

Chapter 81

Reins

Stacking towards her my anger only built as we had waited outside we heard everything she was saying and the cry of the young girl who was trying to tell her what she wasn't able to do hearing that's woman yell at her only made me more angry.

Ariel tried running to the house when she heard her sister's voice Zach managed to hold her and talk her down when a dim purple hue surrounded Ariel Zach was quick to react.

I didn't want to bust in the way I did but my wolf pushed forward and I wasn't able to hold him back. But this was good I wanted to take her down and drag her back to the dungeon.

She looks terrified but what she didn't know is I saw her reach in her pocket she forgets I'm an Alpha by blood we train for this type of situation, She hadn't trained sure she showed up but she didn't fully participate which meant she didn't learn a thing.

Her heart was beating fast her breathing ragged her hands were shaking, I felt her wolf trying to submit but her dam human side wouldn't listen I knew she was going to try something holding that needle thinking I didn't see it I slowed my walk letting her get more nervous and when I was close enough I saw the look in her eye she was ready to make her move but I was one step ahead of her.

She went to lunge for me but I was quick I anticipated her move. Grabbing her wrist that held the needle in her hand with one hand and the other I grabbed her by her throat slamming her against the wall.

With one twist I heard a snap and she screamed dropping the needle to the floor.

She began kicking at me she was digging her nails into my forearm with her free hand.

Tighten my hold on her throat she began gasping for air. Leaning closer to her I bared my teeth at her.

"I've never hit a woman, but you are an exemption,"

With those words, I punched her square in the jaw my hit was hard enough to snap her head backward knocking it against the wall and knocking her out cold. Letting go her body fell to the floor with a hard thump.

Oscar and Nick came running through the front door. As Kelly and Brad appeared from the doorway to my side.

"There's no one else Alpha,"

"Let Zach and Ariel come in, I'm sure her sister isn't gonna want to see anyone but her,"

Oscar ran to the door whistling for them two. Ariel was the first in the door she looked frantically around.

"Here," I pointed to the door on my right she ran to it pushing it open.

Zach was right behind her as they went in, I didn't follow them I figured id give them space im sure her sister is scared.

Nick stood there looking down at an unconscious Rachel,

"I can't believe she used a potion on me and god knows what I did with her,"

Patting his shoulder.

"It's done with don't beat yourself up to bad, "

Keaton walks in carrying wrist chains and cuffs kneeling he locked them around her wrist.

"We're you able to get the car here?"

"Yes, I figured we lock her in the back,."

"Yep, sound good to me,"

Nick and Oscar helped Keaton drag her out they weren't been easy or nice her head banging on the floor. I didn't say anything we all wanted some type of revenge on her and that's how they got theirs.

Just then we heard movement Zach stepped out followed by a young girl wrapped in Ariel's arms as she tried to comfort her the girl held onto her for dear life crying,

"Alpha Reins, this is my sister, Gracie,"

"Gracie, this is Alpha Reins,"

The girl didn't look up she just shook her head clinging to Ariel,

"Gracie sweet it's okay no one will hurt you they caught her you are safe,"

Ariel whispers to her sister while rubbing her back. Slowly the young girl lifted her head tilting her face I could see the side of her face a little she then pulled away from Ariel I was able to see her completely,

She looked to be maybe sixteen or seventeen area, and she has long black and white like salt and pepper with blue eyes round full face but what I noticed was her ears had a small point to them which showed she had elf blood in her.

"Hello Gracie, it's nice to meet you,"

I held my hand out to her she looked at her sister Ariel giving her a small nod.

Slowly her small shaky hand extended out grabbing mine and giving me a small shake then quickly pulling back.

"Ariel, how did you guys find me? " I heard her soft timid voice.

"You gave her a list of herbs but two didn't go with the spell and I know they only grow in this area, that was good thinking sis it lead us to you,"

"I don't know what else to do, what she was asking me I didn't know how to do the spells,"

"Gracie if I may, when we got here I heard her talking about two spells, can you tell me what they were?"

Nodding her head softly.

"She wanted another cloning spell, but she also wanted a mind-controlling one again like what I made before but she said it had to last at least a week-long, I told her I couldn't do them I'm not powerful enough for that,"

"Why did she want them? Did she have another person to make them look like her?"

Shaking her head.

"No, she didn't want someone to look like her, she wanted to change her looks,"

I got a sinking feeling in my gut.

"And who did she want to look like,"

"She gave me a picture I don't know who she is,"

Zach stepped past her walking into the room I could hear him in there moving things he came back out a few seconds later. His face was pale but anger was shown in his eyes. He held out the paper in his hand that shook.

"It's Autumn,"

Taking the paper I looked at it, she had a picture of Autumn it looks as if it was taken at her little birthday party we had for her,

"I told her I didn't know how to do that spell I would need help."

"Gracie how did you plan to do the mind-controlling one your spell was only lasting what two days max,"

"I lied to her I know how to make it last longer I had accidentally figured it out, but I kept stalling hoping someone would find us, hoping it would wear off when whoever it was being used on would be with her at that time,"

"Let's go, I want to get back,"

I just wanted to make sure Autumn was alright knowing she was trying to make herself look like my mate was making me sick to my stomach.

Turning I walked out with Zach and Ariel and Gracie following behind we didn't even get off the porch when we heard a gasp and a loud growl.

"MINE!"
