

Dear Chief 261

Chapter 261: The Correct Way to Crush Scumbags

Gong Jue wanted her and Xiaobei to live in the same “home” with him?

“This isn’t appropriate...”

Gu Qiqi felt complicated in her heart. After holding it in for a long time, she said those words.

Gong Jue was domineering and had an unpredictable temper. His bad habits, such as mysophobia and irritation, far exceeded that of ordinary people. He was even a little paranoid.

But she couldn’t deny that he was really good to her.

His treatment towards her was getting better.

It was better than she had expected.

She didn’t live under a rock. How could she not feel it at all?

Only a fool wouldn’t be able to tell the clumsy and awkward concern hidden in that domineering man.

But the more this was the case, the more she couldn’t help but want to escape.

In her previous life, Mu Liuchuan treated her very well too. He was even gentler than Gong Jue.

But in the end... After the bloody truth was revealed, it turned out that he was just a pawn that Gu Xuexue used to attack her!

Only after being ruthlessly betrayed once did she understand how terrible this feeling of being unable to trust others so easily was! How helpless she was!

Why was Gong Jue so good to her?

Was it a whim of teasing, fooling around and flirting, or something else?

She didn’t dare to spend time thinking about this question!

Thus, the myriad of emotions ultimately transformed into three words.

“This isn’t appropriate...”

However...

Gong Jue didn’t understand Gu Qiqi’s complicated emotions at all. He replied simply and roughly.

“There’s nothing inappropriate! It’s decided!”

After speaking in a commanding tone, Gong Jue suddenly thought of something and sized her up. “Back at the Gu family, were they going to whip you with that rattan?”

Remembering the unpleasantness just now, Gu Qiqi laughed bitterly. “Yes.”

Gong Jue’s face immediately darkened.

The temperature in the car immediately seemed to resemble the glacier era.

It was so cold that she shivered!

“Bastard! How dare they touch my woman! I shouldn’t have said any dogshit etiquette to them just now!” Gong Jue was furious.

If Gu Qiqi hadn’t kept looking at him pitifully back then and begged him not to reveal his identity, he would have flipped out at the scene long ago!

Those who deserved it would be whipped ruthlessly and those who deserved to die would be sent to their deaths.

Otherwise, why would he let them stay for the night?

Gu Qiqi pursed her lips. “They didn’t hit me in the end, right? I’m not stupid. How can I let them succeed so easily? You’re underestimating me too much.”

Gong Jue looked unhappy. “Hmph! You can avoid death, but you can’t escape punishment! Since they have the intention to hit you, they have to have the self-awareness to compensate us!”

“Compensation for what? I didn’t lose anything. On the other hand, they looked quite miserable. They fell on their chins and suffered from being whipped. Oh, right, you even scalded their faces...”

Gu Qiqi wanted to laugh when she thought of Gu Yuanyuan and Gu Xuexue being scalded by hot tea in order to compete to seduce Gong Jue.

That anxious look on their faces were too ugly.

Gong Jue didn’t think so. He said coldly, “How is there no loss? Mental damage! It’s immeasurable! They have to compensate heavily!”

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Suddenly, she felt like she had been pampered to the skies. What if she started floating?

Gu Qiqi thought that Gong Jue was joking.

But she didn’t expect that Gong Jue had long decided the method of torture to proceed with!

“Special Assistant Lu, get the lawyers to investigate the Gu Shen Corporation thoroughly!”

“Calculate how much money they have on their accounts to compensate us!”

“Someone might have to taste bankruptcy!”

==

At the Gu family’s residence.

After Gu Qiqi left.

Old Madam Gu slammed the teacup in her hand onto the table!

“That d*mned girl is becoming more and more outrageous. She actually snatched Xuexue’s good opportunity away without even looking at me! She has the same bad temper as that short-lived mother of hers. They’re both so hateful! Old man, call her tomorrow and let her withdraw from the summer internship project by herself so that Xuexue can go over! No, you call her now! Otherwise, she would occupy a latrine pit and won’t give up her position!”

Chapter 262: Arrogant Old Lady!

Thinking that Gu Qiqi had taken advantage of the opportunity for Xuexue to curry favor with the President, Old Madam Gu couldn’t help but fly into a rage and urged Old Master Gu to make a call.

Old Master Gu glared at her unhappily.

Back then, his family had arranged a marriage for him with this daughter from the Shen family. Although he didn’t feel much for her, she was still considered knowledgeable and reasonable. They had been together for decades in a lukewarm manner.

Sometimes, when she used the Gu family’s assets to help the Shen family, he would also close an eye and not bicker with her.

He didn’t expect that the older this Shen daughter became, the worse her temper became.

She really pulled down his Gu family’s reputation as a scholar family.

Back when Qiqi’s mother married into this family, she received a lot of disdain from her.

Now, she found Qiqi an eyesore.

She actually said words like “occupy a latrine pit”.

How disappointing!

“Why should I call him? You’re not allowed to call anyone! No one is allowed to disturb Qiqi! Otherwise, I won’t be polite!” He said these words angrily and left the study room.

Gu Meifeng and the rest hurriedly surrounded Old Madam.

“Mom, how can we give such a good opportunity to that brat? Dad is really stupid. He only cares about studies and doesn’t even look at the situation outside. This kind of good opportunity should be given to Xue Xue!”

“Grandma, I want to intern there too. I’ll remove the stitches on my wound tomorrow so I won’t have to sit in the wheelchair anymore. Grandma, can you let me go too?”

“Grandma, there’s still me! Although I’m in my second year, I can take care of my junior brothers and sisters!”

The mother and daughter echoed each other. In addition, Gu Yuanyuan was also infatuated after seeing Gong Jue. No matter what, she had to follow him.

The few of them coaxed the Old Madam until she became even more determined. "Don't worry. Even if the old man doesn't want to give in, Grandma still has a way. Don't forget that our Shen clan is also a family with status and is influential. Tomorrow, Yuan Yuan and Xuexue will go together! All of you!"

The Shen family was a packaging maker. As the Gu family was close to the pharmaceutical world, the Shen family had focused their business on packaging medicine over the years. They earned a lot and were planning to list the company publicly.

Old Madam Gu owned 80% of the original shares in the Shen family. If the company was successfully listed, she would be ranked among the wealthiest women in the Imperial Capital.

No wonder she dared to argue with Old Master Gu now.

After all, Old Master Gu was only focused on his studies and didn't care much about money.

When the women heard that Old Madam Gu was willing to stand up and fight for an opportunity, they immediately beamed.

The words "future First Lady" couldn't be erased from Gu Yuanyuan and Gu Xuexue's minds anymore!

While she was feeling happy, Gu Meifeng casually looked at her phone and her expression suddenly changed drastically!

"Mom, Brother Qiushan's villa... has been blown into ruins!"

She had only set the furniture on fire previously. She had even planned to redecorate and sell that house for a good price to fill her private pockets!

The Gu family's villa in Qing Cheng could be sold for at least tens of millions.

"What happened? Did Qiushan offend someone? They won't even let him off after sending him to jail?" Old Madam Gu also became nervous.

However, as Gu Meifeng read the reports on the Internet, her face turned completely pale.

"No... It was said that an enemy country's spy hid poison in our villa. They want to completely blow it up and dig ten meters underground to dig for poison..."

"What? How is that possible?"

"Mom, it's true! The news also said that the Gu family's land has been confiscated and they're going to auction it off because Brother Qiushan still owes tens of millions of dollars in compensation... Wuwuwu! Mom, the hospital has already been sold previously, and now, the villa has also been sold. They're not giving us a way out! Wuwuwuwu, they're bullying us..."

Old Madam Gu gnashed her teeth in anger. "Ask Enlong to come back! Go and check who's behind this? Could it be that they don't know the strength of our Gu and Shen families? Enlong is also a person with status in the Imperial Capital. When the Shen family's company has been listed, I want to see which blind little b*stard still dares to touch us!"

However, before Gu Enlong could reach home...

Another bolt from the blue struck this self-righteous old lady.

Chapter 263: Money All Flew Away!

“Old Madam, something happened to the Shen family!”

Before Gu Enlong reached home, he revealed the terrible news over the phone first.

“What did you say?”

“Old Madam, isn’t the Shen family going to be listed as a whole? But at this critical moment, someone found out that the paper used to make the medicine packaging and the toxic elements in the printed ink have seriously exceeded the standards!”

“How is that possible?!” Old Madam Gu’s voice suddenly became shrill. “Hurry up and get someone to settle it. Spend some money to settle it!”

“It’s too late. The news has already been leaked. The presidential office has already called for an emergency meeting overnight to investigate. It also publicly stated that they can’t tolerate such a serious and dangerous act of harming the citizens. They said that this is a crime! There were even people who caused trouble at the Shen family’s factory and said that their relatives died from an illness that was caused by poison from the packaging. They wanted to sue us for ten times their losses as compensation... In short, it’s chaotic! Completely chaotic!”

Listening to Gu Enlong’s anxious report, Old Madam Gu couldn’t hold on anymore and collapsed into the armchair.

When one was old, the most important thing was her life savings.

Old partners and even children were secondary.

Thus, the greatest impact on her was when something happened to the Shen Corporation!

“How did it end up like this... How did it end up like this...”

She muttered to herself and refused to believe this outcome.

It was just medicine packaging. Even if it was made with toxic components, it wasn’t poisonous. How did it become a serious harm to the citizens?

Those people were sick to begin with and deserve to die. Why were they clinging onto the Shen family?

These people must be jealous of her money!

As Gu Meifeng listened, she scrolled through Weibo. She was so frightened that she couldn’t be bothered to feel sorry for Qing Cheng’s villa anymore.

“Mom, it can’t be that they won’t let the Shen family get listed, right? Then, will there be a problem with the few million original shares that I invested in? No, I want to withdraw my investment. Mom, let them return the money to me first!”

Gu Meifeng didn't have much money left in her hands. Initially, she thought that since the Shen family would be listed, she could take advantage of the huge increase in the stock value to fish up a huge sum. Then, she could sell Gu Qiushan's villa and earn another huge sum.

But who would have thought that everything would turn into nothing overnight!

All her money flew away.

No, she had to protect herself!

Gu Yuanyuan was also anxious. She stomped her feet and threw a fit. "Grandma, there's still my father's investment. If we withdraw it, we'll withdraw it together! My father said that those shares were to be given to me. If the company doesn't go public, I'll suffer a huge loss!"

Old Madam Gu swept her gaze across these two people who only recognized money and said in annoyance, "If we're going to die, let's die together!"

The Shen family was in danger. Withdrawing their investment would cost them their lives.

Seeing that everyone was in a mess and Gu Xuexue was sitting in a wheelchair, she suddenly felt that her chance in life had arrived!

Only in a crisis would there be a chance!

She pursed her lips and walked forward in a wheelchair. She pulled the old lady's trembling hands and said gently, "Grandma, if we can find a chance to interact with the presidential palace, will there be room for reconciliation?"

The old madam was stunned.

That's right. Enlong said just now that the presidential palace had designated the Shen family's case as a crime.

If the presidential palace could take back this judgment and refute the rumors, those reporters definitely wouldn't dare to report randomly anymore.

The CSRC would also reconsider the Shen family's listing.

The President's Manor...

Old Madam's turbid eyes lit up. "You're indeed my most doted granddaughter. You're still smart at the critical moment! As long as the presidential palace changes its decision, there's still hope for the Shen family!"

Gu Yuanyuan glared at Gu Xuexue with jealousy and hatred. A country bumpkin from a widow's family only knew how to show off! Who wouldn't think of this? The problem was that the presidential palace was too high to reach. Who could change the decision of the presidential palace?!

Chapter 264: Brother-In-Law, Rest Early

Gu Xuexue pretended not to see Gu Yuanyuan's jealousy.

Still holding Old Madam's arm affectionately, she said, "Grandma, won't there be a ready-made opportunity tonight? Gu Qiqi left with that person from the presidential palace. Let Gu Qiqi enjoy herself and let her help us..."

Having suffered so much, Gu Xuexue became more vigilant.

She wanted to say, let me do it.

But before she could finish speaking, she volunteered Gu Qiqi instead.

Gu Qiqi definitely wouldn't be able to do such a technical thing. In the end, she would definitely have to do it herself. There would be a stark contrast and her ability would be highlighted.

Indeed, when the old madam heard this, she shook her head. "What does that brat know? Xuexue, you have to do it. I'll call her now and get her to come back so that you can intern for the summer project. You can have develop a strong connection with Gong Sheng then!"

Gong Sheng?

Gu Xuexue raised her eyebrows.

So that handsome and cold man was called Gong Sheng?

What a nice name. It sounded like she would get pregnant just from hearing it.

Old Madam picked up the phone and called over and over again.

But she couldn't get through to Gu Qiqi's phone.

Gu Meifeng called as well, but she still couldn't get through!

Gu Xuexue also joined in the call. The result was the same.

Logically speaking, it wasn't even time to sleep yet...

The three of them looked at one another. In the end, Gu Yuanyuan took a look and curled her lips. "She blacklisted you!"

Don't ask her how she knew. She was stubborn and often did this!

Their faces were as red as tomatoes. It was fascinating.

==

At this moment, Gu Qiqi still didn't know that the Gu family was already in chaos.

Gong Jue's car stopped at the end of Golden Gate Street. It was a sparsely populated community.

This was the end of the wealthy district. Gu Qiqi had never been here in her previous life.

But when the car drove past, she saw a door number.

It was actually...0?

It must be because the sky was dark and she was seeing things.

Usually, the smaller the house number, the more awesome the person living there was.

For example, those who could stay in Number 1 were usually big shots.

But she had never heard of 0 in this world.

Special Assistant Lu sent them to the door and was chased away by Gong Jue.

With the lead of the mini robot, Xiaobei didn't even need anyone to support him when he entered the room. He immediately activated the machine's blindness mode and happily went to the guest room to take a shower.

"Sister, Brother-in-law, goodnight! You two rest early!" Xiaobei said goodnight innocently.

Have an early rest...

Didn't that mean that he wanted us to sleep together early?!

Gu Qiqi's small face flushed red like a ripe apple!

No, she had to educate Xiaobei well tomorrow.

Food could be eaten carelessly, but words couldn't be spoken carelessly.

Gong Jue was in a surprisingly good mood. "Yes. You should rest early too. I've arranged an activity for you tomorrow."

"You arranged an event for Xiaobei? Why didn't I know..." Gu Qiqi was surprised.

"This was arranged by a man. You don't have to know."

"I..." Gu Qiqi opened her mouth but closed it again.

Why did she feel that Gong Jue was getting more and more into character?

She had to talk to him properly about being called brother-in-law. It was just a misunderstanding that an innocent child had.

It didn't count!

However, Gong Jue suddenly bent down and sniffed her long hair. "Go and take a shower."

"I..."

"The Gu family's smell isn't good!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Why was this man controlling her more and more?!

Wait a minute!

Was he despising her?

When Gu Qiqi came out of the shower, she realized that Gong Jue was already lying on the bed in the guestroom matter-of-factly.

“This is the guest room.” Gu Qiqi wrapped her bathrobe tightly around herself.

“So what?” Gong Jue’s expression didn’t change.

The man’s short hair was wet. Clearly, he had washed it.

Chapter 265: This Man Was Really Heartwarming!

Gu Qiqi never expected that after coming out of the shower, this man would lie on the bed that belonged to a guest in such a strange manner!

Can’t you let me rest properly!

“Gong Jue, we need to talk.”

“It’s time to rest now. What’s there to talk about?!” The man’s long and slender arm pulled her over forcefully.

How fragrant!

Gong Jue sniffed her long hair deeply.

Yes, the smell was right this time.

Those hateful people from the Gu family. Even their breathing carried an unpleasant smell. They were trying to hurt his woman.

Thus, they deserved to be unable to sleep through the night and tossed around uneasily tonight!

Gu Qiqi rubbed her forehead and raised her voice to resist his domineeringness. “You have to understand that I agreed to stay at your house completely because Xiaobei won’t be bullied in the Gu family...”

Gong Jue’s long and clean fingers pressed against her lips. “Since it’s for Xiaobei... It’s best to lower your voice...”

Gu Qiqi’s small face inexplicably flushed red!

What’s with the soft voice? It sounds so suspicious!

Could it be that Xiaobei was young and wasn’t suitable to hear that kind of impure activity?

Once Gu Qiqi became nervous, she remembered and flailed around with her hands and feet.

Gong Jue sighed. He gently pressed down with his elbow and easily restrained her. His big palm even directly clasped the belt of her bathrobe.

Gu Qiqi became anxious. “Little turtle, where’s my martial strength?”

The little turtle covered his face. “There aren’t enough energy points. I can’t use it... Master Silver, why don’t you adopt a roundabout strategy?”

“How?”

“You just have to kiss him first and absorb a huge amount of energy points. Then, I’ll use force to teach him a lesson ruthlessly...”

“You can shut up now.”

Gu Qiqi felt that she had activated a fake skill!

What a cheat.

But in the very next second, Gong Jue said slowly in her ear, “You... That thing isn’t over yet? I heard the center of the palm is connected to a person’s middle energies. If I massage it in a circular motion, it will not hurt anymore. Is that true from a medical standpoint?”

He seemed to be asking, but he didn’t hesitate to put it into practice!

Gu Qiqi was stunned.

Middle energies... Such a professional ancient Chinese medicine term.

Gong Jue, this big block of ice, was he... warming her up now?

A simple and straightforward man like him actually knew how to relieve the pain of her period?

How terrifying!

The warmth from his palm instantly spread to her bones.

She suddenly felt a little guilty. She didn’t have her period at all, but she was enjoying Gong Jue’s exclusive service. Could she be too evil?

The strong guilt made her unable to sound stubborn anymore. “Gong Jue, actually, I...”

“I already said that this is break time. Woman, you’re delaying sleep. Could it be that you want to do something else with me? Hmm?”

Gu Qiqi’s back stiffened. She immediately didn’t dare to speak anymore.

Honestly speaking, it was quite relaxing to quietly feel his service!

As a result...

A few minutes later.

A certain little woman was fast asleep!

Looking at the little woman who was sound asleep, Gong Jue curved his lips. He bent down and kissed her forehead.

“It’s so easy to lower her guard against men. Stupid woman, you’re testing my self-control...”

After a light kiss, he pursed his lips.

If he continued kissing her, he would be asking for trouble for himself.

Since he didn't want to hurt her, it was better not to touch her lips again!

Gong Jue took a deep breath. As he continued to massage Gu Qiqi, he picked up the phone and ordered. "Drag the Shen Corporation's company down and slowly bring them down!"

It was simply too easy to bankrupt a small company like the Shen family overnight.

But he changed his mind.

He was going to make those people panic all day long and finally kneel at the feet of his woman while weeping bitter tears!

The night was long. Anyway, he couldn't sleep while hugging the little demon.

He could only torture scumbags to relieve the pressure!

Chapter 266: Let Xiaobei See The Light Again

Gu Qiqi sat in the laboratory and covered her face.

Oh my!

Even after a night had passed, as long as she thought about the moment Gong Jue unbuttoned her nightgown, she still felt that her face was so red.

Although the scene later developed into a pure and warm interaction, she was frightened to death at that moment.

Also, when she woke up in the morning and opened the door, Xiaobei's unintentional "Sister, did you and Brother-in-law sleep well last night" made her blush so much that her face was bright red!

Although she knew that Xiaobei meant "rest" meant "sleep"!

"Classmate Qiqi, the experimental specimen you made was too beautiful. This is the first time I've seen an intern with such agile methods! Come, help me make another one!" The head teacher of the laboratory, Zhou Qing, praised her and pulled her back to reality.

"Okay."

Gu Qiqi tried her best to fall into a busy state and not think about Gong Jue.

"Professor Zhou, do you know which professor at Imperial Medical University is the best in ophthalmology?"

"Shen Ping." Zhou Qing said without hesitation.

"Can he let the blind see the light again?"

"This... I've really never heard of it. It's too difficult." Zhou Qing frowned. "We still have to see if the optic nerve isn't necrotic and if the other eye tissues are seriously damaged."

"What if he was born with it?"

"That's even more troublesome. You have to ask him for the details. Why? Your big eyes look watery?"

“It’s my younger brother. He has lived in the dark for more than ten years. I really want to let him see the most ordinary sunlight and color like our eyes.”

Zhou Qing was moved by her stubborn and emotional voice and couldn’t help but comfort her. “Don’t be sad. You should look for Professor Shen Ping first. You’re this year’s top scholar and you’re even the top student in clinical medicine. Shen Ping loves talent and will definitely help you. If there’s really no other way, you can ask him at the pharmaceutical school when school reopens. I heard that there’s a treasured ‘Medicine Classic’ in the pharmacy that was handed down by Hua Tuo. There might be a legendary secret prescription for Hua Tuo used to treat eyes. You can try it!”

Gu Qiqi remembered this and nodded in gratitude.

The little dirty turtle was amazed. “This Imperial Medical University is not bad. They even have Hua Tuo’s secret prescription.”

Gu Qiqi raised her eyebrows. “You’ve heard of it too? Why didn’t you tell me earlier?”

The little dirty turtle blinked. “I’m innocent, Master Silver. I just remembered that the first level of your martial strength was Hua Tuo’s Five Animal Mimicry!”

Gu Qiqi was stunned. “What did you say? That day, my attacking technique was the Five Animal Mimicry? Was it the gym exercise that Hua Tuo used to imitate birds?”

As a person who knew medicine, she wasn’t unfamiliar with the Five Animal Play. It was really just exercise. She had never heard of the Five Animal Mimicry being used as attacks!

No wonder her martial strength was so low!

The little dirty turtle hurriedly explained, “No, no, no. Master, stupid humans only know that the Five Animals Mimicry is used as exercise. Actually, it was originally a type of martial arts. It can be used to attack and defend. But part of the martial arts was lost! Look, that day, your actions were especially agile. When you jumped and dodged, weren’t you like a deer among the Five Animals?”

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

It was fine to say that she was a stupid human, but to say that she actually become a beast!

The dirty little turtle hurriedly tried to salvage the situation. “Master, I... I just think that Hua Tuo’s things are reliable. Why don’t we go to the pharmacy to look for them?”

Gu Qiqi nodded. “Okay. With both sides working together, it’s best if Shen Ping can perform the operation. If he can’t, we’ll think of a way to find the medicine book.”

However, since it was a treasured item, could ordinary people look at it?

The master and servant were discussing it.

Suddenly, the guard outside announced. “Classmate Gu Qiqi, someone’s looking for you!”

Gu Qiqi put down the specimen in her hand and felt that she was unfamiliar with the Imperial Capital. Who would come to find her?

Chapter 267: A Slap On The Face

Gu Qiqi rushed out.

Passing by the specimen room, she handed an old man a ginseng medicinal specimen in a transparent glass box that she had just made to Professor Zhou.

Outside the glass door.

Gu Xuexue, who had just left her wheelchair and could walk on her own, supported Old Madam Gu and was arguing angrily with the security guard.

“My grandmother is the mistress of the Gu family. My uncle is Gu Enlong from the Education Hall. My uncle is Professor Shen from your school. We’re also very familiar with the people in the presidential palace. Why aren’t you letting us in? Don’t you know that it’s very hot here? It’s very tiring to wait for people here!”

“Heh heh, it’s useless even if your father is the emperor! The rules of the number one laboratory in the Empire don’t allow anyone to enter just because they want to!” The guard looked disdainful. “Don’t come if you’re tired! It’s so much more comfortable to go home!”

“Then why did my older sister enter?”

“Perhaps your older sister’s IQ is higher than yours!”

The security guard couldn’t help but mock.

Damn it! He hated this kind of delicate and arrogant rich girl the most in his life.

She refused to listen to reason with her and insisted on getting scolded.

“You! You, a guard, actually dared to call me stupid. I’m going to complain to your superior!”

Gu Xuexue was exasperated. It wasn’t easy for her to accompany her grandmother out for a while, and it was her chance to perform. In the end, everything didn’t go smoothly. A small guard dared to stop her, and she couldn’t even enter the laboratory door.

At the thought that Gu Qiqi was doing her internship inside and that Gong Sheng might be there as well, she couldn’t remain calm anymore.

On the other hand, Old Madam Gu calmed down and stopped her. “Don’t quarrel with such a small character. Let’s talk about it when that b*tch comes out later.”

“Yes! Grandma, why didn’t Sister come after so long? Could it be that Gong Sheng instructed a very capable professor to guide her?” The more Gu Xuexue thought about it, the more jealous she became.

This opportunity should have belonged to her.

Old Madam Gu was wholeheartedly immersed in the anxiety of losing the Shen family’s listing and facing bankruptcy. She casually comforted her. “That’s impossible. With her cheap talents, why would the professors take a fancy to her? She’s stupid. She doesn’t have any upbringing or etiquette at all. She doesn’t even listen to what she says. At most, she can do some rough work!”

Gu Xuexue relaxed and seized the opportunity to magnify this point. "Grandma is right. Actually, we interned in Uncle's hospital together during the summer vacation. Sister was like this too. All the doctors didn't like her because she couldn't do anything well. In the end, she could only do things like serving urine basins to patients, wiping blood, cleaning vomit, and so on. That's right, Uncle went to jail because she made a mistake with the anesthetic. It's all her fault!"

Anyway, Old Madam didn't know what happened in Qing Cheng.

She wasn't afraid of defaming Gu Qiqi no matter what.

Old Madam Gu snorted coldly. "That moron! She's only fit to do lowly jobs!"

Gu Xuexue pursed her lips. "Sigh, perhaps Sister is only in charge of sweeping and dumping the trash inside. I'm a little worried that she won't be able to talk to the people in the presidential palace... Eh, is that Sister who's squatting by the rubbish bin and wearing a green cleaning uniform and collecting the trash?"

Before she could finish speaking...

Behind the glass door, a petite and capable figure dressed in a clean white coat suddenly rushed over.

When she was about to reach the door, the girl stopped in her tracks and handed a transparent glass box to a middle-aged woman with a benevolent look on her face. The two of them even chatted happily for a long time.

Separated by a glass door, Old Madam Gu and Gu Xuexue saw everything clearly!

That person in the white coat was none other than Gu Qiqi!

Gu Qiqi wasn't doing any trash cleaning job at all. She was really doing an internship and learning skills.

Looking at the specimen in her hand, it was a valuable ginseng specimen!

How much did that female professor have to trust her to let an intern like her touch it?

Old Madam and Gu Xuexue watched as the high-spirited Gu Qiqi walked over handsomely. Even her actions of pushing open the door were filled with imposingness.

The two of them really felt like they had been slapped in the face on the spot!

Chapter 268: Only Brainless People Would Give In Modestly

Gu Qiqi pushed open the door and walked out.

Upon seeing the visitors, her slightly curved lips were immediately pursed coldly.

"What's the matter?" His businesslike tone was neither servile nor overbearing.

"You brat, what's with your attitude?" Old Madam Gu snorted coldly.

"Sister, hurry up and help Grandma in. The sun is so hot. Aren't you afraid that we might get a heat stroke?"

Gu Xuexue looked at Gu Qiqi's outfit with jealousy.

She looked so professional and elite!

She was simply different from ordinary high school students.

If she stood next to Gong Sheng like this, Gong Sheng would probably take a few more looks, right?

She was so envious.

“Feeling sunburned? I thought that you guys lacked calcium and specially came all the way here to bask in the sun. Unfortunately, I’m really sorry. The laboratory doesn’t accept patients with calcium deficiency.” Gu Qiqi laughed coldly.

Calcium deficiency?

Wasn’t that indirectly calling them spineless?

Old Madam Gu and Gu Xuexue’s faces darkened.

Beside her, the security guard laughed.

This girl was interesting! Why didn’t he think of refuting her like this just now?

“Stupid girl, don’t be so sharp-tongued with me!” The Old Madam snorted. She knew that she couldn’t enter this laboratory today, so she could only put on the airs of an elder and order Gu Qiqi. “There’s a problem with the Shen family’s company. As a member of the family, you have to do something!”

Gu Qiqi laughed coldly in her heart. She was admitting that she was a member of the family again?

Didn’t she want to beat her to death yesterday and kick her out of the house?

But... Wait a minute!

The Shen family was Old Madam’s maiden home. Why would there be a problem out of nowhere?

Seeing the doubts on her face, Gu Xuexue took the opportunity to reprimand her. “Sister, you’re too unconcerned about your family. Haven’t you seen the news?”

Gu Qiqi ignored her and turned on her phone.

Indeed, the financial sector was in an uproar.

The Shen family was suspected of including toxic materials in medicine packaging. This was the largest and most serious corporate crime in the Empire in more than ten years.

The presidential palace had personally given the order for the investigation team to enter the Shen Corporation and begin the first step of the investigation!

The Shen factory stopped production!

Shen clan’s goods were taken off the shelves!

The Shen employees went home to wait for work!

The Shen family’s bank account was frozen!

It could be said that if the Shen family couldn't produce strong evidence to defend themselves, the Shen family would face bankruptcy and huge compensation!

No wonder the Old Madam was so anxious early in the morning.

A cold smile appeared on Gu Qiqi's lips.

Just as she was about to close the webpage, a local Qing Cheng news article popped up on the screen.

"The Gu family's mansion in Qing Cheng has been razed to the ground. The country has retrieved the property rights. Today, it will be auctioned."

Gu Qiqi stared at this piece of news for a few seconds.

Although she was surprised, she secretly praised it.

That was great!

The government had such good foresight.

It was about to confiscate all of Gu Qiushan's assets so that Gu Meifeng wouldn't be able to get a single cent!

Heh heh!

This was the best arrangement.

Weren't they most concerned about money?

Back then, Gu Meifeng had even embezzled her mother's inheritance. Now, the Gu family's money couldn't fall into her hands. She must be heartbroken to death, right?

Thinking about this, Gu Qiqi's lips curved up slightly. "I'm sorry, but I can't contribute to such a business matter as a student."

"Why can't you do anything? Just tell the people from the presidential palace! Tell them not to investigate so seriously!" The old lady frowned.

"The presidential palace? I don't know anyone from there."

"Sister, how could you not know anyone? If you don't, how can you enter this laboratory? Don't shirk responsibility!"

"What if I insist on shirking it?"

"Then, get lost and go home to let Xuexue take the internship instead! Xuexue has a way to contact the people in the presidential palace to settle this matter..."

A trace of coldness flashed across Gu Qiqi's eyes. "Don't even think about it."

"You're the older sister. What's wrong with giving in to your younger sister modestly? Isn't it just an internship opportunity? If you give it to Xuexue, she can still help her family with business. Why won't you agree?!"

The old lady argued.

It was as if Gu Qiqi was at fault if she didn't agree.

Gu Qiqi laughed coldly and replied to her word by word. "Because I'm not willing!"

I just want to see you bankrupt.

I would be a moron to be so modest!

Chapter 269: Bring Mr. Gong Home

The Old Madam didn't expect Gu Qiqi to be so domineering.

She actually rejected her outright!

Furthermore, she turned around and left without any hesitation.

She looked up and looked at Gu Qiqi's back view. She walked on a platform that made her closer to the light. The edge of her white coat revealed a trace of golden sunlight.

She was arrogant and distant.

For the first time, she felt that her granddaughter's presence was so strong that she couldn't control her at all.

D*mn it...

Why was she as hateful as that short-lived mother of hers!

Back then, she forced that woman to give birth to a few more sons for Qiushan. That d*mned woman refused to give birth anymore.

That kind of stubborn "I'm just unwilling" look really made people tremble with anger just thinking about it!

"Grandma, can't we do anything to her?"

"Hmph! Who said that? I want to see if she's afraid when the entire Gu family is exerting pressure! She didn't jump out from a crack in a rock. She dares to take the risk of offending everyone?"

"The entire Gu family... Grandma, but we don't have much time left."

"Call your grandfather! I'll talk to him!"

"Okay."

Gu Qiqi was extremely disgusted by the shameless old woman and young girl outside the door.

She had seen thick-skinned people before, but she had never seen someone as thick-skinned as a city wall.

She returned to the laboratory and immediately washed her hands.

Gu Xuexue was so infuriated. She looked as if she couldn't wait to enter the laboratory to find a man and wanted to spit on her several times.

As soon as Gu Qiqi was done washing up, Old Master Gu's call came in.

"Qiqi, are you busy? Have you gotten used to your internship?"

"I'm fine. Grandpa, is there something wrong?"

"Oh, it's like this. Grandpa wants to invite you home..."

Old Master Gu was halfway through his words when Gu Qiqi's heart turned cold.

Her originally relaxed tone immediately became stiff. "Grandpa, it can't be that you want me to participate in the Shen family's lousy matters like Grandma? You want me to give up my internship and 'modestly' give it to Gu Xuexue?"

In the Gu family, other than Xiaobei, only her grandfather still had kinship with her.

If even her grandfather was on their side, that would be too disappointing!

However...

The other end of the call was stunned for a second.

Old Master Gu was puzzled. "What happened to the Shen family?"

Then, she sounded very unhappy. "When did I ask you to give up your internship? Was it your grandmother's idea? That's outrageous! Qiqi, don't worry. I'll criticize her! Just focus on your internship. No one can disturb you!"

Hearing her grandfather's series of concerns, Gu Qiqi's heart finally relaxed again.

Fortunately, her grandfather hadn't changed.

She didn't collude with them.

Her grandfather doted on her and supported her!

"Grandpa, you'll know when you check the news. By the way, Grandpa, why did you ask me to return home just now?"

"Oh... it's Grandpa's 80th birthday banquet next week. Don't you plan to come home and have a meal with me?" As the old man spoke, he thought that the Shen family had finally been virtuous for once and knew to remind him to call his granddaughter back for a meal.

"Ah..."

Gu Qiqi patted her small head in frustration.

It was all her fault for forgetting such an important matter.

"Grandpa, I'll definitely come!"

"Remember to bring Mr. Gong along!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Could it be that Grandpa was talking about Gong Jue?!

Why did she feel that the words “Gong Jue” and “Mr. Gong” were the same person?

Were they really the same person?

“Grandpa, actually, he and I don’t...”

She initially wanted to say that she wasn’t familiar with him, but the old master had already smartly hung up the call!

“Qiqi, the signal isn’t good. Grandpa’s hanging up. You and Mr. Gong have to come... Oh my, the signal isn’t good enough to hear you...”

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

“Mr. Gong, Mr. Gong, should I bring you home?” Gu Qiqi muttered in amusement and left the washroom.

She had just left when the innermost cubicle door opened.

The woman was wearing elegant white high heels as she stared intently at Gu Qiqi’s back. “So, the woman who waited on Gong Jue to take a shower that night was you...”

“Sister Moli, Professor Zhou is looking for you!”

“Yes, she’s here.”

Bai Moli restrained the sharpness in her eyes and smiled gently.

Chapter 270: Helping Master Roll on the Bed

On Gu Qiqi’s first day as an intern at the Imperial Medical University’s VIP laboratory, she received unanimous praise from the professors.

Because she was especially efficient, direct, and smart.

Not only did she complete her work in advance, but she also patiently helped the professors do additional work. At three in the afternoon, Professor Zhou rewarded her with satisfaction and told her to go back to rest early.

Seeing that it was still early, Gu Qiqi inquired about the nearby medicinal market and went straight there.

“Master Silver, you have men taking care of your food and lodging now. There’s nothing you need to spend money on. Why are you still working so hard to sell herbs...” Although the little dirty turtle liked to earn money, it couldn’t help but ask.

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

What did she mean by that? She sounded as if she had been taken care of...

“When you’re safe, you think about danger. Do you understand?”

“Oh, you’re saying that if Little Jue goes bankrupt one day like the Shen family, you can take out a pile of money and throw it out? You can tell him ‘Here, I have something. Use it to spend! Yes, handsome!’”

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

That wasn’t what she was thinking at all, okay?

“My money is mine, his is his. Please don’t confuse the two! Besides, he’s a soldier. Why would he go bankrupt?! I’m earning money to save up for the operating fees for Xiaobei.”

Gu Qiqi thought about the information that Professor Zhou had revealed to her and prepared to find the director of the clinical medicine school, Professor Shen Ping, as soon as school started. If Professor Shen Ping felt that Xiaobei’s eyes could be restored through surgery, then she definitely wouldn’t treat this professor badly.

She couldn’t afford to spend a single cent less.

She had to thank him especially.

Time was tight. The only way she could earn money quickly was to refine medicine and sell medicine.

The little dirty turtle hummed in disappointment.

It seems that Master still divided herself and Little Jue clearly.

How could this continue?

They couldn’t get intimate anyway. When would their color points soar like a volcano?

Thinking that a total of 100,000 color points could be earned from sex with Gong Jue, the little dirty turtle scratched its heart and liver. It felt that it was very necessary for him to discuss the problem of how to assist them with Little Gray!

Gu Qiqi still didn’t know the little dirty turtle’s thoughts.

Once she entered the medicinal herb market, she dug into the pile of herbs and selected raw materials suitable for refining medicine.

Soon, her backpack was filled.

However, she wasn’t in a hurry to leave. Instead, she walked around the medicinal herb market.

The little dirty turtle was about to faint. “Master Silver, what are you looking for?”

“Ambergris.”

“Didn’t that pharmacy just now have it?”

“No, its entire pharmacy only has 100 grams. That’s too little.”

“Doesn’t that shop in front have ten catties?”

“No, can’t you tell? That’s a fake.”

The little dirty turtle was speechless.

Oh, the owner of the poison detection skill had become sharper and sharper.

Seeing that the huge medicinal herb market didn't have what Gu Qiqi was looking for, she could only refine the herbs in her hand quickly and sell them out.

She worked until dusk. She looked at the additional checks in her hands. There was a total of more than 800,000 dollars.

The little dirty turtle couldn't help but sigh. "Sigh, it's still better and faster to earn money when cheating Little Lang..."

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Was 800,000 dollars a small amount?

The little dirty turtle changed the topic. "But Master, if you're willing to... do that with Little Jue... It's better to earn color points than money..."

Gu Qiqi flicked its head. "Give up."

She wasn't a rapist!

Gong Jue wasn't a delicate flower!

As soon as the woman and the pet left the medicinal herb market, Gong Jue's call came.

His usual cold voice was concise and powerful through the receiver. "Where are you?"

Gu Qiqi shivered.

No way! She had just been discussing about him behind his back when he called her!
