

Dear Chief 1181

Chapter 1181: He Didn't Want to Get Married

Bei Mingtian's eyelids twitched. In front of Gu Qiqi, he simply didn't have the dignity of a senior brother.

Xiao Tian?

He wasn't small at all, okay?!

He held his breath. He was not good with words to begin with and now, he was even more silent with a cold expression.

On the other hand, Qiu Qiu grinned and winked at Gu Qiqi. "Master, exams are nothing. Senior Brother is rushing home to get married. The bride can't wait..."

The bride?

Gu Qiqi was very surprised.

Bei Mingtian was so cold. Whose daughter was so unlucky to marry him?

She chuckled and teased, "Senior Brother Tiantian, you're only two years older than us, yet you're already getting married? Is it because the bride is as beautiful as a flower and you're afraid that you can't wait to marry her?"

Bei Mingtian's face turned green. He said, "No!"

No?

What kind of answer was that?

Did he mean that the bride was not beautiful? Or did he not want to marry her?

Watching Bei Mingtian's back view disappear into the distance, Gu Qiqi couldn't help but shout, "Senior Brother Xiao Tian, remember to bring back wedding candy..."

Bei Mingtian staggered.

Could she stop giving him the last hit!

In particular, the person who had added fuel to the fire was Gu Qiqi. His feelings were even more complicated.

He did not want to get married!

Gu Qiqi didn't take Bei Mingtian's marriage to heart.

Soon, she would have something to worry about.

After a few days of crazy growth, the color points indeed slowed down.

This was because everything was as she had expected. Bai Lang's publicity campaign had been done very well. Unfortunately, his production capabilities could not keep up.

It wasn't that easy to make a facial mask.

The mixing and packaging of medicinal herbs required time and 100% quality assurance. Therefore, the inspection was especially strict.

As for the pharmaceutical factory that Bai Lang had signed with, it was also the first time they were doing medicinal makeup. They did not expect Young Master Ye's facial mask to be so popular.

The first batch of products was only 10,000 pieces.

They had thought that it would take at least a month to sell them.

In the end...

In a day, it was all gone.

The pharmaceutical factory was dumbfounded. They had added 10 production lines and worked day and night. Almost every day, they shipped tens of thousands of goods.

Unfortunately, it still could not satisfy the needs of the market.

Bai Lang stomped his feet anxiously. The sales effect of the advertisement was quite shocking. The sales volume could reach at least tens of millions.

Unfortunately, there was a limit to their production capacity. They could only sell for tens of thousands a day...

This gap was a thousand times.

There were so many customers who couldn't buy masks, so they couldn't really experience the power of masks. Naturally, their interest in the masks wouldn't last long.

As soon as the customers' interest shifted, the hype would decrease.

With that, the growth of the color points slowed down.

However, Gu Qiqi needed a large number of color points to break through to the green level.

Every day, the little dirty turtle would sigh and count the color points. "Sob... Another 10 million will be enough..."

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

In the past, it was difficult to increase 1,000 color points.

Now, this fellow was asking for so much!

The little dirty turtle sighed and blinked its small eyes. It carefully pretended to snort casually. "10 million isn't much, but it's not little either. Hmm... If Master Jue is here, just have intimate contact. It won't take long..."

As Gu Qiqi listened, she couldn't help but wonder how many times she had to be intimate with Gong Jue to gather 10 million...

It seemed like... 100 times?

If they had it ten times a day, won't that take ten days?

Cough, cough, cough!

Damn it, why had she even considered such an immoral question?

She had definitely been led astray by the little dirty turtle!

Chapter 1182: You Want Me to Steal It?

Gu Qiqi blushed. Stop!

No matter how difficult it was to collect color points, she did not want to sell her integrity!

Besides... even if she sold her integrity, she wouldn't be able to gather all the color points in ten days. After all, doing such embarrassing things ten times in a day wasn't a frequency that humans could achieve, right?

Of course, in the future, when she really interacted intimately with Gong Jue, she would know that ten times was nothing. Gong Jue was very powerful!

10 million color points stumped Gu Qiqi.

The Great Pharmacist Guild could open at any time. Before that, she had to gather 10 million color points and advance to the Green level. Only then would she have the confidence to go to the Ghost Island alone to find medicine for Xiaobei.

Time was running out...

"Master, actually, there's another way..." The little dirty turtle's small eyes darted around.

Gu Qiqi said in a low voice, "If it's about Gong Jue, you can shut up."

The little dirty turtle shook its head vigorously. "No, no. Master, this method is very pure!"

"Speak."

"Haven't you been feeding me precious stones? Actually, there's a type of stone that's especially helpful for us to advance to the Green level. If I eat it, I'll definitely advance rapidly."

"Continue!" Gu Qiqi's eyes lit up.

Precious stones. She was good at this.

"A green Tridacna," said the little dirty turtle.

"Green ones? I've only seen white, gold, and red ones. Where are the green ones?" Gu Qiqi frowned.

A Tridacna was a deep-sea shellfish.

After it turned into a precious stone, it became a type of stone that had been popular since ancient times.

Natural Tridacna was rare, and the most expensive were golden and blood red Tridacna.

As for green Tridacna, she had never seen it on the market.

However, the little dirty turtle said affirmatively, "Yes. The green Tridacna is only produced in small quantities in the inland sea of Country H. It's a national treasure of Country H and can only be found once or twice in decades. In recent years, it has been listed as an endangered species, which is why there are no green Tridacna in the world."

Gu Qiqi said, "Then we'll entrust Dige to issue a black market bounty. As long as we can afford it, we'll be able to buy it."

The little dirty turtle shook its head fiercely. "I've checked the information. The green Tridacna is not allowed to be exported at all. You can't buy it even if you have money..."

A hint of worry flashed across Gu Qiqi's brows.

The little dirty turtle quickly suggested, "But the royal family of Country H must have a collection of Green Tridacna!"

However... since it was in the royal collection and the royal family did not lack money, they definitely would not sell it.

Gu Qiqi raised her eyebrows. "You want me to go to the royal family of Country H to... steal it?"

The little dirty turtle blushed. "Master Silver, don't say that it's so unpleasant. Cough, cough, cough. We're just going to have a taste!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

To increase its level, it definitely had to eat all of them. How could it be as simple as tasting them?

Don't try to fool her.

The little dirty turtle blinked eagerly. "Master Silver, this is the last method! The fastest way to see results. We'll just have a taste. At most, we'll give them other compensation..."

Gu Qiqi had a headache.

It was found in the royal family.

What else was there that the royal family did not have and needed to make a deal with a commoner like her?

Her head ached all night.

Gu Qiqi really had no other choice but to try her luck.

"To Country H!"

She made her decision.

Let's take it one step at a time.

Taking advantage of the fact that Gong Jue's matter wasn't over yet and that there was still a week before the final examination, she wanted to end this quickly and obtain the Tridacna!

But there was another problem.

This was the first time in her life that she had gone overseas.

She did not even have a passport.

If Gong Jue was around, he might have been able to help her settle everything.

But now... while the grass grows the horse starves.

What should she do?

Chapter 1183: Don't Provoke the Royal Family

When Gu Qiqi found Chu Junmo, she felt very guilty.

This man had helped her so many times, but she always seemed to bring him trouble.

However, now that Gong Jue wasn't around, she couldn't think of anyone else in the entire capital who had the authority to settle her passport in a day.

Contrary to her guilt, Chu Junmo followed through without a word.

In less than half an hour.

The completed procedures, a proper passport, and even Country H's entry visa were all settled for her.

Gu Qiqi held the reddish-brown passport and sighed with emotion.

"Brother Chu, thank you! To be honest, my goal is to find medicine for my brother, Xiaobei. I know that your heart has always been weak, and you were shot some time ago. If everything goes well this time, I have a chance to attend the higher-level Great Pharmacist Guild Conference and find medicine that ordinary people can't see in this world. I promise here that once I have this chance, I will not only find medicine for Xiaobei, but also for you!"

She felt that she owed Chu Junmo too much and could not repay him.

This trip to the Great Pharmacist Guild was a good opportunity to repay him.

If Chu Junmo and Xiaobei could both be cured, then everyone would be happy.

Yet.

Upon hearing Gu Qiqi's solemn promise, Chu Junmo's expression became even more solemn instead of feeling joy.

His wounds have not healed yet, and he was half lying on the carved elderwood couch, with a quilt embroidered with a dragon pattern using golden thread, flowing clouds and bats below his chest.

Hearing this, he propped himself up slightly. "Qiqi, I don't want you to work hard to find medicine for me."

Why did she always want to repay him?

Why did she calculate things so clearly with him?

God knew he wished she owed him as much as possible.

Only then would there be a bond between them that would never be severed.

Gu Qiqi shook her head. "It's not hard at all! Big Brother Chu, if I can find something important in Country H this time, it won't be hard at all for me to go to the Great Pharmacist Guild Conference. It'll be very easy!"

She reassured him.

Chu Junmo was an experienced person. How could he be fooled with just a few words?

He said in a low voice, "Qiqi, can I go with you after my stitches are removed in two days?"

Gu Qiqi shook her head vigorously. "No need, no need! It's just taking something. There's no need to go through so much trouble!"

Cough, cough, cough. It was better not to let the pure Brother Chu know that she was there to "steal" something.

Chu Junmo closed his eyes. He only hated that his body was recovering too slowly and he couldn't travel with Gu Qiqi.

Fortunately, security in Country H was good, so she didn't have to worry too much about Gu Qiqi's safety.

"Qiqi, Country H is different from our empire. It's a succession system. As long as you don't approach the palace in Country H, you'll be very safe."

"Fortunately, the people of Country H are very warm and friendly. Chinese is also very popular there, so communication is not a problem. Our Chu Corporation also has a pharmacy there. If you encounter any difficulties, you can directly report my name and ask for help."

"But remember, the palace is heavily guarded and very strict. There are many experts. Don't provoke the royal family."

"Country H's laws are strict. Anyone who disrespects the royal family will be beheaded!!!"

Chu Junmo was like an elder brother but also like a father. He lectured her earnestly, afraid that Gu Qiqi would encounter trouble on her first trip abroad.

Gu Qiqi could only nod and agree.

Except...

It seemed that she was going to disappoint Chu Junmo.

She was going to the palace on this trip!

Only in the palace could there be green Tridacna!

After Gu Qiqi bade farewell, Chu Junmo couldn't help but recall every second and every word he had said to Gu Qiqi.

It was as if such a recollection was also a great blessing.

It made his usually calm face and cold lines soften a little and smile.

Yet.

A few minutes later.

His smile suddenly froze!

What did Gu Qiqi just say? The Great Pharmacist Guild Conference?!

Chapter 1184: The Prince Is Getting Married

Chu Junmo's expression changed.

He suddenly combined the Great Pharmacist Guild Conference that Gu Qiqi had mentioned with a certain tragic memory in his memory.

Was Qiqi talking about... that mysterious gathering of the Great Pharmacist Guild?

How had she known there were such terrible gatherings in the world?

Did she know how much bloodshed was hidden in that gathering?

He quickly called Gu Qiqi.

However, Gu Qiqi had already turned off her phone.

He suppressed his violent heartbeat. His fragile heart seemed to be unable to withstand his deep worry at this moment, and his heartbeat had lost its rhythm.

Was it really that Great Pharmacist Guild Conference? But she couldn't enter without an invitation... Hopefully, he had heard wrongly!

Chu Junmo's heart pounded.

After thinking for a long time, he still decided to call Feng Yangchu. "Second Uncle, how did you get the invitation when you went to Ghost Island back then... Is it possible for the invitation to be sent to young people under the age of 20?"

On the other end of the call.

There was silence for a moment.

The old voice sounded ethereal. "Of course. The Ghost Island exists to select young and strong apothecaries."

"And if they fail?"

"Losers don't deserve to live!"

"But you—"

"So I shouldn't have lived... I should have died there..."

Chu Junmo's heart sank inch by inch as he listened to Feng Yangchu's piercing whispers.

Even a great medicine master like Fengyang Chu had been defeated on Ghost Island back then and almost lost his life. He didn't even use his surname anymore because of this. His name was written backward.

Wouldn't a young girl like Gu Qiqi be tortured to death if she went?

Chu Junmo became more and more worried.

Should he stop her at the airport now?

Chu Junmo remembered that Gu Qiqi had just said that she was going to Country H to pick up something and would be back to take the final exam in a week.

In other words, she wouldn't be leaving for Ghost Island so soon.

His eyes narrowed and he immediately instructed, "When Young Lady Qiqi returns from Country H and passes through customs, inform me immediately!"

He wanted to persuade her immediately to give up on going to the Ghost Island.

Country H Airport

As soon as she got off the plane, she was greeted by warm air and the fragrance of flowers.

Country H was the complete opposite of the Empire.

It was winter in the empire, and warm early summer in Country H.

This was the first time Gu Qiqi had gone overseas in her life.

However, she had no time to admire the beautiful scenery of Country H. As soon as she got off the plane, she booked a taxi and went straight to the palace.

The taxi driver was very talkative. Seeing that she was a foreign girl who had gone out alone, he was especially enthusiastic about introducing her to the famous sights and snacks of the capital of Country H.

Gu Qiqi listened absent-mindedly. When her gaze swept across the large number of red festive advertisements on the street, she casually asked, "Does your country like red very much? Why are the streets filled with it?"

The taxi driver burst out laughing. "Beauty, it's not that we like red, but there's been a joyous occasion in our country recently. Didn't you watch the live news at the airport?"

Gu Qiqi blushed with shame. "No."

Along the way, she had been thinking hard about how to kill her way into the palace and snatch the green Tridacna without spilling any blood.

What she was conflicted about was not how to snatch it.

She was more conflicted about how to compensate the family after snatching it away.

As a commoner, she did have a little money.

However, the royal family did not lack money. What precious things could she use to compensate for the stolen green Tridacna?

Seeing Gu Qiqi's confused expression, the taxi driver couldn't help but announce proudly, "Our country's little prince is getting married! That's why the entire country is red!"

Chapter 1185: Sneaking into the Palace

Gu Qiqi was not interested in other countries' princes' weddings.

Cough, even if the prince of the empire wanted to get married, she was not interested.

However, now that the topic had involved the prince, she could naturally ask about the palace.

At the thought of this, Gu Qiqi's eyes darted around. She sat up straight and asked nosily, "The prince's wedding? That means there's going to be a very grand wedding ceremony?"

The taxi driver smiled and said, "Of course! And this prince's wedding is different from every other prince's wedding in the past."

"But why?"

"This prince is the only heir. It's said that after the wedding, he's very likely to inherit the throne! Therefore, the wedding is especially grand!"

"Oh, oh! Then... will the wedding be held in the palace? Can commoners attend?"

"Of course! Our Country H's royal family is the most approachable. There are 100 spots for the wedding."

"Where do I enter the raffle?"

"Haha, young lady, are you interested too? But we've already drawn it. You didn't have a chance last night!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

She was depressed! A great opportunity to sneak into the palace was gone just like that!

Still...

The little dirty turtle reminded her, "Master Silver, we don't need a spot to enter the palace. Have you forgotten your new skill?"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Go invisible?

Only her clone could be invisible.

Forget it, she just had to blend in. It would be a good opportunity for her to see if the clone was useful.

Still...

"Why did I hear that the royal family of Country H is especially dignified and terrifying? They always behead people for no reason."

Gu Qiqi recalled Chu Junmo's warning.

The taxi driver was stunned for a moment before he laughed out loud. "How is that possible? Our royal family is very close to the people. The king likes to farm the most, and the Little Dancing Queen likes to broadcast herself live. The Eldest Princess is even an internationally famous designer! By the way, I heard that the person who's going to marry the Little Prince now is a delicate and beautiful woman. If our royal family is very scary, why would a beautiful woman dare to marry him?"

"Ahem, why is what you're saying completely different from what I've heard..." Gu Qiqi held her forehead.

The taxi driver scratched his head. Suddenly, he exclaimed and slapped his thigh. "I know. Perhaps you've heard of General Yu Ye? He's indeed a dignified general who protects the royal family. He's especially cold and lawless. If he sees anyone offending the royal family, he'll indeed bring out the most ancient royal ban. It's even possible for him to chop off your head! This is something that no one can stop. Even the court is useless, and foreigners are useless too! Be careful not to let him catch you disrespecting the royal family..."

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Why did it feel like Country H's style was a little chaotic?

The king likes farming, the queen likes live broadcasting, and the princess designs?

On the other hand, a general uses a made-up directive to chop off people's heads.

She wondered what kind of weirdo the prince who was getting married was.

= =

Gu Qiqi pretended to be the most ordinary tourist and stayed in a hostel outside the palace.

When she opened the window, she saw a magnificent palace opposite her

Light beams shone with golden light.

The little dirty turtle said enviously, "It must be very comfortable to live in such a palace. There's someone to serve you and help you arrange everything. You just have to eat when you wake up every day."

Gu Qiqi didn't think much of it. "I don't think it's interesting. No matter how luxurious the palace is, you'll only see the same ceiling when you raise your head."

In her eyes, being trapped in a gorgeous palace was no different from being trapped in operating rooms in her previous life.

She lowered her eyes and continued to calmly study the ancient map book of the palace...

At night.

She was about to sneak into the palace!

Chapter 1186: Being Chased and Bitten by a Dog

Gu Qiqi studied the map for the entire day in the hotel room. Outside the hotel room, it was lively for the entire day. People from all over the world had gathered to spontaneously prepare programs to celebrate the upcoming prince's wedding.

It was not until late at night that the crowd celebrating outside the palace gradually dispersed.

The moon was bright and the stars were few.

Gu Qiqi's true body stayed in the residence while her clone climbed up along an inconspicuous corner of the palace.

The guards guarding the city passed in front of her without being noticed at all.

Gu Qiqi couldn't help but smile. "The invisibility effect isn't bad."

She held the rope lightly and swung down the wall.

Everything was going well.

According to the ancient map, there was a treasure vault in the palace.

There were many traps inside.

She guessed that if there were green Tridacna in the palace, it would undoubtedly be the most appropriate place to store it.

However...

When she reached the Treasure Pavilion...

However, she realized that there was only a lush bamboo forest there.

The stars changed, and the world changed.

The current palace was already very different from the palace on the ancient map.

She had studied the mechanism techniques for so long for nothing. Unfortunately, it was no longer useful.

Gu Qiqi stood outside the bamboo forest gloomily and looked at the dense forest. She stomped her feet. “Is it possible that the Treasure Pavilion is underground?”

However, she quickly rejected this possibility.

The royal family wasn’t at Kun Bu’s level. There was no need to hide something in a dark basement. It was too out of character.

So where else would it be?

The palace was so large that it would take her forever to search every inch of it.

If only Gong Jue was here. He studied military maps of various countries all day long and had the sharpest eyes.

The moment the thought occurred.

Gu Qiqi was shocked.

Why was she thinking about relying on the stupid man again?

No, no, she had to work on her own.

Gong Jue was currently fighting on the battlefield against a powerful enemy of S Nation. How could she use such a small matter to waste his energy?

Gritting her teeth, Gu Qiqi left the bamboo forest, preparing to use the stupidest and safest method—search inch by inch...

However, before she could take two steps,

Suddenly, a cold shout came from behind. “Who is it?! Stop right there!”

Gu Qiqi was shocked.

Had he been discovered?

Instinctively she stopped and looked behind her.

Not far away, a cold-faced man in black armor walked over with a snow-white Tibetan mastiff.

No way. Had she really been discovered?

But that wasn’t right. Gu Qiqi looked down at herself. She was still invisible, like a wisp of wind floating in the air.

How could she be discovered?

But a second later, she understood.

The snow-white Tibetan mastiff bared its teeth and roared as it rushed over!

She was invisible, but her aura was still there.

On the other hand, dogs had such a sensitive sense of smell that they could detect the unfamiliar aura of strangers.

Damn it!

Gu Qiqi stomped her feet and turned around to return to the bamboo forest!

The bamboo forest was very dense, and she could move nimbly in stealth mode.

However, the huge Tibetan mastiff couldn't take it anymore and fell a few meters behind.

Gu Qiqi didn't dare to stop. She had to get rid of this dog.

Otherwise, the dog would bark wherever she went tonight. It would be too inconvenient for her to explore the place.

Gu Qiqi ran with all her might. After passing through the bamboo forest, an exquisite small building appeared in front of her!

Without thinking, she rushed upstairs.

Pray there's someone in the building!

As long as there was someone's aura and smell, the Tibetan Mastiff might not be able to tell her apart.

Besides, a Tibetan mastiff couldn't barge into a place with people, right?

In the blink of an eye, Gu Qiqi went upstairs.

But she had never expected that upstairs was actually...

Chapter 1187: An Unexpected Meeting With Him!

Gu Qiqi was dumbfounded. On the second floor of the bamboo forest bedroom, there was actually a huge bed!

Behind her, the Tibetan mastiff had already followed her and was barking non-stop.

Meanwhile, the gloomy man in black armor continued to chase after them.

She couldn't hide anymore. Seeing that the floor-to-ceiling window by the bed was open, she could only jump onto the bed and prepare to jump out of the window to buy more time to escape.

If everything went well and she jumped down, the Tibetan Mastiff and the armored man would be ten seconds behind her when they came down the stairs to chase her.

Perhaps she could shake them off!

But.

At such a critical moment.

An accident had happened.

Gu Qiqi pushed the window open.

Her body, which was supposed to “float” down, suddenly tripped on the window railing and fell onto the big bed.

“Ugh... Damn, it hurts!”

She had hit her knee and it hurt like hell.

No!

She was invisible now, so she wouldn't be tripped easily.

Even a fall wouldn't hurt so much.

She was in a “floating” state, alright?

At this moment of confusion, Gu Qiqi looked up and saw her own figure reflected in the glass window.

To be precise, it was a naked figure! She was naked!

“Ah—!” she screamed. Her first reaction was to pull the sheet up and wrap it around her.

Fortunately, the Tibetan Mastiff was big and strong enough to jump up and block the vision of the man in black armor behind. Otherwise, she would have been exposed.

Wait, the main point was, what if she couldn't hide?

“Little dirty turtle, come out and explain!”

“Cough, cough, cough! Master! This was an accident! My energy points were exhausted to the limit today... so the invisibility attribute disappeared and you returned to normal.”

“I asked you to explain why my clothes are missing!!!”

“Cough, cough, cough! Master, this is actually very easy to understand because you only have one set of clothes. The clothes you saw when you were invisible were just illusions. In fact, if the original body used them, this body wouldn't be able to use them... So after returning to normal, you wouldn't have any clothes on...”

Damn! Then every time she transformed into a shadow in the future, she had to prepare a set of clothes in advance?

It was too much.

“Why didn't this happen when I first activated this superpower that day?” Gu Qiqi was still depressed.

“You turned into a shadow for a few seconds that day and returned to your original body...”

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Why was it that the system kept forgetting to prompt her with vital information?

It was too late now.

She had actually revealed her true form and suddenly appeared in this palace.

One could only imagine the chaos that followed.

How could she explain that?

No, no, no. The main point was, what should she do with this big dog in front of her?

Was she really going to punch it to death and hurt a small animal?

Just as Gu Qiqi was feeling conflicted, the huge, snow-white Tibetan Mastiff, which was as tall as a person, suddenly placed its two front paws on the side of the bed. It lowered its body and let out a howl, wagging its tail at her!

Its shameless appearance was as flattering as it could be.

Gu Qiqi was stunned.

“What’s going on? Little dirty turtle, explain!”

“Cough, cough, cough. Master, I just released my pressure and tamed him. Hurry up and praise me!”

Gu Qiqi said, “Praise your head! You’re a scammer. Why didn’t you say so earlier that you could deal with it?”

It almost caused her to pounce onto an unfamiliar bed naked.

The little dirty turtle shrank back. “Oh, Master, I thought you were running around because of that man. It turns out... you’re afraid of the dog?”

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Could she change to another system?

However, the little dirty turtle was just the beginning of tonight.

The real trap was yet to come.

As the Tibetan mastiff wagged its tail, she turned around and suddenly realized that there was another person on the other side of the bed!

A naked man!

A man she knew!!!

Oh God, she didn’t want to live...

Chapter 1188: So It’s Him!!!

How did it feel to be accidentally naked in front of a man she knew?

At this moment, Gu Qiqi had a tragic experience.

That feeling was that she wished she could return to the furnace and be reborn.

Damn it.

She wondered if he had seen her just now and how much he had seen.

Why was this bamboo forest so troublesome? Not only was there a huge bed on the second floor, but there was also a floor-to-ceiling glass window beside the bed, and at the end of the bed was a bathroom!

The bathroom was only separated from the bed by a layer of translucent frosted glass!

The layer of glass was very thin, so the person behind could basically be seen clearly.

Who on earth had designed such a perverted room with the bed facing the bathtub?

Did he like to bathe himself and be seen by the person in bed, or did he like to lie in bed and watch others bathe?

What a perverted hobby.

Gu Qiqi bit her lip angrily and glared at the man opposite her!

At this moment.

The man opposite her was definitely no less shocked than her.

In fact, he was even more in disbelief than her.

Qiqi...

Gu Qiqi...

Could it be that he had subconsciously called her name too many times and was hallucinating?

But he had clearly been trying his best to suppress this thought.

Or had he been too relaxed in the shower and couldn't control his thoughts...

Taking a deep breath, he turned to the armored guard in black. "General Yu Ye, thank you for patrolling personally late at night. The general is so dutiful that he even patrolled my bed."

His tone was always arrogant and awkward, and his expression was a little cold and aloof, which did not match his age.

Bei Mingtian was a proud young man of noble birth!

He clearly looked like a beautiful young man, but he pretended to be old and mature, putting on the cold face of a domineering CEO.

If it weren't for the fact that there were so many dangers and everything was unbelievable, Gu Qiqi wouldn't have been able to help but look down on him. Bei Mingtian, would it kill you to speak nicely?

Bei Mingtian's words of praise and sarcasm made General Yu Ye feel a little uncomfortable.

She bowed to Bei Mingtian. "I'm sorry, Prince..."

Before he could finish speaking, he was stopped by Bei Mingtian's sharp gaze. "General, please leave! I'm tired and need to rest!"

Yu Ye was silent for a moment, then pursed his lips. "Big White! Retreat!"

He dragged away the Tibetan mastiff that was still trying to please Gu Qiqi. Then, he went downstairs very politely. "I'm sorry to disturb your fun."

He looked straight ahead!

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Fun, my ass. I only have the mood to be a godly thief now.

After Yu Ye left.

The risk of being caught and bitten by a dog was instantly removed.

Gu Qiqi finally heaved a sigh of relief.

Immediately, she realized that there was still a huge danger and trouble on the other side. Gu Qiqi couldn't help but take a deep breath again. "Bei Mingtian, are you sick? You're showering without wearing any clothes!"

Bei Mingtian was silent for a moment.

Then, he replied coldly, "So... you bathe with clothes?"

It was Gu Qiqi's turn to be silent.

She was also furious.

She looked away. "Cut the crap and get dressed!"

Bei Mingtian stood up from the bathtub.

The young man's figure wasn't as firm and sexy as Gong Jue's, who had been on the battlefield for a long time, nor was he as experienced and strong as Chu Junmo, who focused on maintaining his fitness. However, he had fair and healthy muscles that belonged to the royal family.

He walked out slowly, making a splash.

He slowly wiped herself down. Without putting on any clothes, he picked up the bathrobe beside him and draped it loosely around his body.

Then, he went to the closet to get a white shirt and black pants for Gu Qiqi.

Gu Qiqi looked at this set of clothes that clearly belonged to a man speechlessly and did not move.

Bei Mingtian knew what she was disgusted by. His lips twitched—

Chapter 1189: Did Xiao Tian See Her Body?

“My sister designed this herself. It was just sewn and washed. I haven’t worn it yet.”

Bei Mingtian angrily handed the clothes to Gu Qiqi.

She actually despised him. Hmph!

Upon hearing this, Gu Qiqi unceremoniously put on the clothes under the blanket. “Hey, turn around!”

Bei Mingtian turned his back gentlemanly.

Gu Qiqi quickly changed her clothes.

In the end, she couldn’t help but ask, “Did you… see it just now?”

Did he see how she was naked?

Bei Mingtian’s throat rolled and felt dry. “I’m highly nearsighted. I don’t know what you’re talking about.”

Gu Qiqi was stunned for a moment before feeling relieved.

Oh right, Bei Mingtian had always been wearing contact lenses. He definitely didn’t wear them when he was showering just now. How could he see her clearly?

It was probably a sea of white.

Besides, she reacted quickly. She had pulled the bed sheets to cover herself in a second. He probably hadn’t seen anything, right?

Gu Qiqi felt much more at ease and relaxed. She lowered her eyes and adjusted her waist. Her waist was too thin and she needed to tighten her belt.

She did not notice that Bei Mingtian’s back was slightly tense.

After tidying up, Gu Qiqi heaved a sigh of relief—

Thank god!

With clothes to wear, her aura immediately changed.

Although Bei Mingtian’s clothes were a little big for her, and her pants and sleeves had to be rolled up a little, the baggy clothes also added a unique and seductive laziness.

With her hair tied up, she looked like a big boy.

Bei Mingtian turned around and took a look. In an instant, his eyes widened. “Gu Qiqi, why do I feel like you’re a human…”

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Nonsense! Was she not human?

Bei Mingtian thought for a moment. "Is it someone we met at the World Medical Tournament? It seems..."

Gu Qiqi knew that he was thinking of Young Master Ye. She couldn't help but secretly admire Bei Mingtian's sharp eyes.

She quickly interrupted him. "Ahem, Xiao Tian, why are you here? Didn't you go home to get a wife?"

Bei Mingtian avoided her gaze and swallowed. "Yes. Why are you in the palace?"

This time, it was Gu Qiqi's turn to be embarrassed.

Cough, cough, cough. Could she tell Bei Mingtian that she was here to steal something?

Of course not!

She could discuss Qing You's matter later, but she had to find a reason to stay in this palace first.

Otherwise, with her new Shadow Clone Technique, she would be discovered sooner or later! Furthermore, she would be discovered without wearing any clothes!

She bit her lip and sized up Bei Mingtian. "I'm... here to watch the prince's wedding! You... should be too, right? Isn't it a coincidence that we've both been chosen to watch the ceremony?"

The expression on Bei Mingtian's face was indescribable!

He stared at Gu Qiqi for a long time, making her feel that her excuse would be exposed in the next second. She was extremely worried.

He finally nodded with difficulty. "Yes. I'm also... here to watch the ceremony."

Gu Qiqi curled her lips. "I knew it. If you were from the palace, why would you stay in such a simple bamboo forest building? Also, this design of the bed and bathtub is simply the style of a hotel with no integrity. The royal family shouldn't have such a shameless design. It's used to entertain guests, right?"

Bei Mingtian's expression became even more complicated.

The corners of his lips twitched as he told the truth. "No, there have been royal family members who have lived here before."

The king and queen had lived in this simple building when they were dating.

After the king inherited the throne and the crown, he had no choice but to move into the official bedchamber in the center of the palace with the queen.

Chapter 1190: Covering Her Up in the Middle of the Night

Gu Qiqi scanned the simple layout of the room. It was really a breath of fresh air in this luxurious palace.

"You said it was in the past. Anyway, people like you stay here now," she said casually.

Bei Mingtian's Adam's apple bobbed. It hurt.

So he seemed like a very inconspicuous person?

Could this woman's words be more infuriating?

Actually, Gu Qiqi didn't think that way. She just felt that this small building was simple and suitable for hiding. She suggested, "Xiao Tian, why don't I stay here too?"

Bei Mingtian was shocked and did not answer immediately.

He only had one bed here. If she came to stay...

Gu Qiqi said, "Is it very difficult? We're senior and junior brothers, okay?"

Bei Mingtian choked and was speechless for a few seconds before saying, "Have you ever treated me as your senior brother?"

"Yes!" Gu Qiqi smiled sweetly. "Senior Brother Xiao Tian!"

Bei Mingtian was speechless.

Gu Qiqi had already picked up the blanket and thrown it onto a small sofa by the closet.

Bei Mingtian's expression turned even uglier. "So you're planning to let me sleep on the sofa..."

Before she could finish speaking, Gu Qiqi curled up on the sofa and pulled the blanket over her. "Let's rest first! We'll talk tomorrow!"

Bei Mingtian was speechless.

It wasn't until a long time after Gu Qiqi fell asleep that her breathing sounded rhythmically in the room. Bei Mingtianai mechanically moved his numb legs and sat on the edge of the bed.

Silly woman!

She slept so heartlessly!

She actually believed that he was a gentleman?

"We're senior and junior brothers!" The woman's delicate voice kept ringing in his ears.

He took a deep breath, his eyes darkening.

That night, he almost didn't sleep at all. He kept staring at Gu Qiqi, who was lying on the sofa.

Several times he'd wanted to carry her to bed and sleep.

However, he did not dare to act rashly.

Only in the middle of the night, when she was kicking off the blanket, did he get out of bed with a sigh and tuck her in again.

The night passed uneventfully.

When she woke up the next day, Gu Qiqi realized that breakfast was already on the small round coffee table by the sofa.

She couldn't help but drink a cup of fragrant coffee to refresh herself before going to the bathroom to wash up.

As it was a transparent bathroom, she was too embarrassed to take a shower. She only washed up briefly before coming out for breakfast.

Just as she finished eating, Bei Mingtian walked up the stairs, dressed in a neat sports outfit.

His hair was soaked, and he had a towel draped over his shoulder.

Clearly, he had gone for his morning workout.

Seeing that he had entered the bathroom as if no one else was around, Gu Qiqi quickly shouted, "Wait! You can shower after I leave!"

This damn transparent bathroom! She wanted to strangle the designer.

After the meal.

Bei Mingtian took out a map and placed it in front of Gu Qiqi. "This is for you."

Gu Qiqi received it in surprise. She couldn't believe that this map had come so easily. "How... did you know that I was looking for the map?"

"Didn't you get lost yesterday?" Bei Mingtian's expression was calm, and she couldn't tell anything.

Gu Qiqi coughed awkwardly. "Yes, yes. I was lost."

She unfolded it and saw that it was indeed completely different from the ancient map of the palace sold outside.

One of the routes was the one she had taken after sneaking in last night. She recognized it at a glance.

Yes, this was definitely the latest map of the palace.

It was hand-painted and looked so precious.

"You drew it yourself?" Gu Qiqi asked.

Before Bei Mingtian could answer, she smiled and answered her own question. "Of course not. This map is so valuable. The soldiers patrolling and guarding every important location are clearly marked. How could you know? Besides, you must have slept like a pig last night. How could you have had time to draw a map?"

Bei Mingtian was speechless.

He must have covered a pig with a blanket last night!!!
