0 4 minutes read

Reins

The next few days went by in a blur it felt like, everyone doing their part in preparing for the ceremony they knew I had marked their luna but not everyone had met Autumn,

After the little chat with the two girls the other day I've had a close eye on that Rachel girl, Morgan had reported the two girls haven't been with her lately and that Rachel has been keeping more to herself but has been showing up for her work in the kitchen and she's been doing her share of work which was odd seeing as she had skipped out a few times plus she would always push her work off on the other two.

We had lost the trail for Roberts and Darrel as well. I didn't like it everything was too quiet I just had a sinking feeling in my gut.

Even Alpha Brett's kid was staying at his pack and not causing trouble.

Keaton had reached out again to Darrel Beta but he didn't respond.

Focusing back on the group in front of me I wanted to lead the training this morning so I could be with Autumn the rest of the day.

"Alright everyone lines up," I yell out to the group. They break apart lining up in the spits they had started in.

"Now this weekend is very important to the pack, we are welcoming your Luna to the pack,"

Everyone started hooting and cheering at the mention of their Luna.

Holding my hands up to get them to quiet down.

"Even though the patrols will be doubled and shift changes will be done separately so there is no opening or no one on the borders, make sure you get with Chase on when your patrol time is and who will be switching with you,"

"Yes, Alpha!" They all call out.

“Don’t worry everyone will have a chance to attend the ceremony.”

I hear a bunch of hoots again I knew they would be happy about that.

“Alright dismissed,”

“Alpha Alpha!” I hear someone calling me.

I look over and see one of the morning patrols heading toward me.

He stops in front of me.

“Alpha we have a problem, the patrols on the east spotted wolves about a mile out from the border,”

I didn’t give him a chance to say more I took off shifting.

“Keaton!” I call through the link.

“Alpha I heard about it on my way,”

“Oscar,” I shift my thought to him.

“Yes, Alpha,”

“Wolves east border keep close to Autumn,”

“Yes, Alpha,”

I hear movement to the left when Keaton’s wolf appears followed by Matt and Zach’s wolf,

Reaching the patrols I see they are waiting,

Once we reach them I shift back as they had already done.

“Alpha,” they bow their heads.

“Were are they?”

“They stopped about a mile out there’s about five of them, but they’re not rogues,”

Matt shifts back stepping next to me.

“They are from Darrel’s pack, I know that scent is more of his scouts,”

“Keaton go check them out try and get close enough and see who they are and report back, don’t let them know you’re there,”

I say to him through the link, he gives me a grunt as he starts walking off,

Autumn

I couldn’t believe that the weekend had arrived already, this week has been like a dream.

Since Reins marked me I have felt more normal like I fit in better I don’t feel as if I’m being treated differently no one looks at me like I’m an outcast cause im deaf.

Th is is where I’m meant to be.

I also feel stronger not physically stronger but emotionally and mentally stronger and I love that he can mind link me, the sound of his voice in my head is so different than when I have my implant on,

Kelly has been a great help this week she has been teaching me how to link Reins which I accidentally did while he was at training and gave him a heart attack,

Mom and Aunt Anna have been so busy getting everything together for this weekend even though Mom knows what I like she still included me in everything.

My dresses came the other day at first Reins was okay with me going just as long as I took Oscar and the boys with me but then he came in just before we were to leave and he said he would have them delivered here for me to try on.

I know he’s worried I can feel it sometimes when they are discussing things I know he’s looking out for me I just want him to feel like he can tell me things I want to know,

I've also been doing my studies the lady is great her name is Mia, and we get along great she is a werewolf as well Reins said it was easier than explaining why there were so many people living here.

Just as Mia and I were finishing up Oscar came busting through the door looking flushed and rigid.

Causing both Mia and myself to jump.

"Oscar, what's wrong?"

He walks over looks out the window then looks back to the door both Nick and Brad are there then Kelly comes in.

She stops by me.

"Kelly"

"Don't worry, Alpha just asked we stay close," She says to me but I can see it on her face there's more.

"I know there's more what is it?"

She looks at Oscar he just shakes his head but then looks back out the window.

"Kelly!"

I see her shoulders slump.

"Mia could you excuse us, please "

Mia nods her head gathering up her things she waves to me and then walks out,

Kelly watches as she leaves then looks back at me.

"There are wolves at the border, they are not part of our pack Alpha went to check it out,"

"Who are they then?"

“Not sure yet that’s why Alpha went out to find out who they are and what they’re doing here,”

I started to get a sick feeling in the pit of my stomach everything was going so well this week, “Reins,” I call him through the link.

But I got nothing back normally he would answer me instantly.

“Reins, please talk to me!”

I waited a few more moments when finally.

“Autumn,” His husky voice filled my head.

“Reins, what’s going on?”

“Stay with Oscar and them don’t leave their side, please not till I get back,”

“Reins you are scaring me,”

“Don’t worry sweetheart it’s will be okay, I’ll be back in just a few,”

He cut the link I couldn’t reach him again.

Keaton had been gone only ten minutes but it felt like hours, My thoughts gifted to Autumn she sounded so worried when she linked me, I could tell her what was all going on I know I shouldn’t keep it from her but she was still learning how our world works and learning about herself with all this happening there hasn’t been time to get more information on silver wolves.

What I have learned from watching her is when it’s an extreme emotion her wolf presence is there stronger than when it’s a normal emotion, I can sense her wolf’s aura more each day since I marked her I’m just not sure if she will be able to shift, I feel my wolf calling for hers.

My thoughts got broken when I hear a small ruse from the side Keaton pops out he shifts back Matt hands him some shorts that were stashed by the trees.

“What did you find?”

“Their not rouges, they have the same scent as the guy who tried taking Autumn,”

A low rumble left my lips I wanted to rush in on them and kill them right there,

“Alpha calm down Keaton holds his hands up to me. They are just hanging in one spot I believe they are acting as a distraction, let’s get back to the pack house ill have two patrols watch them I don’t think they will do anything,”

Keaton says while standing in front of me, Hearing his words I steady my breathing and force myself to calm down.

Think Reins don’t lose your head now,

I kindly remind myself.

“Alright, you two,” I point to the two patrols that spotted them first.

“Watch them if they move an inch I want to know !”

“Yes Alpha,” They bow their heads shifting and heading off to find a point where they can watch clearly.

“Alpha what about the ceremony tomorrow ?” Matt asked looking concerned.

“It’s still on it needs to be done I got double patrols I’ll add a third if need be but I’m going to introduce my Luna to the pack and get you all made official members we have put it off long enough,”

He nods his head in agreement with me,

“Let’s go I need to see my mate.”

Shifting I take off towards the pack house the urge to see her was burning me up inside I could feel her worry through the bond I doubt she realized she was doing it and it ate at me I just wanted to hold her and shield her from anyone who wanted to hurt her,

Darrel

“Dan are the scouts in place?”

“Yes, Alpha they are.”

“Good, I don’t want no mistakes they are to do nothing! Just hang around and keep the patrol occupied me and Roberts will handle the rest,”

“Yes Alpha I gave them clear orders they will follow them, but Alpha what about his Beta, He keeps calling me I haven’t answered him I’m not sure what I should tell him,”

“Nothing don’t answer him, tomorrow is the ceremony we are making our move then,”

“Alright Alpha,”

“Once we have her I will not return right away Roberts has a hideout waiting for us, The first place Reins will look is at the pack,”

“But Alpha won’t he suspect if you’re not here?”

“The hideout is close I will leave her there long enough for my presence to be noted at the pack,”

“Right, got it anything else Alpha?”

“No, it’s just waiting for tomorrow,”

With that, I cut the call.

“Are you sure these random rogues will follow through?”

Roberts looks up from whatever he was reading.

“Yes, no stop worrying”

“What about that girl you think she gave us the right information, and she’s not setting us up,”

Roberts gr0ans while dropping the papers in his hand.

“She good I checked her out even that Dan kid vouched for her, he said she obsessed with that Alpha for two years now, why I don’t know as I’ve heard he doesn’t sleep with anyone from his pack,”

“What a weakling, can’t even handle women from his pack,”

He just eyed me and then simply rolled his eyes.

“Are your men in place?”

“Yes, I told you they follow my orders, they won’t do anything but wait,”

“Good cause if they screw up we won’t get a chance again at this,”

“Don’t worry about my men, just make sure those dam rogues don’t mess up!”

He just stood walking out slamming the door as he left.

I couldn’t wait for this to end till I had her in my grasp I’d waited for so dam long for her and now she was so close, I was beyond pissed when that girl told us she was marked by him I felt nothing but rage I wanted to storm his territory and rip his head off.

It was to be my marking on her neck not his or anyone else, I know by marking her means she gave herself to him willingly and that drove me nuts as well, She was mine I was to be the only one to touch her that way, and he was able to she allowed him too.

I have dreamed about taking her and making her mine for years I’ve had my scout tracking her for as long as I can remember each time we would get so close they would disappear when my scout said that they had an open window to take her at that hotel my heart leaped at the thought, that’s why I gave them the go-ahead but that dam brother and father had to show up and ruin it, I’ll make them pay as well.

Just thinking of what I wanted to do to her I felt myself hardening the fact that after tomorrow she’s mine, mine to mark mine to take.

I know marking is a permanent thing and the only way to undo it is for one mate must die, and if I wanted to mark her and for her to become mine is Reins must die!

Autumn

When Reins had come back to the pack house he was ridged his body tense. I asked him what happen at first he didn't want to tell me he was acting as if he needs to shield me from everything bad,

He finally gave in telling me about the random wolves at the border and how they were from my parent's old pack.

"Why won't they stop? What have I done to make them want to hurt me?"

"Sweetheart you did nothing, these people don't see anything but their selfishness,"

The sound of Rein's voice pops in my head as he wraps me in his arms, this is the one sp0t that I've come to enjoy being, if you would have told me a month ago I'd be here I would have laughed,

But now I couldn't see myself anywhere but here with him.

Melting into him his touch is an instant calming I don't think about anything but this moment right now.

He places soft k!sses on my forehead tingles dance at every sp0t his l!ps touch.

"How were your studies today?"

"Good, they aren't too different from the ones I was taking in school, so I'm not struggling,"

I feel his c.hest rumble with the feeling of his head nodding, He reaches out shopping me up placing me on his lap wrapping his arms around my h!ps to keep me from falling, my arms automatically go around his neck.

"Good, How about the ceremony? Is there anything you need me to handle?"

Smiling at his sweetness to help when he has so many other things going on and I know he's trying to make my mind off the previous subject,

“I think Sophia and my mom have that handled, plus Aunt Anna has done everything food-wise,”

“Did your dresses come?”

Nodding my head a bit.

“Yes they did, thank you for having them brought here, I didn’t have to miss any lessons,”

Leaning in placing a peck on his lips. His hold tightens on my hips as he pulls me closer to him.

He starts kissing my forehead down over my eyes he moves to my cheeks over my nose I feel his lips move to my jaw as he slowly creeps down my neck.

Moving back to my lips he locks me in a heated kiss.

He lifts me pulling me on the back of my thighs making me straddle his legs all while not breaking the kiss.

Sliding my hands down to rest on his chest I feel his rumble against my hand.

Just when I thought I’d run out of air he broke away resting his forehead against mine his eyes shut our chests rising as we try to get our breath.

“As much as I would love to continue this there is still a lot to do for tomorrow,”

The husky voice rings in my head opening my eyes to look at him seeing his eyes are pitch black. But that’s not what made me confused, it was the way he was looking at me.

Like he was seeing me for the first time.

“What?” I asked him scrunching my brows a little and tilting my head just a bit.

“You are absolutely beautiful,”

Feeling my cheeks heat up at his words he smiles and then kisses me standing up.

Letting out a yelp I wrapped my legs around his waist many arms clasping together behind his head.

Laughing he holds me under my thighs walking out the door.

“Reins put me down,”

But I like carrying you, you fit perfectly against me,”

“Reins people will see,” I buried my face in his neck I felt his shoulder shaking so I knew he was laughing.

“If you must carry me then a piggyback ride is better,”

He stopped which caused me to look up at him he was smirking at me and I know my face is beat red.

“Alright,”

He sets me down but in a way that made me slide down his front as his hands slid from my legs up over my butt resting on my lower back. Evil man, he knows what his touch does but I can play this game too.

Letting my body arch against him I could feel every inch of his hard body as I slowly slide down when his eyes darken and his grip tightens I smile to myself.

“If you don’t want me to take you back in the room and make it so you can’t walk for two days you may want to rethink your thoughts,” His voice sounded more like a growl in my head.

Scurrying around him he knees down jumping on his back he grips under my thighs hoisting me up I wrap my arms around him locking my ankles together in front. He walks us to his office where my dad and Zach along with Keaton and Chase were waiting.

Reins

It’s the day of the Luna ceremony and the tension in the air is thick. Yesterday we changed the patrol to three shifts all overlapping each other and assigned each person their relief.

I wasn’t taking any chances those wolves are still hanging just outside the border but they move to a different spot now.

I waited at the bottom of the stairs for her, I couldn't wait to see her, Helen and Sophia have been helping her get ready Matt and Zach were waiting with me they seemed just as nervous.

Keaton walks in.

"Alpha, everyone is ready and waiting, The patrols checked in the first shift changed is in an hour,".

" Alright, Thanks Keaton,"

Just then I hear footsteps coming down looking up my breath hitched in my throat, She was stunning.

Watching her walk down seemed like it took forever till she reached to stand in front of me.

My eyes trailed down her face to her body. Her dress fits her perfectly the Campaign color against her skin was perfect It had lace all along the top that covered all but a small area that was in the shape of a heart that attached to a wide lace piece around her neck, The sleeves were lace as came down her arms to her elbows with a flare letting some hang lower on her arm, The bottom wasn't tight as the fabric hung loosely around her till it reached the bottom there was a small train attached to be back that dragged behind her, even her makeup was perfect everything on her was perfect!

I was so lost in the beauty that I couldn't speak I could only stare at her mouth hung open,

"Reins? Something wrong?" I hear Keaton ask while trying to hold his laughter.

Quickly composing myself I look to the other two ladies.

"You both look beautiful, Thank you for getting her ready she looks astonishing,"

Even with the makeup, I could see her blushing.

"Thank you, Alpha, we enjoyed helping our Luna," Sophia says as Keaton moves to stand by her.

I hold my arm out. "Shall we?" She gives me a smile placing her hand in the crook of my elbow I turn leading us out of the house.

Reaching the stage I feel Autumn's hand tighten on my arm. Look at her I see she looks nervous.

Stopping at the step I turn to face her.

"It's okay don't be nervous, I have to make a quick speech then I'll call you guys up, Zach will walk with you,"

She looks at Zach he smiles and then winks at her, you can see how much he loves his sister.

She looks at me giving me a nod I kiss her hand before I pass it to Zach who steps up takes it and hooks it on his arm.

Walking out I look out over my pack I see all their face filled with excitement.

"Thank all for coming I'm happy to announce that I have found your Luna,"

Everyone breaks out and hops and hollers,

"I also would like to announce we have three more members joining us as well, So without further ado, I want to introduce you to Autumn Collins, Along with her Brother Zach Collins Followed by their parents Matt and Helen Collins,"

I call their names I see them walk up crossing the stage.

Holding my hand out to Autumn she lets go of Zach's arms taking my hand I pull her next to me. I could feel her emotions through the bond.

"You're doing great," I say through the link just to calm her, She smiled at me.

Everyone is clapping and whistling.

Keaton and Sophia had a small table set up I walked her over to it.

I grab the knife holding my hand out sliding the blade across my palm I quickly close my hand to a fist squeezing my hand and watching as a few drops of blood drip into the cup.

I hold the knife placing it against her palm and holding her hand over the small cup,

“Autumn Collins do you accept the responsibility of Luna to be loyal and true and put the pack above all, “

“I Autumn Collins accept and promise to be loyal and put the pack be for all others,” I slide the blade putting a small cut in her palm she winces a little.

Closing her hand I watch blood drop I open her hand seeing the cut didn't heal like mine I lean down giving it a quick lick.

I lift the glass to her letting her take a drink just as she hands the glass to me.

There is a commotion behind the stage.

Wolves are coming from all directions.

“ROGUES!” I hear yelled through the link.

Pulling Autumn behind me as her brother shifted coming to stand in front of us. I could feel Autumn trembling as she clung to me.

I felt another person behind me looming over my shoulder it was Autumn's mom her father was standing in there guarding them from the back.

“Alpha we need to move Luna and her mother to the safe room.” Keaton's voice rings in my head.

Just as he said through words he popped up on the stage in front I didn't want to leave her but I need to defend my pack and she can't stay here.

I turned to her father as he hadn't shifted yet.

“Follow Keaton he will take you to the safe room, don't let them out of your sight,”

“Yes Alpha,” He steps up wrapping one arm around his mate he goes to reach for Autumn but she shakes her head stepping closer to me she looks up at me tears streaking her cheeks as she clung harder to my shirt.

” Autumn you have to go with them you can’t stay here it’s not safe,”

Her head shakes even harder fisting my shirt till her knuckles are white.

“No! Please I don’t want to leave you please!” She cries out.

“Alpha! We need to go!” Keaton calls again as he knocks a wolf off the stage.

Cupping her face I kiss her. I look over her head at her father nodding at him he knew what he had to do.

I started to step back as he reached an arm out wrapping it around her waist he pulled her from me, Hearing the rip of my shirt from her grip and her screaming my name broke my heart the look of fear she had in her eyes caused my wolf to become angry his mate is scared and wants to protect her.

Zach came to stand in front of her he began pushing her with his head as her fighting against her father was making it hard for him to hold her.

Keaton stops for a minute to look at me.

“Go!” was all I said through the link.

With a grunt, he took off leading them away from here.

Turning I quickly looked at the fighting that was happening all around.

“Women and children go to the closes safe room!” I yell through the link

Jumping off the stage and shifting mid-air soon as my paws touched the ground I charge head-first into the fight.

Chase appeared next to me taking down wolves with ease these rogues weren’t good fighters my warriors were getting the upper hand rather fast.

Some started to pull back as we gained more control,

“I want one alive!” I called to Chase.

He currently had a rogue down he was about to snap its neck but I need to find out why they attacked us and who planned it I had a gut feeling it was that dam Alpha but I need confirmation when I get it he’s mine!

“Alpha they’re retreating!” one warrior calls out.

Dropping the dead wolf I had my teeth sunk into his neck I look up seeing them running.

“Follow them! We need to know how they got in!” I called out seeing some of my warriors take off after them

“REINS!”

Her screams rang in my head so loud that the fear I felt through the bond dropped me in my spot.

“Alpha!” Chase had shifted and kneeled next to me.

My wolf whimpered as I lay on the ground. The fear was so strong it caused me to shift back.

“Autumn,” I whispered to no one but myself.

“Alpha, Alpha!” I could hear someone calling when the person fell to their knees next to me I slowly turned my head it was Autumn’s mother, the fear I was feeling slowly dying down I could breathe again.

“Please help us! They are all hurt please” she cried out,

Looking at her I could see she was covered in blood at that sight and the fact I could smell my mate’s blood made something snap in my wolf rage ripped through us.

“Where?” was all I said.

She got up running I followed with Chase right on my heels.

As we rounded the corner of the house the smell of blood hit me. There on the ground were Keaton Matt and Zach.

Helen ran dropping to next to Matt she picked his head up holding it in her lap.

Chase goes to Keaton and we see he's the only one awake he's on his side holding his arm he's bloody.

"Alpha, I'm sorry," He coughs out blood.

"Help him please," Helen cries I'm next to him he's bleeding from his chest when I go to press on his wound to slow the bleeding I pick up on an odd scent.

"Chase!"

"Yes, Alpha I smell it,"

"Smell what?" Helen asked

"Sliver!"

I started looking at Matt's wound I see he was stabbed square in the chest the wound is deep he bleeding badly.

Glancing over to Zach he's still out I see he's got a gash on his cheek and his arms then I notice his leg he still had the knife stuck in it.

I grab Helen's hand placing it on Matt's wound hold here keep pressure on it.

I move to Zach I reach for the knife once I touched it I felt the burn. Quickly grabbing it I pulled it out throwing it on the ground.

Blood starts gushing out his leg looking around I see Matt's belt moving over to him I pulled it off him moving it back over to Zach I wrap it around the top part of his leg pulling it right as I can.

"Chase we need help!"

Just then I see Oscar running over a doctor,

"Alpha!" The doctor heads towards me.

"I'm fine help him first I point to Matt he had the worst wound out of the three.

“Alpha what happen?” Oscar asked as he was helping stop the bleeding on Zach’s other wounds.

“I don’t know Keaton is the only one awake and he’s barely able to talk,”

“Alpha wheres Autumn?”

Feeling the ping in my chest.

“I don’t know she’s not here I can smell her blood though,”

“Can you link her?”

“I haven’t tried I’ve been here with these three, “

“Alpha we need to move him he’s bleeding out and I can smell sliver,”

“Do it!”

I hear some more people coming toward us. They go to help move Matt.

“Helen stay with him,”

“What about Zach?” She says as she starts to move towards him.

“I’ve got him you stay with your mate,”

She looks torn like she wants to go with her mate but she is worried about her son.

“Helen go get checked out you have blood all over you,”

She hesitates for a minute then nods following the guys who carried her mate.

“Alpha, I got Keaton ill take him to the clinic,” I hear Chase

Looking over he got Keaton up helping him walk I see Chase’s mate come running as she helps him hold Keaton up.

“Oscar we need to get him to the clinic,”

“ALPHA!” Nick Kelly and Brad come running.

“Help Oscar,” was all I said as I stood back up letting them pick him up.

As they walked away I took a minute to look around I can see there was a good fight then my eyes landed on the knife laying on the ground.

Looking for something I see a piece of ripped shirt I take it picking the knife up.

“Reins,” Her voice sounded in my head.

“Autumn! Where are you?”

“Reins, Reins please!”

Then her voice was gone.

“Autumn! Autumn!” I call her again.

Autumn

I felt as if I was floating through the air my head kinda swayed side to side I wasn't floating im being carried!

Slowly peeking I didn't want the person to see I was waking up all I see is someone back. How nice im flung out someone's shoulders like a dirty old sack! And this person recks to high heaven.

My thoughts went back to my family my father was hurt I don't remember it all but I did see my dad stab in his c.hest then I was knocked in the back of my head.

Suddenly I was dropped to the ground rather harshly with a thud a small cry leaving my l!ps. I quickly begin to look around there were guys everywhere some bleeding others helping to attend to the hurt ones.

A guy is walking toward me he well built his c.hest and shoulders are broad muscular arms he would be a good catch for someone but the sight of him made me feel sick. The look he had made my stomach drop with fear.

Squatting down he looks straight at me.

“Hello my dear,” He moved his lips slowly as I focus on what he said. So he must know I’m deaf.

“What do you want? I don’t have anything to give you!” I know my voice is shaking with fear.

“Oh my sweet little one you do have something to give me and I’ve waited a long time for it”

At his words, my heart stopped bile rising in my throat.

“What?” I asked him again.

He smiled a sickening smile I could see the lust in his eyes as he looked down at my body as I lay on the ground.

“First you need to change, then we need to get moving there is plenty of time to share the story with you as you won’t be going anywhere,”

He reaches out grabbing me by the tops of my arms and making me stand letting go of my arms he then grabbed my elbow and started dragging me along.

He pulled me to a tent and then pulled the front cover back he pushes me inside.

Letting go of me I didn’t move fear of what he may do to me in here ripping through my body.

Only Reins can touch me.

“Here change into this we have a good bit to travel,”

He was standing in front of me.

“You can’t travel in that,” He runs his hand in the air downward toward my dress.

Looking down I see my dress has tares in it along with small blood spots.

Picking my head up he was staring straight at me he held the clothes out for me to take.

I didn't want to take anything from him I didn't even want to be near him everything in me screamed danger making my mind say run for it.

But I didn't know where I was I do not know how to fight im not a violent person I don't like hurting people.

Slowly reaching out I take the clothes from him pulling them against my chest.

I looked around for a place to change but the tent was one open space there was nowhere.

Looking back at him,

"Um, can you give me a minute?"

His smile widened at my words and I didn't like it.

"Feel free to change anywhere dear, after all, I am your mate so there's no need to be shy,"

Mate? How can he be my mate Reins then it hit me this is the Alpha Reins told me about he's the one who's been after me, God Reins please find me all I wanted was to be back in his arms where I knew it was safe.

That man stepped closer to me reaching out he grabbed my chin with his fingers.

"You better not think about that worth Alpha, you are mine and mine only. "

Fear of what he may do.

"No, I just need privacy to change please,"

His face softens a bit boring his head he let go taking a step back.

"I'll step out you got two minutes,"

He walks past me and out the front of the tent.

Fear of him coming back in I quickly scurry out of my dress putting on the clothes he gave me I was pulling my hair down when he came back in.

Grabbing me he's started dragging me roughly.

Just then we were stopped by another man and this one I recognized.

I pulled harshly away from the man who was dragging me by the smell he was the one who was carrying me before.

The two stared at each other when the one who claimed to be my mate some first.

"Move out my way we leaving and she coming with me!"

The other guy started to laugh at this.

"Oh, she is leaving yes but not with you!"

I could see the red and anger rolling off the one who I figured was an Alpha.

He was so focused on the man in front of him that he didn't notice the one sneaking up behind it until it was too late,

When the knife pierced through his chest sticking out the front I couldn't hold the scream that left me clamping my hands over my mouth.

Dropping to his knees clutching his chest the guy walked up to him looking him straight in the eyes he grabbed his head twisting letting the man fall to the ground.

He stepped back turning to look at me while others dragged the lifeless body away.

I wanted to shrink back away from this man when I first met him he didn't look scary but now he held a look of darkness to him.

Stopping right in front of me.

"I'm sorry you had to see that but he needed to be dealt with, now we are going to be traveling I have to wrap up a few things then we will be on our way,"

He says it like it was a natural thing like it's something we have done a million times. I believe him the fear I felt with him was different than the other one this person is a darker evil he seems to have no remorse.

I didn't want to go with this man I wanted to go home. Before I knew what I was saying.

"I want to go home!"

He looked at me when I see his eyes go darker.

"Your home is with me now not with that Alpha, ME! "

At his words, I felt rage building in me the same as when Rachel had come at me and Morgan I didn't want to be here anymore these people were crazy and I wanted to leave,

"No!" I yelled.

A surge of power rose in me I felt a small pressure in my head not painful almost like someone was linking me.

The guy who was holding me let go stepping back away from me but the guy in front just smirked.

"I was told your wolf was starting to come forward, but don't worry I got something for that."

Just then I felt a prick in my neck looking I see none other than Rachel.

She walked to stand next to him.

The power slowly dying the pressure completely gone my eyes felt heavy.

"Reins," I call for him I needed him.

"Autumn where are you?" His voice was heavenly sounding in my head.

"Reins, Reins please,"

That was the last before darkness took over.

Reins

I wasn't able to reach her again I kept calling to her but nothing my wolf was restless in my head he wanted his mate,

I know I need to get my trackers out there. I knew everyone I needed would be at the clinic I tried one more time to reach her but got nothing.

I went to the clinic and found Chase with Oscar and them waiting in the hall. Kelly sat there with Helen on one side and Sophia sat on the other she held both their hands as they waited for any news on their mates.

"Alpha," Chase says as I reached them.

I hand him the knife keeping it wrapped in the fabric.

"Is this ?" He asked but didn't finish his words.

"Yes, we need to find out where it came from,"

"I'll get on it,"

He turns walking down the hall.

I move to stand in front of Sophia.

She looks up at me tears running down her face standing up I pull her into a hug,

"He will be alright Soph," I whisper to her.

Keaton and she are my oldest friends.

Feeling her nod a little I let her go she sits down grabbing Kelly's hand again.

I turn to look at Helen she has her head down she didn't look at me I placed a hand on her shoulder causing her to jump a bit.

Her face tips up her eyes are bloodshot from crying she places a hand over mine I squeeze her shoulder to offer a small amount of comfort.

I walk to Oscar,

“I need to get the trackers, has anyone heard from the warriors that followed the rogues out?”

“No, I don’t know if they returned or not I’m sorry Alpha,”

“That’s alright,” I look at Oscar and the two other boys.

“Brad stay here with them. Oscar Nick you two come with me,”

“Yes Alpha,” they say.

I turned and walked out giving them one last look I wanted to wait for news as the Alpha I had pack members hurt and my closest friend in the room injured I wanted to stay but I need to find her I’m barely keeping control of my wolf all he wants is to rip through everything and find his mate.

Roberts

I felt such a relief killing that dam Alpha and snapping his neck was music to my ears. I wanted to do that a long time ago but I had to wait it out till we had her.

Sure she’s not my mate but there’s something so intriguing about her that day I talked with her at the mall she sucked me in.

She has this innocent about her she is soft and kinda not to mention beautiful as well.

At first, I wasn’t gonna but then the more I had to chase her and the more I watched her I decided she should be mine after all I was doing all the work, and that it Alpha had no more money to pay me.

When that kid introduced me to Rachel that was the key she knew the pack she was my ticket in there to claim my payment. Even though I don’t fully trust her she would rat anyone out for a chance at being Luna, And we can’t have her doing that now.

"I hope you didn't hit her with a heavy dose," I growl at that chick who's stood there smirking at the unconscious girl.

"No, I made sure it's a light dose normally that's what they give a young wolf she will be fine,"

I walk over kneeling and check her pulse,

It's strong her breathing is even so it just put her to sleep.

"See I told you she was fine," She throws her hands up rolling her eyes. This girl is working on my nerves with her attitude.

I reach out scooping up the sleeping girl and pulling her against me her head cradled on my chest.

I look at her for a moment and how sweet she looks with her eyes closed and her lips slightly parted.

I had trackers out along with my scouts covering the area and looking for anything that would give us any leads.

"Chase, do we know how many hurt?"

"Yes, Only five of ours there are ten rogues who are dead and one is captive and is locked in the dungeon."

"Has anyone interrogated him yet?"

"No he's still unconscious and I figured you would like the chance at doing so."

"Why don't we go wake him up then,"

Chase nods as we both stand walking out of my office.

My wolf has been clawing and pushing to come forward to find his mate it's taking all I got to keep him a bay right now. I want her back as much as he does but I can't go ballistic and rip through everything and everyone that will get us nowhere, I need to think and have a plan and that's not to go crazy.

Walking the dungeons is dark and damp not a comfortable place to be there's no sunlight just the dim lights lining the hall in front of the cells.

I see two guards standing in front of one cell when they see me coming unlocking the door and pulling it open.

Walking in there he is unconscious sprawled out in the middle of the cell he had shifted back to his human you could see we're Chase has his teeth sunk in his neck.

"Bucket," was all I said.

The guard handed me a bucket lifting it I dumped it straight on him.

He woke jumping to a sitting position he started looking around he finally spots us.

"Why am I here!"

Standing up he's scraggly looking thin with hair to his shoulders that'd mostly matted and his order was horrible.

"Who sent you?" I asked stepping closer to him and letting my Alpha aura roll off me.

He shrunk back a little but still tried to show he was not afraid,

Stepping forward again.

"Who sent you!" curling my lip up letting my canines elongate my voice deeper.

I know my eyes have changed colors.

"I'll give you two minutes to answer me or I'm gonna have Chase here start breaking some bones and when they heal I'll have him do it again,"

"Ha, I'm not scared of you! Do what you want,"

“Chase,”

Chase steps towards him as he steps back he then lunged at Chase don't know what he was thinking Chase caught him midway locking his arm behind his back with one arm around his neck and tipping his chin up.

“Well I was gonna start with an arm or leg but your neck works just fine,”

He's on his tip toes as Chase is much taller than him.

“Now you want to tell me who sent you or where they are hiding?”

Gasping for some air he struggled in the hold but there was no way he was getting away from Chase he's gamma for a reason,

“I don't know the name, but there five miles north there's a camp we were to all meet back there, “

He shudders out while clawing Chase's arm.

“Who leading it?”

Hesitating Chase puts pressure on his neck.

“I don't know I never met him! All I know is he needed people to raid your land, he said we get paid we were to be only a distraction,”

“Just a distraction, why what was the rest of the plan?”

“I don't know we did know all of it I only joined on the last day before they came here,”

Before I could ask anything.

“Alpha, Alpha,”

A scout came rushing into the cell.

“We found them!” He huffed out.

“Where!”

“Five miles north of here it was just a small camp our trackers followed their scent there the rest of the scouts are there just waiting for your orders,”

“Let’s go! Chase leave him!”

I turn rushing out of the cell everyone on my heels.

Leaving the dungeon I head straight for the tree line shifting I take off heading north.

Autumn

My head hurt it felt like someone was using it as a drum my body felt heavy like I couldn’t lift my arms. Peeling my eyelids open it’s dark moving my head to the side I notice the back of a seat,

Am I in a car, trying to wake up a little more but could sit up my body just wouldn’t work and the headache I had was making it hard to keep my eyes open.

Groaning a bit I tried moving to my side when I feel the car stop quickly.

His face appeared over the middle of the seat.

He gets a smile then gets out opens the back door reaches down he sits me up brushing the hair out my face.

“I see you awake, now we still have a good ways to go yet and I need you to behave so unless you want another dose your gonna sit back here and be quiet,”

Squinting my eyes to follow what he mouthed to me. He just smirked as he reached over pulling the seat belt over me and locking it then getting back into

The front as we started moving again.

What happened to Rachel where was she did she stay behind what would she tell Reins? I knew she didn’t like me but I don’t think she would betray Reins like this.

I wonder if Reins is looking for me, a ping of sadness washed over me at the thought of him I just wanted to be back with him and my family I didn’t even know if they were okay,

I need to come up with a plan to get out of here and away from this man, first one saying im his mate he gets killed now this one is kidnapping me and taking me good know where's

I knew I couldn't do anything I didn't even know where we are or going for that matter my head hurt along with my body.

Just be patient Autumn what for your chance.

I just repeat that in my head I will not be helpless I may be deaf but I'm done with being helpless I will get myself out of this and back to Reins.

Reaching the others as they waited on the outskirts of the small camp shifting back I stood there watching.

I could see some were being treated while others just stood around talking I scrunched my brows in confusion.

Chase comes to stand next to me.

“Why are they all just standing there? Shouldn't they be moving ?”

He was just as lost as I was you just attacked pack lands and helped in taking the pack Luna you have to know the packs coming for you.

“Let's spread out and circle the camp we will move in together make sure no one gets through,”

“Yes Alpha,” Chase turns walking back over and giving the order I stay in my spot.

This is why rogues don't last long they are not smart they think by leaving the territory we wouldn't come to find them.

Few minutes I hear everyone through the link they are all in place. Shifting back I give the command to move in.

When we were close enough where they did have a chance I let a call out.

“NOW!”

We hit from all sides I wasn't worried about letting any survive I was only looking for my mate.

Ripping through whatever and whoever crossed my path when I reached the center I found some that had huddled together. They didn't shift holding their hands up in surrender.

“Chase!” I yelled through the link.

While in seconds he was there.

“Keep an eye on them “

“Yes, Alpha,”

It didn't take long for my men to take out most in the camp. There was no one leading them no wonder they didn't leave the area.

“Alpha over here!”

Walking over I shift looking down there laying there was the body of Alpha Darrel his neck was snapped.

“Alpha who is that?”

“That's Alpha Darrel, Look around we need to find her,”

The men walked away starting to go through the tents.

Turning away from the body with him being dead that leaves only one and that is Roberts.

But why would he take Autumn the reason he is here is because that dumb Alpha hired him so why would he kill him?

Walking towards some tents I caught her scent how ever faint it was. Following it to the one tent stepping in her scent was stronger. That's when I noticed the body on the floor walking over and kneeling I moved it so I could see the face.

It was Rachel,

Standing up I started looking around there the small cot-looking thing was her dress.

Picking it up I notice the blood marks and how it's torn lifting it to my nose and taking a deep breath in I could smell her scent along with some others.

Walking out keeping the dress in my hand I start to walk through the camp when one scent I picked up was one I was looking for.

Heading straight to the group of rogues that Chase was keeping track of. Reaching them I didn't say anything just moving slowly around the group till I found what I was looking for.

Stopping at the rogue who was huddled on the ground I could smell the fear coming from him grabbing a handful of his hair I ripped his head up.

"Where is the girl who wore this dress?"

"I don't know please, I only brought her here to the two men,"

"One is dead where is the other?"

"I believe he left after he had us dump the body of the other one we haven't seen him he was to pay us,"

"Where?"

"I don't know?"

Letting go of him with some force he fell backwards. Scrambling back into the group.

"Alpha, "

Looking to Chase.

"We need to get back we are gonna have to try a different way, they are gonna and so is any scent of her the trackers won't be able to follow it especially if they are in a car, which I think they are or we would have come across them,”

“What about these,” He gestures to the group.

“Take them to the dungeons I’ll deal with them later,”

Walking away my thought ran through my head I knew they were planning something why was I so admin about having that ceremony I should have just don’t it in my office where it was safer. Now she was gone and the only trail I had is a dead end Roberts is an impossible person to find, Now my beta lays in the clinic with my mate’s father and brother, I knew Rachel was also up to something but to go out and partner up with these guys,

Rachel should have known she wouldn’t live with making a deal with them her part in this is still confusing I’ve never given her that type of attention. Yes, she is a member of my pack but that’s it there was no extra attention no nothing.

I wonder if Alpha Bretts boy knows something, Oscar had said once that he and Rachel paled around a few times and that boy didn’t seem to like being ordered to not interfere with Roberts and that dam Alpha,

Shifting I grab the dress in my mouth taking off back to the pack house I need to get ahold of that Beta of Darrel and reach out to Alpha Brett.

My wolf wasn’t happy I was sure how much longer I would hold him a bay the longer we are away from our mate the more rage he feels,

Letting out a whimper I know he’s feeling the emptiness of her not being here I just have to keep thinking she will be okay and I will find her I will not stop till she is back next to me and I’m never taking my eyes off her,

Autumn

I’m not sure when I fell asleep but I woke when I felt a j.erk as the vehicle came to a stop. Looking out the window I could see much it was dark out my door opened as he leaned in uncl!pping my belt.

“Come on,” I see say.

He grabbed my arm as I lifted my leg to step out he pulled me to stand. Feeling a rush of dizziness sweep over me I shut my eyes leaning back against the car trying to steady myself.

I felt hands on my face making me snap my eyes open. He was staring at me.

“I think she gave you too much you shouldn’t be like this,”

Squinting my eyes to read his lips my head was spinning and the headache I had felt like someone hit me with a ton of bricks.

I could feel my legs giving when he scooped me up bridle-style he kicked the door closed.

Turning he walked toward a small cabin there were no lights on it looked so dark he stopped at the door opened it he walked straight in I couldn’t see anything but them again I could barely keep my eyes open with all this pain in my head.

Leaning down he set me on what felt like a couch letting my head tilt back against the back of the cushion and closing my eyes.

I could hear him moving around but didn’t look I just wanted this pain to stop.

I felt his hand tapping my face opening my eyes he stood there.

Holding his hand out I see there were two white tablets in his palm.

Looking back up to him I didn’t want to take anything he gave me. Seeing my hesitation,

“Take them they will help with the pain and help the drug wear off,”

I slowly reached out to take the pills as I popped them in my mouth he handed me a bottle of water.

Downing the pills with the water I gave him the bottle back he took it setting it on the end table.

He sat on the table in front of me just looking at me I couldn't take it anymore.

"Why did you bring me here?"

He tilted his head a bit just staring at me.

"Well, I find you very interesting, and after all the crap that dam Alpha pulled I decided that you would be my payment,"

His payment my heart dropped what did he mean,

"Payment?"

"Yes, he didn't give me the full payment plus he caused a lot of headaches so I figured the hell with it, and now you're my payment,"

He acted so casually like it was no big deal but it was how could he act like im a piece of property or an object? I still didn't fully understand why that other guy wanted me and called me his mate, I'd never met him before and he was a lot older than me.

"Why, I'm a nobody!"

He shakes his head.

"No, my sweet little one, you are more special than you realized, I have great plans for us but first we need to get rid of that mark on your neck, can't have my woman running around with another men mark now can I,"

Reins

Chase had brought all rogues back and got them all locked in the dungeons.

Sitting in my office I was about to call Alpha Brett when my door opens and in walked Keaton and Zach. I raised an eyebrow at them Zach was limping and Keaton's arm was heavily bandaged.

"What are you two doing out of the clinic?"

"We're here to help, what do you think we stay down long while Autumn's missing,"

Keaton says as he sits down in front of my desk.

"You can barely walk both of you so what help are you gonna give? you two need to go back and rest,"

"I'm not going anywhere till we find my sister," Zach says as he sat down.

I groan as I run my hand through my hair I didn't have time for this.

"So what's the plan what have you found so far?" Keaton asked

"We found their camp, also we found Alpha Darrel along with Rachel dead, Roberts is missing he took Autumn with him,"

"Roberts? But why?" Keaton had a stumped look.

"And why kill Alpha Darrel?" Zach asked.

"I don't know but I need to get ahold of that Beta and I'm reaching out to Alpha Brett and see if his boy knows anything, I know he and Rachel were hanging out for a while,"

"I'll call Darrel Beta," Keaton stands walking over to the small desk he uses.

"What do you want me to do?" Zach sits up straighter.

"If I say go back and wait with your mother would you?"

I know Autumn would be upset at her brother for pushing himself when he's hurt.

"No, I can't I need to be here helping find her she's my only sister and I'm not losing another sibling,"

His voice broke at those last words and the hurt on his face showed how much he cared for her.

"Alright, Chase is in the dungeon go find him he's trying to get more information on where Roberts may have gone,"

"Yes, Alpha," He stands up turning and limping out of the office.

Picking the phone up I dial Alpha Brett's number. One ring, two rings, three rings, then I hear a click.

“Alpha Reins, what can I do for you?”

“Alpha Brett, I need to speak with you and your son Dan, “

“Oh, what about? Is there a problem,”

“It’s not something to discuss over the phone when would you be able to be here?”

There was a long pause I could hear murmuring on the other end.

“Alpha Reins im not sure about that, as my son has just found his mate and we are in the process of the Luna ceremony,”

“Oh, that’s perfect, Please have her come with I would love to meet her as this is very important and needs immediate action,”

Another pause and more mumbling.

“Alright, we will leave in a half hour, “

“Great,” Was all I said as I hung up.

I called Oscar and Nick to come to my office I needed some extra help to make sure I got what information I needed out of this kid.

Keaton had informed Darrel Beta that he was no longer alive, he was in denial at first but then seem to come to terms with it and said he needed to address the pack and hung up. Odd I thought but that wasn’t my problem now.

I heard a knock. “Come in,”

My door opened to Aunt Anna she walked holding the door.

“Alpha, You have guests Alpha Brett is here,”

“Let them in Aunt Anna, Thank you,”

She paused for a moment looking at me I could see she had been crying she and Autumn have become close in the time Autumn had been here.

I gave her a small smile with a nod letting her know I'm not giving up I'll find her,

She pushed the door open stepping to the side and letting the three walk-in,

"Alpha Reins,"

"Alpha Brett," I look to his boy who had his arm around a small girl.

"Alpha you remember my boy Dan and this is his mate, Lucy,"

I smiled to myself I could see the worry on that boy's face, good he should be.

Standing I offered her my hand.

"It's a pleasure to meet you, Lucy,"

She looks nervous as she took my hand.

I had already informed Oscar and Nick of my plan they were just waiting for my signal and they pounce on it. You could see it on Oscar's face.

"Alpha Reins, what is the issue that you needed us here?"

I had to sit down to keep myself from losing control my wolf is on edge this is another reason I needed Oscars and Nick's help I don't trust myself to not cause harm.

"Well, I had some questions for Dan, about Roberts,"

At the mention of his name, I see his body tense.

"Roberts? Why I thought that matter had been handled I forced them to have my territory,"

"It would have been handled but see I know your boy there helped them afterward, along with one of my pack members Rachel,"

His face paled at that name his arm tightening around his mate,

Alpha Brett looked at him.

“What did you do?” He growled out.

“Nothing Father, I don’t know what he’s talking about!”

Nodding my head to Oscar he and Nick slowly made their way around the room so they were standing behind them.

“Don’t you lie! We wouldn’t have been called here if you didn’t do something I gave you orders to not interfere! “

“I swear Dad I didn’t do anything,”

I knew he wouldn’t cough anything up so this is where my plan comes in.

Giving them two a nod they tackled both Alpha Brett and Dan from behind Keaton grabbed Lucy with his good arm pulling her around the desk to me.

I only needed them distracted long enough for Keaton to grab my leverage they didn’t even notice Keaton in the room idiots they need to learn their surroundings.

Oscar and Nick jump up backing up as The other two get to their feet Dan lets out a growl when he sees I have my hand around his mate’s throat.

Her whole body shook with fear as she began to cry.

“Let her go!” He grits through his teeth.

“Not till I get what I want, “

“Alpha Reins please Lucy is innocent in all this,”

Letting out a growl. “So is my mate! And now because of this little sh!t over here, she has been taking from me, Now if you wish to get your mate back I suggest you spill what you know or I’m keeping her here till I find my mate!”

Alpha Brett’s face dropped at my words.

“What do you mean she was taken? When?”

“Earlier today during our Luna Ceremony rogues attacked us and took her, Now Alpha Darrel and Rachel have both been killed and Roberts is nowhere to be found nor is my mate!”

He looked at his boy anger flowing off him.

“You better tell him what he wants to know! “

Dan held his hands up.

“Alright, Rachel came to me asking for help to get rid of Autumn, I told her I could do much but I could introduce her to Roberts and Alpha Darrel, So I did I took her there that’s all that happened afterward I know nothing of it,”

“YOU DID WHAT!” Alpha Brett yelled at his boy his body shaking with anger at his kid.

“You helped them take someone’s mate!”

“I was mad I didn’t think about it “

“Where did you meet? At that camp?”

He shook his head.

“No, they were staying at a small hotel room on the outskirts of town.”

“You are gonna show Keaton and Oscar where it is, Your mate here is gonna stay with me till you come back,”

“No please I’ll do anything just please let her go,”

I was about to say something when the little person in front spoke first.

“No, Dan,”

Hearing her words he froze looking right at her.

“Lucy?”

“I said No! I’m staying here I can’t believe you did this, all the things you said to me since we met about the mate bond and you have done this! I can’t look at you right let alone be near you,”

She tipped her face to look at me.

“Alpha Reins im willing to wait here, I give you my word I will not cause problems,”

I felt a strong aura come from her I let go of her as she steps back holding her head high.

“What’s your last name?”

“Moon Alpha,”

“Moon, are you Roger Moon’s daughter?”

“Yes, Alpha I am,”

” Well, Lucy Moon would you follow Nick here to a guest room,”

“Yes, Alpha, may I make a request ?”

“Yes, What is it,”

“Could someone call my father please and have him come get me I would like to return home after this is all done and your mate is safety home,”

“Lucy! Please you can’t!”

She turned to him.

“You don’t get to talk to me!”

She looked back at me.

“Yes, Lucy I’ll get in contact with your father,”

“Thank you, I hope you find your mate, and I’m so sorry for what he has done,”

Giving me a small nod turned and followed Nick out of my office.

Dan went to go after her but his father stopped him giving him a death glare.

“Let’s go,” I told them walking out of my office.

I didn't need to stay to hold Lucy here she was willing to stay on her own.

I mind linking Chase and asking him to get in contact with Alpha Roger while I was gone.
