Chapter 83

Reins

I could feel Autumn's anxiousness through the bond she had tried to link me a few times but I had to put my blocks up and focus on the task at hand, Once we had Rachel and were heading back I let my blocks down and a rush of emotions hit me. I wasn't surprised to see her waiting outside when we pulled up I thought about linking her but with the excitement, I felt from her when Morgan told her we were close I decided to just wait.

When I saw her punch that crazy ass in the jaw pride filled my chest. Just seeing her stand up for herself was a major turn-on, but I was so dang proud of her for doing so.

Rachel was just as shocked as the others seeing as she had bullied her before but now that Autumn had gotten her wolf Gem, She is changed Autumn made her more confident and I'm loving the change.

Soon as she woke she was screaming and yelling from the back of the vehicle.

Keaton had half the mind to pull over a knock her out again just so she would be quiet.

I don't know what she planned to do now that she was caught I wasn't going to let her get away she was going to pay for her crimes.

clear crystal letting everyone know Gem was present. Cupping her cheeks and rubbing my thumb over them I could feel her slowly relax as she leaned into my touch.

Watching them drag her away I turned to look at my mate who had this power that swarmed all around her. Her eyes were that

"She can't bother us again,"

"I just don't understand her, why she hates me so much,"

"I don't either you didn't do anything to her and I've never given anyone in this pack any extra attention, but let's not think about that now we have her and she's not getting away with what she did,"

Resting my forehead against hers she grabbed my wrist holding onto me like I was gonna leave. I could hear Gem purring at the contentment of my touch. "Autumn!" Hearing someone call her name snapped us apart she look to see who it was at seeing her brother she let go running to him and hugging him.

I couldn't help the growl that left my chest at the sight of her hugging another male.

"Zach your okay," She says as she holds him.

"Sorry love," I said to her as she shook her head.

Stepping back she looked at me with that look like really,

She looked around him and then up at him.

"She right over there, come on I have someone to introduce to you,"

"Where Ariel?"

"Is it her sister? Did you guys find her?"

Just then Kelly and Brad pop around the car smiling like mad.

"Why are you guys smiling like that?"

Autumn looked at them before she pulled them into a hug.

"This nothing can't we be happy to see our good friend and our leader," Kelly says with so much sarcasm.

looked so little next to him. Ariel was walking next to her sister but with the looks she kept giving Oscar he definitely better walk a straight and narrow path and not screw up or she would have his head.

Oscar walked up to Autumn but looked a little shy at introducing the young girl he was with.

Before she could say anything Oscar came around the car he was walking with Gracie his hand on the small of her back she Walking to stand behind my mate I slide my arms around her waist.

"Love this is Gracie, Ariel's sister, and Oscar's mate,"

Autumn looked at Gracie and then at Oscar then at Ariel, Zach had made his way over next to Ariel rubbing his hand on her back yet to feel the bond but when she turns eighteen she will,

to try and calm her. Needless to say, she wasn't happy to hear the words Mine from Oscar's mouth claiming her sister as his mate. Gracie is too young Autumn stood up straight as she wiggled out of my hold she took a step towards Gracie holding her hand out.

"It's nice to meet you Gracie, I'm Autumn,"

Gracie's eyes grew wide as she heard the name she paled for a moment before she took Autumn's hand.

not mad at you,"

"Please forgive me for any trouble I caused helping that lady, I didn't mean any of it I didn't even want to do anything she asked of me,"

Gracie started to cry as Oscar wrapped an arm around her shoulder trying to comfort her Ariel held her hand.

"Don't cry it wasn't your fault, I don't blame you at all I would have done the same if I was in your position, you just wanted to go back to your sister and would do anything for her as she would for you, so, please believe me when I say it's not your fault and I'm

She pulled back wiping the tears from Gracie's cheeks. "You know your sister is mated to my brother so you know what that makes us?"

Gracie looked at her shaking her head.

Autumn reaches forward pulling her to her wrapping her in a hug.

"Well, your Ariels sister and she's now my sister so that us sisters as well, "

Gracie looked surprised when she looked at her sister and Ariel nodded her head,

"That's right, Zach is her brother so that makes us all related," Gracie cried as she hugged her sister.

"We don't have to be alone anymore," You could see Ariel's shoulders tense at the words alone,

"That's right no more being alone," Zach says as he wraps his arms around both of them. Gracie chuckled at his silliness as Oscar let a low growl out at the sight of Zach touching his mate.

"Oh, Oscar come here,"

Autumn grabbed him hugging him.

Ariel pointed a finger at him Oscar just slumped his shoulder but said nothing.

"I know and I will I promise I won't push her for anything,"

"Congratulations, but be patient she's young,"

Nick and Keaton returned from locking Rachel up.

"God that woman can't work on your last dang nerve," Nick complains as he walks over to us.

"Hey, not fair!! I was drugged!" "So he claims," Oscar comes back at him.

Gracie smacked his arm giving him a hard look he shut up instantly.

"Don't make fun of him," She scolded him he just looked down mumbling a sorry.

"Alright, why don't we let Gracie get settled in I'm sure she wants to spend time with her sister," Grabbing Autumn's hand I turned us towards the house.

"Oh, I bet you weren't saying that a few days ago," Kelly says as she and everyone busted out laughing.

"Wait no Reins I want to visit with everyone,"

Pulling her close I leaned down whispering close to her ear.

Nipping at her ear I felt her body shudder as Gem purred loudly.

"My sweet little wolf don't make me throw you over my shoulder, I'm sure Gem would love some of my delicious attention now would you Gem,"

Turning to face me she smirked at me licking the tip of my nose and then rubbing against me.

"Promises promises,"

Growling I pick her up throwing her over my should as I rushed into the house heading for our room.

You could hear the laughs of everyone behind us.
