

Deadly 110

Chapter 110

"If you trust their acting skills, just be honest with them."

However, Yolanda was worried that the three troublesome guys would rush to Riverdale by helicopter as soon as they learned the truth, which was a headache. She sighed. "Forget it. Maybe it's better if you don't say anything for now."

Rowan remained silent and looked conflicted. "You know I'm not good at keeping secrets."

"Really?" She smiled slightly. "I'll just tell Caleb and Isaac about the things you've done then."

"Wait, wait! Can't you just let me keep it secret?" Upon hearing Yolanda's threat to report him, Rowan panicked. "Don't worry. I'll keep my mouth shut!"

Eventually, after she promised to share her plans with him soon, he reluctantly left after turning back multiple times. Before he went, he deposited 500 million into her account as pocket money.

bit speechless. She wasn't Yulia anymore, and as a student, she wouldn't need that much. But since Rowan had already given it to her, leaving the rest, along with the reward from Nigel, she left early with the check. It was Friday, and the First Academy had a tradition of not any practice. It was just an excuse to give everyone an extra day off to

Yolanda was changing her shoes in the results will be once Diana started lecturing her about her studies, it would never end. So, she pretended watched in frustration as way Yolanda would rank first in her class. The thought of Yolanda giving up her spot at the First Academy made my life so hard? I ended up with such

Henderson residence and taken a

the 100 million