

Dear Chief 1251

Chapter 1251: The Last Man

While The Nineteenth Witch was regretting her actions, Gu Qiqi was already about to send her off. “Well, Your Highness Nineteen, if we’re fated to meet again, let’s meet again on the island... Well, thank you again for your hospitality. I came empty-handed and didn’t prepare any gifts for you... If you don’t mind, try my hometown’s specialty...?”

Gu Qiqi casually picked up a plate of walnuts on the coffee table.

That was what Qiu Qiu had bought for her before they boarded the plane. “Master, walnuts nourish the brain. Eat more!”

That lousy disciple of hers must not be hinting that she needed to nourish her intelligence, but that there were too many bad people on Ghost Island. She needed to work hard, so she had to nourish her brain!

The Nineteenth Witch was even more depressed.

Walnuts...

She wanted to be with him, not some walnuts!

If they couldn’t be on the same team, that meant they might become each other’s enemies in the face-off.

She wanted to fight side by side with him and win the championship of this year’s apothecary competition, leaving behind a unique and beautiful memory.

She didn’t want to be his enemy.

Extremely depressed, The Nineteenth Witch returned to her room.

She kicked open the door and buried herself on the gold velvet sofa as soon as she entered.

“Ahhh! Why was I too late! Annoying! Annoying!” After venting her hysteria, she suddenly looked up and shouted at the window, “It’s all your fault, Second Witch! What kind of rotten idea did you come up with! Giving him fruits was basically ruining my plans. I should have sent myself over! If you hadn’t stopped me and said that all men like reserved women, I would have become familiar with him long ago and formed a team! Now it’s too late, too late! He’s hooked up with another woman!”

In the direction she was pointing, there was a gloomy young man sitting on the sofa by the window. At this moment, he was staring at her with a complicated expression. “Little Junior Sister, I’m not wrong. Ordinary men like to chase after women themselves and don’t like women who throw themselves at them. They definitely won’t cherish them that way. As for this man you’re talking about... He’s so unselfish. In such a short time, he’s already hooked up with another woman, proving that he’s not worthy of being a man at all. You should be happy that you’ve seen his true colors.”

The Nineteenth Witch was furious. “Who said he doesn’t deserve to be a man? What do you know?! He’s the most indomitable man in my heart. I’ve never seen a man with such a unique aura. He can be domineering and gentle in one second...! And... he even gave me such a cute little gift...”

Carefully, the Nineteenth Wizard toyed with a small object in his hand.

The Second Witch was curious.

When he looked closely, he almost jumped off the boat in anger!

Damn it, that pretty boy’s gift to Little Junior Sister was actually wallets the size of quail eggs!

It was obvious they were grown in the wild and underdeveloped.

However, The Nineteenth Witch thought it was extremely precious. The moment she entered, she held it tightly in her palm and flipped it over to look at it.

It was as if she was reading a love letter!

Coupled with the admiration and worship she had for Young Master Ye, Second Witch was so jealous that his lungs were about to explode. He was her second senior brother. After so many years of taking good care of and accompanying her, she actually took a fancy to a gigolo of unknown origins in the blink of an eye!

He could not take this lying down!

Junior Sister must not be seduced by the pretty boy outside.

Second Witch knew there was no point in arguing with his junior now.

How about...

He would personally investigate that pretty boy and destroy him!

It would be best if that guy was eliminated in the first round!

Didn’t Junior Sister say that that guy’s team was still short of one last man?

Chapter 1252: Master Jue Stared at Her From Behind a White Cloud

Second Witch instantly had an idea...

The Nineteenth Witch was still complaining gloomily, “Second Witch, do you think Young Master Ye will develop feelings for that little medicine girl during the competition... You’re a man, help me analyze it. There’s no outcome for a relationship that doesn’t match, right? That woman isn’t worthy of him at all! He should just be playing around, right?”

Second Witch replied absently, “Yes, yes.”

The next moment, however, he excused himself to pee and hurried out of the room...

On the deck.

At this moment, it was already crowded with people who were about to disembark and land on the island.

The groups of four waited for the person in charge of the Great Pharmacist Guild to verify everyone's qualifications to enter the island.

Second Witch, however, did the opposite and headed down another passage.

First-class passengers had special access to the island.

As expected, he found Gu Qiqi and the other two there.

He recommended himself. "Are you still short of people? Can you bring me along?"

Before Gu Qiqi could speak, the two companions behind her shook their heads in unison. "We'll wait for the guild to draw lots!"

If there were not enough people in the team and they were willing to accept the guild's arrangements, they could draw lots to randomly accept the remaining alchemists who were alone. If they gathered enough people, they could also pass.

Otherwise, if they were unwilling to team up with others, they would have to be sent back to their original location.

Gu Qiqi shrugged regretfully. "I'm sorry. I respect my companions' decision."

The old man with the scar whispered in her ear, "It's safer to draw lots at random. You have to be careful of people who come looking for you!"

He made it sound as if he didn't come knocking!

Second Witch had been rejected!

Even as he walked away, he stared at their backs, unable to react. He, the best of the witch doctor's disciples and the second disciple, had been ruthlessly rejected!

He was rejected!

Did they know how good he was?

Did he know that even if someone begged him to join the team, he would ignore them?

The ignorant bastards!

Second Witch gritted his teeth and thought to himself, "Hmph, you don't accept my initiative? Let me tell you, as long as it's something I, Second Witch, want to do, you have to accept it!"

He replayed Gu Qiqi's voice and smile in his mind. He had to admit that Gu Qiqi was indeed a little handsome.

But what was the point of being handsome?

When he sneaked into the team, he would make them lose face and come for nothing!

Second Witch picked up the phone. "Hey, help me arrange something..."

A few minutes later.

Gu Qiqi and the others and the other teams that had yet to form a team were arranged to draw lots.

She sent Lisa as a representative. She went straight to the lot drawing bucket, and pinched out a red sheet.

The person in charge of the guild read the name on the red paper. "Tuesday. Young Master Ye's team, do you accept this person?"

Gu Qiqi was still puzzled. "Isn't it Monday today?"

However, in the next second...

Someone raised his hand and said proudly, "I'm here!"

Second Witch curled his lips and tidied his collar. He walked in front of Gu Qiqi with a faint smile. "What a coincidence. Looks like we're destined to be a team."

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Bloody hell, Tuesday was a human name!

Was it possible that someone in this world was really named Tuesday?!

Looking at this face that she had rejected a few minutes ago, Gu Qiqi tried her best to appear calm. "Alright. Welcome."

This time, she couldn't refuse.

Second Witch, with the alias Tuesday, made a mental note of victory.

A team of three men and one woman was officially formed!

The guild leader instructed the four of them to take out their respective keys and guided them to open the entrance to the spiritual energy layer... Then, he pushed them towards that mysterious world...

Ghost Island, here we come!

At the last moment before the entrance closed, Gu Qiqi couldn't help but look back.

She was looking at the sky of the real world.

For some reason, she felt that Gong Jue was staring at her from behind a white cloud.

Had she indeed begun to miss someone's smell?

Chapter 1253: Poison, Poison, Poison, Poison, Poison!

Gu Qiqi calmed herself down and said to herself silently, "After this competition, I'll find medicine for Xiaobei and Brother Chu. Then, I can rush to fulfill the agreement with Gong Jue without any worries."

Gong Jue said that he would find a place that she didn't expect to relax.

Where would that be?

She looked forward to it!

Forget it. Anyway, Gong Jue would definitely be waiting for her there. If she worked hard to conquer the Ghost Island, she would be able to meet him a day earlier. Of course, she could also see her team victorious earlier.

At the thought of this, Gu Qiqi was filled with endless power.

At this time, when everyone fell onto a lawn and was stained with grass juice, they couldn't help but sigh in pain. However, Gu Qiqi nimbly jumped up and didn't even touch a single leaf.

As a senior witch doctor, Second Witch couldn't help but look at Gu Qiqi in a different light. "Young Master Ye is very skilled..."

Gu Qiqi said calmly, "So-so."

Second Witch pursed his lips and thought to himself, Pretend, pretty boy! Hmph, the most important thing for a doctor is not agility but skills!

With skills, I can easily torture you to death!

However, he endured it. Now was not the time to make a move. His goal in joining Gu Qiqi's team was to investigate the truth and cause trouble.

Endure!

Everyone got up from the ground and gathered around Gu Qiqi.

The team was formed by Gu Qiqi, so she was naturally the team leader.

When the Great Pharmacist Guild pushed them into the spiritual energy layer, they also gave Gu Qiqi four pagers and a set of competition rules.

Gu Qiqi read it out loud to everyone. "The spiritual energy layer is far from human society. There's no signal, so phones are useless. All the teams who participate in this gathering can only contact each other through their pagers and contact us remotely. After entering the Ghost Island, everyone will automatically sign a life and death contract. Whether they live or die has nothing to do with our Great Pharmacist Guild. However, if they fail in the PK, we will send someone to pick up the teams that fail. If they PK all the way to the championship, they will receive a generous reward and the right to enter the core team of the Great Pharmacist Guild. They will also have a chance to become the disciple of an elder in the guild!"

Second Witch and the old man with the scar were very familiar with such rules.

This was the first time Gu Qiqi and Lisa had heard this. They couldn't help but click their tongues.

Life and death were up to fate, and wealth was up to the heavens. This was the signal that these words faintly conveyed.

Whether they would die or live after stepping into the Ghost Island and whether they would fail or become the champion, or even die in an accident, depended on their luck.

She went on to read the PK rules for the first level.

The first stage was to clear the obstacles as quickly as possible and cross the designated area to reach the designated location without any injuries.

The results were calculated according to the passing time!

After reading it, Lisa was dumbfounded. "Is this an apothecary contest? Or is it a wilderness survival challenge?"

Second Witch snorted. "If you don't even know how to survive in the wild, how can you be an apothecary? How can you challenge your ability to pick wild herbs and refine strange herbs?"

Lisa choked. "So... what are the obstacles to get past?"

The old man with the scar said, "It could be a terrain obstacle. It could also be poisonous snakes, poisonous insects, poisonous flowers, poisonous plants..."

Lisa could no longer speak.

She had expected that the trip to the Ghost Island would be very dangerous, but she did not expect it to be so dangerous. It was poison galore! Poison, poison, poison, poison!

Gu Qiqi pondered for a moment and asked Second Witch, "Have you walked through this area?"

Of course, Second Witch walked past it before, but at this moment, he pretended to be confused. "I haven't walked past this place before... If I did, I wouldn't have fallen so badly just now!"

Gu Qiqi turned to ask the old man with the scar, "Have you been here before?"

Chapter 1254: Arrogant Pretty Boy!

The old man with the scar nodded. "Yes. This area seems to be a flat grassland now. Further ahead is a very difficult shrub forest. There are poisonous stingers and thorns everywhere. There are many poisonous insect caves on the ground. There are eagles in the sky that will come down and peck people's eyes. In short, it's not safe to run while standing. It's even more dangerous to squat down and hide..."

Damn, how strange!

They would be surrounded by challenges.

Lisa's palms were sweating nervously.

Second Witch, on the other hand, was gloating. "You were unlucky to have encountered the most difficult starting point in the entire map, pretty boy."

Scared, are you?

See how hard it is for you!

I'll let you become last in the first round and completely lose face in front of Little Nineteen!

However, Gu Qiqi didn't show any fear on her face. She was still as calm as water as she asked calmly, "How long did it take you to walk through this area last time?"

After all, it was many years ago. The old man with the scar pondered for a moment before saying, "About an hour."

Second Witch chuckled again.

Indeed, everyone in the pretty boy's team was trash!

That little girl was obviously a weakling who did not know anything. As for this old man, he could not see through him for the time being. However, when he heard that he took an hour to pass the obstacle course, he knew that he was also trash!

He had walked through this dangerous jungle countless times when he was training with the Nineteenth Witch. The worst result was 45 minutes.

The fastest result took only thirty minutes.

The old man took an hour?

How useless!

It was not easy for Second Witch to suppress the deep disdain in his heart. He pretended to listen attentively, like a newbie idiot who knew nothing. From time to time, he would shoot a question to the old man with the scar. "An hour? That's impressive, right? Then how long do you think it will take for our four-person team to clear the level?"

The old man with the scar frowned and pointed to the top of the mountain in the distance. "Even if the entire process is very smooth, it should take two hours, right? After all, apart from dealing with the poisonous insects and eagle, we still have to run all the way to the foot of that mountain. It should be several kilometers. If we can reach it in two hours, we should be able to rank somewhere in the middle of this competition."

"Oh." Second Witch listened with contempt. He was indeed useless. Even his goal was so useless.

Two hours was like a tortoise crawl!

Lisa didn't understand a thing. She just rubbed her hands together and listened closely and quietly to their discussion.

Gu Qiqi pondered for a moment before asking again, "What's the record for the fastest team?"

Second Witch was still immersed in his disdain and had yet to come to his senses. When he suddenly heard the fastest record, he was stunned. What? The pretty boy still had the cheek to ask the fastest record?

Hahaha!

The old man with the scar replied, "It's said that the fastest record is set by the beloved disciple of the leader of the witch doctors. The second witch set the record back then with 30 minutes. His whereabouts are mysterious, and very few people have seen his true appearance, but it's said that he's one of the most talented disciples of the witch doctors. No one has broken his record yet."

Second Witch was smug.

He thought to himself, "This old man is quite knowledgeable. He knows how impressive I was back then!"

In the next instant, the Second Witch's legs almost buckled. His eyes rolled back in his head and he fell to the floor.

Gu Qiqi said indifferently, "Alright, then our goal today is to break his record."

Second Witch said nothing.

Damn, what an arrogant pretty boy!

You think you can break my records just because you want to?

Talk was cheap!

Chapter 1255: Digging a Hole and Causing Destruction?!

Second Witch glared at Gu Qiqi angrily and almost forgot to hide it.

Fortunately, Gu Qiqi was focused on studying the PK rules and divided the missions. "This round isn't actually a wilderness survival challenge. From the poisonous insects to the thorny bushes, it's a test of our ability to distinguish and treat poison. However, it's better to avoid poison than to distinguish and treat poison."

Lisa diligently asked, "How do you avoid poison, Young Master Ye?"

Gu Qiqi said, "Everything is interdependent. There must be antidotes and anti-poison medicine nearby where any poisonous creatures live. We just have to remember this and deal with it when the time comes."

Lisa was curious again. "What about the eagles that peck the eyes? Was that a test, too?"

Gu Qiqi nodded. "The flying eagle is a test of our flexible adaptability to the environment. You have to know that doctors aren't professionals who will stand steadily in front of the operating table for the rest of their lives and perform surgery under the cold wind of the air conditioner. There are many field doctors in this world who work in very harsh and difficult environments, and their lives are in danger at any time. If doctors only know how to enjoy themselves and can only work in the operating theater, they aren't worthy of being called real doctors. This test is to test if we can still focus on identifying, treating, and preventing poison in situations with external interference! Therefore, the existence of the flying eagle is reasonable and necessary."

After Gu Qiqi's analysis, the originally strange competition immediately became meaningful.

She originally felt that the Great Pharmacist Guild was deliberately making things difficult for these guests, but at this moment, she also felt that they were clearly putting in a lot of effort and were filled with professionalism.

Lisa wasn't the only one looking at her with admiration. The old man with the scar and Second Witch couldn't help but be impressed by her analysis. There was nothing to say.

They had all challenged this stage before, but they had treated it as survival in the wild. How could they have thought that it would be as deep and philosophical as Gu Qiqi said?

However, Gu Qiqi wasn't pleased with the praise she received. She continued calmly, "Since we understand the purpose, let's divide the work. Lisa, follow me. You don't have to do anything. Just follow me closely. Take this bag and store the herbs I hand to you. Then, use these two stones to crush the herbs and put them into bottles for backup. Remember to store the different colored herbs in bottles."

Lisa was absolutely obedient to Gu Qiqi. She would do whatever she said.

Although she didn't understand why Gu Qiqi wanted her to do this.

However, experienced martial artists like the old man with the scar and Second Witch understood at a glance.

It turned out that Gu Qiqi had given a portion of the mission to Lisa.

So Lisa will be responsible for giving everyone support medication during the process?

Gu Qiqi turned around and said to the old man with the scar, "I'm really sorry. I haven't asked for your name."

The old man's eyes flickered. "My name is... you can call me Uncle Yun."

"Uncle Yun." Gu Qiqi pondered.

She and the surname Yun were really fated.

One of her best friends was Yun Qiao, and her brother Xiaobei's favorite robot was Brother Yun...

Her lips curled up slightly. She did not have time to think. "Uncle Yun, you're the only one among us who has been to this dangerous forest. Then I'll have to trouble you to scout the way for us! Please help us control the direction so that we can keep moving towards our target and not deviate."

"Alright," Uncle Yun agreed readily.

Second Witch couldn't help himself. "What about me?"

Why wasn't it his turn yet?

Chapter 1256: Every Night Was Not Possible

Second Witch couldn't wait to find out which area he could sabotage, okay!

The original plan was to get some poisonous grass to treat their wounds and speed up their collapse while foaming at the mouth, or deliberately lead them astray so that they would foolishly wander around and waste time. He might even lead them to the most poisonous worm.

However, with Gu Qiqi's division of labor, these methods were useless.

How depressing!

Seeing that Second Witch was so proactive, Gu Qiqi smiled. "Oh Tuesday, you and I will deal with the poisonous insects and eagles. Not only do we have to ensure that we won't be attacked, but we also have to protect Uncle Yun and Lisa. How about this? We'll do a more detailed division of labor. I'll be in charge of the eagles in the sky, and you'll be in charge of the poisonous insects underground."

Second Witch spat blood.

Damn, why did she give him the hardest and most annoying job?

How many eagles were there?

But poisonous insects were everywhere, and they were elusive!

If he could deal with the poisonous insects alone, the entire team would not have to do anything else at all. They would just have to move forward. What was the point of having skills? Wasn't this putting the heaviest responsibility on him?

Why did he feel like he had been tricked?

If he wasn't sure that it was impossible for Gu Qiqi to know him, he would really suspect that his disguise as Tuesday was gone.

"Why? Do you think you can't do it?" Gu Qiqi asked indifferently when she saw him in a daze.

Second Witch reacted, flushing. "Who says I can't do it? How can a man not do it!"

Gu Qiqi immediately nodded in approval. "That's good. It's settled then!"

"Hey, wait ..." Second Witch was still planning to bargain.

In the end...

Gu Qiqi raised her eyebrows again. "Oh, what else can't you do?"

You're the one who can't do it!!! Every night was not possible for you!!!

Second Witch was annoyed to death. "There's nothing wrong," he replied sullenly. "I'll just... do it."

Then he regretted it.

Why did he have to be so prideful? If he couldn't do it, so be it. Why did he have to agree to such a heavy responsibility?

The thought of countless poisonous insects hiding underground in the thorny land, ready to emerge and attack at any moment, made Second Witch's scalp tingle.

Alone!

He had to deal with a large wave of poisonous insects alone!

In the past, he had brought three subordinates to clear the level. Now, he was the only one dealing with it!

He glared angrily at Gu Qiqi's back. What a useless pretty boy!

After splitting up the work, Gu Qiqi clapped her hands and encouraged everyone. "Although this round is a little difficult, I saw it just now. The rewards are also very generous. As long as you clear it, you will be rewarded. There are many precious herbs like lingzhi and ancient ginseng. If you can get into the top three, you will be rewarded with top-grade herbs. The reward for this round is seven-colored cloud stone."

The old man with the scar did not care. "I just want to visit my old place after clearing the level and pay respects to my dead old friend... I'll leave the reward to you young people!"

Second Witch didn't say anything, but he was filled with disdain. Tsk, how precious is a lousy stone? What an inexperienced pretty boy!

Only Lisa was so excited she forgot to breathe.

After being stunned for a few seconds, she screamed, "Seven-colored cloud stone! Can... can I have one?"

That was one of the most important medicinal herbs that she painstakingly needed for her seriously ill sister.

Gu Qiqi smiled at her. "Sure! The premise is that we have to work hard!"

Lisa nodded vigorously and her fighting spirit was suddenly ignited. She raised her small fist. "Young Master Ye, I will definitely do my best!"

Second Witch pursed her lips secretly. Work hard? I'll let you work it for nothing!

With one hand behind his back, he discreetly raised his middle finger...

Chapter 1257: Is Your Brain Made Of Tofu?

After Gu Qiqi assigned the mission, the few of them immediately took action.

Uncle Yun led the way.

Gu Qiqi guided Lisa on the left and Second Witch was on the right.

He did not feel much on the grass, but once he entered the thorny bushes, he was immediately in danger!

Uncle Yun's first step landed on a small insect nest.

In an instant, fat, finger-sized flesh worms appeared one after another.

The bugs were slow, but their antennas were nimble as they sprayed poison

Gu Qiqi grabbed a medicinal herb and threw it to Lisa. "Mix the medicine!"

She frowned and ordered Second Witch, "What are you waiting for? Destroy the insects!"

Second Witch had always been in command of others. When had he ever been shouted at like this? He immediately felt unhappy.

But he was indeed half a beat too slow.

It wasn't intentional. When he wanted to destroy the insects, he instinctively raised his hand to chant the witch doctor's incantation.

But when he opened his mouth, he realized that something was wrong!

He was hiding his identity to cause trouble. If he used the methods of a witch doctor, wouldn't he easily expose his identity and make that pretty boy Young Master Ye suspect him?

Hence, the raise and retract of his hand delayed time.

At this moment, when he heard Gu Qiqi's order, he came back to his senses. He quickly picked up a thorny dead branch and poked it at the worms on the ground!

He was strong enough to break the worm in half. Green insect blood splattered.

"Uncle Yun, don't move. Let's retreat! Retreat to the grass first!" In the blink of an eye, Gu Qiqi pulled Lisa back to the grass.

Sure enough, Uncle Yun stopped dead.

Second Witch was the most depressed. When he heard Gu Qiqi say to retreat, the poisonous liquid of the worm had already splashed onto his hand!

Gu Qiqi frowned and quickly stepped forward to pull him out. "Don't you know that this worm is poisonous? Why are you standing there like a fool? Why aren't you listening to my instructions?"

Second Witch said nothing.

Of course he knew this worm was poisonous.

However, the problem was that he could not use his witch doctor skills. He could only use the stupidest and most primitive brute force to solve the problem. Of course, his movements would be slower and his reactions would be slower!

Gu Qiqi's tone was a little stern. "You only want to kill the worm, but you don't want to waste time like this! You also don't want to poison yourself by killing it! Is your brain made of tofu?"

Then he instructed Lisa, "Put the herb juice on him!"

Then, she continued to reprimand, "It's not easy to get medicinal herbs. Try not to get injured and don't increase your teammates' workload!"

Second Witch said nothing.

He had never been so dissed in his life.

He couldn't help but mutter under his breath, "If we don't kill them and eight or ten of these worms come out, we'll all be finished if they casually spray poison. It won't be as simple as being injured..."

Gu Qiqi ignored him and snatched the thorny branches from his hand. She threw them forcefully and stabbed the entrance of the insect nest!

The fat worms would not be able to crawl out anytime soon.

Although she said nothing, silence spoke louder than words.

She demonstrated how to deal with poisonous insects with practical actions.

That was to cut off the path from which the poisonous insects had emerged.

Second Witch stared blankly.

He suddenly remembered that when he set a record, he had killed so many insects that his eyes turned red. He had directly transported thousands of kilograms of poisonous insect powder and scattered it all over the place, causing the poisonous insects to die everywhere. Only then did he finally step over them in an airtight gas suit.

On the other hand, Gu Qiqi used such a simple technique to stop the poisonous bugs and save time. He was really... impressed!

Chapter 1258: Iron-Blooded Mercenary!

However, there was another voice shouting crazily in his mind: Not convinced! Not convinced! I must not be convinced by this pretty boy!

Wasn't it just using dead branches to stuff wormholes? Who didn't know such an idiotic method? He just hadn't thought of it that way before...

"Do you understand?" Gu Qiqi asked him after reprimanding him.

Without thinking, Second Witch replied, "Understood!"

It was simple to death. It's not a very advanced technique. What's not to understand?

Gu Qiqi instructed, "Alright, adjust the formation. You'll take the lead and eliminate the insects! The others will follow the original mission! Can you do it or not? Men can't say that they can't do it, okay?"

Second Witch said nothing.

Damn, it would be so hard for him to take the lead!

He wanted to protest, but his tongue felt numb and swollen, and suddenly he couldn't speak.

It was the juice of the poisonous insects invading his nerves.

Seeing this, Gu Qiqi casually pulled at the thorny bushes and threw him a medicinal herb. "Chew it yourself and swallow it."

Second Witch didn't recognize the name of the herb either, but he had to admit it was effective. He was able to speak quickly. "I'm afraid I can't stop the poisonous insects if I'm alone ahead..."

Gu Qiqi interrupted him. "You can do it. Have some confidence in yourself and learn what I did just now. If the wormhole is bigger, pick a thicker branch. If it's smaller, pick a smaller one. I know you're not stupid. It's easy to fight once you understand."

She sounded like she was teaching a schoolboy.

Second Witch wanted to cry.

Who the hell was worried about whether there were enough branches to get into the wormhole!

He was clearly worried about...

Second Witch said, "The poison of this poisonous worm is too strong. If I accidentally touch it again, I'll have to waste your time treating me. It's not worth it. Why don't we have two more people to deal with the worms?"

He said it politely and tactfully, making such a perfect excuse.

How could he have expected that...

Gu Qiqi frowned and rejected him. "No, we have to do our jobs."

Then she comforted him. "Don't worry. Even if you're poisoned a thousand times, I have a way to get Lisa to save you a thousand times."

Second Witch said nothing.

He already had a terrifying image of himself dead and alive.

"Alright, no more nonsense. Continue forward!" Gu Qiqi's eyes were firm.

Everyone regrouped. Second Witch led the way miserably, not daring to be distracted at all.

He didn't trust them. None of them could save him if he was poisoned.

As he fought the worms, he got up and even had the time to look sideways at Gu Qiqi and the others.

The eagles flew down one after another and were chased away by Gu Qiqi. Not to mention pecking at their eyes, even the corners of their clothes could not be touched.

Bloody hell, how?

The eagles were very fierce. Back then, he had spent a lot of effort to break through and continuously cut off the eagle's feet. His hands were almost crippled from exhaustion, which was why these eagles could not get close...

What method had the pretty boy used?

He finally realized that the mission Gu Qiqi gave him wasn't the most difficult.

If Gu Qiqi had asked him to deal with the eagles, his methods definitely wouldn't have been so effective.

How depressing. Why did he lose to this pretty boy again...

As he thought about it, he heard a scream in the distance. The sound of helicopter rotors filled the sky.

Uncle Yun sighed. "A team was seriously injured and eliminated, right? This helicopter took them out..."

"Why were the people in the helicopter wearing strange costumes?" Lisa asked curiously.

Uncle Yun explained to her, "Those are iron-blooded mercenaries. They're hired by the Great Pharmacist Guild to maintain order."

As they chatted, the depressed Second Witch quietly moved the thorny branch in his hand.

It caused a large gap to appear in the originally stuffed wormhole.

Meanwhile, the insects were desperately squeezing out from that crack and heading straight for Gu Qiqi who was looking up at the sky...

Chapter 1259: Killing the Pretty boy!

At this moment, Gu Qiqi was listening to Uncle Yun's explanation. She looked up at the helicopter not far away and didn't pay attention to what Second Witch was doing.

"Iron Blooded Mercenary? Are they very powerful?" Gu Qiqi was very curious about this title.

"Quite impressive." Uncle Yun nodded. "This is an organization with irregular members. Those who can enter this organization are definitely famous figures on the assassin rankings of various countries. Moreover, the price of a mission is quite shocking. Ordinary small countries can't afford to hire them."

Uncle Yun spread out his ten fingers and compared them.

"A hundred thousand?" Lisa asked curiously.

Uncle Yun shook his head.

"A million?" Lisa clucked her tongue.

Uncle Yun still shook his head.

"Could it be ... ten million?" Lisa was already stunned.

Uncle Yun still shook his head.

"It's not hundreds of millions, is it?" Lisa was too tired to guess.

Uncle Yun smiled but said nothing. "Poverty limits our imagination. The world of the rich is more than we can guess."

Gu Qiqi sighed. "It seems that the Great Pharmacist Guild is very strong. It's just a gathering competition, but they have to hire mercenaries to oversee it."

Liza asked innocently, "This Great Pharmacist Guild is quite charitable, getting soldiers to protect us."

Uncle Yun sneered. "Hehe, then you're thinking too much. We've already signed a life and death contract. Whether we live or die, we're responsible for it. The Great Pharmacist Guild doesn't care about anything. They hired mercenaries to maintain order and monitor us. Once we touch something that shouldn't be touched on the Ghost Island, we'll probably be wiped out and have our heads blown off by the mercenaries' guns."

Lisa shuddered, losing her grip on the herbs. "I—we won't be killed by mercenaries for picking herbs, will we? I—oh dear, why do I see a mercenary flying toward us with a parachute!? Are they here to kill me???"

Her hand trembled, and all the herbs she had just mashed spilled on the ground.

Second Witch, who had been silent all this time, smiled evilly. Great, the herbs are useless too. When the pretty boy is bitten by the insects later, he won't have any medicine either. He'll faint from the pain...?

Hehe, the pretty boy's death was just around the corner.

Oh dear, he hadn't expected victory to be so easy.

However, a corner of his heart suddenly twitched for some reason. He was a little worried that this pretty boy would be poisoned to death by the insects.

At the thought that Gu Qiqi's fair and cold face had turned purple, black, and ugly because of the poison, a hint of pity flashed across Second Witch's heart...

He shook his head in disgust.

Damn, why did he pity a pretty boy who was fighting with him for a woman? He was really crazy.

He grabbed his hair in frustration. He made up his mind and stared at those little bugs. They squirmed and climbed onto Gu Qiqi's short boots...

Climb! Hurry up!

It crawled into his pants!

Gu Qiqi sensed something amiss.

The little dirty turtle lay on her chest. "Master, I smell that disgusting smell of insects. Did someone step on a wormhole again? That Tuesday was too naive. He's not good at dealing with insects!"

Gu Qiqi frowned. Just as she was about to turn around to look, a gust of wind blew the leaves over. A helicopter was hanging above their heads, and a paratrooper was really descending!

The man in the camouflage uniform was burly and suave. He wore a gas mask and was dressed in professional mercenary gear. He was simply handsome.

As the man approached, Gu Qiqi widened her eyes.

He, he, he, he was—!

Chapter 1260: Gong Jue Descends From the Sky

Were there eyes in this world that looked exactly the same?

Maybe there were.

Then was there anyone who was just as tall and sexy?

I suppose... there were.

But was there anyone who had the same domineering aura, cold and hot eyes, and extremely sexy breaths?

There must be none!

Gu Qiqi stared blankly at the man who had descended from the sky.

Even though the man was dressed in a camouflage uniform that she had never seen before and was wearing a tight gas mask, the aura around him was still enough for her to recognize him in a second!

Gong Jue!

Gong Jue was actually here!

Wasn't he supposed to be in S Country dealing with his restless enemies? Wasn't he deep in the Cold North Mountains, where even cell phone signals were almost impossible to reach?

How had he crossed over to an island nation in the South Pacific and descended here?

She stared blankly, her big eyes already filled with a thin mist.

Beside her, Lisa was still holding her head and screaming in terror. "Don't hurt us. We just picked a few herbs. We didn't do anything bad. Boohoo..."

Even Uncle Yun was a little nervous. He clenched his fists and hung them nervously by his sides. His lips moved as he muttered, "Mercenaries. Why would mercenaries come looking for us? Did we do something wrong just now..."

However, Gong Jue didn't care about them at all. Instead, he headed straight for Gu Qiqi. The parachute behind him could actually be automatically controlled and stopped in midair without landing.

He looked almost like an archangel if there was even a halo over his head.

Gu Qiqi watched as he got closer and closer...

That familiar aura made her certain that this was definitely Gong Jue.

Just as the two of them were so close that their bodies could almost touch, the little dirty turtle suddenly screamed, “Master Silver! It’s really poisonous! Your legs! Your feet! Ah... It’s going to crawl into your pants...!”

Gu Qiqi’s body tensed up. Before she could turn around to check, she saw a bright saber flash in front of her!

The next second.

Lisa’s shrill plea rang out. “Don’t hurt Young Master Ye! Please!”

The man’s posture was cold, and his face was cold.

He raised his hand and slashed down.

Lisa covered her eyes in horror.

“Pfft—!”

“Pfft—!”

“Pfft—!”

Tiny cracking sounds suddenly sounded.

However, Gu Qiqi felt relieved. She knew that Gong Jue was helping her deal with those poisonous insects.

But...

She shot him a slightly angry look. Stupid man, this worm is poisonous. If you kill it directly, the poison will splash everywhere!

Gong Jue was stunned. Then, he glanced at the insect corpses that were scattered on the ground.

The dark green venom indeed burst out... However, it all splashed onto the second fool behind.

His woman was unharmed!

Gong Jue’s apology immediately dissipated. He didn’t even look at Second Witch anymore. Second Witch, who was splashed with poison, only stared at Gu Qiqi. Stupid woman, did you flirt around again when I wasn’t around?

He had heard Lisa’s “please let Young Master Ye off” clearly and was extremely displeased.

Had this stupid woman been flirting with him behind his back and making other women fall head over heels for her?
