

Dear Chief 1211

Chapter 1211: I Can Send You To Heaven

Punisher Sun stood stunned.

Then, she placed one hand on her waist and poked Gu Qiqi's last question with the other. "Of course! Do you know what's the use of this question of mine? Look at what nonsense you've answered? Have you read too many wuxia novels? Can you even attack? Can you treat patients? How many times have I said in class that medicine is a very serious science? Don't show off that kind of hearsay in my class! Let me tell you, the Five Animal Mimicry only has the most basic health benefits. What Hua Tuo divine skills? What treatment after being attacked? Those are all nonsense!"

Punisher Sun finished speaking in one breath and slowly added, "I published a paper in the Empire Medical Journal ten years ago. Everyone, go back and take a look. It's a professional article that specializes in studying the Five Animal Mimicry and criticizing the nonsensical legends!"

After Punisher Sun finished speaking, no one dared to retort.

Everyone was a freshman, so they naturally followed their teacher's instructions. The knowledge taught by their teacher should have been accumulated and tested over the years. How could they refute her?

Yet someone dared.

Qiu Qiu jumped in. "Punisher Sun Station, you're not right!"

"Hehe, am I wrong? Is Gu Qiqi right?" Punisher Sun answered in disdain.

"That's right. My master's answer is correct. She knows the Five Animal Mimicry herself! She used the Five Animal Mimicry to defeat many bastards! It's not a problem for her to fight one against ten!" Qiu Qiu had really seen Gu Qiqi's power. Back then, in the dense forest at the back of the mountain, an assassin from S Nation suddenly appeared. If it weren't for Gu Qiqi, he would have died.

Not to mention that time when his father's mistress came to bully him. If Gu Qiqi hadn't made a move, he would still have died.

He worshiped and followed Gu Qiqi wholeheartedly.

How could Punisher Sun just stand there and spout nonsense?

Beigong Mingtian, who was standing at the side, also said in a low voice, "Qiu Qiu is right. I also know that Student Gu Qiqi can use the Five Animal Mimicry technique to attack enemies."

Back then, he thought that Gu Qiqi was a soft girl who needed protection. In the end, he was the one being protected! He was even knocked unconscious by Gu Qiqi!

Punisher Sun glared at them. "Hehe, you guys have a good relationship with Gu Qiqi. Of course, you can say anything! Why don't you say that she can fly?"

Gu Qiqi touched her chin. “Let me tell you seriously. Although I can’t go to heaven, I can send you to heaven.”

“What did you say?!”

“I said, if you don’t believe the Five Animal Play can really be used for attack and treatment... I don’t mind letting you see for yourself. I’ll let you know the difference between truth and nonsense, before you start handing out papers and misleading people.”

“What... did you say?” Punisher Sun did not react.

Gu Qiqi smiled faintly. “I said...”

She had just spat out the word.

Suddenly, she attacked as fast as lightning, almost instantly aiming for Punisher Sun’s face.

In a panic, Punisher Sun quickly stretched out her arm to cover her face. Damn it, this country bumpkin is crazy. She actually attacked after losing!

Hmph, she insisted on complaining to the principal.

However, Gu Qiqi didn’t poke her face at all. Instead, she suddenly turned around a few centimeters away from her face.

With arms like deer hooves and hands like eagle claws, she twisted Punisher Sun’s arm and exerted force!

“Ah—!!!”

There was a scream.

Punisher Sun’s arm was dislocated.

It was the arm that was always pointing at Qiu Qiu’s face and Gu Qiqi’s test papers.

She wondered if it was a coincidence!

Chapter 1212: You Didn’t Care When Qiqi Hit Someone?!

Punisher Sun would never have thought that Gu Qiqi was not here to slap her face, but to dislocate her arm.

This girl was f*cking vicious!

It was simple and crude!

Even Qiu Qiu was stunned for a moment before bursting into laughter. “Good! Master, well done! There’s no one else who can do this! Um... May I ask if this is a deer or an eagle?”

Beigong Mingtian was stunned for a moment.

For some reason, Gu Qiqi's two-faced attack just now had actually made Gong Jue's shadow appear in front of him.

She was really as ruthless as Gong Jue against her enemies!

He also thought that Gu Qiqi wanted to slap Punisher Sun's face. Unexpectedly, she directly crippled her arm!

He also thought that Gu Qiqi wanted to slap Punisher Sun's face. Unexpectedly, she directly crippled his arm!

Had Gu Qiqi and Gong Jue really become so close?

"You... How dare you hit me! Gu Qiqi, I won't let you walk out of school today. I... I want to call the principal. I want to call the police! Hiss—!"

Punisher Sun stood in pain as she broke out in cold sweat. At the same time, she shouted that he would never forgive Gu Qiqi.

The surrounding students were all dumbfounded. They were a little bewildered and didn't know if they should stand on the teacher's side or Gu Qiqi's side.

Although they were all on Gu Qiqi's side in their hearts!

However, Gu Qiqi's attack was too shocking!

Under everyone's gaze, Gu Qiqi raised her cold face. "Punisher Sun, you asked me to explain why I answered that question correctly just now. How am I hitting someone? I'm clearly demonstrating it to you seriously on the spot. The Five Animal Mimicry isn't as weak and useless as you think it is. It can be used as a powerful attack technique! Please take a good look this time. Remember, I used the deer and eagle techniques just now. If you didn't see it clearly, I don't mind demonstrating it to you again..."

As she spoke, Gu Qiqi moved her fingers.

So arrogant.

So proud.

So handsome!

Seeing this, Punisher Sun's heart skipped a beat. She took a trembling step back before she dared to continue arguing. "You, you're spouting nonsense! What excuse are you making! Who knows what the hell you were doing just now? In order to write that thesis, I've studied the Five Animal Mimicry for several years. I've never seen anyone in this world really attack using the Five Animal Mimicry! It's all fake! What you used just now must be fake too! Fake!"

Punisher Sun was stubborn. Even if Gu Qiqi broke her arm, she refused to admit defeat.

Gu Qiqi was really considering if she was too gentle.

Should she just remove her limbs?

Oh, indeed, being too gentle was not good. Not good.

It took a lot more talking.

Other than Gu Qiqi, no one at the scene could beat Punisher Sun. No one knew how to use the Five Animal Mimicry technique. Of course, they couldn't tell if Gu Qiqi's swift and fierce moves were really fake as Punisher Sun had said.

The scene fell into a stalemate.

Until a shout outside the door!

"Who said that the Five Animal Mimicry is fake?!" The moment the old and deep voice sounded, Punisher Sun's face was filled with anger.

He had finally found a backer!

She rushed forward and complained, dragging her limp arm. "Dean Feng Yangchu, your student actually hit someone! Are you going to interfere!"

With her sharp eyes, she saw that the principal was actually followed by Feng Yangchu. "Mr. Principal, you personally assigned me to the pharmaceutical school to help with teaching. Look at how the pharmaceutical school treats me now! I want you to expel Gu Qiqi. Otherwise, you'll disappoint the teachers. Let's see how your school will maintain itself!"

Chapter 1213: Not Worthy of Being a Teacher

The Dean's lips twitched.

Cough, cough, cough. Punisher Sun was fighting with Gu Qiqi?

Why were these people so worrisome and insensible?

The last person who tried to kick Gu Qiqi out was the director of the disciplinary office. In the end, the director of the disciplinary office was fired!

He heard that he had a terrible ending after leaving the school!

There was also the insensible Bai Mori. It was said that she had always been at odds with Gu Qiqi in secret and even tried to crush Gu Qiqi in the academy competition.

In the end, she had a death sentence!

Did Punisher Sun not bring her brain with her when she went out?

She actually dared to challenge Gu Qiqi!

He coughed. "Well... don't worry, I'll help you make a judgment. I'm definitely fair and impartial. I never let anyone suffer!"

When Punisher Sun heard this, she was overjoyed again. Indeed, the principal was her backer!

At this moment, even the principal's old and wrinkled face looked much kinder than usual.

“Principal, you must seek justice for me. In this world, only teachers can beat up students. There can’t be a situation where students beat up teachers!”

Now that Punisher Sun had someone to rely on, she spoke more forcefully.

And yet...

The next second!

The principal looked at Gu Qiqi kindly and continued lovingly, “Student Qiqi, don’t worry. Our Empire Medical University has always believed in fairness. Even if the principal and the teacher make a mistake, they have to be severely punished! The teacher-student relationship is equal. We definitely won’t let the students feel inferior...”

Punisher Sun was speechless.

It stung...

So the principal’s kindness was for Gu Qiqi!

The principal’s justice was also for Gu Qiqi!

The principal’s concern, love, and support were all for Gu Qiqi!

What’s this damn girl’s background? What’s her background?’

Sun Yuzhen gritted her teeth and turned to Feng Yangchu. “Dean Feng, I heard that you’re a member of the Imperial Military Medical University. You’ve never been afraid of power. Even in front of the principal, you’re always honest. You definitely won’t go against your conscience and protect a student with some background. Please uphold justice...”

Before he could even finish...

Feng Yangchu picked up Gu Qiqi’s paper and glanced at it. He immediately nodded in approval. “My disciple is indeed capable. She can answer any question perfectly!”

Sun Yuzhen choked on her words and almost choked to death.

Are you deliberately contradicting me, old man?

After finally recovering from shock, Sun Yuzhen protested indignantly, “Dean Feng, are you sure her 80 points are considered capable?”

Feng Yangchu’s expression turned cold. “What 80 points? It’s clearly a perfect score. How did you become a teacher?”

Sun Yuzhen’s face stiffened. “No, I...”

Feng Yangchu interrupted her. “I have the most to say regarding the Five Animal Mimicry. I’ve been practicing it for more than 30 years without any progress. It was only after Student Qiqi gave me a few pointers that I understood the wonders of the Five Animal Mimicry. It’s definitely not as simple as fitness exercises!”

Sun Yuzhen said, "But my thesis..."

Feng Yangchu's expression turned even colder. "I've personally appraised the functions of the Five Animal Mimicry. How can it be fake? On the other hand, your narrow minded papers from ten years ago are pieced together and have no academic value at all!"

Sun Yuzhen's face darkened. "No, I..."

Feng Yangchu interrupted her again. "Misleading students! You're not worthy of being a teacher! Our pharmaceutical school doesn't have such a teacher. Principal, old man, where did you get her from? Tell her to get lost!"

Sun Yuzhen's face was filled with despair!

Chapter 1214: Master Qi Made You Convinced

The principal could not wait to resolve this troublesome matter before Master Jue found out.

Therefore, he nodded solemnly. "That's right! Dean Feng makes sense! Sun Yuzhen was recruited as a teacher by Shen Ping when he was the dean of the clinical medicine school. Shen Ping's character was bad, and the company he ran went bankrupt so he committed suicide. His taste in teachers is not good either. On behalf of the school, I hereby announce that Sun Yuzhen will be fired!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Sun Yuzhen staggered and almost fell to the ground!

Damn it, she just wanted to deal with a student from the countryside, but she was sent home!

Were all these people blind?

She could only stare at that country bumpkin, Gu Qiqi. They actually ignored her score, her thesis, and her injured arm?

She admitted that she was deliberately targeting Gu Qiqi because she wanted Gu Qiqi to embarrass herself. However, Gu Qiqi didn't suffer any losses. Instead, she even hit her. The principal and Dean Feng actually didn't punish that arrogant country bumpkin?

What about justice?

Where was the human heart?!

However, after the principal announced the expulsion with a serious expression, he took a step forward and whispered into Gu Qiqi's ear, "Classmate Qiqi, are you satisfied with this result?"

Sun Yuzhen almost vomited blood again.

This was no longer protecting her in secret. This was simply too obvious!

Gu Qiqi looked at Sun Yuzhen's unconvinced expression and her lips curled up slightly. "I'm not too satisfied."

The principal covered his heart and looked at Gu Qiqi with tears in his eyes.

He knew that Master Jue's family was not be easy to deal with.

So why did these idiots have to provoke this person who was clearly not to be trifled with...

"Classmate Qiqi, then, then how do you think we should settle this?" The principal had already pulled a long face and only wanted to make peace.

Gu Qiqi said calmly, "Of course we have to make Punisher Sun convinced."

Sun Yuzhen was fired from her position as a professor for no reason. She could no longer hold back her anger. "You want me to be convinced by a country bumpkin like you? Dream on!"

Gu Qiqi smiled. "There's no need to dream. You can do it now."

As soon as she finished speaking, he grabbed Sun Yuzhen's arm again.

She lifted it hard and twisted it!

A series of screams echoed through the classroom and into the corridor, instantly attracting a large group of students who had just finished their exams.

The classroom was surrounded.

Meanwhile, Gu Qiqi was still standing there calmly. She took out a disinfectant tissue and wiped her hands as if she despised Sun Yuzhen's arm for being too dirty. "I'll teach you on the spot that apart from attacking people, the Five Animal Mimicry can also treat people. Are you convinced now?"

Attack—dislocate shoulder.

Heal—reconnect shoulder.

Of course, whether it was dislocating her shoulder or re-connecting it, it was extremely painful...!

However, how could the onlookers know about Sun Yuzhen's pain?

The students only saw Gu Qiqi raise her hand and dislocate Sun Yuzhen's arm before reattaching it. That movement was fast and elegant. It was so beautiful!

Thunderous applause filled the classroom and the hallway, spreading far and wide...

Sun Yuzhen broke out in a cold sweat from the pain and gritted her teeth. "I'm not..."

She wanted to say I'm not convinced.

However, Gu Qiqi raised her eyebrows slightly. "If you're not convinced, I don't mind showing you a few more times... until you're convinced."

"You...!" Sun Yuzhen trembled.

How many more demonstrations?

Did she think her arms were toys that she could play with?

The heart-wrenching pain continued. No matter how arrogant Sun Yuzhen was, she had no choice but to cower at this moment. "No... no need! You win, I... submit..."

Dragging her already re-connected arm, she prepared to slip away.

Hmph, I'll find someone to teach you a lesson after I leave the school!

And yet...

Her feet had not yet crossed the threshold.

Gu Qiqi sneered behind her. "Punisher Sun, have you forgotten something? Doesn't the loser have to fulfill the bet."

Chapter 1215: Gu Qiqi, You're Too Evil!

Sun Yuzhen shivered. Fulfill the bet? Gu Qiqi won, but she still refused to let her go. Why did she still mention the bet?

Can't she just pretend it never happened?

She looked embarrassed and blurted out, "I'm not from this school anymore. Don't even think about raising a bet with me! Who's betting with you? Where's the proof?"

Unexpectedly, as soon as she finished speaking...

Under Qiu Qiu's lead, all the students in the classroom shouted bravely, "We are witnesses. We all saw with our own eyes that you were going to bet with Gu Qiqi! Those who lost will be punished!"

Sun Yuzhen's face darkened.

These bastards used to bow down to her and didn't even dare to breathe loudly. Now, they actually dared to jump out and shout at her? She was so angry!

The principal tugged at his beard and laughed. "Will the loser be punished? Alright, alright, this bet is interesting. Sun Yuzhen, although you're not from our school anymore, you made the bet first. It's not good to go back on your word now, right? Unless you want to have a reputation of going back on your word. After our Imperial Military Medical University, no school will dare to hire a teacher with your character..."

The principal was indeed experienced. His words made Sun Yuzhen break out in cold sweat.

Feng Yangchu was more direct. He waved his pen and directly changed Gu Qiqi's paper to a red 100 points. Then, he said coldly, "Whoever owes my disciple a bet, I, Feng Yangchu, will do my best to make sure that she can't survive in the medical world!"

Sun Yuzhen's expression darkened.

Bullying her! These bastards were bullying her!

Why should she be punished? She should only be punishing students to stand for the rest of their lives!

Seeing that Sun Yuzhen wanted to go back on her word, Gu Qiqi wasn't anxious. She raised her eyebrows. "Looks like you're still unconvinced. Punisher Sun, why don't we try the functions of the Five Animal Mimicry again? I'll make you completely convinced before you honor your bet?"

Sun Yuzhen shivered!

The principal's indirect approach and Fengyang Chu's warning didn't completely shake her. However, Gu Qiqi's threat was too ruthless!

Dislocating her arm was an imminent danger. She definitely did not want to try it a second time!

Wiping the cold sweat off her forehead, Sun Yuzhen felt aggrieved and dejected. "So be it! It's just standing as punishment! Alright, I'll stand outside the teacher's office for ten minutes, alright?!"

The students all looked at each other happily. That's great. In their lifetimes, they could finally see Punisher Sun standing somewhere as punishment. It didn't matter if the time was short. The key was that they could see it and take a photo as a memento!

Everyone watched as Punisher Sun walked out of the classroom, pushed through the crowd, and stood by the corridor. They were already very satisfied.

Who knew?

Gu Qiqi frowned and said in a dissatisfied tone, "Punisher Sun, what are you trying to evade?"

"You asked me to stand here and fulfill the bet. I've done it now. What else do you want? Gu Qiqi, don't be unreasonable. Don't you go overboard!" Punisher Sun stood there angrily.

Gu Qiqi narrowed her eyes. "Why did I hear you publicly announce in class that if I lose, you want me to go to the men's toilet to stand with a mop dragging manure? Since you're so creative and you've lost, you can use the punishment method you came up with to fulfill the bet!"

Punisher Sun was speechless.

Damn it, Gu Qiqi, you're really evil!

When the surrounding students heard Gu Qiqi's words, they were so surprised that they couldn't close their mouths.

Heavens, Gu Qiqi actually dared to criticize Punisher Sun like this. Would Punisher Sun take revenge on her?

Chapter 1216: His Heart Was In Chaos!

Everyone looked at Gu Qiqi worriedly.

However, when they thought about how Punisher Sun had already been expelled and no longer had the right to bully them, what was there to be afraid of?

In an instant, everyone immediately stimulated the courage that had been suppressed in their hearts for a long time and helped Gu Qiqi.

“Yes! Qiqi is right! What right does Punisher Sun have to be a double standard dog? She’s so ruthless when torturing others, but when it’s her turn to be unlucky, she wants to slack off. No, we all don’t agree with Punisher Sun standing in the corridor to deal with the matter. She has to go to the men’s toilet to be punished! If Sun Fa can’t walk, we can help you carry her to the men’s toilet for free!”

Punisher Sun was dumbfounded!!!

How did those weak and simple-minded students who were afraid of teachers come to realize how terrifying they could become with Gu Qiqi’s support?

For the first time in her life, she felt that the students were not to be trifled with when they were agitated!

She tried to bolt.

However, the students spontaneously held hands and formed a human wall, forcefully stopping her.

As the human wall moved, Punisher Sun was forced to the door of the largest male toilet in the central teaching building!

Punisher Sun felt like crying.

“No use trying to herd me into the men’s room,” she thought.

“I myself refuse to sweep the cesspit with a mop. Will you lift my hand to do it?”

Good, come at me if you’re not afraid of getting dirty!

Just as she finally felt a little more confident, she didn’t expect her feet to suddenly slip. It was as if some tiny vine had wrapped around her ankle, and she threw herself at the mop by the men’s toilet door.

“Punisher Sun, stand properly! You have to stand for more than ten hours!” someone shouted from the crowd.

Punisher Sun’s record for punishing students was 48 hours!

Punisher Sun was furious, but for some reason, her body refused to listen to her. Not only did she pick up the mop, but she really walked towards the feces pit.

Vines. She really was seeing vines again!

They wrapped around her hand and pulled her directly toward the cesspit.

She felt that if she did not take the initiative to clean the toilet, these terrifying vines might really drag her into the sewage tank!

Trembling, Punisher Sun no longer dared to play any tricks. She obediently cleaned the toilet. After cleaning it, she stood at the door of the men’s toilet with a dirty mop...

On this day, the news of Punisher Sun’s punishment spread throughout the Imperial Military Medical University.

Countless students who had been humiliated by Punisher Sun came to take photos with tears in their eyes...

If a man did evil, he would be punished by the heavens.

It wasn't that they didn't want to report it, but it wasn't time yet!

Gu Qiqi retracted her vines, curled her lips, and left quietly...

Meanwhile.

On the sickbed, Chu Junmo received the news that Gu Qiqi had returned to take the final exam.

He frowned and asked Secretary Jiao in a slightly cold tone, "Didn't I ask you to send someone to wait at the airport and at customs? As soon as you find her back in the country, weren't they supposed to call me to pick her up?"

Secretary Jiao broke out in a cold sweat. "Boss, Young Lady Qiqi didn't come back through customs... She seems to have taken a private plane back. We can't find any entry records..."

Chu Junmo's eyes darkened. "Prepare a car for me immediately and go to the Empire Medical University."

When Chu Junmo arrived at the Empire Medical University with his unhealed illness, Feng Yangchu told him that Gu Qiqi had already finished her exam and left.

"She only had one subject?"

"That's right and scored 100 points! I think there's no need to take the other subjects! All 100 points!"

Chu Junmo was speechless. Then, his tone was heavy. "Do you know that if she doesn't have to take the final exam, she'll go straight to Ghost Island..."

"I know."

"You know how dangerous that place is, and you still let her go?"

"As her master, letting her go free is more important than keeping her safe."

"You!"

"Junmo, you're tempted, and your heart is in chaos..."

Chu Junmo's breathing turned cold.

Yes, he was in a mess because of his concern!

Chapter 1217: You Can't Get Involved in A Relationship

Feng Yangchu's words forced Chu Junmo to face his heart objectively.

Yes, he was moved by Gu Qiqi and his heart was in a mess. He couldn't control himself anymore!

Every moment, her delicate and lively little figure lingered in his mind. Every time she pouted or smiled, he kept thinking about where she was and whether she was in danger.

Even on the sickbed, he could force himself to get up for her.

Not to mention taking a bullet for her without hesitation at a critical moment...

He was completely stuck.

Chu Junmo was silent for a few seconds. Suddenly, he raised his calm face and asked Feng Yangchu in a rare warm tone, "Second Uncle, why can't I be tempted? Qiqi is so good. Don't I have the right to pursue happiness?"

Feng Yangchu's gaze became a little more complicated.

He reached out and patted his shoulder. He sighed softly and said, "Junmo, I know that Qiqi is very good, and I also understand that you want to pursue happiness. But have you forgotten that your heart... It doesn't allow you to get involved in relationships..."

A look of pain appeared on Chu Junmo's face.

The left ventricle throbbed.

It was all his damn congenital heart disease. No doctor in the world could cure it.

Life and death were up to fate. He had always taken it lightly, but at this moment, he hated his sick body.

People with heart disease could not have overly intense love lives.

That would be his final death warrant. His undoing.

Feng Yangchu saw his pain and could not bring himself to rub salt into his wounds.

However, he also knew that if he couldn't persuade him to completely dispel this thought at this moment, he was afraid... If he became obsessed with Qiqi in the future, he would probably be even more deeply injured and unable to be saved.

Hence, Feng Yangchu made up his mind. "Junmo, listen to Second Uncle. Let it go! Or, just find a girl you don't care about and marry her. Make do with it. Otherwise, you'll definitely regret pursuing Qiqi!"

Chu Junmo's gaze became even more determined as he shook his head. "I'm not willing to make do with relationships."

Feng Yangchu's pupils constricted and he said anxiously, "Have you forgotten what year it is this year? Year of the dog! Have you forgotten that the Year of the dog is your Bloody Year? If anything happens to you... what if you leave Qiqi behind?"

The Year of the Heavenly Dog.

This year would forever be Chu Junmo's threshold for life and death.

Why was it “forever”?

Chu Junmo lowered his eyes for a moment and his thin lips moved. “Second Uncle, I’ve decided to use this prescription and look for the medicine...”

He lifted his elegant robe and took out a yellowed piece of paper from his inner clothes.

On it was an ancient recipe written in small writing with a brush: “One to two molted cicada shells, five grams of snow herbs...”

On the prescription, although there were all kinds of expensive and remote medicinal herbs, they were not difficult to find. Especially for a CEO like Chu Junmo, what medicine could not be found in this world?

Except...

When it came to the last medicine...

Flame Blood, Three Juns!

This was the real reason why Chu Junmo had never used this prescription.

Flame blood was a very rare blood type. It was ten thousand times rarer than special blood types like RH-negative blood.

Such a rare blood type was already difficult to find.

Moreover, he had to find three juns!

What is the concept of the Three Juns?

The ancients recorded that 16 taels were 50 kilograms, and 15 pounds were 1 jun.

In other words, the Three Juns weighed ninety pounds!

How much blood does an adult have?’

About eight pounds.

Even if one in a million had Flame Blood, it wouldn’t be enough.

He would probably have to draw 10% of that person’s blood every day to maintain that person’s life for more than 100 days... before he could gather enough blood!

Chapter 1218: He Was Reborn

What kind of idiot in the world would be willing to sell their blood like this?

Not to mention, even if they were willing, it was still a question if they could survive after being drained of blood for more than a hundred days!

It was precisely because of this problem that Chu Junmo did not use this rare prescription in his hands.

That day, Gu Qiqi said that she wanted to attend the Apothecaries' Conference to find medicine for Xiaobei and him. He really wanted to tell her that his illness was incurable. Even if there was medicine, the price was too high.

But now that Feng Yangchu had pointed out that he was about to face a life and death crisis in the fifth year, he had no choice but to make up his mind.

Year of the Heavenly Dog was his eternal death.

He didn't want to leave Gu Qiqi because of this illness!

If he wanted to stay with Gu Qiqi, he had to treat his heart.

Now that he had the prescription, he only lacked that "Flame Blood"!

In the past, he couldn't bear to find it and had no motivation to find it. At this moment, he had to find it at all costs to gain more time with Gu Qiqi.

Wasn't the only difference between him and Gong Jue time?

If he had time, he firmly believed that in the long years, Qiqi would gradually discover his goodness and his sincerity. She would take another look at him and gradually lean towards his embrace...

Feng Yangchu took the prescription and sighed. "Junmo, do you remember that twenty years ago, when you were only three years old, I was almost scared silly when you showed me this prescription..."

Chu Junmo also smiled faintly. "Yes, it's my fault for not thinking too much at that time. When I heard that there was no cure for heart disease, I took it out on impulse to shut you up."

Feng Yangchu stroked this tattered and old paper prescription and sighed. "How could I have thought that I wrote this down myself in the distant past? I accompanied you through countless years... I didn't expect your background to be..."

Chu Junmo narrowed his eyes and made up his mind. "Second Uncle, let's split up. From today onwards, we'll start looking for Flame Blood! As long as we have Flame Blood, I believe your prescription will definitely be effective! My body will definitely recover to normal, and the only obstacle to me being with Qiqi will disappear!"

Feng Yangchu swallowed. "All right."

Chu Junmo left the prescription behind and turned to leave quickly.

"Junmo, where are you going?"

"Ghost Island!"

Feng Yangchu watched as Chu Junmo's sky-green robe disappeared outside the door. He let out a long sigh. "This child... has lived for so many lifetimes and has seen all kinds of big scenarios. I thought that he would be calm enough when something happened to him, but Gu Qiqi made him lose his composure!"

He really could not bear to remind Chu Junmo.

Actually, before Gu Qiqi left for the Ghost Island, she came to say goodbye to him after dealing with Punisher Sun.

After reminding Gu Qiqi about some taboos on Ghost Island, he asked indirectly, "Qiqi, what do you think of our Chu family's Junmo?"

"Ah? Brother Chu is very good!"

"Then are you willing to marry into the Chu family?"

"Ah? Hahaha, Master, are you kidding me? Brother Chu should be the type who doesn't marry, right? Besides, I have a boyfriend..."

"Who's your boyfriend?!"

"Cough, cough, cough. He's not considered a boyfriend. He's just... a potential partner! You've seen Gong Jue before."

Feng Yangchu was speechless.

It wasn't that he didn't have faith in his nephew.

Instead, it was that scoundrel Gong Jue who was probably too powerful. His refined and low-key nephew was definitely not his match!

Chasing a girl was the same as fighting a war. It was useless to just ambush her. He had to take the initiative to attack! Attack!

Regarding this point, Chief Gong, who led troops in battle all year round, was definitely better at tactics.

Chapter 1219: Chu Junmo vs Gong Jue!

Before Gu Qiqi left, Feng Yangchu had already probed Gu Qiqi.

He understood that Gu Qiqi had no feelings for Chu Junmo at all.

That was why he had persuaded Chu Junmo to let go just now.

Dating was the same as negotiating and doing business. If they were not fated, it was useless to work hard.

It would only be a waste of effort.

He didn't want that to happen to his nephew.

Just now, he had almost exposed Gu Qiqi's attitude.

Except...

When he heard that Chu Junmo was determined to find the medicine, he instantly changed his mind.

Chu Junmo had been holding this prescription from his previous life for so many years, but he had never worked hard to find the medicine.

It wasn't easy for Chu Junmo to make up his mind to pursue Gu Qiqi. Why did he stop him?

It didn't matter if Chu Junmo could woo Gu Qiqi. As long as he could cure his body, it would be a good thing.

Wasn't it a blessing in life to be alive?

Love and affection were just icing on the cake.

Feng Yangchu decided not to stop Chu Junmo.

Chu Junmo had just walked out of the Imperial Medical University.

Secretary Jiao's emergency report suddenly arrived. "Boss, we've been checked all over the country!"

Chu Junmo said calmly, "What are you panicking for? The officials have a routine check every month. We're doing business as usual. What are you afraid of!"

His figure was indifferent, and he was dressed in a sky-blue long robe. In the bleak winter campus, he looked especially tall and straight with unparalleled elegance.

Secretary Jiao's voice trembled nervously. "But Boss, it's really different this time! They clearly didn't find anything wrong, but they still insisted on sending people to search the pharmacy. They sat at the counter and slowly read page after page with the account book. Although it's not a problem, the customers don't know what's going on. Once they see so many people in proper uniforms checking the accounts, they must think that something big has happened to our pharmacy. Who would dare to buy medicine? Look, the turnover in the Chu Pharmacy was bad today. Some even reported negative figures because customers came to return the goods..."

Chu Junmo narrowed his eyes, his expression slightly cold.

As a giant in the business world, he knew very well that someone was deliberately stirring up trouble behind his back.

The problem was that the Chu Clan was not a small pharmacy that could be controlled by anyone. Instead, it was one of the top pharmacies in the country that was as famous as the Bai Clan's National Medical Hall. It occupied half of the empire's medical world.

The officials would not provoke him at all!

Moreover, everyone in this circle knew Chu Junmo's character. He was open and transparent in his business and would not sell any fake medicine. There had never been a scandal.

It could be said that his pharmacy was a well-known shop that was free of inspection!

Now someone was actually messing with him?

Or was it such a simple, crude, and childish trick?

Why did it feel like someone's doing?

“Find out who gave the order.” Chu Junmo narrowed his eyes.

If it was really as he had expected and that person had done it... Hehe, he, Chu Junmo, was not to be trifled with!

A few minutes later.

Secretary Jiao’s report came again. “Boss, we found out!”

“Who is it?”

“It’s... Master Jue’s orders!”

Chu Junmo’s eyes turned cold.

Gong Jue, I haven’t even attacked you and you’re already here?

Fine, I’ll play along!

“Pass on my instructions. Purchase all the aluminum foil in the world. Then dump the aviation high-tech stocks in large quantities and—”

Chu Junmo instructed word by word.

His expression was as calm and composed as ever.

It was as if everything was under his control!

Chapter 1220: The Advantage of Being A Reborn Man

Chu Junmo was calm, but Secretary Jiao could not calm down.

He was dying of anxiety!

The situation in the pharmacy was so dire. Instead of solving it, the president had instructed him to buy some aluminum foil and sell off the aviation high-tech stocks...

Why did he have to do things that had nothing to do with the situation?

CEO, have you been bewitched by Young Lady Qiqi? You’re even confused about business decisions?

It had to be known that if they did not resolve the crisis in the pharmacy, losing a day or two of turnover would be a small matter. However, if their reputation was ruined, it would be an irreparable matter!

But Secretary Jiao was too anxious to say anything.

Everyone in the Chu clan knew that although the CEO was usually refined and gentle, he was actually a man of his word. He was decisive and unquestionable.

No one could change his decision!

Secretary Jiao could only feel aggrieved. The emperor was not anxious but the eunuch was anxious. He went to carry out the orders with a long face.

At this moment, in the Cold North Ridge.

Special Assistant Lu was reporting to Gong Jue. "Master Gong, they've all been arranged according to your instructions! Those people from the Pharmaceutical Department usually don't check Chu Junmo's pharmacy even once in a few months. This time, we'll let them check all they want and make up for what they owed in the past!"

Gong Jue snorted. "Let's see if that bastard still dares to compete with me after they investigate for a month!"

Special Assistant Lu chuckled. "I'm afraid he won't dare to. After being investigated for a month, even if they can't find any problems, I think the Chu Clan Pharmacy will be done for. Which customer would dare to buy his family's medicine?"

Gong Jue didn't comment and turned to study the map.

But the more Special Assistant Lu thought about it, the more amused he became.

CEO Chu, CEO Chu, who asked you to provoke our Master Jue's Young Lady Qiqi?

He even casually gave Young Lady Qiqi a foreign passport and caused her to leave Master Jue's sight...

However, how did Master Jue know that Young Lady Qiqi had gone overseas?

Special Assistant Lu scratched his head in confusion. He was 100% sure that he had only reported the news of Young Master Ye's relationship with the prince of the Beigong Royal Family in Country H...

This... didn't seem to have anything to do with Young Lady Qiqi, right?

Special Assistant Lu was deep in thought when his intercom buzzed.

He went outside to answer it.

However, in less than a minute, he ran back in a panic. "Master Jue... bad news! Bad news!"

Gong Jue frowned and glanced at him. "You're so impatient. Is it because I haven't brought you out for too long that your mental fortitude isn't up to par? Why are you panicking? Even if Old Teuton from S Nation comes to the command center, you should calmly deal with him!"

And yet...

Special Assistant Lu looked like he was about to cry. "Chief, it's not the S Nation who is causing us to struggle. It's our rear... our rear..."

"What happened to the rear? That unlucky Gong Sheng was assassinated again?" Gong Jue was still calm and had a cold expression.

Special Assistant Lu wanted to cry. "No, Chief, it's... it's our provisions that are about to run out! We can't transport them in!"

Gong Jue frowned. "Who leaked the news?!"

The weather in the Cold Northern Ridge was bad, so the engineers directly turned the snow into drinking water.

They ate specially compressed food.

They were light and easy to store. A small compressed biscuit could fill his stomach.

The point was that they were very easy to transport and would not freeze.

In order to travel light, it was inconvenient for them to carry food with them. They were all transported over the mountains by secret suppliers every day.

But now, Special Assistant Lu said that compressed food could not be transported in?

Gong Jue's first reaction was that the news had been leaked and someone had maliciously intercepted it!!!
