

Dear Chief 141

Chapter 141: Breathtaking, Live Across the Internet! (1)

Gu Qiqi was different from the other candidates.

Once she received the paper, she gripped her Hermes pen and started writing.

That posture was especially calm and confident.

Gu Xuexue was unhappy to see this. She twisted her face, gnashed her teeth, and raised her glass again. "The theme of our gathering today is the Teacher Feast. Shouldn't everyone toast the teachers and stop looking at those boring people answering the questions?"

She was very unhappy that everyone's attention had been snatched away by Gu Qiqi!

If she had known that this would happen, she wouldn't have mentioned the live-stream just now. Wouldn't it be better if she waited until the tragic outcome of Gu Qiqi being stumped by the examination questions and being directly disqualified before letting everyone admire that dejected and miserable look on her face?

What a miscalculation!

Once Gu Xuexue raised her class, the principal, the class teacher, and some girls all chimed in.

The boys couldn't take their eyes off the screen.

Gu Qiqi was too beautiful.

She was beautiful.

If they could set an audience score for the college entrance examination, they would want to give her full marks!

Gu Xuexue gnashed her teeth uncontrollably.

An idea came to her mind. Since she couldn't block everyone's envious gazes, she might as well take advantage of the situation to dig out the news of Gu Qiqi cheating and plagiarizing. She deliberately raised the topic. "Sigh, Qiqi was dressed so beautifully today. It really makes me suspect that what the news previously said is true. She was booked by an old man. He could help her cheat and plagiarize, he could let her enter university through connections, and he could even start a live-stream re-examination for her..."

Everyone felt strange when they heard this.

Finally, some teachers couldn't stand it anymore.

A fifty-year-old English teacher frowned and said, "Qiqi's English has always been good. I don't believe that she needs to plagiarize someone else."

A taciturn chemistry teacher chimed in. "Qiqi's experiments were well done. She has the talent to do experiments. Let alone taking the college entrance exam. I believe that if she studied medicine, she would definitely have great achievements in the future!"

These two comments pierced through the eardrums of Gu Xuexue, the principal, and the class teacher.

The principal snorted coldly. "What kind of taste do you have!"

The English teacher was unconvinced. "Look, Qiqi has already handed in her English paper in advance. If she wasn't confident, would she have been able to finish answering it so quickly?"

Everyone drew a cold breath.

It had only been 20 minutes since the start of the exam.

Even if they gave her the answer key, ordinary people wouldn't even be able to finish copying the answer sheet.

Gu Qiqi actually completed the English paper and quickly started doing the Science paper!

The chemistry teacher was even more evil. "Why don't we download the exam paper and do it on the spot to see who can score higher than Gu Qiqi at the same time? Xue Xue, you did the best in our class's university. Why don't you try it?"

Gu Xuexue was instantly unable to back down!

She had no confidence that she could finish a paper in 20 minutes.

Furthermore, according to his uncle, Gu Enlong, this paper was unprecedentedly difficult.

If she didn't agree, wouldn't she seem afraid of Gu Qiqi? Afraid of losing?

D*mn it! This chemistry teacher hid it so well that she was actually on Gu Qiqi's side!

However, before she could even think about it, the English teacher had already handed over the tablet. "This is the exam paper that was announced concurrently by the officials. In order to not delay the gathering, you should do the English paper first!"

The other students were afraid that Gu Xuexue wouldn't do it. It would be terrible if the teacher got excited and asked them to do it. She hurriedly shouted, "That's right, that's right. Xuexue is the best student among us. She can totally represent us and try it! She can also show those cheating students who took the examinations what a real top student is!"

Gu Xuexue was in a dilemma and could only brace herself to accept it.

She knew very well that her college entrance exam scores were average. It was only because of Gu Meifeng's connections that she was able to barely qualify for the forensic profession at the Empire Medical University.

But her English results were okay. After all, Gu Meifeng had spent a lot of money to hire an extra-curricular tutor for her.

Gu Qiqi's English... should resemble the type that studied hard but was mute!

Since Gu Enlong said that the difficulty of this paper was biased towards practical application, perhaps she really had an advantage?

Thinking about this, Gu Xuexue opened the examination paper and prepared to crush Gu Qiqi with her answers.

However...

Chapter 142: What Was True Crushing?

Ten minutes later.

Gu Xuexue looked at the examination questions and sweat formed on her forehead.

Twenty minutes later.

Gu Xuexue felt like she was sitting on pins and needles. She couldn't wait to turn back time so that she wouldn't take on this mess even if she died!

These questions were simply abnormally difficult!

She had studied for several years under a tutor whom Gu Meifeng hired her for a sky-high price. She boasted that she could speak a few words in English, but she actually couldn't understand the words and sentences on this examination paper!

This was definitely not an English paper that a high school student could answer.

She had no idea what these words meant at all. When they were combined into an entire reading comprehension, she was even more clueless.

Furthermore, there were even some ancient English four lines poems from the Middle Ages.

It had to be known that that was equivalent to the ancient Chinese. It was a fighter jet in an English exam!

Furthermore, she was struck down by these ancient poems until she was defeated.

She had been holding the pen for twenty minutes now, but she couldn't finish a single stroke!

"Xue Xue, how's it going? Is it—especially simple?" A fifty-year-old English teacher slowly picked up a piece of pork and asked "inadvertently" as he ate.

Gu Xuexue's face flushed red from embarrassment.

She felt that she was even more miserable than the pork.

"Yes... I'm writing it now... Soon..."

She gnashed her teeth and braced herself.

She thought to herself that Gu Qiqi definitely wouldn't be able to answer questions that she didn't know how to answer!

At this moment, a classmate exclaimed.

"Qiqi has also completed her Science paper and is writing an essay! Gosh, Qiqi is so formidable!"

"I used to think that top students were nerds. But now, I realize that top students are really cool when they answer questions!"

"That's because, you wretched mortal, you were struck by our Qiqi's light, right? Haha!"

Upon hearing her classmates' praise, Gu Xuexue's heart burned with hatred.

Handsome my ass.

Gu Qiqi was definitely like her—she couldn't understand anything and couldn't answer anything, right?

Could it be that the reason why Gu Qiqi wrote so quickly was because she didn't know how to? Was that why her answers were all wrong?

For example, her multiple choice questions were all answered with C?

In a flash, Gu Xuexue seemed to have seen through something.

That must be it!

She knew it! How could she possibly finish a project in twenty minutes? There wasn't even enough time to copy the answer sheet.

Gu Xuexue breathed a sigh of relief.

She picked up her pen and started to write down her answers rapidly. Of course, she was all wrong!

After covering all the multiple choice questions along the way, she came to the English composition section. Since she couldn't understand the theme, she decided to write a random essay by herself.

Just like that, she spent an hour finishing the questions.

At the same time, on the live-stream screen, Gu Qiqi had already gotten up and handed the last examination paper to the examiner!

Gu Qiqi completed all four subjects.

The examiner was shocked.

Everyone in the examination room was shocked.

The students, teachers, and the principal of Grade 12 Class 1 were shocked.

At this moment, everyone who was watching the live broadcast online was also shocked!

The comments flew past the screen.

"How heaven-defying, Goddess!"

"This is the most awesome live-stream I've seen! A real top student!"

"A female genius would plagiarize? I won't believe it even if you beat me to death!"

"Slandering! Definitely slander! There's too much fake news these days!"

“That’s right. I saw her write an English essay with my own eyes. She wrote it even faster than Chinese! More importantly, do you know what the English essay was about? It’s a freaking speech for an Olympic champion who won an award! Do you know how to write it if it were you?”

Upon seeing this, Gu Xuexue’s hand that was handing in the script trembled.

Impossible. That nerd Gu Qiqi even had the ability to write a speech for an Olympic champion?

Others might not know, but she knew best that Gu Qiushan couldn’t bear to hire an extracurricular tutor for Gu Qiqi. Gu Qiqi learned English by memorizing the words!

She didn’t believe that this level of mute English existed.

Those audience members must be blind!

“Xue Xue, are you done answering? I’ll help you check the answers.” The English teacher reminded her with a smile.

Chapter 143: This Outrageously Poor Result!

At this moment.

Gu Xuexue really wanted to swallow the exam paper!

She never knew that an English teacher in his fifties was such a scheming old man!

Gu Xuexue wanted to hide her exam paper, but the English teacher gave her a tablet. She couldn’t hide it even if she wanted to.

Damn it! That old man must be that little b*tch Gu Qiqi’s spy!

Beside her, the students who didn’t know the truth were kicking up a fuss. “Xue Xue, quickly bring the exam paper over for the teacher to see. If you score full marks, we definitely won’t be afraid of you being arrogant, hehe...”

Gu Xuexue forced a smile and handed in the script.

The English teacher started to mark it seriously.

The other students ate and drank happily as they gossiped about Zhu Fen and Yao Dazhuang’s illness.

Zhu Fen had been fooling around with a male classmate that day. They guessed that somewhere in her body had been torn open.

Where was Yao Dazhuang?

That boy had always been arrogant, domineering, and loved to show off. Today was such a good occasion to show off, but he was actually absent?

Everyone also discussed about Little Master Xiao Ning who had a strong background. It was strange that she didn’t come today.

Just as everyone was happily gossiping...

The English teacher coughed heavily. "Xue Xue's results are out..."

"Wow, how much is it? Teacher, tell me quickly!"

"About that... It's a pity that the essay question was off-point. I'm afraid I can only give you zero marks." The little old man squinted.

"What about the other parts?" Everyone had heard just now that the English composition was about a speech for an Olympic champion. It was indeed too difficult, so it was normal not to know how to write it.

The old man deliberately kept them in suspense. "Make a guess?"

Everyone laughed. "Xue Xue's results are good. Even if she scored zero for her essay, she can still pass even if she closes her eyes and paints the answer sheet, right?"

Gu Xuexue's heart rose to her throat.

She glared fiercely at that classmate.

What nonsense was this?

She spoke as if her eyes were closed!

She clearly... opened her eyes seriously and filled them with C!

Because it was said that the probability of choosing C as the correct answer for a multiple-choice question was the highest.

In other words, even if she scored the worst, she would at least score dozens of points.

That bookworm Gu Qiqi definitely didn't know this trick. She must have guessed a lot of it wrongly.

Thus, even if they competed in blind answering, Gu Qiqi would definitely be inferior to her.

Thinking about this, Gu Xuexue forced a smile on her face.

On the surface, she spoke like what students with good grades usually liked to say. "Actually, I didn't perform well this time either. It was just so-so..."

What an act!

She was clearly arrogant, but she had to pretend to be humble!

Indeed, the English teacher smiled and shook his head. "Don't be humble! I think you performed especially well."

Gu Xuexue smiled shyly.

But in the next second.

Her smile froze on her face.

The English teacher continued, "I'm really curious. What kind of high-level IQ is needed for all the choices wrong to be wrong? Xue Xue, I really admire you!"

How could the students not hear the thick sarcasm in these words?

All the multiple choice questions were wrong?

Gu Xuexue was too ridiculous!

Even if she was blind, she could at least answer one or two questions correctly.

Advanced IQ?

Was she retarded?!

After being mocked by everyone silently, Gu Xuexue's face turned green.

What exactly went wrong? Not a single answer was correct? Didn't this paper have any options that were C?

The little old man must be lying to her!

Gu Xuexue couldn't be bothered to create her usual sensible and generous image anymore. She snatched the tablet from the English teacher's hand.

However, reality ruthlessly slapped her face.

She was really so unlucky.

There was really no answer that was C for this paper.

Chapter 144: More Awesome than the King of Medicine

Gu Xuexue grabbed the tablet computer and was in a daze.

The latest developments on the live broadcast captured everyone's attention!

"Look, the examiner is doing the assessment live!"

"Gu Qiqi's scores are about to be revealed!"

"Qiqi looks so cool as she waits leisurely on a chair!"

"Why is the light shining on Qiqi's forehead? I have the feeling that Qiqi is a big star in a movie. Is she waiting for the next schedule on the set?"

"Look, Qiqi's moving! She's raising her hand to look at her watch... I suddenly feel that Qiqi's wrist is so white, so slender, and so beautiful! That so-called Patek Philippe watch is just an accessory..."

When a person made an appearance in public, what they feared the most was that their outfit would overpower their entire body.

It was also commonly known as the clothes defining the person.

For example, Gu Xuexue's orange-colored outfit.

How low!

But Gu Qiqi's luxurious and expensive outfit today didn't cover up the splendor that belonged to her alone at all.

Be it the diamonds on the tips of her shoes or the pearls in her hair, they weren't as dazzling as the look of confidence on Gu Qiqi's face!

This was the real "human clothing".

Gu Xuexue gnashed her teeth and looked at the live-stream screen. As she listened to everyone's praise, her hands gripped the tablet tightly until her knuckles turned white.

She cursed Gu Qiqi's grades for being worse than hers!

No, she already scored zero. Gu Qiqi could only be... as terrible as her!

Staring intently at the live-stream screen, Gu Xuexue waited anxiously for the results.

However, those examiners didn't announce Gu Qiqi's paper after evaluating her. Instead, they curiously huddled together and whispered to each other. No one knew what they were discussing.

Didn't they say that they would announce the results of the reexamination live and that it would be publicized?

Gu Xuexue snorted coldly. "I'm afraid that it's because the results are too low and it's not good to announce it, right?"

The principal also pretended to be serious and said, "Yes, it's better not to announce it. Otherwise, it will really cause our Qing Cheng High School to lose face!"

The class teacher chimed in obsequiously. "Yes, yes. It's too early to hand in her exam paper. Usually, students who don't know how to answer the questions are arrogant and conceited. They're pretending to be cool over there. If the results are really announced, it would be a slap to their faces in public..."

The English and Chemistry teachers remained silent. They didn't follow the crowd.

Face smacking?

They had to see clearly whose faces were being slapped!

Soon, the examiners on the screen finished whispering and faced the live broadcast camera.

All of them had strange expressions on their faces.

Those expressions looked like they were crying and laughing at the same time. It also looked like they were twitching after being shocked.

The four examiners each held the scores in their hands—

Full marks.

Full marks.

Full marks.

And the last was full marks!

There was dead silence in front of the live-stream camera.

Immediately, the bullet screen appeared crazily and covered the entire scene!

“D*mn it! D*mn it! I don’t believe in getting full marks for any exam in this world! I don’t believe in getting full marks for the college entrance exam! That’s too scary!”

“Goddess Qiqi, I’m definitely going to force myself to believe that you cheated—Did you set this difficult paper? Actually, you’re the genius question setter in the examination room, right?”

“Go to hell! It’s definitely impossible for the goddess to cheat! Those lightning bolts that slandered the goddess for cheating! Go to hell! Go to hell!”

“Goddess, please accept my apologies. I’ll give you everything!”

“Which hotel is the goddess doing the live-stream from? I want to crawl there to have an audience with her!”

The screen suddenly turned black!

The students of Grade 12 Class 1 were stunned for a few seconds. When the screen returned to normal, they realized that there were too many people watching the live-stream. It was so many that it was unbelievable.

The internet was dead!

There was too much traffic so it exploded!

Gosh, even if everyone teamed up to play an online battle game, the screen wouldn’t turn black!

This... This was too exaggerated.

Gu Qiqi was definitely famous this time.

Chapter 145: The Truth Was Finally Revealed

Gu Qiqi received a grand slam for the most difficult set of exam papers—Full marks.

Amidst the heated discussions on the Internet, Gu Qiqi stood up lightly in a white dress.

She gathered her long hair and curved her lips slightly. Facing the camera, she suddenly said neither lightly nor lightly, “So, do you owe me an apology?”

The examiners present were stunned.

What?

Wasn’t this female student too arrogant?

It was already unprecedented to give her a chance to take the exam again.

She actually requested for an apology?

An examiner said unhappily, “Gu Qiqi, on what basis do you have to apologize? Don’t forget that there are traces of cheating on your college entrance exam paper! Although the reexamination today proved that your grades were passable, you deliberately drew a cheat mark on the exam paper. This is also looking down on the rules of the examination room. There’s nothing wrong with convicting you of cheating! You’re openly opposing us. Do you not want to change your college entrance examination results?”

These arrogant words made the live-stream audience very angry when they heard it.

“D*mn it. It turns out that those idiots sentenced my goddess to cheating because of a stupid mark? I knew it! My goddess is so awesome! She doesn’t even care about cheating, alright?”

“What exam rules? My goddess doesn’t need to be looked down on at all. Isn’t full marks the greatest form of contempt? If you have the ability, can you come up with a question that can stump my goddess?”

“F*ck, I feel like punching someone after hearing this! Brothers, let’s go and cause trouble!”

In less than ten seconds.

The admission exam website had been hacked by a group of hackers of unknown origins!

What was most infuriating was that even after the hacking was over, there was still a big red title on the screen: A stupid world doesn’t need the internet!

In the room next to the examination room.

Gong Jue sat in front of the huge screen and stared at the look on Gu Qiqi’s face as she insulted the examiner.

Gu Qiqi replied arrogantly, “It’s not my humiliation to be accused of cheating, but yours!”

Behind her, Beigong Xiaojiu—the designer—kept exclaiming exaggeratedly.

“Perfect! Jue, not only is your woman perfect, but she’s also handsome! The style that I personally designed for her is also f*cking perfect and handsome. In particular, putting your men’s watch on her slender and fair wrist is simply my inspiration! Don’t you think that the white and blue buttons imply that your soul is holding onto hers? I can’t stop the surging emotions in my heart. You won’t mind if I fall in love with her, right?”

Gong Jue’s gaze turned cold and he gave her a look that said, “Unless you want to die.”

Then, he said coldly, “Special Assistant Lu, that person is talking so much that I’m annoyed. Tell him to shut up!”

The man’s long and cold fingers pointed to the examiner who was making things difficult for Gu Qiqi on the screen.

Special Assistant Lu immediately complied and left.

A minute later.

That examiner was still trying to threaten Gu Qiqi with her grades so that she wouldn't mention any unreasonable requests for an official apology.

Suddenly, a piece of news exploded on the Internet.

A paper that was supposed to be top-secret was revealed to everyone.

That was Gu Qiqi's original English paper. There was a symbol drawn on it.

This symbol became the conclusive evidence that Gu Qiqi cheated in the college entrance exam.

But at this moment, there was a date verification attached to the back of the paper!

Although the simple symbol couldn't be compared with Gu Qiqi's handwriting, the mark in the ink could be traced back to a date.

Gu Qiqi's paper was written on the day of the college entrance exam a month ago.

And that symbol was just ink from a few days ago!

The college entrance exam papers were all sealed and preserved. How could Gu Qiqi steal the exam papers and draw a symbol to frame herself for cheating?

A test paper and a handwriting date appraisal silently explained everything!

Someone had drawn those symbols later on.

Someone was deliberately framing Gu Qiqi.

Chapter 146: You Have to Apologize to Me!

The truth was finally revealed in front of her.

The live-stream audience was unhappy.

"Damn, such an obvious framing. Are those examiners stupid? They actually slandered my goddess together?"

"No wonder I felt that there was something wrong with my college entrance examinations, middle school examinations, and elementary school graduation exam scores. Damn, it turns out that a bunch of pigs are controlling my fate!"

"No, I want to check the results too. I want justice!"

"Let's go, brothers! Let's cause trouble!"

A few minutes later.

The student recruitment examination website that had finally recovered to normal was fiercely attacked once more...

The screen went black!

The reason was that thousands of people had come to complain about their exam results from elementary school to the college entrance examinations...

Red words appeared on the black screen: You must apologize to me!

At the same time.

In the examination room, that examiner who had been making things difficult for Gu Qiqi was sweating profusely. His hands were trembling uncontrollably!

He had just received a call from his superior. He had been suspended and was being taken care of.

The reason was that his words were inappropriate in front of the national live broadcast cameras and he had smeared the image of an educator.

He finally understood that if he didn't give Gu Qiqi an explanation as soon as possible, his life from now on wouldn't be as simple as a mere suspension... Perhaps, he would be attacked over and over again like the tragic admission website.

"Ahem, that... Classmate Gu Qiqi, after careful research, we have determined that you didn't cheat on your previous results. So... on behalf of all my colleagues, I apologize to you!"

After speaking, he bowed 90 degrees honestly!

Behind her, the other examiners also looked ashamed as they bowed in apology.

In front of the live broadcast screen.

All the audience held their breaths as their eyes reddened.

Everyone knew that this innocence and apology had not been easy to come by.

If Gu Qiqi hadn't shown her perfect strength, she would have an evil reputation of being a cheating dog and would have been maligned for life!

There were so many people who had been wronged in this world. How many people had the chance to prove themselves like this?

And in her life, how many times had she been innocently slandered, misunderstood, and at a loss for words? How many times had she been ignored?

At this moment, Gu Qiqi stood straight in the examination room. Her face was as calm as water as and she calmly accepted the apology of a group of examiners who were dozens of years older than her. She bowed and apologized.

Her cold gaze swept past these people and turned to the live broadcast camera.

Suddenly, her lips curved slightly. "Thank you, everyone, for supporting me. What happened to me today will give you hope for tomorrow."

The live-stream audience exploded once more.

"Our goddess laughed!"

"Gosh, the flowers have bloomed! The world is peaceful!"

“The goddess is encouraging us. She wants us not to be afraid of being slandered and misunderstood. We have to stand up bravely and fight back!”

The little dirty turtle exploded as well.

“Master, Master. I can’t handle such immense joy anymore. Our color points have surged. It’s going to hit 100,000 soon. I can’t even stop it. It’s too satisfying...”

Because this was a live broadcast online.

Gu Qiqi received admiration, admiration, gratitude, and hatred... All kinds of rich and intense emotions surged.

Of course, there were also some haters who were jealous and clamoring.

But so what?

The more jealous they were, the more points she gained.

Wasn’t the best way to retaliate against the haters to become more perfect, so that they would be more jealous and contribute more points?

Hahaha!

Gu Qiqi curved her lips and walked out of the examination room proudly.

In the corridor outside the door.

She bumped into a few female students from Grade 12 Class 1.

“Ah, Qiqi! Turns out that your live-stream examination venue is here! No wonder you’re so noble! Come and join us in the appreciation banquet, okay?”

Not good at all.

Gu Qiqi’s expression was cold.

However, the little dirty turtle urged her desperately, “Master, go on! They’re scum so take this chance to earn some color points!”

Chapter 147: The Return of the Full Score Goddess

Gu Qiqi knocked the little turtle’s head in her mind!

“You money-grubber!”

“Qiqi, what did you say?” A few female students didn’t hear her clearly and asked in confusion.

“It’s nothing. Let’s go then,” Gu Qiqi replied lightly.

She could choose not to earn money, but shouldn’t she choose to torture some scumbags?

Gu Qiqi’s face sank. She walked towards the revolving restaurant.

She had just stepped onto the screen where Class One was having their meal.

Screams and cheers greeted her.

The students whistled and applauded.

“Wow, our goddess with full marks is back!”

“Qiqi, just now, I thought that you were ruthless, beautiful, and handsome in front of the live-stream camera. Now, I think that you’re extremely beautiful! You’re so handsome that you have no friends!”

“Qiqi, you’re really the pride and idol of our Qing Cheng Middle School!”

Some of the students who were kicking up a fuss were sincere.

However, the smiles on the faces of the principal and the class teacher sitting at the head of the table were especially stiff and unpleasant.

Sitting at the bottom, Gu Xuexue gnashed her teeth even more secretly.

D*mn it. That bookworm was actually in this hotel?

She actually came to flaunt her prowess in front of her?!

Gu Xuexue’s fingers gripped the red wine glass tightly. Her almond-shaped eyes stared intently at Gu Qiqi’s pearl-white satin gown, her navy-blue bag, her broken diamond flats... Even the pearl hair clip on Gu Qiqi’s temples seemed so classy!

It looked ten thousand times better than on the live-stream screen.

“What’s there to be smug about? She was kept by an old man and exchanged money with her flesh...”
Gu Xuexue mumbled softly.

However, halfway through her words, Gu Qiqi’s sharp gaze seemed to inadvertently turn back abruptly.

Their gazes met for a moment!

Gu Xuexue immediately felt an extremely oppressive aura pressing down on her.

She actually couldn’t handle it.

Fortunately, her classmates had all come to toast for her, allowing her to catch her breath for a while.

Gu Qiqi’s expression was indifferent. She clinked glasses with everyone and took the initiative to raise her glass in front of the English and Chemistry teachers.

She still had to thank her masters for their kindness.

These two teachers had taken very good care of her in her previous life. She remembered that when Gu Meifeng changed her application form back then, the two teachers specially came to the nursing school to look for her and asked her if she wanted to repeat her studies and choose a better university.

It was a pity that she was just a puppet in her previous life. She didn’t have the authority to exercise her own will at all.

“Gu Qiqi, you’re disrespecting me and the principal?”

The class teacher coughed and tried to ease the tension.

After all, Gu Qiqi was the top scholar and she also had a grand slam in the examinations. In the future, when she went out to brag and say that she was her student, she would also have a lot of face.

Gu Qiqi slowly curved her lips. "Didn't you say that I'm the shame of Qing Cheng Middle School? Can you drink this humiliating alcohol? I'm afraid that you'll have indigestion."

The class teacher couldn't stop coughing.

The principal's face immediately darkened!

This bookworm actually remembered the words they had ridiculed her with previously.

She wasn't giving them any face at all!

"Cousin, that's not right. You're not even giving the teacher face? Why don't we toast the principal and the class teacher together? Let bygones be bygones! Isn't it good to be more generous?"

Gu Xuexue immediately stood up.

She was also holding two glasses of red wine that had just been filled.

One of the glasses was "kindly" handed to Gu Qiqi.

Of course, the opening of that glass was smeared with spicy oil. When Gu Qiqi drank it, she would definitely choke on the spice and lose her bearings!

Gu Qiqi looked at Gu Xuexue coldly. She didn't have the slightest intention of taking Gu Xuexue's wine glass.

She allowed Gu Xuexue to extend her arm in embarrassment and raise two glasses of red wine!

Only when Gu Xuexue couldn't hold on to her face anymore did Gu Qiqi slowly curve her lips. "You're generous. Then, you can drink both glasses."

Chapter 148: Gu Qiqi, That Cunning Woman

Gu Qiqi laughed coldly in her heart.

Stop using low-key, generous, sensible, competitive, and gentle methods to educate her.

She was no longer a stupid bird that was easily fooled and had been kidnapped by their imaginary morals.

Gu Xuexue looked at Gu Qiqi in astonishment.

She had already said so much, but Gu Qiqi still didn't give her face!

Gosh, she really suspected that Gu Qiqi's skin was still there, but her soul had changed!

Why was she... so strong and confident?

She blurted out, "Gu Qiqi, stop pretending. You drank six bottles of Hennessy at the class gathering that day! Why didn't you drink it in front of the principal and the class teacher today?"

Gu Qiqi curved her lips slightly and said unhurriedly, “Class gathering? Do you want me to remind everyone about your exciting performance that day?”

The teachers might not know, but the students knew. That day, Gu Xuexue was forced to drink by Yao Dazhuang and vomited all over her body. She was half-dead!

Gu Xuexue’s expression changed and her hands trembled.

Gu Qiqi then snatched a glass of red wine from her hand. “However, thank you everyone for watching my live-stream today. I’ll toast everyone!”

After speaking, she drained the cup in one gulp!

“Okay!”

“Qiqi is straightforward!”

“Cheers!”

Everyone responded.

Gu Xuexue didn’t expect Gu Qiqi to use such a method to save herself.

She ignored her suggestion and remained polite. She respected everyone, including all the teachers.

Unknowingly, the wine in her hand had already reached her lips. Only after she took a sip did she suddenly realize that something was wrong!

Damn it! Gu Qiqi, that cunning woman, actually changed the alcohol while she wasn’t paying attention!

She had accidentally drank that cup of spicy alcohol!

“Cough, cough, cough!”

Gu Xuexue coughed violently. She was about to cough out her lungs.

The saliva that she spat out uncontrollably landed on the food on the table. Everyone frowned and couldn’t help but stay a few feet away from her.

Not to mention, Gu Xuexue’s face had flushed red from choking on alcohol. Coupled with the orange color on her body, she looked more like a ripe orange that even chickens didn’t want to eat!

On the other hand, Gu Qiqi was surrounded by a sea of praise and pleas for friendships. She was like a crane among a flock of chickens.

This comparison was too hurtful.

Gu Xuexue clenched her fists tightly.

Her fingernails dug into her palm.

Feeling indignant, she quietly approached the seat next to Gu Qiqi.

While Gu Qiqi was socializing with others, her high heels hooked onto Gu Qiqi’s chair and she pulled—

She was prepared to let Gu Qiqi sit on nothing!

Hmph! That nerd's short skirt would definitely be lifted and all the little things inside would be exposed!

Elegant and domineering? A goddess?

Let her be a butt goddess!

Just when Gu Xuexue thought that her evil scheme had succeeded...

In a flash, she felt pain on the back of her leg!

As if she had been bitten by an insect, she couldn't help but twitch.

Gu Qiqi's chair wasn't knocked down by her. Instead, her high heels became unsteady and bent outward, causing her entire body to lean to the side.

"Pa —!"

She had fallen onto her butt in front of Gu Qiqi!

"Cousin, it's not even the new year yet. Why are you giving me such a big bow?" Gu Qiqi smiled as she looked down at Gu Xuexue, who was lying at her feet.

The classmate beside her also laughed. "Ah, Xuexue, you're awesome. You're orange from the inside out today! Hehe..."

Gu Xuexue's fall caused her skirt to split open.

Everyone could see that Gu Xuexue was wearing an orange thong this time!

She was really such a shameless little panties enthusiast.

Chapter 149: If I Didn't Hit You, Would I Keep It For The New Year?

Gu Xuexue was so ashamed that she felt like dying!

It was fine if she revealed herself when she fell down the escalator in the hospital previously. After all, not many people there knew her. The extent and scope of her embarrassment were limited.

But everyone at the apprenticeship banquet today was familiar.

She was naked in front of all her acquaintances and everyone could clearly see what she was wearing. She had really lost all her face.

It was about the same as when Zhu Fen had been taken care of by someone and left naked.

But just as she was about to get up...

Gu Qiqi bent down from above. Her back blocked everyone's vision. She stretched out her hand and slapped down!

"Pa —!"

Gu Qiqi controlled her strength well.

She was like the most capable great doctor as he held the scalpel with the exact same strength.

Not a bit more, not a bit less!

The slap landed on Gu Xuexue's face and it immediately turned red. It brought about a piercing pain.

Her voice was very soft!

"You, you dare to hit—"

Gu Xuexue didn't expect that Gu Qiqi would actually cause her to suffer such a ruthless slap after she fell.

She actually dared to hit her at such a grand apprenticeship banquet today!

Immediately, she started shouting in anger.

But in the very next second, a piece of chicken bone in Gu Qiqi's palm was fiercely stuffed into Gu Xuexue's mouth. It was so stuck that she couldn't speak.

"If I don't hit you now, am I going to keep it for the new year?"

Gu Qiqi laughed coldly.

Her arrogant back blocked the others' line of sight.

Leaning over, she whispered into Gu Xuexue's ear in a soft voice. Every word she said was shocking. "Gu Xuexue, don't think that I don't know that the so-called cheating plagiarism in the college entrance examinations was your mother's and your work, right? Please tell them that the pugilistic world is very small. We will meet again one day. Let's put aside this score that they owe me first. It's good to save up interest too... There's no hurry to repay it. Today, I'll reward you with this slap. It'll be considered the interest for these few days!"

These words were like a bolt from the blue!

Gu Qiqi knew? How did Gu Qiqi know?

That threatening and warning tone of hers was so scary!

Gosh, this bookworm was becoming more and more outrageous and arrogant!

For a moment, Gu Xuexue felt her heart beat rapidly. She couldn't resist Gu Qiqi's fierce aura at all. She had no choice but to nod foolishly.

Of course, she didn't know that the moment Gu Qiqi accepted the examiner's apology, she had already guessed who the mastermind was!

He had a business background from the Imperial Capital, and he was also at odds with her.

He was also wicked and vicious!

The answer was obvious!

Gu Enlong, Gu Meifeng, wait for me.

Although Gu Qiqi was secretly threatening Gu Xuexue with a warning, in the eyes of others, she seemed to be looking down gently to comfort her cousin and ask if she was injured.

The students nearby sighed.

An honest person couldn't help but say, "Qiqi, you're so good to Xuexue, but do you know what she said about you just now? She said that you must have been taken care of by an old man. Then, those beautiful clothes, bags, and watches on you were earned from selling... ahem... your flesh..."

Once her words fell, the atmosphere in the dining room froze.

That classmate also realized that she had said the wrong thing without thinking.

Gu Xuexue's words were so vicious and evil.

Why did she repeat them so stupidly?

If Qiqi heard this, she would be so angry and disappointed.

Her cousin said that she was selling... her flesh to old men...

Tsk tsk. How unbearable!

Chapter 150: Master Was That Old Man

In the dining room.

The atmosphere was tense! It was a stalemate!

Selling?

Flesh?

Such an ugly accusation was an absolutely unacceptable humiliation to any woman.

What's more, she was a high school student who had just graduated!

The aura around Gu Qiqi dropped by more than three degrees.

Wasn't that slap a little light just now?

She used a disinfectant tissue to wipe her hand casually and stared at Gu Xuexue coldly.

Gu Xuexue shivered and couldn't care about her image anymore.

She hurriedly hugged her head and knelt on her knees. Like a toad, she crawled forward desperately by a few steps. Finally, she crawled to a place where everyone could see her clearly and hugged the principal's leg to ask for help.

To prevent Gu Qiqi from hitting her again!

She took a deep breath and finally seemed to be able to rely on Gu Qiqi. Her tone became more unyielding as she said, "I wasn't wrong, Gu Qiqi. Your father is very frugal. He never bought expensive clothes for you. Why don't you tell everyone where these things came from? If they aren't cheap second-hand goods that were rented from the streets, then it must be an old man who took care of you and gave you money for your flesh!”

Cheap second-hand goods?

A new set of clothes that cost money?

Oh, these two choices didn’t seem to be that great.

Gu Qiqi thought to herself, This brainless Gu Xuexue actually has a glib tongue now. She even knows how to make such a stupid logical question with two choices.

She was really at her wits’ end when it came to dealing with morons.

It seemed that other than beating the other party up until she was more stupid and disabled, there was nothing else that could be done...

Gu Qiqi pursed her red lips. Holding her wrists, she walked towards Gu Xuexue expressionlessly.

Gu Xuexue shivered again.

“You... You can’t hit me... I’m telling the truth. You’re just an old man’s toy. Unless you have evidence...”
Gu Xuexue bit down on these words. She knew that Gu Qiqi definitely wouldn’t be able to do anything to her.

Because no one could prove that she wasn’t taken care of.

Gu Qiqi was definitely going to take this lying down!

Hmph! She wasn’t going to be afraid of Gu Qiqi. Her mother and her eldest maternal uncle had their own ways of dealing with this nerd. What was there to be afraid of?

But in the next second.

A heavenly male voice traveled from behind the screen.

“I’m that old man you’re talking about!”

As his voice fell, the man’s tall and imposing figure stepped into this mortal world like a god descending onto the world.

The strong and powerful sound of leather boots rang on the marble floor. It vaguely showed that this man was not to be trifled with!

Indeed, the man walked up to Gu Qiqi’s back and wrapped his long and slender arm around her shoulders. His voice became colder and more murderous!

“Why? Is there a problem with me doting on my own woman? Who has an objection? Stand out!”

Gong Jue swept his cold gaze across the entire venue. His eyes carried the unique murderous aura of a superior.

Who would dare to object?

Once Gong Jue appeared, all the female students' legs went soft. A voice in their hearts exploded. "Oh my god! This man is so handsome! This man is supporting Gu Qiqi? Damn it! I want to be Gu Qiqi! I also want to be his sugar baby!! What kind of dog-like gaze is that from Gu Xuexue? How is this man old? I don't even want the diamond shoes, branded bags, and clothes anymore. I only want to sleep on the same bed with such a man every day! Can I?"

Once Gong Jue's domineering questioning was out, all the male students and teachers' legs went soft. Everyone thought to themselves, How terrifying! Why does this man have the aura of a king descending upon the world? He's pressuring us so much that we can't even raise our heads!"

With Gong Jue posing the question—

Who would dare answer?

Gu Xuexue hugged the principal's leg tightly and curled into a ball.

Gong Jue rubbed Gu Qiqi's shoulder with his big palm. "Be good. Tell me, who was it that didn't have eyes just now and slandered you for being taken care of by an old man? I think that such a person's eyes can be directly pierced till they're blind. What do you think?"
