

Dear Chief 341

Chapter 341:

Burning Heart of Curiosity

Bai Mori felt a little embarrassed after being scolded by Gong Jue's cold words.

But she still tried her best to put on a gentle smile. "The Head of the Psychology Department is my classmate. I'll take a look on her behalf."

It turned out that she treated mental illnesses!

She was a psychiatrist.

Gu Qiqi curled her lips. "I don't want to see you."

Bai Mori persuaded patiently, "Little girl, I'm an expert in this field. Don't be afraid. Since you're a patient that Jue brought over, you're my patient. If there's any problem, I can specially prepare medicine for you..."

However, I have the final say on what medicine to prepare.

I'll let you suffer from mental illness even without a mental illness!

But before Bai Mori could finish speaking...

Gong Jue interrupted her coldly. "Go away! Ask Bai Lang to come over."

"Why?" Bai Mori's face was lost in public once more. She couldn't maintain her elegant expression anymore.

"Because she's unhappy to let you see her!" Gong Jue's thin lips said coldly and matter-of-factly.

Bai Mori was completely defeated.

Gu Qiqi was feeling unhappy because Bai Mori kept saying that "what was Jue's was mine." Suddenly, she heard that Gong Jue was actually going to drive this female doctor away?

Eh?

Weren't they very familiar with each other?

What was going on?

Did they quarrel?

Was he throwing a tantrum?

Immediately, her heart burned with curiosity.

What exactly was Gong Jue's relationship with this woman? Could it be that this woman's status couldn't compare to that "Little Palm" lover?

She remembered that when Gong Jue received the call from “Little Palm” in the middle of the night, he would use great patience and rare tenderness to coax “Little Palm” to sleep.

Why was he so cold and impatient towards this female doctor?

Could it be that they were too familiar with each other? Thus, he could be in a bad mood without a care? Oh, that was possible.

The more she thought about it, the more curious she became.

Unfortunately, Gong Jue wasn't cooperating at all.

He glared at Bai Mori impatiently. “Why aren't you leaving yet?!”

Bai Mori said in embarrassment, “Okay then. I'll get busy first. Call me anytime if you need anything.”

Gong Jue didn't care about her deliberately friendly words at all. He turned around and focused his gaze on Gu Qiqi. He continued to examine the problem that he hadn't finished examining just now. “When will your period end?”

Gu Qiqi was speechless. Could she call that hateful woman back?

“I checked just now. A normal woman takes seven days. Why is yours taking so long?”

Gu Qiqi couldn't help but cough. “Soon... Soon, it'll be over.”

Gong Jue's eyes darkened. “Remember to report when you're done!”

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

What report? She wasn't his sidekick.

No!

Even his sidekick didn't have any reason to report the ending date of her period to the Chief, right?

Why did she feel that he was implying that he could do something impure after she was done?

She must be thinking too much!

Rubbing her forehead and trying her best to chase away those thoughts that she shouldn't have, Gu Qiqi couldn't help but ask, “You were late because of her in the morning?”

Gong Jue was silent for a moment before he replied briefly, “Yes.”

Of course, it was because of Bai Mori.

That woman actually took the initiative to hide the time needed when she was testing the medicine and caused him to fall asleep for so long.

He nearly couldn't make it to the Gu family's birthday banquet and couldn't support that stupid woman in time.

If she wasn't Bai Lang's biological younger sister, he would definitely have gotten someone to choke her to death long ago.

Gu Qiqi fell silent as well.

Gong Jue actually admitted that he was late for that female doctor.

That meant that his coldness and impatience towards the female doctor just now was purely because they were too familiar...

Oh...

She wasn't angry.

She was really not angry.

Gu Qiqi took a deep breath.

She wasn't angry, but she was furious!

Chapter 342: Your Family Members Can Be Veterinarians!

Gu Qiqi's small universe burned fiercely.

Gong Jue actually delayed their agreement because of a woman.

He was delayed so self-righteously that she could even talk about the engagement at the birthday banquet without feeling embarrassed having his heart skip a beat.

If she didn't know, she would have been coaxed by him.

She nearly believed it!

It was true that he was very, very good to her. It was also true that he had been intimate with that woman for the entire morning and even visited his parents. Wasn't he afraid of becoming a schizophrenic after having something but wanting more?

She was furious.

Gong Jue suddenly opened his mouth and broke the silence. "School starts next week. Go and change your profession!"

His commanding tone was unquestionable.

Gu Qiqi was already filled with anger. Upon hearing him say that he wanted her to change her profession, the little firecrackers in her heart immediately kept crackling.

She blurted out. "Impossible!"

It was still that word.

Her attitude was countless times more determined than before.

She definitely didn't want to change her profession.

She couldn't even rely on men anymore. Was she stupid to destroy her own future?

Gong Jue frowned. "Don't force me to change it for you myself."

The profession of a doctor was too dangerous. Today, he had only seen the knife wound on the back of her hand and already felt as if a knife was twisted in his heart.

He really couldn't imagine how he would handle the fact that she had really become an emergency doctor and was seriously injured while on duty.

Gu Qiqi glared back. "Ha, what do you want to change it to?"

"Anything. A veterinarian can do it too."

Gu Qiqi laughed coldly. "...That's impossible!"

You can be a veterinarian! Your entire family can be veterinarians!

Gong Jue frowned even more tightly.

This stupid woman was actually so resistant?

What was so good about that lousy clinical medicine major? Wasn't it better to study veterinary medicine? After graduating, he would open a pet hospital for her. Since she had nothing to do, she would take care of small animals. There was no danger at all...

She was still too young and didn't know the sins and fears hidden in this world.

Once she chose the wrong profession, she might walk on a very dangerous path in the future.

Should he make this decision for her?

Actually, he could have discussed it with her properly. The problem was that this stupid woman was too infuriating. Once she said the words "impossible", how was he going to discuss it with her?!

The room fell into a frozen silence.

Outside the door.

Bai Mori, who had been eavesdropping in the corridor and hadn't left, blinked lightly. The corners of her lips curved up happily.

"I thought that this country girl was some powerful character? It turns out that she's nothing much! She actually doesn't know Jue's temper at all. She actually dares to go against Jue. Her tone is so arrogant and not gentle! Jue won't stay by such an insensible girl's side for long..."

Bai Mori muttered to herself in her heart and left satisfied.

In the room.

The two of them were in a stalemate for a moment.

Gong Jue stood by the window alone for a while and calmed down.

He was about to say something when...

Suddenly, the ward door was pushed open.

Bai Lang shouted excitedly, "D*mn it! D*mn it! I heard that the little vixen has a mental illness? This is my forte! You've finally discovered my powerful value, right?"

Gu Qiqi's face darkened.

Bai Lang laughed. "I wasn't completely excited. I mean, I have many years of experience in treating Jue's mental illness..."

Gong Jue's face darkened.

Bai Lang blinked his amorous eyes innocently. He didn't understand why the two of them were so fierce to him.

"Let's check if she has any psychological trauma from the fight." Gong Jue said in annoyance, "You're not allowed to touch her the entire time!"

Bai Lang was speechless. How was he going to check her without touching her?

Alright, he actually had a newly researched detector that specializes in detecting mental illnesses. He didn't have to do it himself!

Wait a minute!

Any young doctor could examine psychological trauma.

Why did Gong Jue have to torment him?

Had he fallen into this trap that they had dug for him again?

Chapter 343: Secretly Changing Professions

Bai Lang's amorous eyes shifted and he carefully probed. "Then, I'll look for my younger sister to help with the examination."

Gong Jue's face sank. "I don't want a woman. I want a machine!"

Bai Lang was dumbfounded.

D*mn it. It was actually real.

Gong Jue actually knew that he had an apparatus to solve the problem.

Gong Jue did this so that the male doctor wouldn't touch Gu Qiqi, and he didn't want the female doctor to touch Gu Qiqi either. Only instruments could touch her?

Damn it! His possessiveness was too strong!

Why did he have the feeling that he wasn't here to treat illnesses but to be fed dog food?!

It's immoral to torture dogs!

Bai Lang returned gloomily to move the apparatus over.

After carefully calculating a few indicators, he came to a conclusion. "The little demon isn't sick... No, wait!"

Gong Jue became nervous. "What's the problem?"

"Oh, she's a little tense. She's thinking too much..." Bai Lang muttered and looked at Gu Qiqi with a meaningful look in his eyes. "Are you thinking about how to seal my Little Jue's heart all day long?"

Gu Qiqi rolled her eyes at him.

Gong Jue's lips curved up slightly.

Really?

Did that stupid woman really pay attention to him all day long?

After fooling around in the hospital, it was already dark.

Special Assistant Lu drove over and whispered something to Gong Jue.

"Master Jue, one of the corpses was stolen from S Nation. It has been verified that it was that leader that Young Lady Qiqi killed. His identity is that of a Colonel from S Nation."

"Aren't you ashamed for a corpse to be stolen under your watch?!"

"I'm sorry, Master Jue. Please punish me! I didn't expect that they would even steal the corpse. The brothers have already tracked them down and destroyed their hiding spots..."

"Continue investigating! If you don't wipe out those scumbags, all of you can change your professions for me!"

"Yes!"

Special Assistant Lu complied and couldn't help but think in his heart. It wasn't the first time that Master Jue had experienced an assassination over the years. It was simply as ordinary as eating candy. He didn't take it seriously at all.

But this time, Master Jue took those enemies very seriously and was especially ruthless.

Perhaps, it was because those people had injured Young Lady Qiqi?

He couldn't help but take a look at Gu Qiqi and feel emotional.

Gu Qiqi was far away and could only vaguely hear the words "secretly" and "change professions"...

Her heart skipped a beat.

Was Gong Jue instructing Special Assistant Lu to secretly change her profession for her?

Otherwise, why would Special Assistant Lu suddenly look at her with such a complicated expression?

The anxiety in her heart gradually rose.

Until she sat in Number One, she still couldn't calm down.

"Why are you following me?" Gong Jue looked at Bai Lang, who had squeezed into the front row, in annoyance.

Bai Lang blinked his amorous eyes. "I'm a genius doctor with medical ethics. I have to follow the patient's situation."

"Didn't you say that she wasn't sick?"

"Ahem... I... I miss Xiaobei. I want to spar with him using robots."

Bai Lang refused to get out of the car no matter what.

He had a feeling that there was something wrong between Gong Jue and Gu Qiqi today. He had to follow the gossip!

Unfortunately, he soon regretted using the wrong reason.

Once he entered, he pulled Xiaobei along and challenged his robot. "Come, come, come. My Xiao Bai has just changed his titanium alloy arm. This time, he will definitely be able to beat your Brother Yun down! Hey, wait a minute! It hasn't even begun yet! Damn it! Why did you KO my Xiao Bai with one move again?! Your Brother Yun actually knows how to bite people. This doesn't make sense! You actually installed fake teeth on your robot to bite off my Xiao Bai's data wire. You're too savage!!"

Bai Lang wailed and watched as the robot controlled by Xiaobei defeated his robot again.

He could only turn around and seek other comfort.

His pair of amorous eyes turned around and finally locked onto the sachet that Gong Jue carried with him...

Chapter 344: The Person That Gong Jue Protected

Bai Lang smiled wickedly and pointed at Gong Jue's sachet. "Master Jue, can you let me admire it?"

Gong Jue's expression was cold. "No."

Bai Lang was speechless. What a stingy Little Jue!

However, he couldn't get over it.

He turned around and asked Xiaobei, "Xiaobei, let me see your sachet."

Xiaobei was very straightforward. "Okay."

He untied it and handed it to him.

Bai Lang took out a bag with crude workmanship that looked like a sachet from his waist. "Actually, I made one too. It doesn't look as good as yours, but do you know that what I have here is 200-year-old Ambergris?! Heh heh, Little Qiqi only gave you 100 years, right? Don't look at the 100-year difference. The value and fragrance are worlds apart! Come, smell mine!"

He was extremely pleased and showed off the Ambergris that he had bought from "Grandma Ye."

How was it?

This move could kill the little demon instantly.

He stole a glance at Gu Qiqi and saw that she was stirring a salad on the kitchen counter. She was calm and composed. She didn't look like she had been defeated.

How boring!

Xiaobei pinched his sachet and shook his head. "I don't think that your Ambergris is better than my older sister's."

Bai Lang hissed. "Hey, hey. Do you dare to make a bet? You actually said that I can't compare to your older sister? Mine is from 200 years ago! If you don't believe me, take out the core and compete with me!"

"Sure. If you lose, remove Xiao Bai's titanium alloy arm and for my Brother Yun as a biting stick."

Bai Lang was speechless. Damn it! This was blatant humiliation!

Wait a minute. What was he afraid of?

He had 200 years' worth of Ambergris.

He wanted to kill Gu Qiqi in seconds.

It would be Gu Qiqi and the rest who would lose.

Bai Lang stiffened his neck. "Sure! If you lose, get Gu Qiqi to wipe my shoes and apologize to me!"

Gong Jue's cold gaze landed on him.

Bai Lang coughed and changed his words. "No, I want her to bow 180 degrees and admit that she's inferior to me!"

Gu Qiqi, who was in front of the kitchen counter, said unhurriedly, "Okay."

Bai Lang carefully took out that precious 200-year-old Ambergris from the bag smugly.

Xiaobei fumbled around and also retrieved the Ambergris from the sachet.

Two pieces of spices were placed on the white marble coffee table.

Immediately, the superiority was revealed!

One piece was nearly transparent in quality, and the other was light brown.

Bai Lang's eyes widened!

This was the first time in his life that he had seen Ambergris with a texture that was close to transparent. Damn it. How many hundreds of years would it take for it to precipitate in such a transparent texture?

His hands trembled and he looked at Gu Qiqi in disbelief. "You're lying. The last time you took it out was a hundred years old..."

Gu Qiqi said lightly, "You already said that was the last time. It's different now."

Bai Lang said, "You tricked me! Roar!"

Xiaobei said, "Brother Bai, Brother Yun wants to eat Xiao Bai's titanium alloy arm..."

Bai Lang was driven mad.

He was clearly here to listen to gossip. Why was he and his robot tortured to the point of being nothing?

No, he had to call the pharmacy manager immediately and get that Grandma Ye to quickly get some awesome herbs over so that she could help him kill the little demon in seconds!

Gong Jue quietly pressed down on his sachet.

He really wanted to open it and see if the Ambergris inside was hundreds of years old.

Was it the same as Xiaobei's?

If it wasn't, you're dead meat, stupid woman!

But it just so happened that he was embarrassed to open it on the spot in front of so many people. He was holding it in so badly!

That was until he heard Bai Lang, Gu Qiqi and Xiaobei fooling around after finishing their meal, and he returned to his room to take a shower.

Gong Jue finally had the chance to open the sachet.

At that moment, his lips curved up.

"Stupid woman, at least you still have a conscience... I'll think about changing your profession again..."

Although the Gong family didn't accept a doctor as a daughter-in-law and it was so dangerous to be a female doctor, as long as she was someone that Gong Jue wanted to protect, how could he let her suffer any losses?!

Chapter 345: Remember to Go Home and Sleep At Night

That night.

Gu Qiqi slept in the master bedroom alone while Gong Jue slept in the study room.

However, at midnight, in Gu Qiqi's daze, she felt that her stomach was warm. It was as if a warm little sun was shining gently on her...

==

For the next few days, Gong Jue seemed to be very busy. He went out early and returned late.

Gu Qiqi was also busy preparing for school.

Xiao Ning came to the Imperial Capital to report and agreed to meet her at school on the day school reopened.

She had gone to the laboratory a few times to finish some work. Professor Zhou was very reluctant to part with her and also agreed to help after school started.

Finally, it was the day of school.

Early in the morning, Gu Qiqi packed her things and went out in a simple and clean white shirt, jeans, and white shoes.

She was stunned when she pushed open the door.

Number One actually stopped at the door.

Didn't Gong Jue go out early in the morning?

Special Assistant Lu opened the car door and said with a smile, "Young Lady Qiqi, school starts today, right? Hurry up and get into the car. Don't be late."

Gu Qiqi thought about it and agreed. Mansion Number 0 was located at the top of Qing Cheng Mountain.

It would take more than half an hour to walk all the way to a place with a bus.

Yes, it was time to buy a car for herself.

Eh, why wasn't her first reaction to move away? Gu Qiqi secretly despised herself for being useless. It wasn't that she couldn't leave this stupid man, but Xiaobei needed the good education and safe environment here.

When she had the ability to provide Xiaobei with the same environment, she would definitely leave without hesitation.

The little dirty turtle muttered secretly, "Master Silver, can this be considered killing the donkey after it has outlived its usefulness? It's not too fair to Little Jue..."

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

Her face heated up as she crawled into the backseat of the car. Immediately, she felt a chill!

Damn it! Gong Jue was actually sitting upright in the backseat of the car!

She thought that Special Assistant Lu would only send her alone!

In the driver's seat in the front row, Special Assistant Lu scratched his head in embarrassment. "Young Lady Qiqi, I forgot to say that it happened that Master Jue's destination is also on the way. Heh heh..."

Gu Qiqi was speechless. Was there really such a coincidence?

Fortunately, Gong Jue was holding a document in his hand and didn't even look at her.

The embarrassment subsided a little.

Finally, she made it to the school gate. Gu Qiqi got out of the car as if she was escaping.

The moment the car door closed, the man's cold voice traveled from the crack in the car. "Remember to go home and sleep tonight."

Sleep?

Gu Qiqi nearly choked to death on her saliva!

No, no, no! She wanted to stay on campus! She wanted to stay on campus!

With a thumping heart, Gu Qiqi walked through the school corridor.

The school was bustling with people. Almost all of them were freshmen and a few senior students welcomed new students. Everyone's faces were filled with indescribable joy.

Perhaps university was very fun for them.

But to Gu Qiqi, all of this wasn't attractive.

Her motive for entering university was very clear. She wanted to learn more knowledge and treat Xiaobei's illness!

After receiving the new student report and the process, the first stop was to go to the small hall to listen to the lecture of the outstanding graduates. Then, the students went to the various academies to collect some information and were assigned dormitories.

Gu Qiqi arrived early. Once she entered the small hall, there were actually a few empty seats for her to sit on.

She casually chose a seat nearby.

The girls in the front row were discussing excitedly.

"Senior Mu is so handsome! He was actually the one who came to our first lecture when school started..."

"I knew it long ago. My father said that Senior Mu is a business genius. He expanded his family's business overseas at a young age!"

"More importantly, such a handsome Senior Mu doesn't have a girlfriend yet. My older sister is doing an internship in his company and said that he's a real golden bachelor..."

As Gu Qiqi listened to everyone's discussion, her eyes gradually turned cold.

Mu Liuchuan!

Very good. She was about to end the engagement and this person delivered himself to her door.

Chapter 346: First Meeting with Bai Yingzhu

The man on the rostrum was dressed in a suit and looked like a business elite.

Before the lecture started, a few bold girls surrounded him and pestered him for an autograph.

The man revealed a polite smile and satisfied them one by one. He took care of every one of them and didn't neglect any of them.

Gu Qiqi looked on coldly.

Indeed, Mu Liuchuan was still that Mu Liuchuan!

He would always pretend to be an impeccable gentleman in front of people!

In her previous life, after he formed an engagement with her, he started an intimate relationship with Gu Xuexue.

Back then, she treated Gu Xuexue as her biological younger sister. She naively thought that Mu Liuchuan also treated Gu Xuexue as his biological younger sister and took care of her. But who knew that in the end, they actually teamed up to deliver a fatal blow to her!

She had always foolishly thought that although the two of them had been engaged for many years, they had never had skin-to-skin contact because Mu Liuchuan was a real man.

Only before she died did she know the truth. It turned out that Mu Liuchuan had found out that she had lost her virginity back then and despised her.

This gentlemanly appearance fooled her so badly!

At this moment, among the surrounding infatuated and admiring voices, only Gu Qiqi was very awake.

Her long and slender fingers pressed against the marriage token and engagement book that she had brought along with her in her bag.

She was about to return the things to Mu Liuchuan before the lecture started.

Suddenly, an extremely savage voice sounded by her side. "Who took my place?!"

Immediately, someone obsequiously chimed in. "That's right. Your dog eyes aren't wrong. Didn't you see that we have reserved the seats in advance? How shameless!"

Gu Qiqi didn't care at first. She only wondered how there could be such unruly people in a university.

She just saw a book placed in the middle of this row just now.

Thus, she deliberately sat by the side.

Could it be that these people were so domineering that they wanted to occupy a row with just a book?

But then, there was a loud bang.

Someone kicked her chair, making her frown.

She turned around coldly and saw a girl dressed in a Lolita style with an entitled look on her face. She was standing behind her with her hands on her hips. Beside her were a few girls dressed exaggeratedly in branded clothing.

If people didn't offend her, she wouldn't offend them. But if people offended her...

Gu Qiqi's eyes turned cold. "The dogs are barking so loudly. Those who don't know might think that these dogs have rabies."

Those girls initially thought that Gu Qiqi would give up her seat obediently. They didn't expect Gu Qiqi to actually not move an inch and even retort.

Immediately, they surrounded Gu Qiqi!

Sitting behind Gu Qiqi was a skinny girl. Looking at her posture, she was frightened. She hurriedly poked Gu Qiqi's back and whispered kindly, "Classmate, you're from another place, right? You can't afford to provoke them. They're the little princesses of the Imperial Capital's high society. They were famous for being domineering in high school in the past. Their family backgrounds are very formidable, especially that Bai Yingzhu. You mustn't offend her! You should give in and admit your mistake, alright?"

Admit defeat? Apologize?

She wasn't even willing to concede to Gong Jue's softness.

Would she still be convinced by these brats?

Just because she was a student from another city, she was inferior?

Gu Qiqi remained calm.

Those few girls thought that she was afraid and immediately became even more arrogant.

The leader of the "little princesses" raised her chin to the sky. "I order you now. Not only do you have to give up your seat, but you also have to lick my seat clean!"

Gu Qiqi looked up lightly as if she was looking at an idiot. "I really want to know where you got your courage and confidence from to bark all the way until now."

The little princess was so angry that her expression was distorted. "Seems like you want to do this the hard way, right? Hold her down and slap her!"

She really treated herself as a princess!

Chapter 347: Divorce In Public

Gu Qiqi stared coldly at the two girls who had rushed over barbarically to twist her hand.

Her hands were as fast as lightning. No one could see how she moved.

"Ah!!!"

The two girls screamed in pain and withdrew their wrists in a sorry state!

How terrifying!

This girl from another country was so terrifying!

Their hands were about to break.

When the little princess Bai Yingzhu saw that her people had been defeated, the anger in her heart surged. "Haven't you eaten breakfast? You actually can't even beat a country bumpkin? Go!"

Gu Qiqi was in a bad mood.

She cracked his wrists.

Alright, I'll treat it as training by using a real person as a punching bag!

Unknowingly, the faint coldness in her eyes actually made the hearts of those girls jump. For a moment, they didn't dare to go forward!

Bai Ying became anxious. "Stupid! You—"

Before she could finish speaking...

Gu Qiqi's long and slender fingers had already gripped her throat.

She said coolly, "A dog with rabies will be incinerated on the spot. Why don't you bark again?"

Her gaze was so cold that it was shocking!

How could Bai Yingzhu still say anything? Her throat was tightly gripped and she couldn't even breathe. Her face flushed red. "Cough, cough, cough..."

At this moment, a gentlemanly male voice rang out from outside the crowd. "Junior sisters, talk nicely. Don't bully the students from other places. Just treat it as giving me face..."

The group of girls immediately became obedient.

"Senior Mu!"

"Senior, we didn't bully anyone. We were just joking!"

"Senior, you look even more handsome up close. We definitely have to give you face..."

Mu Liuchuan pushed through the crowd and walked closer.

"Qiqi, it's really you!" Her tone was filled with pleasant surprise.

But... the situation in front of him didn't seem to be the case of Gu Qiqi being bullied. Could it be that he had seen wrongly just now?

The female students saw that Mu Liuchuan actually knew Gu Qiqi.

Immediately, the way they looked at Gu Qiqi changed.

Could it be that this girl had some background?

"Do you know Senior Mu?"

"Is Senior Mu trying to be a hero by saving a beauty?"

"Senior Mu, don't be angry. This must be a misunderstanding!"

Faced with everyone's questioning, Mu Liuchuan smiled like a gentleman with some pride. "Qiqi is my future..."

Before she could say the words "fiancée"...

Gu Qiqi's long and slender fingers suddenly withdrew from Bai Ying's neck.

She quickly flipped through her bag and stuffed two things into Mu Liuchuan's hands in the very next second. "I'll return them the same way. There's nothing between you and me anymore. From now on, don't say that I know you! It's embarrassing to be in your presence!"

After throwing her things away, Gu Qiqi left directly. She couldn't be bothered to look at Mu Liuchuan the entire time.

Mu Liuchuan stood rooted to the ground in embarrassment.

He was indeed planning to be a hero saving a beauty.

At such an occasion, he would definitely be able to leave an unforgettable impression on the other party.

However... Gu Qiqi actually rejected him.

In other words, his face was worthless in her eyes!

It had only been half a year since they last met. Why did Qiqi change so much?

That fierce tone and arrogant actions made her seem like a different person.

Was she still that taciturn, low-key, and shy Gu Qiqi who only knew how to bury her head in her books and was even embarrassed to call him Brother Liuchuan?

Mu Liuchuan was a little stunned.

Bai Yingzhu was so angry that she was about to explode on the spot. "Senior Mu, do you know that country bumpkin? Who is she? What's her name? I'm not done with her!"

The female classmate next to her was even more curious about the things Gu Qiqi handed to Mu Liuchuan. "Senior, what did she give you? What does it mean that she has nothing to do with you anymore? Have you guys dated before? She actually said that it was embarrassing to get to know you. Isn't she too arrogant?"

Only then did Mu Liuchuan wake up from his daze.

He lowered his head to open that pocket-sized jewelry box and looked at that red letter. He was immediately stunned.

That was their Mu family's marriage token and marriage contract!

Gu Qiqi actually canceled their marriage in public!

Chapter 348: Bai Yingzhu Was Tricked

Mu Liuchuan's face immediately burned.

It was as if he had been slapped ruthlessly.

It was his first time meeting Gu Qiqi in the Imperial Capital. She actually gave him such a big shock!

Rejecting the marriage?!

The Gu family in Qing Cheng had already been defeated, and the Mu family was at their peak. She actually broke off the engagement first!

This was simply a great humiliation.

He could clearly feel that the junior sisters—who initially admired him—seemed to be looking at him with strange gazes that pierced his spine.

He quickly put away the engagement token and the engagement book. A flawless elite smile quickly returned to his face. “She likes to joke. Everyone, don’t mind her. Alright, it’s time for the lecture. Everyone, aren’t you prepared to listen to me talk about the ‘twelve moves to easily settle into university life?’”

Mu Liuchuan was indeed a businessman. He still had the ability to smooth things over.

In a few words, he coaxed the students until they became passionate again.

“Senior, you should tell us the twelve moves that you used to settle in. Haha...”

“Senior, I can’t wait to hear it!”

“Senior, so you’re still a golden bachelor without a girlfriend, right?”

Everyone crowded around Mu Liuchuan as he returned to the stage.

They seemed to have forgotten Gu Qiqi’s little episode just now.

Bai Yingzhu snorted and sat down. “Mu Liuchuan didn’t tell me the identity of that country bumpkin. Hmph! Can’t I check it myself?! Get the Student Union chairman to bring me the list of all the new students! Ah—It hurts!”

Bai Yingzhu sat on the chair that Gu Qiqi had just sat on.

For some reason, after sitting for less than three seconds, the chair actually collapsed!

She fell onto her back.

Most importantly, when she tried to stand up with help, the laces on her skirt scraped against something at the foot of the chair.

She tripped again and her mouth landed on the chair seat.

She did her best and fulfilled her request to Gu Qiqi just now—lick the chair clean!

The students nearby wanted to laugh but didn’t dare to.

Bai Yingzhu’s face darkened and she went crazy. “I’m not listening to the lecture anymore! I must find that little b*tch! Immediately! Immediately!”

The person who made her fall and lick the chair must be that country bumpkin from just now!

==

Gu Qiqi left the lecture venue and went straight to the freshmen reporting venu.

“Classmate, have you finished listening to the lecture?”

“You must finish listening to the lecture before you can report it?”

“That’s right.”

Gu Qiqi was speechless.

She took a deep breath and looked at the time. There was still an hour.

Alright, then she would walk around the school campus.

Familiarizing herself with the environment was better than listening to that hypocrite Mu Liuchuan’s speech.

As she walked, she realized that the Imperial Medical University’s campus was still very beautiful. There were pavilions with small flower beds. At the end of the remote area, there was even a big natural lake.

The lakeside was covered in green trees. There were actually many towering ancient trees surrounded by a few people. They were filled with a spiritual aura.

What was rare was that this place was almost empty!

Oh, it wasn’t a bad idea to train here in the future.

As she was thinking about this, she bumped into an old man with white hair. He was practicing martial arts under a hundred-year-old phoenix tree.

Gu Qiqi tilted her small head and looked at him for a while. She couldn’t help but say, “You made a mistake in your movements.”

The old man snorted coldly. “What do you know?!”

Gu Qiqi said, “Eh... I don’t know anything else, but I do know a little about this Five Animal Mimicry.”

As she spoke, she demonstrated smoothly what was wrong with the old man’s imitation of an eagle.

The old man’s eyes lit up. “Wait for me for an hour. I’ll be back soon!”

As he spoke, he instructed repeatedly, “Stay there and don’t move! Wait for me to return!”

Gu Qiqi was speechless. “But I still have to report to...”

However, the old man had already walked like the wind and disappeared behind the forest.

Chapter 349: Thrown to the veterinary school

Were old people so stubborn these days?

Gu Qiqi laughed and shook her head helplessly.

She sat by the lake for a while and stretched her limbs.

An hour passed. The old man wasn’t here yet, but she had to report to him.

"I'm sorry, but let's meet again if we're fated, Grandpa!" Gu Qiqi looked at this comfortable and quiet place and had to leave.

She took the time to return to the freshman registration counter.

This time, the senior who was in charge of receiving her had no choice but to send her the information.

"This is your dormitory key. The four of you can share a room. Go and collect your daily necessities yourself. Hand the tuition fees to this account. Take a look at the school rules seriously. Also, the first big thing that will happen when school reopens is the school tournament. Anyway, your veterinary school is also the last place. You can just take a look at this..."

Gu Qiqi was seriously flipping through the things to take note of in school.

She suddenly heard the words "veterinary school".

She looked up with a sharp gaze. "What did you say?"

That senior was stunned. "Ah? I said that you don't have any chances to win an award in the school competition. You can just take a look."

"No, the previous sentence."

"The first sentence... Pay the fees! Don't tell me that you don't have money? We're not a charity here. If you delay the tuition fees, you'll be expelled immediately!"

Gu Qiqi's eyes had already turned cold. "Which school do you think I'm from?"

"Veterinary school." The senior tapped the student list impatiently. "Don't you know your own college entrance exam application form?"

Gu Qiqi looked over. Indeed, on the black and white admission list, she was assigned to the veterinary school.

Her mind exploded.

How could she be a veterinarian?!

She had gone through so much to change her professional ambitions and take the examinations so that she could enter the best medical school and professional clinical medicine. But now, everything had turned into nothing?

She wasn't saying that veterinary medicine wasn't good, but this wasn't the route she wanted to take.

Amidst her shock, a mocking voice traveled from behind her. "Heh heh, you were so arrogant at the lecture just now. I thought that you had some background. It turns out that you're just a scumbag from the veterinary school! You have the cheek to snatch a seat from our clinical medicine school?"

Bai Yingzhu brought her people closer to gloat at Gu Qiqi's misfortune.

Gu Qiqi didn't have the time to pay attention to her. She faced the senior and tried her best to remain calm and collected. "Please help me check if there's been a mistake?"

“What’s there to check? This is an official list. There’s definitely no mistake.” The senior who was in charge of receiving them was already very impatient. “Next!”

She had a look on his face that said, “Don’t cause trouble here.”

Bai Yinglu was happy. She squinted and mocked Gu Qiqi. “Who doesn’t know that veterinary school is the worst profession in the Empire Medical University? Don’t you know your own capabilities? Don’t embarrass yourself here!”

The rich girls around Bai Yingzhu spoke even more sarcastically.

Amidst the ridicule, the next student who came to report rushed up.

When that senior saw the other party’s face, she immediately squeezed out an extremely passionate smile. “Hey, you’re the Little Miss that Director Bai said was reporting today, right? Come, come, come. We’ve already prepared a special channel for you. Why are you still lined up? Seriously, you’re too humble...”

This extremely hospitable attitude was simply a stark contrast to her disdain for Gu Qiqi just now.

Even Bai Yingzhu’s expression changed.

Damn it, Director Bai?

Her uncle, Bai Yeyuan, actually called and took care of an outsider personally! But he didn’t instruct the school to take care of her! On what basis wasn’t she the little princess of the Bai family?

However, when the other party’s charming and adorable face appeared, he completely ignored the flattering senior sister and the unhappy Bai Yingzhu.

Instead, her eyes lit up as she stared at Gu Qiqi.

In fact, she stretched out his arm and hugged Gu Qiqi. “Beauty, I’ve missed you to death!”

“Uh...”

Chapter 350: I Can’t Tolerate It!

Long time no see.

Little Master Xiao Ning hugged Gu Qiqi and didn’t let go. “Beauty Qi, what happened? Why are they so fierce towards you?”

Gu Qiqi explained briefly.

Xiao Ning was immediately horrified.

The friend-protecting demon took over her body in a second. She placed her hands on her hips and said angrily, “Hey, hey! You have to figure this out! My Beauty Qi is a top scholar. She got in with the first overall score. She originally applied for clinical medicine. On what basis are you changing her profession?! Not unless I’ve agreed!”

Gu Qiqi had only calmly negotiated with the senior previously, but the students behind her didn't know. They even complained that she had delayed everyone's time to register.

At this moment, Xiao Ning's style was completely different. She simply had the attitude of "no one in this world can provoke my best friend."

Everyone heard this loud roar and immediately looked at each other.

"She's Gu Qiqi? That perverted genius who took the exam live on the Internet?"

"Oh my god. I saw the live-stream. She scored full marks for everything. What major can't she attend? She actually used them to be a veterinarian?"

"Has the school gone crazy?"

Everyone's discussion made the senior feel a little embarrassed.

Bai Yingzhu was puzzled. She asked the person next to her, "What live-stream? What's the big deal?"

After hearing the explanation of the people around her, her expression became as bad as the senior sister. There were cracks on her face.

D*mn it. That country bumpkin actually stole so much attention and was so awesome.

But...

So what?

Wasn't she still thrown into a poor school now?

And she relied on the Bai family's relationship to enter the best school as usual? Heh heh!

Bai Yingzhu gloated. "What's the big deal about having good grades for the college entrance exam? Haven't you heard of high scores but low abilities? Let me tell you, you can cheat people with your grades in high school. In university, that depends on your ability!"

The senior also reacted and pulled a long face. "That's right. Since you've been assigned to the veterinary school, it means that the clinical medicine school has gone through a screening process and thinks that you're lacking in ability. They don't want you! Why do you have to make everyone explain to you again before you're willing to give up?"

Upon hearing this, the students who were initially very respectful of Gu Qiqi in the crowd hesitated.

High scores and low abilities...

It turned out that this girl was just a bookworm.

She was one of those useless people who only knew how to take examinations.

Tsk. Tsk. That was the type of person they despised more than low scorers.

Faced with basin after basin of dirty water being splashed on her, Xiao Ning was about to jump like thunder. She nearly rolled up her sleeves and wanted to have a fight with the senior and Bai Yingzhu on the spot.

She actually bullied her Beauty Qi. She can't tolerate it anymore.

Gu Qiqi stopped her.

Xiao Ning was puzzled. "Qiqi, why did you stop me? I want to stand up for you and tear their smelly mouths to pieces!"

"I don't waste time with idiots."

"Alright, I won't reason with them. I'll talk with my fists, okay? I can't hold back the primitive power in my body anymore. These people deserve a beating!"

"There will be a chance to satisfy you." Gu Qiqi squinted. "But not now."

"Ah, Qiqi, where are you pulling me to?"

"Clinical Medical School."

"What for?"

"I want an explanation!"

Only then did Xiao Ning realize what was going on.

That's right. What was the use of quarreling with Bai Yingzhu and the seniors? The person who made the decision to adjust her profession was definitely the school's leader. She had to settle scores with them.

That's right!

Qiqi was wise and powerful. She was calm and collected.

Xiao Ning happily followed Gu Qiqi to the clinical medicine school.

On the way, she reported a lot of gossip from Qing Cheng. For example, Yao Dazhuang's sudden death and Zhu Fen's failure to attend school... That cowardly class monitor was taking the worst medicine school...

Gu Qiqi knew that she was doing this to help her relax and not be unhappy.

Smiling lightly, she asked Xiao Ning, "What about you? How are you doing with your uncle?"
