

Dear Chief 331

Chapter 331: His World Was Very Dangerous (3)

Would this news be very valuable to the tabloids?

Gu Qiqi thought unkindly.

Gong Jue's face darkened when he saw Gu Qiqi's smile.

This stupid woman actually dared to laugh at me!

She even said that he—couldn't?

No way!

Wasn't it just... Spicy skewers?

I'm not even afraid of a hundred billion-dollar order, so why would I be afraid of this two-dollar bamboo stick?

Gong Jue pursed his thin lips coldly. His long and slender fingers picked up a bamboo stick as if he was holding a cigarette.

It was a series of lung fragments.

It was filled with fragrant sesame seeds.

Gong Jue closed his eyes and was about to eat it.

At the table nearby, Special Assistant Lu suddenly said nervously, "Master Jue, that is very spicy! It's very numb! I've tried it before!"

Although she was very reserved, the nervousness and anxiety in her tone was just short of saying, "Master, you can't. You can't eat spicy food. Don't force yourself."

Gu Qiqi laughed. "Forget it. Don't eat anymore. I'll get the owner to cook some non-spicy dishes. Or, you can eat some crushed ice to relieve the heat."

Gong Jue glared at her in annoyance.

Ice?

One look and one could tell that it was very feminine. Wasn't this what women ate?

He didn't want to.

Upon hearing Gu Qiqi's greeting, the shop owner's auntie hurriedly came over with a smile. "Guest, what do you want to add?"

Seeing the bamboo skewer in Gong Jue's hand, she smiled and said, "Boss, Lady Boss, you two really have a tacit understanding. You're eating husband and wife lung slices."

Gu Qiqi was stunned. She looked down and realized that the bamboo stick in her hand was also a bunch of lung slices.

Husband and wife lung slices...

Gu Qiqi was immediately embarrassed.

But she had already raised the bamboo stick. She couldn't throw it back, right?

Upon hearing this, Gong Jue was very satisfied. "Add some husband and wife lung slices.

"Sure! I can tell that the boss and the lady boss love each other!" The shop owner's auntie's mouth was so sweet.

Gong Jue was overjoyed.

He didn't even look at the bamboo skewers before he stuffed them into his mouth.

Three seconds later.

Gong Jue's Adam's apple bobbed and his face flushed slightly.

Gu Qiqi glanced at him. "Are you... okay?"

Gong Jue didn't speak.

He quickly picked up the glass of water and gulped it down.

Then, he actually ate a bowl of the crushed ice that he had looked down on previously!

Gu Qiqi was stunned.

She understood now. Gong Jue had really never eaten spicy food.

She was angry and amused at the same time. Stupid man. If he couldn't eat it, so be it. Why was he trying to be strong?

She moved the casserole skewers towards herself and pushed her ice towards Gong Jue. "Eat this."

Gong Jue ignored her.

He continued to extend his long and slender fingers to scoop up the bamboo sticks in the clay pot.

Another series of lung fragments!

Gong Jue took a deep breath and continued to eat elegantly.

Gu Qiqi covered her face. She was speechless towards this stupid man!

Just because the name of the food item pleased him, he wanted to eat it even if it meant risking her life. What kind of spirit was this?

After finishing this meal, the bill was settled according to the weight of the bamboo sticks.

Looking at the string of numbers that were many times more than the other customers on the scale, Gu Qiqi was a little embarrassed.

Gong Jue paid the bill calmly. "Sorry about that. My woman has a good appetite."

The shop owner's auntie smiled. "This is a good thing! A woman who can eat will definitely give birth to a white and fat child that's easy to raise. You're lucky!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Why was an unrelated auntie by the street helping Gong Jue?

Gu Qiqi covered her face and escaped from the skewer shop.

They walked out of the alley.

Small stalls were scattered along the streets.

Some sold double-skinned milk, some sold steamed taro cakes, some sold sugar, and some sold plum powder and mangoes...

The passionate cries for sale rose and fell.

Passers-by stopped to choose them. It was filled with the warmth and tranquility of ordinary citizens living in peace.

Gu Qiqi couldn't help but look at Gong Jue.

Such a tall, slender, noble, and cold man was especially eye-catching when he walked in ordinary alleys. At a glance, it was obvious that he didn't belong here. He attracted the attention of passers-by.

"Is it really okay for you to shop like this?"

Gu Qiqi couldn't help but ask.

Chapter 332: Stealing Gong Jue's First Time

"What's the problem?" Gong Jue raised his eyebrows.

"What if... What if someone recognizes you..." Gu Qiqi pursed her lips.

She didn't want to be surrounded.

Gong Jue snorted coldly. "Do you think that everyone has a chance to know who I am?"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Alright, that made sense.

Ordinary people only knew that the abstract Gong clan corporation—the leader of Gong Sheng—was the high-tech guardian of the people.

Who would have the ability to link him to this man in front of her who exuded a domineering aura despite wearing a white shirt?

"Brother-in-law, my older sister likes to eat plum powder and mangoes..."

Xiaobei didn't miss the opportunity to remind Gong Jue.

Gong Jue stopped in his tracks and curved his lips. "Indeed, you have strong tastes."

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

What was this? All girls loved to eat this, okay? She now believed that this stupid man had probably never come into contact with a girl in his life.

“Wait for me.” Although Gong Jue said that he despised it, he had already strode towards the stall selling mangoes across the alley.

Gu Qiqi looked at the man’s sturdy and powerful back.

An indescribable sense of security arose spontaneously.

“Brother-in-law is so good...” Xiao Bei sighed.

“This is the first time in my life that I’ve seen Master Jue eat spicy food. This is the first time that I’ve seen Master Jue buy snacks from the streets for girls.” Special Assistant Lu sighed with emotion without missing the opportunity.

Young Lady Qiqi had snatched away two of Master Jue’s firsts again.

Gu Qiqi’s small face heated up.

She spoke like a wicked thief who specialized in stealing Gong Jue’s first times.

“Did he have something urgent to handle in the morning that made him late?” Gu Qiqi blushed and changed the topic.

“Master Jue...” Special Assistant Lu deliberated over his words.

He wondered if Young Lady Qiqi would be unhappy if he told her that Gong Jue was testing the medicine at Bai Mori’s place.

Before Special Assistant Lu could explain...

Huge changes happened!

A truck rushed into the narrow alley.

Ignoring the stall owners and pedestrians who were shopping on both sides of the alley, it rushed in at high speed.

The truck was nearly as wide and narrow as the alley.

It almost crushed everything in sight!

Screams could be heard continuously.

Some stall owners had already been run over by the wheels along with the sweet potato alms bowl cakes that were sold in their baskets! There were also pedestrians who were thrown onto the wall by the wheels until they were beyond recognition...

The truck seemed to have gone crazy and didn’t notice it as it continued to speed forward.

The next stall was the stall that Gong Jue was buying for Gu Qiqi!

Gu Qiqi's heart rose to her throat.

But all of this happened too quickly. No one had the time to react at all.

She could only pull Xiao bei tightly behind her to protect him. She and Special Assistant Lu couldn't rush over and push Gong Jue away at all.

The truck bumped straight into the stall.

"Boom!"

That stall owner's tricycle was crushed by the truck.

The big and fresh green-skinned mango was knocked to the ground.

A few of them were pressed into a ball of pulp, leaving only a thin layer of green skin. It was a shocking sight.

Gong Jue's figure disappeared under the wheels with the stall owner within a second.

"Master Jue!"

"Brother-in-law!"

"Stupid man!"

The three of them spoke in unison.

Gu Qiqi's heart shattered.

Tears flowed uncontrollably from her eyes.

A second ago, the man's broad and dotting back was still in front of her.

In this second, he was actually squashed under the wheels of the truck.

She had never felt so regretful in her life. She really shouldn't have let Gong Jue come to such an alley.

If it weren't for the fact that he wanted to let her have a bite of spicy skewers, Gong Jue wouldn't have encountered such a terrifying car accident.

With trembling hands, she couldn't wait to choke that crazy truck driver to death with her own hands.

Her footsteps uncontrollably ran towards the truck!

Chapter 333: A Hero Saving a Beauty from the Palace?

"Young Lady Qiqi! Let me go!"

Special Assistant Lu tried to stop her.

He didn't expect Young Lady Qiqi to move so quickly. She was even faster than her.

Like a light bird or an agile deer.

Before he could see how she moved, she was already close to the van.

“Help me guard Xiaobei!”

Gu Qiqi didn't even look back.

Her tone was firm.

It actually resembled the imposing manner when Gong Jue gave an order.

Special Assistant Lu was very anxious.

She was worried about Gu Qiqi's safety and Gong Jue's life.

But Xiaobei was blind. If he and Gu Qiqi left, Xiao Bei would be in danger.

He could only stay behind and support Xiaobei against the wall tightly in case the truck rushed over and bumped into Xiao Bei.

Gu Qiqi approached the truck and picked up a small fruit knife from the ground.

“Whoosh!”

With a push, the tip of the knife cut across the tire of the truck, revealing a cut.

“Boom!”

The tire exploded.

The big truck swayed and stopped.

Gu Qiqi's figure was agile. She was about to pull open the car door and forcefully pry open the car window.

She was prepared to drag that offending driver down and beat him up.

Suddenly, Gong Jue frowned.

A powerful hand stretched out from under the wheels and pulled her down first. “Stupid woman, did I allow you to come over?!”

That familiar tone and that domineering aura that deserved a beating.

It made Gu Qiqi cry once more...

The stupid man was still alive.

The stupid man wasn't crushed to death by the wheels.

“Gong Jue!”

Gu Qiqi held his wrist tightly with tears in her eyes.

Gong Jue pulled her with one hand and used his other hand to grab the bottom plate of the truck.

Behind him, she was even hooking his leg around the stall owner who was selling mangos just now.

It turned out that the moment the big truck rushed over, he directly grabbed the bottom of the truck and conveniently saved that lucky stall owner.

After pushing the frightened stall owner to the side of the road, Gong Jue helped Gu Qiqi out from under the car and said seriously, "Stupid woman, do you really not believe in my ability? It's just a broken car. I don't take it seriously. Next time, without my permission, if you encounter danger, you can't rush over under any circumstances. Find a place to hide first, understand?!"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

She didn't want to think either.

Who didn't know that life was precious? Furthermore, this was her second life that hadn't been easy to come by.

But at that moment, she didn't even use her brain to think.

She instinctively rushed over.

"Uh, perhaps... it's the instinct of a hero saving a beauty?" Gu Qiqi bit her lips and muttered softly.

Gong Jue was so angry that his handsome eyebrows were raised and his eyelids twitched. "Stupid woman, do you owe me a lesson? You don't understand how dangerous my world is at all!"

Before she could finish speaking, he suddenly pulled her into his embrace, flipped her over on the ground, and flipped back to the bottom of the car.

Then, a sharp bullet whistled and hit the car.

Soon after, the incessant sound of bullets swept over.

Gu Qiqi came to a realization.

This wasn't an ordinary car accident at all.

This truck driver didn't go crazy for a while.

This was very likely a very fierce enemy and its target was Gong Jue, the Chief who actually didn't bring a bodyguard and was single.

She finally understood why Gong Jue reprimanded her so strictly and forbade her from participating.

The level of danger in his world might exceed her imagination.

Chapter 334: Unparalleled Domineering

Gong Jue and Gu Qiqi were forced back under the car by the gunshots.

Special Assistant Lu saw that the situation wasn't good and prepared to rush over. But there was still Xiaobei!

It was even more dangerous for this child to be alone.

Helpless, he could only protect Xiaobi and hide behind the rubbish bin by the alley. He watched the other party anxiously.

Gong Jue and Gu Qiqi were alone and helpless.

Honestly speaking, even if Special Assistant Lu could go over, the situation wouldn't be optimistic.

At this moment, there were about ten people who jumped down from the truck.

Everyone was strong and wore professional black training suits.

More importantly, everyone had something in their hands!

Gong Jue protected Gu Qiqi behind him and laid her down diagonally under the car. His long and slender arm scooped up a metal pipe that had scattered on the ground from the small stall that had been knocked over just now.

He swung it along the edge of the wheel!

The sound of bullets stopped.

There were sounds of people stamping their feet and wailing!

"Damn, they're under the car!"

"Split up and surround him!"

"Use the wheels and crush them to death!"

The other party ordered fiercely.

Gong Jue had long carried the metal pipe in one hand and carried Gu Qiqi in the other as he crawled out from the front of the car.

He flipped his hand and struck the nearest people from behind!

Three people fell to the ground in an instant.

There were also seven to eight people who immediately got to their feet and surrounded them warily.

The black muzzle was pointed at Gong Jue!

Gong Jue stuffed Gu Qiqi behind his back. His expression didn't change as he said coldly, "A fly from S Nation also dares to come to my territory to court death!"

The other party didn't expect that Gong Jue would see through his background at a glance. The gang looked at one another and didn't know where they had missed out.

But soon, they recovered their fierce looks.

"Gong Jue, you're dead meat today! It's useless even if you see through it!"

"You killed so many of our brothers in the northern mountain range last time. Today, we'll kill you to commemorate our dead!"

“It’s a rare opportunity for you to come out alone. Even the heavens are helping us!”

Hearing this, Gu Qiqi felt annoyed.

How was this heaven helping them?

She had unintentionally helped these bastards from the enemy countries.

If Gong Jue hadn’t come out to the birthday banquet, eaten snacks with her, and bought mangoes for her, why would he give these people a chance to sneak an attack on him?

Her small hand gripped Gong Jue’s white shirt tightly. She felt very guilty.

Feeling the emotions of the little woman behind him, Gong Jue hugged her waist tightly and pressed her closer to his back.

He signaled her not to worry.

He raised his chin and said coldly, “It’s useless even if the heavens help you. Whoever dares to invade a piece of my Empire’s land, I’ll still make sure that you won’t be able to return alive!”

How arrogant!

How confident!

Gu Qiqi felt her blood boil when she heard this.

She had only seen Gong Jue in private before. This was the first time that she had seen Gong Jue fight an enemy as the Kingdom Protector.

It turned out that he was so manly and imposing.

Every inch of the Empire and every commoner was protected by his high-tech safety network.

Was she the same?

The sturdy muscles on the man’s back and the warmth that seeped out immediately made her feel at ease.

So what if she lived and died with such a man?

The other party was also shocked by Gong Jue’s might. He was stunned for a few seconds before he reacted and laughed sinisterly.

Gong Jue was indeed as domineering as the rumors said.

But so what?

A tiger that had fallen to the ground was bullied by a dog. He was fighting alone and didn’t even bring a gun with him. How could he win against trained valiant warriors like them?

Furthermore, there was a weak and useless little person behind her?

Was she a girl?

“Haha, we didn’t plan on going back in the first place. We’ll kill you, then your brother, and let your Gong family die completely! You’re still worrying about the Empire? You should worry about the extinction of your Gong family first, hahahaha...”

Chapter 335: Master Qi Was So Handsome When He Knocked Them Out!

Just as those enemies were laughing fearlessly...

The laughter stopped abruptly.

Gong Jue swung the iron pipe in his hand again.

He swept it across ruthlessly!

The black guy couldn’t withstand a single blow and was swept away by him several times.

The person closest to him was kicked by Gong Jue. His wrist was severely smashed and he was tossed aside.

What the!

Those few people’s pupils constricted.

How terrifying!

Wasn’t this man afraid that his speed wouldn’t be able to catch up to the speed at which they pulled the trigger?

How much confidence and courage did she have to have to dare to release that ruthless strike just now?

The Empire’s Chief was indeed worthy of his reputation!

He even dared to fight them with his bare hands!

Although those seven or eight people had sworn to take Gong Jue’s life, they couldn’t help but feel some admiration at this moment.

This time, she became even more vigilant. They arranged their formation and surrounded Gong Jue.

Behind Gong Jue, Gu Qiqi’s heart tightened and she was extremely anxious.

She wanted to come out and help him many times, but Gong Jue pressed her back down and protected her firmly behind his back.

But she didn’t want to become his burden.

It was already an impossible miracle to fight against ten people alone, let alone divert his attention to protect her.

Gu Qiqi bit her lips and was thinking about how to help him.

A cold air assaulted her from behind!

After she activated her martial strength, she felt that she was more sensitive than ordinary people. That cold aura seemed familiar. It reminded her of the feeling when that yellow-haired burly man pointed a gun at her at the Gu family villa in Qing Cheng!

Oh no!

There was an enemy behind her!

Gu Qiqi bit her lips and made a decision in an instant.

Gong Jue's back could only be handed to trusted people. He couldn't expose it to the enemy!

She clenched her fists.

A surge of energy instantly filled her fair fingertips!

Almost in a second, her small body slid down Gong Jue's arm like a slippery little fish.

In the very next second, she was as fast as lightning. With a agile jump, she snatched the wrist of the person behind her!

Was the gun fast?

Or was she faster?

Faced with a similar choice once more, she directly did the same thing—crush the other party's trigger!

The bullet stopped at the barrel and couldn't be fired.

Amidst that person's incomparably shocked and stunned look, the scalpel that Gu Qiqi was holding in her fingertip slashed across that person's neck.

She wouldn't show any mercy to such an enemy!

If she remembered correctly, the people from S Nation stirred up trouble in the Empire's land last month and caused the deaths of many innocent civilians.

That S Nation person who had launched a sneak attack fell to the ground with a plop. He couldn't accept the fact that he had been killed by an inconspicuous little girl.

He simply died with remaining grievances.

The little dirty turtle cried out in pleasant surprise, "Master Silver, your Five Animals Mimicry has improved a lot compared to last week! This time, you attacked even more fiercely. You're so handsome..."

Gu Qiqi was speechless. Did beating someone make her handsome?

After dealing with this sneak attack, Gu Qiqi returned to Gong Jue's side and pressed her back against his.

Gong Jue was unhappy. "Stupid woman, who allowed you to run around?!"

Gong Jue had already defeated five people here. There were only three left.

If the enemy hadn't held his attention, he would have dragged her back and spanked her directly.

Gu Qiqi's voice was clear as she said self-righteously, "Don't be distracted! You take two and I take one!"

Gong Jue was speechless.

Damn it! Was this stupid woman giving him an order?

But why did this stupid woman's orders still make sense?

Because those remaining three people really launched a new round of attacks according to this distribution!

The two of them brandished their knives and stabbed them.

Another person went behind him and attacked Gu Qiqi!

Chapter 336: A Man's Strong Arm

Gong Jue knew that this wasn't the time to debate.

He had to get rid of the enemy as soon as possible so that he could protect her.

He threw the only knife he had snatched over to Gu Qiqi for protection. "Take it!"

Unexpectedly, Gu Qiqi threw it back and said coolly, "Take it!"

Gong Jue was speechless.

When would this woman be more obedient?

Gu Qiqi shook the scalpel blade on her fingertip and smiled playfully at him!

Gong Jue was stunned by this bright smile for a moment. An even more valiant aura suddenly surged from his body!

Her hand should have been the hand that studied medicine to save people. But because of him, it became the hand that killed people.

D*mn it. It was all because of these bastards who launched sneak attacks.

He was going to let these bastards die thoroughly!

The two of them didn't have much time to talk. The enemy was already right in front of them.

Gong Jue kicked over one of them and stepped on their heads.

It was slightly more troublesome for Gu Qiqi.

The person who attacked her seemed to be the leader of this group of people. He was especially agile and the material of the knife in his hand was very special. It was especially sharp.

She couldn't approach him many times. Instead, he cut the back of her hand.

Blood gushed out and dripped onto that person's injured hand.

With one last spar, her scalpel blade was split open by that person. The blade was about to cut off her hand.

Suddenly, the man's strong arm pulled her into his embrace.

The tables turned!

"Ah!" The enemy screamed.

Gu Qiqi wanted to see what was going on.

Gong Jue had already covered her eyes and whispered into her ear, "Don't look."

That person actually wanted to cut off Gu Qiqi's hand. He was so angry that he directly chopped off that person's arm.

The scene... was naturally a little tragic.

Gu Qiqi pouted. "Okay. If you don't want to see, then I won't. Oh... Are these people really enemies of S Nation? Then, can I be considered to have done a great service today?"

Gong Jue didn't answer her question but checked carefully if she was injured.

When he saw the knife marks on the back of her hand, his eyes turned cold.

"A great service? Hmph, wait till I return to take care of you!"

"Uh..." She valiantly retreated from the enemy, but Chief actually wanted to take care of her. She wasn't convinced!

"You're not allowed to rush to such a dangerous place in the future!"

"Eh... This kind of thing shouldn't happen every day, right? There's no need to be so nervous!"

Seeing Gu Qiqi's relaxed look, Gong Jue's gaze became deeper and colder.

Today's sneak attack wasn't an accident.

In his ten years of experience, sneak attacks and assassinations were almost never stopped.

Let alone that kind of life and death struggle during real business wars.

Did this stupid woman understand what this danger meant?

At the thought that she was about to enter Imperial Medical University and might become an emergency doctor, and often face such dangers, Gong Jue felt suffocated!

Should he seriously consider making her change her university major?

This profession was too dangerous!

"Can you change your profession and not study medicine?" Gong Jue said coldly. His expression was cold.

Gu Qiqi was stunned.

The light smile on her face a second ago immediately turned stubborn. "Impossible."

The Imperial Medical University's clinical medicine profession was the top profession in the Empire's medical expertise. It was the dream that she had to achieve in this lifetime.

If she wanted to improve her medical expertise and cure Xiao Bei's eyes and heart, she had to become the disciple of a master.

Although she had picked up a little dirty turtle for nothing halfway through, the little dirty turtle's upgrade was too slow. Furthermore, she didn't dare to place all of her bets on the little dirty turtle's abilities.

What if there were other side effects? What if everything collapsed and disappeared one day when she woke up?

In the end, relying on her own two hands was the safest.

How could she give up on studying medicine so easily?

Chapter 337: Eat? Or Not?

Translator: Atlas Studios Editor: Atlas Studios

Gu Qiqi refused Gong Jue's suggestion to switch professions without hesitation.

The man suppressed his anger but couldn't bear to blame her. His thin lips pursed coldly.

The two of them stood among the corpses and looked at each other.

The atmosphere was so strange!

"Brother-in-law, are you guys okay?"

Xiao Bei's innocent and clear voice approached her.

"Master Jue! Our men will be here soon!"

Special Assistant Lu supported Xiao Bei as he walked over. He felt lucky to have survived a disaster.

Gong Jue then turned around. His expression softened for a moment and he said to Xiao Bei, "It's fine."

Then, he ordered Special Assistant Lu coldly, "Investigate carefully how the people from S Nation managed to sneak in! There must be someone from the Imperial Capital who can clean up these scumbags at once!"

"Yes!"

Special Assistant Lu complied.

He secretly glanced at Gu Qiqi.

Gu Qiqi's performance just now had seriously shocked him.

He knew that Young Lady Qiqi didn't give in, but he didn't know that Young Lady Qiqi was so valiant and handsome!

Back then, even if he had gone to save the situation, he might not have been more valiant than her.

Master Jue had always wanted to send someone to protect Young Lady Qiqi. Wasn't this thought a little redundant?

How did Young Lady Qiqi look like she needed someone to protect her?

He had asked Xiaobei if Gu Qiqi had practiced martial arts before.

Xiao Bei shook his head. He said that he wasn't often in the Gu family and didn't know if his older sister had practiced it before.

At this moment, he really wanted to open his mouth and ask, especially when Gu Qiqi crushed the other party's trigger in the end. It was especially breathtaking. He really wanted to know which martial arts school she learnt from.

But... Why did he feel that the atmosphere between Young Lady Qiqi and Master Jue wasn't right?

Shouldn't they be celebrating in each other's arms after teaming up to repel the enemy?

It was fine if Master Jue had always been cold. But why did Young Lady Qiqi's expression become cold as well?

Was he hallucinating?

Until they walked out of the alley and got into Number One, Special Assistant Lu still felt that the car was so cold that it was frozen!

There was silence for a while.

It was Xiaobei who spoke. "Brother-in-law, I smell mangoes..."

A crack finally appeared on Gong Jue's cold face.

His Adam's apple bobbed. His long and slender fingers retrieved a sealed bag from his shirt pocket and threw it to Gu Qiqi.

Inside was a small bag of sliced mangoes.

Gu Qiqi opened her mouth in shock.

In an instant, her heart softened.

Stupid man!

Back then, it was a life and death situation. The truck was already running over, but he actually kept this bag of mangoes in his pocket.

He actually didn't break this bag despite fighting so intensely with the enemy.

Alright!

She had to forgive him!

Anyway, he had only asked for her opinion just now.

Whether she wanted to change her profession or not, it was still up to her to decide. He didn't say that he was forcing her to change her profession or that he definitely wouldn't allow her to become a doctor.

"Thank you."

She took over the conversation and accepted the mangoes.

She pinched a small piece and placed it by her lips.

But what could she do? Number One suddenly jolted. Before she could taste it, the mango fell on the carpet.

Oh... How embarrassing.

Gu Qiqi wanted to bend down and pick it up.

A big hand supported her instantly. "Didn't I say that I won't allow you to bend over easily?"

Gong Jue said in annoyance, "You're so stupid to drop everything you eat on the floor."

As he spoke, he wiped her hand with a disinfectant tissue.

He personally took that bag of mangoes, picked up a piece, and placed it by her lips.

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

This stupid man had another breakthrough in his skills. He actually fed her personally.

Should she eat it? Or not?

What if she ate his finger while eating? Wouldn't that be so embarrassing?!

Chapter 338: Stupid to the Sky

Gu Qiqi was still hesitating about whether she should eat the mango that Gong Jue handed over.

Number 1 jolted.

She opened her mouth and let out a cry. Then, she bit down on the mango... and Gong Jue's finger.

Her face flushed red. For the first time in her life, she felt that eating the mango was so complicated.

Why did she even need Gong Jue's help?

She couldn't live like this anymore!

Gu Qiqi scrambled to snatch the rest of the mangoes over. No matter what, she had to eat them herself.

Gong Jue let her be. However, the finger that she had bitten brushed past her lips unintentionally. That charming look made Gu Qiqi want to find a hole in the car to hide in.

This stupid man was flirting with her again!

Fortunately, the journey wasn't long.

Soon, they arrived at their destination.

Once she alighted, Gu Qiqi was stunned. "Why is it... a hospital? Are you injured?"

"It's you." Gong Jue pulled her small hand and left.

"Me? Why don't I know where I'm injured?" Gu Qiqi was puzzled.

She had killed all the enemies just now in seconds. They were so cool.

"Your hand!" Gong Jue said in annoyance.

Only then did Gu Qiqi remember that she had cut the back of her hand when she was dealing with that particular enemy.

Blood was still dripping from her.

But that was just a small wound. She wasn't that delicate yet.

"You can just bandage it yourself. Isn't it making a mountain out of a molehill to go to the hospital? It doesn't affect my functioning or anything..."

"You can't even hold the mango properly and you're still saying that it doesn't affect your functioning?" Gong Jue squinted coldly. "Or do you plan to let me feed you with my hands when you return?"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

I'll go!

I'll go to the hospital, alright?

Five minutes later.

When Gu Qiqi was lying on the hospital bed, she completely regretted it.

How was Gong Jue simply bandaging a small wound for her?

He simply couldn't wait to get the doctor to do a full-body examination on her to confirm if she had any fractures or internal injuries...

It was almost revealed that she didn't have a period!

After much difficulty, Gu Qiqi thought that she could finally leave.

Gong Jue frowned and said to the director, "Get a psychiatrist here!"

Gu Qiqi exploded and bounced up from the bed. "I'm not mentally ill!"

Gong Jue pressed her back. "It's not up to you to say if you're sick or not! Behave yourself!"

He looked as if he would hit her buttocks if she wasn't obedient.

Gu Qiqi was also very stubborn. "I don't want to see a psychiatrist!"

The two of them started arguing again.

Special Assistant Lu had settled Xiaobei down and rushed over. When he entered and saw this scene, his head hurt.

Master Jue, can you maintain your flirting skills when you feed Mango?

Can you not be stupid and insist on giving such crude orders to a girl?

He was really worried that his Chief's flirting skills were unstable. At this rate, when would he be able to marry his wife?

He could only explain on Gong Jue's behalf with a smile. "Young Lady Qiqi, Master Jue is worried about you. This is because many people will suffer serious psychological trauma when they experience this kind of fight for the first time."

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Alright, this reason was barely acceptable.

But when it came to fighting, she suddenly remembered a problem.

"Special Assistant Lu, shouldn't people like you bring guys with you everywhere? Why did you just..."

Gong Jue snorted coldly. "I didn't!"

Special Assistant Lu facepalmed. Master Jue, can you be more arrogant?

In the end, he couldn't help but explain to Gu Qiqi in a low voice, "Master Jue heard that you bought a shirt for him and specially returned to Mo Yuan Number 0 to wear it before leaving the house. Then, he realized that the color of the shirt was lighter. A gun around his waist would stand out. He was worried that this would..."

"Worried that you would scare my family at the birthday banquet?" Gu Qiqi muttered. It turned out that Gong Jue was so considerate. There was a trace of detail in his roughness. He even considered such a detailed problem in advance.

But in the next second...

Special Assistant Lu shook his head. "He's worried that the effect won't be good. It won't match the white shirt that you bought for him..."

Gong Jue retorted. "Special Assistant Lu, you talk too much!"

Gu Qiqi opened her mouth but couldn't say anything.

What else could she say?

The person who was so stupid was clearly Gong Jue!

It was fine if Special Assistant Lu didn't bring a gun with him in order to not scare her family.

Gong Jue actually didn't bring a gun with him in order to match with her white shirt?

She really wanted to bite this stupid man to death!

Seeing Gu Qiqi's angry face and Gong Jue's frozen face, Special Assistant Lu realized that his failure to explain had ruined things.

Oh, no. His original intention was to let Young Lady Qiqi understand Master Jue's painstaking effort...

Under Gong Jue's cold pressure, he hurriedly handed over the test results while shivering and tried to salvage something. "Young Lady Qiqi, you have anemia. Why don't you rest quietly..."

"I have anemia?" Gu Qiqi was surprised.

Gong Jue frowned. "Why is she anemic? Call the old director back! Didn't he tell me that she was fine just now?"

Just as Gong Jue was about to flare up.

Outside the door, the crisp sound of high heels could be heard.

An elegant and gentle voice traveled over lightly. "Don't worry. It's just a mild anemia. A woman with a weaker body will suffer from anemia when she has her period."

Gu Qiqi was stunned.

What a familiar voice.

Had she heard this woman's voice somewhere before?

S Country.

Medical laboratory.

Countless precision laboratory apparatus were displayed.

A corpse was placed on the table for examination.

That corpse was actually the leader of the group of people who had ambushed Gong Jue and Gu Qiqi just now.

After a while.

A laboratory technician in a white coat with an S Nation accent said in pain, "General Teuton, I can't do anything. Colonel Peter is already dead..."

By the window, a burly man with the shape of a dragon turned around abruptly. His eyes cracked open. "A bunch of useless people! Even ten elites can't kill Gong Jue alone? Do you want me to send another team to deal with him?"

General Teuton was the highest leader in S Nation.

He had been Gong Jue's archenemy for many years!

A month ago, Gong Jue personally presided over the command. It only took him three days to set up a high-tech protective net. He defeated his elite sneak attackers in the northern mountain range and he returned home in defeat.

Back then, Peter kowtowed and swore with his life that he would infiltrate the Imperial Capital and kill Gong Jue personally.

However, what was transported back today was his corpse.

The other subordinates were all dead. They couldn't even recover their corpses.

Due to General Teuton's imposing manner, the appraiser immediately knelt down. "General, after the examination just now, I discovered that Colonel Peter didn't die from a knife wound. Instead..."

"What is it? Tell me quickly!"

"It's a type of blood poison!"

"What? Gong Jue, that shameless b*stard, actually used poison on us?"

"No, no. No one has been able to extract that kind of poison until now. It only exists in the blood of very few people. And I found traces of a woman's blood on Colonel Peter's arm."

"Get to the point!" General Teuton was impatient.

"General, the important thing is that if we can find that woman and extract her blood for research, we will have the world's most advanced poison weapon..." The laboratory technician's eyes lit up.

For a medical researcher, this kind of supreme-grade blood was simply peerlessly rare. It was hard to come by even in a hundred years.

If he could borrow General Teuton's hand to capture that woman and complete this research, he would definitely be able to reach the pinnacle of medical history and leave his name in history forever.

General Teuton understood what he meant this time. He smiled with stubble all over his face. "Very good! Pass down my orders. Find that woman at all costs for me! Kidnap her back so that she will become a lab rat!"

Hmph! How could he let Gong Jue do such a shameless thing first?

He was the most shameless person in the world!

Chapter 340: How Long Was Her Period?

In the ward.

Gu Qiqi's attention was drawn to that familiar female voice outside the door.

She looked up.

She saw a female doctor dressed in a white coat. She was tall and had a beautiful appearance. Her light brown curly hair was very gentle as she walked over elegantly.

She even put on a white coat and looked refined and scholarly.

Gong Jue didn't give this low-key and beautiful female doctor any attention.

His gaze locked onto Gu Qiqi and he said in a low voice, "So, you have anemia because of your period?"

Gu Qiqi's small face burned.

Stupid man, did he have to say those words so loudly?!

Special Assistant Lu was still here.

Special Assistant Lu hurriedly pretended not to hear him and rubbed his nose. "That... Master Jue, I suddenly thought of something. I have to urge those brats to clean up the enemy's corpse well and see if there are any clues to catch all the brats in S Nation in one fell swoop..."

He left in a flash.

Gong Jue still refused to let go of the anemia. "Didn't your period come for a few days? It's been more than a week. Why isn't it over yet? Did you have anemia for a long time? How many days does this usually take?"

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

She felt that her face was so red that her ears were bleeding.

Commander-in-chief, don't you feel awkward discussing a period with a woman?

But Gong Jue was serious. He looked like a serious student who was determined to solve this problem.

Behind him, Bai Mori—who had been completely ignored—tugged at her lips indignantly. "Jue, it's very common for girls to have anemia. If you're really worried, I'll prescribe some Chinese medicine to replenish her blood later."

Jue?!

When Bai Mori said this word.

Gu Qiqi remembered immediately.

It was that woman!

Back in Qing Cheng, when Gong Jue was taking a shower, she accidentally picked up that woman's call.

Jue...

Such an intimate form of addressing him.

Even she was embarrassed to call him that.

But this woman called him so casually and matter-of-factly.

What exactly was her relationship with Gong Jue?

Gu Qiqi's gaze became probing as she looked at Bai Mori.

When she met Gu Qiqi's puzzled gaze, Bai Mori raised her eyebrows and concealed her smugness.

She took two steps forward and stopped closer to Gong Jue. Although she didn't touch him, she was also quite close.

"Jue, you left in a hurry in the afternoon. Uncle and Auntie asked me to see you when I saw you. Are you still going home for dinner? If you're going back, I'll accompany you..."

Bai Mori said cordially.

It was as if accompanying Gong Jue home for a meal was an extremely common thing.

It was as if she often did this.

Gu Qiqi sat on the hospital bed and immediately felt even more embarrassed.

Why did it feel like she had ruined their family reunion?

So, Gong Jue was late for his grandfather's birthday banquet in the afternoon not because he was too busy with work, but because... he was meeting his parents in the Gong family with this woman?

Gu Qiqi felt terrible.

So, everything about Gong Jue wanting to marry her was a lie?

She vaguely felt that this happiness came too quickly and too suddenly. Although she felt that Gong Jue's performance today was too perfect and unbelievable, there was always a trace of hope in her heart. She hoped that he was sincere.

But with such a beautiful woman in front of her calling him "Jue" intimately, how was she to believe his sincerity?

Gu Qiqi's imagination ran wild.

Suddenly, Gong Jue said coldly, "Why are you here? I called for a psychiatrist!"

Uh...

Why did she feel that Gong Jue was a little cold and impatient towards this woman?

Could she have been overwhelmed by jealousy?

No, no, no. Why should she be jealous?
