0 5 minutes read

Autumn

Feeling warm rays dance across my face I could hear the sounds of birds singing along with the smell of wildflowers.

Opening my eyes all I could see was the blue sky with white clouds. Sitting up I looked around noticing I was in a meadow full of flowers and green grass that danced when the wind blew.

Hearing the birds again I looked around. Then I heard the light whispers of the wind as it moved across the meadow.

Wait I can hear? How am I able to hear the birds and the wind and the rustling of the tall grass,

Standing up and looking all around I was confused there wasn't a single person.

"Hello!" Startling myself with my own voice. It was different I could hear it outside my head I could actually hear my voice!

I felt the tears build up and then slip down my cheeks. Shutting my eyes I let myself take in all the sounds that were all around me. Warmth spread throughout my body the happiness I felt at this moment was something I didn't want to ever want to leave me.

Suddenly a loud howl snapped me out of my trance turning my head to the direction it came from but I didn't see anything there. When I heard it again this time it sounded clearer than before.

The sadness in the howl and the loneliness made my heart hurt. Before I knew it I was walking towards the sound of it.

When I reached the top of the little noll I saw it sitting there head hung lowly looking down. It must have sensed my presence looking up at me my breath hitch.

It was beautiful sliver eyes stared straight into mine. Its long sliver fur swayed in the wind. I should be afraid but I wasn't it's like I was drawn to it something pulling at me.

Slowly walking towards the wolf that sat there looking at me not making a move to run away from me. As I got closer I could see the heartbreak and the sadness in the wolf's eyes. Standing in front of it neither one moved or made a sound till the wolf leaned its head down placing its nose against my hair taking a deep breath.

I couldn't help but reach up placing both my hand on the side of its face and letting its fur run through my fingers.

Hearing a thumping I looked seeing its tail bouncing against the ground when I glanced up the sadness it once had in its eyes was gone all I could see was a relief and a happy look the eyes seem to shine.

Running my hand over its head it lowered its body to lie down.

"You are beautiful, Why are you all alone out here, are you lost?"

"I've become separated from my owner and I have been waiting for her to return for me,"

My body froze at the voice I heard I slowly looked around but saw no one, My heart started beating fast as fear slowly crept up inside of me.

"Please don't be afraid, no one will hurt you,"

I frantically looked for someone but it was only me and the wolf.

"Who is there!" I called out as I turned in a circle breathing harder.

"Autumn please calm down, come sit back by me I've missed you so,"

I Stopped spinning I realized then who that voice was coming from. Turning slowly I see the wolf staring straight at me with an amused look on its face.

"Did you... Are you talking to me?" I ask while holding a finger towards myself.

"Yes, I am,"

My eyes widened at those words,

“How? I mean how are you... wolves don't speak! Do they?”

I was feeling lost and confused this wolf is speaking to me and it knows my name.

“Not all wolves can speak with their other half, no, but seeing as we are a special pair you and I this gives me the ability to speak to you, I've waited a long time to talk with you, “

Rubbing my forehead trying to understand all this it said the other half.

“What do you mean other half?”

“Oh, my dear girl, you are my other half I am your wolf, “

My wolf, my wolf, I kept repeating those words in my head, She said she's my wolf. Like Reins said he has a wolf he shifts to a wolf I read in the book about the presence of your wolf that you get when you become of age.

“Autumn I can see you deep in thought please talk to me, I've waited so long to speak with you, you can ask me anything I will give you answers,”

“I don't understand, if you are my wolf then why am I here? How come I've never heard you before, is this a dream?”

Watching as it hung its head.

“I wasn't able to speak to you before as I was forced to become dormant after the accident. You were greatly injured I had to save you I overused my powers as I was too young to use such strength, I wasn't able to heal you completely and that is why you lost your hearing,”

I didn't move didn't say anything I just looked at the broken wolf before me.

I could feel the regret and the loss she was feeling along with how she felt she let me down. Tears ran heavily down my cheeks at her words and the overwhelming emotions I felt. She risked herself to save me but yet she felt she didn't do enough because my hearing was lost.

Throwing myself towards her I wrapped my arms around her burying my face in her fur. I felt her stiffen but pull me closer with her head against my back.

“Please do not feel bad about my hearing not returning, You risked yourself for me to make sure I lived it cost you to be away from me, I can’t thank you enough for that sacrifice,” I sobbed out while clutching the wolf before me.

“I would do it again if it meant you got to live my sweet Autumn, but now I found you I will not be leaving you again!”

Pulling back I blinked through my blurry vision.

“You will stay with me?”

“Yes, I will,”

“How? Isn’t this a dream? What happens when I wake up,”

Before she answered it all it hit me. The attack on my family Reins, being kidnapped that Alpha and Rachel then the other guy!

“Don’t you worry about that, I’m here now and when you wake I will still be here we will return to our mate!”

I stood there staring at the pictures spread out on the table, along with little pieces of paper that had writing on them.

“Alpha, look,” Keaton holds a paper out to me.

Taking the paper from him I saw it had the shift changes written on it.

“How did they get the times? Only the guards knew their shift change and who was switching with them?”

“Rachel, she must have gotten it from someone, we will deal with that after we find autumn, “

“I’ll have all this moved to the pack house,” Keaton walks over grabs a bin starts putting everything off the table in it.

Walking to the other side of the room pulling open the draw to the small stand there was a black book in there grabbing it there were no words on the cover letting the pages flip quickly I saw it log of some sort,

I was just about to toss it back when a paper fell out landing on the top of the stand. Picking up the paper my breath hitched.

“Keaton!”

He dropped what he was doing and was at my side.

“What is it Alpha,”

I handed him the paper he read it his eyes widening as he looked back at me.

“We need to get back to the pack house immediately, “

He nods his head handing me the paper back to me he goes over and in one arm swipe he pushes everything into the bin.

“Ready,”

We walk out to the vehicles.

My guards stood keeping Dan and his father there by the vehicles I didn't want them in the room in case we found something I didn't trust either of them.

Reaching the cars I walked to the one in front.

“Keaton let the guards take that Aloha Brett and his boy back you ride with me,”

“Yes, Alpha,”

“Wait, What about Lucy?”

Stopping I looked at the foolish boy.

“What about her? “

“I want to go back with her she needs to come back to the pack with me,”

Walking towards him I stopped right in front of him.

“You think she will go with you after what you did? I gave her my word she will be staying at my pack till her father comes for her, He has already been notified of the situation and is on his way to retrieve his daughter,”

“She my mate,” he growled out.

Stepping closer to him letting my wolf come forward.

“You helped them take MY MATE,”

I watched him, coward, back dropping his head even his father stepped back lowering his gaze.

“I’m sorry, please don’t take her from me please,”

“It’s her decision on if she stays with you or not but she will get my pack’s support on whatever she decides,”

His shoulders dropped as he sighed knowing he has screwed up big time and now the risk of losing his mate was right in front of him.

“Yes Alpha, I understand,”

“Now my guards will drive you back I suggest when we reach my pack lands you get in your vehicle and leave my territory, “

“Yes, Alpha,”

They both climb in as my guards did pulling off.

Walking back to my vehicle.

“Keaton let’s go!”

Autumn

I wasn’t sure how long we stayed there but it was so peaceful I learned my wolf’s name was Gem.

She was a Gem she was so strong and confident she made me feel whole and the fact I could hear everything around me was so overwhelming I didn't want to wake up.

"Autumn it's time," I heard Gem say.

"I don't want to leave Gem, "

She put her head against mine. I wrap my arms around her neck burying my face in her soft fur.

"We need to go, our mate needs us and we need him,"

"Do you think I will be strong enough, "

"Yes I'm with you now we will break away and find our mate,"

"Gem I'm afraid, He said he was gonna hurt Reins what if he kills him?"

"My dear our mate is strong then you realize, That evil man with not be able to hurt him. Trust our mate."

Nodding my head I had to agree with her, just this little time I had been with him I knew he held strength.

"Alright, Gem how do we get out of here,"

"You have to wake up,"

"But how I don't feel like I'm sleeping,"

"Close your eyes, think of yourself awake walking around getting out of bed, anything you do when you're awake,"

Closing my eyes I pictured myself I thought of the mornings I woke with Reins our morning after marked each other. A smile comes across my face at the thought of him being my safe place my rock my protector,

"That's right feel his love for you, Autumn,"

Gem's voice was all around me. I could see a dim light appear I wanted to open my eyes I wasn't sure if it was my imagination or if I opened my eyes without realizing it.

“Keep your eyes closed, allow the light to pull you in don’t worry I’m right here with you.”

I felt myself being pulled toward that dim light. Just as I was about there I felt fear build up.

“Gem!” My voice shaking.

“I’m still here Autumn relax I won’t leave you trust me.”

The light moved closer I sucked in a breath when it surrounded me warmth spread throughout my body.

“Open your eyes!” I heard Gem’s voice.

Snapping them open and blinking a few times I was staring at a white ceiling.

“Gem,” I call “Gem where are you?”

Hearing the door open made me sit up and look at the person.

He walks in holding a tray with a plate of food and drinks on it.

He stopped when he notices me sitting up.

“I see you are finally awake, good the medication worked, here your gonna be hungry by now,”

I watched his lips move but I didn’t have to read them as I was able to hear him. How I thought... “We are one now my dear Autumn so that means we are whole now,”

Startled by the voice popping into my head.

“Gem is that you!” I spoke in my head so he wouldn’t hear me.

“Yes, Didn’t I tell you I would be with you when you woke,”

I felt a small amount of relief knowing she was with me.

He stood there watching me I wasn’t sure if he was picking up on anything.

He walks closer setting the tray on the stand next to the bed.

Gem let out a growl as he got closer.

Sliding away from him as he reached out to touch my forehead.

“I’m not going to hurt you, I wanted to check if you have a fever,”

“He touches us and I’ll bite his hand off,”

I had to stifle my laugh at her words.

“You look better your color coming back, can’t believe she gave you so much,”

“What happens now?” I asked him.

He sits on the edge of the bed.

“Well first thing you need to eat, second I need to go finish with my plan,”

“And what is your plan?”

He just smirked at me.

“You have a lot of questions,”

He suddenly got this look in his eyes before I knew it he pounced on me pinning me to the bed. Holding both my wrist in one hand holding them above my head while he held my chin in his other.

Tipping my head to the side he pressed his nose to my neck. He then started placing kisses on it when he reached my mark he ran his tongue over it.

Leaning up towards my ear.

“The plan my little sweet flower, is to get that mark off your neck and replace it with mine,”

My stomach dropped I felt bile rise in my mouth.

“You can’t!” I screamed at him.

Gem is growling in my head she is not happy with him touching us but it seems neither of us has enough strength yet.

“Oh I can and I will, I just need to first take care of that mate of yours then you are all mine,”

Before I could say anything to him again he bit down on my mark causing pain to rip through me I screamed out loud and Gem whimpered in my head.

Standing around my desk we were finalizing the plans Keaton and Zack had gone through all the pictures and papers that we took from the room.

We had an address and we looked it up it was about a three-hour drive North of here it wasn't close to Darrel Pack lands.

He must not have trusted Roberts enough for he kept a separate notebook and he just so happen to jot down this address.

I wasn't sure if she would be there but it was a starting point.

“Alpha,”

Looking up Keaton was walking back over from his desk.

“I talked to that Beta Dan, He had a different story to tell after I said about the address, Apparently that's a cabin Darrel was gonna go to after he had Autumn,”

“Really! Did he have any more to say about the scouts hanging around my territory?”

“Yes, he did he said his Alpha gave the order to send them but he didn't know what they were to be doing,”

“I doubt that I'm sure he knew some parts of it.”

“I do as well, but he's not saying anymore,”

“Alright let's get the warriors together I want to be heading out in ten minutes, if it's a three-hour drive I want to be on the road soon as possible.”

Zach walks over to me.

“I’m going with you,”

“No, you’re not fully healed,”

“I wasn’t asking Alpha, I mean no disrespect but I can’t sit here and do nothing, please I need to go and help her my sister back,”

I know Autumn would not want her brother hurt but I can tell by the look he had there was no way he was staying behind.

“Fine, but you’re not fighting, you will be a lookout you understand!”

“Yes, Thank you,”

“I mean it, Zach, your sister will not like you getting hurt again,”

“I understand I promise I won’t do anything you don’t tell me.”

“Good, I want to ask how’s your father?”

His head dropped a little.

“Doctors said he’s stable but they are not sure when he will wake up, His wound is beginning to heal but the amount of silver in his system is making him heal slower, but they feel he will pull through,”

” Your mom holding up alright,”

“Yeah she’s maybe human but she’s strong and she and my dad’s bond is one of the strongest I’ve seen, they have been through a lot but they always stay by each other,”

Placing my hand on his shoulder I gave it a slight squeeze.

“It will be alright, your dad is strong he will pull through and we will get Autumn back I can promise you that, now let’s get going,”.

He nods his head as we all walk out.

Everyone was waiting out front we were taking about 50 warriors with us I wasn't sure if Roberts was alone or if he had extra with him. He had gathered all those rogues to help him in attacking we were going in blind till we reached there and got a look at what is there.

Looking at all of them felt proud to have them as my pack members.

"Alpha," I look to the left to see Oscar Kelly Brad, and Nick walking up.

I was about to say something when I hear someone calling me.

"Alpha, Over here," Looking out through the group of people I see Morgan pushing her way through.

"Morgan, What is it,"

"It's Rachel, "

"Rachel, what about her she dead?"

"No Shes not, Alpha she had help from a witch they put a cloning spell on someone and that person is the one who is dead,"

I didn't say anything at first I was trying to process what she just said.

"How do you know this?"

"Because the patrol just catch the witch sneaking through the border she was looking for Rachel,"

"How did you come to know this?"

"My mate, he is one of the patrols that found her, he couldn't reach you through the link so he asked me to come to find you,"

" Your mate?"

"Yes, we just met right before the ceremony, "

"Where is she now?"

They bring her I ran ahead of them to find you."Morgans get that far-away look in her eyes.

“They are coming,”

She turns looking out over everyone they all turn their heads watching as two of my patrol guards brought small women forward.

“Let me go you baboons!”

Stopping in front of me she tried to pull her arms from their grip but they were stronger than her.

Letting her go with a little shove she stumbles forward.

“What Assholes!” She yells at the two men.

“Who are you and what are you doing on my land!”

She froze when she hears my voice she slowly turns looking at me.

“My name is Ariel, And what I’m doing is my business, “

“I don’t think you realize your situation right now, you crossed into my territory uninvited, I can have your head if I choose so I will ask again, what are you doing here,”

She scuffs at my words with a roll of her eyes, causing my wolf to become angry with the disrespect she showing.

Letting out a low deep growl I stalk toward her she doesn’t see me moving as she is too busy picking at her nails as if she was bored.

When she realized I was right in front of her she let off a gasp as I wrapped my hand around her throat lifting her in the air her feet came off the ground as she kicked them frantically and clawed at my hand.

“I’m in no mood for your ignorance, I will snap your neck here and now without a second thought, so if you would like to live I suggest you start talking!”

“Ok Ok!” She rasped out with what little air she had left.

Letting go she fell to the ground coughing and gasping for air she held her neck and I could already see the red marks from my grip.

“Speak!” I bellowed out at her my patient is about out.

“Alright, I was looking for Rachel, we were supposed to meet an hour ago but she never showed, so I figured I would just come to find her,”

“What were you doing with her,”

“She hired me to do a spell but she only paid me half I was coming to collect the rest,”

“What spell, and why?”

“I made another look like her, she said she needed to make people think she was dead cause she didn’t trust those men she kinda figured they were gonna kill her,”

“When was the last you seen her?”

“A few days ago when we did the spell,”

“Who did you use for that because the body we found looked like Rachel,”

“Some rogue, she told her she would pay her as well and the body will change back after a while of her being dead,”

I could feel the rage building my wolf clawing to be let out just when we thought we would get ahead something else gets dropped in my lap.

Autumn

I lay on my side curled up into a small ball my whole body hurt my neck was the worst I could still the wetness from the blood on my skin. My shirt was soaked as well I felt as if I had needles stuck all through my neck.

Gem hasn’t said a word since it all happened she was whimpering just as loud as I was screaming,

I hear the door but I don’t move I just pulled my legs up closer to my body.

Shutting my eyes tight I didn’t want to look at him.

I felt a hand touch my shoulder I jumped letting out a cry from the pain in my neck.

Looking up I see that horrible man looking at me, His gaze was soft he didn't have that hard angry look he did before.

I see he has a first-aid box in his other hand.

"Sit up," Not wanting to suffer anything else from him I slowly sat up sliding back against the headboard he sat on the edge of the bed grabbed my chin tilt my head to the side. I winced at the movement feeling pain rip down my neck into my shoulder.

He opens the box and takes things out he began to clean my neck wiping the area it burnt so badly that I closed my eyes biting my lip to keep from crying out loud.

All I could think of was Reins did he feel when he bit my mark was it pain full to him? Would he be mad at me for not stopping it, My chest ached with the thought of him. I missed him so much I wish he would just bust through the door and scoop me up as he did at the mall that day and take me away,

When I felt him pull his hand away I peeked my eyes open to find he was just staring at me.

"You need to get a shower and clean clothes on, "

I just nodded not wanting to speak to him.

"Come ill show you the bathroom, I already put clothes in there for you,"

He stands holding his hand out for me I wasn't sure what I should do I don't want to touch him but I don't want to anger him again.

"I won't do anything your gonna feel weak with how much you bled I just want to help you."

I reach my hand out I couldn't help but shake as I placed my hand in his he pulled slowly helping me to stand.

My body hurt all over my legs felt so weak my head started to spin.

Grabbing my arms he steadies me as I clutched my head with one hand.

I could feel my legs giving my I couldn't do anything to stop it.

Suddenly im being lifted up in the air.

Snapping my eyes to him.

"Your too weak I'll carry you,"

He walks out the small room down a narrow hallway pushing another door open with his foot I notice it was a bathroom he sets me on the toilet.

Turning he starts the shower walking back to me grabbing the tops of my arms pulling me to stand up.

He grabbed the hem of my shirt and that's when I snapped out of it.

"What are you do!"

I wrap my arms around my body stopping him from pulling my shirt off.

"Taking this bl00dy short off so you can get cleaned up,"

"I can do it, I don't need you too,"

"Your weak and you could fall, I don't need you injured anymore,"

"Well who's fault is that, that im so weak right now,"

I wasn't sure were my courage was co.ing from but the thought of him taking my clothes off wasn't setting right with me.

Grabbing my chin with his finger and thumb he pulled my face close to his.

"Do not push me Autumn, I'm being nice I will not tolerate back talk I do what I want when I want to who ever I want,"

My stomach dropped at his words fear filled me he's voice was dark sounding and I believe every word he said.

"Now lift your dam arms!"

Swallowing hard I took a deep breath slowly unwrapping my arms from myself I lifted them above head.

He lifted the helm of my short pulled it up and over my head. I let my arm down covering my chest as I wasn't wearing anything under that shirt.

Hooking his thumbs in my waist band he slowly pushed them down letting his fingers trail along on my legs.

He squatted down placing small soft kisses to my hip area I jumped a little.

I instantly crossed my legs hoping it would cover me.

Standing he ran his hand all the way up my bare legs over my hips as he slide them around to my lower back pulling me flush against him.

Dipping his head to my neck I could feel his nose and lips moving along my skin.

My stomach turned at his touch I wanted to shove him away.

Pulling me harder against him I let out a gasp as I felt something hard poke my stomach. Looking up at him I could see his eyes were a shade darker as he looked at me with lust filled eyes.

"Your as beautiful as I imagine and you smell so good,"

He grind his front against me causing me to whimper.

"Please," I said softly.

"Soon, my little flower you will be all mine, and you will be begging me to take you,"

He crashed his lips against mine in a rough kiss I froze I didn't kiss him back I couldn't he had humiliated me enough.

“Alpha! We have more visitors!”

Someone calls out I couldn't help the growl that left me I was becoming extremely impatient I wanted to be heading out and now I have this witch standing here not sure what to do with her just yet. On top of that, there's someone else showing up.

Just then a black SUV pulls up stopping behind my already waiting vehicles.

The door opens and I see Alpha Roger step out.

“Keaton have someone bring Lucy down here, her fathers here.”

“Yes, Alpha,”

I point to the women standing there.

“Morgan make sure she stays right there,”

With a nod, she looks at the guards as they grab the witch's arms.

I walked towards him extending my hand to him.

“Alpha Roger, “

“Alpha Reins, I understand my daughter is here,”

“Yes, she is at her request she wished to wait for you here as she didn't want to leave with her mate at that time,”

“Why, Is there some sort of problem with Dan and why was she here with him to begin with,”

“It's a complex situation, Dan was part of the kidnapping of my mate, he helped the people who did it, I had asked for him and his father to come here he brought her with him when she heard what he did she requested to stay,”

“Daddy!” Lucy cried when she came out the door running straight into his arms.

“Is this true what Alpha Reins said Dan did?”

“Yes, it is,” She wiped her face with her hands.

"I asked to stay here and for them to contact you, I didn't want to go back with him I couldn't believe what he did,"

He pulled her into another hug kissing her head tenderly,

"We will figure this out, sweetie don't be upset,"

She just nodded her head he tucked her against his side and then looked at me.

"Thank you for keeping my daughter safe and calling me, I do hope you find your mate and I will be dealing with this ignorant boy myself,"

He holds out his hand to me.

"My Pleasure Alpha Roger, Lucy you take care,"

I shake his hand he turns walks his daughter to their car and climbs in they pull off.

One down now one more to go.

Turning I look to the other issue at hand.

Walking back over I stand in front of her again.

"Now what to do with you,"

"Starters you can have your mutts let me go,"

"Who are you calling mutts?" Morgan growled stepping towards her.

"Morgan," She froze looking at me

"Stand down,"

"Yes Alpha," She drops her head taking a step backwards.

"Ariel I will make a deal with you, I will help you find Rachel I will allow you to stay here at the pack house but I need to be somewhere and when I return we will handle this business with Rachel,"

She doesn't say anything at first standing there she seemed to be thinking.

"Why would you help me, isn't she one of your pack members?"

"Yes she is but she has broken the rules and this isn't her first time, she has put her Luna in danger and assisted them in taking her, she will be punished,"

"What is her punishment gonna be?"

"Death," I didn't even need to take a second for thinking she had my mate taken away she hurt other people on her way she went against her pack against me her Alpha,

"Well, how about this, I will help you get your mate back in exchange for that you help me with Rachel,"

"What are you going to help with?" Keaton asks her.

She gives him a forced smile as if she was annoyed with his question.

"For your information, I'm very good at tracking spells, I also can do a protection spell on whoever is going in after her how's that for help,"

Keaton puts his hands up toward her in surrender stepping back.

"Alright deal,"

I hold my hand out to her she looks at it and then pulls her arm free shaking my hand. As she went to you'll it away I tighten my hold pulling her closer as I leaned down letting my wolf cone forward.

"If you think of double-crossing me I will personally rip your head off and feed your remains to wild wolves,"

Her faces pales at my words she gulps.

"I understand, I promise I won't do anything like that,"

"Better not," I let her hand go he cradles it to her c.hest rubbing it with her other one.

"Let's go!" I call out everyone starts to disappear climbing into vehicles I grabbed that's women arm.

“You ride with me,”

She doesn't fight or argue she let me pull her along opening the door she climbs in the back without a word.

Zach walks up looking the window he looks back at me.

“Zach?”

“She my mate,”

Pointing to the door. “Ariel?”

“Yes,” He hung his head I could see the look of shame on his face.

Placing my hands on his shoulders.

“Zach don't we don't know how much she is involved from what she said she only did the spell, she came here looking for Rachel which she's not here but she didn't know that, why don't you ride with us see if you can get her to open up, you are mates she will be more willing to talk to you,”

“Yes, Alpha,” He turned walking to the other side.

Pulling the door open I slid into the front Keaton already in the driver seat.

“Ready Alpha?”

“Let's go,”

He starts the car up and takes off out the drive heading to our destination hopefully we reach there in time and I pray to the moon goddess she is unharmed.

Third person

There's a knocking at the door opening it I see him standing there.

“What are you doing here? Did anyone follow you?”

“We clear,”

He steps forward pulling me against him and crashing his lips to mine.

Breaking away his eyes darker and he lets a small growl out. He goes to lean in again when I put my hands on his chest pushing him back.

“Not so fast, Do you have anything to tell me?”

His shoulder slump as he lets go stand up straight.

“Yeah, He found the paper and is heading there now, but there is a small problem,”

“What problem? There shouldn’t be one.”

“Well Ariel showed up looking for you and now she with Reins heading for Roberts,”

“Dam it!”

I walk back into the room as he steps in closing the door.

“Told you we should have killed her,”

He slides his hands around to my front pulling me back against him. He leans down kissing my neck leaving little nips as he moves up and down.

“It’s okay we can fix this I just need to think,”

“Hmmm, How about we think later,”

Spinning me he locks me in a heated kiss as he starts walking me backward when my legs hit something solid he pushes me back I fall landing on the bed.

I needed to come up with a plan but right now my mouth watered for the man standing there pulling his shirt over his head.

Autumn

I was back in the room after my horrible shower. I sat on the little bench by the small window I feel so dirty and humiliated, Pulling my knees closer I wrapped my arms around my legs trying to make myself as small as possible. The tears slowly fell as I thought of what just happened in that bathroom.

He never left after he broke the kiss he stripped himself down as well then pulled me with him as he stepped in the shower.

I stood frozen I don't move he washed every inch of my body Gem would growl and whimper not liking his touch I kept asking her to help she tried but she wasn't strong enough yet. I guess she didn't realize it was gonna drain her when we come together and woke up.

She kept telling me to think of our mate but then I felt I was betraying him.

Each time he would kiss my neck where my mark was that wasn't healed from his bite I shudder.

I felt like my skin was burning where he would touch and trail his fingers.

Gem retreated to the back halfway through the shower his touch was hurting her too much she was trying to push forward but it caused her too much pain she just wasn't strong enough yet.

I wanted to die right there how was I to face Reins after what happened? Would he even want me now that someone else touched me even though I didn't want it?

I could smell his scent on the clothes as they were his. That smell made me sick to my stomach I wanted my mate's scent the scent that calmed me and was only for me.

"Mate will come for us," Gem's voice popped into my head.

"Oh god, Gem, I thought I lost you!"

"No, my dear I'm here I'm sorry I couldn't stay with you it hurt too much,"

"I'm so sorry Gem, If I could only fight my way out of here,"

"It's not your fault but we will get out my strength is returning we just need to hang on a little longer."

"Gem what if he tries to do more, What am I to do?"

"I don't think he will, if he wanted he could have already him biting your mark sp0t I think was a way to show you he's not afraid of our mate,"

"Do you think Reins felt him bite me?"

"No, he's too far away, but if that j.erk would have gone farther our mate would have felt pain,"

"Pain? What Pain?"

"Pain of unfaithfulness,"

"But Gem I wasn't,"

"No not willing but still it causes pain in the other person,"

"Gem, what am I gonna do,"

"Just hang in there our mates coming I feel it and soon I'll be at full strength by the time he reaches us,"

"Why does he want me? I'm just me,"

"We have some special powers that some want but what they don't know is only our true mate can unlock them,"

"Gem I don't want to be special I want to be normal,"

"Let's focus on getting out of here first then we will handle the other things later,"

The door opens and he walks in carrying another tray of food.

Setting it down he stands looking at me.

"You need to eat you didn't eat breakfast,"

Looking at the tray of food my stomach churning I felt as if I ate I would just throw it up.

"Not hungry,"

His face took on this stern look. Walking over he leans down close to my face.

“You’re going to eat or I’m going to make you and believe me you will not enjoy it,”

He runs his finger down my cheek and a shiver ran down my spine.

“My stomachs upset, I’m worried if I eat I’ll get sick,” I whispered lowly casting my eyes downward.

“Wait here I’ll get you something for that,”

Standing straight he walked out the room I could hear him shuffling down the hall. Few minutes he walked back in holding a bottle twisting the cap off.

He grabbed my hand holding it flat tipping the bottle up the little white pills falling out into my palm.

Looking at them then lifting my head to look at him.

“They will settle your stomach so you can eat, but you need food,”

“Don’t swallow them just act like you did,” Gem growls out.

Nodding my head I put the pills in my mouth. He turns just a bit to grab the water the bottle of water from the tray,

I spit the pills in my hand. He hands me the bottle intake it gulping some down.

“I’m leaving for a bit I’ll be back in a hour make sure you eat it all,”

“Your leaving me alone!” I didn’t mean for it to sound as if I wanted him to stay with me but if he was leaving this would give me a chance to escape.

His grin on his face showed he thought I meant that a different way.

Grabbing my chin with his fingers leaning down close to me.

“I didn’t know you were becoming so attached so quickly, I do like that idea, but don’t worry no one will hurt you while you are here, I’ll be back before you know it my sweet flower,”

He leans forward placing a kiss to my lips then turning walking out shutting the door then a click.

Standing I went straight to the door pulling the handle but it didn't move he locked it from the other side.

Walking back I looked out the window it was small but I could see out I couldn't see the car but I heard it start then the noise got less and less.

There was nothing but woods no paths no clearing nothing but tall trees and thick bushes.

It looked at it was the back side as I didn't see the car leaving but could hear it there was no driveway.

I wonder if I could get the window open and slide out sure I was up on the second floor but it didn't look too high up.

"We can jump down,"

"Do you think we can Gem?"

"Yes, We can handle that,"

"But where will we go Gem I don't know where we are,"

"It's okay we will find our way, but we need to get out of here I don't like him touching us!"

"Alright I trust you and I agree with you I don't like it either,"

Throwing the pills I had put out on the tray I placed my hands on the top part on the bottom window pushing it began to move it slid just a bit but then seemed to get stuck.

"Come on Autumn push again I'll help you,"

Putting my hand up again I pushed again but this time I felt a surge of power rush through me and the window flung open with a loud creaking noise.

Leaning out the roof was slanted a bit placing one foot out I ducked out the window.

Sitting on my b.utt I slowly slide down to the edge of the roof peeking over the side.

“Oh god Gem that’s farther down then I thought,”

“It’s okay jump I promise we will be just fine, trust me,”

Shutting my eyes taking a deep breath I did as my wolf said I jumped.

Reins

Fear ran through my body I knew it was her the closer we got I could feel more of her through the bond.

I knew she was here feeling as if I could jump out and shift running there would be faster than sitting in this vehicle waiting.

Zach had managed to get Ariel to open up more about Rachel and how she got tangled up in her plans.

Ariel refused to help Rachel at first but Rachel found leverage against her she said Rachel had threatened to harm her little sister she even held her until the spells were finished but she hasn’t let her go so that’s why she was on our back lands not looking for money she was looking for her sister.

Zach asked why she wasn’t in a coven she told us her mom had left when her sister was born but didn’t go into detail. Zach didn’t push you could see it was hard for her to talk about.

Zach promised to help find her sister

Ariel also knew she was mates with Zach the moment she saw him saying even witches have mates.

She wasn’t against getting to know him which made him relax they both had one thing in common both of them cared deeply for their sisters and both had their sisters taken from them.

Feeling a ping in my chest I wanted my mate back with me next to me. I blamed myself for her being taken.

“Alpha we are almost there it’s just up the road, “

Snapping out of my thoughts.

“Alright stop here let’s go on foot,”

Keaton pulled off the road.

“Make sure to go off far enough so no one sees the cars.”

Nodding his head he pulled down pulling between two trees.

Everyone followed suit parking far enough down the cars wouldn’t be seen from the road.

“Alright, we are going the rest of the way on foot, we go quietly only mind linking no taking,”

“What do you need me to do?” Ariel asked as she stood next to Zach.

“Can you do a tracking spell?”

“Yes, “

Walking to Zach she grabbed his hand.

She quickly poked his palm letting two drops fall into the palm of her hand.

“What you do?”

“I need something of hers to track her but Zach is her brother I can use his blood ties to her to find her,”

She turned placing her hands together she shut her eyes as she began to mumble some words. I watched as a small light appeared in her hands the more she chanted the brighter it got.

Stopping the words she opened her eyes they were cloudy almost like when we mind link.

The small light in her hand started to lift leaving her palm as it danced in the air

Swiftly it began moving as Ariel started to follow the small light.

“Everyone spread out,”

We followed her as she walked through the woods.

“Have you ever seen this?” Keaton’s voice rang in my head.

“No, but I don’t have any other options right now, I just need to find her,”

“What about all that she said on the way here, Do you believe her?”

“Yes, I do, She carries pain in her eyes I don’t sense any deceit in her voice,”

He just nods.

“Don’t worry if she crosses us I think Zach would take her head off, even though she is his mate his love for his sister is stronger,”

“I would agree,”

We cut the link as we followed Ariel as she lead us deeper into the woods.

Autumn

Hitting the ground I rolled forward popping up on my feet. Shocking myself that I didn’t break a leg or bust my head open.

“I’m told ya we could do it,” Gem pipes up.

“Yeah, now what Gem which way,”

“Head straight into the woods right in front of us, “

I was about to take off running when I hear the car.

“Gem I think he back, but that wasn’t an hour,”

I backed up pressing my body against the side of the house the car was on my left I could hear him opening the doors.

Hearing him walk up to the front the door opened creaking then shutting.

My heart was beating so fast I wasn't sure what to do.

"WHAT THE HELL!"

That was all we heard.

"Go go!" Gem yelled.

Taking off I glanced over my shoulder to see a very angry man standing hanging his head out the window.

Fear ripped through me as I saw him jump out the window landing on his feet and then running after me.

"Oh god Gem he's gonna catch us!"

"Don't look at him focus on what's in front of you, "

Running I'm ducking and pushing through bushes I could hear him getting closer to me.

Branches scrapped my arms my hair got stuck on one but I kept running,

Stopping I hide behind a tree needing to catch my breath.

I didn't hear anything.

"Gem I don't hear him,"

"We need to keep moving, "

"I don't know where to go,"

"Autumn is that you!" Reins' voice filled my head.

"Rein!" I covered my mouth holding the sob that was going to leave me.

"Autumn, where are you,"

"I don't know, Roberts is chasing me I ran in the woods,"

"Stay there don't move I'll find you I'm in the woods I'm coming,"

Hearing a snap I jumped in my spot leaning back against the tree. Slowly I leaned to the side peeking around the tree.

He was standing there looking around. "Reins he's close he will find me,"

"Hold on I'm coming, please just stay there,"

"Gem please what do I do?"

Before I could do anything he jumped to the side.

"Got you!"

Letting out a scream I took off again pushing my legs harder I could hear him laughing.

"Reins he found me!"

I was suddenly tackled to the ground we rolled as he flipped us I landed on my back as he was on top pinning me down.

"Thought you could run from me,"

I wasn't able to say anything as my body started to hurt all over pain ripped down my back my head held so much pressure. My whole body felt as if it was on fire.

"Reins help!" I cried out loud.

"Your mate can't help you,"

I felt a sudden surge of power pushing against him with all I had he flew off me landing a few feet away rolling then standing up.

Rolling over I got on all fours and I cried out from the pain I felt.

I heard the snapping of my bones my fingers changing and becoming claws I felt the pressure as my jaw and head elongated my clothes ripping as I grew in size.

“Give in Autumn let go trust me!” I heard Gem say through my cries.

Trying to relax and give in as she said the pain lessen a bit then it was no more.

“Open your eyes, Autumn,”

Slowly peeling my eyes open I noticed I was close to the ground.

Breathing hard I lifted my head only to notice instead of hands I had paws.

“Gem,”

“Yes Autumn, we have shifted,”

“Well well, look who wolf finally woke up,”

Looking up I see him standing there hands on his hips.

Gem let out a warning growl.

“Oh, your little growl doesn’t scare me little flower, “

When her voice popped into my head my heart skipped a beat.

She was calling out to Gem, I wasn’t sure who that was but it was Autumn’s voice.

hearing the fear in her voice as she cried for help. My wolf took over pushing forward we shifted he stuck his nose in the air taking deep breaths.

Taking off he dodged trees jumping over brushes and branches stopping just enough to stick his nose to the ground when he found what he needed we were off again.

Her scent getting stronger the more I ran I could hear noises along with snarls.

Jumping over the bush I came to a complete stop. There in front of me were two wolves fighting each other.

Looking at the brown wolf I knew that was Roberts he was bigger than an average wolf not bigger than maybe a beta rank.

Then I eye found her. She was a pure sliver almost white color when his eyes locked with mine they stuck the breath from me.

They were crystal looking like clear ice with specks of dark grey in them.

She was big for a female wolf she was the same size as me.

We looked at each other for a second but it seemed longer as time felt as if it had stopped.

But Roberts took the moment of distraction and pounced on her grabbing her by the neck and flinging her into a tree Hearing a cracking noise along with a loud whimper she dropped to the ground.

Letting out a roar I lunged at him slamming into him and biting down on his shoulder as he whimper trying to shake me off him.

We rolled causing me to lose my grip letting go he got up facing me. Snarling he snapped his jaws at me. Looking past him I saw Zach and Keaton were next to Autumn Zach pulling off his shirt and covering his sister. Ariel kneeling next to Zach she seemed to be looking at Autumn's neck.

Turning my attention back to the wolf in front of me he turns his head looking at what I just was looking back at me.

He shifted standing in front of me with a smirk across his face.

"It's so nice of you to join us Alpha,"

He drags the Alpha part out with so much sarcasm.

Shifting myself standing facing him.

"Give up now, that way I won't k!!!,"

“Ha, What makes you think you could oh mighty Alpha, Do you know who I am,”

“I know your kind, and you aren’t even worth a penny your lower than a rogue,”

That seemed to anger him as he lunged forward throwing a punch I sidestep him giving him an elbow to the back of his head.

Falling to his knees he punched the ground getting back up.

“My young warriors can fight better than you,”

Growling again he lunged for me ducking I spin kicking his leg out from under him.

“Oh is this all the big bad Roberts has, I thought people were afraid of you,”

He didn’t jump up but slowly stood up brushing the dirt from his arms and legs.

“I know what you’re doing Alpha, but it won’t work I want to share with you what your mate and I have been up to,”

I knew he was trying to turn the tables on me.

“There’s nothing your gonna say that will make me think less of my mate,”

“Oh, I beg to differ we have had a good time here waiting for you to show up we had some very intimate time,”

I couldn’t hold the growl that left my throat at the thought of him seeing anything intimate on her.

He walked circling me making me turn to keep him in front of me.

“Maybe I should tell you about our shower,”

“Reins don’t listen!” Her small voice rang out crackling a little.

“See even she doesn’t want you to know what we have done. But let me tell you mhmm she is simply delicious.”

I could feel the rage building at his words I was about to line at him but her voice popped into my head.

“Reins don’t listen, please I didn’t do anything he forced me nothing happened trust me!”

“Alpha think he’s baiting you!” It was Keaton’s voice this time.

Use your head Reins don’t let him mess with it. I told myself he was doing the same thing I was to him minutes ago.

“What Alpha nothing to say, How about me marking her!”

I could hear gasps behind me as the rest of my men have caught up by now.

Letting out a roar I couldn’t hold back I lunged at him all I saw was red.

He dodges swiftly landed a few kicks.

“Reins Please,” I could hear her sobs over the fighting.

“Reins she’s not marked by him it’s only your mark!” Zach yells out to me.

Stopping in my tracks I glanced at them he had Autumn in his arms holding her bridle style I could see some blood on her neck.

Looking back at the man I wanted dead his face dropped a bit as Zach’s words hit me.

Shifting he lunged at me jumping over him I shifted mid-air landing and spinning around he was already charging at me dropping down just as he was about to come down on me I clamped my mouth around his throat sinking my teeth in his flesh.

Pulling him down we rolled pinning him to the ground I pulled hard ripping his throat out as a whimper left his body.

Autumn

Watching as life left the dead wolf laying on the ground his body slowly changing back to the man.

Reins stood over him blood dripping from his mouth as he spits the flesh out onto the ground.

"It's over," Zach says as he holds me close to him.

Saying it more to himself as none of them knew I was able to hear them.

He placed his head against the top of mine.

My head was feeling very dizzy as my stomach churn with an uneasiness.

Letting my head rest against Zach I let my eyes droop a little.

I felt arms pull me out of Zach's hold I knew who it was by the sparks that were dancing all over my skin.

Then his scent hit me rain forest. I felt Gem purr in my head at the contact of our mate.

"Oh he smells just divine," She hummed and I couldn't help but giggle at her.

Burying my face into his chest wrapping my arms around his neck.

"Reins," I mumbled against his skin.

I felt our bodies drop down to the ground but I never touched it. Reins had fallen to his knees while holding me tightly against his body.

Pulling back I looked at him I caressed his cheek as he closed his eyes leaning into my touch.

"I've missed you," I hear him say but he spoke slowly so I could read his lips.

"I've missed you as well, and I have something to tell you,"

Opening his eyes he looked at me.

“Don’t worry Autumn I know nothing happened with him, he was just trying to get to me.”

Guilt washed over me at his words I needed to tell him the truth but also about my hearing and how I found Gem,

“No, it’s not just that, I mean things did happen but. ” I was stumbling over my words as he just looked at me.

Taking a breath I slide out of his arms kneeling in front of him.

“Reins, He did do things but not s*l things. Yes, he did forcefully k!ss me but I never k!ssed him back, He also bit me on my marking sp0t,” I felt Reins’s whole body stiffen at my words. Tears ran down my cheeks.

“He also made me shower with him,” I couldn’t hold the sob that ripped out of me covering my face with my hands feeling like I betrayed my mate.

I felt hands around my wrist as they pulled them away from my face. Lifting my chin so I was looking at him.

“Don’t cry sweetness I know you did not reciprocate his advances I know you well enough to know you would never do that, Plus I would have felt it if you had,”

Leaning forward he places a soft k!ss on my l!ps then my forehead and my nose.

Looking at him I smiled knowing he trusted me and he believed me.

“There’s more,” I whispered. “I found my wolf and,” I paused for a moment.

“I can hear,”

He blinked a few times as he just stared at me.

I heard Zach gasp behind me.

“What did you say?” He asked

“I said I can hear,”

It took about a second before he grabbed me jumping up and holding me as he spun us around.

He stopped setting my feet on the ground he cupped my cheeks.

“Is it for real, you can hear me?”

Giv ing him a big smile.

“Yes, I can,”

“Autumn?” Zach’s voice cracked as he called my name. Turning and looking over my shoulder I could see tears in his eyes. The small woman next to him placed her hand on his forearm he glanced down at her smiling.

I was going to ask who she was and why she was hanging on my brother but

The fingers under my chin caused me to look back forward.

Reins looked at me and all I could see was love shining in his eyes.

“It makes my heart jump knowing you can hear and I can see how happy you are as it shines in your eyes and I can feel the happiness through our bond, I loved you before even without your hearing I will still love you with it,”

He leaned forward k!ssing me as his arms sn.aked around my back pulling me close to him.

Breaking the k!ss leaning his forehead against mine.

“Alpha Luna, I hate to break this but we really should be going,” Keaton’s voice snapped us apart.

“He’s right let’s get you home,”

Standing he pulled me up with him as he wrapped his arm around my wa!st tucking me against his side.

He looked at some of his men.

“Burn the body,”

“Yes, Alpha,”

Reins began to lead me through the woods.

Zach walked on one side with the women I still didn't know and Keaton was on the other side.

We reached the vehicles in no time I was lost in my thought with Gem chatting away at how handsome our mate was and his wolf was just as delicious looking.

"Wait here," Reins walks tone back opening the hatch he was digging around back there.

Turning to Zach I decided to ask.

"Zach, how's dad?"

His body stiffened at my words he looked down once again that woman wrapped her hand around Zach's arm.

"He did not wake up yet, he's still pretty critical yet,"

My heart dropped at his words and a tear rolled down my cheek.

Zach saw my face as he stepped forward engulfing me in a h.ug.

"Don't worry he's strong he will wake up,"

"You can heal him," Gem's voice piped in my head.

Pulling away from my brother.

"What? How?"

"Autumn you alright?" Zach asked.

"Gem," I called to her.

"I told you we were a special pair, and only your true mate can unlock your powers, and now that we have finally become one again we can use our power to heal him,"

"Gem please tell me,"

“I can’t tell you I have to show you, let’s get to him and I will show you how,”

“Autumn, your kinda scaring me!”

Zach and everyone is looking at me with confused looks.

“I need to get to Dad,”

No one moved as they just stood there.

“What!”

“Autumn your eyes um they were uh different,” Zach scampers out.

Reins comes to stand next to me I noticed he had shorts on and was holding a pair for me. I quickly grab them sliding them on I me a Zach shirt was to my knees but there was nothing under it.

“It’s her wolf,” Reins says as he looks at me with pride on his face.

“Her wolf?” Keaton asked

“Yes, Autumn can talk with her wolf,”

Looking at him I scrunched my brows how did he know I didn’t tell him?

He chuckled a little.

“Your wolf is very talkative, “

“Wait how do you know!”

“Well she has talked to me, Her name is Gem and she thinks Im divine and delicious looking,”

Oh my god.

“Gem!” I cried out.

“What I didn’t mean to link with him I forgot to close it off,”

Feeling completely embarrassed Reins only laughed kissing my temple.

“Come it’s a long ride home, we will go to your father as soon as we get there, your mom has stayed by his side the whole time, I’m sure she will be happy to see you,”

She curled against me wrapping my arm around her pulling her onto my lap.

Rubbing her face into the crock of my neck just a few seconds later I felt her body relax and her breathing even out.

Feeling so content having her in my arms again and with that a.ssh0le dead but we still had to deal with Rachel.

I would tell her after she got to see her family, Zach kept looking at her as if to make sure she didn’t disappear.

“Zach it’s okay we found her,” I say to him as he looks again.

“I know I’m sorry but the fear of losing her I don’t think I could handle another sibling of mine leaving me,”

He hung his head and I saw a tear fall from his eyes.

Ariel was quick to grab his hand offering comfort.

“She here and she is alive and we will never let anyone take her again,”

“Yes, I agree Alpha,” His voice sounded much stronger than a few minutes ago.

“What are we going to do about Rachel?”

Ariel asked us.

“I don’t want to tell Autumn about her till after she sees her parents, but we need to find her, can you use your tracking spell?”

“I tried but it only lead me to your territory, “

“Hmm, you said she he your sister could you tracker her?” Zach asked.

“I don’t know truthfully my sister is a hybrid so it makes it very difficult to focus on her she hasn’t mastered her powers yet and sometimes she does spells that she doesn’t even know she doing.”

“What type of hybrid?”

“Um, She is a witch and elf,”

“Are you a hybrid?”

“Oh, Um no my father was my mother’s mate,”

“So your sister isn’t I’m assuming,”

“Yes, My mother was uh well she um was r.aped by an elf while she and my father were out collecting herbs, a group of elf’s jumped them k!lling my father and raping my mother and beating her to the point of death but she somehow survived and she had my sister, she couldn’t k!!l an innocent child.”

She was crying by the time she had finished. That’s why they weren’t in a coven it’s against the rules to have a hybrid child as they fear the child would be too powerful and overrule the elders,

That must be why the moon goddess matched her to Zach so she would have protection for they would have a hybrid child them selfs.

“We will find her,” Zach says as he k!sses her temple trying to comfort her.

The rest of the ride was quiet Autumn stayed asleep in my arms Zach and Ariel sat quietly with each other.

“Alpha we home,” Keaton calls from the front. Feeling the car come to a stop I reach up touching her face.

“Wake up love we’re home,”

She stirs just a little slowly opening her eyes the door opens as Keaton offers her his hand helping her out. I slide out behind her standing next to her placing my arm around her wa!st.

Sophia came running out jumping into Keaton's arms as he caught her.

She let go of Keaton turning to face Autumn pulling her away from me into a hug.

Autumn let go of Sophia and then looked at me.

"Where's my dad at?"

"He is at the clinic but first I think you may want to change,"

She looked down then back up nodding her head.

"Yeah, these clothes don't fit me, and from running and shifting I kinda smell,"

We all laughed I pulled her to me kissing her head as I placed my arm on her lower back leading her into the house.

"Sophia can you show Ariel to one of the guest's rooms she will be staying with us,"

I call out as I walked up the stairs.

"Wait who's Ariel?" Autumn asked

"She was the one who was in the car with us she helped find you, and she is your brother's mate,"

"Oh my god! And no one told me? I feel so bad now I didn't even speak to her,"

"Love I don't think Zach will hold it against you, there wasn't the time to introduce you two, "

"She a witch," Gem pipes up forgetting I can hear them two.

"What? Are they even real?" Autumn asked her back.

"Well if werewolves are real then I'm pretty sure witches are as well," I said I couldn't help the chuckle that left me.

I opened the door to our room letting her walk in first.

Turning to look at me she scrunched her forehead together

“Did you just hear what I said to Gem?”

Laughing as I walk to stand in front of her snaking my arms around her and pulling her close.

“So what if I did?”

“Gem!” I heard scolding her wolf.

I will say it's different hearing a wolf speak as our don't we are one but hearing her wolf talk is something that will take some getting used to. Her wolf also said they have different powers I'm not sure what that's all gonna entail but I can't wait to find out,

“What I can't help it I like him!”

Gem coos at Autumn as her face goes instant red.

“Oh god, she's so embarrassing, “

Autumn pushes her face against my chest causing me to laugh.

Placing my hand on her cheeks I lift her head to look up at me.

“Gem I like you too, but could I have a few moments with Autumn, I promise to spend time with you and let you meet your mate as well,”

Hearing a soft purr.

“Yes Reins, but don't let me wait too long,”

I felt her close the link as Autumn's eyes changed back to her normal color.

“There love how's that?”

“What happen where she go?”

“It's okay she just closed the link with us she didn't leave you,”

Her body relaxed at those words after just finding your wolf and having them retreat to the back of her mind it was scary for her.

“Ok now shower then we will go to your dad,”

I kissed her forehead spinning her to face the bathroom. She walked off pulling the shirt she had on off and dropping it to the floor.

I let out a growl at the sight of her bare back.

Hooking her thumbs on the waistband of the shorts she had on she slipped down effortlessly seeing as they were too big for her.

She kicked her feet out turning she had her hand over her breast. Earning another low growl from me.

“What are you doing little mate?”

My voice was deeper as my wolf suddenly pushed forward.

She gave me a flirty smile batting her eyes like an innocent little girl.

“What’s the matter Alpha, I’m doing what you said,”

“You’re poking the beast and we don’t have the time for this,”

“Well if you insist,”

She dropped her hands turned on her heel and wiggled her ass as she walked into the bathroom the scent of her arousal hit my nose. And the last of my control went out the window as I barreled towards the door stopping her from closing it.
