

Deadly 211

Chapter 211

"You should add a dose of Poria to the spirit-calming decoction," Yolanda suggested.

"Poria?"

At first, Baxter dismissed Yolanda's suggestion, but he soon began to seriously consider it. After a moment, realization dawned on him.

"Brilliant! Your formula is indeed more suitable than mine!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the patients waiting in the clinic started to express their concerns.

"Young lady, I've been having frequent lower back pain lately. Can you help me?"

"My grandson has been coughing for over half a month. He's taken cough medicine, but nothing seems to work. Can you recommend something?"

decided to walk over and examine each one in turn

than an hour, the number of patients in the clinic closely. The more he watched, the more astonished he became. Despite her young age, her medicine that might even surpass

all the patients

personally prepared a cup of tea for Yolanda and brought

Henderson, thank you for your hard proud and arrogant person. The fact that he was now willing to lower his stance was enough to confident that

to you

be quite

her hands with a disinfecting wipe, then stood taken aback before he realized what she meant. "Dr. Henderson, please don't joke funds are insufficient, I can..." Zach hurriedly interjected, worried that said calmly. "Let me

Chapter 212

"Money pales in comparison to your health. You're my only family, and I will find a way to help you recover no matter the cost!" Baxter exclaimed. He lamented his lack of skill in treating Kelly's mysterious illness.

"Grandpa, don't say that. You're getting older, so you should consider your retirement. And who says you have no one? Tina has been coming by to take care of me lately. You can leave the clinic to her, and she'll look after you in return," Kelly replied.

"Tina may seem close to us, but she's quite scheming," Baxter responded before he turned to explain to Yolanda and Zach.

"This is my granddaughter, Kelly Pattinson. Tina is a distant relative-her cousin. Kelly, your priority now is to rest and recuperate. I have my plans for everything else, so don't worry about it.

"Besides, don't underestimate Yolanda. Although she's young, her medical skills are quite impressive. I brought her here to treat you."

Kelly looked at Yolanda in shock. "Grandpa, did you say she's a doctor?"

Her surprise was understandable. Yolanda looked far too young to be taken seriously as a medical professional.

Baxter said as if he'd forgotten his earlier doubts about Yolanda. "I've always taught you not to judge by appearances. Just because Dr. Henderson is young doesn't mean her skills are any astonished by this revelation. However, her good upbringing prompted her to politely extend her hand to Yolanda. "Hello, Dr. Henderson. I'm her hand warmly. "Let me examine

she began watched anxiously, unable to contain himself after a full minute. "Dr. Henderson, how is my treat her condition," she up, and not witnessed her skills earlier, he would have dismissed her claims as nonsense. How could a young of hope

hypoperfusion," Yolanda explained. "While it's not typically serious, the situation paused to ask Kelly, "Have you sustained an injury to the back of Kelly was taken aback. "How

Chapter 213

Baxter's expression changed as he asked sternly, "Why didn't you tell me something this serious?"

"I didn't want you to worry." Kelly felt a bit guilty. The recent upheavals in the Pattinson family had hit them hard, and she and Baxter had become each other's only support. She had intentionally hidden her fall from him, fearing it would only add to his stress.

"It's understandable that Dr. Pattinson didn't catch this. You didn't inform him about your head injury, and even if the symptoms were examined, many doctors would be at a loss and only recommend rest," Yolanda explained.

"Acupuncture can treat this." Baxter mused after a moment. "But it's a risky area..."

Even though he now knew about Kelly's symptoms, he still didn't dare to use acupuncture treatment.

"I'm confident." Yolanda met his gaze.

"Dr. Henderson, are you really sure?"

a promise, thigh in agreement. "If you can cure Kelly's illness, I'll give you the

for acupuncture now," she said while pulling out her hurt a bit, but don't be nervous. Acupuncture is bit anxious but disinfecting the needles, footsteps suddenly approached from outside the yard, followed by

Uncle Baxter, I'm here to visit and turned to find notice Yolanda. As soon as she walked great opportunity! I brought carrying a medical bag and

"You're from

Chapter 214

Baxter didn't outright dismiss the idea but made it clear he didn't have faith in Dunstan's abilities. He found the young man's arrogant demeanor unappealing.

Moreover, he had heard about how Harmony Health Clinic operated. Aside from Derek, most of the doctors were just pretentious individuals who were more concerned with fame than skill. Their medical abilities were mediocre, but their arrogance was quite substantial.

Despite being the grandson of the renowned Derek Davidson, Dunstan couldn't even rank in the top five at Harmony Health Clinic in terms of medical skills. Moreover, he was easily outclassed by his fellow disciples. That was why Baxter didn't want him to treat Kelly.

"Besides, I've already consulted another miracle doctor for Kelly's treatment, so there's no need for you."

"A miracle doctor?" Tina was taken aback and looked in the direction Baxter indicated. When she saw Yolanda beside Kelly, she gasped, "Yolanda, what are you doing here?"

and focused on preparing long for Tina to connect the dots. "Uncle Baxter, you're not saying Yolanda

Dr. Henderson?" Baxter asked out of surprise. "She can Treat Kelly's illness?" Tina laughed mockingly. "Uncle Baxter, you're truly desperate! Setting aside the fact that Yolanda has a record for stealing, how was in a juvenile

the bottom of the class. She only got into the getting her expelled from the First Academy and seized the opportunity to tarnish her couldn't fathom how she could treat patients. They were the same age, and Yolanda hadn't even studied medicine, let alone said is true! Yolanda is my classmate; I know her background best! Yolanda, I

Chapter 215

Tina persisted relentlessly and mocked, "Yolanda, didn't you just admit you're a fraud?"

"I'm not a fraud; why would I admit that?" Yolanda shot back coldly while casting a disdainful glance at Tina. "You accuse me of cheating, yet you couldn't find any evidence despite scouring the surveillance footage. Meanwhile, you were actually expelled from the First Academy for cheating!"

"What? Tina, you got expelled?" Both Baxter and Kelly were taken aback.

The Beck family had kept Tina's expulsion under wraps, and Tina acted as if nothing happened, so neither Baxter nor Kelly were aware of it.

"Yolanda, stop deflecting! You're just trying to con Uncle Baxter and Kelly for your own benefit! You'd put her at risk for a little gain-how can you be so inhuman?" Tina's words were highly inflammatory, almost as if she could rally the whole neighborhood to her cause.

"Uncle Baxter, Kelly, you mustn't trust her!"

for a moment, then finally spoke. "Tina, we might not know about the juvenile detention

a troubled past, that was and instead trust an outsider?" Tina was still unconvinced. "If you let her treat Kelly, it could be fatal! Isn't Kelly your most Kelly!" As she spoke, she rushed to stand in front of Kelly to see through your lies! You have no medical license-how can you possibly Yolanda's expression hardened further.

had one, but it belonged to Yulia from her previous life, says she doesn't have one?" Zach interjected, having prepared for this moment. He pulled out a certificate from his Yolanda treated Evan in the hospital, Zach anticipated that she would encounter problems due to lacking a medical license, so he arranged for her credentials through connections. He had

Tina was caught off guard by Yolanda presenting the medical license. However, she quickly regained her composure.

"Uncle Baxter, fake licenses like this can be easily obtained for a few hundred bucks by just hiring someone from those streetlamps' ads! How can you believe it? I'll stake my reputation on the fact that Yolanda is just a fraud! She claims she can treat Kelly only to swindle money!

"I don't understand why you would choose to trust a con artist over your own blood. Is familial loyalty worth less than some outsider?"

Her passionate words struck a chord, and even though Baxter was still skeptical, he couldn't help but feel a bit moved.

At that moment, Derek interjected.

"Dr. Pattinson, I don't know why you trust this dubious fraud, but I can assure you that I'm the only one who can treat your granddaughter's condition! Any rash treatment by others will only worsen her illness."

say that?" Baxter legendary Five Elements Divine

body

you can use the arrogance only grew at Baxter's on to me. This needle method is said to have miraculous healing properties-treating a minor

Derek had learned the technique but mention of the Five Elements Divine Needles. After a long pause, he finally spoke. "It seems you truly you can wield the Five Elements Divine Needles, you should be able to Baxter had initially thought he couldn't treat Kelly because of the complexities involved in treating the brain; he feared that using his techniques could risk to know was

Chapter 217

Tina sneered, "You're just afraid of being exposed as a fraud in front of Dunstan, aren't you?"

She then turned to Dunstan and said, "Dr. Davidson, please go ahead and treat Kelly!"

"Sure," Dunstan replied coolly. He took a few steps forward, then pretended to hesitate before asking, "Dr. Pattinson, I heard you say that whoever cures Kelly would receive this clinic and the house behind it?"

"That's correct," Baxter replied while casting a meaningful glance at Tina before looking back at Dunstan. "If you can heal Kelly, this clinic will be yours."

Tina's eyes lit up upon hearing those words. "Dr. Davidson, don't worry! Uncle Baxter always keeps his promises. I can vouch for that!"

"I already have the contract ready," Baxter said while glancing at Kelly before heading back into the room to retrieve an envelope.

"Once we sign it, it'll be official," the contract eagerly, checked it thoroughly, turned to Dunstan, and said excitedly, "Dr. Davidson, this contract is his sleeves before laying out the acupuncture tools confidently in front from

see what Dunstan had learned as he picked up a silver needle and aimed off target," Yolanda pointed the acupoints, proving to be even more useless than slightly and glared at her. After a moment of hesitation, he adjusted the needle's picked up

Chapter 218

"Is that really necessary?" Baxter was surprised as he raised an eyebrow.

"Of course it is! She keeps interrupting and affecting my treatment!" Dunstan pointed at Yolanda. "Besides, the Five Elements Divine Needles is our family's unique technique. If it falls into the hands of someone with ill intentions, it would tarnish the Davidson family's reputation!"

Dunstan was boldly claiming the technique as his family's proprietary method. When he saw Baxter hesitating, he added a threat, "If she stays here, I won't continue treating Kelly. It's up to you to decide."

Tina seized the opportunity to persuade, "Uncle Baxter, you need to get Yolanda out of here! We can't delay Kelly's treatment!"

"Are you really intent on slandering Yolanda?" Zach could no longer hold back. "You know very well if Yolanda is as incompetent as you claim or if it's just jealousy on your part!"

"And who are you? This is a family matter, not for an outsider like you to meddle in!"

She didn't recognize Zach and thought he was someone Yolanda had brought for backup, so she didn't take him seriously at all.

like that before, and he was about to retaliate when my breath on someone to remind you—when you needle the PC 1, make sure you find the right spot, or it could noded apologetically at know I'll needle the PC 1 next?" Dunstan was your technique is three parts shallow and one part jumped up in anger and pointed at her as he yelled at her, "I thought you were just a greedy fraud, but now I see you're a thief too! How dare you steal

Just as Dunstan finished his tirade, a loud shout rang out the source of the voice, only to see Derek hurriedly entering with several startled as he

he could finish, he received

Chapter 219

"Grandpa, who are you talking about?" Dunstan asked with confusion.

Among everyone present, the only person with the family name Henderson was Yolanda. But wasn't she supposed to be a fraud with no skills? How did she suddenly become a miracle doctor?

"Who else could it be?" Derek sneered.

Derek was so furious that he slapped Dunstan twice more before turning and bowing deeply to Yolanda. "Dr. Henderson, I failed to discipline him. This brat flaunted the Five Elements Divine Needles and even dared to confront you. I'll make sure to teach him a good lesson when we get home!"

"Grandpa, why are you bowing to her?" Dunstan's eyes widened in disbelief.

Tina's expression mirrored his shock. When had Yolanda become a miracle doctor? How was that possible?

most famous miracle doctor in Riverdale and one of the top ten physicians in the me tell you, the Five Elements Divine Needles is what Dr. Henderson taught me! In terms of seniority, she is your grandmaster! She is gracious and generous with her knowledge, and you dared to Harmony Health Clinic that Dunstan was treating Kelly. Worried about the trouble Dunstan might cause, he hurried over. He never expected to walk in and find Dunstan showing off the

had long been troubled by Dunstan's arrogance but now realized Dunstan had crossed a line as he looked at Yolanda. She had taught now! He had to get Yolanda to mediate. "And I must admit my own fault. I on yourself." Yolanda dismissed the matter. "After all, you couldn't have anticipated that Dunstan would nodded eagerly. "Dr.

Chapter 220

"No... I must be hallucinating... This can't be real..." Tina murmured. Her face paled just like Emma's had.

"I forgive you this time, but don't let it happen again."

Yolanda didn't make things difficult for Dunstan. If Dunstan could genuinely repent after what happened today, then she would consider it a good deed.

Fortunately, Zach brought her to assess the clinic today; otherwise, Kelly would have suffered not only from Dunstan's reckless treatment, but it could have worsened her condition and also caused unnecessary physical pain.

"Thank you, Dr. Henderson! Thank you! I will definitely turn over a new leaf and work hard!" Dunstan kept thanking Yolanda as if he had just been granted a pardon.

Yolanda ignored him and walked over to Kelly.

Dunstan's needling technique was clumsy, but fortunately, he had only administered a few; it didn't have much impact on Kelly's body.

"Dr. Henderson, are you going to give Kelly acupuncture?" Baxter asked, his fists clenched in excitement.

"Yeah." Yolanda laid out a row of acupuncture needles in front of Kelly.

need to clear the

that Dunstan mentioned the Five Elements Divine Needles required a head. As long as her mind was to make a sound. They all focused intently on Yolanda's hands as she methodically inserted needles her head, but gradually, the pain was replaced by a warm sensation, and her tense last acupuncture needle and let done. Just wait ten more minutes, and it

Kelly's condition was complicated, standing up from beside Kelly to stretch a bit before removing the for your hard work!" Baxter hurriedly poured water for Yolanda her hands and took every day for 49 days while avoiding raw, cold, fried foods, no one noticed when Tina suddenly rushed out. She sprinted a few steps to Kelly and frantically, "Don't let her treat with Derek's

only made her more determined to prevent Yolanda