Dauntless God Of War

Chapter 116

In Paradise Hotel, even diamond members would not be personally received by the general manager.

It was unexpected that Levi, the general manager, would appear at that moment.

Upon Levi's arrival, everyone could tell that Paradise Hotel truly valued the Neptune Chamber of Commerce.

Meanwhile, the heads of the four families were so excited that a look of ecstasy appeared on their faces when they saw Levi.

The privilege they enjoyed in Paradise Hotel at the moment was even higher than that of a diamond member, as Levi had personally come out to receive them.

It made them believe that the Neptune Chamber of Commerce's position in Norham would be unshakable from that day onward.

The quartet promptly followed behind Oliver and went forward with an excited smile.

"Mr. Xanthos, thanks for coming to our party. It's our pleasure to have you here."

Declan, leading the other three family heads, walked up to welcome Levi. Seeing Levi extend his right hand, he hurriedly stretched out his arm for a handshake.

After all, to be able to shake hands with Levi was the dream of everyone in Norham, not to mention it would be the greatest honor in his life.

However, after Declan stretched out his hand, Levi didn't even cast the quartet a glance.

Instead, he shoved all of them to the side violently.

"Move. Get out of my way."

His action undoubtedly made their excited smiles disappear.

Standing awkwardly in place with his hand hovered in the air, Declan was at a loss for what to do next.

Levi, on the other hand, simply ignored them and quickly walked up to Harold, greeting him with a serious military salute.

"Greetings, Mr. Campbell, I am Levi Xanthos, the person in charge of Paradise Hotel Norham branch."

His voice was loud and clear, and his face was full of respect.

Everyone was shocked by the sight.

He is the general manager of Paradise Hotel, the person in charge of the Norham branch. Why would he solemnly salute this brat? And heck, this brat looks so calm, like he deserves the salute! D*mn! Just who the hell is he?

The crowd couldn't help but flood their minds with numerous questions.
