

Dear Chief 1111

Chapter 1111: Devastating Strike!

Gu Qiqi was surprised.

She had no idea.

Wasn't a person's name bestowed by their parents?

Professor Brown said disdainfully, "Back then, he was very arrogant. He once said that if he lost the competition, his name would be written backward. Hehe, in the end? He lost so badly that he lost all his face. His lousy skills were mocked by the world's great pharmacists! Therefore, his name is written backward now! This humiliation will be carried for the rest of his life! Look at his current status in the medical world. Who still remembers Feng Yangchu? What future do you have if you follow such a person?"

Gu Qiqi was shocked!

Feng Yangchu?

Chu Yangfeng?!

It turned out that Dean Feng was actually Dean Chu!!!

This could explain why Chu Junmo could often enter the pharmaceutical school as if it was his own backyard.

Even Chu Junmo could be an examiner for the entrance examination of the pharmaceutical school.

Chu Yangfeng should be from the Chu family, right? And he was Chu Junmo's elder!

Gu Qiqi instantly understood this.

However, at the same time, a strong sense of sorrow flashed across her heart.

No wonder Dean Chu had such a strange temper. He was antisocial and out of place.

It turned out that he had once suffered such a huge blow in the competition of the Great Pharmacist Guild that his name had been written backward.

This was a devastating blow to someone who thought so highly of himself.

However, she wondered what exactly he had competed with back then that he had actually lost completely.

According to Dean Chu's hidden skills, she felt that he wouldn't be that bad.

Gu Qiqi's eyes flashed. She raised her lips and said, "Professor Brown, I respect you very much. Similarly, I also respect my master very much. Please don't say that about him. He's a very good person. I believe in his strength. It's just a competition. There's no reason to decide a person's life in one go!"

A person's life was so long. If they were crippled because of a competition or an examination, it would be too arbitrary!

Even if others thought so, she definitely couldn't bear it!

As someone close to him, she couldn't add insult to injury!

Gu Qiqi herself had suffered greatly when faced with this.

In her previous life, hadn't she failed the college entrance examination because of Gu Meifeng and her daughter's schemes, leading to a turning point in her life that caused a downward spiral?

However, if she had recognized her own abilities clearly back then, given herself a little more confidence, and taken responsibility for her life, instead of letting Gu Meifeng and her daughter fool and manipulate her, her life would have definitely been different!

So what if she failed the college entrance examination? It wasn't that she really didn't do well. Why should she become someone else's chess piece and a substitute that couldn't be exposed?

With an ability in hand, if this route was blocked, a person could still take another path and make a comeback.

Unfortunately, back then, she did not have such a clear vision.

At this moment, although she was talking about Chu Yangfeng, in reality, she was also talking about her stupid and weak self!

She made a thorough summary of her once unfortunate life.

Professor Brown was shocked for a moment.

He did not expect that this petite and exquisite asian woman in front of him would actually have such open-mindedness and thoughts. Moreover, she had an imposing aura!

He was speechless for a long time.

However, he was very insistent. "Doctor Gu, if you become my disciple, I can—

Chapter 1112: I'm Unwilling

"I can provide you with a chance to go to the Ghost Island and participate in the gathering of the Great Pharmacist Guild. I can let you personally communicate with those great pharmacists from all over the world who have hidden superpowers and find a prescription to treat your brother's eye disease. This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity! To be honest, there's probably only one gold and silver key that you can encounter at your level and in your social circle! This is something that Chu Yangfeng will never be able to bring to you in his entire life! He has long been expelled by the Great Pharmacist Guild. As a loser, he's never allowed to step foot on the Ghost Island again!"

Professor Brown's speech had hit the nail on the head!

Most people would be tempted.

Unfortunately, Gu Qiqi wasn't an ordinary person. Her expression didn't change at all. Without any hesitation, she insisted, "I'm sorry, Professor Brown. We people from the empire are particular about this. A teacher for a day is a father for a lifetime. It's a very serious problem with my character to betray my master. I think you don't want me to become a villain who betrays my master, right?"

Professor Brown opened his mouth, but no words came out.

However, Susanna was anxious. "Doctor Gu, do you not believe in his strength because my father lost to you in the World Medical Competition? Actually, he didn't use all his strength that day. If he really used all his strength, he would scare those ordinary people to death..."

Professor Brown waved his hand and stopped Susanna. "Be good, baby. Shut up. Don't say anything else. Let Doctor Gu decide for herself if she's willing to be my disciple."

Gu Qiqi pursed her lips into a straight line. "Yes, I've already decided. I'm not willing."

Professor Brown opened his mouth, then closed it again helplessly.

She didn't expect Gu Qiqi to be so direct.

What a straightforward rejection!

After a long silence, he could only say awkwardly, "Since Doctor Gu isn't willing to be my disciple, I can't force you. Just pretend that I never mentioned this."

This time, it was Susanna's turn to smooth things over. "Well, ahem, let me toast Dr. Gu again!"

An awkward round of recruiting a disciple was over.

After the meal, Professor Brown said faintly, "Doctor Gu, although you're unwilling to be my disciple, I'll remember to help you find out more about the prescription for eye disease recovery on the Ghost Island this time. You have to contact me more in the future!"

Gu Qiqi replied, "Okay."

However, at the same time, she had already made a plan in her heart. She would never be able to rely on others. When she returned tonight, she would discuss with Gong Jue and think of a way to reach the island independently to find medicine for Xiaobei!

After dinner in Country M, they ate dessert and drank coffee.

Gu Qiqi didn't like coffee much and asked for tea.

A cup of black tea warmed her stomach. Seeing that it was about time, she stood up and prepared to leave.

She gestured to the little packrat. "Little packrat, where are the gifts you brought for Grandpa Brown and Auntie Susanna?"

The little boy touched his clothes and took out a card from his pocket.

He handed it to Professor Brown and said seriously, "Thank you for your hospitality!"

Professor Brown looked at the card speechlessly. When he opened it, he was shocked. "You... wrote this yourself?"

“Yes!” The little packrat nodded.

“Talent! What a little genius!” Professor Brown couldn’t help but praise him.

When the card was unfolded, it was actually a line of beautiful English words.

There were more than 40 font types!

Every line was a novel font with the same sentence: “Grandpa Brown, welcome to the Empire again with Miss Susanna.”

Among them, there was even a particularly difficult “Gothic” character!

Chapter 1113: Shocking Magic!

Not to mention the little packrat, even Susanna, who was born in Country M, probably only knew one or two types of handwriting!

On the other hand, the little packrat’s handwriting was smooth and natural. It was not the kind of handwriting that was imitated at the last minute at all. It was obvious that he was well-versed in calligraphy.

This was awesome.

It was amazing that a foreign child could master the handwriting of Country M to such an expert level!

Just as Professor Brown was feeling surprised, Susanna also exclaimed, “This is... a thousand-year-old amber stone?”

The little packrat handed her a necklace. The pendant on it was like a cat’s eye, glowing with a brownish-gold light and emitting a faint natural amber fragrance.

Gu Qiqi smiled and nodded. “Yes, it seems that Miss Susanna knows a lot about stones.”

Girls were more or less familiar with the common expensive stones.

The reason why Susanna sighed was because the color showed that the amber was obviously very expensive. She had never expected that the greeting gift from Gu Qiqi and the little packrat would be so valuable.

Professor Brown rubbed his hands in embarrassment. “Doctor Gu, your gift is so expensive, but my meal is so simple. I’m really embarrassed and don’t know what to do...”

Gu Qiqi’s lips curled up slightly as she smiled. “No, your soup is seahorse soup. There are also rare North American oysters in the main dish. There’s whale agar in the dessert... These are all rare ingredients.”

Professor Brown’s expression changed slightly.

However, seeing that Gu Qiqi was just saying it and not doing anything else, he felt relieved and suggested, “Oh, I almost forgot. I’ve already agreed to let you visit my collection room. Since you’re already here, you can’t let you return empty-handed. How about this, the little boy? Grandpa and Auntie Susanna will also give you two gifts. You can choose whatever you want!”

The boy tilted his head. "That depends on whether I really like your gift."

Professor Brown laughed out loud. "Of course! It's definitely... a gift that can't be seen outside."

The little boy nodded happily. "Okay. Where's your collection room?"

Professor Brown smiled.

He clapped his hands.

"Whoosh—!" The female servant immediately pulled open the heavy purple and red curtains in front of the dining room window.

The cold moonlight outside instantly poured in.

Outside the window was the dried branches of the parasol tree. There was even an especially black crow perched on it, staring coldly into the dining room.

Gu Qiqi raised her eyebrows. "The collection room is outside?"

Professor Brown smiled mysteriously. "No, it's right here. Just take a step forward."

Go forward?

Gu Qiqi looked at the large number of transparent glass windows and the black crows outside.

Any further and she would hit the glass!

However, in the next second, a strong force attacked from behind Gu Qiqi and the little packrat.

Both of them couldn't help but fall forward!

It was as if they had been bewitched!

At this moment.

Behind the bushes more than ten meters away from the villa, the bodyguard in charge of monitoring loosened his shoulders and moved his fingers when he heard Gu Qiqi and Professor Brown bidding farewell. "Brothers, prepare to retreat. Young Lady Qiqi is coming out..."

However, just as they finished speaking, they heard Professor Brown invite them to visit the collection room. The bodyguard then gestured to his companions. "Wait a minute, they're even going to look at a collection room... Eh? We came to scout last night, so why haven't we seen a collection room here?... Oh, foreigners might call the room differently from us. Perhaps they mean the library or study?"

Chapter 1114: Gu Qiqi, That Useless Woman!

"Maybe! After all, we turned this place upside down last night. We even drew a map for Young Lady Qiqi."

As the bodyguards spoke, they couldn't help but curse inwardly.

“Hey, what do you think Master Jue likes about Young Lady Qiqi? Is it her beauty? I admit that Young Lady Qiqi is very beautiful, but I always thought that Master Jue liked girls with strength. I didn’t expect her to become part of the Appearance Association.”

“Actually, Young Miss Qiqi is also capable. Don’t you know that she’s a famous doctor? She just won some competition.”

“What’s the use of doctors for rough men like us! We need tough women!”

“It’s not that we need a tough woman, but that Master Jue needs a tough woman who’s on par with him!”

“That’s right. At least she won’t be a burden to him and won’t have to rely on others to protect her, right?”

“She looks so delicate and weak. I’m afraid Master Jue will have a headache in the future. He even had to send so many people to ambush and protect her when she came out to attend a banquet. If she really becomes the mistress in the future, so many enemies will wait for an opportunity to assassinate her. Could it be that she doesn’t dare to go out and meet anyone?”

“I can’t accept such a useless woman as the mistress of the household...”

“I’m not convinced either!”

“Sigh, who asked Master Jue to like her?”

“Alright, stop talking nonsense. The mission will be over soon. Everyone, cheer up and stop gossiping!”

The bodyguards muttered for a while before continuing to stand by.

Anyway, the collection room probably wouldn’t be very big. Gu Qiqi should come out after taking a look for a few minutes.

Gu Qiqi and Professor Brown’s voices continued to sound from the surveillance equipment, as if they were still talking about the Ghost Island...

= =

In the villa!

Gu Qiqi’s vision darkened as if she had fallen into a confined space!

She immediately grabbed the little packrat’s hand tightly.

She pressed the GPS and sent out an alarm!

She knew that Gong Jue had sent bodyguards outside. If the alarm was raised, the people outside would definitely rush in. It wouldn’t even take three seconds.

Yet.

She was shocked to realize that the alarm couldn’t be sent.

The signal was blocked.

She frowned and was wondering if there was any other way to contact the outside world when her eyes lit up!

A dark room was revealed.

The room was long and narrow, and she had no idea how deep it went. It led all the way down, and on both sides had carefully protected collections under glass covers.

Meanwhile, Professor Brown and Susanna stood in front of her with smiles on their faces. "I'm sorry, did we scare you? I've already introduced it to you just now. Those who can receive an invitation from the Great Pharmacist Guild are all pharmacists with superpowers, and I'm no exception. Therefore, that glass window just now was actually just a small illusion. It's actually the entrance to our family's collection room. We've set up a magic password that outsiders can't enter."

Of course, they couldn't get out easily either.

Gu Qiqi calmed herself down and said calmly, "It seems that the things you have here must be very valuable."

Professor Brown laughed. "Fortunately, I don't know if they are worth anything, but they must be rare. Let's go, I'll show you around!"

Gu Qiqi followed him calmly, her palm still tightly gripping the little packrat.

The little packrat's expression did not change either. It was completely unlike an ordinary child who would panic and be afraid when faced with an extraordinary change.

Instead, she took the initiative to ask Susanna, "Are you saying that I can choose any of the exhibits here?"

The veins on Susanna's forehead throbbed. "Yeah, whatever!"

Professor Brown narrowed his eyes. "Suzanne, why aren't you introducing the exhibits to the guests?"

Susanna agreed, pointing casually to the nearest glass cover. "Inside, there's the body of a two-headed child..."

Chapter 1115: Doctor Gu, Are You Afraid?

A two-headed child's corpse...

There was something particularly eerie about such a horrifying phrase coming from a delicate little girl like Susanna.

For some reason, perhaps it was because the light was shining down from above, but Susanna's expression looked especially strange. It was as if there was a layer of oil on her face as she looked at Gu Qiqi and the little packrat.

The glass cover she was pointing at was creepy—it was really a specimen of a baby's body. No kidding!

However, it was not an ordinary baby, but a deformed baby with two heads.

The corpse's belly was puffed up, and its limbs were secured to the boards. Its eye sockets were empty, and it looked bone chilling.

Gu Qiqi remained calm and collected. She glanced at it hurriedly before pulling the little packrat's hand away, in case he had trauma from looking at it. "I didn't expect Professor Brown's favorite collection to have such a thing."

Susanna chuckled. "Doctor Gu, you don't have the prejudices of those vulgar people outside, do you? You're a doctor too, you know. These specimens are so precious and difficult to collect."

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

It was indeed quite precious. It was simply rare in the world.

However, wasn't it a little abnormal to collect such things?

As far as the eye could see, it turned out that all the glass covers were filled with babies!

Dried baby specimens!!!

However, they were not normal babies. Instead, they were babies with various flaws like the two-headed child's corpse.

Some were intersex babies with characteristics of both boys and girls.

Some were big-headed babies, whose bodies were less than half the length of their heads.

Some of them were long-haired babies covered in thick fur like monkeys...

They were all deformed.

"Doctor Gu, are you afraid?" Susanna suddenly approached Gu Qiqi and blew on the back of her neck as she giggled.

Gu Qiqi said calmly, "There's nothing to be afraid of. Didn't you say that I'm also a doctor? I've attended countless anatomy classes and touched countless corpses with my hands. Why would I be afraid of taking a look? However, when I see these children, I feel a little sad for them."

It was fine if they were unable to grow up like normal babies.

They still had to be made into a specimen collection after death.

They could not rest in peace.

Her heart ached a little for them.

The little packrat also sighed with Gu Qiqi. "Sigh, I feel that they're so lonely. The houses they live in are all dark and gloomy."

At this moment, as Professor Brown led the way, Gu Qiqi and the little packrat realized that there was no light in this secret room. There weren't even windows.

It was pitch-black in front of him, extending all the way forward. He didn't know how far or how deep!

This secret room was completely missing from the map!

Gu Qiqi frowned.

Not only was it not on the map at all, but logically speaking, the villa should not be so big and long.

Even if it was a basement, it shouldn't have been dug so deep.

So... what exactly was this place?

Susanna was still tirelessly introducing the specimens. The deeper they went, the stranger they became. In fact, they were no longer baby corpses, but organs, soaked in formalin solution.

Of course, they were also organs that were deformed or disabled.

Gu Qiqi's grip on the little packrat tightened.

On the other hand, the little packrat was still calm. It did not panic at all because of these terrifying things in front of him.

Gu Qiqi couldn't help but praise him in her heart. As expected of Gong Jue's son. He had a unique aura!

Chapter 1116: Make a Child's Specimen! Drain All Her Blood!

After walking for an unknown distance, Professor Brown suddenly stopped in his tracks. He turned around and asked the little packrat with a smile, "Baby, do you like anything that Susanna introduced to you just now? I'll give it to you."

The boy shook his head. "No. I don't like deformed things."

Professor Brown narrowed his eyes. "That's a pity... I don't have anything normal here. However, I now think that it's not bad to have a normal thing here. There are two empty places here, and one is just right for a normal child's corpse..."

He pointed to the left wall.

There was a glass cover that was more than a meter tall. It was indeed just enough to accommodate the dried corpse of a three-year-old child.

A normal three-year-old child.

The little boy blinked her big eyes. "Aren't you going back to America soon? You don't have time to look at it even if it's here. What's the use?"

Professor Brown smiled. "I'm a visiting scholar that travels all over the world. I come to the Empire to teach every year. It's enough for me to come back once or twice a year to see you."

Gu Qiqi's pupils constricted!

She pulled the little packrat behind her. "Since Professor Brown comes back once or twice a year, we still have a lot of opportunities to meet. I'll take my leave today. We'll talk when you come back next time!"

Professor Brown smiled and pointed at the empty glass cover on the right wall. "Don't be anxious. I haven't introduced you to the last empty spot. Susanna, pull the red."

That glass cover was different from the others. It was covered with a red cloth.

At this moment, he pulled it open!

There was a large beaker filled with mercury!

The black words showed that the capacity of this large beaker was... 4,000 milliliters!

"Doctor Gu, do you know what this is specially used for?" The smile on Susanna's face became even brighter. She looked at Gu Qiqi with an infatuated gaze, as if she was about to see through her veins.

Gu Qiqi shook her head calmly. "I don't know."

"Hehe, then I'll explain it to you. You're a doctor. You should know how much all the blood in a person's body adds up to, right?"

"An adult, about four thousand milliliters."

"That's right! So, our last collection is used to collect blood. But it's a pity that we haven't found any suitable blood for our collection for so many years!"

"Hehe." Gu Qiqi smiled faintly.

The little packrat's expression did not change either!

Susanna and Professor Brown were puzzled. "At this point, don't you think it's scary?"

"What's there to be afraid of?" Gu Qiqi asked.

Professor Brown said, "Do you still not understand why I brought you to the collection room?"

Gu Qiqi raised her chin and said in an imposing manner, "Didn't you bring my little boy here to choose a gift?"

The little packrat was even more self-righteous. "It's not good for adults to lie. Grandpa, you said that you would give me two gifts and let me choose them myself!"

Professor Brown was speechless.

Susanna said nothing.

They had seen brave people who were not afraid of death, but she had never seen such a bold woman and child who were not afraid of death!!!

Could it be that this brat was really not afraid that they would suck his blood dry?!

Professor Brown suddenly felt a little frustrated. He frowned and ordered Susanna, "Do it! They have people outside. There'll be trouble if we wait!"

Susanna nodded and looked at Gu Qiqi with fervent eyes. At some point, a weapon had appeared in her hand!

It was a ball of extremely soft heavenly silk!

With a wave of her hand, before anyone could see how she moved, the ball of heavenly silk enveloped Gu Qiqi and the little packrat like an inescapable net!

Chapter 1117: Exposing Her True Colors

Heavenly Silk!

It was extremely transparent and flexible!

Usually, a gram of expensive evening gown material was worth a thousand yuan. Now, Susanna was actually able to throw out such an inescapable net of heavenly silk. It could be seen how valuable this weapon was!

Was she really just an ignorant young girl?

Of course not!

Seeing that Gu Qiqi and the little packrat had been caught off guard and were trapped firmly in the net, Susanna finally tore off her adorable outerwear.

She looked up at the sky and laughed. “Hahaha, Kun Bu, I thought there was something special about these two fellows. I didn’t expect them to be just two weak chickens. They made me have to spend so much effort to eat with them, chat with them, and act like a fangirl. I’m so tired!”

She flexed her wrists and instantly turned into a devilish little delinquent, not the delicate daughter of a professor...

However, Professor Brown still maintained his composure as an old professor and didn’t change his looks easily. He said slowly, “It’s always good to be safe. What if Gong Jue’s men rushed in just now? We can kill ten of them, but what if we have to kill hundreds or thousands? Do you know how many people Gong Jue sent to protect these two weaklings?”

“How many?”

“A division!”

“Gosh, that would mean close to ten thousand people, wouldn’t it?”

“Exactly.”

“Is he crazy?”

“Hehe, if I hadn’t deliberately exposed that secret laboratory base in the Hanbei Ridge to him, how could I have had the chance to lure that lunatic away?”

“Kun Bu, you’re brilliant!”

“Su Su, you’ve cooperated well too! When we get back, I’ll mention your performance to General Teuton and give you credit!”

The two of them chatted wantonly, as if they completely ignored Gu Qiqi and the little packrat's existence.

Kun Bu!

Su Su!

Gu Qiqi's pupils shrank.

Indeed!

These two people were not the daughter and professor from Country M at all.

These two names were the names of the people on the S Nation's expert rankings that Gong Jue had once shown her.

Kun Bu! The number one expert in S Nation. He had once pretended to be defeated by Gong Jue and disappeared for several years!

Su Su! Fourth on the S Nation's expert rankings, second only to the former Fu Mao and Ring A.

They were a fake father and daughter.

They were spies!!!

Gu Qiqi's eyes turned cold. Suddenly, she said, "So, the person who kidnapped the little boy that day was also you, Kun Bu, right? The person who tried to sneak an attack on the little boy at the hospital was you, Su Su, because you pretended to be sick that day and sneaked in! Also, it was a pity that you failed to shoot the little boy at the competition venue. The one who hit Chu Junmo was also one of you!"

Professor Brown clapped his hands. "You're very smart. Unfortunately, it's too late. You and Gong Jue's son will become the last two perfect exhibits in my exhibition hall!"

Susanna was even more smug. "Kun Bu, let me take the blood first! After all, I fell in love with her... blood the moment I saw her!"

Not only was Su Su an expert among assassins, but she was also a blood expert in S Nation. She had devoted her life to researching blood poison and rejuvenating techniques.

Legend has it that she had to drink a liter of child's blood every day to keep her skin as clean and flawless as an 18-year-old girl!

No wonder she had taken a fancy to Gu Qiqi's blood and the little packrat's blood.

The little packrat's blood allowed her to maintain her beauty and the poison in Gu Qiqi's blood fascinated her!

She had used the heavenly silk weapon to prevent Gu Qiqi's blood from suddenly splashing and releasing poison!

Professor Brown nodded in agreement. "Alright. After taking the blood, leave some for me! I still have important uses..."

Chapter 1118: Bloodless Pain

“Shouldn’t it be handed directly to General Teutonic?”

“No, I’m going to save some for when I go to the gathering at the Great Pharmacist Guild.”

“Why?”

“Do you think it’s that easy to enter the Great Pharmacist Guild? Of course, I have to bring a greeting gift and this brat’s blood is the best greeting gift! I believe many great pharmacists who make poison will be interested!”

Professor Brown narrowed his eyes and sized Gu Qiqi up with interest. “I can’t wait to see her drained of blood. Unfortunately, I don’t collect women’s corpses...”

Susanna said, “We can leave a little blood. Store it all in a glass bottle and inject it into her womb with various fertilized eggs you’ve stored. Let her give birth to all kinds of babies that can be used as specimens for you... Ah!!!”

Susanna was enthusiastically making perverted suggestions.

Unexpectedly, there was a sudden pain in her main spine. She fell to the ground and struggled as if she had a cramp.

“What’s going on?” When Professor Brown saw Susanna’s abnormality, he immediately looked at Gu Qiqi and pulled out his pistol warily!

However, Gu Qiqi and the little packrat were still trapped in the net, unable to move at all.

These two didn’t do it.

That meant something had happened to Susanna herself.

Professor Brown put away his pistol and quickly walked over to Susanna. He crouched down to check on her. “You didn’t drink your blood today? Are you having a relapse?”

Susannah was strangling herself painfully, as if something terrible were biting into her neck, and her face was purple and red. She was clearly in a state of asphyxiation.

Professor Brown frowned. “Wait, I’ll get you an oxygen machine!”

Although he was very annoyed that Susanna had actually dropped the ball at the critical moment, she was still his only trusted subordinate in the empire now. He could not allow her to cause any trouble.

Professor Brown was about to leave.

Suddenly, he also strangled himself!

An unbearable pain in the back of his neck made him stagger.

He lasted five seconds longer than Susannah.

However, five seconds later, his fat body collapsed!

In the next second, he suddenly turned around and looked at Gu Qiqi and the little packrat with a sinister gaze.

His usually kind face was gone!

“You... you guys did something...” He could barely get the words out of his throat. It burned.

At this moment, he truly felt how much pain Susanna was in.

It turned out that her throat felt like it had been pierced by a hot steel wire, and there was no blood!

However, there were no enemies or weapons around him.

What the hell? What the hell had attacked him?

How could Gu Qiqi and Gong Jue’s stupid son have such strength?

Just as Professor Brown was in disbelief, Gu Qiqi finally moved.

She held the little packrat’s hand and gently shook her shoulders.

“Hiss—!”

The heavenly silk that was as hard as iron on his body actually shattered just like that... It shattered all over the ground!

Susanna, who was rolling around on the ground in pain, was so shocked that her eyes almost popped out.

How was that possible?

This was clearly the strongest weapon in the world. Even if it was opened with a machine, it could only open a crack. It was definitely impossible to shatter!

In Gu Qiqi’s palm, the little dirty turtle had just climbed up when it smacked its lips. “Oh, I’m just a little bit away from leveling up. I just want to eat more of this golden stuff!”

It burped happily, with a bit of unfinished heavenly silk hanging by its lips!

Chapter 1119: Terrifying Woman! Terrifying Child!

If anyone looked carefully at this moment, they would be able to see that there was a hint of emerald green in its golden shell! It was about to break through to the green level!

Professor Brown’s pupils constricted!

Could it be that this dead bug had bitten him and Susanna?

But that wasn’t right. His throat was still burning!

What the hell was it?

Gu Qiqi actually dared to take the initiative to attack them. Could it be that she had already suspected them before the banquet?

Gu Qiqi sneered. "I'll return that sentence to you. You're very smart. Unfortunately, it's too late! Little boy, let Brother Yun raise the temperature a little. I realized that he can still speak. Isn't his mouth burning enough?"

The little packrat replied calmly, "Yes, Big Sister!"

Professor Brown's eyes widened!

What, this little brat was attacking them too?

And who the hell was Brother Yun?

In the next second, he finally saw a wire as thin as a strand of hair shoot out of Susanna's throat!

There was no blood, but it emerged from Susannah's throat!

There was even a wisp of hot smoke. It was obvious how high the temperature on the wire was.

How could Susanna have a wire in her throat? It made no sense. Professor Brown looked at her again.

This glance almost scared Professor Brown out of his wits.

He saw a mini robot extending its arm and controlling the steel wire. Meanwhile, the steel wire controlled by the other arm suddenly exerted strength and pierced through his throat!

"Ah—hohoho..."

He could no longer utter a complete sentence.

His weak throat was pierced and burned. This was simply torture!

Gu Qiqi shook her head regretfully. "I'm really sorry. Brother Yun's design isn't perfect enough. He only has one fatal move now, which is to stab your throats. It's a little ugly to let you die like this. Actually, this doesn't match my aesthetic taste. If I were to do it myself, I would definitely use a scalpel to perform a full autopsy on you. I would remove all your parts and place them one by one before stuffing them into the coffin. It would be more beautiful."

Gu Qiqi said calmly, but when Professor Brown and Susanna heard this, they were almost frightened out of their wits.

This was really the most terrifying apology they had ever heard.

They thought that their taste was already very abnormal, but they did not expect that Doctor Gu's "appreciation of beauty" would actually be even more shocking. She was hinting that she wanted to dissect them completely and turn all their organs into specimens to be stuffed into coffins!

However, the three-year-old child beside her echoed, "Big Sister, I support you. Their collection was so strange just now. It seems that they also like strange endings. Just satisfy them."

Professor Brown was speechless.

Susanna said nothing.

They had a collection of weirdos, but that didn't mean that they wanted to become weirdos!

In the next second, the little packrat's words were even more shocking. "By the way, didn't they ask me to choose two gifts? Then let's make them into something like the previous ones and place them here as gifts. I don't think we can just have specimens for children. Without adults, it won't be complete."

Professor Brown was speechless.

Susanna said nothing.

Was it really good for children to be so violent?!

At this moment, Professor Brown and Susanna also completely understood that the two of them had been pretending to be weak all along.

If they hadn't been prepared, how could they have hit their target so accurately?

They had actually released a robot and a small insect to attack them when they had completely let their guard down!

Seeing that Professor Brown's teeth were grinding, Gu Qiqi smiled. "Do you really want to know how I saw through the two of you? Do you also want to know how I'll deal with you?"

Chapter 1120: Scheming Little Packrat

Professor Brown's throat made cracking sounds, and he let out muffled and broken syllables. "How... do... you... know..."

Gu Qiqi smiled faintly. "From the moment you insisted on performing the surgery on the little packrat in the competition, I already felt that you were abnormal. Later on, you invited me and the little packrat to the banquet several times. Coincidentally, before the banquet started, Gong Jue was transferred away by an emergency... Why did all of this seem so familiar like the scene in the children's park? It was like a diversion!"

Professor Brown's throat froze!

He wished that he could go back in time and make it even more hidden and perfect so that Gu Qiqi wouldn't be able to sense anything!

His dry lips moved. "Since... you... know... why... you still... came..."

Gu Qiqi narrowed her eyes and turned to the little packrat. "Baby, tell him."

The little packrat said in a childish voice, "My Big Sister is kind-hearted and can't bear to see you guys work so hard for nothing. If we don't come, wouldn't you be waiting foolishly?"

Professor Brown almost vomited blood!

The steel wire had only pierced his throat, but this brat's words had pierced his glass heart!

If Gu Qiqi was a cunning person who hid her abilities well, then what was going on with this three-year-old child?

Why was he so bold and scheming in the face of danger!

The little packrat blinked its big eyes and said, "Sigh, you're really too silly. Can you be more careful next time you pretend to be someone else? Look at you. You're clearly a great medicine master who's well-read and can understand ancient medical books, but you can't even read the greeting card I gave you. Among my dozens of English congratulatory words, other than the first one being a blessing for you, the rest are 'Professor Brown is a big idiot,' 'Professor Brown is a stupid pig,' and 'Professor Brown is an old fool'... Why are you still praising me foolishly? Do you think my description of you is very appropriate?"

"You...!" Professor Brown was so angry that his eyes were about to pop out.

He was originally the number one killer in S Nation and was not from M Nation at all.

After killing Professor Brown, he had specially learned English for half a year before training his accent to perfection.

Who knew that the little packrat would actually use dozens of fancy English fonts, including especially difficult ancient fonts, to test him!

How did he know that there was a trap inside?

That old man Brown actually had such knowledge but actually didn't know!

He really, innocently, thought that those words were a three-year-old child's thank-you letter!!!

Damn it, he was too naive!

However, there was more to come.

The little packrat continued to speak clearly and proudly, "Also, the poison in your food is really child's play. My Big Sister has long seen through it and made me take a poison-repelling pill. I have to say, other than the fact that it's poisonous, your food is not bad. It's just that you should put less soy sauce in it. If there's too much soy sauce, the food will seem tasteless!"

Tears streamed down Professor Brown's face.

Now, even his chef's food was despised...

The most heart-wrenching blow came from the little packrat's final summary. "Old man, I have to remind you kindly that your disguise is really too lousy. You're just a thin person, but you've already made yourself into a fatty. You've even changed your face. Don't you know how to change the smell on your body? When you captured me back then, you smelled like bitter medicine. Now, you still smell like this bitter medicine. It's very difficult for me to pretend not to recognize you!"
