprised. Looking at this recovering judge, he was unscathed. No matter he broke his heart or burst his head, he could not die.

There seemed to be a mysterious force that surged from the barriers of the times and restored his physical trauma for him. Any injuries were recovered at once.

“This is the power of antiquity, standing in antiquity, immortal?” Qin Tiange said to himself, step by step.

He didn't care a bit, he didn't believe that there were undead creatures, and he might not have found a lethal point of the opponent.

Once his fatal point was broken, Qin Tiange believed that the powerful people would die.

“Then let me see, how many times can you recover?”

Looking at the proud judge, Qin Tiange sneered, the figure disappeared without a trace, and then he appeared to have punched through the judge’s body.

With a click, the fist suddenly shook, and the judge’s entire body exploded and flew into countless fragments.

call!

The next moment, the numerous pieces of flesh that had broken apart suddenly gathered, and instantly turned into the appearance of a judge, and recovered again, with a hint of sarcasm on his face.

He sneered and said, “Give up, I will stand up in the ancient times, immortal, no matter how strong you are, you won’t die unless you kill me in the ancient times.”

The words of the judges made the powerful men in all circles of the world silent, and shocked the horrors of the era-level powerful men, and they were immortal in ancient times.

In fact, it is an illusion. It is not immortal, but it is difficult to kill. Because they have achieved the ancient transformation, the body and even the real spirit have some mysterious changes, with a trace of ancient power, it is difficult to kill.

“Age of the age, is it really impossible to kill?”

“That would be terrible.”

“Immortal!”

There was a wave of volition in Jiehai, many masters were shocked, and even attracted the attention of many taboo creatures.

These forbidden creatures are hidden in the sea of territories and have never appeared or even entered ancient times, but they are stronger than the era.

Some taboo creatures can even crush the age-class powerhouse, but they see a different situation of the age-class and can’t kill.

“Age, can’t you really kill?”

“I don’t think so!”

Some forbidden creatures quietly revealed a ray of thought, watching the judge, though careful, they still caught Qin Tiange’s attention.

He swept his eyes across the sea and caught all the hidden and terrible waves, which were all taboo creatures hidden from the ancient world.

“Sure enough, there are many taboo creatures hidden. These creatures are the threat. There are barriers of the times in ancient times, and few people are willing to come down.” Qin Tiange said to himself, thoughtful.

For the ancient strong, generally unwilling to cross the barriers of the times, it is very dangerous, and the gains are worthless.

But those forbidden creatures that do n't enter the ancient world are much more terrible. They have no scruples, except that they do not attract the universe to kill them, they are a forbidden creature.

“Mr. King, give up. You can't kill this seat. You will draw back when you wait. You won't know how to die.”

The judge looked coldly at Qin Tiange and could not fight, but the opponent could not kill him. This was his capital.

Qin Tiange retracted his gaze and looked at the judge faintly, a faint smile smiled from the corner of his mouth.

“Can't kill?” Qin Tiange chuckled, and said to himself: “If I want the secrets of the ancient information, if you want to see the mysteries of the power of the ancient, you would have died a thousand times.”

“what?”

The judge's heart trembled, and the secret passage was not good. Before he could react, he saw that the barriers around the times suddenly became hazy and illusory.

In the end, the breath of the time disappeared, and the sense of connection to the ancients disappeared as if it had never appeared before. Seeing this, the judge was horrified and suddenly realized that he might fall into the barriers of the age. Already.

boom!

There was a muffled sound, his head roared, and blood and water mixed with his brain and flew all over the place, and his head was blown again.

And this time, the judge's consciousness was a little scared, because he could no longer sense or even use the power of ancient times to recover himself.

“No ...” A snarling roar came from the headless body of the judge, and the true spirit was gradually forced out.

Huh!

The figure of Qin Tiange suddenly turned into one incarnation, and the whole figure surrounded the headless body of the judge.

Then, the nine figures played a golden light together, covering the body, and instantly tore the ancient body.

Just listening to the bang, a light spot flew out of the countless flesh fragments, and soon gathered into a shadow, blurred, it was the true spirit of the judge.

It turned out that his true spirit had merged with the power of ancient times into his body, which constituted an immortal situation. He could quickly restore completeness by breaking the body with the power of ancient times.

But if he loses the power of the ancient times, he will be nothing, and he will be directly shattered by Qin Tiange and the true spirit will be refined.

“No no no, there is something to discuss, I am the ancient judge of the court of life, you can’t kill me.” The judge’s true spirit exclaimed.

It was a pity that these words went out quickly, and a click, the real spirit was crushed on the spot by Qin Tiange, and even a huge memory inside was refined.

An ancient Lord, a judge of the age, just fell here.

“Let me see the secrets of antiquity.”

Qin Tiange said to himself, swallowing this refined information, the secrets from ancient times are unveiling the layer of mystery for him.

Chapter 967 - The secret of the times

In ancient times, a man-made era, a refuge, also became an ancient prison cage.

With the absorption of the true spirit memory of the judge from ancient times, a little secret was revealed in Qin Tiange’s eyes, and the mystery under the mystery of ancient times was clearly seen.

“Man-made development, create an era, isolate the big universe to clean ...”

Qin Tiange stood inside the barriers of the times, silently absorbing that memory, and seeing things that he had never known before.

As for some secrets of the ancient times, a corner of the veil was finally released, and when I saw something amazing, my heart shook.

In ancient times, it was created by man. The original intention was a refuge created by some powerful terrorists.

But in the end, it became a prison cage, unable to escape the great cleansing of the universe. In ancient times, it also shrouded the cleansing scope of the great universe.

In this way, the ancient times can not hide, then continue to open up, this has the so-called ancient times, the ancient times, the ancient times, the ancient times, the ancient times appeared.

These are supreme powers, created by some terror creatures in concert, in order to avoid the cleaning of the universe.

As the repair progresses, the cleaning of the universe becomes more horrible, and even you can’t compete, you will be cleaned up directly.

The only way is to keep avoiding, avoiding the cleaning of the big universe again and again, in order to survive and survive.

Therefore, in ancient times and so on, they were all prisoners, because they could n’t get out and did n’t dare to come out. Once they came out, they would be cleaned up.

call!

Qin Tiange exhaled softly, his eyes flickered with the slightest light, and he had realized some things he had never understood, and the old doubts had been solved.

“So it is!” Ming Wu realized something and solved the confusion of the past. Qin Tiange became clearer about the future.

The big universe is terrifying. Cleaning is inevitable, but he already has a clear idea in his heart and sees what he wants.

Hum!

Suddenly, a shock came, and the ancient road that was originally blocked suddenly broke down, and an extremely horrifying force was beaten down from ancient times.

Sudden changes caused Qin Tiange to dodge, but he did not dodge, but hit him with a punch.

boom!

The fist seemed to smash into an ancient era, and the mighty power from the ancients was full of oppression, and almost suppressed Qin Tiange.

In the end, he was punched through this energy by a punch, and the sudden attack was broken, and the blow from ancient times was broken.

“Blasphemy the court, openly challenge the authority of life, ru, aren’t you afraid of death?”

There was an indifferent utterance in the ancient passage, which was attacked by the ancient strong. Although it was broken by Qin Tiange, it was still amazing.

Looking at the broken ancient passage, the unknown torrent is tumbling, as long as you pass there, you can enter the ancient times.

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange didn’t enter into it, his face was dull, his eyes glowed with dim light, as if seeing through the barriers of ancient barriers, he saw a terrible figure standing in ancient times.

It was he who shot and struck down since ancient times. He wanted to suddenly kill Qin Tiange, but he failed.

“There is so much nonsense. The court of life can’t control my head. Since you don’t want to come down, don’t talk nonsense. Don’t waste your energy. You have no ability to kill me from ancient times.”

With a slight disdain, Qin Tiange turned and left the barriers of the era, ignoring that figure when he did not exist.

Because the opponent is strong, it is more terrible than the dead judge before, and it is so that he dare not come out.

Even dare to step into the channel and enter the barriers of the times, because the stronger you are, the more you will be washed away by the universe. Those who dare to run out must be someone who wants to die.

“For many years, no one has dared to ignore this seat, you are the first in countless years.”

The indifferent voice came again, the ancient barriers shook, and a terrible figure slowly appeared in the passage.

The atmosphere of terror permeated, and the powerful and creatures in the various circles in the world were a little scary and difficult to counteract.

Hum!

Just when the figure was preparing to venture into the passage and want to kill Qin Tiange, a sudden induction came from the deep universe.

Qin Tiange's pupils shrank, he stopped, and looked towards the ancient passage behind the barriers of the times. An unknown force suddenly gathered.

"Huh, I hate being washed ..." The man grunted coldly, his body slowly receding, his breath disappearing.

In the end, the unknown cosmic power gradually faded, as if it had never appeared, but Qin Tiange was sure to have just appeared.

After all, the man retreated, and a strong man in ancient times, just when he wanted to enter the channel, caused a cleansing reaction in the universe, which was incredible.

Sure enough, the stronger it is, the more it will be cleaned. This is a kind of cleaning of powerful creatures by the universe, cleaning up all threatening creatures.

"The judge of the life court, you are strong, but unfortunately you can't get out, you should be hiding in the ancient times, right?" Qin Tiange smiled and looked at the breath deep in the passage.

"presiding judge?"

"It turned out to be the presiding judge in the life court, no wonder it was so terrible."

In Jiehai, many creatures and their owners were horrified and shocked by the news. The behemoth of the life court has various mechanisms.

And that terrible figure was a presiding judge, whose status was extremely high, and his strength was even more unfathomable.

The opponent turned out to be a judge, but unfortunately he couldn't get out. This was so powerful that the universe could not exist, and it would be cleared as soon as it appeared.

This word was passed in, and the man was silent for a long time before he said, "You have stolen the memory of the judges of this seat and learned the secrets of ancient times. It seems that you do not want to step into ancient times?"

"Let's take care of yourself, ancient times are still shrouded in the cleansing of the universe, and you have reached the limit of ancient times. If you don't want to be cleaned, you should hide into the ancient times."

Qin Tiange sneered, ignoring the other party, and instead said this sentence, leaving the presiding judge completely silent. This remark was in his mind.

The presiding judge has indeed reached the limit that ancient times can bear. Once he does not enter the ancient times, he may be washed away. This is a kind of sorrow for the strong.

“You, good, I remember you!”

For a long time, a message came from the chief judge, which gradually disappeared, the passage disappeared, and the barriers of the time gradually disappeared.

All this happened in the eyes of the powerful men from all sides of the world. Seeing a presiding judge couldn't help He Qin Tiange, the emperor, one after another was terrified.

Could no one overpower the Emperor? I just killed an era judge and ran out of a judge, but he didn't want him.

Who else can suppress the emperor, and who can restrict the human race, it is likely that no one can restrict the emperor.

“Forbidden creatures, I don't know what it is like?”

Qin Tiange stepped out of the air one step back, returned to the place of origin, and looked at the sea of nothingness, with a strong and subtle atmosphere interwoven.

He looked at them one by one, and those taboo creatures felt Qin Tiange's gaze, and they all felt cold.

“What does he want?”

“Did we not mess with this emperor?”

“There is no peace hiding here, I hope he does not mess around, otherwise we have to be exposed under the eyes of the universe.”

Some forbidden creatures whisper, pass information to each other, and communicate with each other, because they are all forbidden creatures and have common characteristics.

They are very strong one by one, so strong that some age-class powerhouses cannot compete, and even some taboo creatures can directly block the cleaning and induction of the universe.

They hide, do not want to enter the ancient times, this has become a universe of taboo creatures, do not come out easily, but once it is provoked, it may be a disaster.

“The emperor may have embarked on a taboo road. He does not enter ancient times, but he can kill the strong in ancient times.”

“Well, it seems that some people have taken the taboo road, and they are still the emperor of this generation.”

The vague voices were communicating. Although they could not hear the details, Qin Tiange still felt that they were discussing.

For these forbidden creatures, Qin Tiange is actually more curious. What did he do to escape the cleaning of the universe and not have to enter the ancient times?

“Find a time, go and meet a few taboo creatures for a while.” Qin Tiange said to himself, turned back to the palace of the Emperor.

But this self-talking to himself made many taboo creatures inexplicably chilled, with an ominous premonition.

“See my queen!”

“May my emperor be eternal, and the human race be immortal!”

As soon as I came back, I saw crowds of people in all directions. Qi Qi bowed down. The scene was so spectacular that he could not see his head.

The whole wasteland is covered with these figures, one by one exuding skyward battle, and each body is surrounded by a terrible arc.

They are the heroes of the human race summoned by Qin Tiange this time. After completing the baptism, they became true immortal war spirits after blood-washing the hundreds.

The sheer number of people has made all ethnic groups tremble, and a total of 50 billion war souls have returned, but some of them have returned, and half of them have not returned. They are clearing the battlefield.

All the successful baptisms returned and became the soul of war, only 100 billion, and only 100 billion of the previous hundreds of billions of British souls succeeded.

“No courtesy!”

Qin Tiange waved his hand gently, tens of billions of war spirits brushed up and aligned, as if a whole was generally shocking.

This is the battle soul, the immortal battle soul, the real whole is that they already have a common ground.

The strong men of all ethnic groups in the distant region have seen the situation here. All the hundreds of creatures within a million miles have opened some surrenders, and the rest have been washed and killed by blood.

As for why the people of the hundred races who have surrendered are accepted, because the people need slaves, and the people can enslave the people, why can't the people?

Slaves came to mine, and what mines were naturally the source ore. Qin Tiange wanted the source ore

Suddenly, a single battle flag was born, and one hundred thousand powerful legions stood under the banner, all with strong breaths.

The most important thing is that they are all flesh and blood bodies that are living one by one. They are real beings, and they have been transformed from undead to flesh and blood.

“This is an immortal guard. In the past, like you, they were in the state of war souls. Now they have successfully reversed death and are resurrected.” Qin Tiange said a word, shaking all parties, tens of billions of war souls burning .

What this word means is that Qin Tiange has the ability to bring them back to life and become a living being again.

“All returning war spirits have a chance to become the next undead guard, are you willing to follow me to conquer the 10,000 peoples and create a glorious race again?”

“Follow me!”

“I’m willing to expand the territory for my emperor and conquer the people!”

Suddenly, tens of billions, or even hundreds of billions of human war spirits, knelt down and bowed to the knees here, their faces were frantic, and their pupils glowed with radiance.

Yes, they saw the hope of resurrection, not a soul, but alive again.

Qin Tiange promised that as long as they can grow up, they can enter the emperor’s immortal guard and become a real immortal guard.

Bang!

A mysterious shock spread to all sides, and the strong horrified, and saw the strands of purple gold shining into the sea. From the body of a hundred billion war souls, the soul’s will poured out, and a bunch of rays came together and turned into a torrential river.

That is luck, faith, and emperor luck!

What a horrible belief that erupted from a hundred billion war spirits, Qin Tiange, who had been exhausted by people’s fortunes, was suddenly enveloped by a majestic endless stream of purple fortunes and was instantly drowned.

Chapter 968 - Big universe obliteration

The air of luck flowed into the empire of the Emperor, gradually disappeared, and an invisible force was fed back to Qin Tiange.

Inside the body, 60 trillion small chaos boiled, as if it suddenly increased a lot in a moment, so that Qin Tiange’s overall strength was improving, the breath leaked out.

When everything was calm, Qin Tiange slowly opened his eyes, looking at the dimness, and a heavy breath was gathering in the distance.

“Are you here?”

Qin Tiange murmured to himself, as if predicting something, watching the horrible waves coming from nothingness, and unknown forces were locking him.

This power is no stranger, it is the eradication and cleansing from the universe, Qin Tiange has touched this limit.

“Linger, take away all the war spirits.” Qin Tiange suddenly threw out a gray seal of the seal, and saw the instrumental spirit fly out directly, emitting a light.

Suddenly, within a million miles, all the war spirits of all races disappeared and were absorbed into that mysterious seal.

It was the emperor's seal of Qin Tiange, who created it himself, re-transformed, and got rid of the previous shackles.

“Xingyue, Antu, this is over to you.”

Immediately, Qin Tiange waved a strong prohibition, and instantly imprinted the Pangu seal, covering the entire imperial city.

After doing this, he took away the original ore searched from various clans, stepped directly into nothingness and disappeared.

Even if it was too late, Qin Tiange disappeared, leaving only Antu and the unknown moon and stars, and tens of millions of people.

Everyone was stunned, standing here stupidly, having no idea what was going on.

In fact, Qin Tiange didn't want to leave in such a hurry, but he has just touched the cleansing boundary of the universe and the power of eradication has come.

The killing power belonging to Qin Tiange has taken shape. How terrible is the killing power formulated based on his universe virus and taboo creatures?

Therefore, Qin Tiange left here directly to avoid being implicated in the human race and all war spirits.

boom!

In the midst of it, an unknown force locked Qin Tiange, and no matter where he went, he swept directly towards him.

Above the unknown nothingness, Qin Tiange broke the realm of the realm and entered the realm of the realm, causing shocks from all sides.

“Men, what does he want?”

“I don't really want the blood to kill the world?”

The masters of each circle were shocked and made speculations, some were trembling, and were frightened by the sudden arrival of Qin Tiange.

The emperor was too cruel, and said that it was very likely that he would slaughter the Jiehai, and the most incredible thing was that Qin Tiange actually entered the Jiehai.

“No, how can the Emperor physically enter the realm of the sea?”

“His, this, this is too scary.”

At this time, many realm masters noticed that Qin Tiange entered the realm of the sea with his physical body instead of the real spirit.

All the main creatures in the world, without exception, were thrilled and incredible about Qin Tiange's physical presence here.

Jiehai, there is no material existence, only the illusory true spirit and will, here is the world of the soul, the opposite of the universe.

Wow!

At the time when many realm masters speculated, Qin Tiange suddenly raised his hand and broke through the realm of the realm of the realm, breaking through the realm of the realm directly from the realm of the realm, breaking the mysterious barrier of the origin.

Soon he returned to the high-dimensional vacuum in the place of origin, looking at the clusters of galaxies around him and the hazy place of origin.

“Come on, let me see how terrible the cleaning of the universe is, and why are all creatures afraid?”

When he came here, Qin Tiange stood quietly in the deep void, looking out at the unknown place in the deep, where the terrible power was rolling in.

The goal was Qin Tiange, who was locked in, and had a deep intention to kill from the universe. There was a feeling of swearing on without clearing it.

“This threatens the universe, isn’t there some kind of drama?” Qin Tiange said to himself, feeling a little upset.

He knows how powerful he is, but if he can threaten the universe, it seems a bit of a play.

For the entire universe, even Qin Tiange cannot see how vast it is at present, and there are countless secrets that have not been answered, let alone threatening the universe.

This power, which is here to show prestige, says that it threatens the big universe, which is really exaggerated.

boom!

Inexplicably, a force suddenly enveloped the body and was blocked around, an unknown force eroded, and Qin Tiange was to be broken down and erased a little.

Suddenly, there were no signs at all, as if a force appeared out of thin air, directly covering Qin Tiange himself.

“So fast, so strong!” Qin Tiange was surprised, feeling surrounded by a block of unknown forces covering him, constantly breaking down his body.

This power is terrible. Even if Qin Tiange is currently fighting with the power of great chaos, he has a feeling that is hard to stop.

The eradication of the big universe belongs to Qin Tiange ’s robbery. Only the same strength can be used to counter it. The chaos in Qin Tiange ’s body is an original baby chaos universe.

This force can be countered, but it is still insufficient, because the big universe is an extremely mature and huge universe.

It’s like a baby that hasn’t formed yet, and a fully mature and powerful man, the two cannot be compared at all.

Kaka ...

There was a slight crack in the body, and the invisible forces disintegrated Qin Tiange's body, as if cleaning up a virus.

It felt to him like it was a tumor of the universe, which was cleaned up and crushed by the anti-virus software of the universe.

“Great chaos, suppress!”

Qin Tiange drank, countless small chaos in his body almost boiled and raged, and a surge of primitive power came out, blocking the cleanup from the universe.

But he still underestimated the unknown power of the big universe, which originally blocked this clean-up erosion, but soon attracted a stronger decomposing force.

The body gradually began to decompose, and the clothes on the body instantly annihilated, and then the body fur appeared a little dissolution, and disappeared into nothingness.

The unknown force is to clean up the threat. Qin Tiange has already constituted a threat to the big universe, and naturally ushered in a terrible purge.

This is the so-called Big Universe Cleansing, and it is inevitable for anyone, any race creature, and it cannot resist this cleansing.

The only thing that can be done is avoidance, but Qin Tiange doesn't want such a dodgy escape, what's the point of staying awake?

Hum ...

In the nothingness, weird forces came from each other to intertwine, and Qin Tiange's body was entangled back and forth and blocked here.

Rising out of thin air, an unprecedented crisis permeated Qin Tiange to realize that he might fall here.

“The cleansing of the universe is really terrifying and weird, and it can't be stopped.” Qin Tiange looked dignified and felt the threat of death.

There is also the kind of deep maliciousness from the depths of the big universe. It feels uncomfortable to hate his taboo.

boom!

The body exploded, and a splash of flesh and blood flew out. Qin Tiange's body began to crack a little, and the flesh and blood could not be maintained.

He watched his body break apart little by little, scattered around, turning into little gray particles.

It was chaos, the small chaos in the cells. Although the flesh and blood splashes disappeared, the small chaos of each cell was preserved.

Under the unknown cleaning power, the small chaos began to become more and more condensed, as if tempered in a crisis.

Wow!

Immediately afterwards, Qin Tiange's arm shattered and turned into flesh and flew around, as if disappearing into fly ash.

First left hand, then right hand, then both feet quickly turned into flying ash to dissipate, and finally all of the lower body disappeared.

The terrible cleaning and the decomposition of the big universe directly disintegrated Qin Tiange into a void of ashes.

In the end, Qin Tiange had only one head floating there, surrounded by hazy mist, and chaos was boiling.

His eyes were extremely calm. There was no fear of death at all. Instead, he was calm and scary, as if his body was broken and unconcerned.

“Chaos elementary, condensed real body.”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange opened his mouth and drank, and then saw the chaos spurting out from his brows, instantly covering the four corners, forcing the force of the universe to drive away.

Immediately afterwards, the chaos was surging, quickly gathered into a ball, and finally recovered completely again.

Uh ...

The recovered body became stronger, full of mysterious power, and seemed to be more terrified by the tempering of the universe.

Qin Tiange was surprised, and found that the body returned from the reorganization seemed to become stronger, with a hint of mysterious and unknown power.

The power of the big universe was actually drawn by the reorganized flesh to bury a trace of hidden body, which is a bit amazing.

boom!

However, before the body was reorganized, it was crushed directly by a more terrible force and collapsed again.

This time, even with his head collapsed, only a cloud of gray chaos remained, drawing the small chaos of the cells that escaped around.

Soon, when the chaos spread, Qin Tiange's figure was revealed, and he recovered again, becoming stronger and more mysterious.

“The stronger it is, the more horrible it is to obliterate it?”

Qin Tiange murmured to himself, and suddenly felt the body's inexplicable annihilation, turned into countless fragments and scattered, the unknown power shuttled and interleaved, constantly shattering his body and even his will.

It is a pity that the true spirit cannot be found, because the true spirit of Qin Tiange is in the chaotic birthplace, and every small chaos has a complete will hidden in it.

If you want to crush the true spirit, you must break through the chaos, otherwise you cannot crush Qin Tiange's true spirit and will, and you will not kill him.

boom! Bang bang ...

Collapsed again and again, Qin Tiange reorganized again and again, as if to compete with the big universe, refused to hide in the ancient times, just clenched his teeth and insisted on recovering again and again, without being killed.

As time passed by little by little, this emptiness of the deep space of the universe was completely isolated from the universe, filled with horrible obliteration from the big universe.

“Endless?”

When the physical body was reorganized again, Qin Tiange looked a little impatient. The deep maliciousness from the big universe made him very uncomfortable, destroyed and disintegrated again and again, but it was still endless. Let him Somewhat upset.

boom!

With a roar, a primitive and violent force broke out in Qin Tiange's body, breaking the blockade of the universe in an instant.

As if being angered, there was a terror wave in the depths of the universe, and Qin Tiange suddenly felt the danger of death, a familiar danger.

“Well, this is ...” Qin Tiange's face changed slightly, and he suddenly looked up, and saw an illusive hand pinch him instantly.

Slightly!

With a crisp sound, everything there turned into nothingness, was cleaned and wiped away instantly.

Chapter 969 - Behind the scenes, separation of origins

In the deep space of the universe, in an erased area, the illusive hand gradually disappeared as if it had never appeared.

The area where Qin Tiange was originally was completely wiped out, gradually filled with the surrounding material and restored, and then returned to normal in a blink of an eye.

But Qin Tiange disappeared, his breath disappeared, as if it had been erased by the universe, and there was no such person in the world.

Is Qin Tiange dead?

Zizi ...!

When all the obliterating power disappeared, a trace of chaos suddenly emerged in that area, making a loud noise.

A ray of gray patterns intertwine and coil, turning into a mysterious and primitive pattern in the deep space of the universe, rumbling in circles.

This pattern, like a mysterious symbol, floats in the deep space of the universe and intertwines a ray of chaos.

In the central area, a group of chaos loomed, and gradually, more chaotic light spots came from all directions, converging.

Hum!

In the end, the mysterious pattern sings a strange buzz, an original breath permeates, and a wave of life surges from it.

I saw in the central chaotic air mass of the pattern, a hazy figure suddenly appeared, and the breath seemed a little chaotic.

However, it quickly stabilized, and gradually turned into a real figure. It was Qin Tiange who disappeared and regrouped again.

“Huh ... so dangerous!”

Qin Tiange stepped out of the chaos and sighed softly, his face pale and extremely weak, as if exhausted.

He flashed a palpitation in his eyes, and he almost hung up just now, crushed and killed by a sudden unreal hand.

The hand came suddenly, and he couldn't evade and contend, he was crushed directly. Fortunately, he finally turned the danger.

Nevertheless, Qin Tiange suffered serious injuries in his body, and most of the small cells in the body were instantly crushed and wiped away.

Now, although he has recovered, he still feels resigned. He once experienced this death.

“That hand ...” Qin Tiange's face changed, a flash of anger flashed through his pupils, and a violent breath poured into the soul.

The real spirit is constantly shaking, as if encountering the enemies of the past. That's right, the picture of the past is full of old paintings.

As the spirit of people's books, the old people's books were inexplicably crushed. This memory is still deeply imprinted in the fragments of the true spirit and has been preserved to this day.

This is what led to Qin Tiange's reincarnation one after another. Every life is ignorant and ignorant.

Only in this life did the real awakening open up, and with ego, everything was because of the mysterious hand of the past, which shattered human books.

And the illusive hand just now gave Qin Tiange an extremely strong feeling that the power of both is the same.

In other words, the hand that crushed the book was the same force as the one that was almost wiped out.

This shows what? Qin Tiange's face was a bit gloomy, his eyes were looking at nothingness, deep in the universe, what was hidden there?

Who were the enemies of the past, where did the power to destroy the universe come from, and could it be the same creature?

In the real spirit, a long dust of memories kept flowing, constantly flashing the scenes of the past being crushed.

Comparing the illusive hand just now, Qin Tiange's heart became heavier and more angry, twice. This time, he was almost wiped out again.

Once I was wiped out, and now I was almost wiped out. How can I not be angry?

“Who the **** is it?” Qin Tiange suppressed the nameless anger in his heart, secretly vigilant, and had a deep fear of the universe and even that mysterious unreal hand.

He didn't know where the hand came from, why he suddenly came and crushed him with a pinch. Is this the cleanup from the big universe?

“Who led all this?”

“What's hidden behind the universe?”

One question after another came to mind, making Qin Tiange feel heavy and feeling a deep potential threat, but also a strong sense of crisis and urgency.

Strength, everything is strength. Without enough strength, it can only be slaughtered by people. It will be wiped out by unknown forces at any time.

Qin Tiange stood under that mysterious pattern, his body was completely isolated, and a wave of chaos permeated.

His eyes twinkled with light, thinking quickly in his heart, he came across this way, and began to sort out some things and secrets.

Those who drive in nothingness must pierce the universe, one by one, the secrets of the big universe, and the terrible things hidden behind the scenes.

The mysteries one by one cannot be solved, but once connected, there is an amazing guess and discovery.

“Trouble, the cosmic fetal membranes in the body are damaged, and the small chaotic cells are almost lost. This time they almost planted.” Qin Tiange looked at the physical condition, and 999 cosmological membranes were damaged.

The small chaos in the body almost lost more than half of it, and the loss was heavy. This time the big universe cleaned up almost gave him an account.

And most importantly, let Qin Tiange capture and understand the secret of the old hand, and was inexplicably crushed and killed when he was still the spirit of human books.

Now I finally see a little secret. The owner of that hand is a bit horrible, which makes Qin Tiange feel heavy, and the road to revenge is far away.

“Resume consumption first.” Qin Tiange said to himself, his body wrapped in that mysterious and chaotic pattern, and broke the vacuum and disappeared here.

He randomly found an empty deep space in the universe, Qin Tiange hid directly there, and began to repair his physical injuries.

The restoration of small chaotic cells requires huge energy, and the repair of the cosmic fetal membranes in the body requires the power of origin.

Fortunately, the blood-washed hundreds of people had obtained many original ore, enough to restore this consumption and damage.

Rumble ...

One of the original chaotic patterns was turning, and the gray chaotic air shrouded there, blocking Qin Tiange’s body from contact with the outside world.

Soon, piles of original crystal ore were crushed, turned into a body of force and poured into the body, and began a long repair.

This repair process was really long, and Qin Tiange didn’t know how much time he had taken to repair it.

After all the small chaos in the body has recovered and the cosmic fetal membranes in the body have been completely restored, it has been unknown how many years have passed.

“Cultivation has no sun and moon, it has been thousands of years ...”

Qin Tiange woke up quietly, flashing two silver awns in his eyes, capturing the information of time passing, it has been a whole thousand years.

It took a thousand years to resume a cultivation exercise, but you can imagine how severe the damage before Qin Tiange was, and it was almost wiped out.

Ugh!

With a soft sigh, Qin Tiange moved his body, feeling stronger than before, and was filled with a more ancient and primitive power.

The power of great chaos is surging, no matter whether it is 60 trillion small chaos, chaotic elementary tires, or even all cosmic membranes in the body, great progress has been made.

At least better than his previous self, Qin Tiange said that he could easily crush, which is progress, living next to death, and making a big breakthrough in life and death.

“It’s still not strong enough. Once killed, I can’t be killed again.” Qin Tiange stood up to himself.

He had already taken precautions and realized some of the secrets of the past, and naturally did not want to be wiped out a second time.

“Ok?”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange turned his head, suddenly turned to look at the place of origin, and vaguely sensed a strange wave.

I only saw that in the place of origin, a mysterious force suddenly separated and split from the place of origin.

That power is very majestic, very old, revealing a primitive source of power, turned out to be a majestic source of power.

“A source of power?”

Qin Tiange was surprised, and then a movement in his heart made him immediately understand what was happening. This was a big source of power separated from the place of origin.

Once the power of this cluster has left the source, it will inevitably become a galaxy in the deep space of the universe.

That's right, this is the source of the galaxy. The power of the source, a large force of the source separated from the source, will eventually become a galaxy.

Seeing the separation of this great source of power, Qin Tiange's pupils flickered with a touch of radiance, and his heart moved.

Separation of the power of the source will transform into a completely new galaxy, and a whole new galaxy will appear in the outer space of the outer galaxy.

But Qin Tiange saw the power of this group, but the growth of the universe must be nutritious, but it can be met but not sought. How can you miss it now?

“Intercept the power of that source.” Qin Tiange's pupils lighted up and immediately made a decision to intercept that massive source of power.

However, before he acted, he felt the deep space area nearby, and suddenly a strong breath came out.

“Well, a strong breath, is this a contraindicated creature?” Qin Tiange's pupils shrank, and they suddenly understood.

With the idea of taboo creatures also struggling with this source of power, Qin Tiange suddenly understood the origin of taboo creatures.

They are dedicated to peeking at the power of the origin, and perhaps all creatures that are on the taboo are coveted.

“Does the contraindicated creature form the cosmic fetal membrane in the body and embark on the road of true strength instead of entering the cage?” Qin Tiange said to himself, glancing across the deep space around the place of origin.

There was a breath of breath out there extremely terrifying, one mysterious and terrible taboo creature appeared.

“Separation of a force of origin.”

“The inner universe needs nutrients, and the power of the source is nutrients.”

“Another fierce battle has begun.”

One by one, low voices spread through the deep space of the universe, and those forbidden creatures that have not entered the times have begun to rise, just to compete for the original energy group separated from the original place.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange suddenly showed a faint smile, and finally he could meet these taboo creatures in the universe for a while.

Maybe, these so-called taboo creatures will surprise you a lot?

boom!

The energy of the source boils, and a large force of the source gathers, surging away from the **** of the source, and moving out into the deep space of the universe.

The majestic and vast source of power has attracted the covetedness and covetousness of major taboo creatures.

Chapter 970 - Taboo creatures

Boom!

A roar shook the deep space of the universe, and a giant claw was seen passing through the heavy mist, wrapped in layers of terror and grabbing at the source.

The powerful claws breathe a sense of mystery and horror, as if they can cause fear in the universe, which is a taboo power.

What is taboo is the force that causes fear in the universe. It belongs to the power of taboo and is suppressed by the universe.

“court death!”

With a low drink, a horror creature appeared, a huge head protruded into the mist, and raised one hand to slap it up.

With a loud voice, two giant hands collided across the air, and the air came, and the deep space was torn apart.

“Roar!” There was a roar of horrors in the fog, a hazy horror strung over the deep space of the universe, with sharp claws and faint, the surrounding space was oppressed and collapsed.

Over there, a mammoth towered, covered in fog, as if a large nebula surrounds it, and two arms hold a terror.

“Origin belongs to me, old man, do you dare to grab?” The creature opened his mouth, and the roar shattered the vacuum in front of the universe.

The billowing sound was blocked by a fog, and in the dimness, a behemoth was faintly visible there, with huge tentacles all over his body.

“Well?” Qin Tiange stared at his eyes, looking at this behemoth, it turned out to be an old and fierce puppet.

He had seen many Dais in the past, but none of them were so powerful, and there was a mysterious force all over his body.

He knew very well what kind of power it was. There was a brand new universe in the belly of the uncle, which gave birth to a universe, which was tantamount to a taboo force against the big universe.

This puppet has become a forbidden creature, very strong, surpassing the Lord of the Realm, but has not entered ancient times, and can survive here, which is enough to prove its tyranny.

“A little grasshopper, do you dare to grab this seat, are you tired?” The old Yan Peng opened his mouth, and immediately let this side be a fierce roar.

Grasshopper, this is a kind of shame, it roared: “Undead, how many years have you fought with me, you have a bad mouth and come to fight.”

“I have no time to accompany you, a grasshopper, still want to transform the dragon, go back and make your dream of the dragon.” Lao Zipeng's face was fierce, two star-like eyes glowed with faint fierce light, and his mouth opened a mouthful Breathing out.

Bang!

The devil's breath is vast, as if a river of heaven runs through the universe, rushing forward, and flying out that fierce creature.

Suddenly, the old Yanpeng shook up, and opened his mouth to swallow the vast source of energy.

“roll!”

Just at this moment, a word “rolling” came out of the universe, and nothing broke. A terrible horn was discovered from the inside, and a severe blow came through.

At a critical moment, Lao Zipeng turned around and flickered, avoiding the fatal blow instantly, her pupils were cold and staring at the place.

“Lao Mo, don't you excavate your nothingness, what do you come here to do?” Lao Zipeng's eyes widened with a jerk.

It seemed to have a vigilance and fear of this old demon, as if the visitor made it feel dangerous and knew it.

“Huh, how could the source let you swallow it alone?” A hoarse voice came out, and a dark creature appeared quietly.

The dark air rolled over, and the real body could not be seen. Only the black horns were seen, glowing with horror.

“Another taboo creature is interesting and very strong.” Qin Tiange looked at these three horror creatures, all of which are taboo creatures in the universe.

They do not enter the ancient world, but they can live in the universe freely, that is, outright taboo creatures.

“Since it's here, come out, don't hide.”

The old demon's eyes swept across the deep space of the universe, and when the words came, a mysterious wave permeated.

Immediately, one after another mysterious and fierce creatures emerged quietly, with a terrifying atmosphere, and a cosmic force permeated all over them.

They all embarked on their own path, opening up the super creatures of the universe and the taboos of the universe.

“A bunch of origins, but eighteen old things come, why are you always robbing each other, not to be ashamed?”

A word of dissatisfaction came, all the creatures glanced at each other, and they saw a small-looking person walking on a misty world.

The man looked small, but it wasn't small, but it was a little smaller than the old monsters.

“It's you again, half-human half-demon thing, get out of here.” Lao Pengpeng was so angry that she almost sprayed a breath of magic.

As for the old devil, it was even more violent. A horrible shadow appeared behind him, and he suppressed it directly.

Huh!

The man slammed into the air, and the hazy world under his feet defeated that shadow, revealing his true body.

He turned out to be a half-human half-monster, surprised Qin Tiange, and saw the half-monster for the first time when he came to the sky.

The half-monster that appeared on the earth in the past has never been seen, but now it looks a bit amazing. This half-monster is very powerful.

“Old demon, you haven't cried enough for the war of a thousand years ago?”
This half-monster had a strange face and was so handsome.

It seems that apart from humans, in fact, there is demon blood flowing in his body, extremely powerful, very weird, there is a mystery that can not be thought about.

boom!

The old demon's anger broke out on the spot and turned into a magical anger sweeping through him. A loud bang was heard from the two, and the two instantly hit thousands of times.

But soon they were separated, and stared at each other from a distance again, each humming coldly and not fighting.

They came here, not fighting, but from the source, the vast source of energy, extremely powerful, cannot be swallowed alone.

“what?”

“Anyone else coming?”

“who is it?”

At this moment, these forbidden creatures suddenly turned around and stared at the deep space of the universe.

I saw, there was a figure slowly walking there, very small, almost so small as to be inconspicuous, and even ignored.

Compared to those old taboo creatures that are tens of millions of feet away and those taboo creatures such as old demon, Qin Tiange’s body is really too small.

It was almost undetected, but it was still seen by their group of forbidden creatures and came straight out.

“Human race, Emperor?” The old demon’s face changed slightly when he saw someone, apparently he knew Qin Tiange.

Because in the realm of the sea, Lao Mo, the taboo creature, has seen Qin Tiange’s fierce battle.

“The Emperor?”

“He is the Emperor?”

The group of forbidden creatures was a little stunned, staring at Qin Tiange, trying to see through his details, but unfortunately did not see anything.

There was a icy flash of light on the half-monster’s face, and he did not like the human race. Although he had ordinary human blood in his body, he did not recognize it and even cut it out.

“Nasty Terran.” The half-monster turned away in disgust.

Everyone did not expect that it would be Qin Tiange. It seems that the other party is from the source and has embarked on a taboo road.

“The emperor, really broke the taboo. It seems that this generation of emperors has really taken a path that the emperors did not dare to take.” Lao Zipeng said to himself, his eyes faintly flooded.

“Princess, do you want to grab the source?” A first-nine-eyed creature looked at it fiercely, and a threat was in his words.

It does not know Qin Tiange, and feels that one person has one less source, which makes it dissatisfied and creates murder.

“I want to grab it, can you stop it?” Qin Tiange walked step by step, his voice just disappeared, and the whole person disappeared without a trace.

Reappeared, with a bang, the nine-eyed creature collapsed and flew out on the spot. Qin Tiange stood in its original position and quietly looked down at the creature that flew out.

Qin Tiange was surprised that the taboo creature was difficult to kill. He had just struck a full five points of power and had not been able to kill the opponent.

puff!

The nine-eyed creature spit out blood and was severely wounded. He was terrified and was hurt by the other's blow.

All forbidden creatures were taken aback, their eyes looking at Qin Tiange became different, wouldn't it be possible to hit them with a single blow?

"So strong, that world power is so powerful?" Half-demon young man with a somber face, shocked at Qin Tiange's strength.

A group of taboo creatures, such as Lao Mo and Lao Kunpeng, were vigilant, all awakened, and looked at the emperor Qin Tiange defensively, a little scary.

"I want to grab the source, who can stop it?"

After Qin Tiange finished speaking, sweeping around, the old demon, the old cymbal, and the half-demon youth were all silent, and not speaking did not mean they were afraid, but they had nothing to say.

"Huh!" Lengheng sighed, Qin Tiange turned around and stepped out, and he simply grabbed at the vast source.

"court death!"

"Jack!"

Seeing this, all the coming forbidden creatures were furious, and they didn't care much about it, so they robbed the source directly.

There are only so many sources. If they are a little late, it may be gone so they are not hands-on to Qin Tiange, but directly grab the source.

boom!

The energy exploded, the deep space broke apart, and the place of origin has received a slight influence, and the vast source separated from that mass was directly beaten into a dozen copies.

The biggest one was suppressed by Qin Tiange, and opened his mouth to spray a wave of chaos, which was swallowed into the chaotic primitive tires instantly.

"kill!"

After getting the biggest source, Qin Tiange didn't stop, but turned and punched him in front of the nine-eyed creature just now.

The Huanghuang boxing power, breaking the vacuum, contained an unstoppable force of chaos, rumbling.

“Roar ...” The creature growled, nine eyes on its forehead brushed open, and a horrifying light of extinction came through.

With a bang, the light exploded, hitting Qin Tiange’s fist, causing a horrific scene of extinction, and the Quartet was wiped out.

The power of taboo comes from that creature’s tempering force that has bred to counter the cleanup of the universe. It is extremely scary.

All forbidden creatures have bred and tempered a force that can counteract the cleaning of the great universe, which is forbidden.

boom!

The light was gone, a fist crossed, hit the door of the forbidden creature, and slammed into a minced meat to spread.

One punch punched the other’s head, and Qin Tiange snatched his hands and snatched the origin of the other hand.

“Well, you’re looking for death!” The creature’s head recovered, nine eyes flashed together, emitting a burst of horror.

Qin Tiange snorted. The power of chaos in the body boiled, gathered in his fist, punched through all the obstacles with one punch, and smashed on the opponent’s biggest eye.
