

Dear Chief 23

Chapter 23: Arrogant and Cold Man

“Dare to repeat your words?”

Gu Qiqi said coldly.

Gu Xuexue actually said that she was a prostitute who was selling herself in the streets.

She definitely couldn't tolerate this anymore.

“Could it be that I am mistaken?”

“I heard that you like to seduce big shots in the extraction room. You would become coquettish like th—”
” Gu Xuexue's eyes shone.

“Slap—”

Gu Qiqi raised her hand. Five fingerprints immediately made their mark on Gu Xuexue's face.

Special Assistant Lu was shocked.

Wow. Young Lady Qiqi sure has a fiery temper. She's like a little chili!

“Uncuff me!”

Gu Qiqi coldly declared.

The handcuffs were affecting her performance.

Otherwise, that slap would've been more ruthless.

Special Assistant Lu hesitated for a second. Then, he proceeded to uncuff her.

His eyes couldn't help but glance at the car that was parked outside the door on the first floor.

The arrogant and cold man at the back seat of the car must have seen this scene clearly.

Master, you won't blame me for letting Young Lady Qiqi unleash her prowess, right?

Gu Qiqi frowned. She rotated her wrist and the joints in her arm creaked.

The steel handcuff hanging from her wrist exuded a cold light that pierced through Gu Xuexue's heart.

Such a Gu Qiqi was shockingly beautiful and evil.

This was very different from the Gu Qiqi she was familiar with.

And it seemed...

It seemed like Gu Qiqi was going to give her something worse than a slap in the very next second.

No, she had to act first!

Gu Xuexue threw Zhu Fen a look.

Zhu Fen stood next to Gu Qiqi and quietly moved the medicine cart next to the escalator.

There were a lot of glass bottles, test tubes, and liquid medicine on the medicine cart.

There were even sharp surgical scissors and bone scrapers!

Gu Xuexue deliberately raised her voice to cover her act. "Sister, you can hit me, but you can't erase the fact that you have thrown away the Gu family's face!"

"You didn't return home for three days and three nights..."

"You even ruined Head Zhu's operation and the patient hasn't woken up yet!"

"You have burdened your father and my mother!"

"They even had to lower their voices and stifle their anger when apologizing to the family of that patient..."

"Also! Do you know that they want to sue us in court?"

"The patient is an extremely noble person!"

"Can the Gu family withstand his revenge?"

"All of this is because of the mistake you made in your anesthesia work!"

A mistake in anesthesia work?

Heh, she wanted to slander her?

"There are surveillance cameras in the operating room. It's clear who prepared the anesthesia."

"Gu Xuexue, you should be the one that should go to jail!"

"Sister, how can you wish for me to go to jail? You're lacking conscience here—"

"Conscience? Did you have a conscience when you secretly changed my professional ambitions and wanted to throw me into a nursing school?"

"Sister, we're doing this for your own good!"

"Your father said that you're immature and needed to undergo training while maintaining a low profile. Also, you can take care of your brother if you become a nurse!"

"What's wrong with that?"

Gu Xuexue boasted without shame and secretly threw Zhu Fen a look.

Zhu Fen snorted. "Xuexue, you're mistaken!"

“She’s going to earn money from extracting semen from big shots. Where would she have the time to take care of that sickly brother of hers?”

“What’s more was that my father said that her sickly brother would die sooner or later. He has cancer and his condition is steadily declining... He sure is a waste of the Gu family’s money.”

Gu Qiqi’s eyes turned cold. “Your pig-like father has no right to comment my brother!”

“Gu Qiqi, you dare scold that I’m a pig? Why don’t you go and die?!”

Zhu Fen’s face was repeatedly struck by Gu Qiqi until it became swollen.

Zhu Fen wanted to see nothing else at this moment—but a severely injured Gu Qiqi with her skull cracked open and furiously bleeding.

Under Gu Xuexue’s signal, she pushed the medicine cart fiercely towards Gu Qiqi.

“Roar—”

The glassware, the surgical scissors, and the bone scrapers on the tall medicine cart came tumbling down.

They struck Gu Qiqi’s body!
