

Deadly 151

Chapter 151

When Eleanor and Bailee saw the young man, they both greeted him with smiles. "Mr. Holt."

However, Brigham didn't even glance at them and went straight to Yolanda's side. "I've made a reservation, Ms. Henderson."

Upon seeing that, Eleanor and Bailee stood there and stared at Brigham, dumbfounded. Brigham actually knew Yolanda? How did the useless Yolanda get to know the general manager of Starry Gemworks?

And judging by Brigham's attitude, it didn't seem like Yolanda was just trying to ingratiate herself. What was going on?

When Yolanda met Brigham today, she noticed that he had noticeably toned down his demeanor. He was speaking to her with much more friendliness.

"Here's a prescription for your grandpa. Make sure you pass it along when you get back."

"Okay." Brigham nodded and casually looked at Eleanor and Bailee. He pointed at Bailee and asked, "Is this the graduate you wanted me to arrange a position for?"

They had never expected that the job

Bailee asked stubbornly. She couldn't accept that her job offer was due felt speechless. What made Brigham, "Since she's so confident in her talent, let turned and walked toward the door. Brigham instructed Zaid, "Arrange an caught up with Yolanda, and the two of them walked out of the noticing the situation, turned his attention back to Bailee with a cold Gemworks only hires candidates with first-class honors. Since you have third-class honors, you're not eligible for our stood there, stunned, unable to process what she had just mean, you can leave now." With that, Zaid and his team left, leaving Bailee and Eleanor standing in

...

Chapter 152

"I agree," one of the ladies said.

"We'll do this... and then..."

As the ladies discussed how to teach Yolanda a lesson, Gavin saw Bryce coming up the stairs, looking for Yolanda as well. He instinctively stopped and watched Bryce's ascent.

Gavin had heard the rumors about Bryce's interest in Yolanda, but he was confident in Yolanda's affection for him and their relationship.

He wouldn't be like those narrow-minded men who tried to control their partners and restrict their freedom.

Of course, not limiting Yolanda didn't mean he'd be indifferent to anyone who had improper intentions toward her.

Bryce looked up and slowed his

for Yolanda?" Gavin

students. As a senior, Bryce's only reason for being there would be of your business." The voice of the usually gentle Bryce grew cold as he sensed believed Gavin was unworthy of Yolanda. A man who had a fiancée but still seduced Yolanda and caused him. But Gavin was certainly not the man

Yolanda to stay away from Gavin. It was rare for him to show such a insight wasn't likely to miss Bryce's hostility. Yet, he remained authoritative tone. "Yolanda is my fiancée. If you're only looking to be friends, I won't interfere. But if you have other intentions, don't sneered. "If you truly care for Yolanda, you shouldn't be entangled to face Bryce. At that moment, Bryce saw a depth of coldness in Gavin's temperament and demeanor in just half a month. How could someone so meek suddenly become so

Chapter 153

"Fuck you!" This was the first time Bryce, usually known for being a model student, let out a curse.

"Hey, what's wrong with Prince Bryce?"

"I saw him running into Prince Gavin earlier. It must be because of that seductress!"

"Seductress?"

"Yolanda, of course!"

A tall girl sneered. "That ugly creature? How can she be called a seductress?"

"Don't underestimate her. Although she's ugly, she's way craftier than a seductress. She managed to steal the campus belle's boyfriend and now has both school hunks fighting over

Yolanda

of girl with any self-respect would use such despicable means to seduce her sister's fiancé and play both ladies were very displeased with Yolanda's actions, attract two top-notch

these two aloof school hunks new student being so arrogant must be taught a lesson! We can't let her to do these disgraceful things!" "We need to come up with a lunch at Paragon Restaurant near Starry Gemworks. As they finished and were about to pay the bill, Brigham suddenly received a up and apologizing to Yolanda with a smile. "Ms. Henderson, a friend of mine needs your help. Could you take a

...

"What are the symptoms?"

understood that the help he mentioned was likely a medical consultation. Yolanda took another sip of and pressed the service bell to order left, Brigham started to explain, "My friend and

He's a few years older than me.

Chapter 154

"Yes, that's right." When Brigham saw Jeremy and Cianna's reactions, he could tell that they definitely didn't believe him.

He understood their skepticism, considering he had also thought Yolanda was a fraud at first. It wasn't until Yolanda showcased her exceptional medical skills that he realized how wrong he had been.

He didn't want Jeremy and Cianna to make the same mistake, so he quickly explained, "Don't be fooled by the fact that Ms. Henderson is still a student. Her medical expertise is "

"What?" Before Brigham could finish his sentence, Jeremy interrupted him in disbelief, "Are you saying she's just a student?"

Just a moment ago, he thought Yolanda looked young and assumed that was why she resembled a student. Who would have thought she really was a student?

Since when did students become miracle doctors? This had to be a joke!

They had already been doubtful of Yolanda's credentials as a miracle doctor in the first place, but upon hearing Brigham's explanation, they felt even more disheartened.

"Brigham, I've always considered you my buddy. How could you mess with me like this?"

Jeremy then looked at Yolanda angrily. "You haven't even graduated from med school. How can you shamelessly call yourself a miracle doctor?"

never called myself a miracle doctor," you have a medical license?" Jeremy pressed

"No," Yolanda responded.

even have a medical license?" Jeremy exclaimed, added, "Most third-year students a medical student. I'm currently studying at First and Cianna

the best school in Dowonair, it wasn't even a university!

at all. Cianna and I are very busy people," Jeremy said he brought a student pretending to be a miracle doctor

Brigham was getting for so many years. Don't you know what kind of person I past, but how do you explain what was being harsh, but he still pointed at Yolanda stubbornly and said, nodded in agreement. As Yolanda looked very young, Cianna decided to

Chapter 155

Some ailments didn't require checking one's pulse to arrive at a diagnosis.

Jeremy froze for a moment. "How did you know that?"

Cianna was equally shocked because Yolanda had accurately described all her symptoms. Furthermore, the knee injury was from an accident back when she was a student. It was something even Jeremy didn't know about.

Yolanda ignored their questions and continued to stare at Cianna while saying, "When you went to the hospital before, you were the one getting examined most of the time, right?"

"T-That's right," Cianna replied with a nod. "My husband only had one check-up, and they said that nothing was wrong with him."

Jeremy's expression changed instantly. "Are you saying that I'm the reason we failed to have kids?"

Although Yolanda hadn't said it explicitly, the way she posed her question suggested as much.

Yolanda nodded slightly. "The main issue lies with you, but it's not due to an issue with your organs. Thus, all those tests you did were useless."

"Then what's the problem?"

added, "Even if I told you, you wouldn't believe glanced at Brigham. "I have she opened the door and left. Her departure left Jeremy were too quick to get angry! Couldn't you have just let me finish illness was cured by her. I didn't believe it at first either, but she proved me that, Jeremy wore an astounded expression on his face. "Your even the best hospitals in Creybia couldn't cure Nigel's condition! Yet, that young girl had done reality and rushed restaurant and was Yolanda took a cab to a five-star hotel in Dowonair. When the cab stopped message earlier, asking her to accompany him to a banquet.

you right after class, but you're always one step ahead of me," Gavin asked

Yolanda didn't see any reason to hide haven't been in Dowonair for

Chapter 156

"Hello, Mr. Savage."

"How do you do, Mr. Savage?"

People constantly approached Gavin to greet him. However, most of them just glanced at Yolanda with a look of disdain and contempt.

Yolanda stood out too much by being present at this banquet. Even though she had lost dozens of pounds through daily exercise after being reborn, her original body had been neglected too much and poisoned during her time in the juvenile detention center.

So, her figure was still very plump. Despite shedding all that weight, her outward appearance hadn't changed much.

Moreover, she was wearing a simple dress she used to wear to school. Meanwhile, the other wealthy heiresses were all dressed in designer gowns.

They ridiculed her behind her back after exchanging pleasantries, mocking her for looking both awkward and unfashionable. But Yolanda didn't care about any of this. She wasn't in a hurry to restore her appearance.

After all, compared to the original Yolanda, her personality and academic performance had changed drastically. Restoring her appearance too suddenly would easily arouse Diana's suspicion.

Yolanda was a top-tier beauty. She was nearly identical to how Yolanda looked in her previous life. If she returned to that look, it would draw too much than it was worth. So, for now, she only did basic exercises every day to stay fit and didn't rush to lose had orchestrated a plane crash without anyone noticing, and she hadn't been aware of it at all. This alone showed how formidable they were. Since the heavens had given her a second chance, she who is this person beside you?

voice suddenly interrupted her pondering. Yolanda looked up and saw a woman with curly hair wearing a Harlowe haute couture dress didn't pay attention to the woman, but she continued chattering anyway. "Don't you remember me? It's Gavin's memories, so she definitely different now." Janice made up an excuse for herself since Gavin started to notice the situation and began whispering over there? I don't think I've seen her quite stylish. I know most of the heiresses in Dowonair, but one of the elite families there. They means they have ties with the authorities...

Chapter 157

"Hey, I have something to say to Gavin alone. Go somewhere else!" Janice ordered.

Yolanda glanced at Janice but didn't move. She had overheard the conversations of the nearby guests earlier.

Some had speculated that Janice was a member of an elite family from Croybia. Was it possible for a so-called elite family to really raise someone with such poor manners?

Besides, she had never even heard of the Youle family before. So, she took a moment to look up Janice's background on her phone and discovered that the gossip about this so-called "elite family" was quite scandalous.

"Hey, you ugly creature! Didn't you hear what I said?" Janice shrieked.

Upon seeing that Yolanda not only ignored her but dared to look down and play with her phone, Janice became even more furious.

However, just as she finished speaking, she felt a piercing gaze lock onto her. Gavin stepped forward and finally spoke to her for the first time.

"Yolanda is my fiancée. If you call her ugly one more time, don't even think about walking out of here today."

was so cold that Janice couldn't help but shiver. Janice spoke woman? I liked you since the first time I met you. I came to this banquet today

Yolanda out of the way so that she could confess her family background, even a slight show of humility would be enough to make Gavin fall head even when she publicly confessed her feelings in front of everyone.

Janice swallowed back the insult that was on the tip of her tongue when she saw isn't good

Ivy League school in Amberval, but I'm to a juvenile detention center! How am I the guests couldn't help but matter how you look at

At first, I thought Mr. Savage had brought a maid with him, decided that their families would be joined through marriage, but it was supposed to be with the younger daughter, Yvonne. Somehow, Yolanda managed

Chapter 158

"What are you trying to do?" Janice instinctively took a step back, feeling a bit intimidated by Yolanda's big stature. It was as if she expected Yolanda to hit her.

However, in a setting like this, Yolanda wouldn't resort to something as crude as physical violence.

"Didn't you say your family is one of the elite families in Creybia? I didn't know that someone from an elite family would wear counterfeit jewelry to banquets."

"What?"

"Counterfeit jewelry?"

Yolanda's words left the surrounding guests stunned. Instantly, everyone's attention shifted to the diamond necklace around Janice's neck.

When Janice first arrived at the banquet hall, she had already shown off the necklace while claiming to be keeping a "low profile".

She claimed that the diamond necklace was called "Dazzling Starlight" and there was only one of it in the whole wide world. Then, she brought up that it had been sold for 200 million dollars at an international auction.

other wealthy ladies and socialites had been envious that she had such a rare piece. Was it possible that the necklace you spouting? Don't run your mouth carelessly if you from an international auction house! How could an the surrounding guests began to chime don't think Ms. Youle would wealthy. Why would real diamond, country bumpkin. How who can't even afford a

she smugly tilted her upset that I exposed your lowly tricks to seduce Gavin? Is that why you're trying to slander me? If you're going to make up lies, at least come up with something that won't backfire so dress alone is something you wouldn't be able to afford could finish her sentence, she saw moved, but she was so quick that no one could see what she did. By the time everyone realized what had happened, the diamond Janice shouted furiously while pointing at Yolanda after realizing what she'd done. She screamed shrilly, "Someone, catch this

Chapter 159

"Besides, the Youle family doesn't even qualify as an elite family in Creybia. They could never afford to buy a necklace like that," Yolanda remarked.

"How do you know that the Youle family isn't an elite family in Creybia?" someone in the crowd asked dubiously.

Yolanda chuckled softly. "Do you think that someone from an elite family in Creybia would go out of their way to attend a banquet in a small city like Dowonair?"

That one simple question left everyone speechless. Yolanda was right. They had been taken in by Janice's pretentious air, her designer outfit, and the supposed 200-million-dollar diamond necklace around her neck. So, they blindly believed in her claims.

But now that they thought about it, apart from Gavin and a few young heirs from true elite families who were present at this banquet, most of the guests were from second-rate families. There was no way a genuine young lady from an elite family of Creybia would show up here specifically for this event.

"You... You're just making things up!"

Janice was already flustered after being exposed for wearing fake diamonds. Now that her family background was being questioned, she was furious, but helpless, and could only repeatedly accuse Yolanda of slander.

Janice was still not willing to give up. "Those are just your assumptions! What's wrong with me coming to Dowonair because I like Gavin?"

family allow their daughter to chase after spoke up. The guests around her no longer snuck out without telling my family..." Janice idiots. You around putting on airs and think it's okay to pester Mr. Savage

"Get out!"

"You're not welcome here!"

"Get lost!"

teeth and cursed before storming out in humiliation amidst the jeering laughter of the she disappeared from view, the commotion finally died down. Afterward, Gavin and Yolanda quietly left the banquet hall gatherings. He only showed up this time to make an these events on his behalf, that he was no longer the told Yolanda that he had to head to me,"

Chapter 160

It was Janice's voice. It turned out that the Youle family's business in Creybia had recently run into trouble, and they were forced to resort to a marriage alliance to avoid bankruptcy.

The Savage family was extremely influential in Dowonair, but there were a few people who knew that their true foundation lay in Creybia.

Gavin had been frail and sickly since childhood. His parents had moved to Dowonair, which was known for its beautiful and recuperative environment, for the sake of his health.

After the Youle family accidentally learned about this, they began plotting to have Janice marry Gavin. That was why Janice had come to Dowonair specifically to get engaged to Gavin.

However, she hadn't anticipated that Yolanda's appearance would ruin the Youle family's plan.

Now that she had been publicly exposed, she suffered public humiliation. Not only that, the Youle family's prospects of expanding into Dowonair had been completely cut off.

The failure of the marriage alliance meant that, no matter the reason, she would be scolded once she returned home. Given how many daughters they had in the family, Janice's ultimate fate would likely be abandonment.

The root cause of all these setbacks Janice encountered was Yolanda.

to some friends in Dowonair and had them introduce her to some local thugs from the city's underground

a hefty sum to break Yolanda's legs, disfigure her will still want you as his fiancée when you're crippled and that already ugly face becomes even uglier!"

and consumed by jealousy, Janice glared venomously at Yolanda. All she wanted you all waiting for? Get her!"

"Yes, miss!"

as Blondie, said to Yolanda, "Don't blame us. This is just a job he finished speaking, the thugs swung their clubs down at Yolanda's her with all you've the alley didn't sound right. They weren't Yolanda's screams—they were coming from the even gotten close before she snatched the club from his hand. In one swift move, she broke the thug's

"Ah!"

"Everyone, attack!"

steeled his resolve and rushed forward. Yet, the result was the same. In less than five minutes, all the thugs Janice had hired were writhing in