I could feel her tension and nervousness through the bond I could hear little growls from Gem to closer we got to the holding cell.

We could hear yelling as we walked down hallway we passed some cells that had rogues in them they were not making any noises most were laying on the small cots with the pillows held over there heads trying to drown out the all the screaming coming from the last cell.

"God does she ever shut up," The one guard says as he rubs his forehead.

The two hear us approaching the stand up straighter squaring their shoulders.

"Alpha, Luna," They bow to us.

Stopping in front of them I kept Autumn close to me feeling the need to protect her.

"You two are dismissed for now, Keaton will call you when we are finished,"

"Yes Alpha,"

They walked off taking quickly steps away trying to get enough space from the loud annoying screaming wolf they have been gaurding.

"Well finally you show up,"

Turning to face her I let out a growl at her disrespect.

"Watch your tone wolf,"

Keaton growls at her Zach stepped closer to the other side of Autumn clearly not wanting his sister near this crazy ass women.

She scoffs at his words which only made him growl more.

"Keaton," I say to him he looks at me his eyes black with anger his wolf close to the surface.

"You wanted to talk, so talk,"

"What no how are you, are they treating you ok,"

"Pff, please," She waves her hand dismissing my words.

"I don't care how you are not do I care how they are treating you, You put yourself in her by trying to hurt my mate,"

"Look if you have nothing more to say then we are leaving, you can plead your case to the council they will be here in an hour,"

As I began to turn Autumn to leave.

"Okay, god,"

"You're gonna want to cancel sending me with the council,"

"You got three minutes, "

"Whys that,"

"Because I have information on another attack that's in motion,"

"What Information is that?"
