

Dear Chief 12

Chapter 12: To Be Surrounded by Dozens of Cross-Country Vehicles!

No one's daughter was born in this world to do dirty and tiring work. They were clearly just bullying her as she didn't have a mother's protection. From now on, she would have to put up her own armor and protect herself.

She couldn't be bothered to talk nonsense with Gu Meifeng and went straight to the study room.

"Mom, look at her attitude! She seriously came back to quarrel with us, right?" Gu Xuexue was enraged.

Gu Meifeng managed to read between the lines and whispered, "Xuexue, quarreling is not a problem. Can't you tell why she came here? She's going to look for the application form."

"What?" Gu Xuexue became anxious. "She dares to not listen to the arrangements made by you and Uncle and is going to fill up the application form on her own? We're done for. Uncle kept the form in the study room..."

If Gu Qiqi snatched it over, they wouldn't be able to control Gu Qiqi's life in the future.

"Xuexue, calm down." Gu Meifeng raised her eyes and gave a sinister smile. "Did you think that I wasn't prepared? Why would I even make your Uncle angry just now?"

"Mom, are you saying that you deliberately..." Gu Xuexue was overjoyed.

Gu Meifeng smiled.

Of course!

Of course, she did it on purpose.

She could only have the application form in her hands if she agitated Gu Qiushan and made him leave the house.

Gu Qiqi wanted to fill up the application form on her own? No way!

At the same time, Gu Qiqi looked around in her father Gu Qiushan's study room.

Her delicate eyebrows tightly frowned.

The study table was locked.

However, this was no trouble to her.

Her good friend—Xiao Ning—was an "expert" in this area and had taught her a few tricks before.

She pried open the lock in no time.

However, the application form that should be in the drawer had disappeared!

She was certain that she didn't remember it wrongly. Her father always placed all the important documents in this drawer. In her previous life, she saw her father seal the application form in the drawer with her own two eyes.

Unless...

Her gaze turned cold.

Unless Gu Meifeng laid a hand on it in advance.

She clenched her fists tightly. "Gu Meifeng, do you think that I can't do anything after you've stolen my application form?"

She dug out her phone. "Xiao Ning, help me do something."

On the other end, Xiao Ning nearly jumped out of bed. "What? You want me to steal an empty application form from the principal's office?"

"Why? Do you not dare to? Forget it then. I'll do it myself." The light in Gu Qiqi's eyes dimmed.

"Who says I don't dare to?! I just wanted to say... Damn, this is too exciting! You've found the right person!"

Gu Qiqi rubbed her lips. "Xiao Ning, thank you. I'll remember this favor."

"Get lost, who did you owe a favor? Don't be lame. I'll dress up now. Wait for me at the school gate, hehehe."

Gu Qiqi felt a sour sensation rise up her throat.

The Gu family might have harmed her, but she still had friends and her younger brother. It wasn't that she truly had nothing in this world. This was why she must cherish them even more.

On the way downstairs, Gu Meifeng wanted to talk with her.

But Gu Qiqi only gave her a cold glance before she left on her own.

"Mom! Look how crazy she is."

"It's fine. She can't be crazy for long. The deadline for the application form is three days later. We'll let her stay crazy for the next three days. Once she sees the nursing profession on her application form, she can only resign to fate."

"What if she doesn't go?"

"Hah, isn't that better? If she can't get into university, she can only stay in the hospital to sweep the floor."

"Mom's the wisest!" Gu Xuexue's smile bloomed like a flower.

==

Qing Cheng Secondary School.

Gu Qiqi waited at the school gate for an hour but didn't see Xiao Ning.

Did something happen?

The night was dark without any moon or stars.

Barking sounds could be heard from afar.

It made the road outside the school even more desolate.

Suddenly, she could hear manic engine sounds approaching her.

Dozens of cross-country vehicles rushed to the school gate with a roar and surrounded Gu Qiqi in an instant.