The Dark Side of Fate

Chapter 205

~Amelia~

Leo stopped and pulled off my shirt. While he did it, he had wolf eyes.

I held on to Leo, and he wrapped his arms around me. I felt his wolf vibrate, and his body became warm.

He was really trying to control and take things slow, but I doubted Black wanted that. Aurora was surfacing, too, and I hoped this would be it for us.

His eyes were on me, and I watched them travel down my body.

Leo took off my shirt while both of us knelt in bed facing each other.

He reached for my breasts with both hands and squeezed gently. I moaned, and he growled in response.

I felt his thumb caress my hard nipples, and I closed my eyes to enjoy the sensation. Leo laid me down and went for my hard nipples with his mouth. I felt his warm lips on one of my nipples, and his tongue flicked the tip, and then he sucked it gently while his thumb caressed the other nipple. I was coming apart already.

My body was ready for him, and he knew it. I felt my lace panties fall off. I figured he used his claws to cut the sides to make it fall off. I could smell my wetness, and I knew he could. He left the nipple and blew on it gently.

The cool air made the hairs on my back stand up, and I anticipated more. I felt his lips on the other nipple, and he sucked on it.

Moaning, I ran my fingers through his hair. Trying to find a way to handle the pleasure I was getting. His fingers travel down my body, and I felt them part my lips.

"You are wet, Moonlight," he linked me, and I moaned in response. I really did not care. My eyes were shut, and I felt and enjoyed everything he was doing. He caressed my nerve bundle with his take him all the way in.

That was all the permission he needed.

but I did not stop.

I tilted my head back to savour the feeling.

Giving him full control and access to do whatever he wanted with me. My wall clamped around his finger, and I wanted more.

I opened my legs wider for him. He travelled down my slit and slipped his finger inside me, still sucking and licking my nipple.

I felt him add an extra finger and gently thrust in and out of me. He moved from my nipples back to the sweet spot on my neck and sucked on the skin. He was still thrusting in and out of my pussy with his fingers.

I wanted him to go deeper and ease the aching spots inside me; I wanted his cock.

"I want you inside me, Leo," I moaned, feeling impatient, wanting to soothe all the aches I was feeling. I wanted him to fill me up and make me come.

Leo," I said, and he growled, still sucking. He was enjoying himself; I could feel it too. I felt for his cock with my hand out of impatience. It was hard, and it wanted to be inside me. I curled my hand on the side of his

His cock sprang loose, hard and erect, pointing at me. The size was intimidating, but I could take it. I wanted it.

I opened my eyes to see what he was doing and realised he was taking off his pants. I was eager for it.

He kissed me and placed his fingers in me again. My pussy was clenching uncontrollably.

I reached for his cock again and felt it. Leo groaned. He liked it. He liked that I touched it. I broke from the kiss and took the showing appreciation for all the love I had been getting and edging him closer to burying himself inside me. I worshipped the tip with my tongue before sucking it. Leo held my hair gently in his fist and groaned, pushing his waist up, giving

I assumed the kneeling position, too, and bent to take his cock in my mouth. I had wanted to do this for a while. This was me

I started bobbing my head. Taking his cock as far as I could and using my hand on the rest of his shaft. Only my pussy could

I pushed my head down on it, and he moaned. He gently aided my head until he was hitting the back of my throat, and I gaged,

"Amelia," he moaned as he gently fucked my mouth with his cock. "May I cum in your mouth?" he linked me, and I did not stop.

He had tasted me several times, and I wanted to taste him too. I wanted to know what Leo tasted like. He began to move faster, but he was gentle about it until he stilled, and I felt his warm cum down my throat.

"Mate," he said, and I knew it was black and Leo together. He crashed his lips on mine and laid me down gently on the bed.

I swallowed and sucked the tip. He touched my hair gently. He was pleased.

"I want to taste you too," he linked me, and I was up for it.

He travelled down my body, buried his fingers in my clenching pussy and began to suck on my clit.

Even though he didn't say it, I could feel it. I would have to thank Linda for this tip.

He was still hard when I released his cock from my mouth, and I looked at him. His eyes were completely black.

He licked down my slit in between sucks, and I liked it.

I felt the build-up of my release, and my hips began to grind against his mouth on their own until the wave of ecstasy washed

"Leo", I cried out, my walls clenching fast. "Now," I moaned, and he spread my legs wide and drove his cock into me.

through my body, and I dug my fingers into the sheets, moaning loud.

I wanted his cock inside me, but I would go at his pace.

He was an expert at it. Consistent and fast. I felt another build-up inside me. It was incredible. I was a moaning mess. "ah ah ah ah," I moaned with every thrust and every tingle.

He was edging me closer to another climax. I could feel it. I was coming. The room was a blur. I shut my eyes completely.

My weight wasn't much because he continued to thrust inside me, growling. Following his rhythm, my body moved

"Hard and fast," I moaned, dictating what I believed would soothe my need. I was feeling the triggers everywhere. Leo pumped.

independently, grinding my pussy against his cock. Filling me up and hitting the right places. I held on to Leo, digging my fingers into his back.

Still fucking me, he pulled me up until he knelt, and I was over him.

He turned my hair away from my neck just when I climaxed and sank his teeth in. The orgasm was explosive. I shut my eyes, and I saw streaks of white lights in the darkness.

The feeling rushed through my veins into my head.

His strong arms held me and continued to fuck me just the way my body wanted and needed it.

Aurora acted on her own.

The euphoria was different from the others I had felt with all the times we had made love. This was the most instance.

I felt something open up inside me.

We were fully mated now.

It was crazy. My hair was standing.

I felt like my spirit had left my body.

I knew it was the same for Leo because he did not pull out. He laid me down and started fucking me hard, fast, and consistently. Everything felt different. The sensation was heightened our strengths were renewed. I opened my eyes, and Leo's eyes were white.

Everything we do henceforth will be mere formalities.

Leo pulled me close and spooned me in bed.

I felt energy course through my veins as if I was being renewed.

I caressed his back gently, and he slowly rolled off me to the side. I did not know what to say.

This was it; there was no turning back.

Leo had tried with me, fallen in love and accepted our bond.

I felt different, and I suspected it would be the same for him.

I had nothing to worry about where my mate was concerned; Leah, Mirabel and all those women that had been trying luck had to look elsewhere now because Leo was taken

I prayed our lives would be blissful henceforth, and I could not wait for us to face the world together as one.

I felt something snap in place. "Ahhhh," I cried, eyes shut. Then I opened my eyes and saw flashes of light. It was insane, and I wasn't in my senses anymore. I felt my wolf emerge. Still feeling the high of the claim, I sank my teeth into Leo's neck, and he growled and then groaned. I felt his cock pulsate inside me, and I felt his body vibrate with pleasure. I felt our bond come to life and tighten.

We were connected. We were fully connected now. Black was connected to Aurora and me to Leo. I could feel it.

Then it flickered to Black. He pumped until we both came again, and this time he lay on me to catch his breath.

He kissed his mark on my neck, and I moaned. It caused a tingling affected stronger than what I used to feel in the past.
