

Dear Chief 1291

Chapter 1291: if there is no comparison, there is no harm

Realizing this, a chill rose up from the bottom of Wu Twenty's heart!

That young master ye was really too well hidden!

He looked like a gentle and elegant gentleman, but in reality, he was rather vicious.

She could completely imagine that if she still dared to make a move against Wu nineteen on the iron chain, then Young Master Ye would definitely make a move against her.

And she... . . was very regretful that she could not defeat this man.

She could not even tell the origin of this man's origin or the origin of his moves at all.

Wu 20 shuddered and in the second half of the journey, he obediently restrained himself.

In the second half of the journey, without Wu 20 causing trouble, it became very smooth.

Except for Lisa who suddenly twisted her ankle when she was about to reach the finish line and almost slipped down like Wu 19.

Fortunately, her flower protector, Gu Qiqi, was by her side.

She immediately lifted up her back collar and carried the petite and slender Lisa up.

Gu Qiqi's reaction was quite fast, so fast that it was inconceivable.

Hence, Lisa was unscathed.

Almost all the bystanders were jumping and cheering, witnessing with their own eyes how this young master ye once again displayed his ultimate skill of saving people.

Strong!

Very strong!

So strong that it made people prostrate in worship!

Lisa being saved should have been something worth celebrating, but Lisa could not be happy with her mouth pursed.

Because just a few minutes ago, Wu 19 had almost fallen into the river, and young master ye had given her a princess hug; now it was her turn to slip up... young master ye only grabbed her by the back of her collar and simply and roughly lifted her up.

No comparison, no harm.

With such a comparison, the treatment she and His Highness 19 received was really like heaven and earth.

SOB SOB, this baby is so sad!

After arriving at the finish line of the Iron Chain Bridge.

Gu Qiqi's team unquestionably took first place.

Wu 19's team followed closely behind with second place.

The gap between the two's results was not big. The key to deciding the victory would depend on the next stage!

Everyone had just come down from the terrifying iron chain bridge and their legs were still a little sore. The moment they heard that they would have to take the field test again in the next stage, everyone felt like dying.

Most of them had spent their entire lives in advanced laboratories and had a certain status. They enjoyed constant temperature air-conditioning throughout the year. Some served tea and water, while others served food, clothing, and shelter. They simply avoided things like trekking through mountains and rivers.

However, it just so happened that the Great Alchemist Guild especially advocated the ability to survive in the wild. Most of this competition had become a test of the ability to survive in the wild.

Of course, it was also very difficult to criticize the great pharmacist guild for going off topic because they could save lives and help the injured in difficult circumstances where their lives were threatened, only then could they be qualified to be called a true top great pharmacist.

The Great Pharmacist Guild wanted to select such a top talent through the competition.

Gu Qiqi was studying the content of the next round, when she suddenly noticed that the location of the next round was actually forest labyrinth.

Gong Jue's sexy exhortation before he left was still in her ears. "Stupid woman, wait for me. I'll See You At Forest Labyrinth!"

The terrain of forest labyrinth was complicated. Every team had to be monitored by mercenaries when they entered the hinterland.

Gong Jue saw this opportunity and fought to break through the barrier with her!

Well, after meeting Gong Jue, the first thing she did was to persuade him to restrain himself and not hug her in front of everyone. After all, two men doing such intimate actions in front of everyone., it was really a little inappropriate.

Gu Qiqi was silently thinking about all the things she had done to meet Gong Jue when suddenly, an argument came from behind her.

She had nothing to do with other teams, but this time, the voice sounded familiar!

No, it was Uncle Yun and Lisa.

The two of them started arguing while she was distracted.

Uncle Yun's voice was sharp and merciless. "Lisa, actually, you're the spy sent by the Witch Doctor to our team, right?"

[ Master Yun: Good Night Kiss! Love You both! ]

Sir: If I don't come out now, stupid author, are you planning to write Qi Qi as the male lead? ! ! ! !

Chapter 1292: Scheming to curry favor with young master Ye

A Spy for the Witch Doctor? !

Lisa's face changed when she was accused of such a perverted crime. Her face flushed red and she stuttered, "I, I'm not a spy!"

However, Uncle Yun did not hold back and exposed her. "Don't tell me you dare to deny the fact that you're the Witch Doctor?"

"I..." Lisa was speechless and her heart was in a mess.

Uncle Yun sneered. "Hehe, just now you almost fell into the river. What was that chanting that came out of your mouth?"

Chanting was a very obvious sign before a witch doctor cast a spell.

The Witch Doctor had a special bloodline. Of course, an ordinary person would not be able to determine whether the other party was a witch doctor by examining the blood of the other party.

However, as long as it was a witch doctor, they would definitely cast a strange spell by chanting.

Some witch doctors would also use chanting to enhance the effect of the surgery when they were performing the surgery. This was where witch doctors were more powerful than ordinary doctors.

Lisa was speechless and revealed a look of struggle. "I..."

Uncle Yun pressed on step by step. "Don't try to find an excuse!" Lisa, to be honest, when you were besieged by men in the tavern back then, I began to suspect you! Back then, you were also singing non-stop. Since you're a Witch Doctor, you definitely have a way to get rid of those local tyrants. But the moment you saw Mister Ye helping you, you immediately stopped singing and acted as if you were wronged and were at the mercy of others. What was going on? And you even said that you're not a spy? Ever since you were in the tavern, you've been scheming and scheming to follow by Mister Ye's side, fawning over him, and letting him bring you into Spirit Island, right? !"

Lisa was on the verge of tears. "I'm not... I'm really not!"

Uncle Yun snorted coldly. "You saw just now that his highness nineteen was being carefully protected by young master ye and held in his arms, so you also deliberately slipped and tried to attract young master Ye's attention, right? ! It's a pity, a pity, your charm is too poor. Young Master Ye has a tender heart for Wu nineteen, but he disdains you and is simply too lazy to entertain you ! But you used the opportunity of our team competition to achieve your personal goals. The instant you fell, you were delayed for a few seconds. Otherwise, our team's results would be even higher. You're too selfish ! I seriously suspect that you have other motives. In the following competition, you'll continue to play tricks on US and create obstacles. Our team can't tolerate a spy like you ! Scram!"

Uncle Yun's analysis was meticulous and incisive, causing Lisa to be unable to resist at all.

Only to see her red lips opening and closing, refuting powerlessly, but without any substantive refuting.

But when Uncle Yun said that he could not tolerate her and told her to scram —

Her tiny body suddenly surged with explosive power. "No! You Don't have the right to chase me away! I'm here with Young Master Ye, unless... unless he drives me away, otherwise, I absolutely won't leave him!"

Uncle Yun: "Hur Hur, you're really thick-skinned, pestering young master Ye and not letting him go. How long do you want to drag him down? If it weren't for you, our team's speed would be several times faster than now. The next round is the crucial moment when we defeat the Witch Doctor. Bringing along a shameless spy like you, do you think we're Idiots?"

"What are you arguing about?" Gu Qiqi's clear and cold voice suddenly interrupted.

Lisa trembled and her face turned even redder. A misty mist rose from the bottom of her eyes.

Uncle Yun said in a deep voice, "Young Master Ye, Lisa is a witch doctor undercover. Her goal is definitely to destroy our team's results. You must not be soft-hearted. Just tell her to SCRAM NOW!"

Chapter 1293: Don't be fooled by a woman's tears

Gu Qiqi calmly swept her gaze over the two quarreling people. Her tone was indifferent, and one could not tell whether she was happy or angry. "Lisa, say it yourself. Are you a witch doctor?"

Lisa choked on her sobs, and her tears finally could not help but flow down. "I'm sorry, Young Master Ye, I'm sorry. I... I have the bloodline of a witch doctor."

Uncle Yun sneered. "The thief finally admitted to being a thief!"

Lisa felt extremely uncomfortable when she heard that.

It took all of her courage to open her mouth to admit this.

Her entire face turned red with shame.

She knew that if she admitted it now, it would definitely cause everyone to misunderstand. But she did not want to hide it from young master ye anymore, and even more so, she did not want to lie to him. Even if he was angry and furious, she could not lie to him.

However, the expected anger did not appear.

Gu Qiqi calmly continued to ask her, "Then are you a spy sent by the Witch Doctor Tribe? To destroy our competition results?"

Lisa shook her head fiercely and said with a trembling voice, "No. I swear!"

Uncle Yun snorted coldly. "Swearing is the most worthless thing in this world. You've already admitted that you're a witch doctor, and you still say that you're not a spy. Who would believe you!"

Lisa only shook her head vigorously and repeated mechanically, "I'm not, I'm not..."

Gu Qiqi stared into Lisa's watery eyes and said word by word, "I believe you."

Uncle Yun was stunned. "Young Master Ye, don't be deceived by a woman's tears..."

Gu qiqi said indifferently, "I know women better than you."

Not all women would use the crying tactic to cover up the truth.

Uncle Yun's expression stiffened and he said rather embarrassedly, "I just feel that she's full of mistakes and it's too difficult to justify herself."

Lisa never would have thought that Mister Ye would really believe her.

The three words "I believe you" strangely soothed her flustered and flustered heart.

After calming down, she calmed down her tone and her train of thought became clear. "I can explain! Please listen to my explanation!"

Gu qiqi said, "Speak."

"At that time in the tavern, I was bullied by those men and did not retaliate. It was definitely not because I had other plans. If I could really use the witchcraft, I would definitely beat them up until they had pig heads!" Lisa bit her lips, "Being humiliated by a group of men is a great humiliation that women can not endure no matter what. If I had any methods, I would definitely not allow myself to be manipulated by others!"

Uncle Yun sneered. "But you are being manipulated by others! What a joke!"

Lisa's face was so red that it looked like it was about to drip blood, she clenched her small fists. "That's because my witch doctor bloodline has yet to be awakened! "Although our family has inherited the Witch Doctor bloodline, it is not obvious and very thin. For example, my sister, not only did she not awaken it, but she also fell seriously ill because of it. "Even in my dreams, I want to awaken my bloodline and treat my sister's illness! "I want to fight back against those who bully me!"

'So, it's a young witch doctor who hasn't awakened...'

'No Wonder Lisa wanted to find a few drops of witch doctor's blood in the materials.'

Gu Qiqi nodded. "Continue, Lisa."

With Gu Qiqi's encouragement and support, Lisa became more and more fluent as she spoke. "Although I haven't awakened yet, I've already memorized the family's witch doctor's magic. I'm looking forward to the day when I can use it immediately when I awaken."

As she spoke, she was a little dejected. "But every time I try to sing seriously, there's no reaction at all. Perhaps I won't be able to awaken in this lifetime..."

Uncle Yun's gaze was sharp as he looked at her. "Stop playing the emotional card for us! It's hard to tell whether what you're saying is true or not. Taking a step back, so what if it's true? That still doesn't change the fact that you've been intentionally dragging us down along the way, and even intentionally slipped just now to drag down our results!"

Chapter 1294: he is so considerate! So gentle! 1

Lisa's eyes were filled with pain and hesitation. "I, I didn't do it on purpose..."

"I know," Gu Qiqi said plainly. "You also want to win, right? It's just that your ability isn't enough to realize your idea."

Lisa nodded fiercely, she explained hurriedly, "I slipped just now because I really slipped. I don't know what slippery thing I stepped on. It scared me to death! "How could I deliberately slow down the team's results? "Even if I have such a wicked heart, I can't be so reckless. It's not worth it to exchange my life for a lower ranking in the competition."

Gu qiqi commented approvingly, "Exactly."

Lisa lowered her head in embarrassment. "But it's impossible to say that I have no selfish motives. I, I was indeed absent-minded just now before I slipped. Because when I Saw You Save Her Highness nineteen, I was especially touched. I had a little fantasy in my heart. If it were me, would you save her? "Who knew that extreme joy would give rise to sorrow, and in the blink of an eye, everything would come to me... This is indeed my fault. I admit that I was careless and did not concentrate on the competition. I want to apologize to all of you..."

Even Lisa's bashful maiden heart was revealed.

Gu Qiqi sighed slightly, she patted her shoulder. "I also want to apologize to you. Actually, when I carried you up, it might have made you a little more stable. "But at that time, in order for our team to win first place, it was too much of a waste of time to carry you. I was a little rough and directly carried you up by your collar. "Lisa, you won't blame me, right?"

Lisa was startled, and her eyes teared up again.

So, the real reason why Mister Ye did not give her a princess hug was this!

It was not that Mister Ye did not value her, nor was it that Mister Ye felt that the Nineteenth Highness was more outstanding and deserved to be treated gently.

But it was in order to raise the competition's results!

They were a team, and the team's results were their common goal!

She understood too much when young master ye did this!

For a moment, Lisa felt that the sky had brightened a little, and the forest had become much greener. The haze in her mood was swept away. "Young Master Ye, I will never blame you..."

Young Master Ye, how can you be so good, so considerate, so considerate..

Uncle Yun stood by the side, his face turning green.

Gu qiqi said indifferently, "Uncle Yun, Lisa has already explained her actions and resolved the misunderstanding. Do you have anything else to say?"

Uncle Yun: "I can't win against her. I don't want to say anymore!"! Young Master Ye, I Only Want to say one thing. The witch doctor will always be our enemy on the road to the championship, not a friend. Putting the witch doctor by our side is like a time bomb. It's too dangerous..."

Gu Qiqi waved her hand to stop him. "Who says that the witch doctor must be an enemy? "There are no eternal enemies or eternal friends in this world. "Our interests don't conflict, and we don't have to win the championship. "Whether or not we win the championship is not what the three of us really care about, is it?"

Uncle Yun was stunned. "You... Don't you want to win the championship and avenge the great pharmacists of the Empire?"

Gu qiqi said faintly, "I have no interest in representing the great pharmacists of the empire. I only represent my master to look for medicine."

Uncle Yun frowned. "Your master... Should also want to see you win the championship and help him realize his unfulfilled wish, right?"

Gu qiqi curved her lips slightly. "Then you don't understand him very well. He doesn't care about fame and fortune that much. Before we set off, he repeatedly reminded me that I don't need to compete with others for results. I just need to experience it and quickly go back. He doesn't care whether I win the championship or not."

Uncle Yun: "But..."

Gu qiqi asked in return, "Uncle Yun, aren't you also here to look for medicine and the spring water of the First Lady Spring? "Lisa is also looking for medicine. She only needs two more medicines to be done. "The three of us are not here for the championship. We just need to rush to the final stage and enter the core area of the Ghost Island to look for medicine. Won't that achieve our original goal?"

Uncle Yun was speechless." ..."

Gu Qiqi had already raised her eyes to look at the vast and primitive forest in front of her. She muttered, "Forest Maze... I wonder what kind of surprise awaits us inside..."

Chapter 1295: Flirting Without Skill 1

The brief dispute did not disrupt their pace.

Under Gu Qi's direct and efficient mediation, Uncle Yun could only temporarily put away his distrust of Lisa. After all, there were only three people left in the team. If there were any more internal strife, they would not be able to hold on until the end and would be pked down by others.

No matter how many differences there were, they would continue walking until they reached the core area of the Ghost Island. The area where rare herbs grew was their common goal.

After passing the test of the Iron Chain Bridge, there were only ten teams left. They were qualified to enter the next stage.

At the entrance of the forest maze, there were people from the Great Alchemist Guild distributing maps. They also solemnly requested that they meet up with the mercenaries before they could enter the depths of the forest.

“Aren’t the mercenaries going in with us?” Lisa was surprised.

“Of course not.” They have already gone into the forest a day and a night in advance to familiarize themselves with the terrain and routes. Otherwise, how are they going to ensure our safety? “There are not only rare herbs in the forest labyrinth, there are also rare poisonous beasts and birds.” Wu nineteen strolled over slowly, her tone was very familiar and confident.

After all, this was the map that Wu nineteen had scoured countless times and the training grounds that she had explored countless times with her senior brothers.

Her competitive advantage as the little princess of the Witch Doctor clan was only truly revealed at this moment.

Lisa instinctively leaned closer to Gu Qiqi’s side.

However, Wu nineteen curled his lips and directly pulled Lisa away, standing in front of Gu Qiqi himself.

Compared to Lisa’s reserved shyness, Wu nineteen was indeed a straightforward and passionate girl!

She stared at Gu Qiqi and enunciated each word like pearls and jade. “Thank you for saving my life just now. I, Wu 19, have never owed anyone. I will definitely return it to you.”

Gu Qiqi curled her lips slightly. “How could it be so serious? It was just a small matter.”

When the people beside her heard that, all of them drew in a cold breath.

They had all witnessed the scene of young master ye saving people with their own eyes. Under that kind of situation, it was difficult for them to even protect themselves, much less save people. It was simply an extremely difficult task, alright?

Yet, someone actually said that it was just a piece of cake!

Comparing people, it was infuriating.

He was real. A Prince Charming did not even need any skills to flirt with girls. It was just a piece of cake.

Wu nineteen’s passionate and straightforward little face was also instantly covered with a layer of pink. “But that’s also what I owe you. I owe you my life...”

Gu Qi took a step forward and bent over slightly, leaning close to her ear. “You’re so clear with me? en? Then I still have to return the favor you helped me break through the Operating Theater’s Enchantment Last Night?”

Wu 19's face turned even more pink. "No... There's no need!"

Just now, she was confidently wanting to repay the favor, but at this moment, it became Emperor Zhang who was at a loss and his heart was racing!

Damn it, Young Master Ye, you're too flirtatious. I Can't take it anymore.

Originally, Wu 19 wanted to confirm this favor. In the future, even if they were to leave the ghost island, she would have an excuse to follow behind young master ye like a little tail and play around.

If her senior brothers or master had any objections, she could retort back with a sentence, "This baby is repaying the favor!"

Moreover, this matter of repaying the favor was set in front of so many participating teams today. With witnesses, it wasn't just empty talk from her.

Who would have expected that young master ye wouldn't cooperate with this act of hers.

She stomped her foot, and the princess'temper came. She said angrily, "I just want to repay the favor to you. You have to agree!"

Gu Qiqi narrowed her eyes. "There's only one way for me to repay your kindness."

"What Way?"Wu nineteen looked up in a daze and asked.

In between breaths, Gu Qiqi's medicinal fragrance was so good that she really wanted to faint in his arms and take a whiff.

"Give yourself to him,"Gu Qiqi said a few words with a straight face.

Wu nineteen:"..."

The surrounding people who were watching the show burst into laughter, clapping their hands and booing.

Chapter 1296: A new level of handsomeness

Just as Gu Qiqi had a smirk on her face, thinking that she had finally scared off Wu nineteen, this bold little princess, and was about to drag Lisa and Uncle Yun along as they continued to stride into the Forest Maze Valley.

Suddenly.

Wu nineteen, who was stunned on the spot, stomped her feet and clenched her little fists. She suddenly turned around and shouted, "I Promise You!"

Wasn't it just giving her body to him?

She had kept her virginity for more than ten years. What was wrong with giving it to the man she loved?

If that membrane wasn't given to love, could it be that it was still kept for the New Year? !

Gu Qiqi's back stiffened.

Holy Shit, are all the young ladies nowadays so Intrepid? ? Even giving her body to him was fine?

This, this, this, what should she do?

She seemed to have dug a huge pit for herself.

Meanwhile, Lisa's face was so stifled that she was on the verge of crying. Mister Ye, can you stop joking around? Other girls will take it seriously.

Wu Wu, if you want girls to give themselves to you, I can do it too. Even if I know that you're also a girl, I'm willing!

Really, I'm different from them!

They only love you when they know that you're a boy, but I don't care if you're a boy or a girl, I love you!

Gu QIQI lowered her gaze and stood on the spot for a few seconds.

Following that, she pulled Lisa and Uncle Yun up and rushed into the forest at ten times the speed. In the blink of an eye, they had disappeared without a trace.

The contestants who were rubbing their fists and secretly waiting for the excitement of the century were all dumbfounded:

"F * ck, Young Master Ye actually pretended not to hear the Witch Doctor Clan's Little Princess' confession. What's going on?"

"Young Master Ye, you're so handsome that you've reached a new height. F * CK, F * CK, F * ck!"

"F * ck, I'm a man, and I want to get in touch with young master ye and see just what kind of charm he has!"

"Without a doubt, you'll be turned gay..."

At that moment.

Gu Qiqi and her group of three had already stepped into the pine forest and were far away from everyone.

She felt much better now that she could not hear those harsh comments.

Lisa and Uncle Yun were too embarrassed to bring up Wu 19's topic, instead, they discussed the next step of their strategy with her. "Young Master Ye, look at the map. We have to pass through the black pine forest on the periphery first and reach the vicinity of the first swamp before we can meet up with the mercenaries."

The map of the forest that the Great Alchemist Guild had given them was very simple.

It only roughly showed the names of the black pine forest, white swamp, cold valley, flying waterfall, and other places. There was also a rather large empty area in the upper right corner. It was unknown what the terrain was, but there was a ghastly and terrifying skull drawn on it, there was also a bright red blood fork, indicating that it was a terrifying forbidden area.

The normal route, although dangerous, was towards the ultimate goal: passing through the waterfall was the destination — the medicine palace. It was said that it was the core area of the Ghost Island.

There were people from the great pharmacist guild waiting for them there, preparing a rich reward and warm hospitality for them.

There would be a Grand Party to celebrate their victory. There would also be someone who would specially lead them into the core medicinal herb growing area. It was said that there were rare and rare medicinal herbs in the world that could cure any incurable diseases, they could even bring the dead back to life..

In short, the legends were very magical!

All these years, the people who wanted to participate in the gathering of the Great Alchemist Guild had all come for this ultimate goal.

But, for some unknown reason, Gu Qiqi was staring at the upper right corner of the map, at the skeleton area with a blood cross drawn on it. "Uncle Yun, do you know what this area is?"

Uncle Yun's expression changed when he heard that. "Young Master Ye, you must not go there. Don't even approach it. It was said that that was the valley of death. The entire area was covered in a poisonous haze. There was only one path to enter, and that was a dead end! "That's why the Great Alchemist Guild has specially reminded everyone that even if they get lost, they must not walk in that direction. "And the mercenaries have also received training. They will definitely supervise everyone to stay away from that Death Valley."

GU QIQI: "Oh."

The more dangerous it was, the more interested she became. What was going on with her? ? ?

Chapter 1297: see the blood and seal the throat! Poison! 1

Gu Qiqi stared at the valley of death for a moment before she retracted her gaze. "Let's go through the black pine forest first. We'll talk about it after we meet up with our mercenaries as soon as possible."

Gong Jue must be getting anxious from waiting. She couldn't wait to see him as well!

The three of them quickened their footsteps and headed deeper into the pine forest.

After the three of them left, Wu twenty slowly strolled out from behind a thick and sturdy pine tree.

"HMPH, you want to hurry up? I'll make sure all of you won't be able to walk out of the black pine forest! You'll die here together with that little slut wu nineteen and become fertilizer for the Flowers!"

Her footsteps tapped on the ground and she actually ran towards another, remote little road.

The road marked on the map was the one set up by the Great Apothecary Guild and it was the normal way to pass through the black pine forest.

The members of the other teams, including Wu nineteen's team, all took the road on the map.

But in reality, there was an unknown shortcut out of the black pine forest.

This shortcut was told to her by her senior brother who was helping Wu twenty train.

Of course, Wu nineteen also knew about this shortcut, but Wu nineteen was unable to take it because halfway through this shortcut, there was an extremely narrow cave that could only allow a petite woman to pass through.

Wu nineteen's team had men and they were unable to pass through all of them, so they could only give up.

Wu 20 was different. She had shaken off her own team early in the morning and sneaked into the shortcut alone, sprinting all the way... !

Finally, she arrived at an intersection in the middle of the black pine forest a few minutes earlier than Gu Qiqi, Wu 19, and the others.

This was the place that the other party would have to pass through later.

Wu 20 smiled malevolently and began to prepare for an ambush.

She first smeared an inducing agent on the tree, specifically to induce poisonous snakes.

This way, when Wu nineteen passed by, the snakes that gathered on the tree would launch an attack.

She then took out a few exquisite and sharp animal traps and hid them under the thick pine needles. On the surface, there was not the slightest clue — after all, this black pine forest was at least thousands of years old, the pine needles on the ground were as thick and soft as a sponge mattress, making it very easy for people to let their guard down.

Wu nineteen must have been very flustered when he was entangled by a venomous snake. When he was flustered, his footsteps would also be flustered.

As long as Wu nineteen's feet stepped onto that animal trap, heh heh, that pair of beautiful and delicate little feet would be crippled!

There was no way to treat him in the pine forest, so he could only let people carry him out to treat him. This way, the time of the competition would be delayed, and he would definitely lose.

However, how was it enough for Wu nineteen to lose?

Wu twenty smiled coldly as she carefully smeared poison on the beast trap to 'seal the throat with blood'.

This seal the throat with blood was colorless and tasteless.

Only when it came into contact with a person's blood would the effects of the poison be unleashed in a frenzy.

It would cause the person to fall into a coma and immediately die!

She wanted Wu nineteen to lose his legs and then lose his life! She wanted him to become a dead cripple hahaha!

What little princess, go to hell!

After Wu twenty carefully arranged a circle, she thought for a moment and did not leave. Instead, she ran back to her usual path.

She walked for about ten minutes and sure enough.., not far away, Wu nineteen's voice could be heard. "Everyone, Hurry Up! Come on! Although there are only three of us, if we can win the championship, it will prove that we are more capable and more awesome than those four-man teams!"

Wu nineteen was cheering for his team members.

Wu twenty sneered and hid in the grass.

It was only when Wu nineteen and the others passed by her eyes and headed towards the venomous snakes and the animal trap that she jumped out and quickly changed the direction of the iconic wooden signboard by the roadside!

Hmph, Ye, don't even think about living well!

I will make you go astray and die in the black pine forest!

[ Master Yun: Happy Goddess' Day, fairies! In My Eyes, you'll always be 18 years old! Tomorrow, we'll kill Wu Bailian. What do the fairies think is the best way to die? ]

Chapter 1298: [Is Lisa a traitor? ]

After plotting against Gu Qiqi, Wu twenty then chased after Wu nineteen.

She would only be satisfied if she saw Wu nineteen's fate with her own eyes!

Approaching the intersection where she had set up the trap, Wu twenty slowed down and carefully bent down to hide in the bushes.

Very soon, her wish came true and she saw Wu nineteen and the others being entangled by a group of snakes!

The inducing agent was rather powerful.

At that moment, there were more than ten silver ring snakes coiled around that pine tree. Each of them was sticking out their tongues and their tails were coiled around the branches of the tree. Their tongues were hanging upside down and they opened their scarlet and sticky mouths, revealing their fangs as they bit towards Wu nineteen and the others.

Wu nineteen and the other two witch doctors did not have any weapons in their hands and could only pick up the dried branches by the roadside to fight with the snakes.

However, the silver-ringed snakes were slender and nimble. They came and went, but the snakes did not chase them away. Instead, one of the witch doctors was accidentally bitten on the arm!

Wu nineteen turned pale with fright. "Quick, step back and drain the blood first and bandage the wound!"

As the person in charge of the team, she was very loyal. She pushed her injured teammates to the back to recuperate while she stepped forward and tangled with more than a dozen snakes.

At the same time, she did not forget to remind her other teammate, "Did you bring realgar powder?"

Her teammate said with a bitter expression, "I did bring it. I used most of it in the land of thorns previously. I sprinkled the remaining bit on the silver ring snake, but it did not seem to have any effect! The poisonous snakes here are too strange. They are not afraid of realgar powder at all!"

Wu nineteen frowned. "Strange? Isn't it just snakes..."

At that moment, the teammate who had been bitten by the snake behind him suddenly let out a pained wail. Wu nineteen turned his head to look and was stunned!

His teammate had originally been bitten on his arm. If he was able to heal his wound in time, he would have used a scalpel to cut it open, bleed it out, and bandage it... . . . As long as he could prevent the snake venom from spreading to his heart, he would be able to save his life.

However, before his teammate could even cut open his wound, the snake venom had already spread to all parts of his limbs!

His arm was completely black and purple!

His leg was so swollen that he was unable to move!

His face was frighteningly black... . !

The speed at which the snake venom was spreading was just too strange!

No wonder this dense forest was called the black pine forest. All along the way, they had lamented that the name was deliberately mystifying. They had clearly been safe and sound all along the way, but it turned out that the poison in this pine forest was more than a hundred times more lethal than the poison outside!

It was really so dark and sinister!

Wu nineteen looked at her companions who had fought side by side before. Because the snake venom had flared up, she did not have time to treat them. Within a minute, her entire body turned black and purple, and she fell to the ground dead.

She did not even have time to shed tears in her eyes before she gritted her teeth and turned her head back to continue dealing with the snake swarm!

Tears were for cowards!

She, Wu nineteen, could not be cowardly!

She wanted to avenge her companions!

Perhaps it was because her companions' deaths had aroused her fighting spirit and strength, Wu nineteen quickly took out a scalpel and tied it to a dried branch. The Sharp Glint of the blade slashed fearlessly at the venomous snakes!

She no longer thought about defending, but only wanted to attack!

In this world, what she was most afraid of was people who risked everything, people who were willing to cut themselves to pieces and dare to bring down the emperor.

It was the same even in the animal kingdom.

Wu nineteen's killing intent that was going all out was clearly infected by the snakes.

The snake's head was stunned in midair and it actually inexplicably dodged backwards.

However, Wu nineteen did not take the opportunity to retreat. Instead, with a flash of his blade, he swept it across without any restraint!

In an instant, the nearest snake's head, which was the snake's head that had bitten her companion to death, was chopped off by her blade in unison!

"Ci — !" A ball of black blood splattered everywhere. The snake's body twisted a few times before it fell limply to the ground.

The snakes finally started to panic.

This weak human actually killed their leader? ? ?

Chapter 1299: Deadly Poison 100 times 1

The snake hordes were headless and began to wander around.

"Your Highness nineteen, should we kill all these snakes?" The only remaining companion asked for instructions.

"Wait a moment." Wu nineteen bit his lip and did not give chase. He was anxious to see if there was still a chance to save his companion who had been bitten by the snakes just now.

His companion heaved a sigh of relief.

If Her Highness nineteen were to give chase impulsively, and if she were to be forced into a corner and those snakes were to attack together, it would be hard to say who would win and who would lose.

He agreed that they should stay put!

However.

Just as Wu nineteen turned around and was about to turn around and return behind her.

She stepped on something and suddenly, she felt a piercing pain in her toes!

“AH — !”She could not help but cry out in pain.

Even though she had always been seen as a little princess, but this time, it was not because she was delicate, but because — it was too painful!

It was so painful that her skin and bones were torn apart, and she broke out in cold sweat!

Wu twenty’s beast trap was rather sharp and vicious. The shelves were filled with sharp steel needles, and it could be said that if she were to clamp it on, her toes would be crippled!

In the witch doctors’ clan, Wu nineteen had always been held in high regard, surrounded, and respected. Even when training in the wild, he had his senior brother, Wu Two, to protect him.

When had she ever led a team through such a difficult challenge? Had she ever encountered such a vicious ambush and betrayal?

She was in so much pain that she really wanted to cry. She really wanted to find someone to rely on and complain about her grievances.

But at that moment, she knew that she could not do it. Her team was already in disarray and she only had one companion left. If she continued to act coquettishly, this team would no longer have a backbone.

She had to be strong!

“Your Highness nineteen, What’s Wrong? Why aren’t you moving?” Behind her, her companion rushed over and asked with concern.

Wu nineteen forced a smile and said: “I’m fine. Go and see if our people are really hopeless. Try to perform CPR and give him the best antidote to try... .”

“But his face is already so dark, there’s no hope... .” Her companion was in a difficult position and she was also a little afraid of being infected by the poisonous blood.

Wu nineteen gritted her teeth and said: “Forget it, I’ll go myself! Don’t move from here! Watch your step! Before you move, use the branches to scout the way first! Do You Hear Me! ?”

Her tone was a little harsh, causing her companion to nod her head vigorously in fright.

Wu nineteen dragged her leg and limped forward.

But, she had only taken one step when the leg that was caught in the beast trap had already caused her soul to feel pain and pain! ! !

She was definitely not exaggerating, but she could really feel that there were countless steel needles poking into her toes. Besides the excruciating pain, there was also a faint numbness in her toes — this was the symptom of a poison outbreak.

The thing that had stabbed her was poisonous... and it was very likely to be highly poisonous!

She felt that she might not be able to save her companions and would not be able to reach the finish line. She was going to die here..

In the thicket, when Wu 20, who was hiding, saw this scene, he was extremely pleased with himself!

Humph, Wu 19, previously on the Iron Chain Bridge, it was only because of young master Ye's help that you were lucky enough to survive.

Now That You're nothing after leaving Young Master Ye, wouldn't it be a matter of minutes if I wanted to scheme against you?

Moreover, even that man with no foresight, Young Master Ye, wasn't he still led onto the wrong path by me at this moment, facing the hopeless situation of losing his direction and being trapped here to death?

Who asked Mister Ye to choose you over me?

I'll let him taste the price of choosing the wrong woman!

At this moment.

In the pine forest in the distance.

Gu Qiqi and the others finally arrived at a fork in the road.

Due to the black pine forest blocking out the sky and the sun, their sense of direction was too poor, and it wasn't the main PK location, the Great Alchemist Guild set up guiding wooden signs at the few main fork in the pine forest.

Use an arrow to indicate the correct intersection.

At this moment, the wooden sign with an arrow was placed across the fork in the road.

Chapter 1300: is going to die here... 1

Lisa glanced at it, she smiled and said, "How fortunate. This black pine forest is probably the easiest path we've taken since we cleared the level. Not only did we not encounter any danger along the way, but we were even considerate enough to have a signboard. "I think we'll soon catch up with the Witch Doctor team and meet up with our mercenaries..."

As she said that, she took a step forward and walked towards the direction of the signboard without thinking.

However, while her steps were still in midair, she was pulled back by Gu Qiqi by her collar. "Wait."

Lisa coughed awkwardly twice. "AH? Mister Ye, we're not leaving anymore?"

She touched her neck and thought to herself, looks like Mister Ye is used to pulling her collar. He's practically pulling her collar around like a rabbit's ear.

If a man were to hold her like this, she would definitely be angry. But when she thought of that person being Gu Qiqi, she was not angry at all. In fact, she was a little sweet.

Gu Qiqi ruffled Lisa's hair. "Little Fool, don't believe too much what you can see on the surface. Look into the depths."

"AH? How?" Lisa was stunned and asked foolishly.

Uncle Yun walked forward, he frowned. "This sign seems to have been tampered with. Look, there are traces of digging out from the soil underneath. This is formed after turning. The other party probably didn't have time to cover it up well."

Gu Qiqi nodded approvingly. "Mm. Very good."

Lisa stared at it for a few times before reacting. "Oh... I actually didn't notice it. I was too careless..."

However, Lisa was actually very smart. She quickly figured out what was going on, she also noticed something. "Look, the direction the arrow is pointing at. The forest over there is denser, and the light is dim. "This means that no one is walking around there often. Moreover, the light is so dim, so it's easier for poison to lurk there. It's safer to take this brighter path."

Gu Qiqi nodded again. "Very good, Lisa."

Lisa was delighted and could not help but say confidently, "No matter what plot or trap, it won't be able to stop our sharp eyes. Haha!"

However, Uncle Yun sneered. "Don't forget, there's only one team in front of us. That's Wu 19's witch doctor team. The others are all left behind by us. "If there's anyone who has the chance to turn this signpost to frame us..."

Needless to say? Then it must be Wu 19's team!

Gu Qiqi was noncommittal. This conclusion was too hasty. Who knew if there were other people in the forest?

She thought that Wu 19 was simply reckless and was not the kind of person who would plot against others.

However, Uncle Yun did not say that Wu 19 had plotted against them. Instead, he implied that Lisa, the Witch Doctor, was in cahoots with the Witch Doctor team and could not be separated from them.

He had always thought that Lisa was a spy. This had never changed.

As long as there was a chance, he would definitely mock her.

However, at this moment, after receiving Gu Qiqi's praise and encouragement, Lisa was elated and her footsteps became light. She did not have the mood to argue with Uncle Yun.

She twisted her body and touched the road sign. "Oh, no matter who did this, since we've bumped into each other, we can't let the people behind us go astray as well. Young Master Ye, let me turn it back in the right direction, Alright?"

Gu Qiqi nodded her chin approvingly. "En."

Even though the team behind them had a competitive relationship with them.

If they ignored it, it would cause the team behind them to go in the wrong direction, trapping them in this black pine forest. It would be more beneficial to them.

However, Gu Qiqi disdained to do so.

Competition relied on true strength and not tricks.

If it depends on tricks, she gu Qiqi has 10,000 ways to kill those people behind, still need competition?
