

Dark Ages 98

Chapter 98 - Target, subway station

Twenty-three gunships circled twice, turned around and dropped some leaflets, and didn't even stop. They quickly disappointed the rushing crowd, and then became angry.

“Asshole, don't go, save us.”

Somebody yelled madly, roaring at the lifted helicopter, and his heart was strangely angry.

This group of people originally thought that the government sent military police to rescue them. But now, when they see a lot of leaflets, they just turn around and go. Where did they come to rescue them?

“Please, please help us quickly and take us away.”

“Don't go, take us and go.”

Dozens of people shouted wildly and waved their hands, hoping that the armed helicopter would land and take them together. Unfortunately, they thought too much.

The three gunships were already full of three special police units, how could they land and take them away?

Looking at these crazy scolding and angry roaring people, Qin Tiange looked indifferent and sneered secretly: “A group of silly hats, how many people can three helicopters carry?”

Moreover, when he saw three gunship helicopters, he knew that instead of coming out to rescue ordinary survivors, he had other tasks. One of them should be searching for survivors and spilling leaflets.

Another task should be to rescue some big names, otherwise, these special policemen would not leave so quickly, at least they would shout or something.

“No ... you don't deserve to be military police. We are legal citizens and taxpayers. You have an obligation to protect us and rescue us.”

A young man was full of anger, picked up a stone and smashed it up hard, but the helicopter had risen, and he couldn't smash the armed helicopter with this power.

Someone picked up the leaflets and snarled: “What's the use of these leaflets? Zombies are everywhere. Can we go there?”

“Should the government protect the people? Shouldn't the army rescue our ordinary citizens?”

A loud roar, with disappointment and unwillingness, and strong resentment, resentment towards the three helicopter gunships that flew away.

When I saw the performance of these people, not to mention Qin Tiange's sneer, the special policemen in the three armed helicopters soaring in the sky were surprisingly angry.

“This group of white-eyed wolves.” A special policeman scolded angrily.

I looked at the angry people, one after another grabbed stones and other things and smashed at them, and the angry crowd scolded them, and some even cursed these special policemen. They were really full of anger and ugliness.

“Brother Qin, are we going to the security zone established by the Shenzhen Security District?”

At this moment, Moda held the leaflet and asked a soft voice. Everyone came to see each other, and they all wanted to know if Qin Tiange entered Shenzhen City. Was he going to this place?

Qin Tiange glanced at the leaflet in his hand, dropped it gently, and smiled: “My goal is not there. If you want to go, leave yourself, I will not force it.”

It is true that his goal is not in the security defense zone established by the military police in the Shenzhen City Security District, but also has his own goal.

If anyone in the team doesn't want to follow him, then Qin Tiange has nothing to say, just go if you want to leave, and what is left belongs to the group of people he can trust.

“Where Brother Qin is, we will be there.” Moda directly said solemnly that he followed Qin Tiange.

After he finished speaking, he glanced sharply across his Sword and Shield team, one by one, he immediately said that following Qin Tiange, the leader, as for the refuge established in the guard area?

Just kidding, what are they going to do there?

“Needless to say, we must follow you.” Liu Ye's eyes flickered and he made a direct statement.

She is not stupid, Qin Tiange seems to know some of the situation in the end, and follow him closely, and maybe he can get more benefits, even the safety factor is the highest.

This mysterious man, full of mysterious breath, can't guess, but can follow him around to ensure his safety.

As he walked all the way from school, Qin Tiange's performance shocked them. It seemed that he knew everything. He seemed to know everything about the last days, and he seemed to be accustomed to it. It was incredible.

This mysterious person doesn't follow, does it follow others? Liu Ye and Long Xiaoya are not stupid, they are thinking about more good things, such as those enhanced version of the hardening potion.

“In this case, everyone went to convene personnel to prepare, and we set off immediately.” Qin Tiange looked at Moda, Liu Yan and others with a smile, and was very satisfied.

This group of people is the first group of people he brought up with the highest credibility. He has helped him a lot along the way. At least it is worthwhile for him to ensure the safety of these people.

The gunship left and came fast, and disappeared in the blink of an eye in the blink of an eye, leaving a crowd of disappointed, angry, crazy growling crowds.

I ignored the group of survivors in the original hotel. Qin Tiange instructed Moda and others to convene personnel to prepare to leave the hotel.

After a short while, the personnel were assembled, and the three teams of Sword Shield, Long-Stealing, and Steel Crossbowmen were all assembled, waiting for Qin Tiange's order.

In front of the three teams, there was also a huge team, each one was burly, wearing black steel armor, holding a sharp steel knife, a hundred and ten people.

Led by Nie Teng, a former monarch, Qin Tiange flew over and led the newly formed trap camp.

Alas, yes, they were a group of people who were supposed to be killed by him, but finally gave them the opportunity to form a death squad and prepare a team to charge.

“Hello everyone!”

Qi Qin Tiange looked serious, sweeping the team sharply, saying, “You could not live, but this time, I decided to give you a chance to reform.”

“Outside, hordes of zombies, you must fight with these zombies next, kill the zombies to make up for your mistakes.” His tone was extremely cold, his eyes were cold, and his astonishing murderous.

He swept over these people, and then said, “If I personally supervise the war, whoever does not listen to the order, the fugitives, the rebels will be killed without pardon.”

Hiss!

The Bailai people in front couldn't help taking a secret breath, facing Qin Tiange's cold and murderous eyes, the endless icy cold spread to the back, and all bowed their heads.

Even if you have thoughts, they are all extinguished at this moment. To be honest, you can survive by killing zombies. As for the renegade, you will be ruthlessly killed.

“Of course, I'm not asking you to die.” Qin Tiange's tone eased, and spread out his palm, exposing a strange liquid.

He smiled and introduced: “Did you see this thing? You may not know what it is but I can tell you what it is.”

Seeing this thing, Nie Teng couldn't help but be excited. He stared at the thing straightly. He naturally knew what it was. Once he had exchanged one for taking, only three times as many adults. constitution.

Now seeing this thing, he couldn't help but be excited, just listening to Qin Tiange's next sentence: “Listen, this is a one-star hardening potion. Anyone taking one can immediately enhance and strengthen his body. Quality, at least three times. “

Howl!

Not only the uproar of more than a hundred dead men, but also the survivors in the surrounding hotels were all uproar, staring at him with excitement, anxious to snatch.

Greed and jealousy spread in these people's hearts, and they did not come up to snatch. Unfortunately, they didn't dare. If you look around Moda and others, you will know that there is definitely only one person coming up, that is, there is no dead body.

"I declare that the ten most brave and most killed zombies will each receive a one-star quench body potion, and the top three have better rewards."

After Qin Tiange said this sentence, he immediately burst into the fiery feelings of everyone present, staring at him with excitement one after another, his heart could not help being excited.

The carrots and sticks increased. Under the double stimulation of death threats and powerful rewards, the more than one hundred newly formed dead men immediately burst into unparalleled enthusiasm and were full of fanaticism.

"Next, target, subway station!"

"Now, set off"

Qi Qin Tiange gave a loud shout, gave an order, and walked out of the hotel first. Behind him, Nie Teng followed with 110 dead soldiers, and rushed out.

Sting them, they embarked on the danger of facing death, and the road ahead was full and unknown.
