

Dear Chief 1231

Chapter 1231: Gong Jue: Can't Let Chu Junmo Off!

Just as the engineers were wondering why Gong Jue didn't care about his contributions and wanted to work on something else, Gong Jue had already unbuttoned his shirt and changed into casual clothes.

The silent handheld device was dismantled into a pile of parts. He brought it with him.

Other than that, he had nothing on him. He knocked on the floor with his leather boots, pushed the door neatly open, and boarded the plane.

On the plane, Special Assistant Lu handed over the latest information. "Master Jue, after we mercifully retreated the people who made things difficult for the Chu Clan's pharmacy, the Chu Clan also stopped. They did not continue to lower the share price of the aviation high tech company and released a portion of the tinfoil that they had previously purchased. It was just enough for us to supply food to the engineers..."

"Hmph! At least he knows his place! If he dares to delay my important matters, I'll skin him alive when I get back!" Gong Jue sat down coldly and waved his hand to instruct the pilot to take off. "Go to the South Pacific Ocean, the Tonga Kingdom."

Special Assistant Lu couldn't help but sigh in his heart. "Our Lord is still the most open-minded and upright! Our engineers are working hard at the front line, but CEO Chu is actually playing tricks behind the scenes and cutting off everyone's food to threaten him. As for our Master Jue? On such a serious matter, he's completely straightforward and isn't swayed by personal feelings at all. He readily made concessions to CEO Chu, only thinking that his brothers should eat their fill and fight the enemy properly!"

Even if he had to rush over to accompany Young Lady Qiqi now, he had to prepare all the system's offensive and defensive preparations and mobilize the team before leaving. He didn't even care about receiving the merit before leaving domineeringly!

Such an upright Master Jue was what made people sincerely admire him, alright?

Compared to this, the great CEO Chu was hiding in the dark and taking action. He did not have any national pride at all and did not care about everyone's safety. He was really weak.

How selfish! Not magnanimous at all!

As he was thinking, new information came in.

Special Assistant Lu was shocked and hurriedly reported to Gong Jue.

"Master Jue, CEO Chu actually took a plane to the Tonga Kingdom! Could it be that he's also going to look for Young Lady Qiqi? He set off earlier than us. He might be able to arrive earlier and meet up with Young Lady Qiqi before us. Young Lady Qiqi still doesn't know that we'll be going. If he gets there first and shows his face, what... what should we do?"

Gong Jue glanced at him coldly. “What are you panicking for! Calm down! Chu Junmo wants to play the hero to save the damsel in distress? Haha, with that broken heart of his, how can he jump normally after taking a long-distance plane?”

Special Assistant Lu thought for a moment.

It was true. CEO Chu had just undergone heart surgery not long ago. Moreover, it was said that his old heart disease was very serious and had never been cured.

How could his sick body possibly compete with their lively and vigorous Master Jue?

At this thought, Special Assistant Lu was completely relieved. “Hehe, Master Jue, I was too anxious. Alright, I’ll give the order now and won’t bother with him.”

“Wait!” Gong Jue suddenly spoke. “Who said we don’t have to care?”

“Huh?” Special Assistant Lu was dumbfounded, no longer understanding.

He’s just a patient. If he can’t win against us, why bother with him?

Gong Jue snorted. “Stop his plane! Don’t let him enter Tonga Kingdom Airport!”

“Huh?” Special Assistant Lu was even more confused.

This... this was a little too much. They were stopping a plane directly at an airport in another country.

Master Jue, aren’t you too impressive?

His Lord had always been impressive. That was not important. The problem was... was it necessary to deal with a sick person?

As if he had seen through Special Assistant Lu’s thoughts, Gong Jue said angrily—

Chapter 1232: How to Deal with Chu Junmo

Gong Jue said angrily, “Hmph, I can’t be bothered to care if he goes or not. However, I can’t allow an insensible sick person like him to go to the Ghost Island to cause trouble for my woman and prevent my woman from going to the Great Pharmacist Guild Conference!”

Special Assistant Lu’s lips twitched.

Master Jue doted on his wife like crazy. He’s really hopeless!

Special Assistant Lu turned and prepared to execute the order to intercept Chu Junmo’s plane.

Just as he took a step away, he heard Gong Jue’s cold voice behind him again. “Wait! Find a piece of crocodile skin and think of a way to stuff it into his luggage.”

Special Assistant Lu was stunned.

Crocodile skin?

What kind of gag is that?

Then he reacted.

Customs in many countries did not allow passengers to bring sensitive items. For example, poison, ivory, rare animals and plants...

Crocodile skin happened to be one of the items that foreigners were not allowed to bring in and out of customs in the Kingdom of Tonga.

Once they were found out, passengers would have their luggage confiscated and be prevented from entering the country. Not only that, if they exceeded a certain amount, according to local law, they would be suspected of being smugglers and would be sentenced to at least ten days of detention!

Special Assistant Lu understood. Master Jue wanted double insurance so that Chu Junmo could not enter the country. He wanted to watch him covet Young Lady Qiqi but fail to come into contact with her. Haha.

“Think of a way to get more crocodile skin and put it in!” Gong Jue said faintly from behind.

Special Assistant Lu staggered.

His Lord wanted CEO Chu to commit a crime and be detained for more than ten days.

Too horrible!

What had he praised Master Jue for just now?

Yes, yes. Open-minded and admirable.

Now, he wanted to take back his words! Master Jue was clearly the most scheming one!

City of Tonga

Outside the bistro.

After Gu Qiqi heard Old Man Huo Ba’s words, she frowned slightly.

Had she provoked a witch doctor that she shouldn’t have?

The old man with the scar advised her kindly, “Miss, although those people have escaped, they are very vengeful. In a few minutes, they will definitely go to their boss, the witch doctor, to complain and ask him to support them. They will be back to seek revenge. I advise you to leave the capital quickly. You don’t know that the witch doctor can cover the sky here...”

Leave?

Now?

It was already dark. The ships in the port had stopped. She couldn’t go to the Ghost Island. The earliest she could go was tomorrow.

Seeing Gu Qiqi hesitate, the old man with the scar suggested kindly, “If you don’t mind, there’s a cellar for you to hide in...”

Gu Qiqi shook her head. "Thank you for your kindness. It's not convenient for me to disturb you."

Since these people were local bullies, wouldn't they be able to find her no matter where she fled to?

Why make trouble for this nice old man?

She noticed that, like her, he spoke the language of the Empire, not English.

Perhaps the old man saw that she had an oriental face and was eager to remind her?

All the more reason for her not to implicate him.

Gu Qiqi politely rejected the old man's good intentions and bade him farewell.

However, she turned back towards the tavern!

The old man looked at her in surprise and couldn't figure out Gu Qiqi's intentions. Could it be that this young lady thought that the most dangerous place was the safest place?

He shook his head, his eyes troubled.

Young people still didn't know the dangers of this world...

In the bistro.

When Gu Qiqi lifted the curtain and entered.

Everyone in the room shuddered.

Just now, Gu Qiqi had challenged several strong men alone. It really shocked everyone.

This directly caused their wrists and legs to tremble involuntarily when they saw Gu Qiqi.

Chapter 1233: The Male Guest Touches You Because He Thinks Highly of You

The guests stared at Gu Qiqi and trembled. This woman was not to be trifled with.

Could it be that she was unhappy after beating people up just now and wanted to find a few more to satisfy herself?

However, Gu Qiqi ignored the guests and walked straight to the singer.

Wearing Gu Qiqi's coat, the little singer was facing the owner of the tavern. "This is the reward I deserve for my labor. Why didn't you give it to me? I've worked here for an entire semester! No matter if it's windy or rainy, or if I'm sick or uncomfortable, I've never been late or absent from work for a day. According to the agreement, you should give me a thousand panjia..."

The currency of the Tongan kingdom, one panjia, was equivalent to three dollars in imperial banknotes.

A thousand panjia meant three thousand dollars.

To be honest, the price was really quite low.

In the Empire, Imperial Song, the most expensive entertainment venue, gave more than that for a songstress to sing for five minutes. Even the resident songstress of a small bar on the street made tens of thousands of dollars by singing for a semester.

However, even at such a low labor price, the owner of the bistro was unwilling to pay. He sneered and waved his hand. "Go away! You still have the cheek to ask for payment? Do you know how much trouble you've caused me in the few months you've been working here? Almost every night, guests complain that you don't allow them to touch you! Do you still think you're an arrogant young lady?"

The little singer held back her red face as tears welled up in her eyelashes. "I... I'm here to sing, not to sell... my body..."

The shopkeeper sneered. "Tsk! Aren't women who come out to work just selling? What's so precious about your body?"

The little singer's face turned even redder, and her body was trembling.

Clearly she wasn't very good at dealing with such unreasonable insults from the shopkeepers.

"I... I... I just want my payment! That's important to me! I have something very important..." She held her breath for a long moment and then sobbed.

"Bah! What does your important business have to do with me? Don't you know who the customers you offended today are? Whether you can still live tomorrow is a problem. Why do you need money? Besides, my little tavern was originally running well, but because of you, an insensible smelly woman, I was implicated. Perhaps those men will even vent their anger on my tavern. I lost a lot! You still have the cheek to ask me for money? I even want you to compensate me for my losses!" The shopkeeper was cunning and spoke one sentence after another.

The little singer was no match for him.

Towards the end, it was as if everything had become Little Singer's fault.

Instead, it became money she owed the shop owner!

"You... you're unreasonable..." The little singer was so angry that she spoke even more incoherently.

"Unreasonable? Hehe!" The shopkeeper pinched her chin teasingly. "Naive woman, the strong prey on the weak in this world. Only the strong have the right to be unreasonable. What's the point of reasoning with a weakling like you? Besides, my reasoning just now was very clear. Don't you understand human language?"

"You... you're being unreasonable!" The singer bit her lip.

He had been going back on his word and bullied her.

The shopkeeper squeezed her chin. Pain shot through her.

Immediately after, he taught her a lesson with a sinister smile. "As a woman who is out to work, you should know your identity. If a male guest touches you, it's because he thinks highly of you and gives you face. You should just let him touch you without saying a word! Who asked you to resist? Who asked you to cry for help?"

Chapter 1234: Master Qi Is Naughty

The shopkeeper's saliva flew as he spoke. "In the end, what happened to you today was because you were stupid and deserved it! If you had obediently let them touch you in the beginning, wouldn't everything be fine?"

The little singer was speechless.

Even though she felt that he was being unreasonable, she could not find any words to refute him!

In particular, gwe jaw was sore and sore from being pinched by the shopkeeper.

She wanted to cry even more.

Really... was she wrong?

When a man flirted with her, as a weak woman, should she... endure it? Endure humiliation for a moment of peace?

Seeing that he had fooled this little songstress, the shopkeeper grinned smugly. "You're right! Do you think that crazy woman saved you just now is very powerful? Hehe, can she save you for the rest of your life? When those local bullies come back later, won't you still be played to death? Don't be naive! Idiot!"

"Really? I'd like to see that. Who's naive? Who's stupid?"

Suddenly, a cold voice came from behind.

The shop owner turned around and saw Gu Qiqi looking at him with a faint smile.

In his hand, a thin scalpel was dangling in front of his eyes.

The shopkeeper was about to curse.

He suddenly realized who Gu Qiqi was.

Oh my, wasn't it that demoness just now? She fought a group of men alone and broke their wrists!

His knees went weak, and in a very useless way, he immediately chickened out. "Heroine, I-I'm naive! I'm an idiot!"

The little singer's eyes lit up. A faint mist appeared in her eyes as she stared at Gu Qiqi. She wanted to go forward, but she wrung her hands and didn't dare to.

Gu Qiqi fiddled with the scalpel leisurely. "Take your dirty hand away from the girl's neck!"

"Yes! Yes! Yes!" The shopkeeper withdrew his hand at once.

He turned around, afraid that Gu Qiqi would break his wrist.

Gu Qiqi raised her eyebrows and started to settle scores. "You just said that the strong are respected in this world? The strong prey on the weak? Then, do you think you're the strong one?"

The shopkeeper said, "No, no, no. I'm weak. Heroine, you're strong."

Gu Qiqi nodded. "Yes. You also said that the strong should let the weak do what they want. The weak should do it obediently and not resist?"

The shopkeeper said, "Yes, yes, yes. Heroine, I'll do anything you ask!"

Gu Qiqi said, "What if I tell you to die?"

The shopkeeper was dumbfounded.

Cold sweat broke out.

It finally dawned on him that the girl was not so easily fooled.

The scene of him bullying the little singer was completely seen by this terrifying girl.

He plopped to his knees. "Heroine, I was wrong!"

Gu Qiqi said calmly, "What's the use of admitting your mistake?"

The shopkeeper immediately took out his wallet. "I ... I'll pay Lisa! Here's a thousand panjias ... Lisa, here!"

Lisa took the money and finally got her salary back. She was grateful and her gaze never left Gu Qiqi.

The shop owner secretly glanced at Gu Qiqi. "Heroine, can I... get up now?"

With that, he surreptitiously stood up on half a leg.

Gu Qiqi glanced at him coldly. "Kneel down! Are you trying to get rid of a beggar with this bit of money?"

Scowling, the shopkeeper continued to kneel. "Here, all of it. I'll give Lisa all the money in my wallet and at the counter..."

This was basically a robbery.

It was even more ferocious than the group of local bullies earlier.

Chapter 1235: Master Qi Kissed Wildly (1)

After supervising the shop owner and handing over all the cash in the shop to Lisa, Gu Qiqi estimated that there was about 10,000 to 20,000 yuan. Then, she kicked him. "Get up!"

The shopkeeper pondered. Get up? How?

He had no choice but to roll on the spot, get up and flatter her. "Heroine, I—"

Before he could finish speaking, he felt Gu Qiqi wave the scalpel in front of him a few times.

Then, Gu Qiqi put away her knife, held the little singer's hand, and strode out of the door.

All she said was, "Never underestimate a woman, or you'll pay dearly!"

The shopkeeper stood dumbly where he was.

Until Gu Qiqi's back completely disappeared into the night.

Only then did he jump to his feet and curse. "Bitch, I can't beat you, but the witch doctor can deal with you! See who pays the price! When they come back for revenge later, I'll make sure you—"

Before he could even finish...

He suddenly realized that the customers in the bistro were looking at him strangely...

"What are you looking at, mmmp..." He cursed in the Imperial dialect he had learned.

Immediately, he felt that something was wrong.

His face felt warm.

Drip.

Hot liquid dripped onto his neck, his body, and the floor.

He wiped it away. His hand was red.

It took him three seconds to realize what was happening. Blood! Blood! Blood! Oh my God, it was his blood. Why was his face bleeding?

Only then did he feel the piercing pain in his face.

It seemed to crack.

Little did he know that the guests were the most horrified at this moment.

They were all dumbfounded and completely witnessed everything that happened. Gu Qiqi waved her knife in front of the shop owner a few times. At first, nothing happened. However, after Gu Qiqi left for at least dozens of seconds... cracks gradually appeared on the shop owner's face.

Lines were interlaced.

Tiny beads of blood gradually poured out.

When the blood completely surged out, everyone finally saw what Gu Qiqi had left on the shop owner's face.

There were two letters.

An B on the left cheek and a S on the right.

The combination was... bullsh*t!

However, no one could laugh at this moment.

At this moment, they finally understood how terrifying Gu Qiqi was.

She actually slashed him like a god. She had clearly cut his skin, but she could make his blood gush out dozens of seconds later!

What a masterful technique it must have been.

She had to be very precise in her calculations.

Everyone looked at the frantic shopkeeper in silence. Then, without a word, they got up and left...

However, just as they reached the door.

Suddenly, a group of people barged in aggressively.

It was the men whose wrists had just been broken and, of course, their reinforcements.

A man or woman in a gray cloak stood between them. He didn't speak, but he raised his hand. His every gesture was authoritative!

The local bullies put their hands on their hips. "Where's that little b*tch? Where did she go? The witch doctor wants to talk to her!"

Gu Qiqi pulled the little singer away from the tavern.

She turned around and pulled out two new coats for the little singer and herself. Then, taking advantage of the night, she sneaked back to her room in the hotel.

After returning to her room and locking the door, Gu Qiqi heaved a sigh of relief. "Alright, I'm safe for the time being."

The little singer looked at her with mixed feelings. "Why did you... go back?"

Why would he show up when he was already gone?

Could it be... that her prayers had really worked?

Gu Qiqi smiled. "I missed you!"

She was wearing Young Master Ye's jacket, and her words subconsciously carried the playfulness of Young Master Ye flirting.

Chapter 1236: Master Qi Kissed Wildly (2)

The moment Gu Qiqi spoke, she suddenly realized that it didn't seem good to tease a girl who had just been bullied by stinky men.

SheHe looked apologetically at Lisa, who was blushing like a small apple.

Gu Qiqi quickly changed the topic. "Lisa, do you know that witch doctors are very powerful?"

Lisa winced, then nodded sharply. "Very powerful."

Gu Qiqi poured her a cup of hot tea and pulled her to sit by the bed. "How powerful? Tell me!"

Lisa licked her lips. "I've heard... they've been undergoing very brutal selection since they were young. Swimming in the snow in the cold winter, riding horses under the scorching sun in summer, soaking in glaciers, descending volcanoes... Anyway, after very harsh selection training, one would be picked to qualify as a witch doctor..."

"That sick?" Gu Qiqi pouted.

He was just a doctor. Wasn't he talented in medicine and passionate about treating illnesses?

Lisa nodded. "They also needed to awaken the witch doctor's bloodline."

Gu Qiqi raised her eyebrows. "Isn't bloodline innate?"

Lisa said, "True born witch doctors are rare. People like these who want to learn the witch doctor's divine skills fast have to take the special spiritual medicine of the witch doctor clan and change their blood... In short, it's a very scary and painful long process waiting for the mutation in their bloodline. They have some unique skills as witch doctors..."

Gu Qiqi frowned. "If it's so troublesome, why does someone want to learn it? Isn't it good to be an ordinary doctor?"

Lisa bit her lip and shook her head. "Ordinary doctors are helpless in the face of many ailments. Neurological diseases, blood disorders, and the now-popular severe influenza and terminal cancer... these can only be cured with a witch doctor's spell. But that's a small thing. The most important thing is that a witch doctor can have the means to prolong life..."

"Life extension?"

"Yes! It means that one's life can be prolonged as long as possible!"

"Damn, then all witch doctors are old farts?"

"You could say that... but not all of them. To really master this spell, you have to be under the tutelage of the Grand Witch Doctor and the Grand Witch Doctor is even more strict when it comes to taking in disciples... He only takes the best students and then teaches them the most powerful spells. When the disciples reach adulthood, there will be a showdown. If the disciple wins, he will become the next Grand Witch Doctor. If the disciple loses..."

"What happens to the loser?"

"That means death."

Gu Qiqi was speechless. "Pervert!"

Lisa lowered her gaze. "But it's this perverse way of taking in disciples and dueling that keeps each generation of witch doctors strong and vigorous in combat. Not only are they skilled in medicine, but they're also skilled in all kinds of attack techniques and evil tricks... That's why the witch doctors have become an existence no one dares to provoke. Their status is so high that even the royal family of this country is afraid of them... If it weren't for the fact that they've always been too lazy to leave the country, I'm afraid their notoriety would have spread abroad..."

Gu Qiqi didn't comment on anything and only sighed. "You guys are really in a magical country..."

Lisa braced herself. "Actually, to tell you the truth, I'm half imperial. I'm also here to—"

Gu Qiqi smiled. "You're here for the Great Pharmacist Guild Conference, right?"

Lisa was shocked.

It was a secret that she didn't dare to say out loud but she decided to be honest because he was grateful to Gu Qiqi for saving her. She didn't expect Gu Qiqi to guess it right.

Lisa gasped. "How... how... how do you know!"

Chapter 1237: Master Qi Kissed Wildly (3)

Looking at Lisa's pure and innocent eyes, Gu Qiqi couldn't help but flirt with her again. "Everyone else sees your beautiful big eyes, but I can see through them to see your heart..."

Sure enough, Lisa's small face grew redder.

Even her voice became soft and small. "I... I wasn't going to hide it from you... it's just... it's just that there were so many people in the bistro just now, I couldn't say..."

Gu Qiqi patted her hand. "It's fine because I'm going too!"

Lisa's eyes widened even more!

"Really? Really?"

She almost jumped out of bed.

This was like a huge pie falling from the sky. How many good deeds had she done in her previous life in exchange for the fate of traveling together with her in this life?

She sniffed and began to stammer. "Can—can I come with you?"

Gu Qiqi raised her eyebrows. "Sure. The question is, are you an apothecary? Do you have an invitation?"

Lisa pursed her lips in embarrassment. "I—I actually sneaked in using an invitation from my family—"

Gu Qiqi couldn't help but laugh. "The Great Pharmacist Guild Conference isn't a fun place. There are all the great alchemists in the world, including witch doctors. You just said how terrifying witch doctors are. Are you sure you want to go?"

Lisa's soft face was suddenly determined. "I have to go! I'm sure!"

After saying that, she looked a little nervous. She wrung her hands as if she was afraid that Gu Qiqi wouldn't let her go with them.

Unexpectedly, Gu Qiqi waved her hand calmly and handsomely. "Alright, since you're determined and know the risks, let's go together."

Lisa was stunned instead.

After a while, he said, "Aren't you going to ask me why I insist on going?"

Gu Qiqi laughed. "This is your privacy. It's not convenient for you to say. Why should I ask?"

Lisa looked at Gu Qiqi with a complicated gaze.

She seemed even more dependent and respectful of her.

Gu Qiqi had already flipped open the map and was checking the location of the Ghost Island.

Lisa peered around her, then suddenly asked cautiously, "I... could you wait a few days...?"

Gu Qiqi looked up and smiled. "I'm afraid I have to ask why this time. Isn't the sooner we set off the better?"

After all, they had provoked the witch doctor's men today. Who knew what might be waiting for them?

Lisa screwed up her face. "I... I don't have enough money for a ticket..."

As she spoke, she was afraid that Gu Qiqi wouldn't bring her along because of this, so she quickly added, "I... I've worked a total of four jobs this semester. Today, you helped me get one of the salaries. Tomorrow morning, I'll go to the school's restaurant, laundry room, and tuition room to chase them for the other three salaries. Together, I can buy a last-class ticket..."

She said carefully. Unexpectedly, Gu Qiqi only asked indifferently, "How much is the last-class ticket?"

"A... a hundred thousand panjias..."

"Only a hundred thousand?" Gu Qiqi decided decisively. "Don't waste time. I'll bring you on the ship."

"But if it's a hundred thousand per person, it's two hundred thousand for two. It's too much..." Lisa was troubled.

Gu Qiqi narrowed her eyes. "I'm talking about first class."

"Head? First class? That costs a million a person!" Lisa shook her head vehemently.

Gu Qiqi shrugged. "There's no need to queue in the first-class cabin. It's worth it."

"But..." Lisa bit her lip.

"It's my treat." Gu Qiqi patted her shoulder. "Don't feel burdened. This is the care a cute little beauty like you deserves."

Lisa's ears turned bright red.

The little dirty turtle covered its face. Master, you're getting better at flirting...

Chapter 1238: Master Qi Kissed Wildly (4)

Gu Qiqi's loyalty and generosity made Lisa so touched that she couldn't speak.

After a moment, she murmured, "Thank you. Thank you so much. I don't know how to repay—"

Gu Qiqi replied simply, "Just marry me!"

Lisa was shocked.

Gu Qiqi laughed. "Haha, I was just joking to ease the atmosphere."

Lisa's little heart, however, was about to leap out of her chest. This wasn't a relief at all. It was... exciting.

Gu Qiqi was smiling as she discussed the route to sea with Lisa tomorrow morning.

Suddenly, a series of heavy footsteps could be heard in the corridor outside the door. It sounded like a group of men approaching.

Gu Qiqi instinctively became more vigilant and sent out the little dirty turtle to check the situation.

The little dirty turtle had just returned from a walk and winked at her when there was a knock on the door.

She heard the man's rough voice, "Open the door! If you don't open it, we'll kick it down!"

Gu Qiqi frowned and said to Lisa, "They still came."

Lisa was startled, then she moved to the door without hesitation. "This started because of me. As long as I go out and admit my mistake, they won't make things difficult for you—"

Gu Qiqi narrowed her eyes and pulled her back. "Silly girl. Do you think they only want to admit their mistake? If you take this step out, they'll eat you until there's nothing left! Why did I go back to the tavern to look for you just now?"

He had turned back to Lisa because she was worried that they would take revenge!

Taking her with her was more about protecting her.

Gu Qiqi was joking with Lisa because she wanted to subtly make her relax and not let those men who had teased and humiliated her occupy her mind!

She had worked so hard to make her sister forget those stinky men. How could she fail overnight?

Lisa looked shaken.

Indeed, it wasn't a coincidence that Gu Qiqi turned around to look for her just now!

Her heart ached.

She became even more determined. She broke free from Gu Qiqi's hand and said softly and firmly, "We can't defeat them. Let me go. It's better for me to be caught alone than for both of us to be caught. You... leave through the window. Leave quickly!... I'm really happy to know you..."

Gu Qiqi squeezed her hand tightly and pulled her back into her arms again. She curled her lips and said calmly, "Who said we were going to fight? Although I'm not afraid of fighting... it's late at night. Other than fighting, there are more interesting things to do..."

Lisa winced. "What—what more interesting thing?"

Outside the door, the men were getting impatient:

"Damn, it's taking so long to open. Something's wrong!"

"Just now, the hotel doorman said that this photo couldn't be seen clearly. He wasn't sure if she had stayed in their hotel. I f*cking think this is the hotel! This is the room!"

"Damn, there's a lot of activity inside. Don't tell me she's going to jump out the window and escape?"

"We'll kick the door in now, Witch Doctor!"

In the blink of an eye, the men really started kicking the door open!

Those people's wrists had been crippled and they were suppressing the humiliation in their hearts. It was not easy for them to invite the witch doctor who was in charge of them over. At this moment, they really wanted to pounce into the door and tear Gu Qiqi apart!

No, no, no. Before they dismember her, they'll kill her after her limbs were broken!

They also wanted to ask the Witch Doctor to give this little b*tch a few potent medications like venom...! Let this little b*tch taste the power of the Witch Doctor!

Therefore, they kicked the door especially hard and fiercely.

It didn't take long... Clang! The door really kicked open for them!!!

They swarmed into the room.

However, they discovered a shocking scene!

Chapter 1239: MMaster Qi Kissed Wildly (5)

The fierce men were all stunned on the spot!

Before they kicked the door open, they thought that Gu Qiqi was struggling in the room and was preparing to jump out of the window like an outlaw. Therefore, they were smug and determined to catch her in the act to torture her wantonly.

After kicking down the door, they realized that was not the case at all!

Where's the desperate person who wants to escape?

In the room, there was a man and a woman kissing!

They saw a girl with her back to them, her collar half pulled. Her small waist was gripped tightly by the man opposite her.

The man's exquisite and handsome face revealed a noble, arrogant, and cynical temperament.

He grabbed the girl's waist with one hand with a wild strength that wrinkled her clothes.

His other hand was clasped in the long hair at the back of the girl's head. He was very wild, as if he wanted to devour her during the kiss!

The men blushed and looked uncomfortable.

The gray-robed witch doctor in the middle snorted. "Is this the person you're looking for?"

When she spoke, it turned out to be a hoarse female voice with a delicate tone.

However, those men were all subservient to her and terrified.

Upon hearing her words, they immediately lowered their heads and reported obediently, "Your Highness, this... doesn't seem like it..."

They were looking for Gu Qiqi and Lisa.

But this was a man and a woman doing something bad.

They thought they had jumped out of the window to escape, but it turned out that the two of them were kissing too hard and knocked against the side of the bed, making a squeaking sound.

That suspicious rustling was probably caused by this man trying to rip off the woman's clothes!

Although they couldn't see that woman's face, she had the wrong hair length and color. The clothes Lisa wore were also terribly old-fashioned and conservative. She seemed to be terrified of even touching a man. How could a man kiss her like that without her making a sound?

Moreover, the woman seemed to be enjoying it very much!

The man wasn't any good. It was obvious he was just playing around.

Lisa would never mix with such people.

Therefore, it could basically be ruled out that this adulterous couple was not Gu Qiqi and Lisa.

The witch doctor, who was known as the Nineteenth Princess, pursed her lips in disdain. "Is this how efficient you people are? Didn't you want me to stand up for you? You can't even find her, so why bother?"

The men were terrified and at a loss.

The witch doctor was angry. The consequences were serious!

The leader, his broken wrist dangling, cautiously suggested, "Your Highness, why don't... we check the next room... we've searched the entire building. We're just missing the last one..."

"Trash!" the witch doctor scolded. "Are you sure you've seen this room clearly? You're looking for two women. Can't that man be a woman in disguise?"

Once her voice fell.

The room was silent for three seconds.

Whether it was a sharp eye or blind luck, he had to admit that this delicate witch doctor really saw a possibility that ordinary people could not.

No one would have guessed that this “man” who was madly in love with the woman in his arms was Gu Qiqi!

The witch doctor had actually suggested it.

This stunned the men for a moment. Lisa, who was in Gu Qiqi’s arms, was so frightened that she didn’t even dare to breathe.

At this moment, she really regretted it. She should have stepped forward to take all the blame and let her benefactor jump off the building to escape!

She knew full well that witch doctors had sharp eyes.

Now, what should they do!

Chapter 1240: Is He Dressed As A Woman?

A minute ago, Gu Qiqi sensed that something was wrong outside and immediately started to change her makeup. She almost demonstrated what a one-second transformation was in front of Lisa!

She was clearly an exquisite and beautiful girl, but she had actually become an elegant and handsome male god.

Ding! Young Master Ye was online!

Before Lisa could react, Gu Qiqi had already put on a nurse’s uniform for her. She even shortened her hair and sprayed a new color.

Fortunately, Gu Qiqi had already changed into a male suit in order to hide her presence in the hotel. This saved her a lot of time.

As those men broke in, Gu Qiqi hugged Lisa and kissed her!

The little turtle was so shocked that he cried out, “Master Qi, be careful! If Master Jue finds out about you and other people, will he want to kill you...”

Gu Qiqi rolled her eyes speechlessly. “Don’t you know what it means to act? Don’t always watch messy movies. Watch more professional movie theories!”

The little turtle was speechless.

Indeed!

Although Gu Qiqi seemed to have kissed Lisa, she had used the method of positioning in the movie.

In other words, Gu Qiqi didn’t really touch Lisa at all. Instead, she used a clever angle to make everyone think that she did!

Then she messed up Lisa's clothes with her hands to distract the views.

Well... it was really fake.

At least Master Qi's integrity was saved...

But no sooner had she breathed a sigh of relief that a greater crisis approached.

The other party actually had a witch doctor holding down the fort and recognized Master Qi's disguise!

Damn, not many people in this world could recognize Young Master Ye as Master Qi!

Master Jue was counted as one.

Beigong Mingtian was also one of them.

It seemed... there was no one else.

The little turtle was very nervous, and Lisa was even more afraid. She struggled to get out of Gu Qiqi's arms and confess. She tried to grab the last chance to protect Gu Qiqi and give up her life in exchange for Gu Qiqi's chance to escape.

Gu Qiqi pressed down with her slender hand!

He pressed Lisa's small head into her arms.

That action was as wild and domineering as it could be.

Even her voice was lazy and devilish. "Be good. Don't be afraid. I'm here."

Then, she raised her eyes and looked at the room full of uninvited guests with a faint smile. His tone was slightly cold. "You're scaring my little baby. This isn't good..."

For some reason, everyone present was shocked.

This man's tone was so calm, but his aura was so strong.

Despite being surrounded by so many people, he was able to keep a straight face and coax his woman before talking to them.

The men were stunned. When they reacted, they gritted their teeth and said, "What do you mean your little baby? She might be the little bitch we're looking for! Are you a woman in disguise?"

"Do you think I look like a woman?" Gu Qiqi's tone became even colder. "Who gave you the guts to disturb me?"

She stroked Lisa's back, as if to soothe her from the shock.

Between the movements of his slender and beautiful wrist, a jade pendant ornament was revealed.

The men were afraid of Gu Qiqi's aura, but they were also afraid of the witch doctor's orders. In between, they braced themselves and took a step forward. "Who are you? Why should we give you face? If you know what's good for you, come closer and let us see if you're real or fake. Don't be shameless..."

If they took another step forward and pulled Lisa away, they would probably give themselves away.

It was not easy for Gu Qiqi to expose herself as a woman. However, Lisa had changed her clothes in a hurry and her face had the same makeup. It was too easy for her to expose herself.

At this moment, Lisa's heart was racing!

They had been discovered!

They were about to be discovered!
