

Dear Chief 1271

Chapter 1271: Enraged Second Witch!

Gu Qiqi had already jumped out of the PK circle and left Lisa alone to punch and kick Second Witch. However, Second Witch was getting weaker and weaker. On the other hand, Lisa was so confident that she became braver.

Gu Qiqi smiled and said, "Second Witch, are you wondering why you can't use all your strength? Aren't you very useless?"

Second Witch flushed. "Who says I'm useless!"

Gu Qiqi said, "I might as well tell you. When you were poisoned by the insect poison just now, I added Qi Dispelling Powder to the herbs you took."

Qi Dissipation!

Second Witch's pupils dilated!

That cunning pretty boy!

What was Qi Dispelling Powder? All the doctors who studied martial arts knew that it was a medicine that could melt the essence, energy, and spirit of a person's body and make them soft and weak.

It's only used by gangsters and hooligans in fights!

The pretty boy was actually using it on him?

Second Witch said weakly, "You're... shameless!"

Gu Qiqi said, "Eh? What face do I have with a shameless spy?"

Second Witch said nothing.

In her infinite rage, Lisa punched him in the nose with an eagle claw...

Finally.

Second Witch teetered on the verge of collapsing.

Lisa shouted excitedly, "Young Master Ye, I did it! I did it!"

Gu Qiqi smiled faintly. "Don't be happy too early. We lost a laborer. We can only complete the subsequent battles with three people. We have to conserve our strength. Hurry up and eat something to replenish your energy."

Lisa said, "Yes!"

She brought the refreshments in the lounge over to enjoy with Gu Qiqi and couldn't help but ask, "Young Master Ye, since our chances of winning in the future aren't high, why didn't we expose him earlier in the first round and snatch first place?"

Gu Qiqi smiled. "What's so good about being first? Actually, it's very easy to be first. It's just a three-second difference. We'll be first if we kill a few more insects. However, there's no need to fight for first place in this first round. Isn't it better to let the first and second in the Witch Doctor fight to the death? Although we're third, it's much easier to crush the fourth."

Lisa's eyes lit up. "That's right. That makes sense. Let the witch doctors PK among themselves and help us eliminate a strong team first! Hey, this method is too good. I actually didn't think of it at all! Young Master Ye, you're really far-sighted!"

On the ground.

When the dying Second Witch heard that Gu Qiqi had deliberately given up the first place and was scheming to let the first and second teams of their witch doctors kill each other in the second round, he vomited a mouthful of blood. He was really furious!

His eyes widened and he fainted...

Heaven wanted him dead!

The pretty boy wanted him dead!

After Second Witch fainted, Lisa circled him a few times. "Young Master Ye, how long can he sleep like this? Will he seek revenge on us for the witch doctors when he wakes up?"

Gu Qiqi pondered for a moment and took out a small bottle of medicine. "Let him drink this."

Lisa followed suit. "What is this, Mister Ye? Can it poison him?"

Gu Qiqi smiled. "Although Second Witch is shameless, it's not to the extent that he should die. At that time, he let the insects bite me just to make me unconscious and delay the progress. Otherwise, he could have thrown the insects at my neck and let the poisonous insects bite my main artery..."

Lisa was surprised. "Young Master Ye, you actually noticed so many details in such a short time..."

Gu Qiqi said, "Yes. I'm a fair person. An eye for an eye. Let him faint until the competition ends."

Therefore, what she fed Second Witch was not a fatal poison, but a double dose of sleeping potion.

After kicking Second Witch and seeing that he was completely unconscious, Gu Qiqi asked Uncle Yun to carry Second Witch to a cubicle in the washroom and lock him up.

Well, by the time this guy wakes up, they'll probably have left Ghost Island! Haha.

By the time they were done, there was already an urging voice on the radio—

Chapter 1272: Don't Talk Nonsense, Just Roll Up Your Sleeves and Do It!

"First and second place PK results are out! The third and fourth place teams, please enter the PK!" The broadcast urged again and again.

Third place?

Gu Qiqi turned around and asked Uncle Yun, "It's our turn so soon? Did you hear the results of the top two?"

Uncle Yun said, "The Nineteenth Witch's team won. To be honest, her senior brother's team was stronger. He must have deliberately lost today. After all, the loser is automatically eliminated in this round of PK. He can't bear to let his junior sister die in this round."

Gu Qiqi nodded. "Yes. This is good news for us. If they keep the weak one, we'll be more confident when we PK with her next time."

As Lisa listened to their analysis, she finally understood why Gu Qiqi had kept Second Witch alive even though she had seen through him from the beginning.

This was because Gu Qiqi had to accurately control her results in third place.

But that was extremely difficult.

Only by letting Second Witch, an undercover agent, spill the information to the other two teams of the witch doctors and let them take first and second place would she be confident that she could overtake the following teams, but not the two Witch Doctor teams.

She would secure third place!

Next, she would naturally kill number four.

Meanwhile, she would let the first and second teams fight among themselves and finish off one powerful opponent for them.

Impressive. This scheme was really impressive.

While she could only see the situation in front of her, Gu Qiqi could already see the second, third, and even the end...

What was planning ahead? This was planning ahead!

What did it mean for an expert to win from a thousand miles away? This was called winning from a thousand miles away!

Lisa looked at Gu Qiqi with admiration.

However, Gu Qiqi didn't think that she had done anything impressive. She was just improvising.

"Let's go up to the PK field! According to the previous allocation, Lisa will work as a nurse and cooperate with us. I'll be in charge of three operations and Uncle Yun will be in charge of one."

"Okay!"

"Lisa, the role of a nurse is not easy. On the contrary, it's crucial. Perhaps a nurse cannot determine the success rate of the operation, but she will influence whether it fails or not! Once a nurse is negligent with the details, no matter how skilled a doctor is, there will be no hope."

"Young Master Ye, Lisa has learned well! I will definitely not let go of any small details later!" Lisa clenched her small fists.

“Don’t be too nervous. Relax and do your best.” Gu Qiqi patted her shoulder.

The PK room was two adjacent operating rooms.

When Gu Qiqi and the others entered, they realized that the patient was actually a participant who had been seriously injured and eliminated in this competition.

Lisa was secretly shocked. If not for Young Master Ye’s protection, she would probably be the one lying on the operating table, dying and covered in blood!

Clenching her fists, she decided that she couldn’t always be a burden to Young Master Ye. She had to do her best to help.

However, the heavens did not seem to be helping them much this time. When they drew lots, there were a total of eight critically ill patients. They drew four of the most seriously ill. Someone had ruptured spleen, someone had been bitten by poisonous insects until all their blood had turned black, someone was scared out of his wits and bile was flowing everywhere... All of them were very tricky life-saving surgeries.

On the other hand, the fourth team was extremely lucky. Almost all the people they drew were trauma patients. They looked like they were missing arms and broken legs. All they needed was an amputation or bone replacement.

The members of the fourth team clapped in celebration. They winked at Gu Qiqi’s team and even whistled. “Hey, do you want to admit defeat in advance?”

Gu Qiqi retorted calmly, “If you admit defeat in advance, I won’t object.”

“Yo, this guy’s got a big mouth! Let’s fuck him up!”

Gu Qiqi couldn’t be bothered to waste her breath. She gave Lisa and Uncle Yun a look. Come, roll up your sleeves and fight! Fight them!

Chapter 1273: Queen-like Leadership

Gu Qiqi’s team unfortunately drew the most difficult surgery missions.

This made the originally weak fourth place ecstatic. It also put pressure on Lisa and Uncle Yun.

Gu Qiqi tried her best to disperse their nervousness. “Come, let’s adjust our strategy. Uncle Yun, why don’t you try this one who was blinded by the eagle? It’s impossible for her to regain his sight. Stop the bleeding and deal with the minced meat tissue. Then, prevent infection. Yes, let’s deal with it like this. The process is more cumbersome, but you’ve been a doctor for many years and have experience.”

Uncle Yun accepted the task gratefully.

This blind patient was considered one of the easier patients.

If it was an eyeball transplant, he couldn’t do it.

If it was just wound treatment... he could do it!

Gu Qiqi turned around and made arrangements. "Lisa, don't be a nurse first. Come and be a doctor!"

"Me? I—I—can I?" Lisa stammered, her confidence flagging.

"You can do it! Treat the poisoned patient just like how you treated Second Witch previously. Don't you still have the herbs from the thorny terrain? Then, monitor his blood condition at all times. If you need to change his blood, come to me for help." Gu Qiqi encouraged her.

Lisa pursed her lips, knowing that sharing the burden at this point would be a small contribution to the PK results. Despite still feeling very apprehensive, she bravely agreed.

The three of them seized the moment and immediately threw themselves into the treatment.

The four people in the operating room next door were stunned. They simply felt that they were not normal humans.

"Why do I think only two of those three are barely doctors?"

"That's right. And why are they missing someone?"

"Maybe he was so weak that he died in the thorny terrain?"

"So how did they get third place? Cheating?"

"Well... The person who possibly died was already the most powerful among them. The results are all based on that person's hard work, right?"

"So the remaining three of them are useless?"

"Isn't that obvious? Look, that girl almost spilled the disinfectant! That old man's eyesight isn't good. He almost cut the patient's nose when he cleaned the eyeballs!"

"Hahaha... We're definitely going to insta-kill that bunch of trash!"

A chorus of jeers erupted from the operating room next door.

Indeed, according to normal calculations, the patients the fourth team was responsible for had external injuries which could be treated in less than an hour.

As for the critically ill patients in Gu Qiqi's team, just the process of cleaning their eyeballs would take more than an hour. This was because the eyes were too fine, and there were too many small blood vessels and nerves. The requirements for doctors were too high.

The ruptured spleen and gallbladder that Gu Qiqi were treating at this moment were even more difficult!

The former had a healing rate of no more than 70% in the world!

Although the latter could be removed directly from the gallbladder, the patient's bile had already flowed into the abdominal cavity, forming severe jaundice and peritoneal inflammation. The fever had not subsided and remained at 40 degrees celsius...

They were all rather tricky serious surgery cases!

No wonder the fourth team in the operating room next door was so confident they could beat them.

At this moment, Gu Qiqi was very calm when facing the two patients.

The gossip and mockery of others were nothing to her.

Talk was cheap in PKs. It all depended on the outcome!

She put the two patients' operating beds head to head and observed the patient's physical indicators for three seconds. Then she took a scalpel in each hand and began!

She raised her hand and cut open the patient's abdomen!

Two patients' bellies!

It was a perfect incision. Not a single drop of blood flowed out. It was Gu Qiqi's usual surgical style.

However, this time, it was obvious that her performance was even more heaven-defying.

At the same time, she used her left hand and right hand to operate on two patients!

Chapter 1274: Is That Man a Demon?

Gu Qiqi cut the two patients at the same time.

Initially, there was only a doctor who was fixing a patient's bones in the operating theater next door. He glanced over leisurely.

Then he was stunned!

Cut... He could cut two patients at the same time? Oh my God, was he mistaken?

Rubbing his eyes, he focused again. What he saw completely shocked him—

Not only did Gu Qiqi perform a laparotomy with both hands at the same time, she even performed surgery on two patients at the same time!

It had to be known that both patients had ruptured internal organs. One of them had to undergo a cholecystectomy, and the other had to undergo a total splenectomy plus an intrathecal transplant from the autologous spleen tissue.

None of them were minor surgeries!!!

Even a normal doctor would probably need an assistant and a nurse to complete the procedure smoothly, let alone two at the same time.

However, she seemed to have three heads and six arms. She could actually start work at the same time?

If it were him, he wouldn't even be able to look at both sides, let alone use his hands!

This person's heart skipped a beat when he saw this, and his hand movements froze. After a long while, he turned his head and shouted to his other three companions with a trembling voice, "Look! Look at the third group. That man is heaven-defying. He's treating two people alone!!!"

The other three stopped what they were doing and looked over.

What they saw scared them so much that they almost dropped their scalpels.

Was that man a demon?

How could anyone in this world do two surgeries at the same time?

They watched in a daze for a long time and saw that Gu Qiqi's movements were extremely agile. She removed, sutured, and changed the spleen... She also took the hemostatic gauze and changed the scalpel.

That was too terrifying!

What was even worse was that Gu Qiqi's every operation move was textbook-level. She was straightforward, neat, and accurate. Be it removing or suturing, she was especially successful. The most difficult thing to deal with was the spleen transplantation. This was very different from ordinary complete organ transplantation. It especially tested her abilities.

However, after watching Gu Qiqi's entire transplant process, everyone was in admiration. There was nothing to criticize.

Perfect! Just perfect!

This man must be a demon!

As they watched, they realized that they were already so frightened that their eyes were blurry. Otherwise, why did they feel that the medicinal bottles on the operating table seemed to have started to move automatically? When the man reached out, the bottles automatically sucked over from half a meter away and landed steadily in his hand!

Even after Gu Qiqi stitched up the abdominal cavity of the two patients and applied the healing medicine on them, bandaged them up, and adjusted the life data monitor to an automatic monitoring state, everyone's eyelids were still so sore that they couldn't close them. Their eyes were too wide just now and they couldn't retract them.

The only female contestant in the fourth team finally couldn't help but let out a hoarse and long sigh. "So... handsome...!"

The other three male contestants couldn't help but roll their Adam's apple. Holy shit, why were their hormones soaring as they watched this monstrous man operate? Why were their mouths turning dry?

They're not bent. They really aren't.

Boom!

The ancient wooden grandfather clock struck half the time.

Half an hour passed.

They jerked awake.

Dumbfounded, they realized that they had actually foolishly watched the entire process of Gu Qiqi's surgery for half an hour without realizing it.

Damn, the surgery was done perfectly. They hadn't even started yet.

They had seen opponents who tried all means to cause trouble, but they had never seen someone like Gu Qiqi, who could completely stop the opponent's progress with her perfect technique!

She was a demon!

Chapter 1275: One Surgery Failed

Gu Qiqi had completed both surgeries. She took a deep breath and stretched her arms and bones.

She looked up at the operating theater opposite her and was slightly surprised. "Huh? It's been half an hour. Had their bone reconnection and amputation just begun?"

The little dirty turtle held its stomach and laughed. "Master, those idiots were stunned by your medical skills just now. They were scared silly and couldn't take their eyes off you for a full half an hour! Haha, they forgot that they were in a competition and had a surgery to complete!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Sigh, unreliable opponents really had no discipline when they competed.

She walked over to Lisa's table and saw that Lisa was very serious about applying and feeding the poisoned patient. The blackness in the patient's face showed signs of fading.

She nodded approvingly. "Excellent."

Lisa received praise from her god and her small heart thumped as she continued to meticulously complete the treatment.

Gu Qiqi checked the progress of Uncle Yun's surgery again.

Uncle Yun was facing a patient whose eyeballs had been scratched by an eagle's claw.

This patient was in a worse state. He was also a great medicine master with profound medical skills. It was said that he had been doing free medical support in the poorest areas of Africa all year round and had saved countless dying children.

This time, he was not here to win the championship, but to advertise for the local sick children, hoping that more capable alchemists would participate in the public welfare treatment...

Unfortunately, he was kind-hearted. His physical skills were a little weak, and he did not know how to defend himself. When he was attacked by the eagle, he was simply unable to withstand it. His eyeball was directly pierced.

As Uncle Yun cleaned up his shattered eyeball, he couldn't help but sigh. Seeing that Gu Qiqi had come to observe the progress of the surgery, he hurriedly said, "It's almost done. I'll be done after the bandage is done. It shouldn't be a problem for us to instantly kill the fourth place. After all, they've just started."

In half an hour, four tricky surgeries were completed successfully.

Forget about insta-killing the fourth place, they would probably be able to insta-kill everyone.

Gu Qiqi suddenly shook her head slightly. "Wait, don't bandage it first."

"Huh?" Uncle Yun was confused.

They were only one step away from victory. Why did Young Master Ye want him to stop?

He looked at Gu Qiqi in confusion.

However, he realized that Gu Qiqi's gaze was on the operating theater next door.

A red light in the operating room next door lit up!

What did this mean? It meant that one of the surgeries in the operating theater next door had failed!

Uncle Yun couldn't help but sigh heavily in his heart. Sigh, as a doctor, it was understandable that someone was flustered and didn't perform well when he bumped into an opponent like Gu Qiqi.

It was Young Master Ye after all.

Gu Qiqi had already strode out of the automatic glass door of the surgery and walked straight next door.

The fourth team was next door.

The failed operation had been an amputation.

Generally speaking, the success rate of amputation was relatively high. As long as infection was prevented, there was basically no problem.

The doctor who was performing the surgery was dumbfounded when he saw the cardiac arrest and brain waves displayed on the life indicator...

How was that possible? There hadn't been the slightest slip-up in his operation. He had done it exactly as a normal amputation would have proceeded. This patient also looked big and strong, except that he had broken his leg bone in a thorn bush and been bitten by a poisonous insect. His poisoned blood had spread upward, and his leg showed signs of necrosis. He needed to amputate to save his life.

Why would such a simple operation fail???

Especially when he saw Gu Qiqi operate two difficult serious surgeries alone just now. Compared to his failure in such a simple surgery... The contrast was so stark that it hurt!

He was so caught up in the shock that he couldn't recover. He stood stupidly in front of the operating table, his scalpel falling to the floor.

Suddenly...

There was a gust of wind behind him, accompanied by a cool voice. "The reason you failed is—"

Chapter 1276: Rebirth In Front Of His Eyes

Unknowingly, Gu Qiqi was already standing behind him. She quickly looked at the few indicators on the life monitor and observed the patient's wound and medical records.

She said to him coldly, "The reason you failed was that you didn't notice that he was a diabetic."

The doctor was stunned. Before he could wonder why Gu Qiqi, his opponent, would barge into his operating theater, he was only oppressed by the pressure of Gu Qiqi's cold aura. He replied slowly, "Sugar, diabetes... What does it have to do with amputation surgery..."

"Of course, it's very important." Gu Qiqi's tone suddenly became stern. "How did you become a doctor? Diabetes patients have to be taken special care of in all surgeries because they're more prone to large-scale infections! You have to strictly control every step of the surgery and do real-time blood sugar monitoring! Do you not understand or are you negligent? No matter what, you're not worthy of being a doctor!"

Gu Qiqi's tone could be said to be rather ruthless.

She really did not want to be polite to such a quack who did not care about the life and death of his patients.

Her stern tone frightened the doctor so much that his legs went weak and he fell to the ground. "It was my negligence that killed someone... I killed someone..."

Meanwhile, the other doctors in the operating theater also felt their backs tighten and a chill run down their spines. They quickly flipped through their medical records to test their patients' blood sugar, afraid that they were also diabetic.

Gu Qiqi ignored them and walked forward to observe the patient who had been treated.

What a pity...

If she did this surgery, this person would definitely survive. Unfortunately, his heart had stopped beating and there was nothing she could do.

Gu Qiqi closed her eyes and silently prayed for the undead for a moment. She muttered, "I hope your soul can rest in peace. I'll take away your eyes today and let another person obtain a new life. You can also use his body to see this world again... Sorry if I offended you!"

After saying that, she pinched the surgical blade and was about to...

The other three doctors in the operating room were so frightened that they quickly stopped him. "What are you doing? Are you going to disrespect the corpse?"

Gu Qiqi glanced at them coldly. "What right do a bunch of losers have to talk to me?"

The three of them choked. After a moment, they said, "This... this patient is our..."

Although they didn't know what Gu Qiqi wanted to do, they were instinctively afraid of her and wanted to stop her from doing anything.

Gu Qiqi released her aura and retorted, "The patient is yours, but the corpse is not! According to the rules of Ghost Island, everyone has to sign a life and death contract. Once a person dies, they can be dealt with by their companions or other teams. You even want to snatch a corpse from me. This is really something a loser would do."

With that, she ignored the three of them and began to cut out the patient's healthy eyeballs.

The three of them were speechless from Gu Qiqi's reprimand.

When they saw what Gu Qiqi had done, they were even more stunned!

They couldn't help but reach out to touch their eyelids. It was as if Gu Qiqi was plucking their eyeballs. It hurt!

After a few seconds, someone finally reacted and whispered, "He... he's not going to undergo an eyeball transplant, right?"

"Yeah, I think there's a ruptured eyeball over there..."

"An eyeball transplant isn't that easy. It'll take at least a few hours, right? Do they have a specialist ophthalmologist there?"

"I'm sure they don't. Look at the old man and the little girl. I'm sure they can't do it. This man specializes in visceral resection. There's no way he's also proficient in ophthalmology, right?"

"Then let's not stop him. Let him do the transplant and drag it out. We can take the opportunity to speed up! We can definitely turn the tables!"

"Exactly. Let him reap what he sowed!"

"Let him be arrogant!"

"Make him fail!"

The few of them muttered and finally regained their confidence. They no longer stopped Gu Qiqi and continued their surgery happily.

Chapter 1277: If I Can't Win First Place, I Will...

This group of people thought that their plan was flawless.

Unexpectedly, Gu Qiqi removed the eyeball and bowed to the corpse. She turned around and quickly walked back to her operating theater.

Immediately after, she asked Uncle Yun to move away from the operating table so that she could personally perform a transplant on the patient!

Matching tests, hemolytic experiments, transplants... Everything was done methodically.

Uncle Yun was stunned. “Young Master Ye, you’re actually... an ophthalmologist?”

Gu Qiqi hurriedly shook her head. “Not really. However... I have experience treating a chronic illness.”

In her previous life, she had put in a lot of effort for Xiaobei’s eye disease and studied ophthalmology the most.

She had also thought of changing Xiaobei’s eyes.

However, she later discovered that Xiao Bei’s eye disease could not be resolved with just a change of eyes. His condition was much more complicated.

However, she was already very familiar with eyeball transplants.

It was not an exaggeration to say that he had become a doctor after a long illness.

Uncle Yun clicked his tongue. This Young Master Ye was really... unfathomable.

He had thought that he had already seen his divine skills in the tavern and the thorny terrain. Now that he was in the operating theater and watched him perform the surgery with ease, he realized that he still had many tricks up his sleeve.

Uncle Yun stood behind him, watching without blinking and trying to learn something from him.

In the end, he realized in despair that he could not learn it at all!

Gu Qiqi’s technique was really too fast. It was so fast that it exceeded ordinary people.

Even if he could understand her operation, he couldn’t do it as fast as her hand speed. Her method of cutting the patient’s skin without bleeding... He couldn’t do it with his technique.

Not to mention her suturing technique was so perfect that the surgical line could not be seen...

At this moment, the four people in the fourth team were in despair like Uncle Yun!

They watched as Gu Qiqi increased the difficulty for herself and added an eyeball transplant surgery. They thought that this was their chance to turn the tables and win.

Unexpectedly, Gu Qiqi completed such a huge surgery in less than half an hour!

They weren’t even halfway through their amputations.

Later on, they no longer had the mood to perform the surgery properly. They anesthetized the patients one by one and ran over to watch Gu Qiqi’s operation through the glass wall.

Like Uncle Yun, they tried to learn something from Gu Qiqi.

But like Uncle Yun, they suffered a blow of despair.

They were afraid that they would never be able to learn this divine skill in their entire lives... It turned out that there were really people who were born to do this job. Their hand speed was heaven-defying... They were useless...

Since Young Master Ye was born, why were they born!

Half an hour passed.

The dust settled.

Gu Qiqi's team PK was successful!

Not only had she completed four surgeries, but she had also performed a perfect eyeball transplant on one of the patients who was destined to be blind.

The great pharmacist, who cared about poor children, could continue his medical charity for the rest of his life.

When the news of Gu Qiqi's team's victory came through the walkie-talkie, The Nineteenth Witch, who was sitting in the lounge, was actually even happier than when she won the PK. She couldn't help but jump up from the sofa. "Young Master Ye won! He won! He won!"

The other three witch doctors on the team looked at her as if she were crazy.

Only then did The Nineteenth Witch sit down obediently and smile awkwardly. "Ahem, ahem, ahem, I mean, I hope that we will meet an opponent who is on par with us in the future. That way, it will be satisfying enough for us to win, right? Everyone knows that only Young Master Ye's team is comparable to us... I'm happy about this, really!"

She blinked, but it was impossible to tell if she was telling the truth.

The team couldn't help but remind her, "Your Highness, your Eldest Senior Brother and Master have given you a death order for this competition. If you can't get first place..."

Chapter 1278: Terrifying and Cruel Punishment

Nineteenth Witch's small shoulders trembled.

With everyone's reminder, she suddenly remembered the most important mission of this trip.

Before leaving, her master's exhortation seemed to still ring in his ears. "Nineteenth Witch, it doesn't matter if the people outside fight for second or third place. Our witch doctor clan will always have to and can only be first!"

At that time, she was still smiling and joking with her master. "Master, of course I'm going for the first place. However, there are always mistakes. If I accidentally step on dog poop and don't get first place..."

Unexpectedly, her master, who had always doted on her, instantly turned cold and stopped talking.

At the side, her Eldest Senior Brother reminded her tactfully, "Little Nineteen, we witch doctors have always been first in history. If we fail in your year... I'm afraid that according to the clan rules, you'll have to go to the snake cave to be punished..."

The snake cave!

In a particularly dangerous canyon by the sea of the Tang family's kingdom.

It was dark and damp all year round, and countless species of poisonous snakes lived there: cobras, two-headed snakes, gold-ringed snakes, pythons...

Basically, it was already a miracle if someone could come out alive.

As a girl who loved beauty, even if she came out alive, she would be poisoned by snakes and her face would be ruined. Then, there seemed to be no difference between living and dying...

This punishment could be said to be rather terrifying and cruel.

The Nineteenth Witch finally began to realize the importance of this competition. She had a lot on her mind.

Fortunately, the Eldest Senior Brother comforted her in private. "It's alright. I participated in this competition to protect you. At the critical moment, I'll help you win first place..."

In fact, Eldest Senior Brother meant what he said.

In the second round of the surgery PK, one team had to be eliminated. The Eldest Senior Brother did not hesitate to choose to be eliminated and let the Nineteenth Witch's team continue to secure the first place.

If nothing went wrong, Nineteenth Witch would be the overall champion after walking out of the forest maze.

After all, the forest maze was a territory that The Nineteenth Witch was very familiar with. She had been brought there by her senior brothers to train when she was young.

At this moment, under everyone's reminder, The Nineteenth Witch recalled her master's request again. Her heart trembled.

Wuwuwu, could she have both the handsome man and first place???

Who said that you had to give up your results just to pursue a handsome man???

Even if she, Witch Nineteen, wanted to snatch first place, couldn't she also snatch the heart of a beautiful man??

In case she got into a fight with a beautiful man in the forest maze, she still had a trump card—the honey trap!

What was she worried about now? Seriously.

= = =

As the PK ended, half of the participating teams were eliminated.

Including those who had been wiped out in the thorny terrain, only a third of the remaining teams entered the Ghost Island.

It was a cruel game.

It had a cruel elimination system.

It was difficult to get a ticket to the legendary Ghost Island, but those who could really enter and walk out alive were probably as rare as phoenix feathers and qilin horns...

Gu Qiqi suddenly felt a little lucky. Although Feng Yangchu had failed in the competition back then, he had returned alive. Meanwhile, his comrade had died on the island...

Night had fallen as the PK match dragged on.

The Great Pharmacist Guild arranged for the contestants to stay in their respective lounges. They gathered for a meal and rested while they waited for the next day to go to the next level.

Gu Qiqi didn't attend the gathering. She only ate some local fruits and instructed Lisa to study medicine with Uncle Yun before rushing out.

Before she came, she promised Feng Yangchu to pay respects to his dead senior brother.

Feng Yangchu told her the location of the cemetery. It was in the back mountain outside the resting hall in a bamboo forest.

The night wind was chilly and cold.

Gu Qiqi sped along the path alone...

Chapter 1279: Young Master Ye, Be Gentle!

Gu Qiqi walked for a while and suddenly felt that something was wrong.

When she looked out of the lounge during the day, the bamboo forest at the back of the mountain was right in front of her, but at this moment, she couldn't even see a single bamboo.

Was it because the sky was dark and the stars and moon were dim? Had she gone in the wrong direction?

However, she then changed course several times and found herself circling back to where she had started at the entrance to the lounge.

Inside the room, everyone's laughter could be heard.

The PK match in the day was too tragic. At this moment, the surviving teams were all venting their stress.

Gu Qiqi stood outside alone, but she felt a chill run down her spine.

This Ghost Island really had too many strange and profound things that these people, including her, did not understand yet.

Once she let her guard down, she wouldn't even know when she would die.

Gu Qiqi pondered for a moment and cautiously took another step forward.

Suddenly!

A cool breeze passed behind her.

Gu Qiqi instinctively dodged quickly. Her hand was as fast as a deer as she grabbed the person's neck!

"Who's sneaking around!" she growled.

"I..." The girl's delicate voice couldn't breathe properly because Gu Qiqi was strangling her neck. She only said one word before she couldn't continue.

Gu Qiqi took a closer look under the dim moonlight and recognized her. "Your Highness Nineteenth Witch...? Why is it you?"

She had thought someone was hiding and waiting to ambush her.

Of course, it was possible that the Nineteenth Witch wanted to ambush her, but somehow she didn't think of the little girl in such a sinister way.

She let go.

She had already bruised The Nineteenth Witch's fair neck.

Gu Qiqi had never been soft on her enemies.

Feeling a little apologetic, she took out a medicine bottle and dipped her slender fingers into the ointment before hurriedly applying it to the neck of the Nineteenth Witch.

Oh dear, girls were all vain. She had really sinned. She had pinched her good sister until she was so ugly...

The Nineteenth Witch's face was already red. After being poked by Gu Qiqi's anxious finger, she was so nervous that her entire body tensed up. Her face turned red all the way to his neck. "Young Master Ye, you... Can you..."

However, Gu Qiqi was still surprised. "I only strangled your neck. Bruises are normal. Why is it still red? Could it be that your skin is so sensitive that you're allergic?"

She studied the skin of the Nineteenth Witch with great curiosity.

Such a sensitive and easily flushed person was really unique...!

The Nineteenth Witch was so embarrassed that she wanted to crawl into a hole!

Ahhhhh, her shy face was discovered by her Prince Charming!

But her Prince Charming actually didn't know that this was because of him. Prince Charming, do you have to be so cute?

Gu Qiqi muttered a few words before realizing that the girl was asking her something. She asked, "What are you asking me?"

The Nineteenth Witch's voice was as soft as a mosquito, unlike her usual arrogant and domineering appearance. "I say... Young Master Ye, can you... be gentler..."

Young Master Ye's fingers were so strong.

It made her little neck twitch.

She had heard that some men's hands were also very sexy and could also let women enjoy pleasure to the extreme... Cough, cough, cough. This was what she had overheard her senior brothers talking about sometimes.

She was very pure and had never tried!

But tonight, when she saw Young Master Ye's powerful fingers burning and trembling on her skin, she couldn't help but want to try...

How could Gu Qiqi know that this girl's thoughts had already drifted so far away?

All she wanted to do was apply the ointment quickly and let the girl's skin recover. "It's too light to be effective. Silly girl, this bruise is too sensitive. Others will misunderstand..."

Blushing, The Nineteenth Witch took the opportunity to go limp and lean into her arms. "Mistaken about what?"

Gu Qiqi said, "Misunderstand that you were kissed by a man! Look, it looks like the marks of a hickey."

Chapter 1280: A Girl's Innocence Is Very Important

Gu Qiqi described the situation.

She was completely unaware that the Nineteenth Witch's heartbeat had broken the limit.

"Young Master Ye, have you also kissed other girls like this?" The Nineteenth Witch blushed and asked shyly.

Gu Qiqi was stunned.

Huh? Kissing girls?

She told him the truth. "Not really..."

The last time he kissed Lisa, it had been from a different angle. She hadn't actually kissed her mouth.

But... a certain overbearing man often "kissed" her like that.

When The Nineteenth Witch heard that Gu Qiqi had never treated other girls so intimately, she became even more excited.

She was the first!

She would be Young Master Ye's first woman!!!

Did she save the galaxy in her previous life? How could she become such an outstanding man's first woman!

She stammered, she continued happily. "Young Master Ye, actually, I don't mind..."

I don't mind people misunderstanding me and gossiping about me. If the person who kissed me fiercely is you, I don't care about anything!

However, Gu Qiqi didn't give her a chance to finish speaking. She retracted her finger. "Alright! My ointment is an exclusive formula. I guarantee that you'll be as good as new tomorrow morning."

The Nineteenth Witch said nothing.

Since when did she want her skin to be as good as new? She clearly wanted him to poke her for a while, even if he was a little harder.

Gu Qiqi studied her little face and comforted her wholeheartedly. "A girl's reputation is the most important. I definitely won't let you be exposed and have rumors spread about you."

The Nineteenth Witch said nothing.

Why would I need a clean reputation? I can't wait to have scandals with you.

However, on second thought, since Young Master Ye was so protective of her reputation, it could be seen that he valued her highly.

Thinking of this, her heart instantly felt warm.

She curled her lips and said coquettishly, "Young Master Ye, what are you doing here? I saw you walking around for a long time..."

Gu Qiqi blushed with shame. "I want to come out for a walk... to pay my respects to a senior who once participated in the Great Pharmacist Guild's competition and unfortunately died."

"Where is he buried?"

"The bamboo forest in the back mountain. But I walked for a long time and couldn't find it."

The Nineteenth Witch smiled. "Young Master Ye, you might not know this, but the superhumans in the Great Pharmacist Guild have a lot of spells. This lounge has a barrier around it, so we can't walk out. Otherwise, some contestants will sneak out in the middle of the night and wander around the Ghost Island. This is something they don't want to see."

Gu Qiqi was enlightened.

No wonder she kept going around in circles and still ended up back where she started. She thought it was a trick or two, but it was just a spell.

Unfortunately, although she had upgraded to the Green level, her Heavenly Eye had not been activated yet, so she could not see through these illusions.

"Looks like I can't pay my respects tonight..." Gu Qiqi was a little disappointed.

However, The Nineteenth Witch racked her brains and tried to coax him. "Young Master Ye, did the elder you want to worship die in the thorny terrain?"

"No. Apparently it was an exploding test tube in a PK arena that killed him..."

The Nineteenth Witch clapped her hands. "Then I know! I heard from my senior brothers that about a dozen years ago, there was a gathering. A great apothecary from the empire died in an accident while preparing medicine... What was his surname?"

"His surname was Bai."

"Yes, yes, his surname was Bai. Young Master Ye, I know about the operating theater where he had the accident. I heard that it was sealed and not dealt with yet. Do you want to pay your respects there? If he died accidentally, there must be unwilling ghosts still around. I think it will have the same effect as paying respects in the tomb!" The Nineteenth Witch suggested boldly.

Gu Qiqi looked at her deeply. "Thank you."

She didn't know if she would have time to visit the grave tomorrow morning. The suggestion of the Nineteenth Witch was excellent.

Hearing Gu Qiqi's praise, The Nineteenth Witch was overjoyed. She led the way excitedly through the long corridor to a quiet place...
