0 5 minutes read

Reins

I knew it was a big step asking to Mark her I've been telling myself I need to go slow and let her adjust to all this she seems to be getting used to me more and more each day.

The thought of marking her is all I have thought about since our little make-out session in the hospital, But I don't want to push her.

She looked like a deer caught in the headlights dam it I knew it was too soon.

I see her worry fade away as she takes a breath.

"Before I answer would you explain more to me?"

"Yes, how about you ask me what you want to know, and ill answer it,"

"Okay, Umm will it hurt? Marking me that's kinda permanent, right? That means that we are like a couple?"

I chuckled a bit she spits those out really quickly.

"Well first, Yes it will hurt but only for a moment, It is permanent once you mark someone you can't take it back, lastly Yes it shows everyone that we are a couple as you say, but to us werewolves it shows you are claimed by me,"

She nods her head a little she is fidgeting with her fingers I could tell she wanted to ask something else.

She looks up at me but she seemed as if she couldn't form the words.

"Autumn, what is it?"

She hesitates for a moment.

"You want to be with me like that and permanently mark me and claim me?"

I could hear the doubt in her voice and see it on her face.

Cupping her face with one hand while holding the other I slide closer to her.

“I know this is all new for you, but what I feel for you is so strong, When we met our mate we mate for life you are all I want now and always, You’re my world and I want to give you the world, So yes I want to permanently mark you and show to everyone your mine,”

She has a small smile on her face and I see a hint of pink show on her cheeks,

Leaning forward I place a soft tender k!ss on her l!ps, I feel her tense up a bit but within seconds I feel her relax k!ssing me back.

Breaking the k!ss I lean my forehead against hers.

“Yes,” I lean back looking at her she looking straight at me.

“What? ” I asked making sure I heard her right.

“I said Yes, you can mark me,”

“Are you sure? Autumn I don’t want you to feel like I’m pressuring you,”

“It’s okay your not, I know I’m still learning about a lot of this but I believe what you say about wanting me I feel it I’m not sure how to explain it but I feel it when you’re close to me as well as your touch, but just remember I’ve never had a boyfriend so I have no idea what it means to be in a relationship with someone, No one has ever wanted to date the deaf broke girl,”

Holding her hands I lift them placing k!sses on her knuckles.

“You have no idea how much it makes me happy to hear that I would be your first boyfriend, we can go at any pace you want even though I’ll mark you we don’t have to do anything else till your ready, and with marking you I will be able to find you no matter what, plus we can mind linking each other,”

She scrunches her forehead at those last words.

“Really like what you do with Mr. Keaton?”

“Yes, you will be able to hear me in your head,”

I see the excitement in her eyes.

“Okay, so when do we do this?”

“Now if you want but just so you know you will be a little sleepy afterward,”

“Okay,”

“Why don’t we talk with your parents first and let them know what we have decided on,”

She nods at me.

“Keaton,” I call through the link.

“Alpha,”

“Can you please have Matt and Helen as well as Zach all come to my room,”

“Sure, Is there something wrong?”

“No just Autumn and I need to tell them something and I would rather do it in here,”

“Ah, Yes ill send them up right away Alpha,”

“Good, Also have Sophia start to plan for the ceremony tomorrow for the Collins to join the pack officially,”

“Yes Alpha,”

Cutting the link I look at her she smiles at me reaching up I brush some hair out of her face,

I hear a knock on the door.

“Come in,” I call out.

The door opens and in walks her family I stand moving to sit next to Autumn I wrap her hand in mine.

They all bow a little but I can see worry on their faces.

“Alpha you asked us to come,” Matt said which I’m surprised he is even asking because he’s been in the hallway this whole time I’m sure he’s heard what we were talking about,

“Well, Autumn wanted to speak with you and tell you what we have decided,”

They all look o Autumn.

She gives me a side glance I nod my head a bit to her letting her know to go ahead.

Turning to her family.

“I’ve decided to let Reins Mark me,”

Watching her family’s reaction I see her mom smiling from ear I ear she looks as if she is about to scream and pounce on Autumn out of excitement.

Her father and brother are a different story they look as if they are about to murder me.

“I’m sorry but did you say mark you?” It was Zach who asked,

Autumn nods her head, “Yes,”

He looks at his dad who has a very blank look on his face.

They both look at me I could feel the tension building.

“Are you out of your mind!” Her brother finally blurts out,

“Everyone will know she is claimed by an Alpha! He will find her faster!”

I stand up not liking his disrespect.

I see her mother place a hand on his shoulder.

“Zach it’s okay I’m sure your sister wouldn’t make this choice easy but she is his mate and mates mark each other,”

“Yes but she is not just an ordinary wolf and there’s a crazy person after her, people will talk about how the strongest Alpha claimed his mate it will put a target on her back!”

“Enough!” I growl out making the walls shake. ” You think I would put her in harm’s way! She is safer with me than on the run with you, She is my mate I would never allow anyone to take her away from me! So boy I think you need to check yourself and remember who you are speaking to!”

I see him step back lowering his eyes and baring his neck to me in submission,

“Yes Alpha, I’m sorry I didn’t mean no disrespect but she is my sister I’ve always looked out for her and protected her,”

He says while glancing at her.

Letting my anger settle a bit.

“I know you all have spent your lives looking out for her protecting her at all cost, but remember you are now here in my pack she is my mate and it’s now my job to protect her,

Before anyone could say any more Keaton came flying in through the door.

All of us turned to look at him.

He was breathing hard while standing holding the door handle in his hand.

“Alpha you need to come downstairs right away, “

“Keaton? What’s going on?”

“Alpha Brett is here and says he has information for you on Roberts,”

“Stay with her,”

I point to her family while I take off out the door with Keaton on my heels.

Running out of the room I headed straight for my office Keaton hot on my tail.

“What he all say?”

“Nothing much just he had information on Robertson and he needed to see to you directly,”

“Oscar did say something about his boy Dan bothering Autumn when she first started school, wonder if it’s anything to do with him,”

Reaching my office I go in sitting at my desk. I take a deep breath trying to calm down before he comes in here my wolf is very on edge

Right now.

Keaton stands to my right when we hear a knock.

“Come in,” I call out

The door opens and in walks, Oscar and Nick followed by Alpha Brett and his boy.

They come to stand in front of my desk Alpha Brett nods at me.

“Oscar Nick please wait outside the door,”

“Yes Alpha,” Bowing they turn leaving.

“Alpha Reins,” He looks to his boy and then nudges his arm. That little sh!t looks at me and rolls his eyes, “Alpha,”

Growling lowly at his disrespectful attitude but I do no more than that I have other bigger things to worry about.

“Alpha Brett, What can I do for you?”

“Before I explain everything I need to say that my kid is very stupid in the decisions he made but I have come here and brought him as well so he can show he’s sorry for what he tried to do,”

I raised my brows at his words.

“And what is it he tried doing? “

He sighs rubbing his forehead.

“He got in contact with the guy called Roberson, He then processed to bring him to my office, Why I’m not sure as he should have known I would not agree, but as I was saying, he brought him there thinking I would Aid in helping that man take your mate Autumn,”

Upon hearing her name I was up and out of my chair I grabbed that little boy by his neck slamming him into the wall.

“Alpha please, Don’t!” I heard his father pleading but this boy needed a lesson in poking around my mate.

“You wish to take what is mine,”

Growling lifting him off his feet he grabbed my wrist trying to pull my hand off which only made me tighten my hold.

Gasping for air his face turned a little pale his lips were just about blue,

“Alpha there’s more you need to know! He wasn’t alone!”

My attention snapped to his father dropping him he crumbled to the floor sucking in the air trying to get his breath back.

“Who was there,”

I already had a gut feeling about who it was seeing as he has abandoned his pack.

“Alpha Darrel, he was claiming that you had his mate and that this Roberson was to get her back and then bring her to him,”

“She is not his mate! She’s mine,”

He holds his hang-up to me.

“I know that, this is why I came,”

“If they were at your territory where are they now?”

“I had them escorted off, I couldn’t hold them you know this they didn’t harm my pack,”

“Right,” I walked back to my chair but didn’t sit down I glanced at Keaton he gives me a nod and left the office,”

“Alpha Reins, please I’m not wanting to go against you, we have been alliances and I want to keep that,”

Turning to face him I look at his kid who has managed to pick himself up but is leaning against the wall holding his throat.

“Out of respect that you showed me coming here yourself to explain, I will keep the alliances, but however if your boy as so much looks in the direction of my mate again I will take it as a threat to my Luna and the alliances is over and we will be enemies,”

“That will not happen, Will it Dan?”

He turns looking at his kid.

The boy stands straight walking over to stand by his father.

Dropping his eyes to the floor.

“Yes Alpha, I understand,”

“Good, I’ll have Oscar show you out.

“Oscar!” I call my door opens.

“Yes Alpha,”

“Show Alpha Brett and his boy out,”

“Yes Alpha,”

He steps aside holding his arm out.

“Alpha, Please this way,”

They walk out closing the door for it to open again in walks Autumn.

“Autumn, what are you doing? You should be resting,”

She doesn't say anything and walks straight to me going up on her toes she kisses me, I wrap my arms around her pulling her right against me her hands go up around my neck.

Breaking the kiss I pull back to look at her but I keep my hold on her.

"What was that for,?"

"I'm sorry I felt a sudden urge to come to you, I wasn't sure I was up there and I felt rage and anger then this hard pull to come to find you,"

She could feel my anger which means her wolf is feeling the bond the more she is near me, My wolf was pacing trying to push forward. I hold him back pushing him to the back of my mind.

"Autumn it's the bond it's getting stronger the more we are around each other, you were feeling my emotions and it's natural for our mates to calm us, that was your wolf I think pushing you to come to me,"

She looks as if she was thinking about what I just told her,

"Why were you angry?"

I didn't want to tell her I didn't want her to worry or be afraid I would never let anything happen to her and I plan on not letting her out of my sight.

"Please tell me," She says as she runs her hand down my cheek.

Alpha Darrel.

Once that pathetic Alpha had us kicked out of his territory, I went to my car.

Dam it, I yelled punching the fender leaving a nice dent.

"Always so dramatic,"

"What do you want?"

"Little upset are we?"

Growling I moved around the car.

"You should watch how you talk and to who you're talking to,"

“And who would that be? I can’t really call you a Alpha seeing as you up and left your pack and all for a girl,”

“I AM A ALPHA!” I roared at him but he just stands there unaffected by it.

He laughed what the hell?

“I’ll ask you again what do you want. You still have a job to do so you should get on it, I want what I paid for!”

“Well now, I only received half of the payment and besides I doubt you have the rest, your pack is broke but ill finish the job on one condition.”

“And that is what?”

“You get to be my partner and when we successfully take your so-called mate, you can return to your little pack, and ill go my way and never contact me again,”

“Why would you want to finish the job with me being your partner ?”

“Hmmm, let’s just say now I’m Interested in seeing why everyone is so fearful of this Alpha Reins, and besides I just got a boot because of him so now I need to even the score,”

I take a minute to think about it.

Holding my hand out to him.

“Deal,”

Autumn

Reins took us back to his room so we could talk and be more comfortable as he put it.

He explained everything that was said between him and Alpha Bret as he called him. I felt my stomach drop when he told me who his son was and that he was attempting to work with that other guy.

I had just sat there quietly not really sure what to say about it all.

I didn't understand why people were after me I know Reins had told me before but I just didn't see why me.

At that thought, I felt a little ping of fear.

I didn't want to be taken away from Reins and my family even though all of this is new the feelings I have developed for Reins they were growing stronger and stronger with each day I spend with him the pull, I felt earlier to go to him and the k!ss we shared in his office only made me want to be with him more.

I felt a hand cup my cheek warmth spread across it. Lifting my eyes to meet his leaning into his touch I felt myself relax.

I hadn't realized I zoned out thinking of all this.

"No one will take you from me, I promise,"

His thumb glided back and forth along my cheek.

I felt b.utterflies erupt in my stomach along with a warm feeling in my c.hest at his words.

The urge to be closer to him pulled at me sliding closer I swung my leg over his straddling his lap as he slid his body back against the couch his hands resting on my h!ps

My fingers instantly went to his hair he tilted his head back looking up at me.

"Autumn what are you doing,"

I didn't say anything gripping his hair and tugging it so his head tipped farther back pressing my c.hest against his I felt his c.hest vib.rant.

Leaning down pressing my l!ps against his it was soft at first He tighten his grip on my h!ps pulling me harder against him.

Wrapping my arms around his neck letting myself lay completely on him. I felt one of his hands move from my h!p to the back of my neck holding me there.

Not sure what I was doing as I've never had a boyfriend I followed his movements the best I could.

His tongue ran along my bottom lip when I didn't do anything I felt him move his other hand from my hip to my butt squeezing it and causing me to gasp just a little which allowed him to plunge his tongue in my mouth,

He deepens the kiss as he held me there when I couldn't help the moan that left me. When I thought I was gonna pass out from no air he broke away.

When I opened my eyes I was greeted with pitch-black eyes, leaning back just a bit and placing my hands on his chest.

"Reins," I said his name so lowly I didn't think he would hear me.

"Don't be afraid it's still me," His voice was calm.

The last time his eyes looked like that he ran out leaving me alone in the room. Would that happen again, I started to feel worried creep up.

"I'm not going anywhere, don't worry"

As he spoke his eyes slowly changed back to their normal color.

He wrapped his arms around me pulling me closer to him as he leaned forward running his nose along my jaw.

He placed feather-light kisses on my neck tilting my head back and giving him more access, I was so lost in what he was doing I hadn't noticed I was grinding my hips against him I felt teeth nipping at my neck causing me to moan at that simple thing.

His hand fisting in my hair pulling my lips down to him he kissed me hard nipping my lips as well. When I felt him buck his hips upward just as I was grinding on him.

I couldn't explain the feeling that was starting to build all I knew was I could feel the heat and a hard throbbing down there.

Breaking the kiss again he closed his eyes placing his forehead against mine for a moment both of us panting as we caught our breath.

Leaning back he looked at me.

"If we don't stop I'm not going to be able to control myself, Autumn I want you but I don't want to put pressure on you or rush you,"

I didn't catch everything he said I was in such a daze and the throbbing I felt was hard and all I knew at that moment is I wanted him to not stop I wanted to feel his hands on me.

"What if I don't want to stop?"

At those words, he smashed his lips against mine. Suddenly he stood keeping his hold on me instantly I wrapped my legs around his waist as he began to walk never breaking the kiss he laid me down on the bed.

Undoing my legs from him he stood up reaching over his head grabbing his shirt pulling it off dropping it on the floor.

My eyes ran down his body from his broad shoulders to his wide chest down to his abs getting up on my knees I lift my shaking hand and reached out letting my fingertips touch his chest running them down and tracing the outline of his abs.

He stood there watching me I felt his hands on my arms slowly sliding them along my arms to my side down to the bottom of my shirt.

Grabbing it he pulled it up I felt the cool air hit my skin as he lifted I lift my arms as he pulled my shirt off dropping it with his.

His eyes moved down my body this was the first time I'd been half-undressed in front of a guy yes I had my bra on but this was different than wearing a bathing suit.

His hand grabbed the back of my head pulling me to him but he didn't kiss me he just held me there.

"Reins," I called him.

Before I could say anything else he lifts me crashing us onto the bed.

He caged me under him an arm on each side of my head holding his weight over me.

Holding himself up with one arm he reaches behind me unlatching my bra he pulls it off me throwing it to the side.

I instantly cover myself he shakes his head as he pulls one arm away and then the other.

“Don’t hide yourself from me,”

He leans down taking one of my nipples in his mouth.

“Oh God,” I gasped out arching my back and my hands in his hair.

Reins

She fisted my hair arching her back and pulling me closer to her. I could smell her arousal when we were still sitting on the couch and it was driving me crazy.

I moved to her other nipple nipping ever so softly I let go moving up her chest to her neck.

Sitting back up on my knees my fingers grab the waistband of her sweatpants giving them a small tug I kept my eye on her she nodded lifting her hips so I could pull them off. Throwing them to the side I looked back at her she lay there completely bare.

I felt my pants become tight at the sight of her. She sits up reaching for my pants I could feel her fingers shaking as she undid the button and then pulled the zipper down.

I moved to stand up kicking my pants off I climbed back on the bed hovering over her. She slides her hands up my arms placing them on my shoulders.

Running my hand up her leg I could feel her tremble under my touch.

Her arousal was becoming stronger.

Rubbing her lightly she closed her eyes arching her back. Sliding a finger between her folds I slowly pushed one finger into her she gasped a little leaning up I placed soft kisses on her lips.

Autumn

Oh, my word the things he was doing felt so good my body responding to everything he was doing.

I felt him slide a finger in making me s.u.ck in a breath then he started to move in and out I could feel a tightening in my stomach the faster he moved then suddenly he added another finger.

The pressure was building down there he used his knees to push my legs farther apart and he continued pushing his fingers in and out, my breathing became heavier the feeling was nothing I felt before.

Just then my body j.erked I felt a sudden release.

“Reins,”

He keep his movement going but slowed it down while I rode out the high I was on. When my body stopped trembling he Slides his fingers out I whimpered just a bit at the loss of contact.

He captured my l!ps with him when I feel him press against my entrance. He slowly slides the tip in shifting my eyes and how it was stretching me he stopped for a moment when he pushed a little hard and I feel pain.

“Ahhh,”

My eyes fly open at the feeling he looking right at me I see his l!ps move.

“Shh, relax,”

He runs his hand along my cheek pushing the hair out of my face.

He begins to move at first there was pain but only for a few seconds then it turned into a pleasurable feeling that turned into the most wonderful feeling.

“Oh god, don’t stop,” I tell him

Hearing those words he picked his pace up pushing deeper and deeper.

My fingers dig into his shoulder while one of his grabs the headboard and the other grabs behind my knee lifting it to his h!p.

I could feel that tightness building with every thrust he did.

He let go of my knee leaning down he started kissing my neck giving me nips here and there.

I wrapped my legs around him reaching around and grabbing at his back.

I could feel I was about to topple over the edge when I feel him bite my neck.

Feeling a small amount of pain that was quickly replaced with pleasure.

Screaming his name my body shook my breath hitched my hold tighten on him.

He thrust a few more times when his member pulsed inside of me followed by a warm feeling.

He let go of my neck licking the area he lift his head kissing me I could feel the passion in his kiss.

Breaking the kiss he slides out of me laying next to me I rolled onto my side to face him.

“Are you okay,” I see his lips move but I couldn’t hear him my implant must have fallen off?

Nodding my head I was great but I could feel sleep calling to me.

“I feel sleepy,”

“You will because of the marking,”.

Feeling my eyes begin to close I looked at him fighting it.

Brushing the hair behind my ear.

“Sleep ill be here when you wake,”

Giving in I snuggled closer to him his arms wrapping around me I let sleep take over.

Autumn

Feeling super warm I kicked at the blanket trying to shake it off me I didn't look or even open my eyes I wasn't ready to wake up but I couldn't handle being this warm I wanted to feel some cool air but even with all my kicking the blanket didn't move my attempt was going nowhere

I grabbed it tugging at it.

I'll just throw it off but it never budged with a hard groan I sit up well I attempted to that's when I realized I was in an iron-tight hold and being pressed against a rather hard object. The hold did not cause pain or hurt me but was one to hold me in place.

"What the heck," I mumbled to myself waking up to see two very muscular arms wrapped around my waist. Peeking over my shoulder I see Reins asleep holding me to his chest.

Then it hit me the position I was in laying with him, then I look down to notice I'm naked, What? And then my mind was flooded with the vision of last night.

Oh, my word the memories ran through my head I could feel the blush on my face already I didn't need to see myself to know I was red.

Slowly grabbing his wrist I lift one arm as I try and wiggle out sliding as slowly and as easily as I could while holding his arm up I was almost there...

"Where do you think you're going?"

I froze looking back at him but his eyes are still closed his breathing is even but why did I hear his voice? and how? I don't have my implant on.

"Are you trying to run away?"

Jumping from the bed and letting out a scream not caring I was stark naked.

I face the bed my hands clutching my chest only to see Reins sitting up laughing,

"I'm sorry babe, I just could help myself,"

I stare blankly at him I could see his lips not moving but I could hear him not with my ears it was in my head.

He slides to the edge of the bed not even caring to cover himself he sat with his feet over the side I couldn't help my eyes as they moved down from his face to his chest moving to his very well-defined abs then a little farther down and holy cow that is enormous! How on earth did that even fit?

"When you're done checking me out,"

My eyes snapped back up looking at him he had this smirk on his face.

He caught me looking nice one Autumn talk about embarrassing.

I cover my face with my hands not wanting him to see my beet-red face.

"Babe even though I'm enjoying the sight of you in front of me right now, "

He didn't even get to finish when I remembered I was naked.

With a squeal, I reach for the blanket wrapping it around myself.

Reins pulls the sheet over his lap covering himself he holds his hand out to me.

"Please sit let's talk,"

Once again no movement from his lips.

Taking his hand he pulled me to sit on the bed next to him. Rubbing my knuckles with his thumb I felt tingles all over my hand.

"I'm sure you have questions,"

"How are you doing that?" I blurted out.

Giving me a smile.

"It's called mind linking and now that I marked you I can link you and you can hear me,"

My hand instantly came up touching my neck where I remembered he bit me.

Running my fingers over the spot it felt rough but then a quiver ran through my whole body when I pressed on it.

Looking at him I see his eyes are closed.

He's taking deep breaths.

"If you keep doing that we will never leave this bed,"

Dropping my hand from my neck I grabbed the blanket holding it against me.

"It's like you're in my head,"

"Yes, you think of the person you want to talk to but instead of speaking out loud say the words in your head and then picture opening a window or door to that person and they will hear you,"

Taking a minute I thought back to that book Kelly gave me it said something about Mind linking but I didn't pay much attention to it as I thought I wouldn't be able to hear them with being deaf.

But I could hear him and I didn't have my implant on and I could hear him.

I felt the first tear roll down my cheek

In my thoughts, the feeling was overwhelming.

"Hey, please don't cry,"

Reins scooped me up setting me on his lap and wrapping his arms around me.

Burying my face in the crook of his neck I let him hold me.

His touch made me feel calm I could hear his heartbeat it was soothing sparks dancing on my skin at every spot he touched leaving a trail of goosebumps.

"Are you okay?"

Lifting my head to look at him the way he was looking at me I could see so many emotions in his eyes placing a hand on his cheek he lean into my touch.

Leaning closer I touched my lips against his freezing there for a minute before I started to pull back but before I could get any space from his lips his hand went to the back of my neck pulling me closer and holding me there as he deepened the kiss.

I felt something pressing against my bottom as he held me on his lap. I felt my body start to heat up from his kiss and that throbbing down there.

Letting go of my lips he trailed kisses along my jaw and down my neck when he stopped on my mark.

He sucked on it causing me to let out a moan his arm tightening around my waist and pulling me against his chest.

I wanted him all over again just like last night his touch alone was lighting a fire in me. My body craved him again and even though this is all new to me I feel so comfortable with him and I love this feeling I've never felt this before and I only want this with him no one else.

Letting go of the blanket I held around me it fell pooling around my waist as my fingers went straight to his hair tangling themselves in it.

Moving back to my lips he kissed me hard plunging his tongue past my lips parting my lips for him our tongues danced back and forth.

Reins suddenly spun us, "Reins!" I squeal clutching to him he caught us steadying himself with one arm so he didn't crush me.

I heard him laughing leaning down he places a kiss on my nose.

We stayed looking at each other for a moment before we were kissing again breaking the kiss I began to kiss down his neck I was feeling this urge but I wasn't sure what it was it was like a pull that was pulling my lips down his neck.

Stopping at a spot my body felt like it was on autopilot, closing my eyes I pulled his hair a little causing him to half turn his head giving more access to his neck.

I could feel pressure in my gums, and the next thing I knew I was biting his neck.

The taste of metallic in my mouth caused me to let go.

Reins

I lay there watching her sleep I'm still shocked that she marked me. I was surprised when she was so willing to let me mark her but this morning I could feel her wolf presence.

I'm hoping with the marking brings out her wolf each time more and more I can sense her.

There is still a lot we have to talk about like her schooling im not going to let her stop I want her to finish and graduate.

I also have to deal with this Roberts and that dam Alpha.

Alpha Bret said they left his territory but he doesn't know where they went I know they haven't left the fact he abandoned his pack to come here means he will go to any lengths to get to her.

Just the thought makes anger build in me I've wanted my mate for a long time I looked for her all over I was beginning to think I didn't have one but then she came into my life just a few short weeks ago and I'm completely head over heels for her.

Darrel

"Where is he," I gritted through my teeth my patients are wearing thin he left two hours ago to talk with someone who said they had information on this Alpha who is currently keeping her away from me.

My phone dings looking at it another message from my Beta, I've had twenty to thirty missed calls from him since I left I have yet to answer him.

Clicking the message open.

(Alpha the packs are worried they know you're not here, please call me what do you want me to do?)

See this is why Matt was so much better as my Beta but he decided to betray me and take off with my mate hiding her from me,

Laying my phone down I hear the door Roberts walks in.

“Finally what took so long? What did you find out?”

“Man chill will you,” He says with a smug look,

Letting out a growl I wasn't in the mood for any jokes.

He holds his hand up.

“Alright, You remember that kid Dan he's Alpha Bretts boy, Well he has someone on the inside who is willing to help us,”

He says casually while skimming through his phone.

“Wait I thought he wasn't gonna help from what his father said, “

“Yeah, Well this is the only thing he's helping with after this he won't help we have to meet this person in two hours for a face-to-face, find out what they want in exchange for the information,”

“Great more waiting, “

I get up and start to pace around the room this is getting more and more complicated if my men would have been successful in grabbing her at the hotel then I wouldn't be sitting here with this it waiting for another person.

I hear movement I see Roberts get up and walk to one of the small beds he flops down.

“What the hell are you doing!” I growl at him.

“What does it look like,”

“We don't have time for you to snooze,”

” Man we have two hours till we meet this so-called person, there's not much to do right now so relax,”

I throw my hands up at him grabbing my phone off the table and stormed out slamming the door he was testing my patients.

Scrolling through my contacts I hit the button.

After two rings, "Alpha! Is that you?"

"Dan, I want you to listen,"

Autumn

Feeling light sparks dance down my arm along my shoulder and then my neck, I feel a hand slide around my middle when I feel a hard body against my back.

"I know you're awake," I hear his husky voice in my head.

Rolling over so I was facing him giving him a smile he places a soft peck on my lips.

"How are you feeling?" He asks while reaching up to brush a strand of hair from my face.

"I feel good, a little sore and still sleepy,"

"It's the marking by tomorrow you won't feel so tired,"

At that word marking, I suddenly remember what I did this morning. The urge I felt this odd feeling pushing forward making my body react I felt this presence guiding me.

I sat up moving to hover over him and looking at his neck but I didn't see anything.

What the heck I remembered I bite him and tasted blood when I let go when a wave of exhaustion hit me

I feel him shaking as I look at his face I see he's laughing.

I frowned at him not understanding why there wasn't a mark there.

I feel his hand cup my cheek pulling me down and giving me a peck.

“You looking for this?”

He rolled flat on his back tilting his head to the side and there on his neck was a mark it was fresh a little dried blood was still on it.

Seeing that Mark I felt that urge again I lean down licking the spot.

I hear a growl in my head then hands pulling me I landed on top of him.

Sitting up so I was straddling him his hand resting on my hips.

“You keep doing that and we are never leaving this room,”

Feeling the heat build again and that throbbing I couldn't help the moan that slipped passed my lips.

“As much as I would love to stay in this bed all day we do need to attend to some matters,”

I know we still had a lot to talk about I needed to speak with my parents plus there was my schooling, I know I'm gonna be behind he got work that needs to be done but I'm not gonna lie being here with him and after what we did the urge to be with him again was strong, I don't know why I feel so comfortable with him before I would never have the courage to be with someone like this.

Just looking at him caused my heart to flutter and all these butterflies in my stomach.

He was gorgeous well Handsome and the thought that he wanted me and all I read and learned from him about mates and that I was his.

“That's right you are mine, all mine!”

I froze how did he? I didn't say that out loud,

“Babe you had your link open,”

Dying of embarrassment I fell forward hiding my face in his chest. I felt his whole body shake as he wrapped his arms around me.

Autumn

We had laid there talking some more we talked about my schooling and how he wanted me to continue studying at home he felt it was too risky for me to attend school. At first, I wasn't happy about it but the more he pointed out that it made me an easy target I agreed seeing as I was almost taken not that long ago,

Hearing me agree I saw some tension leave his shoulders.

We finally got dressed we are head down to his office as we need to speak with my parents I want sure how they were gonna take the news.

Pa.ssing a few people in the halls I could see their shocked expressions as they see my hand being held by his. When they looked up to notice the mark we each carried their eyes widen.

Reins walked without giving them a side glance as he lead me toward his office.

I see Mr. Keaton walking towards us.

“Good Morning Alpha,” Watching his lips

He looked at me smiling super big.

“Good morning Luna,” he says then gives a small bow of his head.

“Good morning Mr. Keaton, “

He shakes his head.” Just Keaton, Luna,”

Looking at Reins I see him smiling.

“You're my mate, so there for you outrank him, “Reins's voice pops in my head startling me just a bit I still need to get used to that,

I see Keaton laughing just a bit.

He points to his temple ” Mind Linking?”

He mouths I just nod a bit then turn to face Reins.

“Can another’s Mind link me?”

“Yes but not till we do the Luna ceremony and make you an official member then everyone from the pack can link you as well as you to them,”

The thought of people popping up in my head made me a little nervous. Also would others like me? All these thoughts started running through my head when I feel a small squeeze on my hand.

Glance at him. “They will love you no need to worry,”

Giving him a nod,

He tips his to the side, “Let’s go to my office your parents should be there,”

We begin walking Keaton follows behind us the closer we got to the door the more nervous I became.

Reins open the door I see my parents and Zach sitting there talking with Aunt Anna,

My dad’s eyes snap instantly to me a stern look come across his face and my stomach dropped.

My hand tightened on Rein’s hand as my father stands walking toward me I drop my head not wanting to look at him afraid he would think less of me for sleeping with Rein and letting him mark me we had only known each other a few weeks,

Feeling my father’s presence in front of me I wanted to go hide not wanting to face his wrath.

I’m about to look up when I feel arms wrap around me pulling m tight against him, to say I was surprised I didn’t move I stood there like a tree not moving.

He let me go as I steady myself looking up to see my father smiling what is he crying?

“Dad?” I managed to stutter out.

He cupped my cheeks.

“I’m happy sweetie, finally you are where you belong,”

When I saw what he said all the nervousness I felt earlier left me. Flinging myself at my father catching me he held me up arms wrapped around me as mine were holding him just as tight.

Breaking apart I peek around him to see mom is a crying mess as Aunt Anna has an arm around her shoulders.

I stepped around dad and run to my mom who has her arms open.

She wraps me in her arms kissing my temple.

I feel a hand on my back I look to see Zach standing there Letting go of mom I hug him.

Break away I look up at him.

“I’m happy for you Autumn, I know he will protect you no matter what, “

Watching his lips move I couldn’t help but smile my family approved they didn’t hate me or think less of me.

Aunt Anna even hugged me and then moved to Reins engulfing him in one as well.

I turned to mom I hadn’t realized I was crying mom wipes my tears and then pushes some hair out of my face.

Arms suddenly slide around my waist as I feel a body come up behind me just by his touch I know it is Rein.

“See no need for worry,” His voice fills my head.

Letting go he sat down pulling me to sit on his lap making me blush with my parents standing here.

Everyone else sat down as well when dad catches my attention.

Do you have your implant?” He mouths to me.

Shaking my head, yes I reach into my pocket pull it out and place it on.

Giving him a thumbs up.

“Alright now that I have marked Autumn we need to have to ceremony,”

“Yes, Oh I’m so excited,” Aunt Anna boomed out you could see the excitement on her face.

“Keaton I’m sure Sophia would like to help with the planning, as well as you Helen, and you too Aunt Anna,”

“I’m taking it you want it soon?” Mom asked with a smirk on her face she was loving this.

“Yes the sooner the better,”

“Sophia on her way up,” Keaton says while shaking his head.

Just then the office door swung open and a very excited Sophia came charging through it. She came straight towards us crashing into me while I’m still sitting on Reins’s lap.

“Sophia!” Keaton calls out while pulling her off us I couldn’t help but laugh.

“Oh my God, this is so great! I can’t wait to get started, alright who’s all in on the planning,”

“Us!” Mom and Aunt Anna say together.

“Well let’s get started shall we!”

She grabs my hand pulling me off Reins while Mom and Aunt Anna are at my side They pull me out of the office as we head towards mine and Reins’s room.

Once the girls left I turned to the men sitting there.

“Do we know where that alpha and Roberts are?”

Keaton shook his head.

"They laying low we checked the surrounding area but nothing, I didn't want to send the scouts out too much farther,"

"No that's fine let's double patrols for now I want Oscar, Nick, and Brad as guards for Autumn also let's have Kelly tag along,"

"I'll have them come up,"

"Now Matt what's with the guy you get any more information?"

"We told him that Darrel has left the pack he didn't seem to be surprised about that, but he is asking to speak with you, he says he wants out of that pack but he has his mate there still tired of Darrel, and his leadership, but he did say that the Beta Dan is loyal to Darrel no matter what,"

"Zach, did you and Keaton ever touch base with the beta?"

"No we left messages but nothing in return, "

"Alright, we are doing the ceremony this weekend for you three and Autumn I also want Luna's ceremony to take place I'm not taking any chances with them two on the loose, If the Beta is helping them we need to be on alert for anything,"

"Alpha the four are here,"

Just then they stepped forward standing in front of us.

"Alpha," they say together.

"Alright, I have a job for you four, Kelly you are assigned to stay by Autumn's side do not leave it for a minute, Oscar Nick, and Brad you three are assigned as guards for Autumn we're she goes you all go Is that clear!"

"Yes Alpha,"

"Alpha is there a problem we should be aware of?" Oscar asked this is why he will make a good warrior or scout he gets all information.

"Roberts and that Alpha Darrel is hiding somewhere close they already were kicked out of Alpha Brett's territory so I'm thinking they will try something soon and now that I've marked Autumn im not taking any chances,"

” I know what Roberts looks like but not that Alpha Darrel,”

“I don’t think he will be a first-row player he will wait in the back and let the others do the work, just keep an eye out for Roberts or anyone trying to get close,”

“Yes Alpha,”

“Kelly I do believe the women are up in our room making plans,”

“I’ll go straight there.”

They give a quick bow before they leave.

Just then Keaton’s phone rings he looks at it then a frown appears on his face before answering it.

“Hello?” “Oh, Beta Dan,” “No no thanks for calling me back,” “Yes, I was reaching out I understand that your Alpha has gone missing?”

He pauses for a moment.

“So are you resuming the Alpha Roll or is your Alpha returning?”

I see Keaton’s face harden a little.

“Well if you need any help please reach out we would be happy to assist you,”

“Yep no problem again thanks for returning my call, Bye now,”

He clicked his phone off and then looked at us.

“What he say ?” I asked feeling uneasy.

“He’s helping, he said that Darrel took off over a week ago saying he needed some time to rest and recoup from being rejected by his mate, but is planning on returning in a few days,”

“He rejected his mate year’s ago when he learned of Autumn she left the pack no one heard from her since,” Matt tells us.

“Did he think we would buy that, he was just at Alpha Bretts pace a day or two ago. “

Keaton chimes in.

“He’s getting desperate he’s grasping straws right now he’s not very patient and seeing as this is as close as he comes to getting her he’s bound to mess up,” Matt says while Zach agrees.

“But that makes a dangerous situation that means he will do anything to get successful,”

“Keaton give Oscar and them the update Matt you and me will go down and speak with this Chad guy maybe I can get something out of him that’s helpful,”

We all stand ready to go our ways when there was a knock on the door.

“Come in,” I called out

I see Morgan step in as she looked around the room. She closed the door and then walked over to us.

“Alpha im sorry to disturb you but I need to speak with you,”

“It’s okay Morgan, have a seat,”

“You guys are excused,” I tell the other they now and head out of the office.

Face Morgan.

“What did you find out?”

“She has been making a lot of secret phone calls as well as sneaking out late at night, I tried following her but she seems to use something to mask her scent cause I end up losing the trail,”

” Have you heard anything she talks about when she is on the calls?”

“No, she’s super hush, and as soon as she hears any noise she hangs up,”

“When did she start doing all this?”

“Right after the punishment you have her,”

“What about the other two?”

“Nothing she doesn’t even talk on the phone around them, I don’t think they know anything,”

“Alright continue keeping track of her let me know if anything changes,”

” Yes, Alpha,” She stands heading towards the door but then stops and turns to look at me.

“Alpha can I ask you something?”

“Sure Morgan,”

“Um, I wanted to ask if um it’s true that Lunas now marked?”

I smiled to myself knowing the ock felt the shift in leaders once I marked their Luna,

“Yes, she is,”

I see her smile widely,

“I knew it, I knew I felt the connection,”

“I’ll announce when the Luna ceremony is also her family is joining as members.

“I’m happy it’s Autumn I like her she’s sweet and nice she seems like she will make a good Luna,”

“Thank you Morgan, I appreciate your help with this,”

“Any time Alpha,”

She gives a small bow and then walks out.

I head out to find Matt waiting for me, We head straight to the dungeon wanting to get this over with.

Rachel

I was beyond mad when he gave me my punishment, I bet Morgan didn't get anything seeing as he had her stay behind,

I also wanted to get even with that little witch for making me submit to her, something is going on with her When Dan started paying attention to her at school I knew it then. He is not one to stoop that low for a regular wolf.

Dan and I have had our fun as well so I was sure I could get him to spill what he all knew. He did he told me all about Roberts and how he has been trying to get to her, how he found out I have no idea he also told me he was going to help this guy and that's when I started getting my plan set.

I've been keeping in contact with Dan but I have to stay on the low about it I didn't even tell Tori and Lisa about it, I know Morgans has been poking around so I got to keep watch of her,

I've already been in contact with Roberts and that Alpha I will say he's kinda nuts

But I don't care he taking my one problem and getting rid of it for me.

Currently, I'm standing in this kitchen waiting for Tori and Lisa to get here, This is our punishment kitchen duty for two months, I hate cooking and I mostly hate serving people,

It should be me being served, I'm not a servant I am much better than them this is why I should be Luna, I'm higher quality than she is, I mean seriously she can't even hear,

Tori and Lisa come strolling in giggling.

"What the hell are you two laughing at get in here and get this work done,"

They both jump at my yelling and start work with the other kitchen staff,

I wasn't in the mood for anything this morning.

Especially this morning I felt the shift in power which only means he marked someone to say I was enraged would be an understatement I needed to let those two know what happen and make a different plan now which with this it means there will be a ceremony maybe that will open up a chance, I need to make this happen and fast before he announced her to the pack as the Luna,

When I noticed no one was paying attention to me I slipped out the side door pulled out my phone and quickly dialed the number.

“Why hello my little helper,” I roll my eyes at his words.

“Shut up! I don’t have long look we need to meet and soon, there’s a small problem and we need to change the plans,”

“I don’t like problems, ” He growled. “What is this problem?”

“He marked her this morning,”

He must have had me on speakerphone cause the next thing I hear is a loud roar causing me to shiver and bare my neck.

“Meat me in an hour!” Then the line went dead.

sh!t, how am I gonna do that I’ll be stuck in this dam kitchen for another two hours.

Going back in I walk to Tori seeing as she is the easiest to get the to cave.

“Tor,” I say sweetly to her. ” Could you do me a favor?

“Yeah Rach what’s up,”

“Could you cover for me, please I’m not feeling good I want to go lay down,”

I give her a pout.

“Yes sure, do you want me to bring you anything?”

“No no I think some rest will be good, Thank you Tor,”

I give her a sweet smile she beams one right back at me.

“No problem, go rest ill check on you later,”

I turn walking out with a triumphant smile on my face.

Autumn

When Kelly joined us in the room it took a couple of minutes for us to settle as she about tackled me from excitement.

Mom gave me that look to make me zip it and sit down.

Now we were all going over everything Sophia was great she and Mom hit it off with everything from the colors of the tablecloths to napkins up to the decorations, Aunt Anna was on food duty she had her list made and had asked me what I wanted there as well,

I was feeling a little nervous with everything is seemed to be moving so fast, but mom kept telling me this is how it works in this world and when you find your mate it's goes even faster,

Kelly sat next to me as we looked online for dresses I asked to go to the stores to look but Mom said to look here and luck three then we would go try them on.

I found three that I liked the most and thankfully they were all at the same shop.

I showed the others they all limes the same ones.

“Are you able to make an appointment?”

Kelly signed to me.

Nodding my head I pointed to the sp0t on the screen clicking on I seen the availability they had which there was a slot open for today in about two hours.

I clicked on filling in my name.

Showing Kelly the time we put the laptop away moving over to see what Mom and Sophia we're doing.

They had it all covered I couldn't believe it I wasn't sure what all went on at a ceremony like this but holy cow there's a lot. Then it hit me I don't know what im to do at it.

Mom must have seen my face and the change in my stances.

“Hey you okay,” She signed to me she must have forgot I still had my implant on.

“What am I to do at the ceremony ?”

Sophia smiled then sat down next to me.

“This is to introduce you to the pack as their Luna, Reins other half he equal it shows you to are united as one,”

“Like a marriage?”

“Kinda but this is for life, this is so everyone knows you two are a mated pair,”

“Do we say like vows and that?”

“I guess it’s like vows but it’s a vow tying you to the pack and to Reins, as well as him to you,”

My nerves suddenly kicked into over drive, I wasn’t afraid of being with him but what if he would get tired of me or become annoyed with my hearing problem, how would I communicate with the others in the pack when I always have to have my implant or son to people.

We all jumped when the door flew open slamming into the wall, Looking up I see him standing there.

Coming straight to me kneeling down in front as everyone else retreated away from me.

“I felt your uneasiness and I heard your thoughts,”

His husky voice pops in my head.

” I would never tire out you, I’ve waited so long for you im never letting you go,”

His hands cup my cheek instantly making me feel calm.

He leans up placing a soft k!ss to my l!ps. Tingles and fireworks explode all over my body at his touch.

It was then I knew I was falling hard for him.

Reins

It's been three days since Autumn and I marked each other and it has been very busy we have barely had time to see one another with the planning of the Luna ceremony as well as adding in there the joining of three new members,

Today the tutor lady comes to speak with Autumn about the courses she will be taking she was surprised that Autumn was taking such high classes at school, especially with her differences as she put it.

It was a huge relief when she agreed to study at home I know how important her studies are to her I would never take that from her.

Since I've doubled up on the patrol I've also doubled up on the training mostly with my younger warriors I know my older ones know how to handle them self but these youngest are not as controlled.

Currently, I'm leading one of the groups with Chase it's mostly females I normally don't like lead these groups as I don't want to be stuck in a certain situation if one female asks for help,

I'm standing off to the side as Chase is walking through the pairs that are sparing giving pointers as he moves around.

I notice two females that are doing more talking than training, They are throwing punches by no means worth anything.

One girl has her hands up while the other is lightly throwing her half-made fist barely even making contact,

Slowly I make my way toward them I can hear them talking back and forth the one seems to be complaining to the other one.

They are too engrossed in their topic they never heard me approaching,

As I got closer I could see who it was.

Ah yes, now I recognize them they're the others I gave punishment to for ganging up on my mate but where is the other one that's the ring leader to these two,

"I don't know what's she thinking lately but she gonna get herself into trouble,"

"Yeah, and look what it got us punishment, and then she didn't even help the other day saying she didn't feel good played one on me,"

"Told you to stop being a softy, all she does is use us,"

"You will get more done if you weren't talking so much,"

Both jump yelping out loud.

"Alpha," they bow their heads

"You two need to work hard and less talking, you don't even hear me until I spoke,"

"Sorry Alpha," They look down at their feet.

"Back to work,"

"Yes, Alpha," They face each other and begin again this time doing it properly.

I moved back to the side watching but couldn't get what they said out of my head that's when I spotted Morgan in the back she working with Chase's mate.

Making my way to them they stop when they see me next to them.

"Continue," I tell them

"Yes, Alpha,"

I start walking around them making it look as if I'm helping them.

"Morgan, have you seen Rachel today?"

I ask her in a low tone.

“No Alpha I looked before training someone said she left early this morning, she also was gone the other day she got the other girls to cover for her in the kitchen,”

“Thank you, Morgan,”

I turned to head back to my spot.

“Keaton,” I call through the link.

“Yes, Alpha,”

I want to go check with the patrols to see if anyone has seen Rachel this leaving this morning,”

“I’m on it,”

I cut the link letting him do the task I just gave him.

Watching the group but also letting thoughts run through my head I had a gut feeling this girl was up to no good.

Hearing Chase calls for everyone to line up snapped me out of my trance.

“Everyone looked good we will pick back up tomorrow same time,” He looks at me.

“Alpha you want to add anything ?”

“Good work today, I know this double training is tough, I want everyone to give 100 percent when they are here, you guys are dismissed,”

“Yes, Alpha!”

Everyone started walking away I looked through to see the two girls standing by the bench.

“Lisa, Tori, I’d like a word with you two,”

They both paled instantly setting their things back down and walking toward me.

“Chase wait a minute,”

He nods as he takes one step back placing his hand behind his back,

The girls stop in front of me they have their heads down I see them fidgeting with their fingers I can smell fear on them.

I just stand there not saying anything I see they're becoming uneasy with the silence.

Clearing m throat the one jumps snapping her head up.

"We're sorry Alpha we won't slack again please don't extend our punishment,"

Squinting my eyes at her quick response

"Was there a more important topic you two felt the need to discuss during training?"

"No, Alpha we shouldn't have been we won't do it again,"

"Hmmm, And what was it you were talking about?"

Both look at one another one shaking her head.

"You two can tell me willing or do I need to command you to,"

"No no!" They both blurt out loud holding their hands up.

"Speak!"

Watching their shoulder slump.

"It was about our friend she bailed on helping us the other day, and she just making stupid choices and we just feel we are being used,"

"And which friend is this?"

They Gave a little hesitation,

"Rachel,"

"Are you two worried about her choices?"

“We just feel she not thinking straight, she is blinded by her wants and we don’t want her to get into trouble,”

“Those choices being what?”

I could see they didn’t want to answer that as they began to shift on their feet looking at each other.

“She has a crush on someone and this person doesn’t feel that way about her, but she is determined to make him like her,”

I knew who they were speaking of but I didn’t understand why, I’ve never messed around with anyone from my pack I wasn’t going to make it hard when and if I ever found my mate, this is what I was trying to keep from happening but some girls are power hungry.
