

Dear Chief 1001

Chapter 1001: A Woman at the Grandmaster Level!

“Yes, Master!”

Qiu Qiu agreed excitedly.

He had been holding back for a long time. He had long wanted to slap Luseff’s face again.

Hmph, I’ll show you what it means to have an amazing medicinal ingredient and an amazing medicine master!

Delighted, he carried a large bundle of elderberry wood and rushed out of the operating theater, running towards the judges’ seats.

In front of the judges, he gave each of them a stick. “Hey, old men, put on your glasses and open your eyes wide. Take a good look and see if this is elderberry wood! There is plenty of elderberry wood in our master’s house. Perhaps this thing is very precious to you. In our master’s hands, this is just firewood to start a fire. She can have as much as she wants! Hmph, it’s not like it’s a treasure. What a bunch of old men who have never seen the world!”

Qiu Qiu was straightforward and did not beat around the bush.

The judges looked embarrassed.

However, when they lowered her head to appraise the elderberry wood, they found that it was indeed real.

What shocked them was—

“This... this is elderberry wood that’s more than 300 years old! Its medicinal effect is more than 100 times that of ordinary elderberry wood!” A white-haired judge suddenly shouted excitedly.

Everyone took a closer look. Wasn’t that so?

This was a world of difference from the elderberry wood that could be bought in the world.

Its quality and age were both top-notch.

However, Gu Qiqi and the others really treated it like a pile of firewood. They tied it up casually.

“No wonder the patient in Gu Qiqi’s team was cured so perfectly. He was actually able to walk after the surgery! It’s a miracle! A miracle comes from a 300-year-old elderberry wood!”

The other judge was filled with emotion.

“No wonder everyone thinks that Doctor Gu’s elderberry wood is too dark in color. It turns out that Doctor Gu doesn’t use ordinary elderberry wood at all. Instead, he uses 300-year-old elderberry wood. That’s why the color of the medicine is different!” Another judge pointed out the crux of everyone’s misunderstanding.

“In my life, I’ve only seen 300-year-old elderberry wood in textbooks. In reality, I’ve only seen 50-year-old elderberry wood sold in pharmacies. It’s already been stored in brocade boxes and locked in safes as expensive medicinal materials. I’ve really broadened my horizons today!” Another judge exclaimed.

The oldest of the judges, an old man, adjusted his glasses and sighed. “I now believe that Doctor Gu definitely has the ability to perform bone reconnection. This is because a 300-year-old elderberry wood is extremely hard. Even if an ordinary doctor obtains it, they won’t be able to refine it. Even if they can, they won’t be able to concoct medicine. This is because 300-year-old bone reconnecting wood has extraordinarily high standards for an apothecary. It can be said that only an extremely powerful great apothecary would dare to personally use a 300-year-old elderberry wood to concoct medicine! Doctor Gu is undoubtedly a great apothecary!”

When Qiu Qiu heard everyone praise his master’s medicinal herbs and his master’s skills, he was extremely pleased with himself. He waved his fat hand and said, “My master said that since we’ve already brought these herbs here, it would be tiring to bring them back. In that case, let’s distribute them to everyone for academic research!”

The judges’ eyes lit up!

Oh my god, this was simply a huge pie falling from the sky!

Such an expensive 300-year-old elderberry wood was very valuable, even if it was just a small piece.

To think that Gu Qiqi would be so generous as to give each of them a branch!

They were rich!

Extremely lucky!

At this moment, who would dare to say that Gu Qiqi’s elderberry wood was a lie?

Who would still dare to say that Gu Qiqi’s surgery was unsuccessful?

Who would dare to look down on a female doctor?

The female doctor took out a bundle of priceless elderberry wood and smashed faces!

Chapter 1002: Who Said Women Were Inferior to Men?

Just as everyone began to praise Gu Qiqi unanimously...

Only Luseff’s face was pale. His eyes were filled with rage and gloom.

Impossible!

Impossible!

That woman was so poor. She didn’t even have a single piece of diamond jewelry on her. How could she afford to use 300-year-old elderberry wood?

Even if it was from the Chu Clan’s medicinal room, it was impossible for such an expensive bone-setting wood to be hidden there...

“She stole it. She must have stolen it!” he muttered.

But in the next second...

On the big screen, the members of the Chu family team displayed a few photos of the Chu residence that they had never announced to outsiders.

On it, there was one piece of furniture after another. It was very retro, expensive, and luxurious!

“Whoosh!”

Everyone below the stage exclaimed in admiration.

So the great CEO, Chu Junmo, was usually so low-profile.

All the furniture in the house was made of elderberry wood. It was too unexpected.

In that case, it was very easy to understand why Gu Qiqi’s team had used three hundred years’ worth of elderberry wood to perform the bone-connecting technique on the patient.

Gu Qiqi’s team was sponsored by the Chu clan.

Since the Chu clan had already used the elderberry wood as furniture, it shouldn’t be difficult for them to produce a 300-year-old bone-setting wood, right?

In the audience, many countries’ purchasing teams and representatives of large pharmaceutical companies immediately called Gu Qiqi’s team and the Chu Group’s medicinal room to ask for a collaboration!

This was the first time since the start of the World Medical Tournament that the results and rankings of the contestants had not been announced, but they were already being fiercely pursued by business forces!

Gu Qiqi had fought too beautifully.

The members of the Chu clan team were all beaming with joy.

Although Young Lady Qiqi had brought the 300-year-old elderberry wood herself, Young Lady Qiqi had said that she could give them as many 300-year-old elderberry wood as they needed in the future!

They really didn’t expect the CEO to dote on and support such a domineering queen!

In the past, they had only thought that Young Lady Qiqi was beautiful, cute, and young. The CEO was simply infatuated with her. It wasn’t strange for him to dote on her a little.

Only now did they realize how discerning the CEO was.

She was simply the best candidate to be the mistress of the household!

Without waiting for the CEO to return from overseas to announce it, they had already taken Gu Qiqi to be the future matriarch of the Chu clan!

On the contrary, Luseff was stunned.

The Chu clan!

In order to protect Gu Qiqi, the Chu clan had spared no effort.

To think that even Chu Junmo, who never released any personal information, had exposed the photos of the interior of the Chu residence...

Good. Very good. Very good.

They had easily cleared the suspicion that Gu Qiqi had stolen the medicinal herbs...

Did he think that he would give up just like that?

No!

Luseff gritted his teeth and spoke again. "Doctor Gu is bribing the judges with elderberry wood. Isn't this a violation of the rules of the competition?"

Qiu Qiu flew into a rage. "F*ck, hook-nosed brat, it's you again. Are you done?"

The elderberry wood in the judges' hands had just warmed up. How could they bear to let go?

However, they could not say anything. They could not afford to be accused of "unfair judging".

Just as they were feeling anxious.

Gu Qiqi's cold voice came through the speaker. "Whether the judges are fair or not has nothing to do with elderberry wood. That's just medicinal research materials. If Mr. Luseff thinks that it amounts to money, that's because you only care about money. Similarly, because there's prejudice in your eyes, you'll always look down on female doctors. Do you think that women are only worthy of doing the lowest-level work?"

Chapter 1003: Seeing Through the Enemy's Trick

"Hmph, you've always been a low-level female doctor! Female doctors are naturally inferior to male doctors! In any field in the world, women are inferior to men!" Luseff's deeply rooted thoughts would never change.

Gu Qiqi didn't want to change his mind either. Instead, she raised her eyebrows coldly and said, "Is that so? That's a pity. According to your logic, if you're a man who's worse than a woman and you lose to me, won't you be at the level of an animal?"

"You... who said I lost to you! The results haven't even been judged! The women I'm talking about are simply inferior to men!" Luseff was so angry that his face turned purple.

However, Gu Qiqi's tone was cold as she pressed on. "Women are inferior to men? Then, may I ask why your patient hasn't woken up yet? Is it because you're not a man? Or is it because you're a fake man? Is that why you're inferior to me in every way?"

"You...!" Luseff was speechless.

Damn it, why wasn't his courier awake yet?

Qiu Qiu watched as Luseff was forced into a corner by Gu Qiqi. In the end, he flew into a rage out of humiliation. He was so embarrassed that he forgot about pestering the judges to not accept the elderberry wood.

Haha, Master was truly amazing!

How dare Luseff insult her!

Luseff couldn't out-talk Gu Qiqi. He turned around and scolded his subordinate, "What's going on? How did you administer anesthesia? Isn't the patient waking up? Give him a cardiac shot! Let him wake up!"

Gu Qiqi watched coldly from the side. She said calmly, "If you inject the needle at this moment, the patient's heart won't be able to take it. He might die. Don't think that just because he doesn't have a family member, you can do whatever you want."

Luseff said, "None of your business! Hit her! Hmph, who knows if you've tampered with my patient so that he wouldn't wake up?"

Gu Qiqi was calm and unruffled. "Speaking of tampering... I would like to ask why your subordinate appeared in our operating theater? He was even acting suspiciously."

Luseff's heart skipped a beat.

No wonder the people he sent out never returned. So Gu Qiqi had caught them.

He refused to admit it. "I don't know this person!"

Gu Qiqi smiled. "Yes. Since he's not one of yours, I'll send him directly to the Imperial Court. As you know, S Nation and our empire have never been friends. It's only because you're a team of doctors that we've been lenient and allowed you to come to our empire to participate in the competition. If this person isn't from your team, but managed to sneak in... that will prove that he's a spy, won't it? I think our court will have quite a lot of methods to make him wish he was dead and make him confess obediently..."

Gu Qiqi's words were cold and clear. It made Luseff's subordinate tremble!

What did he mean by "a lot of methods"? Was that a terrifying punishment?

He immediately trembled and shouted at the top of his voice, "Professor Luseff, you asked me to go over. Have you forgotten? You have to admit it!"

Luseff's face darkened.

Having his subordinate slap him in the face in public like this, he simply wanted to kill someone.

Gu Qiqi said with a faint smile, "Oh, why did your master ask you to come over? If you explain yourself clearly, I'll consider sending you back to S Country! I won't throw you to court."

That person nodded vigorously. "I'll tell you, I'll tell you everything! He asked me to add a strong anesthetic into your patient's mouth when you weren't noticing... so that he won't wake up from the overdose..." Seeing that Luseff didn't intend to care about him, that person had no choice but to think for himself. Since Gu Qiqi had asked him to speak, he naturally didn't dare to refuse.

Chapter 1004: I Really Want to Use a Scalpel to Stab Her to Death!

Gu Qiqi narrowed her eyes but smiled without saying anything.

However, the audience was already in an uproar!

Oh my god, was Country S's Mr. Luseff even human? He had no medical ethics at all. This was simply inhumane!

For his own sake, he actually sent someone to plot against his opponent's patient.

This was completely contrary to the spirit of peaceful medical care!

This doctor was too terrifying. Even if he was a divine doctor, they would never want to encounter such a doctor for treatment. They would really be killed in minutes.

This wouldn't do. Such a person should be arrested and sent to the International Court of Justice!

For a moment, everyone was denouncing Luseff!

Luseff clenched his fists tightly, the veins on his forehead bulging!

Damn Gu Qiqi. She actually managed to instigate his subordinate to defect with just a few words.

This woman was truly well-versed in psychological tactics!

He took a deep breath and decided that he could no longer argue with Gu Qiqi.

"What are you arguing about! Even if I did give instructions to my subordinate, we haven't done anything yet, right? If there aren't any actual consequences, then what are you talking about! No one can convict me! No one is to disturb my competition!"

He had to admit that he was no match for this woman.

However, he still had the strength!

As long as the patient could wake up and take a few steps, his surgery would still be a success.

Even if it wasn't completed as quickly as Gu Qiqi, it could still be considered a perfect completion.

During the evaluation, how could the judges not give him full marks?

Although he was very unhappy that he was tied with Gu Qiqi for first place with full marks, as long as he got full marks, he would still have a chance to crush Gu Qiqi in the finals.

Just as Luseff made up his mind to wake the patient up no matter what side-effects he had to administer.

Suddenly, Gu Qiqi's cold voice rang through the loudspeaker again. "Mr. Luseff, are you trying to wake up your patient? Then I'll tell you that there's no need. You're wasting your energy."

"What are you talking about?!" After suppressing his anger for a long time, Luseff finally couldn't hold back any longer.

What did she mean by wasting his energy!

This damn woman!

He really wanted to stab her to death with a scalpel!

Unfortunately, Gu Qiqi was standing coldly in another operating room, one level higher than him. She looked down at him with disdain, like an immortal looking down on an ant. “Your patient had long since suffered a cerebral hemorrhage during your surgery, and you didn’t notice it at all. He’s in a coma, so of course he won’t wake up.”

Brain hemorrhage!

Luseff’s pupils dilated!

After carefully checking the various indicators, he was certain that Gu Qiqi was telling the truth.

However, Gu Qiqi was a hundred meters away from him.

There was no way to see the patient’s various indicators on the instrument display in his operating theater.

How could she have predicted that his patient would be unable to wake up because of a cerebral hemorrhage?

Could Gu Qiqi be a ghost?

As if she could completely understand his confusion, Gu Qiqi said lightly, “Do you want to know how I can tell? Haha, it’s actually very simple. You can tell from the patient’s complexion and scalp on the surveillance screen. This isn’t difficult. In our empire, any Chinese medicine practitioner can ‘see, listen, question, and feel’. There’s no need to look at the data. Just by observing the patient’s appearance, one can make a preliminary judgment.”

Luseff’s face was ashen!

Gu Qiqi had actually guessed the reason for the patient’s coma just by looking at his expression!

Was the Chinese medicine of the empire really that powerful?

However, in the next second, Gu Qiqi said something even more heartbreaking—

Chapter 1005: The End of Looking Down On Nurses

Gu Qiqi said coldly, “In our empire, doctors and nurses all have a chance of learning how to perform surgery. There’s nothing strange about that. Didn’t you insist that women are inferior to men? Let me tell you, doctors don’t differentiate between men and women. Doctors are only divided into doctors and quacks who are in charge. Didn’t you say that women are only fit to be nurses? Let me tell you again. Occupations don’t differentiate between status. Don’t look down on nurses. If no nurse helps you discover the mistakes and negligence in a surgery, you will end up like you did today! Nurses aren’t lowly, and you can’t afford to offend female nurses!”

Gu Qiqi’s words were powerful.

The entire audience listened quietly to her speech. In a flash, thunderous applause rang out!

Doctors did not differentiate between men and women. Their professions did not differentiate between status!

Doctor Gu's words were the truth.

In the operating theater, Luseff was speechless.

Yes, he had looked down on the female doctors. In the end, a female doctor mercilessly crushed him, and he became a quack!

He despised nurses even more. He felt that women were only fit to be nurses. In the end, not a single nurse discovered a major mistake in the surgery. Yes, his nurses were all men. No female nurse was willing to work with him.

If a female nurse had reminded him a little about the cerebral hemorrhage today, he wouldn't have been so focused on reconnecting the bones!

Just as he was about to find a nurse to reprimand her, the row of male assistants and nurses all lowered their heads in shame.

Gu Qiqi was right. All medical staff had no gender. Be it male or female, they were all professionals!

The match came to an end under the fury and roar of Luseff.

Unsurprisingly, the judges gave Gu Qiqi full marks.

Due to her persistence in medicine, her patience with patients, and her noble understanding of the profession of a nurse, all the judges respected her from the bottom of their hearts. They were unwilling to deduct a single point from her.

This was a treatment that even Young Master Ye had not received the day before yesterday!

100 points!

The audience was even more impressive!

The votes were thrown at Gu Qiqi crazily.

She had won almost all the votes from the audience, be it live or online.

On the Internet, a veteran retired nurse left a sincere comment on the bullet screen of the live-stream with tears streaming down her face. "Thank you, Doctor Gu. I've suffered many injustices in the past. Many people think that nurses are small while doctors are big, or that nurses are lowly, and doctors are noble. They think nurses are only worthy of wiping feces and urine, while doctors are infinitely glorious as they perform surgery..."

"And in fact? Without the work and cooperation of a nurse, no doctor can complete those difficult and complicated surgeries alone, right? Not to mention the supervision of medicine and rehabilitation therapy during the patient's recovery period... A nurse's profession is also very professional!"

"Nurses who don't know anything about medicine don't exist! When many doctors use the wrong medicine or make mistakes during surgery, it's also the nurses who discover them and remind them..."

“Sob, sob, sob. I’ve said so much because I want to confess my love for Doctor Gu. Thanks to your understanding and initiative, I didn’t want to work so hard as a nurse in my next life. But I’ve changed my mind. I want to be a white-robed angel in my next life. I hope I’ll be your sidekick nurse! Thank you again!”

The long message made many people’s eyes water.

Within the empire, everyone was reevaluating their opinions of medical staff.

They were all secretly reflecting on whether they had hurt people they shouldn’t have hurt with prejudice and injustice...

Chapter 1006: Marriage Settled

In the second round of the group competition, Gu Qiqi’s team won.

A sumptuous prize was thrown at them like snowflakes. Gu Qiqi gave it directly to Qiu Qiu and the others. Everyone in the team had a share, and they received whatever they needed.

Not to mention that there were countless opportunities to work together.

The Chu clan’s business was booming. The members of the Chu clan team were so happy that their mouths could not close. They were secretly grateful to their future “mistress of the household”, Miss Gu.

Hence, they served Gu Qiqi even more diligently.

At the same time, Gu Qiqi became completely famous on the Internet.

The video of her surgery was repeatedly studied and watched on the Internet. The more one watched it, the more they admired her.

Her bone reconnection technique was simply superb!

In an instant, she had gained a large number of professional fans.

They were fans who wouldn’t easily become a fan of others, but wouldn’t easily change if they did. They were true loyal fans.

However, in the private room where the banquet had yet to end, two pairs of eyes were burning with jealousy!

Gu Meifeng had brought Gu Xuexue, who had just come out of the hospital, with the intention of seeing Gu Qiqi fail.

Who would have thought that Country S’s Mr. Luseff would be unable to defeat Gu Qiqi?

He had lost to Gu Qiqi!

What a useless man!

Not only was he defeated, but he couldn’t even win in a verbal battle. Yet, he was completely crushed by Gu Qiqi on the field.

Gu Meifeng was furious. She yearned to go up and fight Gu Qiqi.

So what if she, Gu Meifeng, looked down on nurses? She just wanted that little b*tch Gu Qiqi to stay in Qing City Hospital as a nurse at the lowest level for the rest of her life!

Only her daughter, Gu Xuexue, was qualified to walk the path of a famous doctor!

But at some point in time, all of this had undergone an uncontrollable and irreversible change...

Gu Meifeng gritted her teeth and comforted Gu Xuexue, who was already crying in anger. "Xue Xue, don't be anxious. Although we didn't manage to climb into Young Master Ye's bed, the marriage of the Mu family has been finalized this time. Mrs. Mu took the initiative to call me yesterday and request for you to get married as soon as possible!"

Gu Xuexue sniffled. "Really? Why are they taking the initiative?"

Gu Meifeng snorted. "Haha, who does the Mu family think they are? Do they still have the cheek to put on airs with us? Don't you know that Mu Liuchuan's good-for-nothing father actually had a mistress? Now that he's been caught by Mrs. Mu, it's said that he found a group of servants to get rid of that woman... In the end, that woman couldn't take it anymore and jumped off a building to commit suicide. This matter has blown up and the Mu family's reputation has been ruined. I don't know if someone is taking advantage of the situation behind the scenes, but the Mu family's business has plummeted. Mr. Mu has also been chased out of many business clubs. He's alone and helpless, so of course he wants to work with us."

"I see... Then is there anything else in the Mu family that we can use?" When Gu Xuexue heard that his business was no longer doing well, she was worried that she would have to lead a difficult life if she married into the Mu family.

Gu Meifeng consoled her. "Of course! There are still three pounds of nails left in a broken ship! The Mu family still has some assets, but they're all in Mr. Mu's hands now. Now that that mistress has died, leaving behind a four-year-old son, Mr. Mu feels that he has let the mistress down. He'll treat that illegitimate child even better. Mrs. Mu is worried that Mr. Mu will leave all his assets to the mistress's illegitimate child, so she's anxious. She's urging Mu Liuchuan to get married. It's best if he has a child as soon as possible, so that one more person can share the family assets! Do you understand?"

Gu Xuexue had never expected that someone else's mistress would add fuel to the fire regarding her marriage. This finally pushed Mu Liuchuan to marry her!

Chapter 1007: What Happens to Bad People

Gu Xuexue suddenly felt a little worried. "Mommy, the day before yesterday, during the World Medical Tournament, I schemed against Young Master Ye... Will the Mu family find out? Will they go back on their word?"

Gu Meifeng sneered. "They're in a dire situation themselves. Why would they have the time to care about this? Moreover, Mommy has already spent a large sum of money to help you suppress the news! The Mu family is in a hurry to get married. I think Mrs. Mu wants the wedding to be held as soon as possible in the next few days to announce it to the world. When that happens, you'll already be married.

On account of the Mu family and the Gu family, who will still have the cheek to spread rumors about you?”

Gu Xuexue relaxed.

But on second thought, she began to worry again—

“But... Brother Liuchuan hasn’t even come to talk to me about marriage...” Gu Xuexue pouted.

“Oh, Liuchuan has his heart set on his career. He’s very career-minded! How can you ask a grown man to have the time to manage these things? Be a good girl. You have to focus on your nails, beauty treatment, hair, and skincare. Oh right, you have to pick a wedding gown! Then, you have to make yourself beautiful and prepare to be the most beautiful bride, understand? What’s the point of a strong woman like Gu Qiqi? She’s like a man every day, PK-ing with a group of male doctors. She’s not feminine at all. Which man will like her or marry her? Our Xue Xue will marry into a good family...”

Although Gu Meifeng had looked down on the Mu family in the past and had always wanted to get close to either Lord Jue or Young Master Ye, as time passed, the Shen family declined, and the capital around her grew smaller and smaller.

Old Master Gu didn’t think much of Xue Xue either. He only had eyes for that b*tch Gu Qiqi. He wasn’t willing to help Xue Xue get married at all.

Matriarch Gu, on the other hand, was too focused on worrying about the Shen family’s lost shares to bother about Xue Xue...

She had no choice but to accept reality. Under the current circumstances, the Mu family was the best choice.

Moreover, Mrs. Mu had promised to hold a rather grand wedding for Xue Xue on the phone. She had given Xue Xue enough face!

Gu Meifeng was very optimistic. “Xue Xue, don’t worry. Liuchuan only has you in his heart. After all, you gave him your first night. He must still be working overtime at the company. That’s why he doesn’t have time to look for you...”

Only then did Gu Xuexue’s mood improve.

Seeing Gu Qiqi receive the award on stage, she thought about her upcoming wedding ceremony. It didn’t seem to be so glaring and heart-wrenching anymore!

At this moment.

Gu Qiqi received the prizes from the stage and distributed them to everyone. Qiu Qiu and the others were preparing to celebrate. She felt a little tired and was thinking about the little packrat, so she didn’t join them.

She prepared to leave in a car from the back door.

Gong Jue had wanted to continue watching the battle today.

However, she insisted that he guard the little packrat. Gong Jue thought for a while. He had lured Chu Junmo away. Bai Lang didn't have a competition today and didn't have the chance to interact with Gu Qiqi... Yes, that stupid woman was considered safe today.

Hence, Gong Jue didn't come. Instead, he sent Special Assistant Lu to pick her up.

They had agreed to leave quietly from the back door.

However, when Gu Qiqi walked to the back door, she realized that it was locked.

She had no choice but to walk towards the side door.

As she walked, she prepared to call Special Assistant Lu.

Suddenly, a commotion broke out.

When Gu Qiqi heard a Country S accent, she immediately raised her eyebrows and put down the phone.

"You can't arrest me! I'm a doctor from S Nation. I have immunity!" Luseff struggled. He was firmly restrained by more than ten staff members and was being taken to the car outside the side door.

Gu Qiqi understood. No wonder the back door was locked. So they were here to arrest him.

Chapter 1008: A Jerk's Confidence

The staff member replied sternly, "Mr. Luseff, we've received a report that you're suspected of hiring a murderer. The courier who disappeared on Fuhua Road this morning was the patient you operated on during today's surgery. Someone has provided evidence that he was seriously injured by you... Although you have immunity, you've already committed a crime in our country. We have the right to take you to investigate and submit you to the International Court of Justice to be dealt with..."

Luseff was going crazy. He suddenly saw Gu Qiqi not far away and exploded. "Who reported me? Is it that b*tch Gu Qiqi? That woman is too cunning. She did it on purpose. She's jealous of me! She..."

Gu Qiqi's lips twitched speechlessly.

Was she jealous of him?

Jealous of a defeated opponent?

Could it be that this straight man thought that she was jealous that he was a man?

This was... ridiculous.

Gu Qiqi treated this as a funny joke. She watched as the police officer left with Luseff!

Hiring someone to commit murder... This crime was probably enough for Luseff to live in prison for decades!

Such an arrogant quack should be locked up in prison.

Gu Qiqi retracted her gaze and prepared to continue calling Special Assistant Lu. However, this call was destined to be difficult to make.

Behind her, she heard hurried footsteps.

Someone stopped Gu Qiqi from behind and prepared to pat her shoulder. "Qiqi... wait for me..."

Gu Qiqi frowned.

Mu Liuchuan, who the hell are you to ask me to wait?

That's right. This voice was pretending to be affectionate and refined. Who else could it be but that scumbag Mu Liuchuan?

She slapped Mu Liuchuan's hand away impatiently. "Get lost. I find you dirty."

Mu Liuchuan looked a little hurt. "Qiqi, I took a few minutes out of my busy schedule to meet you..." He didn't even have time to meet his fiancée, Gu Xuexue.

But Gu Qiqi didn't cherish the time he had given her. He was truly hurt.

Gu Qiqi smiled instead of getting angry. "Thank you. Then you don't have to make time for me in the future. I find you quite annoying when I see you. It affects my mood."

"Qi Qi, you've misunderstood me... There are many things I can't help myself..." Mu Liuchuan rambled on.

Gu Qiqi grew impatient.

Actually, after her rebirth, she had once wondered if she should listen to Mu Liuchuan's explanation.

However, reality had proven that Mu Liuchuan was a scumbag. He was destined to get together with Gu Xuexue and harm her for money. There was no need for her to listen to those dignified explanations.

In fact, when Mu Liuchuan really came to explain himself, she found it quite laughable.

Stepping forward, she left him behind without hesitation and walked out.

Mu Liuchuan panicked. "Qiqi, I'm getting married in a few days! Aren't you... sad?"

Gu Qiqi said, "I'm so happy. That scumbag and that b*tch are finally together. The two of you can just ruin each other for the rest of your lives."

Mu Liuchuan said, "Qiqi... Actually, Xuexue is innocent. I know you're angry at me for betraying the engagement, but this really has nothing to do with Xuexue. Can you not take your anger out on her? If you have anything to say, take it out on me..."

Gu Qiqi turned around seriously and sized him up.

Mu Liuchuan, are you really a fool or just pretending to be naive?

Now, you're saying that Gu Xuexue is innocent? Gu Xuexue is a little white rabbit, and I'm a big bad wolf. Are you afraid that I'll eat her?

Haha! This was too funny!

She said lightly, "I'm sorry, Mr. Mu. So you're a drama queen. I really don't care about the two of you."

Mu Liuchuan gritted his teeth and said, "Is it because you've found someone else? They're all saying that you're being kept by an old man. Qiqi, I hope you'll be pure and chaste. Even if I can't spend the rest of your life with you, I hope you can find a good family..."

"Bam—!"

Gu Qiqi slapped Mu Liuchuan. Blood spurted from the corner of his mouth!

It was too much to listen to.

This scumbag's confidence was truly infuriating.

She decided to tell him to shut up, simply and roughly.

Chapter 1009: I Want This Woman to Submit to You

For the first time in his life, Mu Liuchuan was beaten up by a woman!

He had been beaten up by Gu Qiqi, whom he had always thought was weak, gentle, and at the mercy of others!

He should have known. Ever since the college entrance examination, this countryside girl had changed since she came to the capital.

She was no longer as timid as before. She no longer hid behind Gu Xuexue in a low-profile manner. Instead, she had become arrogant and willful, with a venomous tongue and a proud nature.

Who had changed her?

Was he the sugar daddy who had been supporting her from behind the scenes?

Why wasn't he the one who had changed her!

A wave of anger surged in Mu Liuchuan's heart. A thought surged in him. "If you want this woman to submit to you, you have to let her know that you're her man. Even if the engagement is annulled, she should still be yours! Anyway, you're about to get married. It's no big deal to go crazy for a while before you get married. Go, go sleep with this disobedient woman! If she hits you, use your weapon to whip her to death..."

The thought grew stronger and stronger, and Mu Liuchuan's abdomen began to throb!

He suddenly lost his mind and rushed towards Gu Qiqi!

He was about to grab her and tear her clothes apart!

"Qiqi, actually, I love you. Can you spend the night with me? I guarantee that you'll fall in love with me! Even if I get married, I can still be with you. I'll give you happiness, money, comfort... Anyway, you'll have to find someone to provide for you. Why don't you let me provide for you..." Mu Liuchuan spoke nonsense.

He had taken advantage of the fact that this side door was located in a remote area. It was impossible for anyone to pass by. He grew bolder.

However, he didn't notice Gu Qiqi's eyes turn cold!

Her hands had already clenched into fists!

If Qiu Qiu were to see this, he would definitely say. "Tsk, tsk. Who provoked Master? He was going to be in trouble! Master is going to beat someone up! He won't stop until he sees blood!"

However, the very next second, Gu Qiqi's tone suddenly changed!

Mu Liuchuan hugged his head and moaned in pain!

Gu Qiqi punched his jaw, which was chattering non-stop. He felt as if his jaw was about to shatter.

"You'll support me? Mu Liuchuan, who gave you the confidence?! Shouldn't I wake you up?!" Gu Qiqi punched his nose again.

"You still want to bully me? Mu Liuchuan, you scumbag. You still want to indulge yourself before your marriage? Go to hell!" Gu Qiqi kicked him in the heart.

"Mu Liuchuan, in my previous life, this life, the next life, and the next life, it's impossible for me to love a scumbag like you. Wake up from your dream!" Gu Qiqi was the last to raise her leg.

It kicked down viciously!

"If you dare to say such things in front of me again, I'll beat you up every time I see you!" Gu Qiqi retracted her leg.

Mu Liuchuan fell to the ground in a sorry state. He couldn't even get up.

At this moment, how could he still have the strength to bully Gu Qiqi?

It would be considered a light punishment if Gu Qiqi didn't beat him to death.

Trembling, he took out a wedding invitation from his pocket, trying to save some face. "I'm sorry, Qiqi. I actually wanted to give this to you just now... You... You misunderstood..."

Gu Qiqi snorted coldly and didn't even look at the red invitation.

She directly stepped on the invitation with her shoe...

Sorry, I'm not interested in your wedding!

Yes, if I have nothing to do, I'll just add to your troubles...

Gu Qiqi had been stopped by Mu Liuchuan for a few minutes on the way here. She was utterly disgusted by Mu Liuchuan's strange thoughts.

Even when she got into Special Assistant Lu's car, Number 1, she was still feeling very unhappy.

She couldn't wait to rush back. She wanted to see the little packrat's adorable face and wash her eyes, which had been polluted by Mu Liuchuan.

Little boy, I miss you!

Gu Qiqi was eager to return home.

“Special Assistant Lu, has the little packrat woken up?”

“Oh, not yet.”

“Did he show any abnormal fluctuations today?”

“Not... either.”

“Has he been sleeping?”

“Yes, he has been in a coma.”

Special Assistant Lu looked at Gu Qiqi uneasily through the rearview mirror.

He wondered if Gu Qiqi had heard his reminder this morning.

Chapter 1010: Stepmother, I Miss You!

Master Jue was already pursuing a third party, but Young Lady Qiqi didn't notice.

She didn't even care about Master Jue's condition today. All she cared about was the little packrat.

Young Lady Qiqi, how could you be a stepmother? Shouldn't you be the first to grab hold of your man?

Did she know that she treated a man's son so well?

Special Assistant Lu thought for a while and decided to remind Gu Qiqi again. “Miss Qiqi, Master Jue has been watching the recording of the competition today.”

“What video?”

“It's the recording of the first match of the medical competition yesterday. The match between Young Master Ye and the Shen family.”

“Oh. Got it.”

Gu Qiqi's lips curved up in a faint smile.

She didn't expect this stupid man to be quite infatuated with her male outfit.

What an insincere man, haha!

Special Assistant Lu was in despair. He saw that Gu Qiqi wasn't the least bit concerned about Master Jue watching Young Master Ye's recording. Instead, she was smiling foolishly.

He felt that she was truly hopeless!

What was wrong with Miss Qiqi? Boohoo!

Looks like I'll have to find a chance in the future to help you break up this ill-fated relationship between Master Jue and Young Master Ye.

How could he break them up?

Young Master Bai Lang?

Yes! Wasn't Young Master Bai Lang especially infatuated with Young Master Ye?

He would create an opportunity for Young Master Bai Lang and Young Master Ye to... confirm their relationship! What was done could not be undone!... Then, it was impossible for Lord Jue to snatch his brother's man, right?

Special Assistant Lu instantly understood. He felt that the world had become a better place.

Meanwhile, Gu Qiqi was still thinking about the little packrat's illness.

Both of them had their own thoughts. Soon, they drove back to the hospital.

Gu Qiqi disinfected her hands immediately. She put on a white coat and a mask and sprinted almost a hundred meters to the little packrat's operating theater.

Gently, she pushed the door open.

Gong Jue's broad back was sitting in front of the bed, worrying about how to feed him the medicine.

Gu Qiqi walked over quietly and took the medicine from him. "Let me do it."

Picking up the little packrat, she began to feed him the medicine with familiarity.

Gong Jue's heart ached as he supported her arm. "Does it hurt?"

She always carried him like this for an hour or two. Her arms were already numb from the pillow, but no matter how many times he told her, she refused to listen.

Gu Qiqi smiled. "Just let me hug him for a while. Just take it that I'm enjoying being a stepmother. When the little packrat wakes up, he might not be willing to let me hug him anymore."

Gong Jue couldn't help but feel a little sad.

At this moment, he actually blamed his son a little.

Qiqi treated the little packrat so sincerely and well, but his son refused to accept her.

His heart ached for Qiqi.

He silently made up his mind. When the little boy woke up this time, he would definitely educate him well and make him listen to Auntie Qiqi obediently. He was not to be willful or make her sad...

Otherwise, he would... disown his stupid son! Yes, he would do that!

Gong Jue was silently praising his methods of dealing with the little packrat and protecting Qiqi's status as a stepmother.

Suddenly, he heard a faint voice in Gu Qiqi's arms. "Stepmother, I... miss you..."

Gu Qiqi was also shocked!

In a daze, the little packrat's lips moved, and he actually managed to finish his sentence.

Was he awake?

Gu Qiqi was overjoyed. It was not only because the medicine had taken effect and the little packrat was about to wake up, but also because the little packrat had actually said that he missed her!

There was a part of her heart that ached, was happy, and wanted to go crazy!

Just as Gu Qiqi and Gong Jue were holding their breaths and staring intently at the little packrat...

In the darkness, the little packrat walked towards the faint light again.

In the light, he could vaguely see a pair of large black grape-like eyes, a large white mask, and a white coat...

He murmured, "Stepmother... Big Sister?... Stepmother?"

Suddenly, he felt as if he had been struck by something.

All of a sudden, he sobered up a little. Was he looking at his stepmother or his sister?
